1 Saul's overthrow and death. 2 The Philistines triumph over Saul. 3 The kindness of Jabesh-gilead towards Saul and his sons. 4 Saul's sin, for which the kingdom was translated from him to David.

NOW the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain in mount Gilboa.

2 And the Philistines followed hard after Saul, and after his sons; and the Philistines slew Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchishua, the sons of Saul.

3 And the battle went sore against Saul, and the archers hit him, and he was wounded of the archers.

4 Then said Saul to his armour-bearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith; lest these uncircumcised come and abuse me. But his armourbearer would not; for he was sore afraid. So Saul took a sword, and fell upon it.

5 And when his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise on the sword, and died.

6 So Saul died, and his three sons, and all his house died together.

7 And when all the men of Israel that were in the valley saw that they fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, then they forsook their cities, and fled: and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

8 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen in mount Gilboa.

9 And when they had stripped him, they took his head, and his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to carry tidings unto their idols, and to the people.

10 ¶ And they put his armour in the house of their gods, and fastened his head in the temple of Dagon.

11 ¶ And when all Jabesh-gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul, 12 They arose, all the vallant men, and took away the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

13 ¶ So Saul died for his transgression which he committed against the LORD, even against the word of the LORD, which he kept not, and also for asking counsel of one that had a familiar spirit, to enquire of it;

14 And enquired not of the LORD: therefore he slew him, and turned the kingdom unto David the son of Jesse.

CHAPTER XI.

1 David by a general consent is made king at Hebron. 4 He seizeth the castle of Zion from the Jebusites by Joab's valour. 10 A catalogue of David's mighty men.

¶ AIEN ¶ All Israel gathered themselves to David unto Hebron, saying, Behold, we are thy bone and thy flesh.

2 And moreover in time past, even when Saul was king, thou wast he that leddest out and broughtest in Israel: and the LORD thy God said unto thee, Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be ruler over my people Israel.

3 Therefore came all the elders of Israel to the king to Hebron; and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the LORD; and they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the LORD by Samuel.

4 ¶ And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem, which is Jebus; where the Jebusites were, the inhabitants of the land.

5 And the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, Thou shalt not come hither. Nevertheless David took the castle of Zion, which is the city of David.

6 And David said, Whosoever smiteth the Jebusites first shall be chief and captain. So Joab the son of Zeruiah went first up, and was chief.

7 And David dwelt in the castle; therefore they called it the city of David.

8 And he built the city round about, even from Millo round about: and Joab repaired the rest of the city.

9 So David waxed greater and greater: for the LORD of hosts was with him.

10 ¶ These also are the chief of the mighty men whom David had, who strengthened themselves with him in his kingdom, and with all Israel, to make him king, according to the word of the LORD concerning Israel.

11 And this is the number of the mighty men whom David had; Jashobeam, an Hachmonite, the chief of the captains: he lifted up his spear against three hundred slain by him at one time.

12 And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighty men.

13 He was with David at Pas-dammim, and there the Philistines were gathered together to battle, where was a parcel of ground full of barley; and the people fled from before the Philistines.

14 And they set themselves in the midst of that parcel, and delivered it, and slew the Philistines; and the LORD saved them by a great deliverance.

15 ¶ Now three of the thirty captains went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the host of the Philistines encamped in the valley of Rephaim.

16 And David was then in the hold, and the Philistines' garrison was then at Beth-lehem.

17 And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, that is at the gate!

18 And the three brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: but David would not drink of it, but poured it out to the LORD.

19 And said, My God forbid it me, that I should do this thing: shall I drink the blood of these men that have put their lives in jeopardy? for with the jeopardy of their lives they

NOW ¶ these are they that came to David to Ziklag, while he yet kept himself close because of Saul the son of Kish; and they were among the mighty men, helpers of the war. 2 They were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left in hurling stones and shooting arrows out of a bow, even of Saul's brethren of Benjamin. 3 The chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, the sons of Shemumah the Gibeathite; and Jeziel, and Pelet, the sons of Aznaveth; and Berachah, and Jehu the Antothite, 4 And Ismahel the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty; and Jeremiai, and Jahaziel, and Johanan, and Jossabad the Gederathite, 5 Eluzai, and Jerimoth, and Bealliah, and Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite, 6 Elkanah, and Jesiah, and Azareel, and Jozeer, and Jashobeam, the Korhites, 7 And Joelah, and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham of Gedor. 8 And of the Gadites there separated themselves unto David into the hold to the wilderness men of night, and men of war fit for the battle, that could handle shield and buckler, whose faces were like the faces of lions, and were as swift as the roes upon the mountains; 9 Ezer the first, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third, 10 Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth, 11 Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh, 12 Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth, 13 Jeremiah the tenth, Machbannai the eleventh. 14 These were of the sons of Gad, captains of the host: one of the least was over an hundred, and the greatest over a thousand. 15 These are they that went over Jordan in the first month, when it had overflowed all his banks; and they put to flight all them of the valleys, both toward the east, and toward the west. 16 And there came of the children of	cl. 1008. 1 Sam. 27. 2. 17 Sam. 27. 6. 3 Heb. being yet shut up. 4 Judg. 20. 16. 4 Or, Jarmach.

17 And David went out to meet them, and answered and said unto them, If ye be come peaceably unto me to help me, mine heart shall be knit unto you: but if ye be come to betray me to mine enemies, seeing there is no wrong in mine hands, the God of our fathers look thereon, and rebuke it.

18 Then the spirit came upon Amaasai, who was chief of the captains, and he said, Thine are we, David, and on thy side, thou son of Jesse:
peace, peace be unto thee, and peace be to thine helpers; for thy God help-eth thee. Then David received them, and made them captains of the band.

19 And there fell some of Manasseh to David, when he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle: but they helped them not: for the lords of the Philistines upon advice-ment sent him away, saying, He will fall to his master Saul to the jeopardy of our heads.

20 As he went to Ziklag, there fell to him of Manasseh, Adnah, and Jozabad, and Jedaiel, and Michael, and Jozabad, and Elihu, and Zithai, captains of the thousands that were of Manasseh.

21 And they helped David against the band of the rovers: for they were all mighty men of valour, and were captains in the host.

22 For at that time day by day there came to David to help him, until it was a great host, like the host of God.

23 ¶ And these are the numbers of the bands that were ready armed to the war, and came to David to Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of the Lord.

24 The children of Judah that bare shield and spear were six thousand and eight hundred, ready armed to the war.

25 Of the children of Simeon, mighty men of valour for the war, seven thousand and one hundred.

26 Of the children of Levi four thousand and six hundred.

27 And Jehoiada was the leader of the Aaronites, and with him were three thousand and seven hundred:

28 And Zadok, a young man mighty of valour, and of his father's house twenty and two captains.

29 And of the children of Benjamin, the kindred of Saul, three thousand: for hitherto the greatest part of them had kept the ward of the house of Saul.

30 And of the children of Ephraim twenty thousand and eight hundred, mighty men of valour, famous throughout the house of their fathers.

31 And of the half tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, which were expressed by name, to come and make David king.

32 And of the children of Issachar, which were men that had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do; the heads of them were two hundred; and all their brethren were at their commandment.

33 Of Zebulun, such as went forth to battle, expert in war, with all instruments of war, fifty thousand, which could keep rank: they were not of double heart.

34 And of Naphtali a thousand captains, and with them with shield and spear thirty and seven thousand.

35 And of the Danites expert in war twenty and eight thousand and six hundred.

36 And of Asher, such as went forth to battle, expert in war, forty thousand.

37 And on the other side of Jordan, of the Reubenites, and the Gadites,
and of the half tribe of Manasseh, with all manner of instruments of war for the battle, an hundred and twenty thousand.

38 All these men of war, that could keep rank, came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Israel: and all the rest also of Israel were of one heart to make David king.

39 And there they were with David three days, eating and drinking: for their brethren had prepared for them.

40 Moreover they that were with them, even unto Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, brought bread on asses, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, and meat, meal, cakes of figs, and bunches of raisins, and wine, and oil, and oxen, and sheep abundantly: for there was joy in Israel.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 David fetcheth the ark with great solemnity from Kirjath-jearim. 2 Uzza being miledom.

AND David consulted with the captains of thousands and hundreds, and with every leader.

2 And David said unto all the congregation of Israel, If it seem good unto you, and that it be of the Lord our God, let us send abroad unto our brethren every where, that are left in all the land of Israel, and with them also to the priests and Levites which are in their cities and selves unto us:

3 And let us bring again the ark of our God to us: for we enquired not at it in the days of Saul.

4 And all the congregation said that they would do so: for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

5 So David gathered all Israel together, from Shihor of Egypt even unto the entering of Hemath, to bring the ark of God from Kirjath-

7 And they carried the ark of God in a new cart out of the house of Abinadab: and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart.

8 And David and all Israel played before God with all their might, and with singing, and with harps, and with psalteries, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, and with trumpets.

9 And when they came unto the threshingfloor of Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold the ark; for the oxen stumbled.

10 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzza, and he smote him, because he put his hand to the ark: and there he died before God.

11 And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uzza: wherefore that place is called Perez-uzza to this day.

12 And David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the ark of God home to me?

13 So David brought not the ark home to himself to the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

14 And the ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months. And the LORD blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that he had.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 Hiram's kindness to David. 2 David's felicity in people, wives, and children. 8 His two victories against the Philistines.

NOW Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and timber of cedars, with masons and carpenters, to build him an house.

2 And David perceived that the LORD had confirmed him king over Israel, for his kingdom was lifted up on high, because of his people Israel.

3 And David took more wives at Jerusalem: and David begat more sons and daughters.

4 Now these are the names of his children which he had in Jerusalem: Shammua, and Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon,

5 And Ibhaz, and Elishua, and Elpalet,

6 And Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia,

7 And Elishama, and Beelada, and Eliphalet.

8 And when the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David. And David heard of it, and went out against them.

9 And the Philistines came and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.

10 And David enquired of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? and wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the LORD said unto him, Go up; for I will deliver them into thine hand.

11 So they came up to Baal-perazim: and David smote them there. Then David said, God hath broken in upon mine enemies by mine hand like the breaking forth of waters: therefore they called the name of that place Baal-perazim.

12 And when they had left their gods there, David gave a commandment, and they were burned with fire.

13 And the Philistines yet again spread themselves abroad in the valley.

14 Therefore David enquired again of God; and God said unto him, Go not up after them; turn away from them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees.

15 And it shall be, when thou shalt hear a sound of going in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then thou shalt go out to battle: for God is gone forth before thee to smite the host of the Philistines.

16 David therefore did as God commanded him: and they smote the host of the Philistines from Gibbon even to Gazer.

17 And the fame of David went out into all lands; and the LORD brought the fear of him upon all nations.

CHAPTER XV.

1 David, having prepared a place for the ark, ordereth the priests and Levites to bring it from Obed-edom. 25 He performeth the solemnity thereof with great joy. 29 Michai despiseth him.

AND David made him houses in the city of David, and prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched for it a tent.

2 Then David said, None ought to carry the ark of God but the Levites: for them hath the LORD chosen to carry the ark of God, and to minister unto him for ever.

3 And David gathered all Israel together to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the LORD unto his place, which he had prepared for it.

4 And David assembled the children of Aaron, and the Levites: 5 Of the sons of Kohath; Uriel the chief, and his brethren an hundred and twenty:

6 Of the sons of Merari; Asahah the chief, and his brethren two hundred and twenty:

14 So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel.

15 And the children of the Levites bare the ark of God upon their shoulders with the staves thereon, as Moses commanded according to the word of the LORD.

16 And David spake to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brethren to be the singers with instruments of musick, psalteries and harps and cymbals, sounding, by lifting up the voice with joy.

17 So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel; and of his brethren, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their brethren, Ethan the son of Kushaiah;

18 And with them their brethren of the second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaliah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Eliphieleh, and Mikneiah, and Obededom, and Jelel, the porters.

19 So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were appointed to sound with cymbals of brass;

20 And Zechariah, and Azziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaliah, with psalteries on Alamoth;

21 And Mattithiah, and Eliphieleh, and Mikneiah, and Obededom, and Jelel, and Azaziah, with harps on the Sheminith to excel.

22 And Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, was for song: he instructed about the song, because he was skilful.

23 And Berechiah and Elkanah were doorkeepers for the ark.

24 And Shebaniah, and Jehoshaphat, and Nethaneel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaliah, and Eliezer, the priests, did blow with the trumpets before the ark of God: and Obededom and Jehiah were doorkeepers for the ark.

25 ¶ So David, and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the house of Obed-edom with joy.

26 And it came to pass, when God helped the Levites that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, that they offered seven bullocks and seven rams.

27 And David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites that bare the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master of the song with the singers: David also had upon him an ephod of linen.

28 ¶ Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, making a noise with psalteries and harps.

29 ¶ And it came to pass, as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looking out at a window saw king David dancing and playing: and she despised him in her heart.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 David's festival sacrifice. 4 He ordereth a choir to sing thanksgiving. 7 The psalm of thanksgiving. 37 He appointeth ministers, porters, priests, and musicians, to attend continually on the ark.

SO they brought the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it: and they offered burnt sacrifices and peace offerings before God.

2 And when David had made an end of offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD.

3 And he dealt to every one of Israel, both man and woman, to every one a loaf of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine.

4 ¶ And he appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD, and to record, and to thank and praise the LORD God of Israel:

5 Asaph the chief, and next to him Zechariah, Jelel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliab, and Benaliah, and Obededom: and Jelel with psalteries and with harps; but Asaph made a sound with cymbals;

6 Benaliah also and Jahaziel the priests with trumpets continually before the ark of the covenant of God.

7 ¶ Then on that day David delivered first this psalm to thank the LORD into the hand of Asaph and his brethren.

8 ¶ Give thanks unto the LORD, call upon his name, make known his deeds among the people.

9 Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him, talk ye of all his wondrous works.

10 Glory ye in his holy name: let the glory of them rejoice that seek the LORD.

11 Seek the LORD and his strength, seek his face continually.

that he hath done, his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth;
13 O ye seed of Israel his servant, ye children of Jacob, his chosen ones.

14 He is the LORD our God; his judgments are in all the earth.

15 Be ye mindful always of his covenant; the word which he commanded to a thousand generations;

16 Even of the covenant which he made with Abraham, and of his oath unto Isaac;

17 And hath confirmed the same to Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant,

18 Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, ²the lot of your inheritance;

19 When ye were but ³few, ⁴seven a few, and strangers in it.

20 And when they went from nation to nation, and from one kingdom to another people;

21 He suffered no man to do them wrong: yea, he ²reproved kings for their sakes, 22 Saying, ³Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm.

23 Sing unto the LORD, all the earth; shew forth from day to day his salvation.

24 Declare his glory among the heathen; his marvellous works among all nations.

25 For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised: he also is to be feared above all gods.

26 For all the gods ⁴of the people are idols: but the LORD made the heavens.

27 Glory and honour are in his presence; strength and gladness are in his place.

28 Give unto the LORD, ye kindreds of the people, give unto the LORD glory and strength.

29 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come before him: worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.

30 Fear before him, all the earth: the world also shall be stable, that it be not moved.

31 Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice: and let men say among the nations, The LORD reigneth.

32 Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof: let the fields rejoice, and all that is therein.

33 Then shall the trees of the wood sing out at the presence of the LORD, because he cometh to judge the earth.

34 O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever.

35 And say ye, Save us, O God of our salvation, and gather us together, and deliver us from the heathen, that we may give thanks to thy holy name, and glory in thy praise.

36 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel for ever and ever. And all the people said, Amen, and praised the LORD.

37 ¶ So he left there before the ark of the covenant of the LORD Asaph and his brethren, to minister before the ark continually, as every day's work required:

38 And Obed-edom with their brethren, threescore and eight; Obed-edom also the son of Jeduthun and Hosah to be porters:

39 And Zadok the priest, and his brethren the priests, before the tabernacle of the LORD ⁴in the high place that was at Gibeon,

40 To offer burnt offerings unto the LORD upon the altar of the burnt offering continually ²morning and evening, and to do according to all that is written in the law of the LORD, which he commanded Israel;

41 And with them Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest that were chosen, who were expressed by name, to give thanks to the LORD, because his mercy endureth for ever;

42 And with them Heman and Jeduthun with trumpets and cymbals for those that should make a sound, and with musical instruments of God. And the sons of Jeduthun were ³porters.

43 And all the people departed every man to his house: and David returned to bless his house.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Nathan first approving the purpose of David, to build God an house, 3 after by the word of God, forbiddeth him, 11 He promiseth him blessings and benefits in his seed. 16 David's prayer and thanksgiving.

NOW ⁴it came to pass, as David sat in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, Lo, I dwell in an house of cedars, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD remaineth under curtains.

2 Then Nathan said unto David, Do all that is in thine heart; for God is with thee.

3 ¶ And it came to pass the same night, that the word of God came to Nathan, saying,

4 Go and tell David my servant, Thus saith the LORD, Thou shalt not build me an house to dwell in:

5 For I have not dwelt in an house since the day that I brought up Israel unto this day; but ⁴have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another.

6 Wheresoever I have walked with all Israel, spake I a word to any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded

8 And I have been with thee whithersoever thou hast walked, and have cut off all thine enemies from before thee, and have made thee a name like the name of the great men that are in the earth.

9 Also I will ordain a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, and they shall dwell in their place, and shall be moved no more; neither shall the children of wickedness waste them any more, as at the beginning.

17 And yet this was a small thing in thine eyes, O God; for thou hast also spoken of thy servant's house for a great while to come, and hast regarded me according to the estate of a man of high degree, O LORD God.

18 What can David speak more to thee for the honour of thy servant? for thou knowest thy servant.

22 For thy people Israel didst thou make thine own people for ever; and thou, LORD, becamest their God.

23 Therefore now, LORD, let the thing that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant and concerning his house be established for ever, and do as thou hast said.

1 David subdueth the Philistines and the Moabites. 3 He smiteth Hadarezer and the Syrians. 9 Ten sendeth Hadaram with presents to bless David. 11 The presents and the spoil David dedicateth to God. 13 He putteth garrisons in Edom. 14 David's officers.

NOW after this ¹⁰it came to pass, that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them, and took Gath and her towns out of the hand of the Philistines.

2 And he smote Moab; and the Moabites became David's servants, and brought gifts.

3 ¶ And David smote ¹¹Hadarezer king of Zobah unto Hamath, as he went to establish his dominion by the river Euphrates.

4 And David took from him a thousand chariots, and ¹²seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: David also houghed all the chariot horses, but reserved of them an hundred chariots.

5 And when the Syrians of ¹³Damascus came to help Hadarezer king of Zobah, David slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men.

6 Then David put garrisons in Syria-damascus; and the Syrians became David's servants, and brought gifts. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

10 He sent ³Hadoram his son to king David, ⁴to enquire of his welfare, and ⁵to congratulate him, because he had fought against Hadarezer, and smitten him; (for Hadarezer ⁶had war with Tou;) and with him all manner of vessels of gold and silver and brass.

11 ¶ Them also king David dedicated unto the LORD, with the silver and the gold that he brought from all these nations; from Edom, and from Moab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Amalek.

12 Moreover ⁷Abishai the son of Zeruah slew of the Edomites in the valley of salt ^aeighteen thousand.

13 ¶ And he put garrisons in Edom; and all the Edomites became David's servants. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

14 ¶ So David reigned over all Israel, and executed judgment and justice among all his people.

15 And Joab the son of Zeruah was over the host; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahitub, ⁸recorder.

16 And Zadok the son of Ahitub, and ⁹Abimelech the son of Abiathur, were the priests; and ²Shavsha was scribe;

17 And Benaliah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and the sons of David were chief ³about the king.

CHAPTER XIX.

1 David's messengers, sent to comfort Hanun the son of Nahash, are villainously entreated. 6 The Ammonites, strengthened by the Syrians, are overcome by Joab and Abishai. 16 Shophach, making a new supply of the Syrians, is slain by David.

NOW ^ait came to pass after this, that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his stead.

2 And David said, I will shew kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father shewed kindness to me. And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. So the servants of David came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun, to comfort him.

3 But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, ⁴Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? are not his servants come unto thee for to search, and to overthrow, and to spy out the land?

4 Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaven them, and cut off their garments in the midst hard by their buttocks, and sent them away.

5 Then there went certain, and told David how the men were served. And he sent to meet them: for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

6 ¶ And when the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves ²odious to David, Hanun and the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Syria-machab, ³and out of Zobah.

7 So they hired thirty and two thousand chariots, and the king of Maachab and his people; who came and pitched before Medoba. And the children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle.

8 And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men.

9 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array before the gate of the city: and the kings that were come were by themselves in the field.

10 Now when Joab saw that ⁸the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose out of all the ⁴choice of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians.

11 And the rest of the people he delivered unto the hand of ⁵Abishai his brother, and they set themselves in array against the children of Ammon.

12 And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will help thee.

13 Be of good courage, and let us behave ourselves valiantly for our people, and for the cities of our God: and let the LORD do that which is good in his sight.

14 So Joab and the people that were with him drew nigh before the Syrians unto the battle; and they fled before him.

15 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they likewise fled before Abishai his brother, and entered into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

16 ¶ And when the Syrians saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they sent messengers, and drew forth the Syrians that were beyond the river: and ⁷Shophach the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them.

17 And it was told David; and he gathered all Israel, and passed over Jordan, and came upon them, and set the battle in array against them. So when David had put the battle in array against the Syrians, they fought with him.

CHAPTER XX.

1 Rabbah is besieged by Joab, spoiled by David, and the people thereof tortured. 4 Three giants are slain in three several overthrowes of the Philistines.

AND ¹ it came to pass, that ² after the year was expired, at the time that kings go out to battle, Joab led forth the power of the army, and wasted the country of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David tarried at Jerusalem. And ³ Joab smote Rabbah, and destroyed it.

² And David ⁴ took the crown of their king from off his head, and found it ⁵ to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it; and it was set upon David's head: and he brought also exceeding much spoil out of the city.

⁶ And yet again ⁷ there was war at Gath, where was ⁸ a man of great stature, whose fingers and toes were four and twenty, six on each hand, and six on each foot: and he also was ⁹ the son of the giant.

⁷ But when he ⁸ defied Israel, Jonathan the son of ⁹ Shimca David's brother slew him.

⁸ These were born unto the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

CHAPTER XXI.

1 David, tempted by Satan, foretold Joab to number the people. 5 The number of the people being brought, David repenteth of it. 9 David having three plagues propounded by Gad chooseth the pestilence. 14 After the death of seventy thousand, David by repentance preventeth the destruction of Jerusalem. 18 David, by Gad's direction, purchaseth Ornan's threshingfloor: where having built an altar, God giveth a sign of his favour by fire, and slayeth the plague. 28 David sacrificeth there, being restrained from Gibeon by fear of the angel.

AND ¹ Satan stood up against Israel, and provoked David to number Israel.

² And David said to Joab and to the rulers of the people, Go, number Israel from Beer-sheba even to Dan; and bring the number of them to me, that I may know it.

³ And Joab answered, The LORD make his people an hundred times so many more as they be: but, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? why then doth my lord require this thing? why will he be a cause of trespass to Israel?

⁴ Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab. Wherefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem.

⁶ But Levi and Benjamin counted he not among them: for the king's word was abominable to Joab.

⁷ And God was displeased with this thing; therefore he smote Israel.

⁸ And David said unto God, ⁹ I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing: but now, I beseech thee, do away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly.

⁹ ¶ And the LORD spake unto Gad, David's seer, saying,

¹⁰ Go and tell David, saying, Thus saith the LORD, ¹¹ I offer thee three things: choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee.

¹¹ So Gad came to David, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, ¹² Choose thee

¹² Either three years' famine; or three months to be destroyed before thy foes, while that the sword of thine enemies overtaketh thee; or else three days the sword of the LORD, even the pestilence, in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the coasts of Israel. Now therefore advise thyself what word I shall bring again to him that sent me.

¹⁴ ¶ So the LORD sent pestilence upon Israel: and there fell of Israel seventy thousand men.

¹⁵ And God sent an angel unto Jerusalem to destroy it: and as he was destroying, the LORD beheld, and he repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed, It is enough, stay now thine hand. And the angel of the LORD stood by the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite.

	19 And David went up at the saying of Gad, which he spake in the name of the LORD.	2 And David commanded to gather together ^b the strangers that were in the land of Israel; and he set masons to hew wrought stones to build the house of God.
	20 ² And Ornan turned back, and saw the angel; and his four sons with him hid themselves. Now Ornan was threshing wheat.	3 And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the joinings; and brass in abundance ^c without weight;		* ver. 14. 1 Kin. 7. 47.

	23 And Ornan said unto David, Take it to thee, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes: lo, I give thee the oxen also for burnt offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the meat offering; I give it all.	6 ¶ Then he called for Solomon his son, and charged him to build an house for the LORD God of Israel.

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 The divisions of the sons of Aaron by lot into four and twenty orders. 20 The Kohathites, 21 and the Merarites divided by lot.

NOW these are the divisions of the sons of Aaron. ¹The sons of Aaron; Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

2 But ¹Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children: therefore Eleazar and Ithamar executed the priest's office.

3 And David distributed them, both Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, according to their offices in their service.

4 And there were more chief men found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar; and thus were they divided. Among the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen chief men of the house of their fathers, and eight among the sons of Ithamar according to the house of their fathers.

5 Thus were they divided by lot, one sort with another; for the governors of the sanctuary, and governors of the house of God, were of the sons of Eleazar, and of the sons of Ithamar.

6 And Shemalah the son of Nethaneel the scribe, one of the Levites, wrote them before the king, and the princes, and Zadok the priest, and Ahimelech the son of Ahithair, and before the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites: one ¹principal household being taken for Eleazar, and one taken for Ithamar.

7 Now the first lot came forth to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiab, 8 The third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim.

9 The fifth to Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin,

10 The seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to ¹Abijah,

11 The ninth to Jeshuah, the tenth to Shecaniah,

12 The eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim,

13 The thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshobeab,

14 The fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer,

15 The seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Aphas,

16 The nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezekel,

17 The one and twentieth to Jachin, the two and twentieth to Gamul, 18 The three and twentieth to Delaiab, the four and twentieth to Maaziah.

19 These were the orderings of them in their service ¹to come into the house of the LORD, according to their manner, under Aaron their father, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him.

20 ¶ And the rest of the sons of Levi were these: Of the sons of Amram; ¹Shubael: of the sons of Shubael; Jehdeiah.

21 Concerning Rehabiah: of the sons of Rehabiah, the first was Issiah.

22 Of the Izharites; ¹Shelomoth: of the sons of Shelomoth; Jahath.

23 And the sons of ¹Hebron; Jahaziel the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jekameam the fourth.

24 Of the sons of Uzziel; Michah: of the sons of Michah; Shumir.

25 The brother of Michah was Issiah: of the sons of Issiah; Zechariah.

26 ¹The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi: the sons of Jaaziah; Beno.

27 ¶ The sons of Merari by Jaaziah; Beno, and Shoham, and Zaccur, and Ithi.

28 Of Mahli came Eleazar, ¹who had no sons.

29 Concerning Kish: the son of Kish was Jerahmeel.

30 ¹The sons also of Mushi; Mahli, and Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites after the house of their fathers.

31 These likewise cast lots over against their brethren the sons of Aaron in the presence of David the king, and Zadok, and Ahimelech, and the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites, even the principal fathers over against their younger brethren.

1 The divisions of the porters. 13 The gates assigned by lot. 20 The Levites that had charge of the treasures. 20 Officers and judges.

CONCERNING the divisions of the porters: Of the Korhites was 2 Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of 3 Asaph.

2 And the sons of Meshelemiah were, Zechariah the firstborn, Jedaiel the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth,

3 Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Elioenai the seventh.

4 Moreover the sons of Obed-edom were, Shemalah the firstborn, Jehoabad the second, Joah the third, and Sacar the fourth, and Nethaneel the fifth,

5 Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peulthai the eighth: for God blessed 4 him.

6 Also unto Shemalah his son were sons born, that ruled throughout the house of their father: for they were mighty men of valour.

7 The sons of Shemalah; Othni, and Rephael, and Obed, Elzabad, whose brethren were strong men, Elihu, and Semachiah.

8 All these of the sons of Obed-edom: they and their sons and their brethren, able men for strength for the service, were threescore and two of Obed-edom.

9 And Meshelemiah had sons and brethren, strong men, eighteen.

10 Also 6 Hosah, of the children of Merari, had sons; Simri the chief, (for though he was not the firstborn, yet his father made him the chief:)

11 Hilkiah the second, Teballah the third, Zechariah the fourth: all the sons and brethren of Hosah were thirteen.

my commandments and my judgments, as at this day.

8 Now therefore in the sight of all Israel the congregation of the LORD, and in the audience of our God, keep and seek for all the commandments of the LORD your God: that ye may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance for your children after you for ever.

9 ¶ And thou, Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind: for the LORD searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever.

10 Take heed now; for the LORD hath chosen thee to build an house for the sanctuary: be strong, and do it.

11 ¶ Then David gave to Solomon his son the pattern of the porch, and of the houses thereof, and of the treasures thereof, and of the upper chambers thereof, and of the inner parlours thereof, and of the place of the mercy seat,

12 And the pattern of all that he had by the spirit, of the courts of the house of the LORD, and of all the chambers round about, of the treasures of the house of God, and of the treasures of the dedicated things:

13 Also for the courses of the priests and the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and for all the vessels of service in the house of the LORD.

14 He gave of gold by weight for things of gold, for all instruments of all manner of service; silver also for all instruments of silver by weight, for all instruments of every kind of service:

15 Even the weight for the candlesticks of gold, and for their lamps of gold, by weight for every candlestick, and for the lamps thereof: and for the candlesticks of silver by weight, both for the candlestick, and also for the lamps thereof, according to the use of every candlestick.

16 And by weight he gave gold for the tables of shewbread, for every table; and likewise silver for the tables of silver:

17 Also pure gold for the flesh-hooks, and the bowls, and the cups: and for the golden basons he gave gold by weight for every bason; and likewise silver by weight for every bason of silver:

18 And for the altar of incense refined gold by weight; and gold for the pattern of the chariot of the cherubims, that spread out their wings, and covered the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

19 All this, said David, the LORD made me understand in writing by his hand upon me, even all the works of this pattern.

20 And David said to Solomon his son, Be strong and of good courage, and do it: fear not, nor be dismayed: for the LORD God, even my God, will be with thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee, until thou hast finished all the work for the service of the house of the LORD.

21 And, behold, the courses of the priests and the Levites, even they shall be with thee for all the service of the house of God: and there shall be with thee for all manner of workmanship every willing skilful man, for any manner of service: also the princes and all the people will be wholly at thy commandment.

CHAPTER XXIX.

1 David, by his example and instruction, caused the princes and people to offer willingly. 10 David's thanksgiving and prayer. 20 The people, having blessed God, and sacrificed, make Solomon king. 26 David's reign and death.

FURTHERMORE David the king said unto all the congregation, Solomon my son, whom alone God hath chosen, is yet young and tender, and the work is great: for the palace is not for man, but for the LORD God.

2 Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God the gold for things to be made of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and the brass for things of brass, the iron for things of iron, and wood for things of wood; onyx stones, and stones to be set, glistering stones, and of divers colours, and all manner of precious stones, and marble stones in abundance.

3 Moreover, because I have set my affection to the house of my God, I have of mine own proper good, of gold and silver, which I have given to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house,

4 Even three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses withal:

5 The gold for things of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and for all manner of work to be made by the hands of artificers. And who then is willing to consecrate his service this day unto the LORD?

6 ¶ Then the chief of the fathers and princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with the rulers of the king's work, offered willingly,

7 And gave for the service of the house of God of gold five thousand talents and ten thousand drams, and of silver ten thousand talents, and of brass eighteen thousand talents, and one hundred thousand talents of iron.

8 And they with whom precious stones were found gave them to the treasure of the house of the LORD, by the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite.

9 Then the people rejoiced, for that they offered willingly, because with perfect heart they ⁹ offered willingly to the LORD: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy.

10 ¶ Wherefore David blessed the LORD before all the congregation: and David said, Blessed be thou, LORD God of Israel our father, for ever and ever.

11 *Thine, O LORD, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted as head above all.

12 *Both riches and honour come of thee, and thou reignest over all; and in thine hand is power and might; and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all.

13 Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name.

14 But who am I, and what is my people, that we should ² be able to offer so willingly after this sort? for all things come of thee, and ³ of thine own have we given thee.

15 For ⁴ we are strangers before thee, and sojourners, as were all our fathers: our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is none ⁴ abiding.

16 O LORD our God, all this store that we have prepared to build thee an house for thine holy name cometh of thine hand, and is all thine own.

17 I know also, my God, that thou ⁵ triest the heart, and ⁶ hast pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of mine heart I have willingly offered all these things: and now have I seen with joy thy people, which are ⁵ present here, to offer willingly unto thee.

18 O LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, keep this for ever in the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of thy people, and ⁶ prepare their heart unto thee:

19 And ⁶ give unto Solomon my son a perfect heart, to keep thy commandments, thy testimonies, and thy statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the palace, for the which ⁷ I have made provision.

20 ¶ And David said to all the congregation, Now bless the LORD your God. And all the congregation blessed the LORD God of their fathers, and bowed down their heads, and worshipped the LORD, and the king.

21 And they sacrificed sacrifices unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings unto the LORD, on the morrow after that day, even a thousand bullocks, a thousand rams, and a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel:

22 And did eat and drink before the LORD on that day with great gladness. And they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and ⁸ anointed him unto the LORD to be the chief governor, and Zadok to be priest.

23 Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed him.

24 And all the princes, and the mighty men, and all the sons likewise of king David, ⁹ submitted themselves unto Solomon the king.

25 And the LORD magnified Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and ¹⁰ bestowed upon him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel.

26 ¶ Thus David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel.

27 *And the time that he reigned over Israel was forty years; ¹¹ seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem.

28 And he ¹² died in a good old age, ¹³ full of days, riches, and honour: and Solomon his son reigned in his stead.

29 Now the acts of David the king, first and last, behold, they are written in the ¹⁴ book of Samuel the seer, and in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the book of Gad the seer.

30 With all his reign and his might, ¹⁵ and the times that went over him, and over Israel, and over all the kingdoms of the countries.

1 The solemn offering of Solomon at Gibeon.
7 Solomon's choice of wisdom is blessed by God. 13 Solomon's strength and wealth.

AND ^aSolomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and ^bthe Lord his God was with him, and ^cmagnified him exceedingly.

2 Then Solomon spake unto all Israel, to ^dthe captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every governor in all Israel, the chief of the fathers.

3 So Solomon, and all the congregation with him, went to the high place that was at ^eGibeon; for there was the tabernacle of the congregation of God, which Moses the servant of the Lord had made in the wilderness.

4 ^fBut the ark of God had David brought up from Kirjath-jearim to the place which David had prepared for it: for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem.

5 Moreover ^gthe brasen altar, that ^hBezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur had made, ⁱhe put before the tabernacle of the Lord: and Solomon and the congregation sought unto it.

6 And Solomon went up thither to the brasen altar before the Lord, which was at the tabernacle of the congregation, and ^joffered a thousand burnt offerings upon it.

7 ^k¶ In that night did God appear unto Solomon, and said unto him, Ask what I shall give thee.

8 And Solomon said unto God, Thou hast shewed great mercy unto David my father, and hast made me ^lto reign in his stead.

9 Now, O Lord God, let thy promise unto David my father be established: ^mfor thou hast made me king over a people ⁿlike the dust of the earth in multitude.

10 ^o¶ Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may ^pgo out and come in before this people: for who can judge this thy people, that is so great?

11 ^q¶ And God said to Solomon, Because this was in thine heart, and thou hast not asked riches, wealth, or honour, nor the life of thine enemies, neither yet hast asked long life; but hast asked wisdom and knowledge for thyself, that thou mayest judge my people, over whom I have made thee king:

12 Wisdom and knowledge is granted unto thee; and I will give thee riches, and wealth, and honour, such as ^rnone of the kings have had that have been before thee, neither shall there any after thee have the like.

13 ^s¶ Then Solomon came from his journey to the high place that was at Gibeon to Jerusalem, from before the tabernacle of the congregation, and reigned over Israel.

14 ^t¶ And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, which he placed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

15 ^u¶ And the king ^vmade silver and gold at Jerusalem as plenteous as stones, and cedar trees made he as the sycomore trees that are in the vale for abundance.

16 ^w¶ And ^xSolomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the king's merchants received the linen yarn at a price.

17 And they fetched up, and brought forth out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty; and so brought they out horses for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, ^yby their means.

CHAPTER II.

1, 17 Solomon's labourers for the building of the temple. 3 His embassy to Hiram for workmen and provision of stuff. 11 Hiram sendeth him a kind answer.

AND Solomon ^zdetermined to build an house for the name of the Lord, and an house for his kingdom.

2 And ^{aa}Solomon told out threescore and ten thousand men to bear burdens, and fourscore thousand to hew in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred to oversee them.

3 ^{ab}¶ And Solomon sent to ^{ac}Hiram the king of Tyre, saying, ^{ad}As thou didst deal with David my father, and didst send him cedars to build him an house to dwell therein, even so deal with me.

4 Behold, ^{ae}I build an house to the name of the Lord my God, to dedicate it to him, and ^{af}to burn before him ^{ag}sweet incense, and for ^{ah}the continual shewbread, and for ^{ai}the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts of the Lord our God. This is an ordinance for ever to Israel.

the house: and the other wing was five cubits also, joining to the wing of the other cherub.

13 The wings of these cherubims spread themselves forth twenty cubits: and they stood on their feet, and their faces were inward.

14 ¶ And he made the ¹vall of blue, and purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and ²wrought cherubims thereon.

15 Also he made before the house ¹two pillars of thirty and five cubits ²high, and the chapter that was on the top of each of them was five cubits.

16 And he made chains, as in the oracle, and put them on the heads of the pillars; and made ¹an hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains.

17 And he ¹reared up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left; and called the name of that on the right hand ²Jachin, and the name of that on the left ³Boaz.

CHAPTER IV.

1 The altar of brass. 2 The molten sea upon twelve oxen. 6 The ten lavers, candlesticks, and tables. 9 The courts, and the instruments of brass. 19 The instruments of gold.

MOREOVER he made ¹an altar of brass, twenty cubits the length thereof, and twenty cubits the breadth thereof, and ten cubits the height thereof.

2 ¶ Also he made a molten sea of ten cubits ²from brim to brim, round in compass, and five cubits the height thereof; and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about.

3 ¶ And under it was the similitude of oxen, which did compass it round about: ten in a cubit, compassing the sea round about. Two rows of oxen were cast, when it was cast.

4 It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward.

5 And the thickness of it was an handbreadth, and the brim of it like the work of the brim of a cup, ²with flowers of lilies; and it received and held ³three thousand baths.

6 ¶ He made also ¹ten lavers, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them: ²such things as they offered for the burnt offering they washed in them; but the sea was for the priests to wash in.

7 ¶ And he made ten candlesticks of gold ²according to their form, and set them in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left.

8 ¶ He made also ten tables, and placed them in the temple, five on the right side, and five on the left. And he made an hundred ²basons of gold.

9 ¶ Furthermore ¹he made the court of the priests, and the great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid the doors of them with brass.

10 And ²he set the sea on the right side of the east end, over against the south.

11 And ¹Huram made the pots, and the shovels, and the ²basons. And Huram ³finished the work that he was to make for king Solomon for the house of God;

12 To wit, the two pillars, and ²the pommels, and the chapters which were on the top of the two pillars, and the two wreaths to cover the two pommels of the chapters which were on the top of the pillars;

13 And ¹four hundred pomegranates on the two wreaths; two rows of pomegranates on each wreath, to cover the two pommels of the chapters which were upon the pillars.

14 He made also ²bases, and ³lavers made he upon the bases;

15 One sea, and twelve oxen under it.

16 The pots also, and the shovels, and the fleshhooks, and all their instruments, did ²Huram his father make to king Solomon for the house of the LORD of ³bright brass.

17 ¶ In the plain of Jordan did the king cast them, in the ²clay ground between Succoth and Zeredathah.

18 ¶ Thus Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance: for the weight of the brass could not be found out.

19 ¶ And ¹Solomon made all the vessels that were for the house of God, the golden altar also, and the tables whereon ²the shewbread was set;

20 Moreover the candlesticks with their lamps, that they should burn ²after the manner before the oracle, of pure gold;

21 And ²the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, made he of gold, and that ³perfect gold;

22 And the snuffers, and the ²basons, and the spoons, and the censers, of pure gold: and the entry of the house, the inner doors thereof for the most holy place, and the doors of the house of the temple, were of gold.

CHAPTER V.

THUS ¹all the work that Solomon made for the house of the LORD was finished: and Solomon brought in all the things that David his father had dedicated; and the silver, and the gold, and all the instruments, put he among the treasures of the house of God.

2 ¶ Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Israel, unto Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion.

3 And wherefore all the men of Israel assembled themselves unto the king in the feast which was in the seventh month.

4 And all the elders of Israel came; and the Levites took up the ark.

5 And they brought up the ark, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, these did the priests and the Levites bring up.

6 Also king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel that were assembled unto him before the ark, sacrificed sheep and oxen, which could not be told nor numbered for multitude.

7 And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD unto his place, to the oracle of the house, into the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubims:

8 For the cherubims spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark and the staves thereof above.

9 And they drew out the staves of the ark, that the ends of the staves were seen from the ark before the oracle; but they were not seen without. And there it is unto this day.

10 There was nothing in the ark save the two tables which Moses put therein at Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt.

11 And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place: (for all the priests that were present were sanctified, and did not then wait by course:

12 Also the Levites which were the singers, all of them of Asaph, of Heman, of Jeduthun, with their sons and their brethren, being arrayed in white linen, having cymbals and psalteries and harps, stood at the east end of the altar, and with them an hundred and twenty priests sounding with trumpets:)

13 It came even to pass, as the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD; and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of musick, and praised the LORD, saying, For he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever: that then the house was filled with a cloud, even the house of the LORD;

14 So that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud: for the glory of the LORD had filled the house of God.

CHAPTER VI.

1 Solomon, having blessed the people, blessed God. 12 Solomon's prayer in the consecration of the temple, upon the brazen scaffold.

THEN said Solomon, THE LORD hath said that he would dwell in the thick darkness.

2 But I have built an house of habitation for thee, and a place for thy dwelling for ever.

3 And the king turned his face, and blessed the whole congregation of Israel: and all the congregation of Israel stood.

4 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who hath with his hands fulfilled that which he spake with his mouth to my father David, saying,

5 Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt I chose no city among all the tribes of Israel to build an house in, that my name might be there; neither chose I any man to be a ruler over my people Israel:

6 But I have chosen Jerusalem, that my name might be there; and have chosen David to be over my people Israel.

7 Now it was in the heart of David my father to build an house for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

8 But the LORD said to David my father, Forasmuch as it was in thine heart to build an house for my name, thou didst well in that it was in thine heart:

9 Notwithstanding thou shalt not build the house; but thy son which shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house for my name.

10 The LORD therefore hath performed his word that he hath spoken: for I am risen up in the room of David my father, and am set on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

11 And in it have I put the ark, wherein is the covenant of the LORD, that he made with the children of Israel.

12 And he stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands:

13 For Solomon had made a brazen scaffold, of five cubits long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court: and upon it he stood, and kneeled down upon his knees before all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven,

14 And said, O LORD God of Israel, there is no God like thee in the heaven, nor in the earth; which keepest covenant, and shewest mercy unto thy servants, that walk before thee with all their hearts:

15 'Thou which hast kept with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him; and spakest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as it is this day.

16 Now therefore, O Lord God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him, saying, *2 There shall not fall thee a man in my sight to sit upon the throne of Israel; 'yet so that thy children take heed to their way to walk in my law, as thou hast walked before me.

17 Now then, O Lord God of Israel, let thy word be verified, which thou hast spoken unto thy servant David.

18 But will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth? * behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house which I have built!

19 Have respect therefore to the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O Lord my God, to hearken unto the cry and the prayer which thy servant prayeth before thee:

20 That thine eyes may be open upon this house day and night, upon the place whereof thou hast said that thou wouldest put thy name there; to hearken unto the prayer which thy servant prayeth toward this place.

21 Hearken therefore unto the supplications of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, which they shall *make toward this place: hear thou from thy dwelling place, even from heaven; and when thou hearest, forgive.

22 ¶ If a man sin against his neighbour, *and an oath be laid upon him to make him swear, and the oath come before thine altar in this house;

23 Then hear thou from heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, by requiting the wicked, by recompensing his way upon his own head; and by justifying the righteous, by giving him according to his righteousness.

24 ¶ And if thy people Israel *be put to the worse before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee; and shall return and confess thy name, and pray *and make supplication before thee *in this house;

25 Then hear thou from the heavens, and forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again unto the land which thou gavest to them and to their fathers.

26 ¶ When the *heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee; yet if they pray toward this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their sin, when thou dost afflict them;

27 Then hear thou from heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, when thou hast taught them the good way, wherein they should walk; and send rain upon thy land, which thou hast given unto thy people for an inheritance.

28 ¶ If there *be dearth in the land, if there be pestilence, if there be blasting, or mildew, locusts, or caterpillars; if their enemies besiege them *in the cities of their land; whatsoever sore or whatsoever sickness there be:

29 Then what prayer or what supplication soever shall be made of any man, or of all thy people Israel, when every one shall know his own sore and his own grief, and shall spread forth his hands *in this house:

30 Then hear thou from heaven thy dwelling place, and forgive, and render unto every man according unto all his ways, whose heart thou knowest; (for thou only *knowest the hearts of the children of men.)

31 That they may fear thee, to walk in thy ways, *so long as they live *in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers.

32 ¶ Moreover concerning the stranger, *which is not of thy people Israel, but is come from a far country for thy great name's sake, and thy mighty hand, and thy stretched out arm; if they come and pray in this house;

33 Then hear thou from the heavens, even from thy dwelling place, and do according- to all that the stranger calleth to thee for; that all people of the earth may know thy name, and fear thee, as doth thy people Israel, and may know that *this house which I have built is called by thy name.

34 If thy people go out to war against their enemies by the way that thou shalt send them, and they pray unto thee toward this city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name;

35 Then hear thou from the heavens their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their *cause.

36 If they sin against thee, (for there is *no man which sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them over before their enemies, and *they carry them away captives unto a land far off or near;

37 Yet if they *bethink themselves in the land whither they are carried captive, and turn and pray unto thee in the land of their captivity, saying, We have sinned, we have done amiss, and have dealt wickedly;

38 If they return to thee with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, whither they have carried them captives, and pray toward their land, which thou gavest

42 O LORD God, turn not away the face of thine anointed: ⁷ remember the mercies of David thy servant.

CHAPTER VII.

1 God having given testimony to Solomon's prayer by fire from heaven, and glory in the temple, the people worship him. 4 Solomon's solemn sacrifice. 8 Solomon having kept the feast of tabernacles, and the feast of the dedication of the altar, dismisseth the people. 12 God appearing to Solomon giveth him promises upon condition.

NOW ⁸ when Solomon had made an end of praying, the ⁹ fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and ¹⁰ the glory of the LORD filled the house.

2 ¹¹ And the priests could not enter into the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD had filled the LORD's house.

3 And when all ¹² the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD upon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and praised the LORD, ¹³ saying, For he is good; ¹⁴ for his mercy endureth for ever.

4 ¹⁵ Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD.

5 And king Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty and two thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep: so the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

6 ¹⁶ And the priests waited on their offices: the Levites also with instruments of musick of the LORD, which David the king had made to praise the LORD, because his mercy endureth for ever, when David praised ¹⁷ by their ministry; and ¹⁸ the priests sounded trumpets before them, and all Israel stood.

7 Moreover ¹⁹ Solomon hallowed the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the brasen altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offerings, and the meat offerings, and the fat.

8 ²⁰ Also at the same time Solomon kept the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath unto ²¹ the river of Egypt.

9 And in the eighth day they made ²² a solemn assembly: for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days.

10 And ²³ on the three and twentieth day of the seventh month he sent the people away into their tents, glad and merry in heart for the goodness that the LORD had shewed unto David, and to Solomon, and to Israel his people.

11 Thus ²⁴ Solomon finished the house of the LORD, and the king's house: and all that came into Solomon's heart to make in the house of the LORD, and in his own house, he prosperously effected.

12 ²⁵ And the LORD appeared to Solomon by night, and said unto him, I have heard thy prayer, ²⁶ and have chosen this place to myself for an house of sacrifice.

13 ²⁷ If I shut up heaven that there be no rain, or if I command the locusts to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people:

14 If my people, ²⁸ which are called by my name, shall ²⁹ humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; ³⁰ then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

15 Now ³¹ mine eyes shall be open, and mine ears attend ³² unto the prayer that is made in this place.

16 For now have ³³ I chosen and sanctified this house, that my name may be there for ever: and mine eyes and mine heart shall be there perpetually.

17 ³⁴ And as for thee, if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked, and do according to all that I have commanded thee, and shalt observe my statutes and my judgments:

18 Then will I stablish the throne of thy kingdom, according as I have covenanted with David thy father, saying, ³⁵ There shall not fail thee a man to be ruler in Israel.

19 ³⁶ But if ye turn away, and forsake my statutes and my commandments, which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other gods, and worship them:

20 Then will I pluck them up by the roots out of my land which I have given them; and this house, which I have sanctified for my name, will I cast out of my sight, and will make it to be a proverb and a by-word among all nations.

21 And this house, which is high, shall be an astonishment to every one that passeth by it; so that he shall say, ³⁷ Why hath the LORD done thus unto this land, and unto this house?

AND ^{992.} it came to pass at the end of twenty years, wherein Solomon had built the house of the LORD, and his own house,

2 That the cities which Hiram had restored to Solomon, Solomon built them, and caused the children of Israel to dwell there.

3 And Solomon went to Hamath-zobah, and prevailed against it.

4 ^{1 Kin. 9. 17, &c.} And he built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the store cities, which he built in Hamath.

5 Also he built Beth-horon the upper, and Beth-horon the nether, fenced cities, with walls, gates, and bars;

6 And Baalath, and all the store cities that Solomon had, and all the chariot cities, and the cities of the horsemen, and ^{2 Heb. all the desire of Solomon which he desired to build.} 2 all that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and throughout all the land of his dominion.

7 ^{1 Kin. 9. 20, &c.} ¶ As for all the people that were left of the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which were not of Israel,

8 But of their children, who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel consumed not, them did Solomon make to pay tribute until this day.

9 But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no servants for his work; but they were men of war, and chief of his captains, and captains of his chariots and horsemen.

10 And these were the chief of king Solomon's officers, ^{4 Rec 1 Kin. 9. 23.} even ^{1 Kin. 3. 1. & 7. N. & 9. 24.} two hundred and fifty, that bare rule over the people.

11 ¶ And Solomon ^{8 Heb. audacity.} brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the city of David unto the house that he had built for her: for he said, My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places are holy, whereunto the ark of the LORD hath come.

12 ¶ Then Solomon offered burnt offerings unto the LORD on the altar of the LORD, which he had built before the porch, 13 Even after a certain rate ^{7 Ex. 29. 38. Num. 28. 3. 9. 11. 26. & 29. 1, &c.} every day, offering according to the commandment of Moses, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts, ² three times in the year, even in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles.

14 ¶ And he appointed, according to the order of David his father, the ¹ courses of the priests to their service, and the ⁴ Levites to their charges, to praise and minister before the priests, as the duty of every day required: the ⁴ porters also by their courses at every gate: for ² so had David the man of God commanded.

15 And they departed not from the commandment of the king unto the priests and Levites concerning any matter, or concerning the treasures.

16 Now all the work of Solomon was prepared unto the day of the foundation of the house of the LORD, and until it was finished. So the house of the LORD was perfected.

17 ¶ Then went Solomon to ¹ Ezion-geber, and to ² Elath, at the sea side in the land of Edom.

18 ¶ And Hiram sent him by the hands of his servants ships, and servants that had knowledge of the sea; and they went with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and took thence four hundred and fifty talents of gold, and brought them to king Solomon.

2 And Solomon told her all her questions: and there was nothing hid from Solomon which he told her not.

8 Blessed be the LORD thy God, which delighted in thee to set thee on his throne, to be king for the LORD thy God: because thy God loved Israel, to establish them for ever, therefore made he thee king over them, to do judgment and justice.

9 And she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices great abundance, and precious stones: neither was there any such spice as the queen of Sheba gave king Solomon.

10 And the servants also of Huram, and the servants of Solomon, which brought gold from Ophir, brought ^aalgum trees and precious stones.

11 And the king made of the algum trees ²³terraces to the house of the LORD, and to the king's palace, and harps and psalteries for singers: and there were none such seen before in the land of Judah.

CHAPTER X.

1 The Israelites, assembled at Shechem to crown Rehoboam, by Jeroboam make a suit of relaxation unto him. 6 Rehoboam, refusing the old men's counsel, by the advice of young men answereth them roughly. 16 Ten tribes rending kill Nadab, and make Rehoboam to flee.

AND ^aRehoboam went to Shechem: ^afor to Shechem were all Israel come to make him king.

2 And it came to pass, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who was in Egypt, ^bwhither he had fled from the presence of Solomon the king, heard it, that Jeroboam returned out of Egypt.

3 And they sent and called him. So Jeroboam and all Israel came and spake to Rehoboam, saying,

4 Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore ease thou somewhat the grievous servitude of thy father, and his heavy yoke that he put upon us, and we will serve thee.

5 And he said unto them, Come again unto me after three days. And the people departed.

6 ¶ And king Rehoboam took counsel with the old men that had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What counsel give ye me to return answer to this people?

7 And they spake unto him, saying, If thou be kind to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be thy servants for ever.

8 But he forsook the counsel which the old men gave him, and took counsel with the young men that were brought up with him, that stood before him.

9 And he said unto them, What advice give ye that we may return answer to this people, which have spoken to me, saying, Ease somewhat the yoke that thy father did put upon us?

10 And the young men that were brought up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou answer the people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it somewhat lighter for us; thus shalt thou say unto them, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins.

11 For whereas my father ²put a heavy yoke upon you, I will put more to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king bade, saying, Come again to me on the third day.

13 And the king answered them roughly; and king Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men, 14 And answered them after the advice of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add thereto: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15 So the king hearkened not unto the people: ³for the cause was of God, that the LORD might perform his word, which he spake by the ⁴hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 ¶ And when all Israel saw that the king would not hearken unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? and we have none inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to your tents, O Israel: and now, David, see to thine own house. So all Israel went to their tents.

17 But as for the children of Israel that dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18 Then king Rehoboam sent Hadoram that was over the tribute: and the children of Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. But king Rehoboam ⁵made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

19 ¶ And Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

CHAPTER XI.

1 Rehoboam raising an army to subdue Israel, is forbidden by Shemariah. 5 He strengtheneth his kingdom with forts and provision. 13 The priests and Levites, and such as feared God, forsaken by Jeroboam, strengthen the kingdom of Judah. 18 The wives and children of Rehoboam.

AND ⁶when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he gathered of the house of Judah and Benjamin an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against Israel, that he might bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam.

2 But the word of the LORD came ⁷to Shemariah the man of God, saying,

3 Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying,

4 Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren: return every man to his house: for this thing is done of me. And they obeyed the words of the LORD, and returned from going against Jeroboam.

5 ¶ And Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and built cities for defence in Judah.

6 He built even Beth-lehem, and Etam, and Tekoa,

7 And Beth-zur, and Shoco, and Adullam,

8 And Gath, and Mareshah, and Ziph,

9 And Adoraim, and Lachish, and Azekah,

10 And Zorah, and Ajalon, and Hebron, which are in Judah and in Benjamin fenced cities.

11 And he fortified the strong holds, and put captains in them, and store of victual, and of oil and wine.

12 And in every several city he put shields and spears, and made them exceeding strong, having Judah and Benjamin on his side.

13 ¶ And the priests and the Levites that were in all Israel ⁸resorted to him out of all their coasts.

14 For the Levites left ⁹their suburbs and their possession, and came to Judah and Jerusalem: for ¹⁰Jeroboam and his sons had cast them off from executing the priest's office unto the LORD:

15 And he ordained him priests for the high places, and for ¹¹the devils, and for ¹²the calves which he had made.

16 And after them out of all the tribes of Israel such as set their hearts to seek the LORD God of Israel came to Jerusalem, to sacrifice unto the LORD God of their fathers.

17 So they ¹³strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong, three years: for three years they walked in the way of David and Solomon.

21 And Rehoboam loved Maachah the daughter of Absalom above all his wives and his concubines : (for he took eighteen wives, and threescore concubines ; and begat twenty and eight sons, and threescore daughters.)

22 And Rehoboam ^a made Abijah the son of Maachah the chief, to be ruler among his brethren : for he thought to make him king.

23 And he dealt wisely, and dispersed of all his children throughout all the countries of Judah and Benjamin, unto every fenced city : and he gave them victual in abundance. And he desired ² many wives.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Rehoboam, forsaking the Lord, is punished by Shishak. 5 He and the princes, repenting at the preaching of Shemaiah, are delivered from destruction, but not from spoil. 13 The reign and death of Rehoboam.

AND ^a it came to pass, when Rehoboam had established the kingdom, and had strengthened himself, ^b he forsook the law of the Lord, and all Israel with him.

2 ^a And it came to pass, that in the fifth year of king Rehoboam Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had transgressed against the Lord,

3 With twelve hundred chariots, and threescore thousand horsemen : and the people were without number that came with him out of Egypt ; ^a the Lubims, the Sukkims, and the Ethiopians.

4 And he took the fenced cities which pertained to Judah, and came to Jerusalem.

5 ^a ¶ Then came ^a Shemaiah the prophet to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Judah, that were gathered together to Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said unto them, Thus saith the Lord, ^a Ye have forsaken me, and therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak.

6 Whereupon the princes of Israel and the king ^a humbled themselves ; and they said, ^b The Lord is righteous.

7 And when the Lord saw that they humbled themselves, ^a the word of the Lord came to Shemaiah, saying, They have humbled themselves ; therefore I will not destroy them, but I will grant them ^a some deliverance ; and my wrath shall not be poured out upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.

8 Nevertheless ^a they shall be his servants ; that they may know ^a my service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries.

9 ^a ¶ So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the king's house ; he took all : he carried away also the shields of gold which Solomon had ^a made.

10 Instead of which king Rehoboam made shields of brass, and committed them ^a to the hands of the chief of the guard, that kept the entrance of the king's house.

11 And when the king entered into the house of the Lord, the guard came and fetched them, and brought them again into the guard chamber.

12 And when he humbled himself, the wrath of the Lord turned from him, that he would not destroy him altogether : ^a and also in Judah things went well.

13 ^a ¶ So king Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned : for ^a Rehoboam was one and forty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, ^a the city which the Lord had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there. And his mother's name was Naamah an Ammonitess.

14 And he did evil, because he ^a prepared not his heart to seek the Lord.

15 Now the acts of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not written in the ^a book of Shemaiah the prophet, ^a and of Iddo the seer concerning genealogies ? ^a And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.

16 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David : and ^a Abijah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Abijah succeeding maketh war against Jeroboam. 4 He declareth the right of his cause. 13 Trusting in God, he overcometh Jeroboam. 21 The wives and children of Abijah.

NOW ^a in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam began Abijah to reign over Judah.

2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was ^a Michalah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

3 And Abijah ^a set the battle in array with an army of valliant men of war, even four hundred thousand chosen men : Jeroboam also set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, being mighty men of valour.

4 ^a ¶ And Abijah stood up upon mount ^a Zemaraim, which is in mount Ephraim, and said, Hear me, thou Jeroboam, and all Israel :

	1 Asa succeeding destroyeth idolatry. 6 Having peace, he strengtheneth his kingdom with forts and armies. 9 Calling on God, he overthroweth Zerah, and spoileth the Ethiopians.
	SO Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and ⁴ Asa his son reigned in his stead. In his days the land was quiet ten years.

	3 For he took away the altars of the strange gods, and ² the high places, and ² brake down the ² images, and cut down the groves:
	4 And commanded Judah to seek the LORD God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment.
	5 Also he took away out of all the cities of Judah the high places and the ⁴ images; and the kingdom was quiet before him.
	6 ¶ And he built fenced cities in Judah: for the land had rest, and he had no war in those years; because the LORD had given him rest.
	7 Therefore he said unto Judah, Let us build these cities, and make about them walls, and towers, gates, and bars, while the land ^{is} yet before us; because we have sought the LORD our God, we have sought him, and he hath given us rest on every side. So they built and prospered.
	8 And Asa had an army of men that bare targets and spears, out of Judah three hundred thousand; and out of Benjamin, that bare shields and drew bows, two hundred and fourscore thousand: all these ^{were} mighty men of valour.
	9 ¶ And there came out against them Zerah the Ethiopian with an host of a thousand thousand, and three hundred chariots; and came unto Mareshah.

O LORD, thou art our God; let not ⁴man prevail against thee.

12 So the LORD ⁵smote the Ethiopians before Asa, and before Judah; and the Ethiopians fled.

13 And Asa and the people that were with him pursued them unto ⁶Gerar: and the Ethiopians were overthrown, that they could not recover themselves; for they were ⁷destroyed before the LORD, and before his host; and they carried away very much spoil.

14 And they smote all the cities round about Gerar; for ⁸the fear of the LORD came upon them: and they spoiled all the cities; for there was exceeding much spoil in them.

15 They smote also the tents of cattle, and carried away sheep and camels in abundance, and returned to Jerusalem.

CHAPTER XV.

1 Asa with Judah and many of Israel, moved by the prophecy of Azariah the son of Oded, make a solemn covenant with God. 16 He putteth down Maachah his mother for her idolatry. 18 He bringeth dedicate things into the house of God, and enjoyeth a long peace.

AND ¹the Spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Oded:

2 And he went out ²to meet Asa, and said unto him, Hear ye me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin; ³The LORD is with you, while ye be with him; and ⁴if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but ⁵if ye forsake him, he will forsake you.

3 Now ⁶for a long season Israel hath been without the true God, and without ⁷a teaching priest, and without law.

4 But ⁸when they in their trouble did turn unto the LORD God of Israel, and sought him, he was found of them.

5 And ⁹in those times there was no peace to him that went out, nor to him that came in, but great vexations were upon all the inhabitants of the countries.

6 And nation was ¹⁰destroyed of nation, and city of city: for God did vex them with all adversity.

7 Be ye strong therefore, and let not your hands be weak: for your work shall be rewarded.

8 And when Asa heard these words, and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he took courage, and put away the ¹¹abominable idols out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities ¹²which he had taken from mount Ephraim, and renewed the altar of the LORD, that was before the porch of the LORD.

9 And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and ¹³the strangers with them out of Ephraim and Manasseh, and out of Simeon: for they fell to him out of Israel in abundance, when they saw that the LORD his God was with him.

10 So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa.

11 ¹⁴And they offered unto the LORD ¹⁵the same time, of ¹⁶the spoil which they had brought, seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep.

12 And they ¹⁷entered into a covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul;

13 ¹⁸That whosoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel ¹⁹should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman.

14 And they sware unto the LORD with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with cornets.

15 And all Judah rejoiced at the oath: for they had sworn with all their heart, and ²⁰sought him with their whole desire; and he was found of them: and the LORD gave them rest round about.

16 ²¹And also concerning ²²Maachah the ²³mother of Asa the king, he removed her from being queen, because she had made an ²⁴idol in a grove: and Asa cut down her idol, and stamped it, and burnt it at the brook Kidron.

17 But ²⁵the high places were not taken away out of Israel: nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect all his days.

18 ²⁶And he brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels.

19 And there was no ²⁷more war unto the five and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 Asa, by the aid of the Syrians, diverteth Baasha from building of Ramah. 7 Being reproved thereof by Heman, he putteth him in prison. 11 Among his other acts to his disease he seeketh not to God, but to the physicians. 13 His death and burial.

IN the six and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa ¹Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah, and built Ramah, ²to the intent that he might let none go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

2 Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of the LORD and of the king's house, and sent to Ben-hadad king of Syria, that dwelt at ³Damascus, saying,

3 ⁴There is a league between me and thee, as there was between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent thee silver and gold; go, break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.

4 And Ben-hadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel; and they smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-maim, and all the store cities of Naphtali.

5 And it came to pass, when Baasha heard it, that he left off building of Ramah, and let his work cease.

6 Then Asa the king took all Judah; and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, where-with Baasha was building; and he built therewith Geba and Mizpah.

7 ¶ And at that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said unto him, "Because thou hast relied on the king of Syria, and not relied on the LORD thy God, therefore is the host of the king of Syria escaped out of thine hand.

8 Were not the Ethiopians and the Lubims a huge host, with very many chariots and horsemen? yet, because thou didst rely on the LORD, he delivered them into thine hand.

9 ¶ For the eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to shew himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward him. Herein thou hast done foolishly: therefore from henceforth thou shalt have wars.

10 Then Asa was wroth with the seer, and put him in a prison house; for he was in a rage with him because of this thing. And Asa oppressed some of the people the same time.

11 ¶ And, behold, the acts of Asa, first and last, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

12 And Asa in the thirty and ninth year of his reign was diseased in his feet, until his disease was exceeding great: yet in his disease he sought not to the LORD, but to the physicians.

13 ¶ And Asa slept with his fathers, and died in the one and fortieth year of his reign.

14 And they buried him in his own sepulchres, which he had made for himself in the city of David, and laid him in the bed which was filled with sweet odours and divers kinds of spices prepared by the apothecaries' art: and they made a very great burning for him.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Jehoshaphat, succeeding Asa, reigneth well, and prospereth. 7 He sendeth Levites with the princes to teach Judah. 10 His enemies being terrified by God, some of them bring him presents and tribute. 12 His greatness, captains, and armies.

AND Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead, and strengthened himself against Israel.

2 And he placed forces in all the fenced cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim, which Asa his father had taken.

3 And the LORD was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the first ways of his father David, and sought not unto Baalim;

4 But sought to the LORD God of his father, and walked in his commandments, and not after the doings of Israel.

5 Therefore the LORD stablished the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah brought to Jehoshaphat presents; and he had riches and honour in abundance.

6 And his heart was lifted up in the ways of the LORD: moreover he took away the high places and groves out of Judah.

7 ¶ Also in the third year of his reign he sent to his princes, even to Ben-hail, and to Obadiah, and to Zechariah, and to Nethaneel, and to Michaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah.

8 And with them he sent Levites, even Shemaiah, and Nethaniah, and Zebadiah, and Asahel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehonathan, and Adonijah, and Tobijah, and Tob-adonijah, Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, priests.

9 ¶ And they taught in Judah, and had the book of the law of the LORD with them, and went about throughout all the cities of Judah, and taught the people.

10 ¶ And the fear of the LORD fell upon all the kingdoms of the lands that were round about Judah, so that they made no war against Jehoshaphat.

11 Also some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents, and tribute silver; and the Arabians brought him flocks, seven thousand and seven hundred rams, and seven thousand and seven hundred he goats.

12 ¶ And Jehoshaphat waxed great exceedingly; and he built in Judah castles, and cities of store.

13 And he had much business in the cities of Judah: and the men of war, mighty men of valour, were in Jerusalem.

14 And these are the numbers of them according to the house of their fathers: Of Judah, the captains of thousands; Adnah the chief, and with him mighty men of valour three hundred thousand.

15 And next to him was Jehohanan the captain, and with him two hundred and fourscore thousand.

16 And next him was Amasiah the son of Zichri, who willingly offered himself unto the LORD; and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valour.

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 Jehoshaphat, joined in affinity with Ahab, is persuaded to go with him against Ramoth-gilead. 4 Ahab, seduced by false prophets, according to the word of Micalah, is slain there.

NOW Jehoshaphat *had riches and honour in abundance, and joined affinity with Ahab.

2 *And after certain years he went down to Ahab to Samaria. And Ahab killed sheep and oxen for him in abundance, and for the people that he had with him, and persuaded him to go up with him to Ramoth-gilead.

3 And Ahab king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat king of Judah, Wilt thou go with me to Ramoth-gilead? And he answered him, I am as thou art, and my people as thy people; and we will be with thee in the war.

4 † And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, † Enquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to day.

5 Therefore the king of Israel gathered together of prophets four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for God will deliver it into the king's hand.

6 But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD besides, that we might enquire of him?

7 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man, by whom we may enquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he never prophesied good unto me, but always evil: the same is Micalah the son of Imli. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.

8 And the king of Israel called for one of his † officers, and said, † Fetch quickly Micalah the son of Imli.

9 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah sat either of them on his throne, clothed in their robes, and they sat in a † void place at the entering in of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them.

10 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made him horns of iron, and said, Thus saith the LORD, With these thou shalt push Syria until they be consumed.

11 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

12 And the messenger that went to call Micalah spake to him, saying, Behold, the words of the prophets declare good to the king † with one assent; let thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like one of their's, and speak thou good.

13 And Micalah said, As the LORD liveth, even what my God saith, that will I speak.

14 And when he was come to the king, the king said unto him, Micalah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And he said, Go ye up, and prosper, and they shall be delivered into your hand.

15 And the king said to him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou say nothing but the truth to me in the name of the LORD?

16 Then he said, I did see all Israel scattered upon the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master; let them return therefore every man to his house in peace.

17 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would not prophesy good unto me, † but evil?

18 Again he said, Therefore hear the word of the LORD; I saw the LORD sitting upon his throne, and all the host of heaven standing on his right hand and on his left.

19 And the LORD said, Who shall entice Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one spake saying after this manner, and another saying after that manner.

20 Then there came out a † spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will entice him. And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith?

21 And he said, I will go out, and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And the LORD said, Thou shalt entice him, and thou shalt also prevail: go out, and do even so.

22 Now therefore, behold, † the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil against thee.

23 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and † smote Micalah upon the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto thee?

24 And Micalah said, Behold, thou shalt see on that day when thou shalt go † into † an inner chamber to hide thyself.

25 Then the king of Israel said, Take ye Micalah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son;

26 And say, Thus saith the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I return in peace.

27 And Micajah said, If thou certainly return in peace, then hath not the LORD spoken by me. And he said, Hearken, all ye people.

28 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead.

29 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and will go to the battle; but put thou on thy robes. So the king of Israel disguised himself; and they went to the battle.

30 Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of the chariots that were with him, saying, Fight ye not with small or great, save only with the king of Israel.

31 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, It is the king of Israel. Therefore they compassed about him to fight: but Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him; and God moved them to depart from him.

32 For it came to pass, that, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back again from pursuing him.

33 And a certain man drew a bow at a venture, and smote the king of Israel between the joints of the harness: therefore he said to his chariot man, Turn thine hand, that thou mayest carry me out of the host; for I am wounded.

34 And the battle increased that day: howbeit the king of Israel stayed himself up in his chariot against the Syrians until the even: and about the time of the sun going down he died.

CHAPTER XIX.

1 Jehoshaphat, reproved by Jehu, visiteth his kingdom. 5 His instructions to the judges, 8 to the priests and Levites.

AND Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned to his house in peace to Jerusalem.

2 And Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him, and said to king Jehoshaphat, Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate the LORD? therefore is ^{his} wrath upon thee from before the LORD.

3 Nevertheless there are good things found in thee, in that thou hast taken away the groves out of the land, and hast prepared thine heart to seek God.

4 And Jehoshaphat dwelt at Jerusalem: and he went out again through the people from Beer-sheba to mount Ephraim, and brought them back unto the LORD God of their fathers.

5 ¶ And he set judges in the land throughout all the fenced cities of Judah, city by city,

6 And said to the judges, Take heed what ye do: for ye judge not for man, but for the LORD, who is with you in the judgment.

7 Wherefore now let the fear of the LORD be upon you; take heed and do it: for there is no iniquity with the LORD our God, nor respect of persons, nor taking of gifts.

8 ¶ Moreover in Jerusalem did Jehoshaphat set of the Levites, and of the priests, and of the chief of the fathers of Israel, for the judgment of the LORD, and for controversies, when they returned to Jerusalem.

9 And he charged them, saying, Thus shall ye do in the fear of the LORD, faithfully, and with a perfect heart.

10 ¶ And what cause soever shall come to you of your brethren that dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and judgments, ye shall even warn them that they trespass not against the LORD, and so wrath come upon you, and upon your brethren: this do, and ye shall not trespass.

11 And, behold, Amariah the chief priest is over you in all matters of the LORD; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, for all the king's matters: also the Levites shall be officers before you. Deal courageously, and the LORD shall be with you in the good.

CHAPTER XX.

1 Jehoshaphat in his fear proclaimeth a fast. 5 His prayer. 14 The prophecy of Jahaziel. 20 Jehoshaphat exhorteth the people, and setteth singers to praise the Lord. 22 The great overthrow of the enemies. 23 The people, having blessed God at Beersheba, return in triumph. 31 Jehoshaphat's reign. 35 His convoy of ships, which he made with Ahaziah, according to the prophecy of Eliezer, unhappily perished.

IT came to pass after this also, that the children of Moab, and the children of Ammon, and with them other beside the Ammonites, came against Jehoshaphat to battle.

2 Then there came some that told Jehoshaphat, saying, There cometh a great multitude against thee from beyond the sea on this side Syria; and, behold, they be in Hazazon-tamar, which is in Engedi.

3 And Jehoshaphat feared, and set himself to seek the LORD, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.

4 And Judah gathered themselves together, to ask help of the LORD: even out of all the cities of Judah they came to seek the LORD.

5 ¶ And Jehoshaphat stood in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD, before the new court, there not power and might, so that none is able to withstand thee?

7 Art not thou ¹our God, ²who didst drive out the inhabitants of this land before thy people Israel, and gavest it to the seed of Abraham ³thy friend for ever?

8 And they dwell therein, and have built thee a sanctuary therein for thy name, saying,

9 'If, when evil cometh upon us, as the sword, judgment, or pestilence, or famine, we stand before this house, and in thy presence, (for thy name is in this house,) and cry unto thee in our affliction, then thou wilt hear and help.

10 And now, behold, the children of Ammon and Moab and mount Seir, whom thou 'wouldest not let Israel invade, when they came out of the land of Egypt, but 'they turned from them, and destroyed them not;

11 Behold, I say, how they reward us, ²to come to cast us out of thy possession, which thou hast given us to inherit.

12 O our God, wilt thou not ³judge them? for we have no might against this great company that cometh against us; neither know we what to do: but 'our eyes are upon thee.

13 And all Judah stood before the Lord, with their little ones, their wives, and their children.

14 ¶ Then upon Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaliah, the son of Jelei, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph, 'came the Spirit of the Lord in the midst of the congregation;

15 And he said, Harken ye, all Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, and thou king Jehoshaphat, Thus saith the Lord unto you, 'Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not yours, but God's.

16 To morrow go ye down against them: behold, they come up by the ³cliff of Ziz; and ye shall find them at the end of the ⁴brook, before the wilderness of Jeruel.

17 'Ye shall not need to fight in this battle: set yourselves, stand ye still, and see the salvation of the Lord with you, O Judah and Jerusalem: fear not, nor be dismayed; to morrow go out against them: ²for the Lord will be with you.

18 And Jehoshaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell before the Lord, worshipping the Lord.

19 And the Levites, of the children of the Kohathites, and of the children of the Korhites, stood up to praise the Lord God of Israel with a loud voice on high.

20 ¶ And they rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem; 'Believe in the Lord your God, so shall ye be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper.

21 And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed singers unto the Lord, ²and ³that should praise the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army, and to say, 'Praise the Lord; 'for his mercy endureth for ever.

22 ¶ And when they began ⁴to sing and to praise, ⁵the Lord set ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah; and ⁶they were smitten.

23 For the children of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of mount Seir, utterly to slay and destroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, every one helped ⁶to destroy another.

24 And when Judah came toward the watch tower in the wilderness, they looked unto the multitude, and, behold, they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and ⁷none escaped.

25 And when Jehoshaphat and his people came to take away the spoil of them, they found among them in abundance both riches with the dead bodies, and precious jewels, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away: and they were three days in gathering of the spoil, it was so much.

26 ¶ And on the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of ⁸Berachah; for there they blessed the Lord: therefore the name of the same place was called, The valley of Berachah, unto this day.

27 Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in the ⁹forefront of them, to go again to Jerusalem with joy; for the Lord had ¹⁰made them to rejoice over their enemies.

28 And they came to Jerusalem with psalteries and harps and trumpets unto the house of the Lord.

29 And the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of those countries, when they had heard that the Lord fought against the enemies of Israel.

30 So the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet: for his ¹¹God gave him rest round about.

31 ¶ And Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah: he was thirty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned Jehoiada.

AND the inhabitants of Jerusalem made ^aAhaziah his youngest son king in his stead: for the band of men that came with the Arabians to the camp had slain all the ^aeldest. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned.

2 ^aForty and two years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was ^aAthallah the daughter of Omri.

3 He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab: for his mother was his counsellor to do wickedly.

4 Wherefore he did evil in the sight of the LORD like the house of Ahab: for they were his counsellors after the death of his father to his destruction.

5 ^a¶ He walked also after their counsel, and ^awent with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead: and the Syrians smote Joram.

6 ^a¶ And he returned to be healed in Jezreel because of the wounds ^awhich were given him at Ramah, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. And ^aAzariah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab at Jezreel, because he was sick.

7 And the ^adestruction of Ahaziah ^awas of God by coming to Joram: for when he was come, he ^awent out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, ^awhom the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab.

8 And it came to pass, that, when Jehu was ^aexecuting judgment upon the house of Ahab, and ^afound the princes of Judah, and the sons of the brethren of Ahaziah, that ministered to Ahaziah, he slew them.

9 ^a¶ And he sought Ahaziah: and they caught him, (for he was hid in Samaria,) and brought him to Jehu: and when they had slain him, they buried him: Because, said they, he ^ais the son of Jehoshaphat, who ^asought the LORD with all his heart. So the house of Ahaziah had no power to keep still the kingdom.

10 ^a¶ But when Athallah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal of the house of Judah.

11 But ^aJehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons that were slain, and put him and his nurse in a bedchamber. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest, (for she was the sister of Ahaziah,) hid him from Athallah, so that she slew him not.

12 And he was with them hid in the house of God six years: and Athallah reigned over the land.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 Jehoiada, having set things in order, maketh Joash king. 12 Athallah is slain. 16 Jehoiada restoreth the worship of God.

AND ^ain the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds, Azariah the son of Jeroham, and Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, and Azariah the son of Obed, and Maaseiah the son of Adalah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri, into covenant with him.

2 And they went about in Judah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the chief of the fathers of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

3 And all the congregation made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And he said unto them, Behold, the king's son shall reign, as the LORD hath ^asaid of the sons of David.

4 This ^ais the thing that ye shall do; A third part of you ^aentering on the sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, ^ashall be porters of the ^a2 doors;

5 And a third part ^ashall be at the king's house; and a third part at the gate of the foundation: and all the people ^ashall be in the courts of the house of the LORD.

6 But let none come into the house of the LORD, save the priests, and ^athey that minister of the Levites; they shall go in, for they are holy: but all the people shall keep the watch of the LORD.

7 And the Levites shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whosoever ^aelse cometh into the house, he shall be put to death: but be ye with the king when he cometh in, and when he goeth out.

8 So the Levites and all Judah did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest had commanded, and took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that were to go out on the sabbath: for Jehoiada the priest dismissed not ^athe courses.

9 Moreover Jehoiada the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds spears, and bucklers, and shields, that ^ahad been king David's, which were in the house of God.

10 And he set all the people, every man having his weapon in his hand, from the right ^aside of the ^atemple to the left side of the temple, along by the altar and the temple, by the king round about.

11 Then they brought out the king's son, and put upon him the crown, and 19 And he set the 1 porters at the gates of the house of the LORD, that none which was unclean in any thing should enter in.

20 ¶ And he took the captains of hundreds, and the nobles, and the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought down the king from the house of the LORD: and they came through the high gate into the king's house, and set the king upon the throne of the kingdom.

21 And all the people of the land rejoiced: and the city was quiet, after that they had slain Athaliah with the sword.

27 Amaziah succeedeth him.

JOASH 1 was seven years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Zibiah of Beersheba.

2 And Joash 1 did that which was right in the sight of the LORD all the days of Jehoiada the priest.

3 And Jehoiada took for him two wives; and he begat sons and daughters.

4 ¶ And it came to pass after this, that Joash was minded 2 to repair the house of the LORD.

5 And he gathered together the priests and the Levites, and said to them, Go out unto the cities of Judah, and 1 gather of all Israel money to repair the house of your God from year to year, and see that ye hasten the matter. Howbeit the Levites hastened it not.

6 ¶ And the king called for Jehoiada the chief, and said unto him, Why hast thou not required of the Levites to bring in out of Judah and out of Jerusalem the collection, according to the commandment of 1 Moses the servant of the LORD, and of the congregation of Israel, for the 1 tabernacle of witness?

7 For 2 the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken up the house of God; and also all the 1 dedicated things of the house of the LORD did they bestow upon Baalim.

8 And at the king's commandment 1 they made a chest, and set it without at the gate of the house of the LORD.

9 And they made 3 a proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in to the LORD 4 the collection that Moses the servant of God laid upon Israel in the wilderness.

10 And all the princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had made an end.

11 Now it came to pass, that at what time the chest was brought unto the king's office by the hand of the Levites, and 1 when they saw that there was much money, the king's scribe and the high priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to his place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance.

12 And the king and Jehoiada gave it to such as did the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and hired masons and carpenters to repair the house of the LORD, and also such as wrought iron and brass to mend the house of the LORD.

13 So the workmen wrought, and 4 the work was perfected by them, and they set the house of God in his state, and strengthened it.

14 And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, 1 whereof were made vessels for the house of the LORD, even vessels to minister, and to offer withal, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Jeholada.

16 ¶ But Jeholada waxed old, and was full of days when he died; and an hundred and thirty years old was he when he died.

16 And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, both toward God, and toward his house.

17 Now after the death of Jeholada came the princes of Judah, and made obeisance to the king. Then the king hearkened unto them.

18 And they left the house of the LORD God of their fathers, and served "groves and idols; and "wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this their trespass.

19 Yet he "sent prophets to them, to bring them again unto the LORD; and they testified against them: but they would not give ear.

20 And "the Spirit of God "came upon Zechariah the son of Jeholada the priest, which stood above the people, and said unto them, Thus saith God, "Why transgress ye the commandments of the LORD, that ye cannot prosper? "because ye have forsaken the LORD, he hath also forsaken you.

21 And they conspired against him, and "stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king in the court of the house of the LORD.

22 Thus Joash the king remembered not the kindness which Jeholada his father had done to him, but slew his son. And when he died, he said, The LORD look upon it, and require it.

23 ¶ And it came to pass "at the end of the year, that "the host of Syria came up against him: and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them unto the king of "Damascus.

24 For the army of the Syrians "came with a small company of men, and the LORD "delivered a very great host into their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. So they "executed judgment against Joash.

25 And when they were departed from him, (for they left him in great diseases,) "his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the "sons of Jeholada the priest, and slew him on his bed, and he died: and they buried him in the city of David, but they buried him not in the sepulchres of the kings.

26 And these are they that conspired against him; "Zabab the son of Shimeath an Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of "Shimrith a Moabitess.

27 ¶ Now concerning his sons, and the greatness of "the burdens laid upon him, and the "repairing of the house of God, behold, they are written in the "story of the book of the kings. "And Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XXV.

1 Amaziah beginneth to reign well. 3 He executeth justice on the traitors. 5 Having hired an army of Israelites against the Edomites, at the word of a prophet he loseth the hundred talents, and dismisseth them. 11 He overthroweth the Edomites. 10, 13 The Israelites, discontented with their dismissal, spoil as they return home. 14 Amaziah, proud of his victory, serveth the gods of Edom, and despiseth the admonitions of the prophet. 17 He provoketh Joash to his overthrow. 25 His reign. 27 He is slain by conspiracy.

AMAZIAH "was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, "but not with a perfect heart.

3 ¶ "Now it came to pass, when the kingdom was "established to him, that he slew his servants that had killed the king his father.

4 But he slew not their children, but did as it is written in the law in the book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying, "The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers, but every man shall die for his own sin.

5 ¶ Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together, and made them captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, according to the houses of their fathers, throughout all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbered them "from twenty years old and above, and found them three hundred thousand choice men, able to go forth to war, that could handle spear and shield.

6 He hired also an hundred thousand mighty men of valour out of Israel for an hundred talents of silver.

7 But there came a man of God to him, saying, O king, let not the army of Israel go with thee; for the LORD is not with Israel, to wit, with all the children of Ephraim.

8 But if thou wilt go, do it, be strong for the battle: God shall make thee fall before the enemy: for God hath "power to help, and to cast down.

9 And Amaziah said to the man of God, But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the "army of Israel? And the man of God answered, "The LORD is able to give thee much more than this.

10 Then Amaziah separated them, to wit, the army that was come to him out of Ephraim, to go "home again:

that dwelt in Gur-baal, and the Melunims.

8 And the Ammonites gave gifts to Uzziah: and his name spread abroad even to the entering in of Egypt: for he strengthened himself exceedingly.

9 Moreover Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the corner gate, and at the valley gate, and at the turning of the wall, and fortified them.

10 Also he built towers in the desert, and digged many wells: for he had much cattle, both in the low country, and in the plains: husbandmen also, and vine dressers in the mountains, and in Carmel: for he loved husbandry.

11 Moreover Uzziah had an host of fighting men, that went out to war by bands, according to the number of their account by the hand of Jelel the scribe and Maasclah the ruler, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains.

12 The whole number of the chief of the fathers of the mighty men of valour were two thousand and six hundred.

13 And under their hand was an army, three hundred thousand and seven thousand and five hundred, that made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy.

14 And Uzziah prepared for them throughout all the host shields, and spears, and helmets, and habergeons, and bows, and slings to cast stones.

15 And he made in Jerusalem engines, invented by cunning men, to be on the towers and upon the bulwarks, to shoot arrows and great stones withal. And his name spread far abroad: for he was marvellously helped, till he was strong.

16 ¶ But when he was strong, his heart was lifted up to his destruction: for he transgressed against the LORD his God, and went into the temple of the LORD to burn incense upon the altar of incense.

17 And Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him fourscore priests of the LORD, that were valiant men:

18 And they withstood Uzziah the king, and said unto him, It is appertaineth not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the LORD, but to the priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary; for thou hast transgressed; neither shall it be for thine honour from the LORD God.

19 Then Uzziah was wroth, and had a censer in his hand to burn incense: and while he was wroth with the priests, the leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, from beside the incense altar.

20 And Azariah the chief priest, and all the priests, looked upon him, and, behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out from thence; yea, himself hasted also to go out, because the LORD had smitten him.

21 ¶ And Uzziah the king was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a several house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the house of the LORD: and Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land.

22 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, first and last, did Isalah the prophet, the son of Amoz, write.

23 ¶ So Uzziah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of the burial which belonged to the kings; for they said, He is a leper: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XXVII.

1 Jotham reigning well prospereth. 5 He succedeth the Ammonites. 7 His reign. 9 Ahaz succedeth him.

JOTHAM was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jerushah, the daughter of Zadok.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah did: howbeit he entered not into the temple of the LORD. And the people did yet corruptly.

3 He built the high gate of the house of the LORD, and on the wall of Ophel he built much.

4 Moreover he built cities in the mountains of Judah, and in the forests he built castles and towers.

5 ¶ He fought also with the king of the Ammonites, and prevailed against them. And the children of Ammon gave him the same year an hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. 6 So much did the children of Ammon pay unto him, both the second year, and the third.

6 So Jotham became mighty, because he prepared his ways before the LORD his God.

7 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars, and his ways, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

8 He was five and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem.

9 ¶ And Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

10 Jam. 2. 13.

AHAZ ¹was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: but he did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD, like David his father:

2 For he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and made also ²molten images for Baalim.

3 Moreover he ²burnt incense in ⁴the valley of the son of Hinnom, and burnt ⁵his children in the fire, after the abominations of the heathen whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

4 He sacrificed also and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

5 Wherefore ⁷the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria: and they ⁸smote him, and carried away a great multitude of them captives, and brought them to Damascus. And he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who smote him with a great slaughter.

6 ¶ For Pekah the son of Remaliah slew in Judah an hundred and twenty thousand in one day, which were all ⁹valiant men; because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers.

7 And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, slew Maaseiah the king's son, and Azrikam the governor of the house, and Elkanah that was next to the king.

8 And the children of Israel carried away captive of their brethren two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and took also away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.

9 But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded: and he went out before the host that came to Samaria, and said unto them, Behold, ¹⁰because the LORD God of your fathers was wroth with Judah, he hath delivered them into your hand, and ye have slain them in a rage that ¹¹reacheth up unto heaven.

10 And now ye purpose to keep under the children of Judah and Jerusalem for ¹²bondmen and bondwomen unto you: but are there not with you, even with you, sins against the LORD your God?

11 Now hear me therefore, and deliver the captives again, which ye have taken captive of your brethren: for the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you.

12 Then certain of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against them that came from the war,

13 And said unto them, Ye shall not bring in the captives hither: for whereas we have offended against the LORD already, ye intend to add more to our sins and to our trespass: for our trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel.

14 So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the congregation.

15 And the men ¹³which were expressed by name rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all that were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, and ¹⁴gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them upon asses, and brought them to Jericho, ¹⁵the city of palm trees, to their brethren: then they returned to Samaria.

16 ¶ At that time did king Ahaz send unto the kings of Assyria to help him.

17 For again the Edomites had come and smitten Judah, and carried away ¹⁶captives.

18 ¶ The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the low country, and of the south of Judah, and had taken Beth-shemesh, and Ajalon, and Gederoth, and Shochoh with the villages thereof, and Timnah with the villages thereof, Gimzo also and the villages thereof: and they dwelt there.

19 For the LORD brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Israel: for he ¹⁷made Judah naked, and transgressed sore against the LORD.

20 And Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria came unto him, and distressed him, but strengthened him not.

21 For Ahaz took away a portion out of the house of the LORD, and out of the house of the king, and of the princes, and gave it unto the king of Assyria: but he helped him not.

22 ¶ And in the time of his distress did he trespass yet more against the LORD: this is that king Ahaz.

23 For ¹⁸he sacrificed unto the gods of Damascus, which smote him: and he said, Because the gods of the kings of Syria help them, therefore will I sacrifice to them, that ¹⁹they may help me. But they were the ruin of him, and of all Israel.

24 And Ahaz gathered together the vessels of the house of God, and cut in pieces the vessels of the house of God, and shut up the doors of the house of the LORD, and he made him altars in every corner of Jerusalem.

25 And in every several city of Judah he made high places ²⁰to burn incense unto other gods, and provoked to anger the LORD God of his fathers.

26 ¶ Now the rest of his acts and of all his ways, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

27 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, even in Jerusalem: but they brought him not into the sepulchres of the kings of Israel: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XXIX.

1 Hezekiah's good reign. 3 He restoreth religion. 5 He exhorteth the Levites. 12 They sanctify themselves, and cleanse the house of God. 20 Hezekiah offereth solemn sacrifice, wherein the Levites were more forward than the priests.

HZEKIAH ^abegan to reign when he was five and twenty years old, and he reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Abijah, the daughter ^bof Zechariah.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done.

3 ¶ He in the first year of his reign, in the first month, ^copened the doors of the house of the LORD, and repaired ^dthem.

4 And he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the east street.

5 And said unto them, Hear me, ye Levites, ^esanctify now yourselves, and sanctify the house of the LORD God of your fathers, and carry forth the filthiness out of the holy place.

6 For our fathers have trespassed, and done that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD our God, and have forsaken him, and have ^fturned away their faces from the habitation of the LORD, and ^gturned their backs.

7 Also they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lumps, and have not burned incense nor offered burnt offerings in the holy place unto the God of Israel.

8 Wherefore the ^hwrath of the LORD was upon Judah and Jerusalem, and he hath delivered them to ⁱtrouble, to astonishment, and to ^jhissing, as ye see with your eyes.

9 For, lo, ^kour fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this.

10 Now it is in mine heart to make ^la covenant with the LORD God of Israel, that his fierce wrath may turn away from us.

11 My sons, ^mbe not now negligent: for the LORD hath ⁿchosen you to stand before him, to serve him, and that ye should minister unto him, and ^oburn incense.

12 ¶ Then the Levites arose, Mahath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites: and of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehalciel: and of the Gershonites; Joah the son of Zimma, and Eden the son of Joah:

13 And of the sons of Elizaphan; Shimri, and Jelei: and of the sons of Asaph; Zechariah, and Mattaniah:

14 And of the sons of Heman; Jehiel, and Shimei: and of the sons of Jeduthun; Shemaiah, and Uzziel.

15 And they gathered their brethren, and ^psanctified themselves, and came, according to the commandment of the king, ^qby the words of the LORD, ^rto cleanse the house of the LORD.

16 And the priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD, to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it, to carry it out abroad into the brook Kidron.

17 Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of the LORD: so they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days; and in the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end.

18 Then they went in to Hezekiah the king, and said, We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt offering, with all the vessels thereof, and the shewbread table, with all the vessels thereof.

19 Moreover all the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign did ^scast away in his transgression, have we prepared and sanctified, and, behold, they are before the altar of the LORD.

20 ¶ Then Hezekiah the king rose early, and gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD.

21 And they brought seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he goats, for a ^tsin offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah. And he commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to offer them on the altar of the LORD.

22 So they killed the bullocks, and the priests received the blood, and ^usprinkled it on the altar: likewise, when they had killed the rams, they sprinkled the blood upon the altar: they killed also the lambs, and they sprinkled the blood upon the altar.

23 And they brought ^vforth the he goats for the sin offering before the king and the congregation; and they laid their ^whands upon them:

24 And the priests killed them, and they made reconciliation with their blood upon the altar, ^xto make an atonement for all Israel: for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Israel.

25 ¶ And he set the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, ^yaccording to the commandment of David, and of ^zGad the king's seer, and Nathan the prophet: ^{aa}for so was the commandment ^{ab}of the LORD ^{ac}by his prophets.

26 And the Levites stood with the instruments ^aof David, and the priests with ^athe trumpet.

27 And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt offering upon the altar. And ^bwhen the burnt offering began, ^bthe song of the Lord began ^{also} with the trumpets, and with the ^cinstruments ordained by David king of Israel.

28 And all the congregation worshipped, and the ^dsingers sang, and the trumpeters sounded: and all this continued until the burnt offering was finished.

29 And when they had made an end of offering, ^ethe king and all that were ^epresent with him bowed themselves, and worshipped.

30 Moreover Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praise unto the Lord with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer. And they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped.

31 Then Hezekiah answered and said, Now ye have ^fconsecrated yourselves unto the Lord, come near and bring sacrifices and ^gthank offerings into the house of the Lord. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank offerings; and as many as were of a free heart burnt offerings.

32 And the number of the burnt offerings, which the congregation brought, was threescore and ten bullocks, an hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt offering to the Lord.

33 And the consecrated things were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep.

34 But the priests were too few, so that they could not flay all the burnt offerings: wherefore ^htheir brethren the Levites ^hdid help them, till the work was ended, and until the other priests had sanctified themselves: ⁱfor the Levites were more ⁱupright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests.

35 And also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with ^kthe fat of the peace offerings, and ^kthe drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the house of the Lord was set in order.

36 And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, that God had prepared the people: for the thing was done suddenly.

CHAPTER XXX.

1 Hezekiah proclaimeth a solemn passover on the second month for Judah and Israel. 13 The assembly, having destroyed the altars of idolatry, keep the feast fourteen days. 27 The priests and Levites bless the people.

AND Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the Lord at Jerusalem, to keep the passover unto the Lord God of Israel.

2 For the king had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, to keep the passover in the second ^lmonth.

3 For they could not keep it ^mat that time, ^mbecause the priests had not sanctified themselves sufficiently, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem.

4 And the thing ⁿpleased the king and all the congregation.

5 So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beer-sheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the passover unto the Lord God of Israel at Jerusalem: for they had not done ^oit of a long time ^oin such sort as it was written.

6 So the posts went with the letters ^pfrom the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye children of Israel, ^qturn again unto the Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and he will return to the remnant of you, that are escaped out of the hand of ^rthe kings of Assyria.

7 And be not ye ^slike your fathers, and like your brethren, which trespassed against the Lord God of their fathers, ^swho therefore ^sgave them up to desolation, as ye see.

8 Now ^tbe ye not ^tstiffnecked, as your fathers were, but ^uyield yourselves unto the Lord, and enter into his sanctuary, which he hath sanctified for ever: and serve the Lord your God, ^uthat the fierceness of his wrath may turn away from you.

9 For if ye turn again unto the Lord, your brethren and your children shall find ^vcompassion before them that lead them captive, so that they shall come again into this land: for the Lord your God is ^wgracious and merciful, and will not turn away ^whis face from you, if ye ^wreturn unto him.

10 So the posts passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh even unto Zebulun: but ^xthey laughed them to scorn, and mocked them.

11 Nevertheless ^ydivers of Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem.

12 Also in Judah ^zthe hand of God was to give them one heart to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, ^zby the word of the Lord.

13 ¶ And there assembled at Jerusalem much people to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great congregation.

14 And they arose and took away the ^{aa}altars that were in Jerusalem, and all have left plenty: for the LORD hath blessed his people; and that which is left is this great store.

11 ¶ Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare chambers in the house of the LORD; and they prepared them, and brought in the offerings and the tithes and the dedicated things faithfully: over which Cononiah the Levite was ruler, and Shimei his brother was the next.

13 And Jehiel, and Azariah, and Nahath, and Asahel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Ismaiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah, were overseers under the hand of Cononiah and Shimei his brother, at the commandment of Hezekiah the king, and Azariah the ruler of the house of God.

14 And Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the porter toward the east, was over the freewill offerings of God, to distribute the oblations of the LORD, and the most holy things.

15 And next him were Eden, and Miniamin, and Jeshua, and She-malah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, in the cities of the priests, in their set office, to give to their brethren by courses, as well to the great as to the small:

16 Beside their genealogy of males, from three years old and upward, even unto every one that entereth into the house of the LORD, his daily portion for their service in their charges according to their courses;

17 Both to the genealogy of the priests by the house of their fathers, and the Levites from twenty years old and upward, in their charges by their courses;

18 And to the genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, through all the congregation: for in their set office they sanctified themselves in holiness:

19 Also of the sons of Aaron the priests, which were in the fields of the suburbs of their cities, in every several city, the men that were expressed by name, to give portions to all the males among the priests, and to all that were reckoned by genealogies among the Levites.

20 ¶ And thus did Hezekiah throughout all Judah, and wrought that which was good and right and truth before the LORD his God.

21 And in every work that he began in the service of the house of God, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

CHAPTER XXXII.

1 Sennacherib invading Judah, Hezekiah fortifieth himself, and encourageth his people. 2 Against the blasphemies of Sennacherib, by message and letters, Hezekiah and Isaiah pray. 3 An angel destroyeth the host of the Assyrians, to the glory of Hezekiah. 4 Hezekiah praying in his sickness, God giveth him a sign of recovery. 5 He waxing proud is humbled by God. 6 His weakness and works. 7 His error in the embassy of Babylon. 8 He dying, Manasseh succeedeth him.

AFTER these things, and the establishment thereof, Sennacherib king of Assyria came, and entered into Judah, and encamped against the fenced cities, and thought to win them for himself.

2 And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib was come, and that he was purposed to fight against Jerusalem,

3 He took counsel with his princes and his mighty men to stop the waters of the fountains which were without the city: and they did help him.

4 So there was gathered much people together, who stopped all the fountains, and the brook that ran through the midst of the land, saying, Why should the kings of Assyria come, and find much water?

5 Also he strengthened himself, and built up all the wall that was broken, and raised it up to the towers, and another wall without, and repaired Millo in the city of David, and made darts and shields in abundance.

6 And he set captains of war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the street of the gate of the city, and spake comfortably to them, saying,

7 Be strong and courageous, for be not afraid nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude that is with him: for there be more with us than with him:

8 With him is an arm of flesh; but with us is the LORD our God to help us, and to fight our battles. And the people rested themselves upon the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

9 ¶ After this did Sennacherib king of Assyria send his servants to Jerusalem, (but he himself laid siege against Lachish, and all his power with him,) unto Hezekiah king of Judah, and unto all Judah that were at Jerusalem, saying,

10 Thus saith Sennacherib king of Assyria, Whereon do ye trust, that ye abide in the siege in Jerusalem?

11 Doth not Hezekiah persuade you to give over yourselves to die by famine and by thirst, saying, The LORD our God shall deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

12 Hath not the same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall worship before one altar, and burn incense upon it?

of heaven * in the two courts of the house of the LORD.

6 * And he caused his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom: * also he observed times, and used enchantments, and used witchcraft, and * dealt with a familiar spirit, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

7 And * he set a carved image, the idol which he had made, in the house of God, of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, In * this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen before all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever:

8 * Neither will I any more remove the foot of Israel from out of the land which I have appointed for your fathers; so that they will take heed to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moses.

9 So Manasseh made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to err, and to do worse than the heathen, whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 And the LORD spake to Manasseh, and to his people: but they would not hearken.

11 * Wherefore the LORD brought upon them the captains of the host of the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh among the thorns, and * bound him with * fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

12 And when he was in affliction, he besought the LORD his God, and * humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers, 13 And prayed unto him: and he was * intreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh * knew that the LORD he was God.

14 Now after this he built a wall without the city of David, on the west side of * Gihon, in the valley, even to the entering in at the fish gate, and compassed * about * Ophel, and raised it up a very great height, and put captains of war in all the fenced cities of Judah.

15 And he took away * the strange gods, and the idol out of the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the LORD, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city.

16 And he repaired the altar of the LORD, and sacrificed thereon peace offerings, and * thank offerings, and commanded Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel.

17 * Nevertheless the people did sacrifice still in the high places, yet unto the LORD their God only.

18 * Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer unto his God, and the words of * the seers that spake to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel.

19 His prayer also, and how God was intreated of him, and all his sins, and his trespass, and the places wherein he built high places, and set up groves and graven images, before he was humbled: behold, they are written among the sayings of * the seers.

20 * So Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

21 * Amon was two and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned two years in Jerusalem.

22 But he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as did Manasseh his father: for Amon sacrificed unto all the carved images which Manasseh his father had made, and served them;

23 And humbled not himself before the LORD, * as Manasseh his father had humbled himself; but Amon * trespassed more and more.

24 * And his servants conspired against him, and slew him in his own house.

25 * But the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

1 Josiah's good reign. 5 He destroyeth idolatry. 8 He taketh order for the repair of the temple. 14 Hilkiah having found a book of the law, Josiah sendeth to Huldah to enquire of the LORD. 23 Huldah prophesieth the destruction of Jerusalem, but respite thereof in Josiah's time. 26 Josiah, causing it to be read in a solemn assembly, reneweth the covenant with God.

JOSIAH * was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem one and thirty years.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father, and declined neither to the right hand, nor to the left.

3 * For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to * seek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began * to purge Judah and Jerusalem * from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images.

4 * And they brake down the altars of Baalim in his presence; and the * images, that were on high above them, he cut down; and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images, he brake in pieces, and made dust of them, and strowed it upon

⁵ And he ² burnt the bones of the priests upon their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.

⁶ And so did he in the cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even unto Naphtali, with their ² mattocks round about.

⁷ And when he had broken down the altars and the groves, and had ⁴ beaten the graven images ⁴ into powder, and cut down all the idols throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.

⁸ ¶ Now ⁴ in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land, and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azallah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of the Lord his God.

⁹ And when they came to Hilkiah the high priest, they delivered ² the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites that kept the doors had gathered of the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin; and they returned to Jerusalem.

¹⁰ And they put ² it in the hand of the workmen that had the oversight of the house of the Lord, and they gave it to the workmen that wrought in the house of the Lord, to repair and amend the house:

¹² And the men did the work faithfully: and the overseers of them were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to set ² it forward; and other of the Levites, all that could skill of instruments of musick.

¹³ Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and were overseers of all that wrought the work in any manner of service: ⁴ and of the Levites there were scribes, and officers, and porters.

¹⁴ ¶ And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the Lord, Hilkiah the priest ¹ found a book of the law of the Lord given ⁶ by Moses.

¹⁶ And Shaphan carried the book to the king, and brought the king word back again, saying, All that was committed ⁷ to thy servants, they do it.

¹⁸ Then Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest hath given me a book. And Shaphan read ² it before the king.

¹⁹ And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the law, that he rent his clothes.

²³ ¶ And she answered them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Tell ye the man that sent you to me,

²⁴ Thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah:

²⁵ Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore my wrath shall be poured out upon this place, and shall not be quenched.

²⁷ Because thine heart was tender, and thou didst humble thyself before God, when thou heardest his words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, and humbledst thyself before me, and didst rend thy clothes, and weep before me; I have even heard thee also, saith the Lord.

²⁸ Behold, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in peace, neither shall thine eyes see all the evil that I will bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants of the same. So they brought the king word again.

29 ¶ Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

30 And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, great and small: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of the LORD.

31 And the king stood in his place, and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant which are written in this book.

32 And he caused all that were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand to it. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.

33 And Josiah took away all the abominations out of all the countries that pertained to the children of Israel, and made all that were present in Israel to serve, even to serve the LORD their God. And all his days they departed not from following the LORD, the God of their fathers.

CHAPTER XXXV.

1 Josiah keepeth a most solemn passover. 20 He, proving Pharaoh-necho, is slain at Megiddo. 25 Lamentations for Josiah.

MOREOVER Josiah kept a passover unto the LORD in Jerusalem: and they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month.

2 And he set the priests in their charges, and encouraged them to the service of the house of the LORD.

3 And said unto the Levites that taught all Israel, which were holy unto the LORD, Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel did build: it shall not be a burden upon your shoulders: serve now the LORD your God, and his people Israel.

4 And prepare yourselves by the houses of your fathers, after your courses, according to the writing of David king of Israel, and according to the writing of Solomon his son.

5 And stand in the holy place according to the divisions of the families of the fathers of your brethren the people, and after the division of the families of the Levites.

6 So kill the passover, and sanctify yourselves, and prepare your brethren, that they may do according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

7 And Josiah gave to the people, of the flock, lambs and kids, all for the passover offerings, for all that were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks: these were of the king's substance.

8 And his princes gave willingly unto the people, to the priests, and to the Levites: Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave unto the priests for the passover offerings two thousand and six hundred small cattle, and three hundred oxen.

9 Conaniah also, and Shemaliah and Nathaneel, his brethren, and Hashabiah and Jehiel and Jozabab, chief of the Levites, gave unto the Levites for passover offerings five thousand small cattle, and five hundred oxen.

10 So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites in their courses, according to the king's commandment.

11 And they killed the passover, and the priests sprinkled the blood from their hands, and the Levites flayed them.

12 And they removed the burnt offerings, that they might give according to the divisions of the families of the people, to offer unto the LORD, as it is written in the book of Moses. And so did they with the oxen.

13 And they roasted the passover with fire according to the ordinance: but the other holy offerings sod they in pots, and in caldrons, and in pans, and divided them speedily among all the people.

14 And afterward they made ready for themselves, and for the priests: because the priests the sons of Aaron were busy in offering of burnt offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aaron.

15 And the singers the sons of Asaph were in their place, according to the commandment of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer; and the porters waited at every gate; they might not depart from their service; for their brethren the Levites prepared for them.

16 So all the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the passover, and to offer burnt offerings upon the altar of the LORD, according to the commandment of king Josiah.

17 And the children of Israel that were present kept the passover at that time, and the feast of unleavened bread seven days.

18 And there was no passover like to that kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet; neither did all the kings of Israel keep such a passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel that were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this passover kept.

20 ¶ After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against Charchemish by Euphrates: and Josiah went out against him.

21 But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? I come not against thee this day, but against the house wherewith I have war: for God commanded me to make haste: forbear thee from meddling with God, who is with me, that he destroy thee not.

22 Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and hearkened not unto the words of Necho from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo.

23 And the archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants, Have me away; for I am sore wounded.

24 His servants therefore took him out of that chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had; and they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died, and was buried in one of the sepulchres of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

25 ¶ And Jeremiah lamented for Josiah: and all the singing men and the singing women spake of Josiah in their lamentations to this day, and made them an ordinance in Israel: and, behold, they are written in the lamentations.

26 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his goodness, according to that which was written in the law of the Lord.

27 And his deeds, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

1 Jehozahaz succeeding is deposed by Pharaoh, and carried into Egypt. 2 Jehoiachin reigning ill is carried bound into Babylon. 3 Jehoiachin succeeding reigneth ill, and is brought into Babylon. 4 Zedekiah succeeding reigneth ill, and despiseth the prophets, and rebelleth against Nebuchadnezzar. 5 Jerusalem, for the sins of the priests and people, is wholly destroyed. 22 The proclamation of Cyrus.

THEN the people of the land took Jehozahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's stead in Jerusalem.

2 Jehozahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem.

3 And the king of Egypt put him down at Jerusalem, and condemned the land in an hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

4 And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and turned his name to Jehoiakim. And Necho took Jehozahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt.

5 ¶ Jehoiakim was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord his God.

6 Against him came up Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and bound him in fetters, to carry him to Babylon.

7 Nebuchadnezzar also carried of the vessels of the house of the Lord to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon.

8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and his abominations which he did, and that which was found in him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah: and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.

9 ¶ Jehoiachin was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord.

10 And when the year was expired, king Nebuchadnezzar sent, and brought him to Babylon, with the goodly vessels of the house of the Lord, and made Zedekiah his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem.

11 ¶ Zedekiah was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned eleven years in Jerusalem.

12 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord his God, and humbled not himself before Jeremiah the prophet speaking from the mouth of the Lord.

13 And he also rebelled against king Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God: but he stiffened his neck, and hardened his heart from turning unto the Lord God of Israel.

14 ¶ Moreover all the chief of the priests, and the people, transgressed very much after all the abominations of the heathen; and polluted the house of the Lord which he had hallowed in Jerusalem.

15 ¶ And the Lord God of their fathers sent to them by his messengers, rising up betimes, and sending; because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling place:

16 But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and misused his prophets, until the wrath of the Lord arose against his people, till there was no remedy.

17 ¶ Therefore he brought upon them the king of the Chaldees, who slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man or maiden, old man, or him that stooped for age: he gave them all into his hand.

CHAPTER I.

1 The proclamation of Cyrus for the building of the temple. 2 The people provide for the return. 3 Cyrus restoreth the vessels of the temple to Sheshbazzar.

NOW in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the Lord ²by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, ³that he ⁴made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying,

2 Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, The Lord God of heaven hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and he hath ³charged me to build him an house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah.

3 Who is there among you of all his people? his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the Lord God of Israel, (⁴he is the God,) which is in Jerusalem.

4 And whosoever remaineth in any place where he sojourneth, let the men of his place ⁵help him with silver, and with gold, and with goods, and with beasts, beside the freewill offering for the house of God that is in Jerusalem.

5 ¶ Then rose up the chief of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, with all them whose spirit God had raised, to go up to build the house of the Lord which is in Jerusalem.

6 And all they that were about them ⁷strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with beasts, and with precious things, beside all that was willingly offered.

7 ¶ Also Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the house of the Lord, ⁸which Nebuchadnezzar had brought forth of Jerusalem, and had put them in the house of his gods;

8 Even those did Cyrus king of Persia bring forth by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and numbered them unto ⁹Sheshbazzar, the prince of Judah.

9 And this is the number of them: thirty chargers of gold, a thousand chargers of silver, nine and twenty knives,

10 Thirty basons of gold, silver basons of a second sort four hundred and ten, and other vessels a thousand.

11 All the vessels of gold and of silver were five thousand and four hundred. All these did Sheshbazzar bring up with them of ²the captivity that were brought up from Babylon unto Jerusalem.

those that were reckoned by genealogy, but they were not found: ²therefore ²were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood.

63 And the ³Tirshatha said unto them, that they ⁴should not eat of the most holy things, till there stood up a priest with ⁵Urim and with Thummin.

64 ¶ The whole congregation together was forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore, 65 Beside their servants and their maids, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and there were among them two hundred singing men and singing women.

66 Their horses were seven hundred thirty and six; their mules, two hundred forty and five;

67 Their camels, four hundred thirty and five; their asses, six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

68 ¶ And some of the chief of the fathers, when they came to the house of the Lord which is at Jerusalem, offered freely for the house of God to set it up in his place:

69 They gave after their ability unto the ¹treasure of the work threescore and one thousand drams of gold, and five thousand pound of silver, and one hundred priests' garments.

70 ¶ So the priests, and the Levites, and some of the people, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nehiimins, dwell in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

CHAPTER III.

1 The altar is set up. 3 Offerings frequented. 7 Workmen prepared. 8 The foundations of the temple are laid in great joy and mourning.

AND when the seventh month was come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together as one man to Jerusalem.

2 Then stood up ⁴Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren the priests, and ⁵Zerubbabel the son of ⁶Shealtiel, and his brethren, and builded the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings thereon, as it is written in the law of Moses the man of God.

3 And they set the altar upon his bases; for fear was upon them because of the people of those countries: and they offered burnt offerings thereon unto the Lord, even burnt offerings morning and evening.

4 ¶ They kept also the feast of tabernacles, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings by number, according to the custom, as the duty of every day required;

5 And afterward offered the continual burnt offering, both of the new moons, and of all the set feasts of the Lord that were consecrated, and of every one that willingly offered a freewill offering unto the Lord.

6 From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt offerings unto the Lord. But the foundation of the temple of the Lord was not yet laid.

7 They gave money also unto the masons, and to the ²carpenters; and ³meat, and drink, and oil, unto them of Zidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea of Joppa, according to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia.

8 ¶ Now in the second year of their coming unto the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the remnant of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem; and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to set forward the work of the house of the Lord.

9 Then stood ¹⁰Jeshua with his sons and his brethren, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of ¹¹Judah, together, to set forward the workmen in the house of God: the sons of Henadai, with their sons and their brethren the Levites.

10 And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the Lord, they set the priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise the Lord, after the ordinance of David king of Israel.

11 ¶ And they sang together by course in psalms and giving thanks unto the Lord; because he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever toward Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the Lord, because the foundation of the house of the Lord was laid.

12 ¶ But many of the priests and Levites and chief of the fathers, who were ancient men, that had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud for joy:

13 So that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

to the chief of the fathers, and said unto them, Let us build with you: for we seek your God, as ye do; and we do sacrifice unto him ⁶ since the days of Esar-haddon king of Assur, which brought us up hither.

⁸ But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel, said unto them, ⁶ Ye have nothing to do with us to build an house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the Lord God of Israel, as ⁴ king Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded us.

⁴ Then ⁴ the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building.

⁵ And hired counsellors against them, to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

⁶ And in the reign of ² Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, wrote they unto him an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

⁸ Rehum the chancellor and Shimshai the ⁵ scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king in this sort:

¹³ Be it known now unto the king, that, if this city be builded, and the walls set up again, then will they not ² pay toll, tribute, and custom, and so thou shalt endamage the ³ revenue of the kings.

¹⁴ Now because ⁴ we have maintenance from the king's palace, and it was not meet for us to see the king's dishonour, therefore have we sent and certified the king;

¹⁵ That search may be made in the book of the records of thy fathers: so shalt thou find in the book of the records, and know that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful unto kings and provinces, and that they have ² moved sedition ³ within the same of old time: for which cause was this city destroyed.

¹⁷ ¶ Then sent the king an answer unto Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their ⁴ companions that dwell in Samaria, and unto the rest beyond the river, Peace, and at such a time.

¹⁸ The letter which ye sent unto us hath been plainly read before me.

¹⁹ And ⁵ I commanded, and search hath been made, and it is found that this city of old time hath ⁶ made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made therein.

²⁰ There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem, which have ⁷ ruled over all countries ⁸ beyond the river; and toll, tribute, and custom, was paid unto them.

²¹ ¶ Give ye now commandment to cause these men to cease, and that this city be not builded, until ⁹ another commandment shall be given from me.

²² Take heed now that ye fall not to do this: why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings?

²³ ¶ Now when the copy of king Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went up in haste to Jerusalem unto the Jews, and made them to cease ⁸ by force and power.

²⁴ Then ceased the work of the house of God which is at Jerusalem. So it ceased unto the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

CHAPTER V.

¹ Zerubbabel and Jeshua, aided by Haggai the prophet, set forward the building of the temple. ² Tattenai and Shethar-banai could not hinder the Jews. ³ Their letter to Darius against the Jews.

¶ THEN the prophets, ⁴ Haggai the prophet, and ⁵ Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied unto the Jews that were in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, even unto them.

² Then rose up ⁶ Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of God which is at Jerusalem: and with them were the prophets of God helping them.

11 Also I have made a decree, that whosoever shall alter this word, let timber be pulled down from his house, and being set up, ² let him be hanged thereon; ³ and let his house be made a dunghill for this.

12 And the God that hath caused his ⁴ name to dwell there destroy all kings and people, that shall put to their hand to alter and to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree; let it be done with speed.

14 * And the elders of the Jews builded, and they prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they builded, and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the ² commandment of ³ Cyrus, and ⁴ Darius, and ⁵ Artaxerxes king of Persia.

15 And this house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king.

16 ¶ And the children of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the rest of ² the children of the captivity, kept ³ the dedication of this house of God with joy.

17 And ² offered at the dedication of this house of God an hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and for a sin offering for all Israel, twelve he goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Ezra goeth up to Jerusalem. 11 The gracious commission of Artaxerxes to Ezra. 27 Ezra blesteth God for his favour.

NOW after these things, in the reign of ² Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra ³ the son of Seralah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah,

2 The son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahiab,

3 The son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth,

4 The son of Zerahiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki,

5 The son of Abishua, the son of Phinchas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest:

6 This Ezra went up from Babylon; and he was ² a ready scribe in the law of Moses, which the Lord God of Israel had given: and the king granted him all his request, ³ according to the hand of the Lord his God upon him.

7 * And there went up some of the children of Israel, and of the priests, and ² the Levites, and the singers, and the porters, and ³ the Nethinims, unto Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king.

8 And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king.

9 For upon the first day of the first month ² began he to go up from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem, ³ according to the good hand of his God upon him.

10 For Ezra had prepared his heart to ² seek the law of the Lord, and to do it, and to ³ teach in Israel statutes and judgments.

11 ¶ Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave unto Ezra the priest, the scribe, even a scribe of the words of the commandments of the Lord, and of his statutes to Israel.

12 Artaxerxes, ² king of kings, ³ unto Ezra the priest, a scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect peace, ⁴ and at such a time.

13 I make a decree, that all they of the people of Israel, and of his priests and Levites, in my realm, which are minded of their own freewill to go up to Jerusalem, go with thee.

14 Forasmuch as thou art sent ² of the king, and of his ³ seven counsellors, to enquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of thy God which is in thine hand;

15 And to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counsellors have freely offered unto the God of Israel, whose habitation is in Jerusalem:

16 And all the silver and gold that thou canst find in all the province of Babylon, with the freewill offering of the people, and of the priests, offering willingly for the house of their God which is in Jerusalem:

17 That thou mayest buy speedily with this money bullocks, rams, lambs, with their meat offerings and their drink offerings, and offer them upon the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem.

18 And whatsoever shall seem good to thee, and to thy brethren, to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, that do after the will of your God.

19 The vessels also that are given thee for the service of the house of thy God, those deliver thou before the God of Jerusalem.

20 And whatsoever more shall be needful for the house of thy God, which thou shalt have occasion to bestow, bestow it out of the king's treasure house.

21 And I, even I Artaxerxes the king, do make a decree to all the treasurers which are beyond the river, that whatsoever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, shall require of you, it be done speedily.

22 Unto an hundred talents of silver, and to an hundred measures of wheat, and to an hundred baths of wine, and to an hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribing how much.

23 Whatsoever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be diligently done for the house of the God of heaven: for why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons?

24 Also we certify you, that touching any of the priests and Levites, singers, porters, Nethinims, or ministers of this house of God, it shall not be lawful to impose toll, tribute, or custom, upon them.

25 And thou, Ezra, after the wisdom of thy God, that is in thine hand, set magistrates and judges, which may judge all the people that are beyond the river, all such as know the laws of thy God; and teach ye them that know them not.

26 And whosoever will not do the law of thy God, and the law of the king, let judgment be executed speedily upon him, whether it be unto death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment.

27 Blessed be the Lord God of our fathers, which hath put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of the Lord which is in Jerusalem:

28 And hath extended mercy unto me before the king, and his counsellors, and before all the king's mighty princes. And I was strengthened as the hand of the Lord my God was upon me, and I gathered together out of Israel chief men to go up with me.

14 Of the sons also of Bigvai; Uthai, and Zabud, and with them seventy males.

15 And I gathered them together to the river that runneth to Ahava; and there abode we in tents three days: and I viewed the people, and the priests, and found there none of the sons of Levi.

THE words of ⁴Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah. And it came to pass in the month Chisleu, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the palace, ²That Hanani, one of my brethren, came, he and certain men of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews that had escaped, which were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.

3 And they said unto me, The remnant that are left of the captivity there in the province are in great affliction and reproach: ⁵the wall of Jerusalem also is broken down, and the gates thereof are burned with fire.

these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and fasted, and prayed before the God of heaven.

5 And said, I beseech thee, ⁴O LORD God of heaven, the great and terrible God ⁵that keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love him and observe his commandments:

6 Let thine ear now be attentive, and ⁷thine eyes open, that thou mayest hear the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now, day and night, for the children of Israel thy servants, and ⁸confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee: both I and my father's house have sinned.

7 ¹We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have ²not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which thou commandedst thy servant Moses.

8 Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, ³If ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations:

9 ⁴But ⁵if ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them; ⁶though there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to set my name there.

10 ¹Now these ²are thy servants and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and by thy strong hand.

11 O Lord, I beseech thee, ³let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, who ⁴desire to fear thy name: and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. For I was the king's ⁵cupbearer.

CHAPTER II.

1 Artaxerxes understanding the cause of Nehemiah's sadness sendeth him with letters and commission to Jerusalem. 2 Nehemiah to the grief of the enemies, cometh to Jerusalem. 3 He vieweth secretly the ruins of the walls. 4 He inviteth the Jews to build in despite of the enemies.

AND it came to pass in the month ¹A Nisan, in the twentieth year of ²Artaxerxes the king, that wine was before him: and ³I took up the wine, and gave it unto the king. Now I had not been beforetime said in his presence.

2 Wherefore the king said unto me, Why ¹is thy countenance sad, seeing thou ²art not sick? this ³is nothing else but ⁴sorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid,

3 And said unto the king, ¹Let the king live for ever: why should not my countenance be sad, when ²'the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, ³lieth waste, and the gates thereof are consumed with fire?

4 Then the king said unto me, For what dost thou make request? So I prayed to the God of heaven.

5 And I said unto the king, If it please the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight, that thou wouldest send me unto Judah, unto the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that I may build it.

6 And the king said unto me, (the ²queen also sitting by him,) For how long shall thy journey be? and when wilt thou return? So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him ³a time.

7 Moreover I said unto the king, If it please the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the river, that they may convey me over till I come into Judah;

8 And a letter unto Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace which ¹appertaineth ²to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into. And the king granted me, ³according to the good word of my God upon me.

9 ¹Then I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me.

10 When Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard ¹of it, it grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man to seek the welfare of the children of Israel.

11 So I ²came to Jerusalem, and was there three days.

12 ¹And I arose in the night, I and some few men with me; neither told I ²any man what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem: neither ³was there any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon.

13 And I went out by night ¹by the gate of the valley, even before the dragon well, and to the dung port, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were ²broken down, and the gates thereof were consumed with fire.

14 Then I went on to the ³gate of the fountain, and to the king's pool: but ⁴there was no place for the beast that ⁵was under me to pass.

15 Then went I up in the night by the ¹brook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entered by the gate of the valley, and so returned.

16 And the rulers knew not whither I went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest that did the work.

17 ¹Then said I unto them, Ye see the distress that we ²are in, how Jerusalem ³lieth waste, and the gates thereof are burned with fire: come, and let us

18 Then I told them of ^a the hand of my God which was good upon me; as also the king's words that he had spoken unto me. And they said, Let us rise up and build. So they ^a strengthened their hands for this good work.

19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they ^a laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, What is this thing that ye do? ^a will ye rebel against the king?

CHAPTER IV.

1 While the enemies scalf, Nehemiah prayeth and continually the work. 7 Understanding the wroth and secrets of the enemy, he setteth a watch. 13 He armeth the labourers, 19 and giveth military precepts.

BUT it came to pass, "that when Sanballat heard that we builded the wall, he was wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews.

2 And he spake before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, What do these feeble Jews? will they "fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burned?

3 Now "Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall.

4 "Hear, O our God: for we are "despised: and "turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity:

5 And "cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.

6 So built we the wall: and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof: for the people had a mind to work.

7 ¶ But it came to pass, that "when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem "were made up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth.

8 And "conspired all of them together to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and "to hinder it.

9 Nevertheless "we made our prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them.

10 And Judah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall.

11 And our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease.

12 And it came to pass, that when the Jews which dwell by them came, they said unto us ten times, "From all places whence ye shall return unto us they will be upon you.

13 ¶ Therefore set I "in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

14 And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, "Be not ye afraid of them: remember the Lord, which is "great and terrible, and "fight for your brethren, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses.

15 And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, "and God had brought their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work.

16 And it came to pass from that time forth, that the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the habergeons: and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah.

17 They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon.

18 For the builders, every one had his sword girded "by his side, and so builded. And he that sounded the trumpet was by me.

19 ¶ And I said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another.

20 In what place therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: "our God shall fight for us.

21 So we laboured in the work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning till the stars appeared.

22 Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, Let every one with his / ch. 2. 19.

Gashem,

5 Then sent Sanballat his servant unto me in like manner the fifth time with an open letter in his hand;

6 Wherein was written, It is reported among the heathen, and ²Gashmu saith it, ³that thou and the Jews think to rebel: for which cause thou buldest the wall, that thou mayest be their king, according to these words.

7 And thou hast also appointed prophets to preach of thee at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah; and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together.

8 Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou feignest them out of thine own heart.

9 For they all made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it be not done. Now therefore, O God, strengthen his hands.

10 Afterward I came unto the house of Shemaliah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabeel, who was shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee; yea, in the night will they come to slay thee.

11 And I said, Should such a man as I flee? and who is there, that, being as I am, would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in.

12 And, lo, I perceived that God had not sent him; but that ²he pronounced this prophecy against me: for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

13 Therefore was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me.

14 ²My God, think thou upon Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and on the ³prophetess Nondiah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear.

15 ¶ So the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty and two days.

16 And it came to pass, that ²when all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen that were about us saw these things, they were much cast down in their own eyes: for they perceived that this work was wrought of our God.

17 ¶ Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters unto Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came unto them.

18 For there were many in Judah sworn unto him, because he was the son in law of Shechaniah the son of Arah; and his son Johanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah.

19 Also they reported his good deeds before me, and uttered my ²words to him. And Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Nehemiah committeth the charge of Jerusalem to Hanani and Hananiah. 2 A register of the genealogy of them which came at the first out of Babylon, 9 of the people, 39 of the priests, 43 of the Levites, 46 of the Nehethims, 57 of Solomon's servants, 63 and of the priests which could not find their pedigree. 66 The whole number of them, with their substance. 70 Their oblations.

NOW it came to pass, when the wall was built, and I had set up the doors, and the porters and the singers and the Levites were appointed,

2 That I gave my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the ruler of the palace, charge over Jerusalem: for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many.

3 And I said unto them, Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun be hot; and while they stand by, let them shut the doors, and bar them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, every one in his watch, and every one to be over against his house.

4 Now the city was large and great: but the people were few therein, and the houses were not builded.

5 ¶ And my God put into mine heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy. And I found a register of the genealogy of them which came up at the first, and found written therein,

6 These are the children of the province, that went up out of the captivity, of those that had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away, and came again to Jerusalem and to Judah, every one unto his city;

7 Who came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Buanah. The number, I say, of the men of the people of Israel was this;

8 The children of Parosh, two thousand an hundred seventy and two.

9 The children of Shephatiah, three hundred seventy and two.

10 The children of Arah, six hundred fifty and two.

11 The children of Pahath-moab, of the children of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand and eight hundred and eighteen.

12 The children of Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four.

13 The children of Zattu, eight hundred forty and five.

14 The children of Zaccai, seven hundred and threescore.

15 The children of Binnui, six hundred forty and eight.

The Tirshatha gave to the treasure a thousand drams of gold, fifty basons, five hundred and thirty priests' garments. 71 And some of the chief of the fathers gave to the treasure of the work twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand and two hundred pound of silver. 72 And that which the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand pound of silver, and threescore and seven priests' garments. 73 So the priests and the Levites, and the porters, and the singers, and some of the people, and the Nethinims, and all Israel, dwelt in their cities: and when the seventh month came, the children of Israel were in their cities.	great God. And all the people answered, Amen, Amen, with lifting up their hands: and they bowed their heads, and worshipped the Lord with their faces to the ground. 7 Also Jeshua, and Bani, and Shebubiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Keltai, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelajah, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the law: and the people stood in their place. 8 So they read in the book in the law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading. 9 ¶ And Nehemiah, which is the Tirshathu, and Ezra the priest the scribe, and the Levites that taught the people, said unto all the people, This day is holy unto the Lord your God: mourn not nor weep. For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law. 10 Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our Lord: neither be ye sorry; for the joy of the Lord is your strength. 11 So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, Hold your peace, for the day is holy: neither be ye grieved. 12 And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were declared unto them. 13 ¶ And on the second day were gathered together the chief of the fathers of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, unto Ezra the scribe, even to understand the words of the law. 14 And they found written in the law which the Lord had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month: 15 And that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, Go forth unto the mount, and fetch olive branches, and pine branches, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written. 16 ¶ So the people went forth, and brought them, and made themselves booths, every one upon the roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the street of the water gate, and in the street of the gate of Ephraim. 17 And all the congregation of them that were come again out of the captivity made booths, and sat under the booths: for since the days of Jeshua the son of Nun unto that day had not the children of Israel done so. day unto the last day, he read in the book of the law of God. And they kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was a solemn assembly, according unto the manner.

CHAPTER IX.

1 A solemn fast, and repentance of the people.
4 The Levites make a religious confession of God's goodness, and their wickedness.

NOW in the twenty and fourth day of this month the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sackclothes, and earth upon them.

2 And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all strangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers.

3 And they stood up in their place, and read in the book of the law of the Lord their God one fourth part of the day; and another fourth part they confessed, and worshipped the Lord their God.

4 ¶ Then stood up upon the stairs, of the Levites, Jeshua, and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani, and cried with a loud voice unto the Lord their God.

5 Then the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabiah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pehtahiah, said, Stand up and bless the Lord your God for ever and ever; and blessed be thy glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise.

6 Thou, even thou, art Lord alone; thou hast made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou preservest them all; and the host of heaven worshippeth thee.

7 Thou art the Lord the God, who didst choose Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him the name of Abram;

8 And foundest his heart faithful before thee, and madest a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Girgashites, to give it, I say, to his seed, and thou hast performed thy words; for thou art righteous:

9 And didst see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and thou heardest their cry by the Red sea;

10 And shewest signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land: for thou knewest that they dealt proudly against thee. So didst thou get thee a name, as it is this day.

11 And thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their persecutors thou threwest into the deeps, as a stone into the mighty waters.

12 Moreover thou loddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar; and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they should go.

13 Thou camest down also upon mount Sinai, and spakest with them from heaven, and gavest them right judgments, and true laws, good statutes and commandments:

14 And madest known unto them thy holy sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant:

15 And gavest them bread from heaven for their hunger, and broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should go in to possess the land which thou hadst sworn to give them.

16 But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments, 17 And refused to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage: but thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not.

18 Yea, when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is thy God that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations;

19 Yet thou in thy manifold mercies forsookest them not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherein they should go.

20 Thou gavest also thy good spirit to instruct them, and withholdest not thy manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst.

21 Yea, forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing; their clothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not.

22 Moreover thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into corners: so they possessed the land of Sihon, and the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan.

23 Their children also multipliedst thou as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it.

24 So the children went in and possessed the land, and thou subdudest before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them ² as they would.

²⁸ But after they had rest, ¹⁵ they did evil again before thee: therefore lovest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou ¹⁶ heardest them from heaven; and ¹⁷ many times didst thou deliver them according to thy mercies;

³¹ Nevertheless for thy great mercies' sake ²⁵ thou didst not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou ²⁶ art ²⁷ a gracious and merciful God.

³² Now therefore, our God, the great, the ²⁸ mighty, and the terrible God, who keepest covenant and mercy, let not all the ²⁹ trouble seem little before thee, ³⁰ that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people, ³¹ since the time of the kings of Assyria unto this day.

³³ Howbeit ³² thou art just in all that is brought upon us; for thou hast done right, but ³³ we have done wickedly:

³⁴ Neither have our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept thy law, nor hearkened unto thy commandments and thy testimonies, wherewith thou didst testify against them.

³⁷ And ³⁹ it yieldeth much increase unto the kings whom thou hast set over us because of our sins: also they have ⁴⁰ dominion over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress.

29 They clave to their brethren, their nobles, and entered into a curse, and into an oath, ^ato walk in God's law, which was given ^bby Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the Lord our Lord, and his judgments and his statutes;

30 And that we would not give ^cour daughters unto the people of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons;

31 * And if the people of the land bring ware or any victuals on the sabbath day to sell, that we would not buy it of them on the sabbath, or on the holy day: and that we would leave the ^dseventh year, and the ^eexaction of ^fevery debt.

32 Also we made ordinances for us, to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our God;

33 For ^gthe shewbread, and for the ^hcontinual meat offering, and for the continual burnt offering, of the sabbaths, of the new moons, for the set feasts, and for the holy things, and for the sin offerings to make an atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the house of our God.

34 And we cast the lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people, ⁱfor the wood offering, to bring it into the house of our God, after the houses of our fathers, at times appointed year by year, to burn upon the altar of the Lord our God, ^jas it is written in the law:

35 And ^kto bring the firstfruits of our ground, and the firstfruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, unto the house of the Lord:

36 Also the firstborn of our sons, and of our cattle, as it is written ^lin the law, and the firstlings of our herds and of our flocks, to bring to the house of our God, unto the priests that minister in the house of our God:

37 * And that we should bring the firstfruits of our dough, and our offerings, and the fruit of all manner of trees, of wine and of oil, unto the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God; and ^mthe tithes of our ground unto the Levites, that the same Levites might have the tithes in all the cities of our tillage.

38 And the priest the son of Aaron shall be with the Levites, ⁿwhen the Levites take tithes: and the Levites shall bring up the tithes of the tithes unto the house of our God, to ^othe chambers, into the treasure house.

39 For the children of Israel and the children of Levi ^pshall bring the offering of the corn, of the new wine, and the oil, unto the chambers, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests that minister, and the porters, and the singers: ^qand we will not forsake the house of our God.

1 ch. 8. 9.	27 ¶ And at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, both with thanksgivings, and with singing, with cymbals, psalteries, and with harps.	42 And Maaseiah, and Shemajah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malchijah, and Elam, and Ezer. And the singers sang loud, with Jezrahiah their overseer.
2 Ezra 7. 6, 11.	28 And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain country round about Jerusalem, and from the villages of Netophathi;	43 Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced: for God had made them rejoice with great joy: the wives also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.	2 Heb. made their voice to be heard.

5 And he had prepared for him a great chamber, where aforetime they laid the meat offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the corn, the new wine, and the oil, which was commanded to be given to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters; and the offerings of the priests.

6 But in all this time was not I at Jerusalem: for in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon came I unto the king, and after certain days obtained I leave of the king:

7 And I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the evil that Eliashib did for Tobiah, in preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of God.

8 And it grieved me sore: therefore I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber.

9 Then I commanded, and they cleansed the chambers; and thither brought I again the vessels of the house of God, with the meat offering and the frankincense.

10 ¶ And I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given them: for the Levites and the singers, that did the work, were fled every one to his field.

11 Then I contended I with the rulers, and said, Why is the house of God forsaken? And I gathered them together, and set them in their place.

12 ¶ Then brought all Judah the tithe of the corn and the new wine and the oil unto the 6 treasures.

13 ¶ And I made treasurers over the treasures, Scheleiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaliah: and next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah: for they were counted faithful, and their office was to distribute unto their brethren.

14 ¶ Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the 2 offices thereof.

15 ¶ In those days saw I in Judah some treading wine presses on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath day: and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals.

16 There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem.

17 ¶ Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath day?

18 ¶ Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath.

19 And it came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath day.

20 So the merchants and sellers of all kind of ware lodged without Jerusalem once or twice.

21 Then I testified against them, and said unto them, Why lodge ye about the wall? if ye do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the sabbath.

22 And I commanded the Levites that they should cleanse themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the sabbath day. ¶ Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the greatness of thy mercy.

23 ¶ In those days also saw I Jews that had married wives of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab:

24 And their children spake half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language of each people.

25 And I contended with them, and cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their sons, nor take their daughters unto your sons, or for yourselves.

26 ¶ Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? yet among many nations was there no king like him, who was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel: nevertheless even him did outlandish women cause to sin.

27 Shall we then hearken unto you to do all this great evil, to transgress against our God in marrying strange wives?

28 And one of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was son in law to Sanballat the Horonite: therefore I chased him from me.

29 ¶ Remember them, O my God, who they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the priesthood, and of the Levites.

30 ¶ Thus cleansed I them from all strangers, and appointed the wards of the priests and the Levites, every one in his business;

31 And for the wood offering, at times appointed, and for the first-fruits. ¶ Remember me, O my God, for good.

1 Ahasuerus maketh royal feasts. 10 Vashti, sent for, refuseth to come. 13 Ahasuerus, by the counsel of Memucan, maketh the decree of men's sovereignty.

NOW it came to pass in the days of Ahasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus which reigned, ¹ from India even unto Ethiopia, ² over an hundred and seven and twenty provinces:)

2 That in those days, when the king Ahasuerus ³ sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shushan the palace,

3 In the third year of his reign, he ⁴ made a feast unto all his princes and his servants; the power of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him:

4 When he shewed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honour of his excellent majesty many days, even an hundred and fourscore days.

5 And when these days were expired, the king made a feast unto all the people that were ² present in Shushan the palace, both unto great and small, seven days, in the court of the garden of the king's palace;

6 Where were white, green, and ³ blue, hangings, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: ² the beds were of gold and silver, upon a pavement ⁴ of red, and blue, and white, and black, marble.

7 And they gave them drink in vessels of gold, (the vessels being diverse one from another,) and ⁵ royal wine in abundance, ⁶ according to the state of the king.

8 And the drinking was according to the law; none did compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure.

9 Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus.

10 ¶ On the seventh day, when ⁷ the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, ⁸ Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven ⁷ chamberlains that served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king, 11 To bring Vashti the queen before the king with the crown royal, to shew the people and the princes her beauty: for she was ⁹ fair to look on.

12 But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment ⁹ by his chamberlains: therefore was the king very wroth, and his anger burned in him.

13 ¶ Then the king said to the ¹⁰ wise men, ¹ which knew the times, (for so was the king's manner toward all that knew law and judgment:

14 And the next unto him was Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the ¹¹ seven princes of Persia and Media, ¹² which saw the king's face, and which sat the first in the kingdom:)

15 ² What shall we do unto the queen Vashti according to law, because she hath not performed the commandment of the king Ahasuerus by the chamberlains?

16 And Memucan answered before the king and the princes, Vashti the queen hath not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the people that are in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus.

17 For this deed of the queen shall come abroad unto all women, so that they shall ³ despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported. The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not.

18 Likewise shall the ladies of Persia and Media say this day unto all the king's princes, which have heard of the deed of the queen. Thus shall there arise too much contempt and wrath.

19 ¶ If it please the king, let there go a royal commandment ⁴ from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, ⁵ that it be not altered, That Vashti come no more before king Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate ⁶ unto another that is better than she.

20 And when the king's decree which he shall make shall be published throughout all his empire, (for it is great,) all the wives shall ⁷ give to their husbands honour, both to great and small.

21 And the saying ⁷ pleased the king and the princes; and the king did according to the word of Memucan:

22 For he sent letters into all the king's provinces, ⁸ into every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, that every man should ⁹ bear rule in his own house, and ¹⁰ that if should be published according to the language of every people.

CHAPTER II.

1 Out of the choice of virgins a queen is to be chosen. 5 Mordecai the nursing father of Esther. 8 Esther is preferred by Hegai before the rest. 12 The manner of purification, and going in to the king. 15 Esther best pleasing the king is made queen. 21 Mordecai discovering a treason is recorded in the chronicles.

AFTER these things, when the wrath of king Ahasuerus was appeased, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what was decreed against her.

2 Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, Let there be fair young virgins sought for the king:

3 And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, unto the custody of ⁴Hegi the king's chamberlain, keeper of the women; and let their things for purification be given them:

4 And let the maiden which pleaseth the king be queen instead of Vashti. And the thing pleased the king; and he did so.

5 ¶ Now in Shushan the palace there was a certain Jew, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjaminite;

6 Who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captivity which had been carried away with ⁷Jociah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away.

7 And he brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, his uncle's daughter: for she had neither father nor mother, and the maid was fair and beautiful; whom Mordecai, when her father and mother were dead, took for his own daughter.

8 ¶ So it came to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also unto the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women.

9 And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her her things for purification, with seven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the king's house: and he preferred her and her maids unto the best place of the house of the women.

10 Esther had not showed her people nor her kindred: for Mordecai had charged her that she should not shew it.

11 And Mordecai walked every day before the court of the women's house, to know how Esther did, and what should become of her.

12 ¶ Now when every maid's turn was come to go in to king Ahasuerus, after that she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odours, and with other things for the purifying of the women;)

13 Then thus came every maiden unto the king; whatsoever she desired was given her to go with her out of the house of the women unto the king's house.

14 In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by name.

15 ¶ Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Esther obtained favour in the sight of all them that looked upon her.

16 So Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.

17 And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and favour in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti.

18 Then the king made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even Esther's feast: and he made a release to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the state of the king.

19 And when the virgins were gathered together the second time, then Mordecai sat in the king's gate.

20 Esther had not yet shewed her kindred nor her people; as Mordecai had charged her: for Esther did the commandment of Mordecai, like as when she was brought up with him.

21 ¶ In those days, while Mordecai sat in the king's gate, two of the king's chamberlains, Bigthan and Teresh, of those which kept the door, were wroth, and sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.

22 And the thing was known to Mordecai, who told it unto Esther the queen; and Esther certified the king thereof in Mordecai's name.

23 And when inquiry was made of the matter, it was found out; therefore they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in the book of the chronicles before the king.

CHAPTER III.

1 Haman, advanced by the king, and despised by Mordecai, seeketh revenge upon all the Jews. 7 He casteth lots. 8 He obtaineth by calumniation a decree of the king to put the Jews to death.

AFTER these things did king Ahasuerus promote Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes that were with him.

2 And all the king's servants, that were in the king's gate, bowed, and revered Haman: for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence.

3 Then the king's servants, which were in the king's gate, said unto Mordecai, Why transgressest thou the king's commandment?

4 Now it came to pass, when they spake daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's matters would stand: for he had told them that he was a Jew.

5 And when Haman saw that Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman full of wrath.

6 And he thought scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had shewed him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai.

7 ¶ In the first month, that is, the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar.

8 ¶ And Haman said unto king Ahasuerus, There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of thy kingdom; and their laws are diverse from all people; neither keep they the king's laws: therefore it is not for the king's profit to suffer them.

9 If it please the king, let it be written that they may be destroyed: and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those that have the charge of the business, to bring it into the king's treasures.

10 And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews' enemy.

11 And the king said unto Haman, The silver is given to thee, the people also, to do with them as it seemeth good to thee.

12 ¶ Then were the king's scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors that were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language; in the name of king Ahasuerus was it written, and sealed with the king's ring.

13 And the letters were sent by posts into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take the spoil of them for a prey.

14 ¶ The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was published unto all people, that they should be ready against that day.

15 The posts went out, being hastened by the king's commandment, and the decree was given in Shushan the palace. And the king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city Shushan was perplexed.

CHAPTER IV.

1 The great mourning of Mordecai and the Jews.

4 Esther, understanding it, saudgeth to Mordecai, who sheweth the cause, and adviseth her to undertake the suit. 10 She excuseth herself in threefold by Mordecai. 15 She appointing a fast underletheth the suit.

WHEN Mordecai perceived all that was done, Mordecai rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and a bitter cry;

2 And came even before the king's gate: for none might enter into the king's gate clothed with sackcloth.

3 And in every province, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

4 ¶ So Esther's maids and her chamberlains came and told it her. Then was the queen exceedingly grieved; and she sent raiment to clothe Mordecai, and to take away his sackcloth from him: but he received it not.

5 Then called Esther for Hatach, one of the king's chamberlains, whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a commandment to Mordecai, to know what it was, and why it was.

6 So Hatach went forth to Mordecai unto the street of the city, which was before the king's gate.

7 And Mordecai told him of all that had happened unto him, and of the sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasures for the Jews, to destroy them.

8 Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given at Shushan to destroy them, to show it unto Esther, and to declare it unto her, and to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him for her people.

9 And Hatach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai.

10 ¶ Again Esther spake unto Hatach, and gave him commandment unto Mordecai;

11 All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into the inner court, who is not called, ^athere is one law of his to put him to death, except such ^bto whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days.

12 And they told to Mordecai Esther's words.

13 Then Mordecai commanded to answer Esther, Think not with thyself that thou shalt escape in the king's house, more than all the Jews.

14 For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, ^athen shall there ^benlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place; but thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed: and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for ^csuch a time as this?

15 ¶ Then Esther bade them return Mordecai ^athis answer,

16 Go, gather together all the Jews that are ^bpresent in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink ^cthree days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise; and so will I go in unto the king, which ^dis not according to the law: ^eand if I perish, I perish.

17 So Mordecai ^awent his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

CHAPTER V.

1 ^aEsther, adventuring on the king's favour, obtaineth the grace of the golden sceptre, and inviteth the king and Haman to a banquet. 2 She, being encouraged by the king in her suit, inviteth them to another banquet the next day. 3 Haman, proud of his advancement, repineth at the contempt of Mordecai. 4 By the counsel of Zeresh he buildeth for him a pair of gallows.

NOW it came to pass ^aon the third day, that Esther put on ^bher royal apparel, and stood in ^cthe inner court of the king's house, over against the king's house: and the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the gate of the house.

2 And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that ^ashe obtained favour in his sight: and ^bthe king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that ^cwas in his hand. So Esther drew near, and touched the top of the sceptre.

3 Then said the king unto her, What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what ^ais thy request? ^bIt shall be even given thee to the half of the kingdom.

4 And Esther answered, If ^ait seem good unto the king, let the king and Haman come this day unto the banquet that I have prepared for him.

5 Then the king said, Cause Haman to make haste, that he may do as Esther hath said. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

6 ¶ And the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine, ^aWhat ^bis thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: and what ^cis thy request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed.

7 Then answered Esther, and said, My petition and my request ^ais;

8 If I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition, and ^ato perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do to morrow as the king hath said.

9 ¶ Then went Haman forth that day joyful and with a glad heart: but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, ^athat he stood not up, nor moved for him, he was full of indignation against Mordecai.

10 Nevertheless Haman ^arefrained himself: and when he came home, he sent and ^bcalled for his friends, and Zeresh his wife.

11 And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and ^athe multitude of his children, and all ^bthe things wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had ^cadvanced him above the princes and servants of the king.

12 Haman said moreover, Yea, Esther the queen did let no man come in with the king unto the banquet that she had prepared but myself; and to morrow am I invited unto her also with the king.

13 Yet all this availeth me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate.

14 ¶ Then said Zeresh his wife and all his friends unto him, Let ^aa gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and to morrow ^bspeak thou unto the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then go thou in merrily with the king unto the banquet. And the thing pleased Haman; and he caused ^cthe gallows to be made.

ON that night ^acould not the king sleep, and he commanded to bring ^bthe book of records of the chronicles; and they were read before the king.

2 And it was found written, that Mordecai had told of ^aBigthana and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, the keepers of the ^bdoor, who sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus, fore the king, and fell down at his feet, ² and besought him with tears to put away the mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his device that he had devised against the Jews.

4 Then ⁵ the king held out the golden sceptre toward Esther. So Esther arose, and stood before the king,

5 And said, If it please the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing seem right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse ⁶ the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, ⁷ which he wrote to destroy the Jews which are in all the king's provinces:

6 For how can I ⁸ endure to see ⁹ the evil that shall come unto my people? or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?

7 ¶ Then the king Ahasuerus said unto Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, Behold, ¹⁰ I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, because he laid his hand upon the Jews.

8 Write ye also for the Jews, as it liketh you, in the king's name, and seal ¹¹ it with the king's ring: for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, ¹² may no man reverse.

9 ¶ Then were the king's scribes called at that time in the third month, that ¹³ is, the month Sivan, on the three and twentieth day thereof; and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded unto the Jews, and to the lieutenants, and the deputies and rulers of the provinces which are ¹⁴ from India unto Ethiopia, an hundred twenty and seven provinces, unto every province ¹⁵ according to the writing thereof, and unto every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language.

10 ¶ And he wrote in the king Ahasuerus' name, and sealed ¹⁶ it with the king's ring, and sent letters by posts on horseback, and riders on mules, camels, and young dromedaries:

11 Wherein the king granted the Jews which were in every city to gather themselves together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, ¹⁷ both little ones and women, and ¹⁸ to take the spoil of them for a prey.

12 ¶ Upon one day in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, namely, upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar.

13 ¶ The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was ¹⁹ published unto all people, and that the Jews should be ready against that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

14 So the posts that rode upon mules and camels went out, being hastened and pressed on by the king's commandment. And the decree was given at Shushan the palace.

15 ¶ And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of ²⁰ blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple: and ²¹ the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad.

16 The Jews had ²² light, and gladness, and joy, and honour.

17 And in every province, and in every city, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast ²³ and a good day. And many of the people of the land ²⁴ became Jews; for the fear of the Jews fell upon them.

CHAPTER IX.

1 The Jews (the rulers, for fear of Mordecai, helping them) slay their enemies, with the ten sons of Haman. 12 Ahasuerus, at the request of Esther, granteth another day of slaughter, and Haman's sons to be hanged. 20 The two days of Purim are made festival.

NOW ¹ in the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the same, ² when the king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them, (though it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews ³ had rule over them that hated them;)

2 The Jews ⁴ gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as ⁵ sought their hurt: and no man could withstand them; for ⁶ the fear of them fell upon all people.

3 And all the rulers of the provinces, and the lieutenants, and the deputies, and ⁷ officers of the king, helped the Jews; because the fear of Mordecai fell upon them.

4 For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces: for this man Mordecai ⁸ waxed greater and greater.

5 Thus the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did ⁹ what they would unto those that hated them.

11 On that day the number of those that were slain in Shushan the palace ² was brought before the king.

12 ¶ And the king said unto Esther the queen, The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman; what have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? now ³ what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: or what is thy request further? and it shall be done.

13 Then said Esther, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shushan to do to-morrow also ⁴ according unto this day's decree, and ⁵ let Haman's ten sons ⁶ be hanged upon the gallows.

14 And the king commanded it so to be done: and the decree was given at Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons.

15 For the Jews that were in Shushan "gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and slew three hundred men at Shushan; ⁷ but on the prey they laid not their hand.

16 But the other Jews that were in the king's provinces ⁸ gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their foes seventy and five thousand, ⁹ but they laid not their hands on the prey, 17 On the thirteenth day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth day ¹⁰ of the same rested they, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

18 But the Jews that were at Shushan assembled together ¹¹ on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

19 Therefore the Jews of the villages, that dwell in the unwall'd towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar ¹² a day of gladness and feasting, ¹³ and a good day, and of ¹⁴ sending portions one to another.

20 ¶ And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both nigh and far,

21 To stablish this among them, that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly,

22 As the days wherein the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month which was ¹⁵ turned unto them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day: that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of ¹⁶ sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poor.

23 And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written unto them;

24 Because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, ¹⁷ had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, that is, the lot, to ¹⁸ consume them, and to destroy them;

25 But ¹⁹ when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which ²⁰ he devised against the Jews, should ²¹ return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

26 Wherefore they called these days Purim after the name of ²² Pur. Therefore for all the words of ²³ this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come unto them,

27 The Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as ²⁴ joined themselves unto them, so as it should not ²⁵ fail, that they would keep these two days according to their writing, and according to their appointed time every year;

28 And that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city: and that these days of Purim should not ²⁶ fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them ²⁷ perish from their seed.

29 Then Esther the queen, ²⁸ the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with ²⁹ all authority, to confirm this ³⁰ second letter of Purim.

30 And he sent the letters unto all the Jews, to ³¹ the hundred twenty and seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of peace and truth, 31 To confirm these days of Purim in their times appointed, according as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had enjoined them, and as they had decreed ³² for themselves and for their seed, the matters of ³³ the fastings and their cry.

32 And the decree of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim; and it was written in the book.

CHAPTER X.

1 Ahasuerus's greatness. 3 Mordecai's advancement.

AND the king Ahasuerus laid a tribute upon the land, and upon ⁴ the isles of the sea.

2 And all the acts of his power and of his might, and the declaration of the greatness of Mordecai, ⁵ whereunto the king ⁶ advanced him, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia?

3 For Mordecai the Jew was ⁷ next unto king Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and accepted of the multitude of his brethren, ⁸ seeking the wealth of his people, and speaking peace to all his seed.

THE BOOK OF JOB.

CHAPTER I.

¹ The holiness, riches, and religious care of Job for his children. ⁶ Satan, appearing before God, by calumniation obtaineth leave to tempt Job. ¹³ Understanding of the loss of his goods and children, in his mourning he denoth God.

THERE was a man ^a in the land of Uz, whose name was ^b Job; and that man was ^c perfect and upright, and one that ^d feared God, and eschewed evil.

² And there were born unto him seven sons and three daughters.

³ His ^e substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she asses, and a very great ^f household; so that this man was the greatest of all the ^g men of the east.

⁴ And his sons went and feasted in their houses, every one his day; and sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them.

⁵ And it was so, when the days of their feasting were gone about, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, ^h and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all: for Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and ⁱ cursed God in their hearts. Thus did Job ^j continually.

⁶ ¶ Now ^k there was a day ^l when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and ^m Satan came also ⁿ among them.

⁷ And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From ^o going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

⁸ And the LORD said unto Satan, ^p Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, ^q a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil?

⁹ Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought?

¹¹ ¶ But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, ^t and he will ^u curse thee to thy face.

¹² And the LORD said unto Satan,

Behold, all that he hath is in thy ^v power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.

¹³ ¶ And there was a day ^w when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:

¹⁴ And there came a messenger unto Job, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them:

¹⁶ While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, ^x The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burned up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

¹⁷ While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Chaldeans made out three bands, and ^y fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

¹⁸ While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, ^z Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:

¹⁹ And, behold, there came a great wind ^{aa} from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

²⁰ Then Job arose, ^{ab} and rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and ^{ac} fell down upon the ground, and worshipped.

²¹ And said, ^{ad} Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: the LORD ^{ae} gave, and the LORD hath ^{af} taken away; ^{ag} blessed be the name of the LORD.

²² ¶ In all this Job sinned not, nor ^{ah} charged God foolishly.

CHAPTER II.

¹ Satan appearing again before God obtaineth further leave to tempt Job. ⁷ He smiteth him with sore boils. ⁸ Job reprehendeth his wife, moving him to curse God. ¹¹ His three friends console with him in silence.

3 And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? and still he holdeth fast his integrity, although thou movedst me against him, ²to destroy him without cause.

4 And Satan answered the LORD, and said, Skin for skin, yea, all that a man hath will he give for his life.

5 But put forth thine hand now, and touch his ²bone and his flesh, and he will curse thee to thy face.

6 And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, he is in thine hand; ³but save his life.

7 ¶ So went Satan forth from the presence of the LORD, and smote Job with sore boils ⁴from the sole of his foot unto his crown.

8 And he took him a potsherd to scrape himself withal; ⁵and he sat down among the ashes.

9 ¶ Then said his wife unto him, Dost thou still retain thine integrity? curse God, and die.

10 But he said unto her, Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh. What? shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? ⁶In all this did not Job sin with his lips.

11 ¶ Now when Job's three friends heard of all this evil that was come upon him, they came every one from his own place; Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite: for they had made an appointment together to come ⁷to mourn with him and to comfort him.

12 And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice, and wept; and they rent every one his mantle, and ⁸sprinkled dust upon their heads toward heaven.

13 So they sat down with him upon the ground ⁹seven days and seven nights, and none spake a word unto him: for they saw that his grief was very great.

CHAPTER III.

1 Job curses the day and services of his birth. 13 The cause of death. 20 He complaineth of life, because of his anguish.

AFTER this opened Job his mouth, And cursed his day.

2 And Job spake, and said,

3 ¶ Let the day perish wherein I was born, and the night in which it was said, There is a man child conceived.

4 Let that day be darkness; let not God regard it from above, neither let the light shine upon it.

5 Let darkness and ⁵the shadow of death ²stain it; let a cloud dwell upon it; ³let the blackness of the day terrify it.

6 As for that night, let darkness seize upon it; ⁴let it not be joined unto the days of the year, let it not come into the number of the months.

7 Lo, let that night be solitary, let no joyful voice come therein.

8 Let them curse it that curse the day, ⁵who are ready to raise up ⁶their mourning.

9 Let the stars of the twilight thereof be dark; let it look for light, but have none; neither let it see ⁷the dawning of the day:

10 Because it shut not up the doors of my mother's womb, nor hid sorrow from mine eyes.

11 ¶ Why did I not from the womb? why did I ⁸not give up the ghost when I came out of the belly?

12 ¶ Why did the knees prevent me? or why the breasts that I should suck?

13 For now should I have lain still and been quiet, I should have slept: then had I been at rest, 14 With kings and counsellors of the earth, which ⁹built desolate places for themselves;

15 Or with princes that had gold, who filled their houses with silver:

16 Or ¹⁰as an hidden untimely birth I had not been; as infants which never saw light.

17 There the wicked cease from troubling; and there the ⁷wearied be at rest.

18 There the prisoners rest together: ¹¹they hear not the voice of the oppressor.

19 The small and great are there; and the servant ¹²is free from his master.

20 ¶ Wherefore is light given to him that is in misery, and life unto the ¹³bitter in soul?

21 Which ¹⁴long for death, but it cometh not; and dig for it more than ¹⁵for hid treasures;

22 Which rejoice exceedingly, and are glad, when they can find the grave?

23 Why is light given to a man whose way is hid, ¹⁶and whom God hath hedged in?

24 For my sighing cometh ¹⁷before I eat, and my roarings are poured out like the waters.

25 For ¹⁸the thing which I greatly feared is come upon me, and that which I was afraid of is come unto me.

26 I was not in safety, neither had I rest, neither was I quiet; yet trouble came.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Eliphaz reproeth Job for want of religion. 7 He teacheth God's judgments to be not for the righteous, but for the wicked. 12 His fearful vision, to humble the excellency of creatures before God.

THEN Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

2 If we assay 2 to commune with thee, wilt thou be grieved? but 3 who can withhold himself from speaking?

3 Behold, thou hast instructed many, and thou 4 hast strengthened the weak hands.

4 Thy words have upholden him that was falling, and thou 5 hast strengthened 4 the feeble knees.

5 But now it is come upon thee, and thou faintest; it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.

6 Is not this 4 thy fear, 4 thy confidence, thy hope, and the uprightness of thy ways?

7 Remember, I pray thee, 8 who ever perished, being innocent? or where were the righteous cut off?

8 Even as I have seen, 9 they that plow iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same.

9 By the blast of God they perish, and 5 by the breath of his nostrils are they consumed.

10 The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, and 6 the teeth of the young lions, are broken.

11 4 The old lion perisheth for lack of prey, and the stout lion's whelps are scattered abroad.

12 Now a thing was 6 secretly brought to me, and mine ear received a little thereof.

13 4 In thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falleth on men, 14 Fear 7 came upon me, and 8 trembling, which made 8 all my bones to shake.

15 Then a spirit passed before my face; the hair of my flesh stood up:

16 It stood still, but I could not discern the form thereof: an image was before mine eyes, 9 there was silence, and I heard a voice, saying, 17 4 Shall mortal man be more just than God? shall a man be more pure than his maker?

18 Behold, he 10 put no trust in his servants; 2 and his angels he charged with folly:

19 8 How much less in them that dwell in 6 houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, which are crushed before the moth?

20 2 They are 3 destroyed from morning to evening: they perish for ever without any regarding it.

21 2 Doth not their excellency which is in them go away? 7 they die, even without wisdom.

CHAPTER V.

1 The harm of inconsideration. 3 The end of the wicked in misery. 6 God is to be repaid in affliction. 17 The happy end of God's correction.

CALL now, if there be any that will answer thee; and to which of the saints wilt thou turn?

2 For wrath killeth the foolish man, and 3 envy slayeth the silly one.

3 4 I have seen the foolish taking root: but suddenly I cursed his habitation.

4 4 His children are far from safety, and they are crushed in the gate, 5 neither is there any to deliver them.

5 Whose harvest the hungry eateth up, and taketh it even out of the thorns, and 6 the robber swalloweth up their substance.

6 Although 4 affliction cometh not forth of the dust, neither doth trouble spring out of the ground;

7 Yet man is 6 born unto 5 trouble, as 6 the sparks fly upward.

8 I would seek unto God, and unto God would I commit my cause:

9 7 Which doeth great things and unsearchable; 8 marvellous things 8 without number:

10 9 Who giveth rain upon the earth, and sendeth waters upon the 9 fields;

11 4 To set up on high those that be low; that those which mourn may be exalted to safety.

12 4 He disappointeth the devices of the crafty, so that their hands cannot perform their enterprise.

13 4 He taketh the wise in their own craftiness: and the counsel of the froward is carried headlong.

14 4 They meet with darkness in the daytime, and grope in the noonday as in the night.

15 But 10 he saveth the poor from the sword, from their mouth, and from the hand of the mighty.

16 4 So the poor hath hope, and iniquity stoppeth her mouth.

17 9 Behold, happy is the man whom God correcteth: therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty:

18 2 For he maketh sore, and bindeth up: he woundeth, and his hands make whole.

19 7 He shall deliver thee in six troubles: yea, in seven 7 there shall no evil touch thee.

20 4 In famine he shall redeem thee from death: and in war 4 from the power of the sword.

21 4 Thou shalt be hid 6 from the scourge of the tongue: neither shalt thou be afraid of destruction when it cometh.

22 At destruction and famine thou shalt laugh: 4 neither shalt thou be afraid of the beasts of the earth.

24 And thou shalt know ²that thy tabernacle shall be in peace; and thou shalt visit thy habitation, and shalt not ³sin.

25 Thou shalt know also that ⁴thy seed shall be great, and thine offspring ⁵as the grass of the earth.

26 * Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn ⁶cometh in in his season.

27 Lo this, we have ⁷sought it, so it is; hear it, and know thou ⁸it is for thy good.

CHAPTER VI.

1 Job sheweth that his complaints are not causeless. 2 He wisheth for death, wherein he is assured of comfort. 14 He reproveth his friends of unkindness.

BUT Job answered and said, 2 Oh that my grief were thoroughly weighed, and my calamity ⁷laid in the balances together!

3 For now it would be heavier ⁴than the sand of the sea: therefore ⁵my words are swallowed up.

4 ⁶For the arrows of the Almighty are within me, the poison whereof drinketh up my spirit: ⁷the terrors of God do set themselves in array against me.

5 Doth the wild ass bray ⁹when he hath grass? or loweth the ox over his fodder?

6 Can that which is unsavoury be eaten without salt? or is there any taste in the white of an egg?

7 The things that my soul refused to touch are as my sorrowful meat.

8 Oh that I might have my request; and that God would grant me ²the thing that I long for!

9 Even ⁴that it would please God to destroy me; that he would let loose his hand, and cut me off!

10 Then should I yet have comfort; yea, I would have myself in sorrow: let him not spare; for ⁷I have not concealed the words of ⁸the Holy One.

11 What is my strength, that I should hope? and what is mine end, that I should prolong my life?

12 Is my strength the strength of stones? or is my flesh ³of brass?

13 Is not my help in me? and is wisdom driven quite from me?

14 ⁴To him that is afflicted pity should be shewed from his friend; but he forsaketh the fear of the Almighty.

15 ⁵My brethren have dealt deceitfully as a brook, and ⁶as the stream of brooks they pass away;

16 Which are blackish by reason of the ice, and wherein the snow is hid:

17 What time they wax warm, ⁷they vanish: ⁸when it is hot, they are ⁹consumed out of their place.

18 The paths of their way are turned aside; they go to nothing, and perish.

19 The troops of ¹Tema looked, the companies of ²Sheba waited for them.

20 They were ³confounded because they had hoped; they came thither, and were ashamed.

21 ⁴For now ⁵ye are ⁶nothing; ye see my casting down, and ⁷are afraid.

22 Did I say, ⁸Bring unto me? or, Give a reward for me of your substance?

23 Or, Deliver me from the enemy's hand? or, Redeem me from the hand of the mighty?

24 Teach me, and I will hold my tongue: and cause me to understand wherein I have erred.

25 How forcible are right words! but what doth your arguing reprove?

26 Do ye imagine to reprove words, and the speeches of one that is desperate, which are as wind?

27 Yea, ⁴ye overwhelm the fatherless, and ye ⁵dig a pit for your friend.

28 Now therefore be content, look upon me: for it is ⁶evident unto you if I lie.

29 ⁷Return, I pray you, let it not be iniquity; yea, return again, my righteousness ⁸is ⁹in it.

30 Is there iniquity in my tongue? cannot ⁷my taste discern perverse things?

CHAPTER VII.

1 Job excludeth his desire of death. 12 He complaineth of his own restlessness, 17 and God's watchfulness.

IS there not ⁸an appointed time to man upon earth? are not his days also like the days of an hireling?

2 As a servant ⁵earnestly desireth the shadow, and as an hireling looketh for the reward of his work:

3 So am I made to possess ⁶months of vanity, and wearisome nights are appointed to me.

4 ⁷When I lie down, I say, When shall I arise, and ²the night be gone? and I am full of tossings to and fro unto the dawning of the day.

5 My flesh is ⁴clothed with worms and clouds of dust; my skin is broken, and become loathsome.

6 ⁷My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without hope.

7 O remember that ⁷my life is wind: mine eye ³shall no more ⁴see good.

8 ⁹The eye of him that hath seen me shall see me no more: thine eyes are upon me, and ⁵I am not.

9 ¹As the cloud is consumed and vanisheth away: so ²he that goeth down to the grave shall come up no more.

10 He shall return no more to his house, ⁴neither shall his place know him any more.

11 Therefore I will ¹not refrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit; I will ²complain in the bitterness of my soul.

19 How long wilt thou not depart from me, nor let me alone till I swallow down my spittle?

21 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Bilad sheweth God's justice in dealing with men according to their works. 4 He allegorically to prove the certain destruction of the hypocrite. 20 He applyeth God's just dealing to Job.

THEN answered Bilad the Shuhite, and said,

2 How long wilt thou speak these things? and how long shall the words of thy mouth be like a strong wind?

3 "Doth God pervert judgment? or doth the Almighty pervert justice?

4 If thy children have sinned against him, and he have cast them away for their transgression;

5 "If thou wouldest seek unto God betimes, and make thy supplication to the Almighty;

6 If thou wert pure and upright; surely now he would awake for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous.

7 Though thy beginning was small, yet thy latter end should greatly increase.

8 "For enquire, I pray thee, of the former age, and prepare thyself to the search of their fathers:

9 (For we are but of yesterday, and know nothing, because our days upon earth are a shadow.)

10 Shall not they teach thee, and tell thee, and utter words out of their heart?

11 Can the rush grow up without mire? can the flag grow without water?

12 / Whilst it is yet in his greenness, and not cut down, it withereth before any other herb.

13 So are the paths of all that forget God; and the hypocrite's hope shall perish:

14 Whose hope shall be cut off, and whose trust shall be as a spider's web.

15 He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not stand: he shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure.

16 He is green before the sun, and his branch shooteth forth in his garden.

17 His roots are wrapped about the heap, and seeth the place of stones.

18 "If he destroy him from his place, then it shall deny him, saying, I have not seen thee.

19 Behold, this is the joy of his way, and out of the earth shall others grow.

20 Behold, God will not cast away a perfect man, neither will he help the evil doers:

21 Till he fill thy mouth with laughing, and thy lips with rejoicing.

22 They that hate thee shall be clothed with shame; and the dwelling place of the wicked shall come to nought.

CHAPTER IX.

1 Job, acknowledging God's justice, sheweth there is no contending with him. 22 Man's transgression is not to be condemned by afflictions.

THEN Job answered and said,

2 I know it is so of a truth: but how should a man be just with God?

3 If he will contend with him, he cannot answer him one of a thousand.

4 He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: who hath hardened himself against him, and hath prospered?

5 Which removeth the mountains, and they know not: which overturneth them in his anger.

6 Which shaketh the earth out of her place, and the pillars thereof tremble.

7 Which commandeth the sun, and it riseth not; and sealeth up the stars.

8 Which alone spreadeth out the heavens, and treadeth upon the waves of the sea.

9 Which maketh Arcturus, Orion, and Pleiades, and the chambers of the south.

10 Which doeth great things past finding out; yea, and wonders without number.

11 Lo, he goeth by me, and I see him not: he passeth on also, but I perceive him not.

12 Behold, he taketh away, who can hinder him? who will say unto him, What doest thou?

13 If God will not withdraw his anger, the proud helpers do stoop under him.

14 How much less shall I answer him, and choose out my words to reason with him?

17 For he breaketh me with a

18 He will not suffer me to take my 19 If I speak of strength, lo, he is strong: and if of judgment, who shall set me a time to plead?

20 If I justify myself, mine own mouth shall condemn me: if I say, I am perfect, it shall also prove me perverse.

21 Though I were perfect, yet would I not know my soul: I would despise my life.

22 This is one thing, therefore I said it, "He destroyeth the perfect and the wicked.

23 If the scourge lay suddenly, he will laugh at the trial of the innocent.

24 The earth is given into the hand of the wicked: he covereth the faces of the judges thereof; if not, where,
and who is he?

25 Now my days are swifter than a post: they flee away, they see no good.

26 They are passed away as the swift ships: yea, as the eagle that hasteth to the prey.

27 'If I say, I will forget my complaint,
I will leave off my heaviness,
and comfort myself:

28 'I am afraid of all my sorrows,
I know that thou wilt not hold me innocent.

29 If I be wicked, why then labour
I in vain?

30 'If I wash myself with snow water, and make my hands never so clean;

31 Yet shalt thou plunge me in the ditch, and mine own clothes shall abhor me.

32 For he is not a man, as I am, that I should answer him, and we should come together in judgment.

33 'Neither is there any daysman betwixt us, that might lay his hand upon us both.

34 'Let him take his rod away from me, and let not his fear terrify me:

35 Then would I speak, and not fear him; but it is not so with me.

CHAPTER X.

1 Job, taking liberty of complaint, expostulateth with God about his afflictions. 18 He complains of his life, and craveth a little ease before death.

MY soul is weary of my life; I will leave my complaint upon myself; I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.

2 I will say unto God, Do not condemn me; shew me wherefore thou contendest with me.

3 Is it good unto thee that thou shouldst oppress, that thou should-est despise the work of thine hands, and shine upon the counsel of the wicked?

4 Hast thou eyes of flesh? or seest thou as man seeth?

5 Are thy days as the days of man?
are thy years as man's days,

6 That thou enquirest after mine iniquity, and searchest after my sin?

7 Thou knowest that I am not wicked; and there is none that can deliver out of thine hand.

8 Thine hands have made me and fashioned me together round about;
yet thou dost destroy me.

9 Remember, I beseech thee, that thou hast made me as the clay; and wilt thou bring me into dust again?

10 Hast thou not poured me out as milk, and curdled me like cheese?

11 Thou hast clothed me with skin and flesh, and hast fenced me with bones and sinews.

12 Thou hast granted me life and favour, and thy visitation hath preserved my spirit.

13 And these things hast thou hid in thine heart: I know that this is with thee.

14 If I sin, then thou markest me, and thou wilt not acquit me from mine iniquity.

15 If I be wicked, woe unto me; and if I be righteous, yet will I not lift up my head. I am full of confusion; therefore see thou mine affliction;

16 For it increaseth. Thou hunt-est me as a fierce lion: and again thou shewest thyself marvellous upon me.

17 Thou renewest thy witnesses against me, and increasest thine indignation upon me; changes and war are against me.

18 Wherefore then hast thou brought me forth out of the womb? Oh that I had given up the ghost, and no eye had seen me!

19 I should have been as though I had not been; I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.

20 Are not my days few? P cease then, and let me alone, that I may take comfort a little.

21 Before I go whence I shall not return, even to the land of darkness and the shadow of death;

22 A land of darkness, as darkness itself; and of the shadow of death, without any order, and where the light is as darkness.

20 But ^{the eyes of} the eyes of the wicked shall fail, and ^{they shall} they shall not escape, and ^{their hope} their hope shall be as ^{the giving} the giving up of the ghost.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Job maintaineth himself against his friends that reprove him. 7 He acknowledgeth the general doctrine of God's omnipotency.

AND Job answered and said, 2 No doubt but ye ^{are} are the people, and wisdom shall die with you.

3 But ^{I have} I have ^{understanding} understanding as well as you; ^{I am} I am not inferior to you: yea, ^{who knoweth} who knoweth not such things as these?

4 ^{I am as} I am as one mocked of his neighbour, who ^{calleteth} calleteth upon God, and he answereth him: the just upright man ^{is} is laughed to scorn.

5 ^{He that is} He that is ready to slip with his feet ^{is as} is as a lamp despised in the thought of him that is at ease.

6 ^{The tabernacles of} The tabernacles of robbers prosper, and they that provoke God are secure; into whose hand God bringeth ^{abundantly} abundantly.

7 But ask now the beasts, and they shall teach thee; and the fowls of the air, and they shall tell thee:

8 Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach thee: and the fishes of the sea shall declare unto thee.

9 Who knoweth not in all these that the hand of the LORD hath wrought this?

10 ^{In whose hand is} In whose hand is the ^{soul of} soul of every living thing, and the breath of ^{all} all mankind.

11 ^{Doth not} Doth not the ear try words?
and the ^{month} month taste his meat?

12 ^{With the ancient is} With the ancient is wisdom; and in length of days understanding.

13 ^{With him is} With him is wisdom and strength, he hath counsel and understanding.

14 Behold, ^{he breaketh} he breaketh down, and it cannot be built again: he ^{shut-} shut-teth ^{up a} up a man, and there can be no opening.

15 Behold, ^{he} he ^{withholdeth} withholdeth the waters, and they dry up; also he ^{sendeth} sendeth them out, and they overturn the earth.

16 ^{With him is} With him is strength and wisdom: the deceived and the deceiver ^{are} are his.

17 He leadeth counsellors away spoiled, and ^{maketh} maketh the judges fools.

18 He looseth the bond of kings, and girdeth their loins with a girdle, 19 He leadeth princes away spoiled, and overthroweth the mighty.

20 ^{He removeth} He removeth away ^{the} the speech of the trusty, and taketh away the understanding of the aged.

21 ^{He poureth} He poureth contempt upon princes, and ^{weakeneth} weakeneth the strength of the mighty.

22 ^{He discovereth} He discovereth deep things out of darkness, and bringeth out to light the shadow of death.

23 ^{He increaseth} He increaseth the nations, and destroyeth them: he enlargeth the nations, and ^{straiteneth} straiteneth them again.

24 He taketh away the heart of the chief of the people of the earth, and ^{causeth} causeth them to wander in a wilderness ^{where there is} where there is no way.

25 ^{They grope} They grope in the dark without light, and he maketh them to ^{stag-} stag-ger like a drunken man.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Job reproveth his friends of partiality. 14
He professeth his confidence in God: 20 and intelleth to know his own sins, and God's purpose in afflicting him.

LO, mine eye hath seen all this, mine ear hath heard and understood it.

2 ^aWhat ye know, the same do I know also: I am not inferior unto you.

3 ^bSurely I would speak to the Almighty, and I desire to reason with God.

4 But ye are forgers of lies, ^cye are all physicians of no value.

5 O that ye would altogether hold your peace! and ^dit should be your wisdom.

6 Hear now my reasoning, and hearken to the pleadings of my lips.

7 ^eWill ye speak wickedly for God? and talk deceitfully for him?

8 Will ye accept his person? will ye contend for God?

9 Is it good that he should search you out? or as one man rucketh another, do ye so mock him?

10 He will surely reprove you, if ye do secretly accept persons.

11 Shall not his excellency make you afraid? and his dread fall upon you?

12 Your remembrances are like unto ashes, your bodies to bodies of clay.

13 ^fHold your peace, let me alone, that I may speak, and let come on me what will.

14 Wherefore ^gdo I take my flesh in my teeth, and ^hput my life in mine hand?

15 ⁱThough he slay me, yet will I trust in him: ^jbut I will ^kmaintain mine own ways before him.

16 He also shall be my salvation: for an hypocrite shall not come before him.

17 Hear diligently my speech, and my declaration with your ears.

18 Behold now, I have ordered my cause; I know that I shall be justified.

19 ^lWho is he that will plead with me? for now, if I hold my tongue, I shall give up the ghost.

20 ^mOnly do not ⁿtwo things unto me: then will I not hide myself from thee.

21 ^oWithdraw thine hand far from me: and let not thy dread make me afraid.

22 Then call thou, and I will answer: or let me speak, and answer thou me.

23 How many are mine iniquities and sins? make me to know my transgression and my sin.

24 ^pWherefore hidest thou thy face, and ^qholdest me for thine enemy?

25 ^rWilt thou break a leaf driven to and fro? and wilt thou pursue the dry stubble?

26 For thou writest bitter things against me, and ^smakest me to possess the iniquities of my youth.

27 ^tThou puttest my feet also in the stocks, and ^ulookest narrowly unto all my paths: thou settest a print upon the ^vheels of my feet.

28 And he, as a rotten thing, consumeth, as a garment that is moth eaten.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 Job intreateth God for favour, by the shortness of life, and certainty of death. 7 Though life once lost be irrecoverable, yet he waiteth for his change. 18 By sin the creature is subject to corruption.

MAN that is born of a woman ¹is ²of few days, and ³full of trouble.

2 ⁴He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.

3 And ⁵dost thou open thine eyes upon such an one, and ⁶bringest me into judgment with thee?

4 ⁷Who ⁸can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one.

5 ⁹Seeing his days are determined, the number of his months are with thee, thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot pass;

6 ¹⁰Turn from him, that he may ¹¹rest, till he shall accomplish, ¹²as an hireling, his day.

7 For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut down, ¹³that it will sprout again, and that the tender branch thereof will not cease.

8 Though the root thereof wax old in the earth, and the stock thereof die in the ground;

9 ¹⁴Yet through the scent of water it will bud, and bring forth boughs like a plant.

10 But man dieth, and ¹⁵wasteth away: yea, man giveth up the ghost, and where ¹⁶is he?

11 ¹⁷As the waters fall from the sea, and the flood decayeth and drieth up:

12 So man lieth down, and riseth not: ¹⁸till the heavens be no more, they shall not awake, nor be raised out of their sleep.

13 O that thou wouldest hide me in the grave, that thou wouldest keep me secret, until thy wrath be past, that thou wouldest appoint me a set time, and remember me!

14 If a man die, shall he live again? all the days of my appointed time ¹⁹will I wait, ²⁰till my change come.

15 ²¹Thou shalt call, and I will answer thee: thou wilt have a desire to the work of thine hands.

16 ²²For now thou numberest my steps: dost thou not watch over my sin?

17 ²³My transgression is sealed up in a bag, and thou sewest up mine iniquity.

18 And surely the mountain falling cometh to nought, and the rock is removed out of his place.

19 The waters wear the stones: thou ²⁴washest away the things which grow out of the dust of the earth; and thou destroyest the hope of man.

20 Thou prevalest for ever against him, and he passeth: thou changest his countenance, and sendest him away.

the hands of the wicked.

12 I was at ease, but he hath broken me asunder: he hath also taken ^{me} by my neck, and shaken me to pieces, for his ^{neighbour}!

22 When ^a few years are come,

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Job appealeth from men to God. 6 The unmerciful dealing of men with the afflicted may adomish, but not discourage the righteous. 11 His hope is not in life, but in death.

MY ^{breath} is corrupt, my days are extinct, ^{the} graves are ready for me.

2 Are there not mockers with me?
and doth not mine eye ^{continue} in their ^{provocation}?

3 Lay down now, put me in a surety with thee; who ^{is} he ^{that} ^{will} strike hands with me?

4 For thou hast hid thine heart from understanding: therefore shalt thou not exalt them.

5 He that speaketh flattery to his friends, even the eyes of his children shall fall.

6 He hath made me also ^a by-word of the people; and ^a beforetime
I was as a tabret.

7 ^{My} Mine eye also is dim by reason of sorrow, and all ^{my} members are as a shadow.

8 Upright men shall be astonished at this, and the innocent shall stir up himself against the hypocrite.

9 The righteous also shall hold on his way, and he that hath ^{clean} hands ^{shall} be stronger and stronger.

10 But as for you all, ^{do} ye return, and come now: for I cannot find ^{one} wise man among you.

11 ^{My} My days are past, my purposes are broken off, even ^{the} thoughts of my heart.

12 They change the night into day:
the light ^{is} ^{short} because of darkness.

13 If I wait, the grave ^{is} mine house:
I have made my bed in the darkness.

14 I have ^{said} to corruption, Thou art my father: to the worm, Thou art my mother, and my sister.

15 And where ^{is} now my hope? as for my hope, who shall see it?

16 They shall go down ^{to} the bars of the pit, when our ^{rest} together ^{is} in the dust.

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 Bildad reproveh Job of presumption and impatience. 5 The calamities of the wicked.

THEN answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

2 How long ^{will} it be ere ye make an end of words? mark, and afterwards we will speak.

3 Wherefore are we counted ^{as} beasts, and reputed vile in your sight?

4 ^{He} He teareth ^{himself} in his anger:
shall the earth be forsaken for thee?
and shall the rock be removed out of his place?

5 Yea, ^{the} the light of the wicked shall be put out, and the spark of his fire shall not shine.

6 The light shall be dark in his tabernacle, ^{and} his ^{candle} shall be put out with him.

7 The steps of his strength shall be straitened, and ^{his} his own counsel shall cast him down.

8 For ^{he} he is cast into a net by his own feet, and he walketh upon a snare.

9 The gin shall take ^{him} by the heel, and ^{the} the robber shall prevail against him.

10 The snare ^{is} ^{laid} for him in the ground, and a trap for him in the way.

11 ^{Terrors} shall make him afraid on every side, and shall ^{drive} him to his feet.

12 His strength shall be hungerbitten, and ^{destruction} shall be ready at his side.

13 It shall devour the ^{strength} of his skin: even the firstborn of death shall devour his strength.

14 ^{His} His confidence shall be rooted out of his tabernacle, and it shall bring him to the king of terrors.

15 It shall dwell in his tabernacle, because it ^{is} none of his: brimstone shall be scattered upon his habita-

CHAPTER XIX.

1 Job, complaining of his friends' cruelty, sheweth there is misery enough in him to feed their cruelty. 21, 28 He craveth pity. 23 He believeth the resurrection.

THEN Job answered and said,
2 How long will ye vex my soul, and break me in pieces with words?

3 These ^aten times have ye reproached me: ye are not ashamed that ye ^bmake yourselves strange to me.

4 And be it indeed that I have erred, mine error remaineth with myself.

5 If indeed ye will ^cmagnify yourselves against me, and plead against me my reproach:

6 Know now that God hath overthrown me, and hath compassed me with his net.

7 Behold, I cry out of ^dwrong, but I am not heard: I cry aloud, but there is no judgment.

8 ^eHe hath fenced up my way that I cannot pass, and he hath set darkness in my paths.

9 ^fHe hath stripped me of my glory, and taken the crown from my head.

10 He hath destroyed me on every side, and I am gone: and mine hope hath he removed like a tree.

11 He hath also kindled his wrath against me, and ^ghe counteth me unto him as one of his enemies.

12 His troops come together, and ^hraise up their way against me, and encamp round about my tabernacle.

13 ⁱHe hath put my brethren far from me, and mine acquaintance are verily estranged from me.

14 My kinsfolk have failed, and my familiar friends have forgotten me.

15 They that dwell in mine house, and my maids, count me for a stranger: I am an alien in their sight.

16 I called my servant, and he gave me no answer; I intreated him with my mouth.

17 My breath is strange to my wife, though I intreated for the children's sake of ^jmine own body.

18 Yea, ^kyoung children despised me; I arose, and they spake against me.

19 ^lAll ^mmy inward friends abhorred

21 Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, O ye my friends; ^pfor the hand of God hath touched me.

22 Why do ye ^qpersecute me as God, and are not satisfied with my flesh?

23 ^rOh that my words were now written! oh that they were printed in a book!

24 That they were graven with an iron pen and lead in the rock for ever!

25 For I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth:

26 ^sAnd though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet ^tin my flesh shall I see God:

27 Whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not ^uanother; ^vthough my reins be consumed ^wwithin me.

28 But ye should say, ^xWhy persecute we him, ^yseeing the root of the matter is found in me?

29 Be ye afraid of the sword: for wrath bringeth the punishments of the sword, ^zthat ye may know there is a judgment.

CHAPTER XX.

Zophar sheweth the state and portion of the wicked.

THEN answered Zophar the Naathathite, and said,

2 Therefore do my thoughts cause me to answer, and for ^athis ^bI make haste.

3 I have heard the check of my reproach, and the spirit of my understanding causeth me to answer.

4 Knowest thou ^cnot this of old, since man was placed upon earth,

5 ^dThat the triumphant of the wicked is ^eshort, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment?

6 ^fThough his excellency mount up to the heavens, and his head reach unto the clouds;

7 Yet he shall perish for ever ^glike his own dung: they which have seen him shall say, Where is he?

8 He shall fly away ^has a dream, and shall not be found: yea, he shall be chased away as a vision of the night.

9 ⁱThe eye also which saw him shall see him no more; neither shall his place any more behold him.

10 ^jHis children shall seek to please the poor, and his hands shall restore their goods.

11 His bones are full of ^kthe sin of his youth, ^lwhich shall lie down with him in the dust.

12 Though wickedness be sweet in his mouth, though he hide it under his tongue;

1 Job sheweth that even in the judgment of man he hath reason to be grieved. 7 Sometimes the wicked do so prosper, as they despise God. 10 Sometimes their destruction is manifest. 22 The happy and unhappy are alike in death. 27 The judgment of the wicked is in another world.

CHAPTER XXII.

1 Eliphaz sheweth that man's goodness profiteth not God. 5 He accuseth Job of divers sins. 21 He exhorteth him to repentance, with promises of mercy.

THEN Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

2 ²Can a man be profitable unto God, ²as he that is wise may be profitable unto himself?

3 ³Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that thou art righteous? or ³is it gain to him, that thou makest thy ways perfect?

4 Will he reprove thee for fear of thee? will he enter with thee into judgment?

5 ⁵Is not thy wickedness great? and thine iniquities infinite?

6 For thou hast ⁶taken a pledge from thy brother for nought, and ⁶stripped the naked of their clothing.

7 Thou hast not given water to the weary to drink, and thou ⁷hast withholden bread from the hungry.

8 But ⁸as for ⁸the mighty man, he had the earth; and the ⁸honourable man dwelt in it.

9 Thou hast sent widows away empty, and the arms of ⁹the fatherless have been broken.

10 Therefore ¹⁰snarers are round about thee, and sudden fear troubleth thee;

11 Or darkness, ¹¹that thou canst not see; and abundance of ¹¹waters cover thee.

12 ¹²Is not God in the height of heaven? and behold ¹²the height of the stars, how high they are!

13 And thou sayest, ¹³How doth God know? can he judge through the dark cloud?

14 ¹⁴Thick clouds ¹⁴are a covering to him, that he seeth not; and he walketh in the circuit of heaven.

15 Hast thou marked the old way which wicked men have trodden?

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 Wickedness goeth often unpunished. 17 There is a secret judgment for the wicked.

WHY, seeing ¹times are not hidden from the Almighty, do they that know him not see his days?

2 Some remove the ¹landmarks; they violently take away flocks, and ²feed thereof.

3 They drive away the ass of the fatherless, they ¹take the widow's ox for a pledge.

4 They turn the needy out of the way: ¹the poor of the earth hide themselves together.

5 Behold, ¹as wild asses in the desert, go they forth to their work; rising betimes for a prey: the wilderness yieldeth food for them and for their children.

6 They reap every one his ¹corn in the field: and ²they gather the vintage of the wicked.

7 They ¹cause the naked to lodge without clothing, that they have no covering in the cold.

8 They are wet with the showers of the mountains, and embrace the rock for want of a shelter.

9 They pluck the fatherless from the breast, and take a pledge of the poor.
10 They cause him to go naked without clothing, and they take away the sheaf from the hungry:

11 Which make oil within their walls, and tread their winepresses, and suffer thirst.

12 Men groan from out of the city, and the soul of the wounded crieth out: yet God layeth not folly to them.

13 They are of those that rebel against the light; they know not the ways thereof, nor abide in the paths thereof.

14 ¹The murderer rising with the light killeth the poor and needy, and in the night is as a thief.

15 ¹The eye also of the adulterer waiteth for the twilight, ²saying, No eye shall see me: and ³disguiseth his face.

16 In the dark they dig through houses, which they had marked for themselves in the daytime: ²they know not the light.

17 For the morning is to them even as the shadow of death: if one know them, they are in the terrors of the shadow of death.

18 He is swift as the waters; their portion is cursed in the earth: he beholdeth not the way of the vineyards.

19 Drought and heat ²consume the snow waters: so doth the grave those which have sinned.

20 The womb shall forget him; the worm shall feed sweetly on him; ¹he shall be no more remembered; and wickedness shall be broken as a tree.

21 He evil entreatheth the barren that beareth not: and doeth not good to the widow.

22 He draweth also the mighty with his power: he riseth up, ²and no man is sure of life.

23 Though it be given him to be in safety, whereon he resteth; yet ²his eyes are upon their ways.

24 They are exalted for a little while, but ¹are gone and brought low; they are ²taken out of the way as all other, and cut off as the tops of the ears of corn.

25 And if it be not so now, who will make me a liar, and make my speech nothing worth?

CHAPTER XXV.

before God.

THEN answered Bildad the Shu-
lite, and said,

2 Dominion and fear are with him, he maketh peace in his high places.

3 Is there any number of his armies? and upon whom doth not ²his light arise?

4 How then can man be justified with God? or how can he be clean that is born of a woman?

5 Behold even to the moon, and it shineth not; yea, the stars are not pure in his sight.

the empty place, and hangeth the earth upon nothing.

8 He bindeth up the waters in his thick clouds; and the cloud is not rent under them.

9 He holdeth back the face of his throne, and spreadeth his cloud upon it.

10 He hath compassed the waters with bounds, until the day and night come to an end.

11 The pillars of heaven tremble and are astonished at his reproof.

12 He divideth the sea with his power, and by his understanding he smiteth through the proud.

13 By his spirit he hath garnished the heavens; his hand hath formed the crooked serpent.

14 Lo, these are parts of his ways: but how little a portion is heard of him? but the thunder of his power who can understand?

CHAPTER XXVII.

1 Job protesteth his sincerity. 8 The hypocrite is without hope. 11 The blessings which the wicked have are turned into curses.

MOREOVER Job 4 continued hisparable, and said,

2 As God liveth, who hath taken away my judgment; and the Almighty, who hath vexed my soul;

3 All the while my breath is in me, and the spirit of God is in my nostrils;

4 My lips shall not speak wickedness, nor my tongue utter deceit.

5 God forbid that I should justify you: till I die I will not remove mine integrity from me.

6 My righteousness I hold fast, and will not let it go: my heart shall not reproach me so long as I live.

7 Let mine enemy be as the wicked, and he that riseth up against me as the unrighteous.

8 For what is the hope of the hypocrite, though he hath gained, when God taketh away his soul?

9 Will God hear his cry when trouble cometh upon him?

10 Will he delight himself in the Almighty? will he always call upon God?

11 I will teach you by the hand of God: that which is with the Almighty will I not conceal.

12 Behold, all ye yourselves have seen it; why then are ye thus altogether vain?

13 This is the portion of a wicked man with God, and the heritage of oppressors, which they shall receive of the Almighty.

14 If his children be multiplied, it is for the sword: and his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.

15 Those that remain of him shall be buried in death: and his widows shall not weep.

16 Though he heap up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay;

17 He may prepare it, but the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver.

18 He buildeth his house as a moth, and as a booth that the keeper maketh.

19 The rich man shall lie down, but he shall not be gathered: he openeth his eyes, and he is not.

20 Terrors take hold on him as waters, a tempest stealeth him away in the night.

21 The east wind carrieth him away, and he departeth: and as a storm hurleth him out of his place.

22 For God shall cast upon him, and not spare: he would fain flee out of his hand.

23 Men shall clap their hands at him, and shall hiss him out of his place.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

1 There is a knowledge of natural things. 12 But wisdom is an excellent gift of God.

SURELY there is a vein for the silver, and a place for gold where they fine it.

2 Iron is taken out of the earth, and brass is molten out of the stone.

3 He setteth an end to darkness, and searcheth out all perfection: the stones of darkness, and the shadow of death.

4 The flood breaketh out from the inhabitant; even the waters forgotten of the foot: they are dried up, they are gone away from men.

5 As for the earth, out of it cometh bread: and under it is turned up as it were fire.

6 The stones of it are the place of sapphires: and it hath dust of gold.

7 There is a path which no fowl knoweth, and which the vulture's eye hath not seen:

8 The lion's whelps have not trodden it, nor the fierce lion passed by it.

9 He putteth forth his hand upon the rock; he overturneth the mountains by the roots.

10 He cutteth out rivers among the rocks; and his eye seeth every precious thing.

11 He bindeth the floods from overflowing; and the thing that is hid bringeth he forth to light.

12 But where shall wisdom be found? and where is the place of understanding?

13 Man knoweth not the price thereof; neither is it found in the land of the living.

14 The depth saith, It is not in me; and the sea saith, It is not with me.

15 It cannot be gotten for gold, neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof.

16 It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious onyx, or the sapphire.

22 Destruction and death say, We have heard the fame thereof with our ears.

CHAPTER XXIX.

Job bemoaneth himself of his former prosperity and honour.

MOREOVER Job ⁶continued his parable, and said,

2 Oh that I were ⁸as in months past, as in the days when God preserved me;

3 ⁵When his ⁷candle shined upon my head, and when by his light I walked through darkness;

4 As I was in the days of my youth, when ⁹the secret of God was upon my tabernacle;

5 When the Almighty was yet with me, when my children were about me;

6 When ⁴I washed my steps with butter, and ⁶the rock poured ⁸me out rivers of oil;

7 When I went out to the gate through the city, when I prepared my seat in the street!

8 The young men saw me, and hid themselves: and the aged arose, and stood up.

9 The princes refrained talking, and laid their hand on their mouth.

10 ⁹The nobles held their peace, and their ⁸tongue cleaved to the roof of their mouth.

11 When the ear heard me, then it blessed me; and when the eye saw me, it gave witness to me:

12 Because ¹I delivered the poor that cried, and the fatherless, and him that had none to help him.

13 The blessing of him that was ready to perish came upon me: and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.

14 ¹I put on righteousness, and it clothed me: my judgment was as a robe and a diadem.

15 I was ²eyes to the blind, and feet was I to the lame.

16 I was a father to the poor: and ³the cause which I knew not I searched out.

17 And I brake ²the jaws of the wicked, and ³plucked the spoil out of his teeth.

18 Then I said, ²I shall die in my nest, and I shall multiply my days as the sand.

19 ⁶My root was ⁴spread out ²by the waters, and the dew lay all night upon my branch.

20 My glory was ⁵fresh in me, and ⁷my bow was ⁶renewed in my hand.

21 Unto me men gave ear, and waited, and kept silence at my counsel.

22 After my words they spake not again; and my speech dropped upon them.

23 And they waited for me as for the rain; and they opened their mouth wide as for ⁷the latter rain.

24 If I laughed on them, they believed it not; and the light of my countenance they cast not down.

25 I chose out their way, and sat chief, and dwelt as a king in the army, as one that comforteth the mourners.

CHAPTER XXX.

1 Job's honour is turned into extreme contempt. 15 His prosperity into calamity.

BUT now they that are ⁷younger than I have me in derision, whose fathers I would have disdained to have set with the dogs of my flock.

2 Yea, whereto might the strength of their hands profit me, in whom old age was perished?

3 For want and famine they were ⁸solitary; fleeing into the wilderness ⁹in former time desolate and waste.

4 Who cut up mallows by the bushes, and juniper roots for their meat.

5 They were driven forth from among men, (they cried after them as after a thief;)

6 To dwell in the cliffs of the valleys, in ²caves of the earth, and in the rocks.

7 Among the bushes they brayed; under the nettles they were gathered together.

8 They were children of fools, yea, children of ³base men: they were viler than the earth.

9 ⁴And now am I their song, yea, I am their byword.

10 They abhor me, they flee far from me, ⁴and spare not ⁵to spit in my face.

and afflicted me, they have also let loose the bridle before me.

12 Upon my right hand rise the youth; they push away my feet, and they raise up against me the ways of their destruction.

13 They mar my path, they set forward my calamity, they have no helper.

14 They came upon me as a wide breaking in of waters: in the desolation they rolled themselves upon me.

15 Terrors are turned upon me: they pursue my soul as the wind: and my welfare passeth away as a cloud.

16 And now my soul is poured out upon me; the days of affliction have taken hold upon me.

17 My bones are pierced in me in the night season: and my sinews take no rest.

18 By the great force of my disease is my garment changed: it blindeth me about as the collar of my coat.

19 He hath cast me into the mire, and I am become like dust and ashes.

20 I cry unto thee, and thou dost not hear me: I stand up, and thou regardest me not.

21 Thou art become cruel to me: with thy strong hand thou opposest thyself against me.

22 Thou liftest me up to the wind; thou causest me to ride upon it, and dissolvest my substance.

23 For I know that thou wilt bring me to death, and to the house appointed for all living.

24 Howbeit he will not stretch out his hand to the grave, though they cry in his destruction.

25 Did not I weep for him that was in trouble? was not my soul grieved for the poor?

26 When I looked for good, then evil came unto me: and when I waited for light, there came darkness.

27 My bowels boiled, and rested not: the days of affliction prevented me.

28 I went mourning without the sun: I stood up, and I cried in the congregation.

29 I am a brother to dragons, and a companion to owls.

30 My skin is black upon me, and my bones are burned with heat.

31 My harp also is turned to mourning, and my organ into the voice of them that weep.

CHAPTER XXXI.

Job maketh a solemn protestation of his integrity in several duties.

I MADE a covenant with mine eyes; why then should I think upon a maid?

2 For what portion of God is there from above? and what inheritance of the Almighty from on high?

3 Is not destruction to the wicked? and a strange punishment to the workers of iniquity?

4 Doth not he see my ways, and count all my steps?

5 If I have walked with vanity, or if my foot hath hastened to deceit;

6 Let me be weighed in an even balance, that God may know mine integrity.

7 If my step hath turned out of the way, and mine heart walked after mine eyes, and if any blot hath cleaved to mine hands;

8 Then let me sow, and let another eat; yea, let my offspring be rooted out.

9 If mine heart have been deceived by a woman, or if I have laid wait at my neighbour's door;

10 Then let my wife grind unto another, and let others bow down upon her.

11 For this is an heinous crime; yea, it is an iniquity to be punished by the judges.

12 For it is a fire that consumeth to destruction, and would root out all mine increase.

13 If I did despise the cause of my manservant or of my maid-servant, when they contended with me;

14 What then shall I do when God riseth up? and when he visiteth, what shall I answer him?

15 Did not he that made me in the womb make him? and did not one fashion us in the womb?

16 If I have withheld the poor from their desire, or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail;

17 Or have eaten my morsel myself alone, and the fatherless hath not eaten thereof;

18 (For from my youth he was brought up with me, as with a father, and I have guided her from my mother's womb;)

19 If I have seen any perish for want of clothing, or any poor without covering;

20 If his loins have not been blessed me, and if he were not warmed with the fleece of my sheep;

21 If I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless, when I saw my help in the gate:

22 Then let mine arm fall from my shoulder blade, and mine arm be broken from the bone.

23 For destruction from God was a terror to me, and by reason of his highness I could not endure.

24 If I have made gold my hope, or have said to the fine gold, Thou art my confidence;

25 If I rejoiced because my wealth was great, and because mine hand had gotten much;

CHAPTER XXXII.

1 Elihu is angry with Job and his three friends.
6 Because wisdom cometh not from age, he excuseth the boldness of his youth. 11 He reproveh them for not satisfying of Job. 16
His zeal to speak.

SO these three men ceased ¹to answer Job, because ²he was ³righteous in his own eyes.
2 Then was kindled the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel ⁴the Buzite, of the kindred of Ram: against Job was his wrath kindled, because he justified ⁵himself rather than God.
3 Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job.
4 Now Elihu had ⁶waited till Job had spoken, because they were ⁷elder than he.
5 When Elihu saw that ⁸there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, then his wrath was kindled.

6 And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said, I am ¹young, ²and ye are very old; wherefore I was afraid, and ³durst not shew you mine opinion.
7 I said, Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom.
8 But ⁴there is a spirit in man: and the inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding.
9 ⁵Great men are not ⁶always wise:
neither do the aged understand judgment.
10 Therefore I said, Hearken to me;
I also will shew mine opinion.
11 Behold, I waited for your words;
I gave ear to your ⁷reasons, whilst ye searched out ⁸what to say.
12 Yea, I attended unto you, and behold, ⁹there was none of you that convinced Job, or that answered his words;
13 ¹⁰Lest ye should say, We have found out wisdom: God thrusteth him down, not man.
14 Now he hath not ¹¹directed his words against me: neither will I answer him with your speeches.
15 They were amazed, they answered no more: ¹²they left off speaking.
16 When I had waited, (for they spake not, but stood still, and answered no more:)
17 ¹³I said, I will answer also my part,
I also will shew mine opinion.
18 For I am full of ¹⁴matter, ¹⁵the spirit within me constraineth me.
19 Behold, my belly is as wine which ¹⁶hath no vent; it is ready to burst like new bottles.
20 I will speak, ¹⁷that I may be refreshed: I will open my lips and answer.
21 Let me not, I pray you, ¹⁸accept any man's person, neither let me give flattering titles unto man.
22 For I know not to give flattering titles; ¹⁹in so doing my maker would soon take me away.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

1 Elihu offereth himself instead of God, with sincerity and meekness, to reason with Job.

WHEREFORE, Job, I pray thee,

6 Behold, I am according to thy wish in God's stead: I also am formed out of the clay.

7 Behold, my terror shall not make thee afraid, neither shall my hand be heavy upon thee.

8 Surely thou hast spoken in mine hearing, and I have heard the voice of thy words, saying, 9 I am clean without transgression, I am innocent; neither is there iniquity in me.

10 Behold, he findeth occasions against me, he counteth me for his enemy, 11 He putteth my feet in the stocks, he marketh all my paths.

12 Behold, in this thou art not just: I will answer thee, that God is greater than man.

13 Why dost thou strive against him? he giveth not account of any of his matters.

14 For God speaketh once, yea twice, yet man perceiveth it not.

15 In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed;

16 Then he openeth the ears of men, and sealeth their instruction, 17 That he may withdraw man from his purpose, and hide pride from man.

18 He keepeth back his soul from the pit, and his life from perishing by the sword.

19 He is chastened also with pain upon his bed, and the multitude of his bones with strong pain:

20 So that his flesh abhorreth bread, and his soul is dainty meat.

21 His flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen; and his bones that were not seen stick out.

22 Yea, his soul draweth near unto the grave, and his life to the destroyers.

23 If there be a messenger with him, an interpreter, one among a thousand, to shew unto man his uprightness:

24 Then he is gracious unto him, and saith, Deliver him from going down to the pit: I have found a ransom.

25 His flesh shall be fresher than a child's: he shall return to the days of his youth:

26 He shall pray unto God, and he will be favourable unto him: and he shall see his face with joy: for he will render unto man his righteousness.

27 He looketh upon men, and if any say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not;

28 He will deliver his soul from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light.

29 Lo, all these things worketh God oftentimes with man,

30 To bring back his soul from the pit, to be enlightened with the light of the living.

31 Mark well, O Job, hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I will speak.

32 If thou hast any thing to say, answer me: speak, for I desire to justify thee.

33 If not, hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I shall teach thee wisdom.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

1 Elihu accuseth Job for charging God with injustice. 10 God omnipotent cannot be unjust. 31 Man must humble himself unto God. 34 Elihu reproveth Job.

1 FURTHERMORE Elihu answered and said,

2 Hear my words, O ye wise men; and give ear unto me, ye that have knowledge.

3 For the ear trieth words, as the mouth tasteth meat.

4 Let us choose to us judgment: let us know among ourselves what is good.

5 For Job hath said, I am righteous: and God hath taken away my judgment.

6 Should I lie against my right? my wound is incurable without transgression.

7 What man is like Job, who drinketh up scolding like water?

8 Which goeth in company with the workers of iniquity, and walketh with wicked men.

9 For he hath said, It profiteth a man nothing that he should delight himself with God.

10 Therefore hearken unto me, ye men of understanding: far be it from God, that he should do wickedness; and from the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity.

11 For the work of a man shall he render unto him, and cause every man to find according to his ways.

12 Yea, surely God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty pervert judgment.

13 Who hath given him a charge over the earth? or who hath disposed the whole world?

14 If he set his heart upon man, if he gather unto himself his spirit and his breath;

15 All flesh shall perish together, and man shall turn again unto dust.

16 If now thou hast understanding, hear this: hearken to the voice of my words.

17 Shall even he that hateth right govern? and wilt thou condemn him that is most just?

18 Is it fit to say to a king, Thou art wicked? and to princes, Ye are ungodly?

19 How much less to him that accepteth not the persons of princes, nor regardeth the rich more than the poor? for they all are the work of his hands.

20 In a moment shall they die, and the people shall be troubled ¹at midnight, and pass away: and ²the mighty shall be taken away without hand.

²¹ For his eyes are upon the ways of man, and he seeth all his goings.

²² There is no darkness, nor shadow of death, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.

²³ For he will not lay upon man more than right; that he should ³enter into judgment with God.

²⁴ He shall break in pieces mighty men ⁴without number, and set others in their stead.

²⁵ Therefore he knoweth their works, and he overturneth them in the night, so that they are ⁵destroyed.

²⁶ He striketh them as wicked men ⁶in the open sight of others;

²⁷ Because they ⁷turned back ⁸from him, and ⁹would not consider any of his ways:

²⁸ So that they ¹⁰cause the cry of the poor to come unto him, and he ¹¹heareth the cry of the afflicted.

²⁹ When he giveth quietness, who then can make trouble? and when he hideth his face, who then can behold him? whether it be done against a nation, or against a man only:

³⁰ That the hypocrite reign not, lest ¹²the people be ennnarod.

³¹ Surely it is meet to be said unto God, ¹³I have borne chastisement, I will not offend any more:

³³ Should it be according to thy mind? he will recompense it, whether thou refuse, or whether thou choose; and not I: therefore speak what thou knowest.

³⁴ Let men ¹⁴of understanding tell me, and let a wise man hearken unto me.

³⁵ Job hath spoken without knowledge, and his words were without wisdom.

³⁶ My desire is that Job may be tried unto the end because of his answers for wicked men.

³⁷ For he addeth rebellion unto his sin, he clappeth his hands among us, and multiplieth his words against God.

CHAPTER XXXV.

¹ Comparison is not to be made with God, because our good or evil cannot extend unto him. ² Many cry in their afflictions, but are not heard for want of faith.

ELIHU spake moreover, and said, ³2 Thinkest thou this to be right, that thou saidst, My righteousness is more than God's?

⁴ For ⁴thou saidst, What advantage will it be unto thee? and, What profit shall I have, ⁵if I be cleansed from my sin?

⁶ I will answer thee, and ⁷thy companions with thee.

⁵ Look unto the heavens, and see; and behold the clouds which are higher than thou.

⁶ If thou sinnest, what doest thou ⁶against him? or ⁷thy transgressions be multiplied, what doest thou unto him?

⁷ If thou be righteous, what givest thou him? or what receiveth he of thine hand?

⁸ Thy wickedness may hurt a man as thou art; and thy righteousness may profit the son of man.

⁹ By reason of the multitude of oppressions they make the oppressed to cry: they cry out by reason of the arm of the mighty.

¹⁰ But none saith, ⁹Where is God my maker, ¹⁰who giveth songs in the night;

¹¹ Who ¹¹teacheth us more than the beasts of the earth, and maketh us wiser than the fowls of heaven?

¹² There they cry, but none giveth answer, because of the pride of evil men.

¹³ Surely God will not bear vanity, neither will the Almighty regard it.

¹⁴ Although thou sayest thou shalt not see him, yet judgment is before him; therefore ¹²trust thou in him.

¹⁵ But now, because it is not so, ²he hath ¹³visited in his anger; yet ³he knoweth it not in great extremity:

¹⁶ Therefore doth Job open his mouth in vain; he multiplieth words without knowledge.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

¹ Elihu sheweth how God is just in his ways. ¹⁶ How Job's sin hindered God's blessings. ²⁴ God's works are to be magnified.

ELIHU also proceeded, and said, ² Suffer me a little, and I will shew thee ⁴that I have yet to speak on God's behalf.

³ I will fetch my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

⁴ For truly my words shall not be false: he that is perfect in knowledge is with thee.

⁵ Behold, God is mighty, and despiseth not any: ⁵he is mighty in strength and ⁶wisdom.

⁶ He preserveth not the life of the wicked: but giveth right to the ⁶poor.

⁷ He withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous: but ⁷with kings are they on the throne; yea, he doth establish them for ever, and they are exalted.

⁸ And ⁸if they be bound in fetters, and be holden in cords of affliction;

⁹ Then he sheweth them their work, and their transgressions that they have exceeded.

¹⁰ He openeth also their ear to discipline, and commandeth that they return from iniquity.

12 But if they obey not, they shall perish by the sword, and they shall die without knowledge.

13 But the hypocrites in heart heap up wrath: they cry not when he blindeth them.

14 They die in youth, and their life is among the unclean.

15 He delivereth the poor in his affliction, and openeth their ears in oppression.

16 Even so would he have removed thee out of the strait into a broad place, where there is no straitness; and that which should be set on thy table should be full of fatness.

17 But thou hast fulfilled the judgment of the wicked: judgment and justice take hold on thee.

18 Because there is wrath, beware lest he take thee away with his stroke: then a great ransom cannot deliver thee.

19 Will he esteem thy riches?
no, not gold, nor all the forces of strength.

20 Desire not the night, when people are cut off in their place.

21 Take heed, regard not iniquity: for this hast thou chosen rather than affliction.

22 Behold, God exalteth by his power: who teacheth like him?

23 Who hath enjoined him his way? or who can say, Thou hast wrought iniquity?

24 Remember that thou magnify his work, which men behold.

25 Every man may see it; man may behold it afar off.

26 Behold, God is great, and we know him not, neither can we number of his years be searched out.

27 For he maketh small the drops of water: they pour down rain according to the vapour thereof:

28 Which the clouds do drop and distill upon man abundantly.

29 Also can any understand the spreadings of the clouds, or the noise of his tabernacle?

30 Behold, he spreadeth his light upon it, and covereth the bottom of the sea.

31 For by them judgeth he the people; he giveth meat in abundance.

32 With clouds he covereth the light; and commandeth it not to shine by the cloud that cometh betwixt.

33 The noise thereof sheweth concerning it, the cattle also concerning the vapour.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

1 God is to be feared because of his great works.
15 His wisdom is unsearchable in them.

AT this also my heart trembleth, and is moved out of his place.

2 Hear attentively the noise of his voice, and the sound that goeth out of his mouth.

3 He directeth it under the whole heaven, and his lightning unto the ends of the earth.

4 After it a voice roareth: he thundereth with the voice of his excellency; and he will not stay them when his voice is heard.

5 God thundereth marvellously with his voice; great things doeth he, which we cannot comprehend.

6 For he saith to the snow, Be thou on the earth; likewise to the small rain, and to the great rain of his strength.

7 He sculeth up the hand of every man; that all men may know his work.

8 Then the beasts go into dens, and remain in their places.

9 Out of the south cometh the whirlwind: and cold out of the north.

10 By the breath of God frost is given: and the breadth of the waters is straitened.

11 Also by watering he wearieth the thick cloud: he scattereth his bright cloud:

12 And it is turned round about by his counsels: that they may do whatsoever he commandeth them upon the face of the world in the earth.

13 He causeth it to come, whether for correction, or for his land, or for mercy.

14 Harkened unto this, O Job: stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God.

15 Dost thou know when God disposed them, and caused the light of his cloud to shine?

16 Dost thou know the balancings of the clouds, the wondrous works of him which is perfect in knowledge?

17 How thy garments are warm, when he quieteth the earth by the south wind?

18 Hast thou with him spread out the sky, which is strong, and as a molten looking glass?

19 Teach us what we shall say unto him; for we cannot order our speech by reason of darkness.

20 Shall it be told him that I speak? if a man speak, surely he shall be swallowed up.

21 And now men see not the bright light which is in the clouds: but the wind passeth, and cleanseth them.

22 Fair weather cometh out of the north: with God is terrible majesty.

23 Touching the Almighty, we cannot find him out: he is excellent in power, and in judgment, and in plenty of justice: he will not afflict.

24 Men do therefore fear him: he respecteth not any that are wise of heart.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

1 God challengeth Job to answer. 4 God, by his mighty works, convinceth Job of ignorance, 31 and of imbecility.

WHEN the LORD answered Job ¹ out of the whirlwind, and said,

2 ² Who is this that darkeneth counsel by ³ words without knowledge?

3 ⁴ Gird up now thy loins like a man; for I will demand of thee, and ⁵ answer thou me.

4 ⁶ Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? declare, ⁷ if thou hast understanding.

5 Who hath laid the measures thereof, if thou knowest? or who hath stretched the line upon it?

6 Whereupon are the ⁸ foundations thereof ⁹ fastened? or who laid the corner stone thereof?

7 When the morning stars sang together, and all ¹⁰ the sons of God shouted for joy?

8 ¹¹ Or who shut up the sea with doors, when it brake forth, as if it had issued out of the womb?

9 When I made the cloud the garment thereof, and thick darkness a swaddlingband for it,

10 And ¹² brake up for it my decreed place, and set bars and doors, 11 And said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but no further: and here shall ¹³ thy proud waves ¹⁴ be stayed?

12 Hast thou ¹⁵ commanded the morning since thy days; and caused the dayspring to know his place;

13 That it might take hold of the ¹⁶ ends of the earth, that ¹⁷ the wicked might be shaken out of it?

14 It is turned as clay to the seal; and they stand as a garment.

15 And from the wicked their ¹⁸ light is withholden, and ¹⁹ the high arm shall be broken.

16 Hast thou ²⁰ entered into the springs of the sea? or hast thou walked in the search of the depth?

17 Have ²¹ the gates of death been opened unto thee? or hast thou seen the doors of the shadow of death?

18 Hast thou perceived the breadth of the earth? declare if thou knowest it all.

19 Where is the way where light dwelleth? and as for darkness, where ²² is the place thereof, 20 That thou shouldst take it ²³ to the bound thereof, and that thou shouldst know the paths to the house thereof?

21 Knowest thou ²⁴ it, because thou wast then born? or because thou number of thy days is great?

22 Hast thou entered into ²⁵ the treasures of the snow? or hast thou seen the treasures of the hail, 23 ²⁶ Which I have reserved against the time of trouble, against the day of battle and war?

24 By what way is the light parted, which scattereth the east wind upon the earth?

25 Who ²⁷ hath divided a watercourse for the overflowing of waters, or a way for the lightning of thunder;

26 To cause it to rain on the earth, where no man is; on the wilderness, wherein there is no man;

27 ²⁸ To satisfy the desolate and waste ground; and to cause the bud of the tender herb to spring forth?

28 ²⁹ Hath the rain a father? or who hath begotten the drops of dew?

29 Out of whose womb came the ice? and the ³⁰ hoary frost of heaven, who hath gendered it?

30 The waters are hid as with a stone, and the face of the deep ³¹ is frozen.

31 Canst thou bind the sweet influences of ³² the Pleiades, or loose the bands of ³³ Orion?

32 Canst thou bring forth ³⁴ Mazzaroth in his season? or canst thou ³⁵ guide Arcturus with his sons?

33 Knowest thou ³⁶ the ordinances of heaven? canst thou set the dominion thereof in the earth?

34 Canst thou lift up thy voice to the clouds, that abundance of waters may cover thee?

35 Canst thou send lightnings, that they may go, and say unto thee, ³⁷ Here we are?

36 ³⁸ Who hath put wisdom in the inward parts? or who hath given understanding to the heart?

37 Who can number the clouds in wisdom? or ³⁹ who can stay the bottles of heaven, 38 ⁴⁰ When the dust ⁴¹ groweth into hardness, and the clods cleave fast together?

39 ⁴² Wilt thou hunt the prey for the lion? or fill ⁴³ the appetite of the young lions, 40 When they couch in ⁴⁴ their dens, and abide in the covert to lie in wait?

41 ⁴⁵ Who provideth for the raven his food? when his young ones cry unto God, they wander for lack of meat.

CHAPTER XXXIX.

1 Of the wild goats and birds. 5 Of the wild ass, 9 The unicorn. 13 The peacock, stork, and ostrich. 19 The horse. 25 The hawk. 27 The eagle.

KNOWEST thou the time when the wild goats of the rock bring forth? or canst thou mark when ² the hinds do calve?

2 Canst thou number the months that they fulfil? or knowest thou the time when they bring forth?

3 They bow themselves, they bring forth their young ones, they cast out their sorrows.

4 Their young ones are in good liking, they grow up with corn; they go forth, and return not unto them.

1 Job humbleth himself to God. 6 God stirreth him up to show his righteousness, power, and wisdom. 15 Of the behemoth.

MOREOVER the LORD answered Job, and said,

2 Shall he that ¹ contendeth with the Almighty instruct him? he that reproveth God, let him answer it.

3 ¹ Then Job answered the LORD, and said,

4 ¹ Behold, I am vile; what shall I answer thee? ² I will lay mine hand upon my mouth.

5 Once have I spoken; but I will not answer: yea, twice; but I will proceed no further.

6 ¹ Then answered the LORD unto Job out of the whirlwind, and said, 7 ¹ Gird up thy loins now like a man: ² I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

8 ¹ Wilt thou also disannul my judgment? wilt thou condemn me, that thou mayest be righteous?

9 Hast thou an arm like God? or canst thou thunder with ¹ a voice like him?

10 ¹ Deck thyself now with majesty and excellency; and array thyself with glory and beauty.

11 Cast abroad the rage of thy wrath: and behold every one that is proud, and abase him.

12 Look on every one that is ¹ proud, and bring him low; and tread down the wicked in their place.

13 Hide them in the dust together; and bind their faces in secret.

14 Then will I also confess unto thee that thine own right hand can save thee.

15 ¹ Behold now ² behemoth, which I made with thee; he eateth grass as an ox.

among the merchants?

7 Canst thou fill his skin with spears?

8 Lay thine hand upon him, remember the battle, do no more.

9 Behold, the hope of him is in vain: shall not ¹one be cast down

16 One is so near to another, that no air can come between them.

17 They are joined one to another, they stick together, that they cannot 18 By his neesings a light doth shine, and his eyes are like the cyclds of the morning.

19 Out of his mouth go burning lamps, and sparks of fire leap out.

20 Out of his nostrils goeth smoke, as out of a seething pot or caldron.

21 His breath kindleth coals, and a flame goeth out of his mouth.

22 In his neck remaineth strength, and ⁷sorrow is turned into joy before him.

23 ⁸The flakes of his flesh are joined together: they are firm in themselves; they cannot be moved.

24 His heart is as firm as a stone;

yea, as hard as a piece of the nether millstone.

25 When he raiseth up himself, the mighty are afraid: by reason of breakings they purify themselves.

26 The sword of him that layeth at him cannot hold: the spear, the dart, nor the ²habergeon.

27 He esteemeth iron as straw, and brass as rotten wood.

28 The arrow cannot make him flee: slingsstones are turned with him into stubble.

29 Darts are counted as stubble: he laugheth at the shaking of a spear.

30 ³Sharp stones are under him: he spreadeth sharp pointed things upon the mire.

31 He maketh the deep to boil like

32 He maketh a path to shine after

33 Upon earth there is not his like,

11 Then came there unto him ⁵ all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house: and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him: every man also gave him a piece of money, and every one an earring of gold.

12 So the LORD blessed ⁶ the latter end of Job more than his beginning:

for he had ⁷ fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand asses.

13 ⁸ He had also seven sons and three daughters.

14 And he called the name of the first, Jemima; and the name of the second, Kezia; and the name of the third, Keren-happuch.

BOOK OF PSALMS.

PSALM I.

1 The happiness of the godly. 4 The unhappiness of the ungodly.

BLESSED ¹ is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ² ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, ³ nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

2 But ⁴ his delight is in the law of the LORD; ⁵ and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

3 And he shall be like a tree ⁶ planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not ⁷ wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall ⁸ prosper.

4 The ungodly are not so: but are ⁹ like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

5 Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

6 For ¹⁰ the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

PSALM II.

1 The kingdom of Christ. 10 Kings are exhorted to accept it.

WHY ¹ do the heathen ² rage, and the people ³ imagine a vain thing?

2 The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his ⁴ anointed, saying,

3 Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.

4 He that sitteth in the heavens ⁵ shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision.

5 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and ⁶ vex them in his sore displeasure.

6 Yet have I ⁷ set my king ⁸ upon my holy hill of Zion.

7 I will declare ⁹ the decree: the LORD hath said unto me, ¹⁰ Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee.

8 Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

9 Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

10 Be wise now therefore, O ye kings: be instructed, ye judges of the earth.

11 Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice ¹² with trembling.

12 Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when ¹³ his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

The security of God's protection.

A Psalm of David, ¹ when he fled from Absalom his son.

LORD, ² how are they increased that trouble me! many are they that rise up against me.

2 Many there be which say of my soul, ³ There is no help for him in God. Selah.

3 But thou, O LORD, art ⁴ a shield for me; my glory, and ⁵ the lifter up of mine head.

6 ¹ I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people, that have set themselves against me round about.

7 Arise, O LORD; save me, O my God: for thou hast smitten all mine enemies upon the cheek bone; thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly.

8 Salvation belongeth unto the LORD: thy blessing is upon thy people, Selah.

PSALM IV.

1 David prayeth for audience. 2 He reprovaeth and exhorteth his enemies. 6 Man's happiness is in God's favour.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth, A Psalm of David.

HEAR me when I call, O God of my righteousness: thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress; have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer.

2 O ye sons of men, how long will ye turn my glory into shame? how long will ye love vanity, and seek after leasing? Selah.

3 But know that the LORD hath set apart him that is godly for himself: the LORD will hear when I call unto him.

4 Stand in awe, and sin not: commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still, Selah.

5 Offer the sacrifices of righteousness, and put your trust in the LORD.

6 There be many that say, Who will shew us any good? LORD, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us.

7 Thou hast put gladness in my heart, more than in the time that their corn and their wine increased.

8 I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep: for thou, LORD, only makest me dwell in safety.

PSALM V.

1 David prayeth, and professeth his study in prayer. 4 God favoureth not the wicked. 7 David, professing his faith, prayeth unto God to guide him, 10 to destroy his enemies, 11 and to preserve the godly.

To the chief Musician upon Nehiloth, A Psalm of David.

GIVE ear to my words, O LORD, consider my meditation.

2 Hearken unto the voice of my cry, my King, and my God: for unto thee will I pray.

3 My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O LORD; in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.

4 For thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness: neither shall evil dwell with thee.

5 The foolish shall not stand in thy sight: thou hatest all workers of iniquity.

6 Thou shalt destroy them that speak leasing: the LORD will abhor the bloody and deceitful man.

7 But as for me, I will come into thy house in the multitude of thy mercy: and in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple.

8 Lead me, O LORD, in thy righteousness because of mine enemies; make thy way straight before my face.

9 For there is no faithfulness in their mouth; their inward part is very wickedness; their throat is an open sepulchre; they flatter with their tongue.

10 Destroy thou them, O God; let them fall by their own counsels; cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions; for they have rebelled against thee.

11 But let all those that put their trust in thee rejoice: let them ever shout for joy, because thou defendest them: let them also that love thy name be joyful in thee.

12 For thou, LORD, wilt bless the righteous: with favour wilt thou compass him as with a shield.

1 Or, Make them guilty. 2 Sam. 15. 31. & 17. 11. 2 Or, from their counsels. 3 Is. 65. 13. 4 Or, protectest them. 5 Ps. 115. 13. 6 Heb. thou convertest over, PSALM VI.

1 David's complaint in his sickness. 8 By faith he triumpheth over his enemies.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth, * upon Sheminith, A Psalm of David.

O LORD, rebuke me not in thine anger, neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.

2 Have mercy upon me, O LORD; for I am weak: O LORD, heal me; for my bones are vexed.

3 My soul is also sore vexed: but thou, O LORD, deliver my soul: or save me for thy mercies' sake.

4 Return, O LORD, deliver my soul: or save me for thy mercies' sake. 5 For in death there is no remembrance of thee: in the grave who shall give thee thanks?

6 I am weary with my groaning; all the night make I my bed to swim; I water my couch with my tears.

7 Mine eye is consumed because of grief; it waxeth old because of all mine enemies.

8 Depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity: for the LORD hath heard the voice of my weeping.

9 The LORD hath heard my supplication; the LORD will receive my prayer.

10 Let all mine enemies be ashamed and sore vexed: let them return and be ashamed suddenly.

PSALM VII.

1 David prayeth against the malice of his enemies, professing his innocency. 10 By faith he seeth his defence, and the destruction of his enemies.

3 O LORD my God, if I have done this; if there be iniquity in my hands;

4 If I have rewarded evil unto him that was at peace with me; (yea, if I have delivered him that without cause is mine enemy:)

5 Let the enemy persecute my soul, and take it; yea, let him tread down my life upon the earth, and lay mine honour in the dust. Selah.

6 Arise, O LORD, in thine anger, lift up thyself because of the rage of mine enemies: and awake for me to the judgment that thou hast commanded.

7 So shall the congregation of the people compass thee about: for their sakes therefore return thou on high.

8 The LORD shall judge the people: judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness, and according to mine integrity that is in me.

9 Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end; but establish the just: for the righteous God trieth the hearts and reins.

10 My defence is of God, which saveth the upright in heart.

11 God judgeth the righteous, and God is angry with the wicked every day.

12 If he turn not, he will whet his sword; he hath bent his bow, and made it ready.

13 He hath also prepared for him the instruments of death; he ordaineth his arrows against the persecutors.

14 Behold, he travaileth with iniquity, and hath conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood.

15 He made a pit, and digged it, and is fallen into the ditch which he made.

16 His mischief shall return upon his own head, and his violent dealing shall come down upon his own pate.

17 I will praise the LORD according to his righteousness: and will sing praise to the name of the LORD most high.

PSALM VIII.

God's glory is magnified by his works, and by his love to man.

To the chief Musician * upon Gittith, A Psalm of David.

O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens.

2 Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength because of thine enemies, that thou mightiest still the enemy and the avenger.

3 When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordaind;

4 What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?

5 For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour.

6 Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet:

7 All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field;

8 The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

9 O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!

PSALM IX.

1 David praiseth God for executing of judgment. 11 He teacheth others to praise him. 13 He prayeth that he may have cause to praise him.

To the chief Musician upon Muth-labben, A Psalm of David.

I WILL praise thee, O LORD, with my whole heart; I will shew forth all thy marvellous works.

2 I will be glad and rejoice in thee: I will sing praise to thy name, O thou most High.

3 When mine enemies are turned back, they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

4 For thou hast maintained my right and my cause; thou satest in the throne judging right.

5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen, thou hast destroyed the wicked, thou hast put out their name for ever and ever.

6 O thou enemy, destructions are come to a perpetual end: and thou hast destroyed cities; thy memorial is perished with them.

7 But the LORD shall endure for ever: he hath prepared his throne for judgment.

8 And he shall judge the world in righteousness, he shall minister judgment to the people in uprightness.

9 The LORD also will be a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble.

10 And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee: for thou, LORD, hast not forsaken them that seek thee.

11 Sing praises to the LORD, which dwelleth in Zion: declare among the people his doings.

12 When he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembereth them: he forgetteth not the cry of the humble.

13 Have mercy upon me, O LORD; consider my trouble which I suffer of them that hate me, thou that liftest me up from the gates of death:

14 That I may shew forth all thy praise in the gates of the daughter of Zion: I will rejoice in thy salvation.

16 THE LORD is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. * Higgalon. Selah.

17 The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God.

18 For the needy shall not always be forgotten: the expectation of the poor shall not perish for ever.

19 Arise, O LORD; let not man prevail: let the heathen be judged in thy sight.

20 Put them in fear, O LORD: that the nations may know themselves to be but men. Selah.

PSALM X.

1 David complaineth to God of the outrage of the wicked: 12 He prayeth for remedy. 16 He professeth his confidence.

WHY standest thou afar off, O LORD? why hidest thou thyself in times of trouble?

2 The wicked in his pride doth persecute the poor: let them be taken in the devices that they have imagined.

3 For the wicked boasteth of his heart's desire, and blesteth the covetous, whom the LORD abhorreth.

4 The wicked, through the pride of his countenance, will not seek after God: God is not in all his thoughts.

5 His ways are always grievous; thy judgments are far above out of his sight: as for all his enemies, he puffeth at them.

6 He hath said in his heart, I shall not be moved: for I shall never be in adversity.

7 His mouth is full of cursing and deceit and fraud: under his tongue is mischief and vanity.

8 He sitteth in the lurking places of the villages: in the secret places doth he murder the innocent: his eyes are privily set against the poor.

9 He lieth in wait secretly as a lion in his den: he lieth in wait to catch the poor: he doth catch the poor, when he draweth him into his net.

10 He croucheth, and humbleth himself, that the poor may fall by his strong oncs.

11 He hath said in his heart, God hath forgotten: he hideth his face; he will never see it.

12 Arise, O LORD; O God, lift up thine hand: forget not the humble.

13 Wherefore doth the wicked condemn God? he hath said in his heart, Thou wilt not require it.

14 Thou hast seen it; for thou beholdest mischief and spite, to requite it with thy hand: the poor committeth himself unto thee; thou art the helper of the fatherless.

15 Break thou the arm of the wicked and the evil man: seek out his wickedness till thou find none.

16 The LORD is King for ever and ever: the heathen are perished out of his land.

17 LORD, thou hast heard the desire of the humble: thou wilt prepare their heart, thou wilt cause thine ear to hear:

18 To judge the fatherless and the oppressed, that the man of the earth may no more oppress.

PSALM XI.

1 David encourageth himself in God against his enemies. 4 The providence and justice of God.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

IN the LORD put I my trust: how say ye to my soul, Flee as a bird to thy mountain?

2 For, lo, the wicked bend their bow, they make ready their arrow upon the string, that they may privily shoot at the upright in heart.

3 If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?

4 The LORD is in his holy temple, the LORD's throne is in heaven: his eyes behold, his eyelids try, the children of men.

5 The LORD trieth the righteous: but the wicked and him that loveth violence his soul hateth.

6 Upon the wicked he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup.

7 For the righteous LORD loveth righteousness; his countenance doth behold the upright.

PSALM XII.

1 David, destitute of human comfort, craveth help of God. 3 He comforteth himself with God's judgments on the wicked, and confidence in God's tried promises.

To the chief Musician upon Sheminith, A Psalm of David.

HELP, LORD; for the godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fall from among the children of men.

2 They speak vanity every one with his neighbour: with flattering lips and with a double heart do they speak.

3 The LORD shall cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that speaketh proud things:

4 Who have said, With our tongue will we prevail; our lips are our own: who is lord over us?

5 For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise, saith the LORD; I will set him in safety from him that is his enemy.

6 The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

PSALM XIII.

1 David complaineth of delay in help. 3 He prayeth for preserving grace. 5 He boasteth of divine mercy.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

HOW long wilt thou forget me, O LORD? for ever? how long wilt thou hide thy face from me? 2 How long shall I take counsel in my soul, having sorrow in my heart daily? how long shall mine enemy be exalted over me?

3 Consider and hear me, O LORD my God: ⁴ lighten mine eyes, ⁵ lest I sleep the sleep of death:

4 ⁶ Lest mine enemy say, I have prevailed against him; and those that trouble me rejoice when I am mored.

5 But I have ⁷ trusted in thy mercy; my heart shall rejoice in thy salvation.

6 I will sing unto the LORD, because he hath ⁸ dealt bountifully with me.

PSALM XIV.

1 David describeth the corruption of a natural man. 4 He convinceth the wicked by the light of their conscience. 7 He glorieth in the salvation of God.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

THE ¹ fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. ² They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good.

2 ³ The LORD looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, and seek God.

3 ⁴ They are all gone aside, they are all together become ⁵ filthy: there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

4 Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who ⁶ eat up my people as they eat bread, and ⁷ call not upon the LORD.

5 There ⁸ were they in great fear: for God is in the generation of the righteous.

6 Ye have shamed the counsel of the poor, because the LORD is his ⁹ refuge.

7 ¹⁰ Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! ¹¹ when the LORD bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

PSALM XV.

David describeth a citizen of Zion.

A Psalm of David.

LORD, ¹ who shall ² abide in thy ³ tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill?

2 ⁴ He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and ⁵ speaketh the truth in his heart.

3 ⁶ He that backbiteth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his neighbour, nor ⁷ taketh up a reproach against his neighbour.

4 ⁸ In whose eyes a vile person is contemned; but he honoureth them that fear the LORD. He that ⁹ sweareth to his own hurt, and changeth not.

5 ¹⁰ He that putteth not out his money to usury, ¹¹ nor taketh reward against the innocent. He that doeth these things ¹² shall never be moved.

PSALM XVI.

1 David, in distrust of merits, and hatred of idolatry, fleeth to God for preservation. 5 He sheweth the joys of his calling, of the resurrection, and life everlasting.

3 * Micaham of David.

PRESERVE me, O God: ¹ for in thee do I put my trust.

2 O my soul, thou hast said unto the LORD, Thou art my LORD: ³ my goodness extendeth not to thee;

3 But to the saints that are in the earth, and to the excellent, in whom is all my delight.

4 Their sorrows shall be multiplied that ⁵ hasten after another god: their drink offerings of blood will I not offer, ⁶ nor take up their names into my lips.

5 ⁷ The LORD is the portion ⁸ of mine inheritance and of my cup: thou maintainest my lot.

6 The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places; yea, I have a goodly heritage.

7 I will bless the LORD, who hath given me counsel: ⁸ my reins also instruct me in the night seasons.

8 ⁹ I have set the LORD always before me: because ¹⁰ he is at my right hand, ¹¹ I shall not be moved.

9 Therefore my heart is glad, ¹² and my glory rejoiceth: my flesh also shall ¹³ rest in hope.

10 ¹⁴ For thou wilt not leave ¹⁵ my soul in hell; neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

11 Thou wilt shew me the ¹⁶ path of life: ¹⁷ in thy presence is fulness of joy; ¹⁸ at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

PSALM XVII.

1 David, in confidence of his integrity, craveth defence of God against his enemies. 10 He sheweth their pride, craft, and eagerness. 13 He prayeth against them in confidence of his hope.

A Prayer of David.

HEAR ¹ the right, O LORD, attend unto my cry, give ear unto my prayer, that goeth ² not out of feigned lips.

2 Let my sentence come forth from thy presence; let thine eyes behold the things that are equal.

3 Thou hast proved mine heart; ⁴ thou hast visited me in the night; ⁵ thou hast tried me, and shalt find nothing; I am purposed that my mouth shall not transgress.

PSALM XVIII.

David praiseth God for his manifold and marvellous blessings.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, * the servant of the LORD, who spake unto the LORD the words of * this song in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul: And he said,

I * WILL love thee, O LORD, my strength.

2 The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, * my strength, * in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.

3 I will call upon the LORD, * who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

4 * The sorrows of death compassed me, and the floods of * ungodly men made me afraid.

5 The * sorrows of hell compassed me about: the snares of death prevented me.

6 In my distress I called upon the LORD, and cried unto my God: he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his ears.

7 * Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations also of the hills moved and were shaken, because he was wroth.

8 There went up a smoke * out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.

9 * He bowed the heavens also, and came down: and darkness was under his feet.

10 * And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly: yea, * he did fly upon the wings of the wind.

11 He made darkness his secret place; * his pavilion round about him were dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.

12 * At the brightness that was before him his thick clouds passed, hail stones and coals of fire.

13 The LORD also thundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave * his voice; hail stones and coals of fire.

14 * Yea, he sent out his arrows, and scattered them; and he shot out lightnings, and discomfited them.

15 * Then the channels of waters were seen, and the foundations of the world were discovered at thy rebuke, O LORD, at the blast of the breath of thy nostrils.

16 * He sent from above, he took me, he drew me out of * many waters.

17 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them which hated me: for they were too strong for me. 18 They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the LORD was my stay.

19 * He brought me forth also into a large place; he delivered me, because he delighted in me.

20 * The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.

21 For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God.

22 For all his judgments were before me, and I did not put away his statutes from me.

23 I was also upright * before him, and I kept myself from mine iniquity.

24 * Therefore hath the LORD recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands * in his eyesight.

25 * With the merciful thou wilt shew thyself merciful; with an upright man thou wilt shew thyself upright;

26 With the pure thou wilt shew thyself pure; and * with the froward thou wilt * shew thyself froward.

27 For thou wilt save the afflicted people; but wilt bring down * high looks.

28 * For thou wilt light my * candle: the LORD my God will enlighten my darkness.

a troop; and by my God have I leaped over a wall.

80 As for God, ¹his way is perfect: ²the word of the LORD is ³tried: he is a buckler ⁴to all those that trust in him.

81 ⁵For who is God save the LORD? or who is a rock save our God?

32 It is God that ⁶girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect.

33 ⁷He maketh my feet like hinds' feet, and ⁸setteth me upon my high places.

34 ⁹He teacheth my hands to war, so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.

35 Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation: and thy right hand hath holden me up, and ¹⁰thy gentleness hath made me great.

36 Thou hast enlarged my steps under me, ¹¹that ¹²my feet did not slip.

37 I have pursued mine enemies, and overtaken them: neither did I turn again till they were consumed.

38 I have wounded them that they were not able to rise: they are fallen under my feet.

39 For thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle: thou hast ¹³subdued under me those that rose up against me.

40 Thou hast also given me the necks of mine enemies; that I might destroy them that hate me.

41 They cried, but there was none to save them: ¹⁴even unto the LORD, but he answered them not.

42 Then did I beat them small as the dust before the wind: I did ¹⁵cast them out as the dirt in the streets.

43 ¹⁶Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of the people; and ¹⁷thou hast made me the head of the heathen: ¹⁸“a people whom I have not known shall serve me.

44 ¹⁹As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me: ²⁰the strangers ²¹shall submit themselves unto me.

45 ²²The strangers shall fade away, and be afraid out of their close places.

46 The LORD liveth; and blessed be my rock; and let the God of my salvation be exalted.

47 It is God that ²³avengeth me, ²⁴and ²⁵subdueth the people under me.

48 He delivereth me from mine enemies: yea, ²⁶thou liftest me up above those that rise up against me: thou hast delivered me from the ²⁷violent man.

49 ²⁸Therefore will I ²⁹give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the heathen, and sing praises unto thy name.

50 ³⁰Great deliverance giveth he to his king; and sheweth mercy to his anointed, to David, and to his seed ³¹for evermore.

PSALM XIX.

1 The creatures shew God's glory. 7 The word his grace. 12 David prayeth for grace.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

THE ¹heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork.

2 Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge.

3 There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard.

4 ⁴“Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun,

5 Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, ⁵and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.

6 His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

7 ⁷“The law of the LORD is perfect, ⁸converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple.

8 The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart: ⁹“the commandment of the LORD is pure, ¹⁰enlightening the eyes.

9 The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the LORD are ¹¹true and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired are they than gold, ¹²yea, than much fine gold: ¹³sweeter also than honey and ¹⁴the honeycomb.

11 Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and ¹⁵in keeping of them there is great reward.

12 ¹⁶“Who can understand his errors? ¹⁷cleanse thou me from ¹⁸secret faults.

13 ¹⁹“Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; ²⁰let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from ²¹the great transgression.

14 ²²Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O LORD, ²³my strength, and my ²⁴redeemer.

PSALM XX.

1 The church blesseth the king in his exploits. 7 Her confidence in God's succour.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

THE LORD hear thee in the day of trouble; ¹“the name of the God of Jacob ²defend thee;

2 Send ³thee help from ⁴the sanctuary, and ⁵strengthen thee out of Zion;

3 Remember all thy offerings, and ⁶accept thy burnt sacrifice; Selah.

4 ⁷Grant thee according to thine own heart, and fulfil all thy counsel.

set up our banners: the Lord fulfil all thy petitions.

PSALM XXI.

1 A Thanksgiving for victory. 7 Confidence of further success.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

THE Lord shall give in thy strength, O King; and in thy salvation how greatly shall he rejoice!

2 Thou hast given him his heart's desire, and hast not withholden the request of his lips. Selah.

3 For thou preventest him with the blessings of goodness: thou settest a crown of pure gold on his head.

4 He asked life of thee, and thou gavest it him, even length of days for ever and ever.

5 His glory is great in thy salvation: honour and majesty hast thou laid upon him.

6 For thou hast made him most blessed for ever: thou hast made him exceeding glad with thy countenance.

7 For the king trusteth in the Lord, and through the mercy of the most High he shall not be moved.

8 Thine hand shall find out all thine enemies: thy right hand shall find out those that hate thee.

9 Thou shalt make them as a fiery oven in the time of thine anger: the Lord shall swallow them up in his wrath, and the fire shall devour them.

10 Their fruit shalt thou destroy from the earth, and their seed from among the children of men.

11 For they intended evil against thee: they imagined a mischievous device, which they are not able to perform.

12 Therefore shalt thou make them turn their back, when thou shalt make ready thine arrows upon thy strings against the face of them.

13 Be thou exalted, Lord, in thine own strength: so will we sing and praise thy power.

PSALM XXII.

1 David complaineth in great discouragement. 9 He prayeth in great distress. 23 He praiseth God.

To the chief Musician upon Ajjeleth Shahah, A Psalm of David.

MY God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? why art thou so far from helping me, and from the words of my roaring?

2 O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not; and in the night season, and I am not silent.

3 But thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the praises of Israel.

4 Our fathers trusted in thee: they trusted, and thou didst deliver them.

5 They cried unto thee, and were delivered: they trusted in thee, and were not confounded.

6 But I am a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, and despised of the people.

7 All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying,

8 He trusted on the Lord that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, seeing he delighted in him.

9 But thou art he that took me out of the womb: thou didst make me hope when I was upon my mother's breasts.

10 I was cast upon thee from the womb: thou art my God from my mother's belly.

11 Be not far from me; for trouble is near; for there is none to help.

12 Many bulls have compassed me: strong bulls of Bashan have beset me round.

13 They gaped upon me with their mouths, as a ravening and a roaring lion.

14 I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint: my heart is like wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels.

15 My strength is dried up like a potsherd; and my tongue cleaveth to my jaws; and thou hast brought me into the dust of death.

16 For dogs have compassed me: the assembly of the wicked have inclosed me: they pierced my hands and my feet.

17 I may tell all my bones: they look and stare upon me.

18 They part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture.

19 But be not thou far from me, O Lord: O my strength, haste thee to help me.

20 Deliver my soul from the sword; my darling from the power of the dog.

21 Save me from the lion's mouth: for thou hast heard me from the horns of the unicorns.

22 I will declare thy name unto my brethren: in the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.

23 Ye that fear the Lord, praise him; all ye the seed of Jacob, glorify him; and fear him, all ye the seed of Israel.

24 For he hath not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted;

THE earth is the LORD's, and the fulness thereof: the world, and they that dwell therein.

2 ^aFor he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.

3 ^aWho shall ascend into the hill of the LORD? or who shall stand in his holy place?

10 Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory. Selah.

PSALM XXV.

1 David's confidence in prayer. 7 He prayeth for remission of sins, 16 and for help in affliction.

A Psalm of David.

UNTIL ^athce, O LORD, do I lift up my soul.

2 O my God, I ^atrust in thee: let me not be ashamed, ^alet not mine enemies triumph over me.

3 Yea, let none that wait on thee be ashamed: let them be ashamed which transgress without cause.

4 ^aShow me thy ways, O LORD; teach me thy paths.

5 Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day.

6 Remember, O LORD, ^athy tender mercies and thy lovingkindnesses; for they have been ever of old.

7 Remember not ^athe sins of my youth, nor my transgressions: ^aaccording to thy mercy remember thou me for thy goodness' sake, O LORD.

8 Good and upright is the LORD: therefore will he teach sinners in the way.

9 The meek will he guide in judgment: and the meek will he teach his way.

10 All the paths of the LORD are mercy and truth unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.

11 ^aFor thy name's sake, O LORD, pardon mine iniquity: ^afor it is great.

12 What man is he that feareth the LORD? ^ahim shall he teach in the way that he shall choose.

13 His soul shall dwell at ease; and ^ahis seed shall inherit the earth.

14 ^aThe secret of the LORD is with them that fear him; ^aand he will shew them his covenant.

21 Let integrity and uprightness preserve me; for I wait on thee.

22 Redeem Israel, O God, out of all his troubles.

PSALM XXVI.

David resorteth unto God in confidence of his integrity.

A Psalm of David.

JUDGE me, O LORD; for I have walked in mine integrity: I have trusted also in the LORD; therefore I shall not slide.

2 Examine me, O LORD, and prove me; try my reins and my heart.

3 For thy lovingkindness is before mine eyes: and I have walked in thy truth.

4 I have not sat with vain persons, neither will I go in with dissemblers.

5 I have hated the congregation of evil doers; and will not sit with the wicked.

6 I will wash mine hands in innocency: so will I compass thine altar, O LORD.

7 That I may publish with the voice of thanksgiving, and tell of all thy wondrous works.

8 LORD, I have loved the habitation of thy house, and the place where thine honour dwelleth.

9 Gather not my soul with sinners, nor my life with bloody men:

10 In whose hands is mischief, and their right hand is full of bribes.

11 But as for me, I will walk in mine integrity: redeem me, and be merciful unto me.

12 My foot standeth in an even place: I in the congregations will I bless the LORD.

PSALM XXVII.

1 David sustaineth his faith by the power of God, 4 by his love to the service of God, 9 by prayer.

A Psalm of David.

THE LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

2 When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.

3 Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident.

4 One thing have I desired of the LORD, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, and to enquire in his temple.

5 For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock.

6 And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me: therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the LORD.

7 Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice: have mercy also upon me, and answer me.

8 When thou saidst, "Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee, Thy face, LORD, will I seek."

9 Hide not thy face far from me; put not thy servant away in anger: thou hast been my help; leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

10 When my father and my mother forsake me, then the LORD will take me up.

11 Teach me thy way, O LORD, and lead me in a plain path, because of mine enemies.

12 Deliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies: for false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty.

13 I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living.

14 Wait on the LORD: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the LORD.

PSALM XXVIII.

1 David prayeth earnestly against his enemies. 6 He blesseth God. 8 He prayeth for the people.

A Psalm of David.

UNTO thee will I cry, O LORD my rock; be not silent to me: best, if thou be silent to me, I become like them that go down into the pit.

2 Hear the voice of my supplications, when I cry unto thee, when I lift up my hands toward thy holy oracle.

3 Draw me not away with the wicked, and with the workers of iniquity, which speak peace to their neighbours, but mischief is in their hearts.

4 Give them according to their deeds, and according to the wickedness of their endeavours: give them after the work of their hands; render to them their desert.

5 Because they regard not the works of the LORD, nor the operation of his hands, he shall destroy them, and not build them up.

6 Blessed be the LORD, because he hath heard the voice of my supplications.

7 The LORD is my strength and my shield; my heart trusted in him, and PSALM XXIX.

1 David exhorteth princes to give glory to God, 3 by reason of his power, 11 and protection of his people.

A Psalm of David.

GIVE unto the LORD, O ye mighty, give unto the LORD glory and strength.

2 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name; worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.

3 The voice of the LORD is upon the waters: the God of glory thundereth: the LORD is upon many waters.

4 The voice of the LORD is powerful; the voice of the LORD is full of majesty.

5 The voice of the LORD breaketh the cedars; yea, the LORD breaketh the cedars of Lebanon.

6 He maketh them also to skip like a calf; Lebanon and Sirion like a young unicorn.

7 The voice of the LORD divideth the flames of fire.

8 The voice of the LORD shaketh the wilderness: the LORD shaketh the wilderness of Kadesh.

9 The voice of the LORD maketh the hinds to calve, and discovereth the forests: and in his temple doth every one speak of his glory.

10 The LORD sitteth upon the flood; yea, the LORD sitteth King for ever.

11 The LORD will give strength unto his people; the LORD will bless his people with peace.

PSALM XXX.

1 David praiseth God for his deliverance. 4 He exhorteth others to praise him by example of God's dealing with him.

A Psalm and Song *at the dedication of the house of David.

I WILL extol thee, O LORD; for thou hast lifted me up, and hast not made my foes to rejoice over me.

2 O LORD my God, I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed me.

3 O LORD, thou hast brought up my soul from the grave: thou hast kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.

4 Sing unto the LORD, O ye saints of his, and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness.

5 For his anger endureth but a moment; in his favour is life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.

6 And in my prosperity I said, I shall never be moved.

7 LORD, by thy favour thou hast made my mountain to stand strong: thou didst hide thy face, and I was troubled.

8 I cried to thee, O LORD; and unto the LORD I made supplication.

9 What profit is there in my blood, when I go down to the pit? Shall the dust praise thee? shall it declare thy truth?

10 Hear, O LORD, and have mercy upon me: LORD, be thou my helper.

11 Thou hast turned for me my mourning into dancing: thou hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness;

12 To the end that my glory may sing praise to thee, and not be silent. O LORD my God, I will give thanks unto thee for ever.

PSALM XXXI.

1 David shewing his confidence in God earnestly his help. 7 He rejoiceth in his mercy. 9 He prayeth in his calamity. 19 He praiseth God for his goodness.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

IN thee, O LORD, do I put my trust; let me not be ashamed: deliver me in thy righteousness.

2 Bow down thine ear to me; deliver me speedily: be thou my strong rock, for an house of defence to save me.

3 For thou art my rock and my fortress; therefore for thy name's sake lead me, and guide me.

4 Pull me out of the net that they have laid privily for me: for thou art my strength.

5 Into thine hand I commit my spirit: thou hast redeemed me, O LORD God of truth.

6 I have hated them that regard lying vanities: but I trust in the LORD.

7 I will be glad and rejoice in thy mercy: for thou hast considered my trouble; thou hast known my soul in adversities;

8 And hast not shut me up into the hand of the enemy: thou hast set my feet in a large room.

9 Have mercy upon me, O LORD, for I am in trouble: mine eye is consumed with grief, yea, my soul and my belly.

10 For my life is spent with grief, and my years with sighing: my strength faileth because of mine iniquity, and my bones are consumed.

11 I was a reproach among all mine enemies, but especially among my neighbours: and a fear to mine acquaintance: they that did see me without fled from me.

12 I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind: I am like a broken vessel.

13 For I have heard the slander of many: fear was on every side: while they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life.

14 But I trusted in thee, O LORD: I said, Thou art my God.

18 Let the lying lips be put to silence; which speak grievous things proudly and contemptuously against the righteous.

19 Oh how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee; which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men!

20 Thou shalt hide them in the secret of thy presence from the pride of man: thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.

21 Blessed be the Lord: for he hath showed me his marvellous kindness in a strong city.

22 For I said in my haste, I am cut off from before thine eyes: nevertheless thou heardest the voice of my supplications when I cried unto thee.

23 O love the Lord, all ye his saints: for the Lord preserveth the faithful, and plentifully rewardeth the proud doer.

24 Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen your heart, all ye that hope in the Lord.

PSALM XXXII.

1 Blessedness consisteth in remission of sins. 3 Confession of sins giveth ease to the conscience. 8 God's promises bring joy.

A Psalm of David, Maschil.

BLESSED is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

2 Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord imputeth not iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no guile.

3 When I kept silence, my bones waxed old through my roaring all the day long.

4 For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me: my moisture is turned into the drought of summer. Selah.

5 I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid. I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord; and thou forgavest unto the iniquity of my sin. Selah.

6 For this shall every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found: surely in the floods of great waters they shall not come nigh unto him.

7 Thou art my hiding place; thou shalt preserve me from trouble; thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance. Selah.

8 I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye.

9 Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding: whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto thee.

10 Many sorrows shall be to the wicked: but he that trusteth in the Lord, mercy shall compass him about.

11 Be glad in the Lord, and rejoice, ye righteous: and shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart.

PSALM XXXIII.

1 God is to be praised for his goodness. 6 for his power, 12 and for his providence. 20 Confidence is to be placed in God.

REJOICE in the Lord, O ye righteous: for praise is comely for the upright.

2 Praise the Lord with harp: sing unto him with the psaltery and an instrument of ten strings.

3 Sing unto him a new song; play skillfully with a loud noise.

4 For the word of the Lord is right; and all his works are done in truth.

5 He loveth righteousness and judgment: the earth is full of the goodness of the Lord.

6 By the word of the Lord were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.

7 He gathereth the waters of the sea together as an heap: he layeth up the depth in storehouses.

8 Let all the earth fear the Lord: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

9 For he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast.

10 The Lord bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought: he maketh the devices of the people of none effect.

11 The counsel of the Lord standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.

12 Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

13 The Lord looketh from heaven; he beareth up all the sons of men.

14 From the place of his habitation he looketh upon all the inhabitants of the earth.

15 He fashioneth their hearts alike; he considereth all their works.

16 There is no king saved by the multitude of an host: a mighty man is not delivered by much strength.

17 An horse is a vain thing for safety: neither shall he deliver any by his great strength.

18 Behold, the eye of the Lord is upon them that fear him, upon them that hope in his mercy;

19 To deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine.

PSALM XXXIV.

1 David praiseth God, and exhorteth others thereto by his experience. 8 They are blessed that trust in God. 11 He exhorteth to the fear of God. 15 The printings of the righteous.

4 Psalm of David, when he changed his behaviour before Abimelech; who drove him away, and he departed.

I WILL bless the LORD at all times; his praise shall continually be in my mouth.

2 My soul shall make her boast in the LORD: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.

3 O magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt his name together.

4 I sought the LORD, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears.

5 They looked unto him, and were lightened: and their faces were not ashamed.

6 This poor man cried, and the LORD heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles.

7 The angel of the LORD encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.

8 O taste and see that the LORD is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

9 Fear the LORD, ye his saints: for there is no want to them that fear him.

10 The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they that seek the LORD shall not want any good thing.

11 Come, ye children, hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the LORD.

12 What man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days, that he may see good?

13 Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile.

14 Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it.

15 The eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous, and his ears are open unto their cry.

16 The face of the LORD is against them that do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.

17 The righteous cry, and the LORD heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles.

18 The LORD is high unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit.

19 Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the LORD delivereth him out of them all.

20 He keepeth all his bones: shall not one of them be broken.

21 Evil shall slay the wicked: and they that hate the righteous shall be desolate.

22 The LORD redeemeth the soul of his servants: and none of them that trust in him shall be desolate.

PSALM XXXV.

1 David prayeth for his own safety, and his enemies' confusion. 11 He complaineth of their wrongful dealing. 22 Therefore he telleth God against them.

A Psalm of David.

PLEAD my cause, O LORD, with them that strive with me: fight against them that fight against me.

2 Take hold of shield and buckler, and stand up for mine help.

3 Draw out also the spear, and stop the way against them that persecute me: say unto my soul, I am thy salvation.

4 Let them be confounded and put to shame that seek after my soul: let them be turned back and brought to confusion that devise my hurt.

5 Let them be as chaff before the wind: and let the angel of the LORD chase them.

6 Let their way be dark and slippery: and let the angel of the LORD persecute them.

7 For without cause have they hid for me their net in a pit, which without cause they have digged for my soul.

8 Let destruction come upon him at unawares; and let his net that he hath hid catch himself: into that very destruction let him fall.

9 And my soul shall be joyful in the LORD: it shall rejoice in his salvation.

10 All my bones shall say, LORD, who is like unto thee, which deliverest the poor from him that is too strong for him, yea, the poor and the needy from him that spoileth him?

11 False witnesses did rise up; they laid to my charge things that I knew not.

12 They rewarded me evil for good to the spoiling of my soul.

13 But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth: I humbled my soul with fasting; and my prayer returned into mine own bosom.

14 I behaved myself as though he had been my friend or brother: I bowed down heavily, as one that mourneth for his mother.

15 But in mine adversity they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together: yea, the abjects gathered themselves together against me, and I knew it not; they did tear me, and caused not.

16 With hypocritical mockers in feasts, they gnashed upon me with their teeth.

on? rescue my soul from their destructions, & my darling from the lions.

18 I will give thee thanks in the great congregation: I will praise thee among much people.

19 Let not them that are mine enemies wrongfully rejoice over me: neither let them wink with the eye that hate me without a cause.

20 For they speak not peace: but they devise deceitful matters against them that are quiet in the land.

21 Yea, they opened their mouth wide against me, and said, 'Aha, aha, our eye hath seen it.'

22 This thou hast seen, O LORD: keep not silence: O LORD, be not far from me.

23 Stir up thyself, and awake to my judgment, even unto my cause, my God and my LORD.

24 Judge me, O LORD my God, according to thy righteousness; and let them not rejoice over me.

25 Let them not say in their hearts, 'Ah, so would we have it: let them not say, 'We have swallowed him up.'

26 Let them be ashamed and brought to confusion together that rejoice at mine hurt: let them be clothed with shame and dishonour that magnify themselves against me.

27 Let them shout for joy, and be glad, that favour my righteous cause: yea, let them say continually, Let the LORD be magnified, which hath pleasure in the prosperity of his servant.

28 And my tongue shall speak of thy righteousness and of thy praise all the day long.

PSALM XXXVI.

1 The grievous estate of the wicked. 5 The excellency of God's mercy. 10 David prayeth for favour to God's children.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David the servant of the LORD.

THE transgression of the wicked saith within my heart, that there is no fear of God before his eyes.

2 For he flattereth himself in his own eyes, 'till his iniquity be found to be hateful.

3 The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit: he hath left off to be wise, and to do good.

4 He deviseth mischief upon his bed; he setteth himself in a way that is not good; he abhorreth not evil.

5 Thy mercy, O LORD, is in the heavens; and thy faithfulness reacheth unto the clouds.

6 Thy righteousness is like a great mountain; thy judgments are a great deep: O LORD, thou preservest man and beast.

7 How excellent is thy lovingkindness, O God! therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings.

8 They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house; and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.

9 For with thee is the fountain of life: in thy light shall we see light.

10 O continue thy lovingkindness unto them that know thee; and thy righteousness to the upright in heart.

11 Let not the foot of pride come against me, and let not the hand of the wicked remove me.

12 There are the workers of iniquity fallen: they are cast down, and shall not be able to rise.

PSALM XXXVII.

David permitteth to patience and confidence in God, by the different estate of the godly and the wicked.

A Psalm of David.

FRET not thyself because of evil-doers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity.

2 For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb.

3 Trust in the LORD, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and so verily thou shalt be fed.

4 Delight thyself also in the LORD; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.

5 Commit thy way unto the LORD; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass.

6 And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgment as the noonday.

7 Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for him: fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.

8 Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: fret not thyself in any wise to do evil.

9 For evildoers shall be cut off: but those that wait upon the LORD, they shall inherit the earth.

10 For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be.

11 But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

12 The wicked plotteth against the just, and gnasheth upon him with his teeth.

13 The LORD shall laugh at him: for he seeth that his day is coming.

14 The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, to cast down the poor and needy, and to slay such as be of upright conversation.

15 Their sword shall enter into their 16 ^a A little that a righteous man hath ^{is} better than the riches of many wicked.

 17 For ^a the arms of the wicked shall be broken: but the LORD upholdeth the righteous.
 18 The LORD ^a knoweth the days of the upright: and their inheritance shall be ^a for ever.
 19 They shall not be ashamed in the evil time: and ^a in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.
 20 But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of the LORD ^{shall be as} the fat of lambs: they shall consume; ^a into smoke shall they consume away.
 21 The wicked borroweth, and payeth not again: but ^a the righteous sheweth mercy, and giveth.

 32 The wicked ^a watcheth the righteous, and seeketh to slay him.

 34 ^a Wait on the LORD, and keep his way, and he shall exalt thee to inherit the land: ^a when the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it.
 35 ^a I have seen the wicked in great power, and spreading himself like ^a a green bay tree.
 36 Yet he ^a passed away, and, lo, he was not: yea, I sought him, but he could not be found.
 37 Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for ^a the end of that man ^{is} peace.
 38 ^a But the transgressors shall be destroyed together: the end of the wicked shall be cut off.

eous ^{is} of the LORD: ^{he is} their strength ^a in the time of trouble.
 40 And ^a the LORD shall help them, and deliver them: he shall deliver them from the wicked, and save them, ^a because they trust in him.

PSALM XXXVIII.

David moveth God to take compassion of his piteous case.

A Psalm of David, ^a to bring to remembrance.

O LORD, rebuke me not in thy wrath: neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.

2 For ^a thine arrows stick fast in me, and ^a thy hand presseth me sore.

3 ^a There ^{is} no soundness in my flesh because of thine anger; ^a neither ^{is} there any ^a rest in my bones because of my sin.

4 For ^a mine iniquities are gone over mine head: as an heavy burden they are too ^a heavy for me.

5 My wounds stink and are corrupt because of my foolishness.

6 I am ^a troubled; ^a I am bowed down greatly; ^a I go mourning all the day long.

7 For my loins are filled with ^a loathsome disease: and ^{there is} no soundness in my flesh.

8 I am feeble and sore broken: ^a I have roared by reason of the disquietness of my heart.

9 Lord, all my desire ^{is} before thee; and my groaning ^{is} not hid from thee.

10 My heart panteth, my strength faileth me: as for ^a the light of mine eyes, it also ^{is} gone from me.

11 ^a My lovers and my friends ^a stand aloof from my ^a sore; and ^a my kinsmen ^a stand afar off.

12 They also that seek after my life ^a lay snares for me: and they that seek my hurt ^a speak mischievous things, and ^a imagine deceits all the day long.

13 But ^a I, as a deaf man, heard not; and ^a I was as a dumb man that openeth not his mouth.

14 Thus I was as a man that heareth not, and in whose mouth ^{are} no reproofs.

15 For ^a in thee, O LORD, ^a do I hope: thou wilt ^a hear, O Lord my God.

16 For I said, ^a Hear me, ^a lest otherwise they should rejoice over me: when my ^a foot slippeth, they ^a magnify themselves against me.

17 For I am ready ^a to halt, and my sorrow ^{is} continually before me.

18 For I will ^a declare mine iniquity: I will be ^a sorry for my sin.

19 But mine enemies ^a are lively, and they are strong: and they that ^a hate me wrongfully are multiplied.

20 They also ^a that render evil for good are mine adversaries; ^a because I follow the thing that good ^{is}.

PSALM XXXIX.

1 David's care of his thoughts. 4 The consideration of the brevity and vanity of life.
7 the reverence of God's judgments. 10 and prayer, are his brides of impatience.

To the chief Musician, even to ¹Jeduthun, A Psalm of David.

I SAID, I will ¹take heed to my tongue: I will keep ²my mouth with a bridle, ³while the wicked is before me.

2 ¹I was dumb with silence, I held my peace, even from good; and my sorrow was ²stirred.

3 My heart was hot within me, while I was musings ⁴the fire burned: then spake I with my tongue,

4 LORD, ¹make me to know mine end, and the measure of my days, what it is; that I may know ²how frail I am.

5 Behold, thou hast made my days as an handbreadth; and ⁶mine age is as nothing before thee: ⁷verily every man ⁸at his best state is altogether vanity. Selah.

6 Surely every man walketh in ⁷a vain show: surely they are disquet-ted in vain: ⁸he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.

7 And now, LORD, what wait I for?
¹my hope is in thee.

8 Deliver me from all my transgressions: make me not ⁹the reproach of the foolish.

9 ¹I was dumb, I opened not my mouth; because ²thou didst it.

10 ¹Remove thy stroke away from me: I am consumed by the ²blow of thine hand.

11 When thou with rebukes dost correct man for iniquity, thou makest ²his beauty: ³to consume away like a moth: ⁴surely every man is vanity.
Selah.

12 Hear my prayer, O LORD, and give ear unto my cry: hold not thy peace at my tears: ¹for I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner, ²as all my fathers were.

13 ¹O spare me, that I may recover strength, before I go hence, and ²be no more.

PSALM XL.

1 The benefit of confidence in God. 6 Obedience is the best sacrifice. 11 The cease of David's evils inasmuch his prayer.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

I ²WAITED patiently for the LORD; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.

2 He brought me up also out of ³an horrible pit, out of ⁴the miry clay, and ⁵set my feet upon a rock, and ⁶established my goings.

8 ¹And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God: ²many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in the LORD.

4 ¹Blessed is that man that maketh the LORD his trust, and ²respecteth not the proud, nor such as ³turn aside to lies.

5 ¹Many, O LORD my God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward: ²they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee: ³if I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.

6 ¹Sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire; mine ears hast thou ²opened: burnt offering and sin offering hast thou not required.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come: in the volume of the book it is ¹written of me,

8 ¹I delight to do thy will, O my God: yea, thy law is ²within my heart.

9 ¹I have preached righteousness in the great congregation: lo, ²I have not refrained my lips, O LORD, ³thou knowest.

10 ¹I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart; I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation: I have not concealed thy lovingkindness and thy truth from the great congregation.

11 Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O LORD: ²let thy lovingkindness and thy truth continually preserve me.

12 For innumerable evils have com-passed me about: ¹mine iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that I am not able to look up; they are more than the hairs of mine head: therefore ²my heart ³faileth me.

13 ¹Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver me: O LORD, make haste to help me.

14 ¹Let them be ashamed and confounded together that seek after my soul to destroy it; let them be driven backward and put to shame that wish me evil.

15 ¹Let them be ²desolate for a reward of their shame that say unto me, Aha, aha.

16 ¹Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: let such as love thy salvation ²say continually, The LORD be magnified.

17 ¹But I am poor and needy; yet ²the LORD thinketh upon me: thou art my help and my deliverer; make no tarrying, O my God.

BLESSED ^{is} he that considereth him ⁱⁿ time of trouble.

2 The LORD will preserve him, and keep him alive; and he shall be blessed upon the earth: ^{and} thou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies.

3 The LORD will strengthen him upon the bed of languishing: thou wilt ^{make} all his bed in his sickness.

4 I said, LORD, be merciful unto me: ^{heal} my soul; for I have sinned against thee.

5 Mine enemies speak evil of me, When shall he die, and his name perish?

6 And if he come to see me, he ^{speake}th vanity: his heart gathereth iniquity to itself; when he goeth abroad, he telleth it.

7 All that hate me whisper together against me: against me do they devise ^{my} hurt.

8 ^{An} evil disease, say they, cleaveth fast unto him: and now that he lieth he shall rise up no more.

9 ^{Yea}, mine own familiar friend, in whom I trusted, ^{which} did eat of my bread, hath ^{lifted} up his heel against me.

10 But thou, O LORD, be merciful unto me, and raise me up, that I may requite them.

11 By this I know that thou favour-est me, because mine enemy doth not triumph over me.

12 And as for me, thou upholdest me in mine integrity, and ^{settest} me before thy face for ever.

13 ^{Blessed} be the LORD God of Israel from everlasting, and to everlasting. Amen, and Amen.

PSALM XLIII.

1 David's zeal to serve God in the temple. 5 He encourageth his soul to trust in God.

To the chief Musician, ² Maschil, for the sons of Korah.

AS the hart ³ panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God.

2 ^{My} soul thirsteth for God, for ^{the} living God: when shall I come and appear before God?

3 ^{My} tears have been my meat day and night, while ^{they} continually say unto me, Where is thy God?

4 When I remember these things, ^I pour out my soul in me: for I had gone with the multitude, ^I went with them to the house of God, with the voice of joy and praise, with a multitude that kept holiday.

5 ^{Why} art thou ^{cast} down, O my soul? and ^{why} art thou dis-quieted in me? ^{hope} thou in God: for I shall yet ^{praise} him ^{for} the help of his countenance.

6 O my God, my soul is cast down within me: therefore will I remember thee from the land of Jordan, and of the Hermonites, from ² the hill Mizar.

7 ^{Deep} calleth unto deep at the noise of thy waterspouts: ^{all} thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.

8 ^{Yet} the LORD will ^{command} his lovingkindness in the daytime, and ⁱⁿ the night his song ^{shall} be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life.

9 I will say unto God my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me? ^{why} go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

10 ^{As} with a ^{sword} in my bones, mine enemies reproach me: ^{while} they say daily unto me, Where is thy God?

11 ^{Why} art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou dis-quieted within me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, ^{who} is the health of my countenance, and my God.

PSALM XLIII.

1 David, praying to be restored to the temple, promiseth to serve God joyfully. 5 He encourageth his soul to trust in God.

^JUDGE me, O God, and ^{plead} my cause against an ^{ungodly} nation: O deliver me ^{from} the deceitful and unjust man.

2 For thou ^{art} the God of ^{my} strength: why dost thou cast me off? ^{why} go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

3 ^O send out thy light and thy truth: let them lead me; let them bring me unto ^{thy} holy hill, and to thy tabernacles.

4 Then will I go unto the altar of God, unto God ^{my} exceeding joy: yea, upon the harp will I praise thee, O God my God.

5 ^{Why} art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou dis-quieted within me? hope in God: for I shall yet praise him, ^{who} is the health of my countenance, and my God.

PSALM XLIV.

1 The church, in memory of former favours, 7 complaineth of their present evils. 17 Praising her integrity, 23 she fervently prayeth for succour.

To the chief Musician for the sons of Korah, Maschil.

WE have heard with our ears, O God, ^{our} fathers have told us, what work thou didst in their days, in the times of old.

2 ^{How} ^{thou} didst drive out the heathen with thy hand, and plantedst them; ^{how} thou didst afflict the people, and cast them out.

3 For ^{they} got not the land in possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them: but thy right hand, and thine arm,

GOD is our ^a refuge and strength,
^a a very present help in trouble.
 2 Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into ² the midst of the sea;

3 ^a Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof.
 Selah.

4 ^a There is ^a a river, the streams whereof shall make glad ^a the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the most High.

5 God is ^a in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: God shall help her, ^a and that right early.

6 ^a The heathen raged, the kingdoms were moved: he uttered his voice, ^a the earth melted.

7 ^a The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is ^a our refuge. Selah.

8 ^a Come, behold the works of the LORD, what desolations he hath made in the earth.

9 ^a He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth; ^a he breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder; ^a he burneth the chariot in the fire.

10 Be still, and know that I am God:
^a I will be exalted among the heathen,
 I will be exalted in the earth.

11 ^a The LORD of hosts is with us;
 the God of Jacob is our refuge.
 Selah.

PSALM XLVII.

The nations are exhorted cheerfully to entertain the kingdom of Christ.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm ^a for the sons of Korah.

O ^a CLAP your hands, all ye peo-ple; shout unto God with the voice of triumph.

2 For the LORD most high is ^a ter-rible; ^a he is a great King over all the earth.

3 ^a He shall subdue the people under us, and the nations under our feet.

4 He shall choose our ^a inheritance for us, the excellency of Jacob whom he loved. Selah.

5 ^a God is gone up with a shout, the LORD with the sound of a trumpet.

6 Sing praises to God, sing praises:
 sing praises unto our King, sing praises.

7 ^a For God is the King of all the earth: ^a sing ye praises ^a with understanding.

8 ^a God reigneth over the heathen:
 God sitteth upon the throne of his holiness.

9 ^a The princes of the people are ga-thered together, ^a even the people of the God of Abraham: ^a for the shields of the earth belong unto God: he is greatly exalted.

PSALM XLVIII.

The ornaments and privileges of the church.

A Song and Psalm ^a for the sons of Korah.

GREAT is the LORD, and greatly to be praised ^a in the city of our God, in the ^a mountain of his holiness.

2 ^a Beautiful for situation, ^a the joy of the whole earth, is mount Zion, ^a on the sides of the north, ^a the city of the great King.

3 God is known in her palaces for a refuge.

4 For, lo, ^a the kings were assembled, they passed by together.

5 They saw it, and so they mar--velled; they were troubled, and hast-ed away.

6 Fear ^a took hold upon them there, and pain, as of a woman in travail.

7 Thou ^a breakest the ships of Tar-shish ^a with an east wind.

8 As we have heard, so have we seen in ^a the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God: God will ^a estab-lish it for ever. Selah.

9 We have thought of ^a thy loving-kindness, O God, in the midst of thy temple.

10 According to ^a thy name, O God, so is thy praise unto the ends of the earth: thy right hand is full of righteousness.

11 Let mount Zion rejoice, let the daughters of Judah be glad, because of thy judgments.

12 Walk about Zion, and go round about her: tell the towers thereof.

13 ^a Mark ye well her bulwarks, ^a consider her palaces; that ye may tell it to the generation following.

14 For this God is our God for ever and ever: he will ^a be our guide even unto death.

PSALM XLIX.

1 An earnest persuasion to build the faith of resurrection, not on worldly power, but on God. 16 Worldly prosperity is not to be admired.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm ^a for the sons of Korah.

HEAR this, all ye people; give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world:

2 Both ^a low and high, rich and poor, together.

3 My mouth shall speak of wisdom:
 and the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding.

4 ^a I will incline mine ear to a par-
 -ble: I will open my dark saying upon the harp.

5 Wherefore should I fear in the days of evil, when ^a the iniquity of my heels shall compass me about?

6 They that ^a trust in their wealth, and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches;

7 None of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor ^a give to God a ransom for him:

8 (For ^a the redemption of their soul is precious, and it ceaseth for ever):

9 That he should still live for ever, and ^a not see corruption.

10 For he seeth that ^a wise men die, likewise the fool and the brutish person perish, and leave their wealth to others.

11 Their inward thought is, that their houses shall continue for ever, and their dwelling places to all generations; they call their lands after their own names.

12 Nevertheless man being in honour abideth not: he is like the beasts that perish.

13 This their way is their folly: yet their posterity approve their sayings. Selah.

14 Like sheep they are laid in the grave; death shall feed on them; and the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning: and their beauty shall consume in the grave from their dwelling.

15 But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave: for he shall receive me. Selah.

16 Be not thou afraid when one is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased;

17 For when he dieth he shall carry nothing away: his glory shall not descend after him.

18 Though while he lived he blessed his soul: and men will praise thee, when thou doest well to thyself.

19 He shall go to the generation of his fathers; they shall never see light.

20 Man that is in honour, and understandeth not, is like the beasts that perish.

PSALM L.

1 The majesty of God in the church. 5 His desire to gather saints. 7 The pleasure of God in not in ceremonies, 14 but in sincerity of obedience.

A Psalm of Asaph.

THE mighty God, even the LORD, hath spoken, and called the earth from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof.

2 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God hath shined.

3 Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: a fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about him.

4 He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, that he may judge his people.

5 Gather ye my saints together unto me; those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice.

6 And the heavens shall declare his righteousness: for God is judge himself. Selah.

7 I fear, O my people, and I will speak; O Israel, and I will testify against thee: I am God, even thy God.

8 I will not reprove thee for thy sacrifices or thy burnt offerings, to have been continually before me.

9 I will take no bullock out of thy house, nor he goats out of thy folds.

10 For every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills.

11 I know all the fowls of the mountains: and the wild beasts of the field are mine.

12 If I were hungry, I would not tell thee: for the world is mine, and the fulness thereof.

13 Will I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats?

14 Offer unto God thanksgiving; and pay thy vows unto the most High:

15 And call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.

16 But unto the wicked God saith, What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldest take my covenant in thy mouth?

17 Seeing thou hatest instruction, and castest my words behind thee, 18 When thou sawest a thief, then thou consentedst with him, and hast been partaker with adulterers.

19 Thou givest thy mouth to evil, and thy tongue frameth deceit.

20 Thou sittest and speakest against thy brother; thou slanderest thine own mother's son.

21 These things hast thou done, and I kept silence; thou thoughtest that I was altogether such an one as thyself: but I will reprove thee, and set them in order before thine eyes.

22 Now consider this, ye that forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver.

23 Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me: and to him that ordereth his conversation aright will I shew the salvation of God.

PSALM LI.

1 David prayeth for remission of sins, whereof he maketh a deep confession. 6 His prayer for sanctification. 16 God delighteth not in sacrifice, but in sincerity. 18 His prayer for the church.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, when Nathan the prophet came unto him, after he had gone in to Bath-sheba.

HAVE mercy upon me, O God, according to thy lovingkindness: according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

2 Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

3 For I acknowledge my transgressions: and my sin is ever before me.

4 Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight: that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest.

5 Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me.

6 Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts: and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

15 O Lord, open thou my lips; and my mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

16 For ⁶ thou desirest not sacrifice; ⁶ else would I give it: thou delightest not in burnt offering.

18 Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

19 Then shalt thou be pleased with ⁸ the sacrifices of righteousness, with burnt offering and whole burnt offering: then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar.

PSALM LII.

1 David, condemning the guiltfulness of Doeg, prophesieth his destruction. 2 The righteous shall rejoice at it. 3 David, upon his confidence in God's mercy, giveth thanks.

To the chief Musician, Muschil, A Psalm of David, * when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, and said unto him, David is come to the house of Ahimelech.

WHY boastest thou thyself in mischief, O "mighty man? the goodness of God endureth continually.

2 ¹ Thy tongue deviseth mischiefs; ¹ like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

3 Thou lovest evil more than good; and ² lying rather than to speak righteousness. Selah.

4 Thou lovest all devouring words, ³ O thou deceitful tongue.

5 God shall likewise ⁴ destroy thee for ever, he shall take thee away, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling place, and ⁵ root thee out of the land of the living. Selah.

6 ⁶ The righteous also shall see, and fear, ⁶ and shall laugh at him:

7 For, lo, this is the man that made not God his strength; but ⁷ trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his ² wickedness.

8 But I am ¹ like a green olive tree in the house of God: I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever.

9 I will praise thee for ever, because thou hast done ² in: and I will wait on thy name; ³ for it is good before thy saints.

PSALM LIII.

1 David describeth the corruption of a natural man. 4 He convinceth the wicked by the light of their own conscience. 6 He glorieth in the salvation of God.

To the chief Musician upon Mahalath, Muschil, A Psalm of David.

THE ¹ fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. Corrupt are they, and have done abominable iniquity: ² there is none that doeth good.

2 God ³ looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, that did ⁴ seek God.

3 Every one of them is gone back: they are altogether become filthy; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

4 Have the workers of iniquity ⁵ no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread: they have not called upon God.

5 ⁶ There ⁶ were they in great fear, where no fear was: for God hath ⁷ scattered the bones of him that encampeth against thee: thou hast put them to shame, because God hath despised them.

6 ⁸ Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! When God bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

PSALM LIV.

1 David, complaining of the Ziphims, prayeth for salvation. 4 Upon his confidence in God's help he promiseth sacrifice.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth, Muschil, A Psalm of David, * when the Ziphims came and said to Saul, Doth not David hide himself with us?

SAVE me, O God, by thy name, and judge me by thy strength.

2 Hear my prayer, O God; give ear to the words of my mouth.

3 For ¹ strangers are risen up against me, and oppressors seek after my soul: they have not set God before them. Selah.

4 Behold, God ² is mine helper: ³ the Lord ⁴ is with them that uphold my soul.

5 He shall reward evil unto ⁵ mine enemies: cut them off ⁶ in thy truth.

6 I will freely sacrifice unto thee: I will praise thy name, O Lord; ⁷ for it is good.

20 He hath put forth his hands against such as be at peace with him: he hath broken his covenant.

21 The words of his mouth were smoother than butter, but war was in his heart: his words were softer than oil, yet were they drawn swords.

22 Cast thy burden upon the Lord, and he shall sustain thee: he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved.

23 But thou, O God, shalt bring them down into the pit of destruction: bloody and deceitful men shall not live out half their days; but I will trust in thee.

PSALM LVI.

1 David, praying to God in confidence of his word, complaineth of his enemies. 9 He professeth his confidence in God's word, and promiseth to praise him.

To the chief Musician upon Jonathalem-rechokim, Michiam of David, when the Philistines took him in Gath.

BE merciful unto me, O God: for man would swallow me up; he fighting daily oppresseth me.

2 Mine enemies would daily swallow me up: for they be many that fight against me, O thou most High.

3 What time I am afraid, I will trust in thee.

4 In God I will praise his word, in God I have put my trust: I will not fear what flesh can do unto me.

5 Every day they wrest my words: all their thoughts are against me for evil.

6 They gather themselves together, they hide themselves, they mark my steps, when they wait for my soul.

7 Shall they escape by iniquity? in thine anger cast down the people, O God.

8 Thou tellest my wanderings: put thou my tears into thy bottle: are they not in thy book?

9 When I cry unto thee, then shall mine enemies turn back: this I know; for God is for me.

10 In God will I praise his word: in the Lord will I praise his word.

11 In God have I put my trust: I will not be afraid what man can do unto me.

12 Thy vows are upon me, O God: I will render praises unto thee.

13 For thou hast delivered my soul from death: wilt not thou deliver my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of the living?

clouds.

11 ^aBe thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: let thy glory be above all the earth.

PSALM LVIII.

1 David reproveth wicked judges, 3 describeth the nature of the wicked, 6 devoteth them to God's judgments, 10 whereat the righteous shall rejoice.

To the chief Musician, ^a*Al-taschith, Michtam of David.

DO ye indeed speak righteousness,
O congregation? do ye judge up-rightly, O ye sons of men?

^aYea, in heart ye work wickedness; ^aye weigh the violence of your hands
in the earth.

3 ^aThe wicked are estranged from the womb: they go astray ^aas soon as they be born, speaking lies.

4 ^aTheir poison is ^alike the poison of a serpent: they are like ^athe deaf ^aadder that stoppeth her ear;

5 Which will not hearken to the voice of charmers, ^acharming never so wisely.

6 ^aBreak their teeth, O God, in their mouth: break out the great teeth of the young lions, O Lord.

7 ^aLet them melt away as waters which run continually: when he bendeth his bow to shoot his arrows, let them be as cut in pieces.

8 As a snail which melteth, let every one of them pass away: ^alike the untimely birth of a woman, that they may not see the sun.

9 Before your pots can feel the thorns, he shall take them away ^aas with a whirlwind, ^aboth living, and in his wrath.

10 ^aThe righteous shall rejoice when he seeth the vengeance: ^ahe shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked.

11 ^aSo that a man shall say, Verily there is ^aa reward for the righteous:
verily he is a God that ^ajudgeth in the earth.

PSALM LX.

1 David prayeth to be delivered from his enemics, 6 He complaineth of their cruelty.
8 He trusteth in God, 11 He prayeth against them, 16 He praiseth God.

To the chief Musician, ^a*Al-taschith, Michtam of David; ^awhen Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

DELIVER ^ame from mine enemies, O my God: ^adefend me from them that rise up against me.

2 Deliver me from the workers of iniquity, and save me from bloody men.

3 For, lo, they lie in wait for my soul: ^athe mighty are gathered against me; ^anot for my transgression, nor for my sin, O Lord.

4 They run and prepare themselves without ^amy fault: ^aawake ^ato help me, and behold.

5 Thou therefore, O Lord God of hosts, the God of Israel, awake to visit all the heathen: be not merciful to any wicked transgressors.
Selah.

6 ^aThey return at evening: they make a noise like a dog, and go round about the city.

7 Behold, they belch out with their mouth: ^aswords are in their lips:
for ^awho, say they, doth hear?

8 But ^athou, O Lord, shalt laugh at them: thou shalt have all the heathen in derision.

9 ^aBecause of his strength will I wait upon thee: ^afor God is ^amy defence.

10 The God of my mercy shall ^apre-vent me: God shall let ^ame see ^amy desire upon ^amine enemies.

11 ^aSlay them not, lest my people forget: scatter them by thy power; and bring them down, O Lord our shield.

12 ^aFor the sin of their mouth and the words of their lips let them even be taken in their pride: and for cursing and lying which they speak.

13 ^aConsume them in wrath, consume them, that they may not be:
and ^alet them know that God ruleth in Jacob unto the ends of the earth.
Selah.

14 And ^aat evening let them return; and let them make a noise like a dog, and go round about the city.

15 ^aLet them ^awander up and down for meat, ^aand grudge if they be not satisfied.

PSALM LXI.

1 David seeketh to God upon his former experience. 4 He craveth perpetual service unto him, because of his promises.

To the chief Musician upon Neginah, A Psalm of David.

HEAR my cry, O God; attend unto my prayer.

2 From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

PSALM LXII.

1 David professing his confidence in God discourageth his enemies. 5 In the same confidence he encourageth the godly. 9 No trust is to be put in worldly things. 11 Power and mercy belong to God.

To the chief Musician, to * Jeduthun, A Psalm of David.

TRULY my soul waiteth upon God: from him cometh my salvation.

2 He only is my rock and my salvation; he is my defence; † I shall not be greatly moved.

3 How long will ye imagine mischief against a man? ye shall be slain all of you: as a bowing wall shall ye be, and as a tottering fence.

4 They only consult to cast him down from his excellency: they delight in lies: they bless with their mouth, but they curse inwardly. Selah.

5 My soul, wait thou only upon God; for my expectation is from him.

PSALM LXV.

1 David praiseth God for his grace. 4 The blessedness of God's chosen by reason of benefits.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm and Song of David.

PRAISE waiteth for thee, O God, in Zion: and unto thee shall the vow be performed.

2 O thou that hearest prayer, unto thee shall all flesh come.

3 Iniquities prevail against me: as for our transgressions, thou shalt purge them away.

4 Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and causest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts: we shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thy holy temple.

5 By terrible things in righteousness wilt thou answer us, O God of our salvation; who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea:

6 Which by his strength setteth fast the mountains; being girded with power:

7 Which stilleth the noise of the seas, the noise of their waves, and the tumult of the people.

8 They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at thy tokens: thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice.

9 Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it: thou greatly enrichest it with the river of God, which is full of water: thou preparest them corn, when thou hast so provided for it.

10 Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly: thou settlest the furrows thereof: thou makest it soft with showers: thou blindest the springing thereof.

11 Thou crownest the year with thy goodness; and thy paths drop fatness.

12 They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness: and the little hills rejoice on every side.

13 The pastures are clothed with flocks; the valleys also are covered over with corn; they shout for joy, they also sing.

PSALM LXVI.

1 David exhorteth to praise God, to observe his great works. 12 He voweth for himself religious service to God. 16 He declareth God's special goodness to himself.

2 Sing forth the honour of his name: make his praise glorious.

3 Say unto God, How terrible art thou in thy works! through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies submit themselves unto thee.

PSALM LXVIII.

1 A prayer at the removing of the ark. 4 A exhortation to praise God for his mercies, 7 for his care of the church, 19 for his great works.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm or Song of David.

LET ¹'God arise, let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him flee ²'before him.

2 ¹'As smoke is driven away, so drive them away: ²'as wax melteth before the fire, so let the wicked perish at the presence of God.

3 But ¹'let the righteous be glad; let them rejoice before God: yea, let them ²'exceedingly rejoice.

4 ¹'Sing unto God, sing praises to his name: ²'extol him that rideth upon the heavens ³'by his name JAH, and rejoice before him.

5 ¹'A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows, is God in his holy habitation.

6 ¹'God setteth the solitary ²'in families: ³'he bringeth out those which are bound with chains; but ⁴'the rebellious dwell in a dry land.

7 O God, ¹'when thou wentest forth before thy people, when thou didst march through the wilderness; Selah:

8 ¹'The earth shook, the heavens also dropped at the presence of God: even Sinai itself was moved at the presence of God, the God of Israel.

9 ¹'Thou, O God, didst ²'send a plentiful rain, whereby thou didst ³'confirm thine inheritance, when it was weary.

10 Thy congregation hath dwelt therein: ²'thou, O God, hast prepared of thy goodness for the poor.

11 The Lord gave the word: great was the ²'company of those that published it.

12 ¹'Kings of armies ²'did flee apace: and she that tarried at home divided the spoil.

13 ¹'Though ye have lien among the pots, ²'yet shall ye be as the wings of a dove covered with silver, and her feathers with yellow gold.

14 ¹'When the Almighty scattered kings ²'in it, it was white as snow in Salmon.

15 The hill of God is as the hill of Bashan; an high hill as the hill of Bashan.

16 ¹'Why leap ye, ye high hills? ²'this is the hill which God doth dwell in to dwell in; yea, the LORD will dwell in it for ever.

17 ¹'The chariots of God are twenty thousand, ²'even thousands of angels: the Lord is among them, as in Sinai, in the holy place.

18 ¹'Thou hast ascended on high, ²'thou hast led captivity captive: ³'thou hast received gifts ⁴'for men; yea, for ⁵'the rebellious also, ⁶'that the LORD God might dwell among them.

24 * Pour out thine indignation upon them, and let thy wrathful anger take hold of them.

25 * Let ² their habitation be desolate; and ³ let none dwell in their tents.

26 For ⁴ they persecute ⁵ him whom thou hast smitten; and they talk to the grief of ⁶ those whom thou hast wounded.

27 * Add ⁵ iniquity unto their iniquity: ⁷ and let them not come into thy righteousness.

28 Let them ⁸ be blotted out of the book of the living, ⁹ and not be written with the righteous.

29 But I am poor and sorrowful: let thy salvation, O God, set me up on high.

30 * I will praise the name of God with a song, and will magnify him with thanksgiving.

31 * This also shall please the Lord better than an ox or bullock that hath horns and hoofs.

PSALM LXX.

David solliciteth God to the speedy destruction of the wicked, and preservation of the goodly.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David, * to bring to remembrance.

MAKE haste, * O God, to deliver me; make haste ² to help me, O LORD.

2 * Let them be ashamed and confounded that seek after my soul: let them be turned backward, and put to confusion, that desire my hurt.

3 * Let them be turned back for a reward of their shame that say, Aha, aha.

4 Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: and let such as love thy salvation say continually, Let God be magnified.

5 * But I am poor and needy: * make haste unto me, O God: thou art my help and my deliverer; O LORD, make no tarrying.

PSALM LXXI.

1 David, in confidence of faith, and experience of God's favour, prayeth both for himself, and against the enemies of his soul. 14 He promitteth constancy. 17 He prayeth for perseverance. 19 He praiseth God, and promitteth to do it cheerfully.

IN * thee, O LORD, do I put my trust: let me never be put to confusion.

2 * Deliver me in thy righteousness, and cause me to escape: * incline thine ear unto me, and save me.

3 * Be thou my strong habitation, whereunto I may continually resort: thou hast given ⁴ commandment to save me; for thou art my rock and my fortress.

4 * Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked, out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.

5 For thou art ⁶ my hope, O Lord God: thou art my trust from my youth.

6 * By thee have I been holden up from the womb: thou art he that took me out of my mother's bowels: my praise shall be continually of thee.

7 * I am as a wonder unto many; but thou art my strong refuge.

8 Let ⁹ my mouth be filled with thy praise and with thy honour all the day.

9 * Cast me not off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my strength faileth.

10 For mine enemies speak against me; and they that ¹¹ say wait for my soul ¹² * take counsel together.

11 Saying, God hath forsaken him: persecute and take him; for there is none to deliver him.

12 * O God, be not far from me: O my God, * make haste for my help.

13 * Let them be confounded and consumed that are adversaries to my soul; let them be covered with reproach and dishonour that seek my hurt.

14 But I will hope continually, and will yet praise thee more and more.

15 * My mouth shall shew forth thy righteousness and thy salvation all the day: for ¹⁶ I know not the numbers thereof.

16 I will go in the strength of the Lord God: I will make mention of thy righteousness, even of thine only.

17 O God, thou hast taught me from my youth: and hitherto have I declared thy wondrous works.

18 * Now also ¹⁹ when I am old and greyheaded, O God, forsake me not; until I have shewed ²⁰ thy strength unto this generation, and thy power to every one that is to come.

19 * Thy righteousness also, O God, is very high, who hast done great things: * O God, who is like unto thee!

PSALM LXXII.

1 David, praying for Solomon, sheweth the goodness and glory of his, in type, and in truth, of Christ's kingdom. 18 He blesseth God.

A Psalm ³for Solomon.

GIVE the king thy judgments, O God, and thy righteousness unto the king's son.

2 ¹He shall judge thy people with righteousness, and thy poor with judgment.

3 ²The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the little hills, by righteousness.

4 ³He shall judge the poor of the people, he shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressor.

5 They shall fear thee ⁴as long as the sun and moon endure, throughout all generations.

6 ⁵He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass: as showers that water the earth.

7 In his days shall the righteous flourish; ⁶and abundance of peace ⁷so long as the moon endureth.

8 ⁸He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of the earth.

9 ⁹They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him; ¹⁰and his enemies shall lick the dust.

10 ¹¹The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents: the kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.

11 Yea, all kings shall fall down before him: all nations shall serve him.

12 For he ¹²shall deliver the needy when he crieth; the poor also, and him that hath no helper.

13 He shall spare the poor and needy, and shall save the souls of the needy.

14 He shall redeem their soul from deceit and violence: and ¹⁴precious shall their blood be in his sight.

15 And he shall live, and to him ¹⁵shall be given of the gold of Sheba: prayer also shall be made for him continually; and daily shall he be praised.

16 There shall be an handful of corn in the earth upon the top of the mountains; the fruit thereof shall shake like Lebanon: ¹⁶and they of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth.

17 ¹⁷His name ¹⁸shall endure for ever: ¹⁹his name shall be continued as long as the sun: and ²⁰men shall be blessed in him: ²¹all nations shall call him blessed.

18 ²²Blessed be the Lord God, the God of Israel, ²³who only doeth wondrous things.

19 And ²⁴blessed be his glorious name for ever: ²⁵and let the whole earth be filled with his glory; Amen, and Amen.

20 The prayers of David the son of Jesse are ended.

PSALM LXXIII.

1 The prophet, prevailing in a temptation, sheweth the occasion thereof, the prosperity of the wicked, 13 The wound given thereby, diffidence, 15 The victory over it, knowledge of God's purpose, in destroying of the wicked, and sustaining the righteous.

A Psalm of ¹Asaph.

TRULY God is good to Israel, even to such as are ²of a clean heart.

2 But as for me, my feet were almost gone; my steps had well nigh slipped.

3 ³For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

4 ⁴For there are no bands in their death: but their strength is ⁵firm.

5 ⁶They are not ⁷in trouble as other men; neither are they plagued ⁸like other men.

6 Therefore pride compasseth them about as a chain; violence covereth them ⁹as a garment.

7 ¹⁰Their eyes stand out with fatness: ¹¹they have more than heart could wish.

8 ¹²They are corrupt, and ¹³speak wickedly concerning oppression: they ¹⁴speak loftily.

9 They set their mouth ¹⁵against the heavens, and their tongue walketh through the earth.

10 Therefore his people return hither: ¹⁶and waters of a full cup are wrung out to them.

11 And they say, ¹⁷How doth God know? and is there knowledge in the most High?

12 Behold, these are the ungodly, who ¹⁸prosper in the world; they increase ¹⁹in riches.

13 ²⁰Verily I have cleansed my heart ²¹in vain, and ²²washed my hands in innocence.

14 For all the day long have I been plagued, and ²³chastened every morning.

15 If I say, I will speak thus; behold, I should offend ²⁴against the generation of thy children.

16 ²⁵When I thought to know this, ²⁶it was too painful for me:

17 Until ²⁷I went into the sanctuary of God; ²⁸then understood I ²⁹their end.

18 Surely ³⁰thou didst set them in slippery places: thou castedst them down into destruction.

19 How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment! they are utterly consumed with terrors.
20 'As a dream when one awaketh; so, O Lord, 'when thou awakest, thou shalt despise their image.

21 Thus my heart was 'grieved, and I was pricked in my reins.

22 'So foolish was I, and 'ignorant: I was as a beast 'before thee.

23 Nevertheless I am continually with thee: thou hast holden me by my right hand.

24 'Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me to glory.

25 'Whom have I in heaven but thee! and there is none upon earth that I desire beside thee.

26 'My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the 'strength of my heart, and 'my portion for ever.

27 For, lo, 'they that are far from thee shall perish: thou hast destroyed all them that 'go a whoring from thee.

28 But it is good for me to 'draw near to God: I have put my trust in the Lord God, that I may 'declare all thy works.

PSALM LXXIV.

1 The prophet complaineth of the desolation of the sanctuary. 10 He saith God to help in consideration of his power, 18 of his reproachful enemies, of his children, and of his covenant.

* Maschil of Asaph.

O GOD, why hast thou 'cast us off for ever? why doth thine anger 'smoke against 'the sheep of thy pasture?

2 Remember thy congregation, 'which thou hast purchased of old; the 'rod of thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed; this mount Zion, wherein thou hast dwelt.

3 Lift up thy feet unto the perpetual desolations; even all that the enemy hath done wickedly in the sanctuary.

4 'Thine enemies roar in the midst of thy congregations; 'they set up their ensigns for signs.

5 A man was famous according as he had lifted up axes upon the thick trees.

6 But now they break down 'the carved work thereof at once with axes and hammers.

7 'They have cast fire into thy sanctuary, they have defiled 'by casting down the dwelling place of thy name to the ground.

8 'They said in their hearts, Let us 'destroy them together: they have burned up all the synagogues of God in the land.

9 We see not our signs: 'there is no more any prophet: neither is there among us any that knoweth how long.

10 O God, how long shall the adversary reproach? shall the enemy blaspheme thy name for ever?

11 'Why withdrawest thou thy hand, even thy right hand? pluck it out of thy bosom.

12 For 'God is my King of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth.

13 'Thou didst 'divide the sea by thy strength: 'thou brakest the heads of the 'dragons in the waters.

14 Thou brakest the heads of leviathan in pieces, and gavest him 'to be meat 'to the people inhabiting the wilderness.

15 'Thou didst cleave the fountain and the flood: 'thou driedst up 'mighty rivers.

16 The day is thine, the night also is thine: 'thou hast prepared the light and the sun.

17 Thou hast 'set all the borders of the earth: 'thou hast 'made summer and winter.

18 'Remember this, that the enemy hath reproached, O Lord, and that 'the foolish people have blasphemed thy name.

19 O deliver not the soul 'of thy twinkledove unto the multitude of the wicked: 'forget not the congregation of thy poor for ever.

20 'Have respect unto the covenant: for the dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of cruelty.

21 O let not the oppressed return ashamed: let the poor and needy praise thy name.

22 Arise, O God, plead thine own cause: 'remember how the foolish man reproacheth thee daily.

23 Forget not the voice of thine enemies: the tumult of those that rise up against thee 'increaseth continually.

PSALM LXXV.

1 The prophet praiseth God. 2 He promiseth to judge uprightly. 4 He rebuketh the proud by consideration of God's providence. 9 He praiseth God, and promiseth to execute justice.

To the chief Musician, 7 * Al-taschith, A Psalm or Song of Asaph.

2 'When I shall receive the congregation I will judge uprightly.

3 The earth and all the inhabitants thereof are dissolved: I bear up the pillars of it. Selah.

4 I said unto the fools, Deal not foolishly: and to the wicked, 'Lift not up the horn:

5 Lift not up your horn on high: speak not with a stiff neck.

6 For promotion cometh neither from the east, nor from the west, nor from the 'south.

7 But 'God is the Judge: 'he putteth down one, and setteth up another.

PSALM LXXVI.

1 A declaration of God's majesty in the church.
11 An exhortation to serve him reverently.

To the chief Musician on Neghnoth, A Psalm or Song of Asaph.

Iⁿ Judah is God known: his name is great in Israel.

2 In Salem also is his tabernacle, and his dwelling place in Zion.

3 ⁴There brake he the arrows of the bow, the shield, and the sword, and the battle. Selah.

4 Thou art more glorious and excellent ⁴than the mountains of prey.

5 ⁴The stouthearted are spoiled; they have slept their sleep: and none of the men of might have found their hands.

6 At thy rebuke, O God of Jacob, both the chariot and horse are cast into a dead sleep.

7 Thou, even thou, art to be feared: and ⁴who may stand in thy sight when once thou art angry?

8 Thou didst cause judgment to be heard from heaven; ⁴the earth feared, and was still.

9 When God ⁴arose to judgment, to save all the meek of the earth. Selah.

10 ⁴Surely the wrath of man shall praise thee; the remainder of wrath shalt thou restrain.

11 ⁴Vow, and pay unto the LORD your God: let all that be round about him bring presents ⁴unto him that ought to be feared.

12 He shall cut off the spirit of princes: ⁴he is terrible to the kings of the earth.

PSALM LXXVII.

1 The psalmist sheweth what fierce combat he had with diffidence. 10 The victory which he had by consideration of God's great and gracious works.

To the chief Musician, * to Jeduthun, A Psalm ⁴of Asaph.

Iⁿ CRIED unto God with my voice, even unto God with my voice; and he gave ear unto me.

2 ⁴In the day of my trouble I sought the LORD: ⁴my sore ran in the night, and ceased not: my soul refused to be comforted.

3 I remembered God, and was troubled: I complained, and ⁴my spirit was overwhelmed. Selah.

4 Thou holdest mine eyes waking: I am so troubled that I cannot speak.

5 ⁴I have considered the days of old, the years of ancient times.

6 I call to remembrance ⁴my song in the night: ⁴I commune with mine own heart: and my spirit made diligent search.

7 ⁴Will the Lord cast off for ever? and will he ⁴be favourable no more?

8 Is his mercy clean gone for ever? doth ⁴his promise fail ⁴for evermore?

9 Hath God ⁴forgotten to be gracious? hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies? Selah.

10 And I said, This is ⁴my infirmity: but I will remember the years of the right hand of the most High.

11 ⁴I will remember the works of the LORD: surely I will remember thy wonders of old.

12 I will meditate also of all thy work, and talk of thy doings.

13 ⁴Thy way, O God, is in the sanctuary: ⁴who is so great a God as our God?

14 Thou art the God that doest wonders: thou hast declared thy strength among the people.

15 ⁴Thou hast with thine arm redeemed thy people, the sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah.

16 ⁴The waters saw thee, O God, the waters saw thee; they were afraid: the depths also were troubled.

17 ⁴The clouds poured out water: the skies sent out a sound: ⁴thine arrows also went abroad.

18 The voice of thy thunder was in the heaven: ⁴the lightnings lightened the world: ⁴the earth trembled and shook.

19 ⁴Thy way is in the sea, and thy path in the great waters, ⁴and thy footsteps are not known.

20 ⁴Thou leddest thy people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

PSALM LXXVIII.

1 An exhortation both to learn and to preach the law of God. 9 The story of God's wrath against the rebellious and disobedient. 68 The Israelites being rejected, God chose Judah, Zion, and David.

* 4 Maschil of Asaph.

G^{IVE} ear, O my people, to my law: incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

2 ⁴I will open my mouth in a parable: I will utter dark sayings of old:

3 ⁴Which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us.

4 ⁴We will not hide them from their children, ⁴showing to the generation to come the praises of the LORD, and his strength, and his wonderful works that he hath done.

5 For ⁴he established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, ⁴that they should make them known to their children:

6 ^a That the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born; who should arise and declare them to their children:

7 That they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments:

8 And ^a might not be as their fathers, ^a a stubborn and rebellious generation; a generation ²¹ that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit was not steadfast with God.

9 The children of Ephraim, being armed, and ³ carrying bows, turned back in the day of battle.

10 ^m They kept not the covenant of God, and refused to walk in his law;

11 And ^a forgot his works, and his wonders that he had shewed them.

12 ^m Marvellous things did he in the sight of their fathers, in the land of Egypt, ² in the field of Zoan.

13 ^a He divided the sea, and caused them to pass through; and ⁷ he made the waters to stand as an heap.

14 ^a In the daytime also he led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire.

15 ^a He clave the rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink as out of the great depths.

16 He brought ^a streams also out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers.

17 And they sinned yet more against him by ^a provoking the most High in the wilderness.

18 And ^a they tempted God in their heart by asking meat for their lust.

19 ^a Yea, they spake against God; they said, Can God ^a furnish a table in the wilderness?

20 ^a Behold, he smote the rock, that the waters gushed out, and the streams overflowed; can he give bread also? can he provide flesh for his people?

21 Therefore the Lord heard this, and ^a was wroth: so a fire was kindled against Jacob, and anger also came up against Israel;

22 Because they ^a believed not in God, and trusted not in his salvation:

23 Though he had commanded the clouds from above, ^a and opened the doors of heaven, 24 ^a And had rained down manna upon them to eat, and had given them of the corn of heaven.

25 ^a Man did eat angels' food: he sent them meat to the full.

26 ^a He caused an east wind ^a to blow in the heaven: and by his power he brought in the south wind.

27 He rained flesh also upon them as dust, and ^a feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea:

28 And he let it fall in the midst of their camp, round about their habitations.

29 ^a So they did eat, and were well filled: for he gave them their own desire;

30 They were not estranged from their lust. But ^a while their meat was yet in their mouths, 31 The wrath of God came upon them, and slew the fattest of them, and ^a smote down the ³ chosen men of Israel.

32 For all this ^a they sinned still, and ^a believed not for his wondrous works.

33 ^a Therefore their days did he consume in vanity, and their years in trouble.

34 ^a When he slew them, then they sought him: and they returned and enquired early after God.

35 And they remembered that ^a God was their rock, and the high God ^a their redeemer.

36 Nevertheless they did ^a flatter him with their mouth, and they lied unto him with their tongues.

37 For ^a their heart was not right with him, neither were they steadfast in his covenant.

38 ^a But he, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not: yea, many a time ^a turned he his anger away, ^a and did not stir up his will against him.

39 For ^a he remembered ^a that they were but flesh; ^a a wind that passeth away, and cometh not again.

40 How oft did they ^a provoke him in the wilderness, and grieve him in the desert!

41 Yea, ^a they turned back and tempted God, and ^a limited the Holy One of Israel.

42 They remembered not his hand, nor the day when he delivered them ^a from the enemy.

43 How ^a he had ^a wrought his signs in Egypt, and his wonders in the field of Zoan:

44 ^a And had turned their rivers into blood; and their floods, that they could not drink.

45 ^a He sent divers sorts of flies among them, which devoured them; and ^a frogs, which destroyed them.

46 ^a He gave also their increase unto the caterpillar, and their labour unto the locust.

47 ^a He ^a destroyed their vines with hail, and their sycamore trees with ^a frost.

48 ^a He gave up their cattle also to the hail, and their flocks to ^a hot thunderbolts.

49 He cast upon them the fierceness of his anger, wrath, and indignation, and trouble, by sending evil angels among them.

50 ^a He made a way to his anger; he spared not their soul from death, this mountain, ⁶ which his right hand had purchased.

55 ⁷ He cast out the heathen also before them, and ⁸ divided them an inheritance by line, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.

56 ⁹ Yet they tempted and provoked the most high God, and kept not his testimonies:

57 But ¹⁰ turned back, and dealt unfaithfully like their fathers: they were turned aside ¹¹ like a deceitful bow.

58 ¹² For they provoked him to anger with their ¹³ high places, and moved him to jealousy with their graven images.

59 When God heard this, he was wroth, and greatly abhorred Israel:

60 ¹⁴ So that he forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh, the tent ¹⁵ which he placed among men;

61 ¹⁶ And delivered his strength into captivity, and his glory into the enemy's hand.

62 ¹⁷ He gave his people over also unto the sword; and was wroth with his inheritance.

63 The fire consumed their young men; and ¹⁸ their maidens were not ¹⁹ given to marriage.

64 ²⁰ Their priests fell by the sword; and ²¹ their widows made no lamentation.

65 Then the Lord ²² awaked as one out of sleep, and ²³ like a mighty man that shouteth by reason of wine.

66 And ²⁴ he smote his enemies in the hinder parts: he put them to a perpetual reproach.

67 Moreover he refused the tabernacle of Joseph, and chose not the tribe of Ephraim:

68 But chose the tribe of Judah, the mount Zion ²⁵ which he loved.

69 And he ²⁶ built his sanctuary like high palaces, like the earth which he hath ²⁷ established for ever.

70 ²⁸ He chose David also his servant, and took him from the sheep-folds:

71 ²⁹ From following ³⁰ the ewes great with young he brought him ³¹ to feed Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.

72 So he fed them according to the ³² integrity of his heart; and guided them by the skilfulness of his hands.

PSALM LXXIX.

1 The psalmist complaineth of the desolation of Jerusalem. 8 He prayeth for deliverance, 13 and promitteth thankfulness.

A Psalm 2 of Asaph.

O GOD, the heathen are come into thy inheritance; ¹ thy holy temple have they defiled; ² they have laid Jerusalem on heaps.

2 ³ The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be meat unto the fowls of the heaven, the flesh of thy saints unto the beasts of the earth.

3 Their blood have they shed like water round about Jerusalem; ⁴ and there was none to bury them.

4 ⁵ We are become a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and derision to them that are round about us.

5 ⁶ How long, LORD? wilt thou be angry for ever? shall thy ⁷ jealousy burn like fire?

6 ⁸ Pour out thy wrath upon the heathen that have ⁹ not known thee, and upon the kingdoms that have ¹⁰ not called upon thy name.

7 For they have devoured Jacob, and laid waste his dwelling place.

8 ¹¹ O remember not against us ¹² former iniquities: let thy tender mercies speedily prevent us: for we are ¹³ brought very low.

9 ¹⁴ Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy name: and deliver us, and purge away our sins,
¹⁵ for thy name's sake.

10 ¹⁶ Wherefore should the heathen say, Where is their God? let him be known among the heathen in our sight ¹⁷ by the ¹⁸ revenging of the blood of thy servants ¹⁹ which is shed.

11 Let ²⁰ the sighing of the prisoner come before thee; according to the greatness of ²¹ thy power ²² preserve thou those that are appointed to die;

12 And render unto our neighbours ²³ sevenfold into their bosom ²⁴ their reproach, wherewith they have reproached thee, O Lord.

13 So ²⁵ we thy people and sheep of thy pasture will give thee thanks for ever: ²⁶ we will shew forth thy praise ²⁷ to all generations.

PSALM LXXX.

1 The psalmist in his prayer complaineth of the miseries of the church. 8 God's former favours are turned into judgments. 14 He prayeth for deliverance.

To the chief Musician ¹ upon Shoshannim-Eduth, A Psalm ² of Asaph.

GIVE ear, O Shepherd of Israel, thou that loatest Joseph ¹ like a flock; ² thou that dwellest between the cherubims, ³ shine forth.

2 ⁴ Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manassah stir up thy strength, and ⁵ come and save us.

3 ⁶ Turn us again, O God, and cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.

PSALM LXXXI.

1 An exhortation to a solemn praising of God.
4 God challengeth that duty by reason of his benefits. 8 God, exhorting to obedience, complaineth of their disobedience, which proveth their own hurt.

To the chief Musician * upon Gittith, A Psalm ⁴ of Asaph.

SING aloud unto God our strength: make a joyful noise unto the God of Jacob.

2 Take a psalm, and bring hither the timbrel, the pleasant harp with the psalter.

3 Blow up the trumpet in the new moon, in the time appointed, on our solemn feast day.

4 For ²this was a statute for Israel, and a law of the God of Jacob.

5 This he ordained in Joseph for a testimony, when he went out ²through the land of Egypt: ²where I heard a language that I understood not.
6 ²I removed his shoulder from the burden: his hands ²were delivered from ²the pots.

7 ²Thou calledst in trouble, and I delivered thee; ²I answered thee in the secret place of thunder: I ²proved thee at the waters of ²Meribah. Selah.

8 ²Hear, O my people, and I will testify unto thee: O Israel, if thou wilt hearken unto me;

9 ²There shall no ²strange god be in thee; neither shalt thou worship any strange god.

10 ²I am the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt: ²open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it.

11 But my people would not hearken to my voice; and Israel would ²none of me.

12 ²So I gave them up ²unto their own hearts' lust: and they walked in their own counsels.

13 ²Oh that my people had hearkened unto me, and Israel had walked in my ways!

14 I should soon have subdued their enemies, and turned my hand against their adversaries.

15 ²The haters of the LORD should have ²submitted themselves unto him: but their time should have endured for ever.

16 He should ²have fed them also with the finest of the wheat: and with honey ²out of the rock should I have satisfied thee.

PSALM LXXXII.

1 The psalmist, having exhorted the judges, 5 and reproved their negligence, 8 prayeth God to judge.

A Psalm ⁸ of Asaph.

GOD ²standeth in the congregation of the mighty; he judgeth among ²the gods.

2 How long will ye judge unjustly, and ²accept the persons of the wicked? Selah.

3 ²Defend the poor and fatherless: ²do justice to the afflicted and needy.

4 Deliver the poor and needy: rid them out of the hand of the wicked.

5 They ²know not, neither will they understand: they walk on in darkness: ²all the foundations of the earth are ²out of course.

6 ²I have said, Ye are gods; and all of you are children of the most High.

7 But ²ye shall die like men, and fall like one of the princes.

8 ²Arise, O God, judge the earth: ²for thou shalt inherit all nations.

4 They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.

5 For they have consulted together with one ⁶consent: they are confederate against thee:

6 The tabernacles of Edom, and the Ishmaelites; of Moab, and the Hagarenes;

7 Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek; the Philistines with the inhabitants of Tyre;

8 Assur also is joined with them: ⁹they have helped the children of Lot. Selah.

9 Do unto them as unto the ¹⁰Midianites; as to ¹¹Sisera, as to Jabin, at the brook of Kison:

10 Which perished at Endor: they became as dung for the earth.

11 Make their nobles like ¹²Oreb, and like Zeeb: yea, all their princes as ¹³Zebah, and as Zalmunna:

12 Who said, Let us take to ourselves the houses of God in possession.

13 O my God, make them like a wheel; ¹⁴as the stubble before the wind.

14 As the fire burneth a wood, and as the flame ¹⁵setteth the mountains on fire;

15 So persecute them ¹⁶with thy tempest, and make them afraid with thy storm.

16 I'll fill their faces with shame; that they may seek thy name, O Lord.

17 Let them be confounded and troubled for ever; yea, let them be put to shame, and perish:

18 That ¹⁹men may know that thou, whose name alone is JEHOVAH, art ²⁰the most high over all the earth.

PSALM LXXXIV.

1 The prophet, longing for the communion of the sanctuary. 4 sheweth how blessed they are that dwell therein. 8 He prayeth to be restored unto it.

To the chief Musician ¹upon Gittith, A Psalm ²for the sons of Korah.

HOW amiable are thy tabernacles, O LORD of hosts!

2 My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the LORD: my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God.

3 Yea, the sparrow hath found an house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, even thine altars, O LORD of hosts, my King, and my God.

4 Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee. Selah.

5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee; in whose heart are the ways of ⁶them.

6 Who passing through the valley ⁷of Baca make it a well; the rain also ⁸filleth the pools.

7 They go ⁹from strength to strength, every one of them in Zion ¹⁰appeareth before God.

8 O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer: give ear, O God of Jacob. Selah.

9 Behold, ¹⁰O God our shield, and look upon the face of thine anointed.

10 For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand, ¹¹I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

11 For the LORD God is ¹²a sun and ¹³a shield: the LORD will give grace and glory: ¹⁴no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

12 O LORD of hosts, ¹³blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

PSALM LXXXV.

1 The psalmist, out of the experience of former mercies, prayeth for the continuance thereof. 8 He promitteth to wait thereon, out of confidence of God's goodness.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm ⁶for the sons of Korah.

LORD, thou hast been ⁷7 favourable unto thy land: thou hast ⁸brought back the captivity of Jacob.

2 Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy people, thou hast covered all their sin. Selah.

3 Thou hast taken away all thy wrath: ⁴thou hast turned ⁵thyself from the fierceness of thine anger.

4 Turn us, O God of our salvation, and cause thine anger toward us to cease.

5 Wilt thou be angry with us for ever? wilt thou draw out thine anger to all generations?

6 Wilt thou not ⁷revive us again: that thy people may rejoice in thee? 7 shew us thy mercy, O LORD, and grant us thy salvation.

8 I will hear what God the LORD will speak: for ⁹he will speak peace unto his people, and to his saints: but let them not ¹⁰turn again to folly.

9 Surely ¹⁰his salvation is high them that fear him; ¹¹that glory may dwell in our land.

10 Mercy and truth are met together; ¹¹righteousness and peace have kissed ¹²each other.

11 Truth shall spring out of the earth; and righteousness shall look down from heaven.

PSALM LXXXVI.

1 David strengtheneth his prayer by the conscience of his religion, 5 by the goodness and power of God. 11 He desireth the continuance of former grace. 14 Complaining of the proud, he craveth some token of God's goodness.

2 A Prayer of David.

BOW down thine ear, O Lord, hear me: for I am poor and needy.

2 Preserve my soul; for I am ³holy: O thou my God, save thy servant ⁴that trusteth in thee.

3 ⁵Be merciful unto me, O Lord: for I cry unto thee ⁶daily.

4 Rejoice the soul of thy servant: ⁵for unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.

5 ⁶For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive; and plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee.

6 Give ear, O Lord, unto my prayer; and attend to the voice of my supplications.

7 ⁸In the day of my trouble I will call upon thee: for thou wilt answer me.

8 Among the gods there is none like unto thee, O Lord; ⁹neither are there any works like unto thy works.

9 ¹⁰All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O Lord; and shall glorify thy name.

10 ¹¹For thou art great, and ¹²doest wondrous things: ¹³thou art God alone.

11 ¹⁴Teach me thy way, O Lord; I will walk in thy truth: unite my heart to fear thy name.

12 I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart: and I will glorify thy name for evermore.

13 ¹⁴For great is thy mercy toward me: and thou hast ¹⁵delivered my soul from the lowest ¹⁶hell.

14 O God, ¹⁷the proud are risen against me, and the assemblies of ¹⁸violent men have sought after my soul; and have not set thee before them.

15 ¹⁹But thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, longsuffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth.

16 O ²⁰turn unto me, and have mercy upon me; give thy strength unto thy servant, and save ²¹the son of thine handmaid.

17 Show me a token for good; that they which hate me may see it, and be ashamed: because thou, O Lord, hast holpen me, and comforted me.

PSALM LXXXVII.

1 The nature and glory of the church. 4 The increase, honour, and comfort of the members thereof.

A Psalm or Song ²for the sons of Korah.

HIS foundation is ³in the holy mountains.

2 ⁴The Lord loveth the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.

3 ⁵Glorious things are spoken of thee, O city of God. Selah.

4 I will make mention of ⁶Rahab and Babylon to them that know me: behold Philistia, and Tyre, with Ethiopia: this man was born there.

5 And of Zion it shall be said, This and that man was born in her: and the highest himself shall establish her.

6 ⁷The Lord shall count, when he writeth up the people, that this man was born there. Selah.

7 As well the singers as the players on instruments shall be there: all my springs are in thee.

PSALM LXXXVIII.

A prayer containing a grievous complaint.

A Song or Psalm ²for the sons of Korah, to the chief Musician upon Mahalath Leannoth, ³Maschil of ⁴Heiman the Ezrahite.

O LORD ⁵God of my salvation, I have ⁶cried day and night before thee:

2 Let my prayer come before thee: incline thine ear unto my cry;

3 For my soul is full of troubles: and my life ⁴draweth nigh unto the grave.

4 ⁵I am counted with them that go down into the pit: ⁶I am as a man that hath no strength:

5 Free among the dead, like the slain that lie in the grave, whom thou rememberest no more: and they are ⁷cut off ⁸from thy hand.

6 Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit, in darkness, in the deeps.

7 Thy wrath lieth hard upon me, and ⁸thou hast afflicted me with all thy ways. Selah.

8 ⁹Thou hast put away mine acquaintance far from me; thou hast made me an abomination unto them: ¹⁰I am shut up, and I cannot come forth.

9 ¹¹Mine eye mourneth by reason of affliction: LORD, ¹²I have called daily upon thee, ¹³I have stretched out my hands unto thee.

10 ¹⁴Wilt thou shew wonders to the dead? shall the dead arise and praise thee? Selah.

11 Shall thy lovingkindness be declared in the grave? or thy faithfulness in destruction?

12 ¹³Shall thy wonders be known in the dark? ¹⁴and thy righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?

13 But unto thee have I cried, O Lord; and ¹⁵in the morning shall my prayer prevent thee.

14 LORD, ¹⁶why castest thou off my soul? ¹⁷why ¹⁸hidest thou thy face from me?

15 I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up: ¹⁹while ²⁰I suffer thy terrors I am distracted.

16 Thy fierce wrath hath cut me off; thy terrors have cut me off.

PSALM LXXXIX.

1 The psalmist praiseth God for his covenant, 5 for his wonderful power, 15 for the care of his church, 19 for his favour to the kingdom of David, 38 Then complaining of contrary events, 46 he expostulateth, prayeth, and blesseth God.

2 Maschil of Ethan the Ezrahite.

1 I WILL sing of the mercies of the LORD for ever: with my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness to all generations.

2 For I have said, Mercy shall be built up for ever: thy faithfulness shalt thou establish in the very heavens.

3 I have made a covenant with my chosen, I have sworn unto David my servant,

4 Thy seed will I establish for ever, and build up thy throne to all generations. Selah.

5 And the heavens shall praise thy wonders, O LORD: thy faithfulness also in the congregation of the saints.

6 For 'who in the heaven can be compared unto the LORD? who among the sons of the mighty can be likened unto the LORD?

7 God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints, and to be had in reverence of all them that are about him.

8 O LORD God of hosts, who is a strong LORD like unto thee? or to thy faithfulness round about thee?

9 Thou rulest the raging of the sea: when the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them.

10 Thou hast broken Rahab in pieces, as one that is slain; thou hast scattered thine enemies with thy strong arm.

11 The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine: as for the world and the fulness thereof, thou hast founded them.

12 The north and the south thou hast created them: 'Tabor and Hermon shall rejoice in thy name.

13 Thou hast a mighty arm: strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.

14 Justice and judgment are the habitation of thy throne: mercy and truth shall go before thy face.

15 Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound: they shall walk, O LORD, in the light of thy countenance.

16 In thy name shall they rejoice all the day: and in thy righteousness shall they be exalted.

17 For thou art the glory of their strength: and in thy favour our horn shall be exalted.

18 For the LORD is our defence; and the Holy One of Israel is our king.

19 Then thou spakest in vision to thy holy one, and saidst, I have laid help upon one that is mighty: I have exalted one chosen out of the people.

20 I have found David my servant; with my holy oil have I anointed him:

21 With whom my hand shall be established: mine arm also shall strengthen him.

22 The enemy shall not exact upon him; nor the son of wickedness afflict him.

23 And I will beat down his foes before his face, and plague them that hate him.

24 But my faithfulness and my mercy shall be with him: and in my name shall his horn be exalted.

25 I will set his hand also in the sea, and his right hand in the rivers.

26 He shall cry unto me, Thou art my father, my God, and the rock of my salvation.

27 Also I will make him my first-born, higher than the kings of the earth.

28 My mercy will I keep for him for evermore, and my covenant shall stand fast with him.

29 His seed also will I make to endure for ever, and his throne as the days of heaven.

30 If his children forsake my law, and walk not in my judgments;

31 If they break my statutes, and keep not my commandments;

32 Then will I visit their transgression with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes.

33 Nevertheless my lovingkindness will I not utterly take from him, nor suffer my faithfulness to fail.

34 My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.

35 Once have I sworn by my holiness that I will not lie unto David.

36 His seed shall endure for ever, and his throne as the sun before me.

37 It shall be established for ever as the moon, and as a faithful witness in heaven. Selah.

38 But thou hast cast off and abhorred, thou hast been wroth with thine anointed.

39 Thou hast made void the covenant of thy servant: thou hast profaned his crown by casting it to the ground.

40 Thou hast broken down all his hedges; thou hast brought his strong holds to ruin.

41 All that pass by the way spoil him: he is a reproach to his neighbours.

42 Thou hast set up the right hand of his adversaries; thou hast made all his enemies to rejoice.

43 Thou hast also turned the edge of his sword, and hast not made him to stand in the battle.

48 What man is he that liveth, and shall not see death? shall he deliver his soul from the hand of the grave? Selah.

51 Wherewith thine enemies have reproached, O LORD; wherewith they have reproached the footsteps of thine anointed.

52 Blessed be the LORD for evermore. Amen, and Amen.

PSALM XC.

1 Moses, setting forth God's providence, 3 compasseth of human frailty, 7 divine chastenments, 10 and brevity of life, 12 He prayeth for the knowledge and sensible experience of God's good providence.

3 A Prayer of Moses the man of God.

LORD, ¹thou hast been our dwelling place ²in all generations.

2 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.

3 Thou turnest man to destruction; and sayest, ⁴Return, ye children of men.

4 For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday ⁵when it is past, and as a watch in the night.

5 Thou carriest them away as with a flood; ⁶they are as a sleep: in the morning ⁷they are like grass which ⁸groweth up.

6 In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth.

7 For we are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath are we troubled.

8 Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our ⁹secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

9 For all our days are ⁷passed away in thy wrath: we spend our years ⁸as a tale that is told.

10 The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet ¹is their strength labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

11 Who knoweth the power of thine anger? even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath.

12 So teach us to number our days, that we may ²apply our hearts unto wisdom.

13 Return, O LORD, how long? and let it ³repent thee concerning thy servants.

14 O satisfy us early with thy mercy; ⁴that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

15 Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil.

16 Let ⁵thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto their children.

17 And let the beauty of the LORD our God be upon us: and ⁶establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

PSALM XCI.

1 The state of the godly, 3 Their safety, 9 Their habitation, 11 Their servants, 14 Their friend; with the effects of them all.

HE that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall ³alide under the shadow of the Almighty.

2 I will say of the LORD, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.

3 Surely ⁴he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.

4 He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

5 Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

6 Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

7 A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.

8 Only ⁹with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.

9 Because thou hast made the LORD, which is ¹my refuge, even the most High, ²thy habitation;

10 There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

11 For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

12 They shall bear thee up in their hands, ³lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

13 Thou shalt tread upon the lion and ⁴adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.

14 Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath ⁵known my name.

15 He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: ⁶I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and ⁷honour him.

16 With ⁸long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.

PSALM XCV.

1 An exhortation to praise God, 3 for his greatness, 6 and for his goodness, 8 and not to tempt him.

O COME, let us sing unto the LORD: ³let us make a joyful noise to ⁶the rock of our salvation.

2 Let us ³come before his presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.

3 For ³the LORD is a great God, and a great King above all gods.

4 ³In his hand are the deep places of the earth: ⁴the strength of the hills is his also.

5 ⁶The sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land.

6 O come, let us worship and bow down: let ⁴us kneel before the LORD our maker.

7 For he is our God; and ⁷we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand. ⁷To day if ye will hear his voice,

8 Harden not your heart, ³as in the ³provocation, and ³as in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

9 When ⁴your fathers tempted me, proved me, and ⁴saw my work.

10 ⁴Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people that do err in their heart, and they have not known my ways:

11 Unto whom ⁴I swear in my wrath ⁷that they shall not enter into my rest.

PSALM XCVI.

1 An exhortation to praise God, 4 for his greatness, 7 for his kingdom, 11 for his general judgment.

O SING unto the LORD a new song: sing unto the LORD, all the earth.

2 Sing unto the LORD, bless his name; shew forth his salvation from day to day.

3 Declare his glory among the heathen, his wonders among all people.

4 For ³the LORD is great, and ⁶greatly to be praised: ⁶he is to be feared above all gods.

5 For ⁴all the gods of the nations are idols: ³but the LORD made the heavens.

6 Honour and majesty are before him: strength and ⁶beauty are in his sanctuary.

7 ⁴Give unto the LORD, O ye kindreds of the people, give unto the LORD glory and strength.

8 Give unto the LORD the glory ⁶due unto his name: bring an offering, and come into his courts.

9 O worship the LORD ⁴in the beauty of holiness: fear before him, all the earth.

10 Say among the heathen that ⁴the LORD reigneth: the world also shall be established that it shall not be moved: ⁴he shall judge the people righteously.

11 ⁴Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad: ⁴let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof.

12 Let the field be joyful, ⁴and all that is therein: then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice

13 Before the LORD: for he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: ⁴he shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth.

PSALM XCVII.

1 The majesty of God's kingdom. 7 The church rejoiceth at God's judgments upon idolaters. 10 An exhortation to godliness and gladness.

THE LORD reigneth; let the earth rejoice; let the ²multitude of ³isles be glad thereof.

2 ²Clouds and darkness are round about him: ²righteousness and judgment are the ²habitation of his throne.

3 ⁴A fire goeth before him, and burneth up his enemies round about.

4 ⁴His lightnings enlightened the world: the earth saw, and trembled.

5 ⁷The hills melted like wax at the presence of the LORD, at the presence of the LORD of the whole earth.

6 ⁶The heavens declare his righteousness, and all the people see his glory.

7 ⁷Confounded be all they that serve graven images, that boast themselves of idols: ⁷worship him, all ye gods.

8 Zion heard, and was glad; and the daughters of Judah rejoiced because of thy judgments, O LORD.

9 For thou, LORD, art ⁴high above all the earth: ⁴thou art exalted far above all gods.

10 Ye that love the LORD, ⁴hate evil: ⁴he preserveth the souls of his saints; ⁴he delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked.

11 ⁴Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart.

12 ⁴Rejoice in the LORD, ye righteous; ⁴and give thanks ⁴at the remembrance of his holiness.

PSALM XCVIII.

1 The psalmist exhorteth the Jews, 4 the Gentiles, 7 and all the creatures to praise God.

A Psalm.

O SING unto the LORD a new song; for ³he hath done marvelous things: ³his right hand, and his holy arm, hath gotten him the victory.

2 ²The LORD hath made known his salvation: ²his righteousness hath he ⁶openly shewed in the sight of the heathen.

3 He hath ⁷remembered his mercy and his truth toward the house of Israel: ⁴all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

4 ⁴Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all the earth: make a loud noise, and rejoice, and sing praise.

5 Sing unto the LORD with the harp; with the harp, and the voice of a psalm.

6 With trumpets and sound of cornet make a joyful noise before the LORD, the King.

7 Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.

8 Let the floods clap their hands: let the hills be joyful together.

9 Before the LORD; for he cometh to judge the earth: with righteousness shall he judge the world, and the people with equity.

PSALM XCIX.

1 The prophet, setting forth the kingdom of God in Zion, exhorteth all, by the example of forefathers, to worship God at his holy hill.

THE LORD reigneth: let the people tremble: he sitteth between the cherubims; let the earth be moved.

2 The LORD is great in Zion; and he is high above all the people.

3 Let them praise thy great and terrible name; for it is holy.

4 The king's strength also loveth judgment; thou dost establish equity, thou executest judgment and righteousness in Jacob.

5 Exalt ye the LORD our God, and worship at his footstool; for he is holy.

6 Moses and Aaron among his priests, and Samuel among them that call upon his name; they called upon the LORD, and he answered them.

7 He spake unto them in the cloudy pillar: they kept his testimonies, and the ordinance that he gave them.

8 Thou answeredst them, O LORD our God: thou wast a God that forgavest them, though thou tookest vengeance of their inventions.

9 Exalt the LORD our God, and worship at his holy hill; for the LORD our God is holy.

PSALM C.

1 An exhortation to praise God cheerfully, 3 for his greatness, 4 and for his power.

* A Psalm of praise.

MAKE a joyful noise unto the LORD, all ye lands.

2 Serve the LORD with gladness: come before his presence with singing.

3 Know ye that the LORD he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

4 Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name.

5 For the LORD is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations.

PSALM CI.

David maketh a vow and profession of godliness.

A Psalm of David.

I WILL sing of mercy and judgment: unto thee, O LORD, will I sing.

2 I will behave myself wisely in a perfect way. O when wilt thou come unto me? I will walk within my house with a perfect heart.

3 I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes: I hate the work of them that turn aside; it shall not cleave to me.

4 A froward heart shall depart from me: I will not know a wicked person.

5 Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off: him that hath an high look and a proud heart will not I suffer.

6 Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me: he that walketh in a perfect way, he shall serve me.

7 He that worketh deceit shall not dwell within my house: he that telleth lies shall not tarry in my sight.

8 I will early destroy all the wicked of the land; that I may cut off all wicked doers from the city of the LORD.

PSALM CII.

1 The prophet in his prayer maketh a grievous complaint, 12 he taketh comfort in the eternity and mercy of God, 18 The services of God are to be received, 23 He sustineth his weakness by the weakness of the enemies of God.

A Prayer of the afflicted, when he is overwhelmed, and poureth out his complaint before the LORD.

HEAR my prayer, O LORD, and let my cry come unto thee.

2 Hide not thy face from me in the day when I am in trouble; incline thine ear unto me: in the day when I call answer me speedily.

3 For my days are consumed like smoke, and my bones are burned as an hearth.

4 My heart is smitten, and withered like grass; so that I forget to eat my bread.

5 By reason of the voice of my groaning my bones cleave to my skin.

6 I am like a pelican of the wilderness: I am like an owl of the desert.

7 I watch, and am as a sparrow alone upon the house top.

8 Mine enemies reproach me all the day; and they that are sworn against me against me are sworn against me.

9 For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mingled my drink with weeping.

10 Because of thine indignation and thy wrath: for thou hast lifted me up, and cast me down.

11 My days are like a shadow that declineth; and I am withered like grass.

12 But thou, O LORD, shalt endure for ever; and thy remembrance unto all generations.

13 Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Zion: for the time to favour her, yea, the set time, is come.

of mercy.

14 For thy servants take pleasure in ⁹her stones, and savour the dust thereof.

15 So the heathen shall ¹⁰fear the name of the LORD, and all the kings of the earth thy glory.

16 When the LORD shall build up Zion, ¹¹he shall appear in his glory.

17 ¹²He will regard the prayer of the destitute, and not despise their prayer.

18 This shall be ¹³written for the generation to come: and ¹⁴the people which shall be created shall praise the LORD.

19 For he hath ¹⁵looked down from the height of his sanctuary; from heaven did the LORD behold the earth:

20 ¹⁶To hear the groaning of the prisoner; to loose ¹⁷those that are appointed to death;

21 ¹⁸To declare the name of the LORD in Zion, and his praise in Jerusalem;

22 When the people are gathered together, and the kingdoms, to serve the LORD.

23 He ¹⁹weakened my strength in the way; he ²⁰shortened my days.

24 ²¹I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days: ²²thy years are throughout all generations.

25 ²³Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

26 ²⁴They shall perish, but ²⁵thou shalt endure: yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed:

27 But ²⁶thou art the same, and thy years shall have no end.

28 ²⁷The children of thy servants shall continue, and their seed shall be established before thee.

PSALM CIII.

1 An exhortation to bless God for his mercy.
15 and for the constancy thereof.

A Psalm of David.

BLESS ¹the LORD, O my soul: and all that is within me, ²bless his holy name.

2 Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits:

3 ³Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who ⁴healeth all thy diseases;

4 Who ⁵redeemeth thy life from destruction; who ⁶crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies;

5 Who ⁷satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that ⁸thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.

6 ⁹The LORD executeth righteousness and judgment for all that are oppressed.

7 ¹⁰He made known his ways unto Moses, his acts unto the children of Israel.

8 ¹¹The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and ¹²plenteous in mercy.

9 ¹³He will not always chide: neither will he keep his anger for ever.

10 ¹⁴He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.

11 ¹⁵For ¹⁶as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.

12 As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he ¹⁷removed our transgressions from us.

13 ¹⁸Like as a father pitieth his children, so the LORD pitieth them that fear him.

14 For he knoweth our frame; ¹⁹he remembereth that we are ²⁰dust.

15 As for man, ²¹his days are as grass: ²²as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.

16 For the wind passeth over it, and ²³it is gone; and ²⁴the place thereof shall know it no more.

17 But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children;

18 ²⁵To such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his commandments to do them.

19 The LORD hath prepared his ²⁶throne in the heavens; and ²⁷his kingdom ruleth over all.

20 ²⁸Bless the LORD, ye his angels, ²⁹that excel in strength, that ³⁰do his commandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word.

21 Bless ye the LORD, all ye ³¹his hosts; ³²ye ministers of his, that do his pleasure.

22 ³³Bless the LORD, all his works in all places of his dominion: ³⁴bless the LORD, O my soul.

PSALM CIV.

1 A meditation upon the mighty power, 7 and wonderful providence of God. 31 God's glory is eternal. 33 The prophet voweth perpetually to praise God.

BLESS ¹the LORD, O my soul. O LORD my God, thou art very great; ²thou art clothed with honour and majesty.

2 ³Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment: ⁴who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain:

3 ⁵Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters: ⁶who maketh the clouds his chariot: ⁷who walketh upon the wings of the wind:

4 ⁸Who maketh his angels spirits; ⁹his ministers a flaming fire:

5 ¹⁰Who laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be removed for ever.

6 ¹¹Thou coverdest it with the deep as with a garment: the waters stood above the mountains.

7 ¹²At thy rebuke they fled; at the voice of thy thunder they hasted away.

8 ¹³They go up by the mountains; they go down by the valleys unto ¹⁴the place which thou hast founded for them.

9 ¹Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over; ²that they turn not again to cover the earth.

10 ³He sendeth the springs into the valleys, which ⁴run among the hills.

11 They give drink to every beast of the field: the wild asses ⁵quench their thirst.

12 By them shall the fowls of the heaven have their habitation, which ⁶sing among the branches.

13 ⁷He watereth the hills from his chambers: ⁸the earth is satisfied with ⁹the fruit of thy works.

14 ¹⁰He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man: that he may bring forth ¹¹food out of the earth;

15 And ¹²wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and ¹³oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth man's heart.

16 The trees of the LORD are full of sap: the cedars of Lebanon, ¹⁴which he hath planted;

17 Where the birds make their nests: as for the stork, the fir trees are her house.

18 The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats; and the rocks for ¹⁵the conies.

19 ¹⁶He appointed the moon for seasons: the sun ¹⁷knoweth his going down.

20 ¹⁸Thou makest darkness, and it is night: wherein ¹⁹all the beasts of the forest do creep forth.

21 ²⁰The young lions roar after their prey, and seek their meat from God.

22 The sun ariseth, they gather themselves together, and lay them down in their dens.

23 Man goeth forth unto ²¹his work and to his labour until the evening.

24 ²²O LORD, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches.

25 So is this great and wide sea, wherein are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts.

26 There go the ships: there is that ²³leviathan, whom thou hast ²⁴made to play therein.

27 ²⁵These wait all upon thee; that thou mayest give them their meat in due season.

28 That thou givest them they gather: thou openest thine hand, they are filled with good.

29 Thou hidest thy face, they are troubled: ²⁶thou takest away their breath, they die, and return to their dust.

30 ²⁷Thou sendest forth thy spirit, they are created: and thou renewest the face of the earth.

31 The glory of the LORD ²⁸shall endure for ever: the LORD ²⁹shall rejoice in his works.

32 He looketh on the earth, and it ³⁰trembleth: ³¹he toucheth the hills, and they smoke.

33 ³²I will sing unto the LORD as long as I live: I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.

34 My meditation of him shall be sweet: I will be glad in the LORD.

35 Let ³³the sinners be consumed out of the earth, and let the wicked be no more. ³⁴Bless thou the LORD, O my soul. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CV.

1 An exhortation to praise God, and to seek out his works. 7 The story of God's providence over Abraham, 16 over Joseph, 23 over Jacob in Egypt, 28 over Moses delivering the Israelites, 37 over the Israelites brought out of Egypt, fed in the wilderness, and planted in Canaan.

O ¹GIVE thanks unto the LORD; call upon his name: ²make known his deeds among the people.

2 Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him: ³talk ye of all his wondrous works.

3 Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD.

4 Seek the LORD, and his strength: ⁴seek his face evermore.

5 ⁵Remember his marvellous works that he hath done: his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth;

6 O ye seed of Abraham his servant, ye children of Jacob his chosen.

7 He is the LORD our God: ⁶his judgments are in all the earth.

8 He hath ⁷remembered his covenant for ever, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations.

9 ⁸Which covenant he made with Abraham, and his oath unto Isaac;

10 And confirmed the same unto Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant:

11 Saying, ⁹Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, ¹⁰the lot of your inheritance:

12 ¹¹When they were but a few men in number; yea, very few, ¹²and strangers in it.

13 When they went from one nation to another, from one kingdom to another people:

14 ¹³He suffered no man to do them wrong: yea, ¹⁴he reproveth kings for their sakes;

15 Saying, Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm.

16 Moreover ¹⁵he called for a famine upon the land: he brake the whole ¹⁶staff of bread.

17 ¹⁷He sent a man before them, even Joseph, who ¹⁸was sold for a servant:

18 ¹⁹Whose feet they hurt with fetters: ²⁰he was laid in iron:

19 Until the time that his word came: ²¹the word of the LORD tried him.

20 ²²The king sent and loosed him; even the ruler of the people, and let him go free.

21 ^a He made him lord of his house, and ruler of all his substance:

22 To bind his princes at his pleasure; and teach his senators wisdom.

23 ^a Israel also came into Egypt; and Jacob sojourned ^a in the land of Ham.

24 And ^a he increased his people greatly; and made them stronger than their enemies.

25 ^a He turned their heart to hate his people, to deal subtilly with his servants.

26 ^a He sent Moses his servant; and Aaron ^a whom he had chosen.

27 ^a They shewed ^a his signs among them, and wonders in the land of Ham.

28 ^a He sent darkness, and made it dark; and ^a they rebelled not against his word.

29 ^a He turned their waters into blood, and slew their fish.

30 ^a Their land brought forth frogs in abundance, in the chambers of their kings.

31 ^a He spake, and there came divers sorts of flies, and lice in all their coasts.

32 ^a ^a He gave them hail for rain, and flaming fire in their land.

33 ^a He smote their vines also and their fig trees; and brake the trees of their coasts.

34 ^a He spake, and the locusts came, and caterpillars, and that without number.

35 And did eat up all the herbs in their land, and devoured the fruit of their ground.

36 ^a He smote also all the firstborn in their land, ^a the chief of all their strength.

37 ^a He brought them forth also with silver and gold: and there was not one feeble person among their tribes.

38 ^a Egypt was glad when they departed: for the fear of them fell upon them.

39 ^a He spread a cloud for a covering; and fire to give light in the night.

40 ^a The people asked, and he brought quails, and ^a satisfied them with the bread of heaven.

41 ^a He opened the rock, and the waters gushed out; they ran in the dry places like a river.

42 For he remembered ^a his holy promise, and Abraham his servant.

43 And he brought forth his people with joy, and his chosen with gladness:

44 ^a And gave them the lands of the heathen: and they inherited the labour of the people;

45 ^a That they might observe his statutes, and keep his laws. ^a Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CVI.

1 The psalmist exhorteth to praise God. 4 He prayeth for pardon of sin, as God did with the fathers. 7 The story of the people's rebellion, and God's mercy. 47 He concludeth with prayer and praise.

2 PRAISE ye the LORD. ^a O ^a give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

2 ^a Who can utter the mighty acts of the LORD? who can shew forth all his praise?

3 Blessed are they that keep judgment, and he that ^a doeth righteousness at ^a all times.

4 Remember me, O LORD, with the favour that thou bearest unto thy people: O visit me with thy salvation;

5 That I may see the good of thy chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of thy nation, that I may glory with thine inheritance.

6 ^a We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.

7 Our fathers understood not thy wonders in Egypt: they remembered not the multitude of thy mercies; ^a but provoked him at the sea, even at the Red sea.

8 Nevertheless he saved them ^a for his name's sake, ^a that he might make his mighty power to be known.

9 ^a He rebuked the Red sea also, and it was dried up: so ^a he led them through the depths, as through the wilderness.

10 And he ^a saved them from the hand of him that hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.

11 ^a And the waters covered their enemies: there was not one of them left.

12 ^a Then believed they his words; they sang his praise.

13 ^a They soon forgot his works; they waited not for his counsel:

14 ^a But ^a lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, and tempted God in the desert.

15 ^a And he gave them their request; but ^a sent leanness into their soul.

16 ^a They envied Moses also in the camp, and Aaron the saint of the LORD.

17 ^a The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram.

18 ^a And a fire was kindled in their company; the flame burned up the wicked.

19 ^a They made a calf in Horeb, and worshipped the molten image.

20 Thus ^a they changed their glory into the similitude of an ox that eateth grass.

21 They ^a forgot God their saviour, which had done great things in Egypt;

22 Wondrous works in ^a the land of Ham, and terrible things by the Red Sea.

23 Therefore he said that he would destroy them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them.

24 Yea, they despised the pleasant land, they believed not his word:

25 But murmured in their tents, and hearkened not unto the voice of the LORD.

26 Therefore he lifted up his hand against them, to overthrow them in the wilderness:

27 To overthrow their seed also among the nations, and to scatter them in the lands.

28 They joined themselves also unto Baal-peor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead.

29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their inventions: and the plague brake in upon them.

30 Then stood up Phinehas, and executed judgment: and so the plague was stayed.

31 And that was counted unto him for righteousness unto all generations for evermore.

32 They angered him also at the waters of strife, so that it went ill with Moses for their sakes:

33 Because they provoked his spirit, so that he spake unadvisedly with his lips.

34 They did not destroy the nations, concerning whom the LORD commanded them:

35 But were mingled among the heathen, and learned their works.

36 And they served their idols: which were a snare unto them.

37 Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto devils, 38 And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan: and the land was polluted with blood.

39 Thus were they defiled with their own works, and went a whoring with their own inventions.

40 Therefore was the wrath of the LORD kindled against his people, inasmuch that he abhorred his own inheritance.

41 And he gave them into the hand of the heathen: and they that hated them ruled over them.

42 Their enemies also oppressed them, and they were brought into subjection under their hand.

43 Many times did he deliver them; but they provoked him with their counsel, and were brought low for their iniquity.

44 Nevertheless he regarded their affliction, when he heard their cry:

45 And he remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies.

46 He made them also to be pitied of all those that carried them captives.

47 Save us, O LORD our God, and gather us from among the heathen, to give thanks unto thy holy name, and to triumph in thy praise.

48 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel from everlasting to everlasting: and let all the people say, Amen.

Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CVII.

1 The psalmist exhorteth the redeemed, in praising God, to observe his manifold providence. 4 over travellers, 10 over captives, 17 over sick men, 23 over seamen, 33 and in divers varieties of life.

GIVE thanks unto the LORD, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

2 Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy;

3 And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and from the south.

4 They wandered in the wilderness in a solitary way; they found no city to dwell in.

5 Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them.

6 Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses.

7 And he led them forth by the right way, that they might go to a city of habitation.

8 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

9 For he satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.

10 Such as sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, being bound in affliction and iron;

11 Because they rebelled against the words of God, and contemned the counsel of the most High:

12 Therefore he brought down their heart with labour; they fell down, and there was none to help.

13 Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses.

14 He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and brake their bands in sunder.

15 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

16 For he hath broken the gates of brass, and cut the bars of iron in sunder.

17 Fools "because of their transgression, and because of their iniquities, are afflicted.

18 "Their soul abhorreth all manner of meat; and they "draw near unto the gates of death.

19 "Then they cry unto the Lord in their trouble, and he saveth them out of their distresses.

20 "He sent his word, and "healed them, and "delivered them from their destructions.

21 "Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

22 And "let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and "declare his works with "rejoicing.

23 They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters;

24 These see the works of the Lord, and his wonders in the deep.

25 For he commandeth, and "raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof.

26 They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths: "their soul is melted because of trouble.

27 They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and "are at their wit's end.

28 "Then they cry unto the Lord in their trouble, and he bringeth them out of their distresses.

29 "He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still.

30 Then are they glad because they be quiet; so he bringeth them unto their desired haven.

31 "Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

32 Let them exalt him also "in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders.

33 He "turneth rivers into a wilderness, and the watersprings into dry ground;

34 A "fruitful land into "barrenness, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein.

35 "He turneth the wilderness into a standing water, and dry ground into watersprings.

36 And there he maketh the hungry to dwell, that they may prepare a city for habitation;

37 And sow the fields, and plant vineyards, which may yield fruits of increase.

38 "He blesseth them also, so that they "are multiplied greatly; and suffereth not their cattle to decrease.

39 Again, they are "minished and brought low through oppression, affliction, and sorrow.

40 "He poureth contempt upon princes, and causeth them to wander in the "wilderness, where there is no way.

41 "Yet setteth he the poor on high "from affliction, and "maketh him families like a flock.

42 "The righteous shall see it, and rejoice: and all "iniquity shall stop her mouth.

43 "Whoso is wise, and will observe these things, even they shall understand the lovingkindness of the Lord.

PSALM CVIII.

1 David encourageth himself to praise God. 5 He prayeth for God's assistance according to his promise. 11 His confidence in God's help.

A Song or Psalm of David.

O "GOD, my heart is fixed; I will sing and give praise, even with my glory.

2 "Awake, psaltery and harp: I myself will awake early.

3 I will praise thee, O Lord, among the people: and I will sing praises unto thee among the nations.

4 For thy mercy is great above the heavens: and thy truth reacheth unto the "clouds.

5 "Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: and thy glory above all the earth;

6 "That thy beloved may be delivered: save with thy right hand, and answer me.

7 God hath spoken in his holiness; I will rejoice, I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

8 Gilead is mine; Manasseh is mine; Ephraim also is the strength of mine head;

9 Judah is my lawgiver; Moab is my washpot; over Edom will I cast out my shoe; over Philistia will I triumph.

10 "Who will bring me into the strong city? who will lead me into Edom?

11 Will not thou, O God, who hast cast us off? and wilt not thou, O God, go forth with our hosts?

12 Give us help from trouble: for vain is the help of man.

13 "Through God we shall do valiantly: for he it is that shall tread down our enemies.

PSALM CIX.

1 David, complaining of his slanderous enemies, under the person of Judas devoteth them. 16 He sheweth their sin. 21 Complaining of his own misery, he prayeth for help. 25 He promiseth thankfulness.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

HOLD "not thy peace, O God of my praise;

2 For the mouth of the wicked and the "mouth of the deceitful "are opened against me: they have spoken against me with a lying tongue.

3 They compassed me about also with words of hatred; and fought against me "without a cause.

5 And ^cthey have rewarded me evil for good, and hatred for my love.

6 Set thou a wicked man over him: and let ^dSatan stand at his right hand.

7 When he shall be judged, let him ^ebe condemned: and ^flet his prayer become sin.

8 Let his days be few; and ^glet another take his ^hoffice.

9 ⁱLet his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow.

10 Let his children be continually vagabonds, and beg: let them seek ^jtheir bread also out of their desolate places.

11 ^kLet the extortioner catch all that he hath; and let the strangers spoil his labour.

12 Let there be none to extend mercy unto him: neither let there be any to favour his fatherless children.

13 ^lLet his posterity be cut off; and in the generation following let ^mhis name be blotted out.

14 ⁿLet the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with the Lord; and let not the sin of his mother ^obe blotted out.

15 Let them be before the Lord continually, that he may ^pcut off the memory of them from the earth.

16 Because that he remembered not to shew mercy, but persecuted the poor and needy man, that he might even slay the ^qbroken in heart.

17 ^rAs he loved cursing, so let it come unto him: as he delighted not in blessing, so let it be far from him.

18 As he clothed himself with cursing like as with his garment, so let it ^scome ^tinto his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones.

19 Let it be unto him as the garment ^uwhich covereth him, and for a girdle wherewith he is girded continually.

20 ^vLet this be the reward of mine adversaries from the Lord, and of them that speak evil against my soul.

21 But do thou for me, O God the Lord, for thy name's sake: because thy mercy ^wis good, deliver thou me.

22 For ^xI am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.

23 I am gone ^ylike the shadow when it declineth: I am tossed up and down as the locust.

24 My ^zknees are weak through fasting; and my flesh faileth of fatness.

25 I became also ^aa reproach unto them: ^bwhen they looked upon me ^cthey shook their heads.

26 Help me, O Lord my God: O save me according to thy mercy:

27 ^dThat they may know that this is thy hand; ^ethat thou, Lord, hast done it.

28 ^fLet them curse, but bless thou: when they arise, let them be ashamed; but let ^gthy servant rejoice.

29 ^hLet mine adversaries be clothed with shame, and let them cover themselves with their own confusion, as with a mantle.

30 I will greatly praise the Lord with my mouth; yea, ⁱI will praise him among the multitude.

31 For ^jhe shall stand at the right hand of the poor, to save ^khim ^lfrom those that condemn his soul.

PSALM CX.

1 The kingdom, 4 the priesthood, 5 the conquest, 7 and the passion of Christ.

A Psalm of David.

THE ^aLORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool.

2 The Lord shall send the rod of thy strength out of Zion: rule thou in the midst of thine enemies.

3 ^bThy people shall be willing in the day of thy power, ^cin the beauties of holiness ^dfrom the womb of the morning: thou hast the dew of thy youth.

4 The Lord hath sworn, and ^ewill not repent, ^fThou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.

5 The Lord at thy right hand shall strike through kings ^gin the day of his wrath.

6 He shall judge among the heathen, he shall fill ^hthe places with the dead bodies; ⁱhe shall wound the heads over ^jmany countries.

7 ^kHe shall drink of the brook in the way: ^ltherefore shall he lift up the head.

PSALM CXII.

1 Godliness hath the promises of this life, 4 and of the life to come. 10 The prosperity of the godly shall be an eye-sore to the wicked.

PRAISE ye the LORD. ²Blessed is the man that feareth the LORD, ³that ⁴enlighteth greatly in his commandments.

² His seed shall be mighty upon earth: the generation of the upright shall be blessed.

³ Wealth and riches shall be in his house: and his righteousness endureth for ever.

⁴ Unto the upright there ariseth light in the darkness: he is gracious, and full of compassion, and righteous.

⁵ A good man sheweth favour, and lendeth: he will guide his affairs ⁶with discretion.

⁶ Surely ⁷he shall not be moved for ever: ⁸the righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance.

⁷ He shall not be afraid of evil tidings: his ⁸heart is fixed, ⁹trusting in the LORD.

⁸ His heart is established, ⁹he shall not be afraid, until he ¹⁰see his desire upon his enemies.

⁹ He hath dispersed, he hath given to the poor; ¹⁰his righteousness endureth for ever; ¹¹his horn shall be exalted with honour.

¹⁰ The wicked shall see it, and be grieved; ¹¹he shall gnash with his teeth, and ¹²melt away: ¹³the desire of the wicked shall perish.

PSALM CXIII.

1 An exhortation to praise God for his excellency, 6 for his mercy.

PRAISE ye the LORD. ²Praise, O ye servants of the LORD, praise the name of the LORD.

² Blessed be the name of the LORD from this time forth and for evermore.

³ From the rising of the sun unto the going down of the sun the LORD's name is to be praised.

⁴ The LORD is ⁵high above all nations, and ⁶his glory above the heavens.

⁵ Who is like unto the LORD our God, who ⁷dwelleth on high,

⁶ Who humbly himself to behold the things that are in heaven, and in the earth!

⁷ He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth the needy out of the dunghill;

⁸ That he may ⁹set him with princes, even with the princes of his people.

⁹ He maketh the barren woman ¹⁰to keep house, and ¹¹to be a joyful mother of children. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CXIV.

An exhortation, by the example of the dumb creatures, to fear God in his church.

WHEN ¹Israel went out of Egypt, the house of Jacob ²from a people of strange language;

² ³Judah was his sanctuary, and Israel his dominion.

³ The sea saw it, and fled: ⁴Jordan was driven back.

⁴ The mountains skipped like rams, and the little hills like lambs.

⁵ What ailed thee, O thou sea, that thou fleddest? thou Jordan, that thou wast driven back?

⁶ Ye mountains, that ye skipped like rams; and ye little hills, like lambs?

⁷ Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Jacob;

⁸ Which turned the rock into a standing water, the flint into a fountain of waters.

PSALM CXV.

1 Because God is truly glorious, 4 and idols are vanity, 9 he exhorteth to confidence in God. 12 God is to be blessed for his blessings.

NOT unto us, O LORD, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake.

² Wherefore should the heathen say, ³Where is now their God?

³ But our God is in the heavens: he hath done whatsoever he hath pleased.

⁴ Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands.

⁵ They have mouths, but they speak not: eyes have they, but they see not:

⁶ They have ears, but they hear not: noses have they, but they smell not:

⁷ They have hands, but they handle not: feet have they, but they walk not: neither speak they through their throat.

⁸ They that make them are like unto them; so is every one that trusteth in them.

⁹ O Israel, trust thou in the LORD: ¹⁰he is their help and their shield.

¹⁰ O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD: he is their help and their shield.

¹¹ Ye that fear the LORD, trust in the LORD: he is their help and their shield.

¹² The LORD hath been mindful of us: he will bless us; he will bless the house of Israel; he will bless the house of Aaron.

¹³ He will bless them that fear the LORD, both small ¹⁴and great.

¹⁴ The LORD shall increase you more and more, you and your children.

¹⁵ Ye are ¹⁶blessed of the LORD which made heaven and earth.

¹⁶ The heaven, even the heavens, are the LORD's: but the earth hath he given to the children of men.

O ¹PRaise the LORD, all ye nations: praise him, all ye people.

PSALM CXVIII.

1 An exhortation to praise God for his mercy. 5 The psalmist by his experience sheweth how good it is to trust in God. 19 Under the type of the psalmist the coming of Christ in his kingdom is expressed.

* 1 Chr. 16. 8, 34.

* Ps. 106. 1.

* 107. 1.

* 136. 1.

* See Ps. 115. 9, &c.

O ¹GIVE thanks unto the LORD; ¹for he is good: because his mercy endureth for ever.

2 ²Let Israel now say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

3 Let the house of Aaron now say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

4 Let them now that fear the LORD say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

5 ⁵I called upon the LORD ⁵in distress: the LORD answered me, and ⁵set me in a large place.

6 ⁶The LORD is ⁶on my side; I will not fear: what can man do unto me?

7 ⁷The LORD taketh my part with them that help me: therefore shall ⁷I see my desire upon them that hate me.

8 ⁸It is better to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in man.

9 ⁹It is better to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in princes.

10 All nations compassed me about: but in the name of the LORD will I ¹⁰destroy them.

11 They ¹¹compassed me about; yea, they compassed me about: but in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.

12 They compassed me about like bees: they are quenched ¹²as the fire of thorns: for in the name of the LORD I will ¹²destroy them.

13 Thou hast thrust sore at me that I might fall: but the LORD helped me.

14 ¹⁴The LORD is my strength and song, and is become my salvation.

15 The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tabernacles of the righteous: the right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly.

16 ¹⁶The right hand of the LORD is exalted: the right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly.

17 ¹⁷I shall not die, but live, and ¹⁷declare the works of the LORD.

18 The LORD hath ¹⁸chastened me sore: but he hath not given me over unto death.

19 ¹⁹Open to me the gates of righteousness: I will go into them, and I will praise the LORD.

20 ²⁰This gate of the LORD, ²⁰into which the righteous shall enter.

21 I will praise thee: for thou hast ²¹heard me, and ²¹art become my salvation.

22 ²²The stone which the builders refused is become the head stone of the corner.

23 ²³This is the LORD's doing; it is marvellous in our eyes.

24 ²⁴This is the day which the LORD hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it.

25 Save now, I beseech thee, O LORD: O LORD, I beseech thee, send now prosperity.

26 ²⁶Blessed be he that cometh in the name of the LORD: we have blessed you out of the house of the LORD.

27 God is the LORD, which hath shewed us ²⁷light: bind the sacrifice with cords, even unto the horns of the altar.

28 Thou art my God, and I will praise thee: ²⁸thou art my God, I will exalt thee.

RESH.

153 *Consider mine affliction, and deliver me: for I do not forget thy law.

154 *Plead my cause, and deliver me: *quicken me according to thy word. 155 *Salvation is far from the wicked: for they seek not thy statutes.

156 *Great are thy tender mercies, O LORD: *quicken me according to thy judgments.

157 Many are my persecutors and mine enemies; yet do I not decline from thy testimonies.

158 I beheld the transgressors, and was grieved; because they kept not thy word.

159 Consider how I love thy precepts: *quicken me, O LORD, according to thy lovingkindness.

160 *Thy word is true from the beginning: and every one of thy righteous judgments endureth for ever.

SCHIN.

161 *Princes have persecuted me without a cause: but my heart standeth in awe of thy word.

162 I rejoice at thy word, as one that findeth great spoil.

163 I hate and abhor lying: but thy law do I love.

164 Seven times a day do I praise thee because of thy righteous judgments.

165 *Great peace have they which love thy law: and *nothing shall offend them.

166 *LORD, I have hoped for thy salvation, and done thy commandments.

167 My soul hath kept thy testimonies: and I love them exceedingly.

168 I have kept thy precepts and thy testimonies: *for all my ways are before thee.

TAU.

169 Let my cry come near before thee, O LORD: *give me understanding according to thy word.

170 Let my supplication come before thee: deliver me according to thy word.

171 *My lips shall utter praise, when thou hast taught me thy statutes.

172 My tongue shall speak of thy word: for all thy commandments are righteousness.

173 Let thine hand help me; for *I have chosen thy precepts.

174 *I have longed for thy salvation, O LORD: and *thy law is my delight.

175 Let my soul live, and it shall praise thee; and let thy judgments help me.

176 *I have gone astray like a lost sheep; seek thy servant: for I do not forget thy commandments.

PSALM CXX.

1 David prayeth against Doeg, 3 reproveth his tongue, 5 complaineth of his necessary conversation with the wicked.

A Song of degrees.

I *my distress I cried unto the LORD, and he heard me.

2 Deliver my soul, O LORD, from lying lips, and from a deceitful tongue.

3 *What shall be given unto thee? or what shall be *done unto thee, thou false tongue?

4 *Sharp arrows of the mighty, with coals of juniper.

5 Woe is me, that I sojourn in *Mesech, *that I dwell in the tents of Kedar!

A Song of degrees.

I *WILL lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.

2 *My help cometh from the LORD, which made heaven and earth.

3 *He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: *he that keepeth thee will not slumber.

4 Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.

5 The LORD is thy keeper: the LORD is *thy shade *upon thy right hand.

6 *The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night.

7 The LORD shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall *preserve thy soul.

8 The LORD shall *preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.

PSALM CXXII.

1 David professeth his joy for the church, 6 and prayeth for the peace thereof.

A Song of degrees of David.

I WAS glad when they said unto me, *Let us go into the house of the LORD.

2 Our feet shall stand within thy gates, O Jerusalem.

3 Jerusalem is builded as a city that is *compact together:

4 *Whither the tribes go up, the tribes of the LORD, unto *the testimony of Israel, to give thanks unto the name of the LORD.

5 *For there *are set thrones of judgment, the thrones of the house of David.

6 *Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee.

7 Peace be within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces.

8 For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will now say, Peace be within thee.

UNTO thee ^alift I up mine eyes, O thou ^bthat dwellest in the heavens.

2 Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress; so our eyes wait upon the LORD our God, until that he have mercy upon us.

3 Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us: for we are exceedingly filled with contempt.

4 Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorn of those that are at ease, and with the contempt of the proud.

PSALM CXXIV.

The church bleaseth God for a miraculous deliverance.

A Song of degrees of David.
IF it had not been the LORD who was on our side, ^anow may Israel say:

2 If it had not been the LORD who was on our side, when men rose up against us:

3 Then they had ^bswallowed us up quick, when their wrath was kindled against us:

4 Then the waters had overwhelmed us,
the stream had gone over our soul:

5 Then the proud waters had gone over our soul.

6 Blessed be the LORD, who hath not given us as a prey to their teeth.

7 Our soul is escaped ^cas a bird out of the snare of the fowlers: the snare is broken, and we are escaped.

8 ^dOur help ^eis in the name of the LORD, ^fwho made heaven and earth.

PSALM CXXV.

1 The safety of such as trust in God. 4 A prayer for the godly, and against the wicked.

A Song of degrees.

THEY that trust in the LORD shall be as mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth for ever.

2 As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the LORD is round about his people from henceforth even for ever.

3 For ^athe rod of ^bthe wicked shall not rest upon the lot of the righteous; lest the righteous put forth their hands unto iniquity.

4 Do good, O LORD, unto those that be good, and to them that are upright in their hearts.

5 As for such as turn aside unto their ^ccrooked ways, the LORD shall lead them forth with the workers of iniquity: but ^dpeace shall be upon Israel.

PSALM CXXVI.

5 ^eThey that sow in tears shall reap

PSALM CXXVII.

1 The virtue of God's blessing. 3 Good children are his gift.

A Song of degrees ^bfor Solomon.

EXCEPT the LORD build the house, they labour in vain ^cthat build it:
except ^dthe LORD keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain.

2 It is vain for you to rise up early, to sit up late, to ^eeat the bread of sorrows: for so he giveth his beloved sleep.

3 Lo, ^fchildren are an heritage of the LORD: and ^gthe fruit of the womb ^his his reward.

4 As arrows are in the hand of a youth.

5 Happy ^jis the man that ^khath his

PSALM CXXVIII.

The sundry blessings which follow them that fear God.

A Song of degrees.

BLESSED ^ais every one that feareth the LORD; that walketh in his ways.

2 ^bFor thou shalt eat the labour of thine hands: happy shalt thou be,
and it shall be well with thee.

3 Thy wife shall be ^cas a fruitful vine by the sides of thine house:
thy children ^dlike olive plants round about thy table.

4 Behold, that thus shall the man be blessed that feareth the LORD.

5 ^eThe LORD shall bless thee out of 6 Yea, thou shalt ^fsee thy children's

2 Lord, hear my voice: let thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications.

3 ^bIf thou, LORD, shouldest mark iniquities, O LORD, who shall stand?

LORD, ^aan habitation for the mighty God of Jacob.

PSALM CXXXVIII.

1 David praiseth God for the truth of his word. 4 He prophesieth that the kings of the earth shall praise God. 7 He professeth his confidence in God.

A Psalm of David.

I WILL praise thee with my whole heart: before the gods will I sing praise unto thee.

2 I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name.

3 In the day when I cried thou answeredst me, and strengthenedst me with strength in my soul.

4 All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O LORD, when they hear the words of thy mouth.

5 Yea, they shall sing in the ways of the LORD: for great is the glory of the LORD.

6 Though the LORD be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly: but the proud he knoweth afar off.

7 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, thou wilt revive me: thou shalt smite forth thine hand against the wrath of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall save me.

8 The LORD will perfect that which concerneth me: thy mercy, O LORD, endureth for ever: forsake not the works of thine own hands.

PSALM CXXXIX.

1 David praiseth God for his allseeing providence. 17 and for his infinite mercies. 19 He defendeth the wicked. 23 He prayeth for sincerity.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

O LORD, thou hast searched me, and known me.

2 Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off.

3 Thou compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.

4 For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O LORD, thou knowest it altogether.

5 Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me.

6 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it.

7 Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence?

8 If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there.

9 If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;

10 Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.

11 If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me.

12 Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee; but the night shineth as the day: the darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

13 For thou hast possessed my reins: thou hast covered me in my mother's womb.

14 I will praise thee: for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvellous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well.

15 My substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.

16 Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being imperfect; and in thy book all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them.

17 How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them!

18 If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand: when I awake, I am still with thee.

19 Surely thou wilt slay the wicked, O God: depart from me therefore, ye bloody men.

20 For they speak against thee wickedly, and thine enemies take thy name in vain.

21 Do not I hate them, O LORD, that hate thee? and am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee?

22 I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies.

23 Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts.

24 And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

PSALM CXL.

1 David prayeth to be delivered from Saul and from Achish. 8 He prayeth against them. 12 He comforteth himself by confidence in God.

4 Keep me, O LORD, from the hands of the wicked; preserve me from the violent man; who have purposed to overthrow my goings.

6 I said unto the LORD, Thou art my God: hear the voice of my supplications, O LORD.

7 O God the Lord, the strength of my salvation, thou hast covered my head in the day of battle.

8 Grant not, O LORD, the desires of the wicked: further not his wicked device; lest they exalt themselves. Selah.

10 Let burning coals fall upon them: let them be cast into the fire; into deep pits, that they rise not up again.

11 Let not an evil speaker be established in the earth: evil shall hunt the violent man to overthrow him.

PSALM CXLI.

1 David prayeth that his suit may be acceptable, 5 his conscience sincere, 7 and his life safe from snares.

A Psalm of David.

LORD, I cry unto thee: make haste unto me; give ear unto my voice, when I cry unto thee.

2 Let my prayer be set forth before thee as incense; and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.

3 Set a watch, O LORD, before my mouth; keep the door of my lips.

4 Incline not my heart to any evil thing, to practise wicked works with men that work iniquity: and let me not eat of their dainties.

5 Let the righteous smite me; it shall be a kindness: and let him reprove me; it shall be an excellent oil, which shall not break my head: for yet my prayer also shall be in their calamities.

6 When their judges are overthrown in stony places, they shall hear my words; for they are sweet.

7 Our bones are scattered at the grave's mouth, as when one cutteth and cleaveth wood upon the earth.

8 But mine eyes are unto thee, O

God the Lord: in thee is my trust; leave not my soul destitute.

9 Keep me from the snares which they have laid for me, and the gins of the workers of iniquity.

10 Let the wicked fall into their own nets, whilst that I withal escape.

PSALM CXLII.

David sheweth that in his trouble all his comfort was in prayer unto God.

* Maschil of David: A Prayer when he was in the cave.

I CRIED unto the LORD with my voice; with my voice unto the LORD did I make my supplication.

2 I poured out my complaint before him; I shewed before him my trouble.

3 When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then thou knewest my path. In the way wherein I walked have they privily laid a snare for me.

4 I looked on my right hand, and beheld, but there was no man that would know me: refuge failed me; no man cared for my soul.

5 I cried unto thee, O LORD: I said, Thou art my refuge and my portion in the land of the living.

6 Attend unto my cry; for I am brought very low: deliver me from my persecutors; for they are stronger than I.

7 Bring my soul out of prison, that I may praise thy name: the righteous shall compass me about; for thou shalt deal bountifully with me.

PSALM CXLIH.

1 David prayeth for favour in judgment, 3 He complaineth of his grief, 5 He strengtheneth his faith by meditation and prayer, 7 He prayeth for grace, 9 for deliverance, 10 for sanctification, 12 for destruction of his enemies.

A Psalm of David.

HEAR my prayer, O LORD, give ear to my supplications: in thy faithfulness answer me, and in thy righteousness.

2 And enter not into judgment with thy servant: for in thy sight shall no man living be justified.

3 For the enemy hath persecuted my soul; he hath smitten my life down to the ground; he hath made me to dwell in darkness, as those that have been long dead.

4 Therefore is my spirit overwhelmed within me; my heart within me is desolate.

5 I remember the days of old; I meditate on all thy works; I muse on the work of thy hands.

6 I stretch forth my hands unto thee: my soul thirsteth after thee, as a thirsty land. Selah.

7 Hear me speedily, O LORD: my spirit faileth; hide not thy face from me, lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

PSALM CXLIV.

1 David blesseth God for his mercy both to him and to many. 5 He prayeth that God would powerfully deliver him from his enemies. 9 He promisseth to praise God. 11 He prayeth for the happy state of the kingdom.

A Psalm of David.

BLESSED be the LORD my strength, which teacheth my hands to war, and my fingers to fight.

2 My goodness, and my fortress; my high tower, and my deliverer; my shield, and he in whom I trust; who sublueth my people under me.

3 O LORD, what is man, that thou takest knowledge of him! or the son of man, that thou makest account of him!

4 Man is like to vanity: his days are as a shadow that passeth away.

5 Bow thy heavens, O LORD, and come down: touch the mountains, and they shall smoke.

6 Cast forth lightning, and scatter them: shoot out thine arrows, and destroy them.

7 Send thine hand from above; rid me, and deliver me out of great waters, from the hand of strange children;

8 Whose mouth speaketh vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

9 I will sing a new song unto thee, O God: upon a psaltery and an instrument of ten strings will I sing praises unto thee.

10 It is he that giveth salvation unto kings: who delivereth David his servant from the hurtful sword.

11 Rid me, and deliver me from the hand of strange children, whose mouth speaketh vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood:

PSALM CXLV.

1 David praiseth God for his fame, 8 for his goodness, 11 for his kingdom, 14 for his providence, 17 for his saving mercy.

David's Psalm of praise.

I WILL extol thee, my God, O king; and I will bless thy name for ever and ever.

2 Every day will I bless thee; and I will praise thy name for ever and ever.

3 Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable.

4 One generation shall praise thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts.

5 I will speak of the glorious honour of thy majesty, and of thy wondrous works.

6 And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts: and I will declare thy greatness.

7 They shall abundantly utter the memory of thy great goodness, and shall sing of thy righteousness.

8 The LORD is gracious, and full of compassion; slow to anger, and of great mercy.

9 The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works.

10 All thy works shall praise thee, O LORD; and thy saints shall bless thee.

11 They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power;

12 To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts, and the glorious majesty of his kingdom.

13 Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations.

14 The LORD upholdeth all that fall, and raiseth up all those that be bowed down.

15 The eyes of all wait upon thee; and thou givest them their meat in due season.

16 Thou openest thine hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing.

17 The LORD is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works.

18 The LORD is high unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth.

19 He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him: he also will hear their cry, and will save them.

20 The LORD preserveth all them that love him: but all the wicked will he destroy.

21 My mouth shall speak the praise of the LORD: and let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.

PSALM CXLVI.

1 The psalmist saith perpetual praises to God. 3 He exhorteth not to trust in man. 6 God, for his power, justice, mercy, and kingdom, is only worthy to be trusted.

2 PRAISE ye the LORD. ^a Praise the LORD, O my soul.

2 ^b While I live will I praise the LORD: I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being.

3 ^c Put not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man, in whom there is no ^d help.

4 ^e His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day ^f his thoughts perish.

5 ^g Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the LORD his God:

6 ^h Which made heaven, and earth, the sea, and all that therein is: which keepeth truth for ever:

7 ⁱ Which executeth judgment for the oppressed: ^j which giveth food to the hungry. ^k The LORD looseth the prisoners:

8 ^l The LORD openeth the eyes of the blind: ^m the LORD raiseth them that are bowed down: the LORD loveth the righteous:

9 ⁿ The LORD preserveth the strangers; he relieveth the fatherless and widow: ^o but the way of the wicked he turneth upside down.

10 ^p The LORD shall reign for ever, even thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CXLVII.

1 The prophet exhorteth to praise God for his care of the church, 4 his power, 6 and his mercy: 7 to praise him for his providence: 12 to praise him for his blessings upon the kingdom, 15 for his power over the waters, 19 and for his ordinances in the church.

PRAISE ye the LORD: for ^a it is good to sing praises unto our God; ^b for it is pleasant; and ^c praise is comely.

2 The LORD doth ^d build up Jerusalem: ^e he gathereth together the outcasts of Israel.

3 ^f He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their ^g wounds.

4 ^h He telleth the number of the stars; he calleth them all by their names.

5 ⁱ Great is our Lord, and of great power: ^j his understanding is infinite.

6 ^k The LORD lifteth up the meek: he casteth the wicked down to the ground.

7 Sing unto the LORD with thanksgiving; sing praise upon the harp unto our God:

8 ^m Who covereth the heaven with clouds, who prepareth rain for the earth, who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains.

9 ⁿ He giveth to the beast his food, and ^o to the young ravens which cry.

10 ^p He delighteth not in the strength of the horse: he taketh not pleasure in the legs of a man.

11 The LORD taketh pleasure in them that fear him, in those that hope in his mercy.

12 Praise the LORD, O Jerusalem; praise thy God, O Zion.

13 For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates; he hath blessed thy children within thee.

14 ^q He maketh peace in thy borders, and ^r filleth thee with the finest of the wheat.

15 ^s He sendeth forth his commandment upon earth: his word runneth very swiftly.

16 ^t He giveth snow like wool: he scattereth the hoarfrost like ashes.

17 He casteth forth his ice like morsels: who can stand before his cold?

18 ^u He sendeth out his word, and melteth them: he causeth his wind to blow, and the waters flow.

19 ^v He sheweth ^w his word unto Jacob, ^x his statutes and his judgments unto Israel.

20 ^y He hath not dealt so with any nation: and as for his judgments, they have not known them. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CXLVIII.

1 The psalmist exhorteth the celestial, 7 the terrestrial, 11 and the rational creatures to praise God.

PRAISE ye the LORD. Praise ye the LORD from the heavens: praise him in the heights.

2 ^a Praise ye him, all his angels: praise ye him, all his hosts.

3 Praise ye him, sun and moon: praise him, all ye stars of light.

4 Praise him, ^b ye heavens of heavens, and ^c ye waters that be above the heavens.

5 Let them praise the name of the LORD: for ^d he commanded, and they were created.

6 ^e He hath also established them for ever and ever: he hath made a decree which shall not pass.

7 Praise the LORD from the earth, ^f ye dragons, and all deeps:

8 Fire, and hail; snow, and vapours; stormy wind ^g fulfilling his word:

9 ^h Mountains, and all hills; fruitful trees, and all cedars:

10 Beasts, and all cattle; creeping things, and ⁱ flying fowl:

11 Kings of the earth, and all people; princes, and all judges of the earth:

12 Both young men, and maidens; old men, and children:

13 Let them praise the name of the LORD: for ^j his name alone is ^k excellent: ^l his glory is above the earth and heaven.

14 ^m He also exalteth the horn of his people, ⁿ the praise of all his saints: even of the children of Israel, ^o a people near unto him. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CXLIX.

1 The prophet exhorteth to praise God for his love to the church, & saith for that power which he hath given to the church.

2 PRAISE ye the LORD. "Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise in the congregation of saints.

2 Let Israel rejoice in him that made him: let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.

3 Let them praise his name in the dance: let them sing praises unto him with the timbrel and harp.

4 For the LORD taketh pleasure in his people: he will beautify the meek with salvation.

5 Let the saints be joyful in glory: let them sing aloud upon their beds.

6 Let the high praises of God be in their mouth, and a twoedged sword in their hand;

7 To execute vengeance upon the heathen, and punishments upon the people;

8 To bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron;

9 To execute upon them the judgment written: * this honour have all his saints. Praise ye the LORD.

THE PROVERBS.

CHAPTER I.

1 The use of the proverbs. 7 An exhortation to fear God, and believe his word. 10 To avoid the enticing of sinners. 20 Wisdom complaineth of her contempt. 24 She threateth her contempters.

THE * proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel;

2 To know wisdom and instruction; to perceive the words of understanding;

3 To receive the instruction of wisdom, justice, and judgment, and equity;

4 To give subtilty to the simple, to the young man knowledge and discretion.

5 A wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels:

6 To understand a proverb, and the interpretation; the words of the wise, and their dark sayings.

7 * The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

8 My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother:

9 For they shall be an ornament of grace unto thy head, and chains about thy neck.

10 My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not.

11 If they say, Come with us, let us lay wait for blood, let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause:

12 Let us swallow them up alive as the grave; and whole, as those that go down into the pit:

13 We shall find all precious substance, we shall fill our houses with spoil:

14 Cast in thy lot among us; let us all have one purse:

15 My son, walk not thou in the way with them; * refrain thy foot from their path:

16 For their feet run to evil, and make haste to shed blood.

17 Surely in vain the net is spread in the sight of any bird.

18 And they lay wait for their own blood; they lurk privily for their own lives.

19 So are the ways of every one that is greedy of gain; which taketh away the life of the owners thereof.

20 * Wisdom crieth without; she uttereth her voice in the streets:

21 She crieth in the chief place of concourse, in the openings of the gates: in the city she uttereth her voice, saying,

22 How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity? and the scornors delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge?

23 Turn you at my reproof: behold, I will pour out my spirit unto you, I will make known my words unto you.

24 * Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded;

25 But ye have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof:

26 I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh;

29 For that they ^ahated knowledge, and did not ^achoose the fear of the LORD:

30 ^aThey would none of my counsel: they despised all my reproof.

31 Therefore ^ashall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.

32 For the ^aturning away of the simple shall slay them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them.

33 But ^awhoso hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and ^ashall be quiet from fear of evil.

CHAPTER II.

1 Wisdom promiseth godliness to her children. 10 and safety from evil company, 20 and direction in good ways.

MY son, if thou wilt receive my words, and ^ahide my commandments with thee;

2 So that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom, and apply thine heart to understanding;

3 Yea, if thou eriest after knowledge, and ^aliftest up thy voice for understanding;

4 ^aIf thou seekest her as silver, and searchest for her as for hid treasures;

5 Then shalt thou understand the fear of the LORD, and find the knowledge of God.

6 ^aFor the LORD giveth wisdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding.

7 He layeth up sound wisdom for the righteous: ^ahe is a buckler to them that walk uprightly.

8 He keepeth the paths of judgment, and ^apreserveth the way of his saints.

9 Then shalt thou understand righteousness, and judgment, and equity; yea, every good path.

10 ^aWhen wisdom entereth into thine heart, and knowledge is pleasant unto thy soul;

11 Discretion shall preserve thee, ^aunderstanding shall keep thee:

12 To deliver thee from the way of the evil man, from the man that speaketh froward things;

13 Who leave the paths of uprightness, to ^awalk in the ways of darkness;

14 Who ^arejoice to do evil, and ^adelight in the frowardness of the wicked;

15 ^aWhose ways are crooked, and they froward in their paths:

16 To deliver thee from ^athe strange woman, ^aeven from the stranger which flattereth with her words;

17 ^aWhich forsaketh the guide of her youth, and forgetteth the covenant of her God.

18 For ^aher house inclineth unto death, and her paths unto the dead.

19 None that go unto her return again, neither take they hold of the paths of life.

20 That thou mayest walk in the way of good men, and keep the paths of the righteous.

21 ^aFor the upright shall dwell in the land, and the perfect shall remain in it.

22 ^aBut the wicked shall be cut off from the earth, and the transgressors shall be ^arooted out of it.

CHAPTER III.

1 An exhortation to obedience, 5 to faith, 7 to mortification, 9 to denudation, 11 to patience. 13 The happy gain of wisdom. 19 The poorer. 21 and the benefits of wisdom. 27 An exhortation to charity, 30 peaceableness, 31 and contentedness. 33 The cursed state of the wicked.

MY son, forget not my law; ^abut let thine heart keep my commandments:

2 For length of days, and ^along life, and ^apeace, shall they add to thee.

3 Let not mercy and truth forsake thee: ^abind them about thy neck; ^awrite them upon the table of thine heart:

4 ^aSo shalt thou find favour and ^agood understanding in the sight of God and man.

5 ^aTrust in the LORD with all thine heart; ^aand lean not unto thine own understanding.

6 ^aIn all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall ^adirect thy paths.

7 ^aBe not wise in thine own eyes: ^afear the LORD, and depart from evil.

8 It shall be ^ahealth to thy navel, and ^amarrow to thy bones.

9 ^aHonour the LORD with thy substance, and with the firstfruits of all thine increase:

10 ^aSo shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine.

11 ^aMy son, despise not the chastening of the LORD; neither be weary of his correction:

12 For whom the LORD loveth he correcteth; ^aeven as a father the son in whom he delighteth.

13 ^aHappy is the man that findeth wisdom, and ^athe man that getteth understanding.

14 ^aFor the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold.

15 She is more precious than rubies: and ^aall the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her.

16 ^aLength of days is in her right hand; and in her left hand riches and honour.

when thou hast it by thee. 29 * Devise not evil against thy neighbour, seeing he dwelleth secure- ly by thee. 30 * * Strive not with a man without cause, if he have done thee no harm. 31 * * Envy thou not the oppressor, and choose none of his ways. 32 For the froward is abomination to the Lord: but his secret is with the righteous. 33 * The curse of the Lord is in the house of the wicked: but he blesseth the habitation of the just. 34 * Surely he scorneth the scorners: but he giveth grace unto the lowly. 35 The wise shall inherit glory: but shame shall be the promotion of fools.	6 Forsake her not, and she shall preserve thee: love her, and she shall keep thee. 7 * Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding. 8 * Exalt her, and she shall promote thee: she shall bring thee to honour, when thou dost embrace her. 9 She shall give to thine head an ornament of grace: a crown of glory shall she deliver to thee. 10 Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings; and the years of thy life shall be many. 11 I have taught thee in the way of wisdom; I have led thee in right paths. 12 When thou goest, thy steps shall not be straitened; and when thou runnest, thou shalt not stumble. 13 Take fast hold of instruction; let her not go: keep her; for she is thy life. 14 * Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil men. 15 Avoid it, pass not by it, turn from it, and pass away. 16 * For they sleep not, except they have done mischief: and their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall. 17 For they eat the bread of wick- edness, and drink the wine of vio- lence. 18 * But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day. 19 * The way of the wicked is as darkness: they know not at what they stumble. 20 * My son, attend to my words; incline thine ear unto my sayings. 21 * Let them not depart from thine eyes; keep them in the midst of thine heart. 22 For they are life unto those that find them, and health to all their flesh. 23 * Keep thy heart with all dili- gence; CHAPTER IV.

1 Solomon, to persuade obedience, 3 sheweth what instruction he had of his parents, 5 to study wisdom, 14 and to shun the path of the wicked, 20 He exhorteth to faith, 23 and sanctification.

HEAR, ye children, the instruction of a father, and attend to know understanding.

2 For I give you good doctrine, forsake ye not my law.

3 For I was my father's son, tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother.

4 He taught me also, and said unto me, Let thine heart retain my words: keep my commandments, and live.

5 Get wisdom, get understanding: forget it not; neither decline from the words of my mouth.

6 Put away from thee a froward mouth, and perverse lips put far from thee.

7 Let thine eyes look right on, and let thine eyelids look straight before thee.

8 Ponder the path of thy feet, and let all thy ways be established.

9 Turn not to the right hand nor to the left: remove thy foot from evil.

1 Solomon exhorteth to the study of wisdom, 3 He sheweth the mischief of whoredom and riot, 15 He exhorteth to continence, liberty, and chastity, 22 The wicked are over-taken with their own sins.

5 ^aHer feet go down to death; her steps take hold on hell.

6 Lest thou shouldst ponder the path of life, her ways are moveable, that thou canst not know them.

7 Hear me now therefore, O ye children, and depart not from the words of my mouth.

8 Remove thy way far from her, and come not nigh the door of her house:

9 Lest thou give thine honour unto others, and thy years unto the cruel:

10 Lest strangers be filled with ³thy wealth; and thy labours be in the house of a stranger;

11 And thou mourn at the last, when thy flesh and thy body are consumed,

12 And say, How have I ^ahated instruction, and my heart ^adespised reproof;

13 And have not obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor inclined mine ear to them that instructed me!

19 ^aLet her be as the loving hind and pleasant roe; let her breasts ^asatisfy thee at all times; and ^abe thou ravished always with her love.

20 And why wilt thou, my son, be ravished with ^aa strange woman, and embrace the bosom of a stranger?

21 ^aFor the ways of man are before the eyes of the Lord, and he pondereth all his goings.

22 ^aHis own iniquities shall take the wicked himself, and he shall be holden with the cords of his ^asins.

23 ^aHe shall die without instruction; and in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray.

CHAPTER VI.

1 Against suretyship. 6 illness. 12 and mischievousness. 16 Seven things hateful to God. 20 The blessings of obedience. 25 The mischiefs of whoredom.

MY son, ^aif thou be surety for thy friend, ^aif thou hast stricken thy hand with a stranger,

2 Thou art snared with the words of thy mouth, thou art taken with the words of thy mouth.

3 Do this now, my son, and deliver thyself, when thou art come into the hand of thy friend; go, humble thyself, ^aand make sure thy friend.

4 ^aGive not sleep to thine eyes, nor slumber to thine eyelids.

5 Deliver thyself as a roe from the hand of the hunter, and as a bird from the hand of the fowler.

6 ^aGo to the ant, thou sluggard; consider her ways, and be wise:

7 Which having no guide, overseer, or ruler,

8 Provideth her meat in the summer, and gathereth her food in the harvest.

9 ^aHow long wilt thou sleep, O sluggard? when wilt thou arise out of thy sleep?

10 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:

11 ^aSo shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth, and thy want as an armed man.

12 ^aA naughty person, a wicked man, walketh with a froward mouth.

13 ^aHe winketh with his eyes, he speaketh with his feet, he teacheth with his fingers;

14 Frowardness is in his heart, ^ahe deviseth mischief continually; ^ahe soweth discord.

15 Therefore shall his calamity come suddenly; suddenly shall he be broken ^awithout remedy.

16 ^aThese six things doth the Lord hate: yea, seven are an abomination ^aunto him:

17 ^aA proud look, ^aa lying tongue, and ^ahands that shed innocent blood,

18 ^aAn heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, ^afeet that be swift in running to mischief, 19 ^aA false witness that speaketh lies, and he ^athat soweth discord among brethren.

20 ^aMy son, keep thy father's commandment, and forsake not the law of thy mother:

21 ^aBind them continually upon thine heart, and tie them about thy neck.

22 ^aWhen thou goest, it shall lead thee; when thou sleepest, ^ait shall keep thee; and ^awhen thou awakest, it shall talk with thee.

23 ^aFor the commandment is a lamp; and the law is light; and reproofs of instruction are the way of life:

24 ^aTo keep thee from the evil woman, from the flattery ^aof the tongue of a strange woman.

25 ^aLast not after her beauty in thine heart; neither let her take thee with her eyelids.

26 For ^aby means of a whorish woman a man is brought to a piece of bread: ^aand ^athe adulteress will ^ahunt for the precious life.

27 Can a man take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burned?

1 The laws, 6 and evidences of wisdom. 10 The excellency, 12 the nature, 16 the power, 18 the riches, 22 and the clarity of wisdom. 32 Wisdom is to be desired for the blessedness it bringeth.

DOETH not wisdom cry? and understanding put forth her voice?

2 She standeth in the top of high places, by the way in the places of the paths.

3 She crieth at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the coming in at the doors.

5 O ye simple, understand wisdom: and ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart.

6 Hear; for I will speak of excellent things; and the opening of my lips shall be right things.

7 For my mouth shall speak truth; and wickedness is an abomination to my lips.

9 They are all plain to him that understandeth, and right to them that find knowledge.

25 ^aBefore the mountains were settled, before the hills was I brought forth:

26 While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the ³fields, nor ⁴the highest part of the dust of the world.

with a slack hand: but the hand of the diligent maketh rich.

5 He that gathereth in summer is a wise son: but he that sleepeth in harvest is a son that causeth shame.

6 Blessings are upon the head of the just: but a violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

7 The memory of the just is blessed: but the name of the wicked shall rot.

8 The wise in heart will receive commandments: a but a prating fool shall fall.

9 He that walketh uprightly walketh surely: but he that perverteth his ways shall be known.

10 He that winketh with the eye causeth sorrow: a but a prating fool shall fall.

11 The mouth of a righteous man is a well of life: but a violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

12 Hatred stirreth up strifes: but a love covereth all sins.

13 In the lips of him that hath understanding wisdom is found: but a rod is for the back of him that is void of understanding.

14 Wise men lay up knowledge: but a the mouth of the foolish is near destruction.

15 The rich man's wealth is his strong city: the destruction of the poor is their poverty.

16 The labour of the righteous tendeth to life: the fruit of the wicked to sin.

17 He is in the way of life that keepeth instruction: but he that refuseth reproof erreth.

18 He that hideth hatred with lying lips, and a he that uttereth a slander, is a fool.

19 In the multitude of words there wanteth not sin: but a he that refraineth his lips is wise.

20 The tongue of the just is as choice silver: the heart of the wicked is little worth.

21 The lips of the righteous feed many: but fools die for want of wisdom.

22 The blessing of the LORD, it maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow with it.

23 It is as sport to a fool to do mischief: but a man of understanding hath wisdom.

24 The fear of the wicked, it shall come upon him: but a the desire of the righteous shall be granted.

25 As the whirlwind passeth, a so is the wicked no more: but a the righteous is an everlasting foundation.

26 As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, so is the sluggard to them that send him.

27 The fear of the LORD a prolongeth days: but a the years of the wicked shall be shortened.

28 The hope of the righteous shall be gladness: but the a expectation of the wicked shall perish.

29 The way of the LORD is strength to the upright: a but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

30 The righteous shall never be removed: but the wicked shall not inhabit the earth.

31 The mouth of the just bringeth forth wisdom: but the froward tongue shall be cut out.

32 The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable: but the mouth of the wicked *speake*th a frowardness.

CHAPTER XI.

A FALSE balance is abomination to the LORD: but a just weight is his delight.

2 When pride cometh, then cometh shame: but with the lowly is wisdom.

3 The integrity of the upright shall guide them: but the perverseness of transgressors shall destroy them.

4 Riches profit not in the day of wrath: but a righteousness delivereth from death.

5 The righteousness of the perfect shall direct his way: but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness.

6 The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them: but a transgressors shall be taken in their own naughtiness.

7 When a wicked man dieth, his expectation shall perish: and the hope of unjust men perisheth.

8 The righteous is delivered out of trouble, and the wicked cometh in his stead.

9 An hypocrite with his mouth destroyeth his neighbour: but through knowledge shall the just be delivered.

10 When it goeth well with the righteous, the city rejoiceth: and when the wicked perish, there is shouting.

11 By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted: but it is overthrow by the mouth of the wicked.

12 He that is void of wisdom despiseth his neighbour: but a man of understanding holdeth his peace.

13 A talebearer revealeth secrets: but he that is of a faithful spirit concealeth the matter.

14 Where no counsel is, the people fall: but in the multitude of counsellors there is safety.

15 He that is surety for a stranger shall smart for it: and he that hateth a suretyship is sure.

16 A gracious woman retaineth honour: and strong men retain riches.

17 The merciful man doeth good to his own soul: but he that is cruel troubleth his own flesh.

18 The wicked worketh a deceitful work: but a to him that soweth righteousness shall be a sure reward.

35 The king's favour is toward a wise servant: but his wrath is against him that causeth shame.

CHAPTER XV.

A SOFT answer turneth away wrath: but grievous words stir up anger.

2 The tongue of the wise useth knowledge aright: but the mouth of fools poureth out foolishness.

3 The eyes of the LORD are in every place, beholding the evil and the good.

4 A wholesome tongue is a tree of life: but perverseness therein is a breach in the spirit.

5 A fool despiseth his father's instruction: but he that regardeth reproof is prudent.

6 In the house of the righteous is much treasure: but in the revenues of the wicked is trouble.

7 The lips of the wise disperse knowledge: but the heart of the foolish doeth not so.

8 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD: but the prayer of the upright is his delight.

9 The way of the wicked is an abomination unto the LORD: but he loveth him that followeth after righteousness.

10 Correction is grievous unto him that forsaketh the way: and he that hateth reproof shall die.

11 Hell and destruction are before the LORD: how much more than the hearts of the children of men?

12 A scorner loveth not one that reproveth him: neither will he go unto the wise.

13 A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance: but by sorrow of the heart the spirit is broken.

14 The heart of him that hath understanding seeketh knowledge: but the mouth of fools feedeth on foolishness.

15 All the days of the afflicted are evil: but he that is of a merry heart hath a continual feast.

16 Better is little with the fear of the LORD than great treasure and trouble therewith.

17 Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than a stalled ox and hatred therewith.

18 A wrathful man stirreth up strife: but he that is slow to anger appeaseth strife.

19 The way of the slothful man is as an hedge of thorns: but the way of the righteous is made plain.

20 A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish man despiseth his mother.

21 Folly is joy to him that is destitute of wisdom: but a man of understanding walketh uprightly.

22 Without counsel purposes are disappointed: but in the multitude of counsellors they are established.

23 A man hath joy by the answer of his mouth: and a word spoken in due season, how good is it!

24 The way of life is above to the wise, that he may depart from hell beneath.

25 The LORD will destroy the house of the proud: but he will establish the border of the widow.

26 The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the LORD: but the words of the pure are pleasant words.

27 He that is greedy of gain troubleth his own house; but he that hateth gifts shall live.

28 The heart of the righteous studieth to answer: but the mouth of the wicked poureth out evil things.

29 The LORD is far from the wicked: but he heareth the prayer of the righteous.

30 The light of the eyes rejoiceth the heart: and a good report maketh the bones fat.

31 The ear that heareth the reproof of life abideth among the wise.

32 He that refuseth instruction despiseth his own soul: but he that heareth reproof getteth understanding.

33 The fear of the LORD is the instruction of wisdom; and before honour is humility.

CHAPTER XVI.

THE preparations of the heart in man, and the answer of the tongue, is from the LORD.

2 All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes; but the LORD weigheth the spirits.

3 Commit thy works unto the LORD, and thy thoughts shall be established.

4 The LORD hath made all things for himself: yea, even the wicked for the day of evil.

5 A Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to the Lord:
though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished.

6 By mercy and truth iniquity is purged: and by the fear of the Lord men depart from evil.

7 When a man's ways please the Lord, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.

8 Better is a little with righteousness than great revenues without right.

9 A man's heart deviseth his way: but the Lord directeth his steps.

10 A divine sentence is in the lips of the king: his mouth transgresseth not in judgment.

11 A just weight and balance are the Lord's: all the weights of the bag are his work.

12 It is an abomination to kings to commit wickedness: for the throne is established by righteousness.

13 Righteous lips are the delight of kings; and they love him that speaketh right.

14 The wrath of a king is as messengers of death: but a wise man will pacify it.

15 In the light of the king's fa-vourance is life; and his favour is as a cloud of the latter rain.

16 How much better is it to get wisdom than gold! and to get understanding rather to be chosen than silver!

17 The highway of the upright is to depart from evil: he that keepeth his way preserveth his soul.

18 Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall.

19 Better it is to be of an humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud.

20 He that handleth a matter wisely shall find good: and whose trust-eth in the Lord, happy is he.

21 The wise in heart shall be called prudent: and the sweetness of the lips increaseth learning.

22 Understanding is a wellspring of life unto him that hath it: but the instruction of fools is folly.

23 The heart of the wise teacheth his mouth, and addeth learning to his lips.

24 Pleasant words are as a honeycomb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.

25 There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.

26 He that laboureth laboureth for himself; for his mouth craveth it of him.

27 An ungodly man diggeth up evil: and in his lips there is as a burning fire.

28 A froward man soweth strife:

and a whisperer separateth chief friends.

29 A violent man enticeth his neighbour, and leadeth him into the way that is not good.

30 He shutteth his eyes to devise froward things: moving his lips he bringeth evil to pass.

31 The hoary head is a crown of glory, if it be found in the way of righteousness.

32 He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city.

33 The lot is cast into the lap; but the whole disposing thereof is of the Lord.

CHAPTER XVII.

BETTER is a dry morsel, and quietness therewith, than an house full of sacrifices with strife.

2 A wise servant shall have rule over a son that causeth shame, and shall have part of the inheritance among the brethren.

3 The firing pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold: but the Lord trieth the hearts.

4 A wicked doer giveth heed to false lips; and a liar giveth ear to a naughty tongue.

5 Whoso mocketh the poor reproacheth his Maker: and he that is glad at calamities shall not be unpunished.

6 Children's children are the crown of old men; and the glory of children are their fathers.

7 Excellent speech becometh not a fool: much less do lying lips a prince.

8 A gift is as a precious stone in the eyes of him that hath it: whithsoever it turneth, it prospereth.

9 He that covereth a transgression seeketh love; but he that repenteth a matter separateth very friends.

10 A reproof entereth more into a wise man than an hundred stripes into a fool.

11 An evil man seeketh only rebellion: therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent against him.

12 Let a bear robbed of her whelps meet a man, rather than a fool in his folly.

13 Whoso rewardeth evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house.

14 The beginning of strife is as when one letteth out water: therefore leave off contention, before it be meddled with.

15 He that justifieth the wicked, and he that condemneth the just, even they both are abomination to
the Lord.

16 Wherefore is there a price in the hand of a fool to get wisdom, seeing he hath no heart to it?

17 A friend loveth at all times, and a brother is born for adversity.

18 A man void of understanding strieth hands, and becometh surety in the presence of his friend.

19 He loveth transgression that loveth strife: and he that exalteth his gate seeketh destruction.

20 He that hath a froward heart findeth no good: and he that hath a perverse tongue falleth into mischief.

21 He that begetteth a fool doeth it to his sorrow: and the father of a fool hath no joy.

22 A merry heart doeth good like a medicine: but a broken spirit drieth the bones.

23 A wicked man taketh a gift out of the bosom to pervert the ways of judgment.

24 Wisdom is before him that hath understanding: but the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth.

25 A foolish son is a grief to his father, and bitterness to her that bare him.

26 Also to punish the just is not good, nor to strike princes for equity.

27 He that hath knowledge spareth his words: and a man of understanding is of an excellent spirit.

28 Even a fool, when he holdeth his peace, is counted wise: and he that shutteth his lips is esteemed a man of understanding.

CHAPTER XVIII.

THROUGH desire a man, having separated himself, seeketh and intermeddles with all wisdom.

2 A fool hath no delight in understanding, but that his heart may discover itself.

3 When the wicked cometh, then cometh also contempt, and with ignominous reproach.

4 The words of a man's mouth are as deep waters, and the wellspring of wisdom as a flowing brook.

5 It is not good to accept the person of the wicked, to overthrow the righteous in judgment.

6 A fool's lips enter into contention, and his mouth calleth for strokes.

7 A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are the snare of his soul.

8 The words of a talebearer are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.

9 He also that is slothful in his work is brother to him that is a great waster.

10 The name of the LORD is a strong tower: the righteous runneth into it, and is safe.

11 The rich man's wealth is his strong city, and as an high wall in his own conceit.

12 Before destruction the heart of man is haughty, and before honour is humility.

13 He that answereth a matter before he heareth it, it is folly and shame unto him.

14 The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity; but a wounded spirit who can bear?

15 The heart of the prudent getteth knowledge; and the ear of the wise seeketh knowledge.

16 A man's gift maketh room for him, and bringeth him before great men.

17 He that is first in his own cause seemeth just; but his neighbour cometh and searcheth him.

18 The lot causeth contentions to cease, and parteth between the mighty.

19 A brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city: and their contentions are like the bars of a castle.

20 A man's belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth; and with the increase of his lips shall he be filled.

21 Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.

22 Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favour of the LORD.

23 The poor useth intreaties; but the rich answereth roughly.

24 A man that hath friends must show himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.

CHAPTER XIX.

BETTER is the poor that walk-eth in his integrity, than he that is perverse in his lips, and is a fool.

2 Also, that the soul be without knowledge, it is not good; and he that hasteth with his feet sinneth.

3 The foolishness of man perverteth his way: and his heart fretteth against the LORD.

4 Wealth maketh many friends; but the poor is separated from his neighbour.

5 A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall not escape.

6 Many will intreat the favour of the prince: and every man is a friend to him that giveth gifts.

7 All the brethren of the poor do hate him: how much more do his friends go far from him? he persueth them with words, yet they are wanton to him.

8 He that getteth wisdom loveth his own soul: he that keepeth understanding shall find good.

9 A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall perish.

over princes.

derstand knowledge.

26 He that wasteth his father, and chasteth away his mother, is * a son that causeth shame, and bringeth reproach.

27 Cease, my son, to hear the instruction that causeth to err from the words of knowledge.

28 * An ungodly witness scorneth judgment: and * the mouth of the wicked devoureth iniquity.

29 Judgments are prepared for scorners, * and stripes for the back of fools.

CHAPTER XX.

WINE * is a mocker, strong drink is raging; and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.

2 * The fear of a king is as the roaring of a lion: * whoso provoketh him to anger * sinneth against his own soul.

3 * It is an honour for a man to cease from strife: but every fool will be meddling.

4 * The sluggard will not plow by reason of the * cold; * therefore shall he beg in harvest, and have nothing.

5 * Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water; but a man of understanding will draw it out.

6 * Most men will proclaim every one his own * goodness: but * a faithful man who can find?

7 * The just man walketh in his integrity: * his children are blessed after him.

8 * A king that sitteth in the throne of judgment scattereth away all evil with his eyes.

9 * Who can say, I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin?

10 * Divers weights, and * divers measures, both of them are alike abomination to the LORD.

11 Even a child is * known by his doings, whether his work be pure, and whether it be right.

12 * The hearing ear, and the seeing eye, the LORD hath made even both of them.

13 * Love not sleep, lest thou come to poverty; open thine eyes, and thou shalt be satisfied with bread.

14 It is naught, it is naught, saith the buyer: but when he is gone his way, then he boasteth.

15 There is gold, and a multitude of rubies: but * the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel.

16 * Take his garment that is surety for a stranger: and take a pledge of him for a strange woman.

17 * * Bread of deceit is sweet to a man; but afterwards his mouth shall be filled with gravel.

18 * Every purpose is established by counsel: * and with good advice make war.

19 * He that goeth about as a tale-bearer revealeth secrets: therefore meddle not with him * that * flatter-eth with his lips.

20 * Whoso curseth his father or his mother, * his * lamp shall be put out in obscure darkness.

21 * An inheritance may be gotten hastily at the beginning; * but the end thereof shall not be blessed.

22 * Say not thou, I will recompense evil; but * wait on the LORD, and he shall save thee.

23 * Divers weights are an abomination unto the LORD; and * a false balance is not good.

24 * Man's goings are of the LORD; how can a man then understand his own way?

25 It is a snare to the man who devoureth that which is holy, and
* after vows to make enquiry.

26 * A wise king scattereth the wicked, and bringeth the wheel over them.

27 * The spirit of man is the * candle of the LORD, searching all the inward parts of the belly.

23 "Mercy and truth preserve the king: and his throne is upholden by mercy.

29 The glory of young men is their strength; and "the beauty of old men is the grey head.

30 The blueness of a wound "cleanseth away evil: so do stripes the inward parts of the belly.

CHAPTER XXI.

THE king's heart is in the hand of the LORD, as the rivers of water: he turneth it whithersoever he will.

2 "Every way of a man is right in his own eyes: "but the LORD pondereth the hearts.

3 "To do justice and judgment is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.

4 "An high look, and a proud heart, and "the plowing of the wicked, is sin.

5 "The thoughts of the diligent tend only to plenteousness; but of every one that is hasty only to want.

6 "The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a vanity tossed to and fro of them that seek death.

7 The robbery of the wicked shall "destroy them; because they refuse to do judgment.

8 The way of man is froward and strange: but as for the pure, his work is right.

9 "It is better to dwell in a corner of the house-top, than with "a brawling woman in "a wide house.

10 "The soul of the wicked desireth evil: his neighbour "findeth no favour in his eyes.

11 "When the scorner is punished, the simple is made wise: and when the wise is instructed, he receiveth knowledge.

12 The righteous man wisely considereth the house of the wicked: but God overthroweth the wicked for their wickedness.

13 "Whoso stoppeth his ears at the cry of the poor, he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard.

14 "A gift in secret pacifieth anger: and a reward in the bosom strong wrath.

15 It is joy to the just to do judgment: "but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

16 The man that wandereth out of the way of understanding shall remain in the congregation of the dead.

17 He that loveth "pleasure shall be a poor man: he that loveth wine and oil shall not be rich.

18 "The wicked shall be a ransom for the righteous, and the transgressor for the upright.

19 "It is better to dwell "in the wilderness, than with a contentious and an angry woman.

20 "There is treasure to be desired and oil in the dwelling of the wise; but a foolish man spendeth it up.

21 "He that followeth after righteousness and mercy findeth life, righteousness, and honour.

22 "A wise man scaleth the city of the mighty, and casteth down the strength of the confidence thereof.

23 "Whoso keepeth his mouth and his tongue keepeth his soul from troubles.

24 Proud and haughty scorner is his name, who dealeth "in proud wrath.

25 "The desire of the slothful killeth him; for his hands refuse to labour.

26 He coveteth greedily all the day long: but the "righteous giveth and spareth not.

27 "The sacrifice of the wicked is abomination: how much more, when he bringeth it "with a wicked mind?

28 "A false witness shall perish: but the man that heareth speaketh constantly.

29 A wicked man hardeneth his face: but as for the upright, he "directeth his way.

30 "There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against the LORD.

31 "The horse is prepared against the day of battle: but "safety is of the LORD.

CHAPTER XXII.

A "GOOD name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and "loving favour rather than silver and gold.

2 "The rich and poor meet together: "the LORD is the maker of them all.

3 "A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself: but the simple pass on, and are punished.

4 "By humility and the fear of the LORD are riches, and honour, and life.

5 "Thorns and snares are in the way of the froward: "he that doth keep his soul shall be far from them.

6 "Train up a child "in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it.

7 "The rich ruleth over the poor, and the borrower is servant "to the lender.

8 "He that soweth iniquity shall reap vanity: "and the rod of his anger shall fall.

9 "He that hath a bountiful eye shall be blessed; and he giveth of his bread to the poor.

10 "Cast out the scorner, and contention shall go out; yea, strife and reproach shall cease.

11 "He that loveth pureness of heart, "for the grace of his lips the king shall be his friend.

12 The eyes of the LORD preserve knowledge, and he overthroweth "the works of the transgressor.

13 "The slothful man saith, There is a lion without, I shall be slain in the streets.

of a child; ²but ³the rod of correction shall drive it far from him.

16 He that oppresseth the poor to increase his riches, ⁴and he that giveth to the rich, ⁵shall surely come to want.

17 Bow down thine ear, and hear the words of the wise, and apply thine heart unto my knowledge.

18 For ⁶it is a pleasant thing if thou keep them ²within thee; they shall withal be fitted in thy lips.

19 That thy trust may be in the Lord, I have made known to thee this day, ³even to thee.

20 Have not I written to thee ⁴excellent things in counsels and knowledge.

21 *That I might make thee know the certainty of the words of truth;
*that thou mightest answer the words of truth ⁴to them that send unto thee?

22 *Rob not the poor, because ⁵he is poor: ⁶neither oppress the afflicted in the gate:

23 *For the Lord will plead their cause, and spoil the soul of those that spoiled them.

24 Make no friendship with an angry man; and with a furious man thou shalt not go:

25 Lest thou learn his ways, and get a snare to thy soul.

26 *Be not thou one of them that sureties for debts.

27 If thou hast nothing to pay, why should he ⁶take away thy bed from under thee?

28 *Remove not the ancient ⁵landmark, which thy fathers have set.

29 Seest thou a man diligent in his business? he shall stand before kings;
he shall not stand before ⁶mean men.

CHAPTER XXIII.

WHEN thou sittest to eat with a ruler, consider diligently what is before thee:

2 And put a knife to thy throat, if thou be a man given to appetite.

3 Be not desirous of his dainties:
for they are deceitful meat.

4 *Labour not to be rich: ⁵cease from thine own wisdom.

5 *Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not? for ⁶riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away as an eagle toward heaven.

6 *Eat thou not the bread of him that hath ⁴an evil eye, neither desire thou his dainty meats:

7 For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he: Eat and drink, ⁵saith he to thee; but his heart is not with thee.

8 The morsel which thou hast eaten shalt thou vomit up, and lose thy sweet words.

9 *Speak not in the ears of a fool:
for he will despise the wisdom of thy words.

10 *Remove not the old ²landmark; and enter not into the fields of the fatherless:

11 *For their redeemer is mighty;
he shall plead their cause with thee.

12 Apply thine heart unto instruction, and thine ears to the words of knowledge.

13 *Withhold not correction from the child: for ⁴if thou beatest him with the rod, he shall not die.

14 Thou shalt beat him with the rod, and ⁵shalt deliver his soul from hell.

15 My son, ⁴if thine heart be wise, my heart shall rejoice, ³even mine.

16 Yea, my reins shall rejoice, when thy lips speak right things.

17 *²Let not thine heart envy sinners: but ³*be thou in the fear of the Lord all the day long.

18 *For surely there is an ⁴end; and thine expectation shall not be cut off.

19 Hear thou, my son, and be wise, and ²guide thine heart in the way.

20 *Be not among winebibbers; among riotous eaters ⁵of flesh:

21 For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty: and ⁶drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags.

22 *Hearken unto thy father that begat thee, and despise not thy mother when she is old.

23 *Buy the truth, and sell it not;
also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding.

24 *The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice: and he that begetteth a wise child shall have joy of him.

25 Thy father and thy mother shall be glad, and she that bare thee shall rejoice.

26 My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways.

27 *For a whore is a deep ditch; pit.

28 *She also lieth in wait ⁶as for a

2 ^c For their heart studieth destruction, and their lips talk of mischief.

3 Through wisdom is an house builded; and by understanding it is established:

4 And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches.

5 ^d A wise man ^e is strong; yea, a man of knowledge ^f increaseth strength.

6 ^g For by wise counsel thou shalt make thy war; and in multitude of counsellors there is safety.

7 Wisdom is too high for a fool: he openeth not his mouth in the gate.

8 He that ^h deviseth to do evil shall be called a mischievous person.

9 The thought of foolishness is sin: and the scorner is an abomination to men.

10 If thou faint in the day of adversity, thy strength is small.

11 ⁱ If thou forbear to deliver them that are drawn unto death, and those that are ready to be slain;

12 If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not ^j he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it?

and shall not he render to every man ^k according to his works?

13 My son, eat thou honey, because it is good; and the honeycomb, which is sweet ^l to thy taste:

14 ^m So shall the knowledge of wisdom be unto thy soul: when thou hast found ⁿ it, then there shall be a reward, and thy expectation shall not be cut off.

15 ^o Lay not wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the righteous; spoil not his resting place:

16 ^p For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: ^q but the wicked shall fall into mischief.

17 Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth, and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth:

18 Lest the Lord see it, and ^r it displease him, and he turn away his wrath from him.

19 ^s Fret not thyself because of evil men, neither be thou envious at the wicked;

20 For ^t there shall be no reward to the evil man; ^u the ^v candle of the wicked shall be put out.

21 My son, ^w fear thou the Lord and the king: and meddle not with ^x them that are given to change:

22 For their calamity shall rise suddenly; and who knoweth the ruin of them both?

23 These things also belong to the wise. ^y It is not good to have respect of persons in judgment.

24 ^z He that saith unto the wicked, Thou art righteous; him shall the people curse, nations shall abhor him:

25 But to them that rebuke him shall be delight, and ^a a good blessing shall come upon them.

26 Every man shall kiss his lips ^b that giveth a right answer.

27 ^c Prepare thy work without, and make it fit for thyself in the field; and afterwards build thine house.

28 ^d Be not a witness against thy neighbour without cause; and deceive not with thy lips.

29 ^e Say not, I will do so to him as he hath done to me: I will render to the man according to his work.

30 I went by the field of the slothful, and by the vineyard of the man void of understanding;

31 And, lo, ^f it was all grown over with thorns, and nettles had covered the face thereof, and the stone wall thereof was broken down.

32 Then I saw, and ^g considered it well: I looked upon it, and received instruction.

33 ^h Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:

34 So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth; and thy want as ⁱ an armed man.

CHAPTER XXV.

1 Observations about kings, 8 and about avoiding causes of quarrels, and sundry causes thereof.

^a THESE are also proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out.

2 ^b It is the glory of God to conceal a thing: but the honour of kings is to search out a matter.

3 The heaven for height, and the earth for depth, and the heart of kings ^c is unsearchable.

4 Take away the dross from the silver, and there shall come forth a vessel for the finer.

5 Take away the wicked from before the king, and his throne shall be established in righteousness.

6 Put not forth thyself in the presence of the king, and stand not in the place of great men:

7 For better ^d it is that he said unto thee, Come up hither; than that thou shouldest be put lower in the presence of the prince whom thine eyes have seen.

8 Go not forth hastily to strive, lest thou know not what to do in the end thereof, when thy neighbour hath put thee to shame.

9 ¹ Debate thy cause with thy neighbour himself; and ² discover not a secret to another:

10 Lest he that heareth it put thee to shame, and thine infamy turn not away.

11 ¹ A word ² fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver.

12 As an earring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, so is a wise reprover upon an obedient ear.

13 ¹ As the cold of snow in the time of harvest, so is a faithful messenger to them that send him: for he refresheth the soul of his masters.

14 ¹ Whoso boasteth himself ² of a false gift is like ³ clouds and wind without rain.

15 ¹ By long forbearing is a prince persuaded, and a soft tongue breaketh the bone.

16 ¹ Hast thou found honey? eat so much as is sufficient for thee, lest thou be filled therewith, and vomit it.

17 ¹ Withdraw thy foot from thy neighbour's house; lest he be weary of thee, and so hate thee.

18 ¹ A man that beareth false witness against his neighbour is a maul, and a sword, and a sharp arrow.

19 Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint.

20 As he that taketh away a garment in cold weather, and as vinegar upon nitre, so is he that ² singeth songs to an heavy heart.

21 ¹ If thine enemy be hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he be thirsty, give him water to drink:

22 For thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head, and the Lord shall reward thee.

23 ¹ The north wind driveth away rain: so doth an angry countenance ² a backbiting tongue.

24 ¹ It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop, than with a brawling woman and in a wide house.

25 As cold waters to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country.

26 A righteous man falling down before the wicked is as a troubled fountain, and a corrupt spring.

27 ¹ It is not good to eat much honey: so for men ² to search their own glory is not glory.

28 ¹ He that hath no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down, and without walls.

CHAPTER XXVI.

1 Observations about fools, 13 about sluggards, 17 and about contentious busybodies.

AS snow in summer, ² and as rain in harvest, so honour is not seemly for a fool.

2 As the bird by wandering, as the swallow by flying, so ² the curse causeless shall not come.

3 ¹ A whip for the horse, a bridle for the ass, and a rod for the fool's back.

4 Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest thou also be like unto him.

5 ¹ Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in ² his own conceit.

6 He that sendeth a message by the hand of a fool cutteth off the feet, and drinketh ² damage.

7 The legs of the lame ⁴ are not equal: so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

8 ¹ As he that bindeth a stone in a sling, so is he that glyeth honour to a fool.

9 As a thorn goeth up into the hand of a drunkard, so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

10 ¹ The great God that formed all things both rewardeth the fool, and rewardeth transgressors.

11 ¹ As a dog returneth to his vomit, so a fool ² returneth to his folly.

12 ¹ Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope of a fool than of him.

13 ¹ The slothful man saith, There is a lion in the way; a lion is in the streets.

14 As the deer turneth upon his hinges, so doth the slothful upon his bed.

15 ¹ The slothful hideth his hand in his bosom; ² it grieveth him to bring it again to his mouth.

16 The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit than seven men that can render a reason.

17 He that putteth by, and ² meddeth with strife belonging not to him, is like one that taketh a dog by the ears.

18 As a mad man who casteth ² firebrands, arrows, and death, 19 So is the man that deceiveth his neighbour, and saith, ² Am not I in sport?

20 Where no wood is, there the fire goeth out: so ² where there is no talebearer, the strife ³ ceaseth.

21 ¹ As coals are to burning coals, and wood to fire; so is a contentious man to kindle strife.

22 ¹ The words of a talebearer are as wounds, and they go down into the ² innermost parts of the belly.

23 Burning lips and a wicked heart are like a potsherd covered with silver dross.

24 He that hateth ² dissembleth with his lips, and layeth up deceit within him;

25 ¹ When he ² speaketh fair, believe him not: for there are seven abominations in his heart.

26 ¹ Whose ² hatred is covered by deceit, his wickedness shall be shewed before the whole congregation.

23 A lying tongue hateth those that are afflicted by it ; and a flattering mouth worketh ruin.

CHAPTER XXVII.

1 Observations of selflove. 5 of true love. 11 of care to avoid offences, 23 and of the household care.

BOAST ¹not thyself of ²to morrow ; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth.

2 ⁶Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth ; a stranger, and not thine own lips.

3 A stone ^{is} heavy, and the sand weighty ; but a fool's wrath ^{is} heavier than them both.

4 ⁴Wrath ^{is} cruel, and anger ^{is} outrageous ; but ^cwho ^{is} able to stand before ⁵envy ?

5 ⁴Open rebuke ^{is} better than secret love.

6 ⁶Faithful ^{are} the wounds of a friend ; but the kisses of an enemy ^{are} deceitful.

7 The full soul ⁷loatheth an honey-comb ; but ⁷to the hungry soul every bitter thing ^{is} sweet.

8 As a bird that wandereth from her nest, so ^{is} a man that wandereth from his place.

9 Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart : so ^{doth} the sweetness of a man's friend ⁸by hearty counsel.

10 Thine own friend, and thy father's friend, forsake not ; neither go into thy brother's house in the day of thy calamity : for ^abetter ^{is} a neighbour ^{that is} near than a brother far off.

11 ⁴My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, ⁴that I may answer him that reproacheth me.

12 ⁴A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself ; but the simple pass on, and are punished.

13 ⁴Take his garment that is surety for a stranger, and take a pledge of him for a strange woman.

14 He that bleaseth his friend with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, it shall be counted a curse to him.

15 ⁴A continual dropping in a very rainy day and a contentious woman are alike.

16 Whosoever hideth her hideth the wind, and the ointment of his right hand, ^{which} bewrayeth ^{itself}.

17 Iron sharpeneth iron ; so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend.

18 ⁴Whoso keepeth the fig tree shall eat the fruit thereof : so he that waiteth on his master shall be honoured.

19 As in water face answereth to face, so the heart of man to man.

20 ⁶Hell and destruction ^{are} never full ; so ²the eyes of man ^{are} never satisfied.

21 ⁴As the firing pot for silver, and the furnace for gold ; so ^{is} a man to his praise.

22 ⁴Though thou shouldst bray a fool in a mortar among wheat with a pestle, ^{yet} will not his foolishness depart from him.

23 Be thou diligent to know the state of thy flocks, and ²look well to thy herds.

24 For ³riches ^{are} not for ever : and doth the crown ^{endure} ⁴to every generation ?

25 ⁴The hay appeareth, and the tender grass sheweth itself, and herbs of the mountains are gathered.

26 The lambs ^{are} for thy clothing, and the goats ^{are} the price of the field.

27 And ^{thou shalt have} goats' milk enough for thy food, for the food of thy household, and for the ⁵maintenance for thy maidens.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

General observations of impiety and religious integrity.

THE ⁴wicked flee when no man pursueth : but the righteous are bold as a lion.

2 For the transgression of a land many ^{are} the princes thereof : but ⁶by a man of understanding and knowledge the state ^{thereof} shall be prolonged.

3 ⁴A poor man that oppresseth the poor ^{is like} a sweeping rain ⁷which leaveth no food.

4 ⁴They that forsake the law praise the wicked : ⁴but such as keep the law contend with them.

5 ⁴Evil men understand not judgment : but ⁷they that seek the LORD understand all ^{things}.

6 ⁶Better ^{is} the poor that walketh in his uprightness, than ^{he that is} perverse ^{in his} ways, though he be rich.

7 ⁴Whoso keepeth the law ^{is} a wise son : but he that ^{is} a companion of riotous men shameth his father.

8 ⁴He that by usury and ⁹unjust gain increaseth his substance, he shall gather it for him that will pity the poor.

9 ⁴He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, ^{even} his prayer shall be abomination.

10 ⁴Whoso causeth the righteous to go astray in an evil way, he shall fall himself into his own pit : ⁴but the upright shall have good ^{things} in possession.

11 The rich man ^{is} wise ²in his own conceit ; but the poor that hath understanding searcheth him out.

12 ⁴When righteous men do rejoice, ^{there is} great glory : but when the wicked rise, a man ^{is} hidden.

13 ⁴He that covereth his sins shall not prosper : but whoso confesseth and forsaketh ^{them} shall have mercy.

14 Happy ^{is} the man ²that feareth a man of always: ¹but he that hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief.

15 ¹As a roaring lion, and a ranging bear: ²so is a wicked ruler over the poor people.

16 The prince that wanteth understanding is also a great oppressor: ³but he that hateth covetousness shall prolong his days.

17 ⁴A man that doeth violence to the blood of any person shall flee to the pit; let no man stay him.

18 ⁵Whoso walketh uprightly shall be saved: but ⁶he that is perverse in his ways shall fall at once.

19 ⁷He that tilleth his land shall have plenty of bread: but he that followeth after vain persons shall have poverty enough.

20 A faithful man shall abound with blessings: ⁸but he that maketh haste to be rich shall not be ⁹innocent.

21 ¹⁰To have respect of persons is not good: for ¹¹for a piece of bread that man will transgress.

22 ¹²He that hasteth to be rich hath an evil eye, and considereth not that poverty shall come upon him.

23 ¹³He that rebuketh a man afterwards shall find more favour than he that flattereth with the tongue.

24 Whoso robbeth his father or his mother, and saith, It is no transgression; the same ¹⁴is the companion of ¹⁵a destroyer.

25 ¹⁶He that is of a proud heart stirreth up strife: ¹⁷but he that putteth his trust in the Lord shall be made fat.

26 He that trusteth in his own heart is a fool: but whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered.

27 ¹⁸He that giveth unto the poor shall not lack: but he that hideth his eyes shall have many a curse.

28 ¹⁹When the wicked rise, ²⁰men hide themselves: but when they perish, the righteous increase.

CHAPTER XXIX.

1 Observations of ungodly government. 15 and of private. 22 Of anger, pride, thievary, covardice, and corruption.

5 ¹HE, that being often reproved hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

2 ²When the righteous are ³in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked beareth rule, ⁴the people mourn.

3 ⁵Whoso loveth wisdom rejoiceth his father: ⁶but he that keepeth company with harlots spendeth his substance.

4 The king by judgment establisheth the land: but he that receiveth gifts overthroweth it.

5 A man that flattereth his neighbour spreadeth a net for his feet.

6 In the transgression of an evil man there is a snare: but the righteous doth sing and rejoice.

7 ⁷The righteous considereth the cause of the poor: but the wicked regardeth not to know it.

8 ⁸Scornful men ⁹bring a city into a snare: but wise men ¹⁰turn away wrath.

9 ¹¹If a wise man contendeth with a foolish man, ¹²whether he rage or laugh, there is no rest.

10 ¹³The bloodthirsty hate the upright: but the just seek his soul.

11 A ¹⁴fool uttereth all his mind: but a wise man keepeth it in till afterwards.

12 If a ruler hearken to lies, all his servants are wicked.

13 The poor and the deceitful man ¹⁵meet together: ¹⁶the Lord lighteneth both their eyes.

14 ¹⁷The king that ¹⁸faithfully judgeth the poor, his throne shall be established for ever.

15 ¹⁹The rod and reproof give wisdom: but ²⁰a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame.

16 When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increaseth: ²¹but the righteous shall see their fall.

17 ²²Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest; yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul.

18 ²³Where there is no vision, the people ²⁴perish: but ²⁵he that keepeth the law, happy is he.

19 A servant will not be corrected by words: for though he understand he will not answer.

20 Seest thou a man that is hasty ²⁶in his words? ²⁷there is more hope of a fool than of him.

21 He that delicately bringeth up his servant from a child shall have him become his son at the length.

22 ²⁸An angry man stirreth up strife, and a furious man aboundeth in transgression.

23 ²⁹A man's pride shall bring him low: but honour shall uphold the humble in spirit.

24 Whoso is partner with a thief hateth his own soul: ³⁰he heareth cursing, and bewrayeth it not.

25 ³¹The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the Lord ³²shall be safe.

26 ³³Many seek ³⁴the ruler's favour: but every man's judgment cometh from the Lord.

27 An unjust man is an abomination to the just: and he that is upright in the way is abomination to the wicked.

THE words of Agur the son of Jukeh, even ¹the prophecy: the man spake unto Ithiel, even unto Ithiel and Ucal,

2 ²Surely I am more brutish than any man, and have not the understanding of a man.

3 I neither learned wisdom, nor ³have the knowledge of the holy.

4 ⁴Who hath ascended up into heaven, or descended? ⁴who hath gathered the wind in his fists? who hath bound the waters in a garment? who hath established all the ends of the earth? what is his name, and what is his son's name, if thou canst tell?

5 ⁵Every word of God is ⁵pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.

6 ⁶Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.

7 Two things have I required of thee; ⁷deny me them not before I die:

8 Remove far from me vanity and lies; give me neither poverty nor riches; ⁸a feed me with food ⁸convenient for me:

9 ⁹Lest I be full, and ⁹deny thee, and say, Who is the LORD? or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the name of my God in vain.

10 ¹⁰Accuse not a servant unto his master, lest he curse thee, and thou be found guilty.

11 There is a generation that curseth their father, and doth not bless their mother.

12 There is a generation ¹²that are pure in their own eyes, and yet is not washed from their filthiness.

13 There is a generation, O how ¹³lofty are their eyes! and their eyelids are lifted up.

14 ¹⁴*There is* a generation, whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw teeth as knives, ¹⁴to devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men.

15 The horseleach hath two daughters, crying, Give, give. There are three things that are never satisfied, ¹⁵yea, four things say not, ¹⁵It is enough:

16 ¹⁶The grave; and the barren womb; the earth that is not filled with water; and the fire that saith not, ¹⁶It is enough.

17 ¹⁷The eye that mocketh at his father, and despoileth to obey his mother, the ravens of ¹⁷the valley shall pick it out, and the young eagles shall eat it.

18 There be three things which are too wonderful for me, yea, four which I know not:

19 The way of an eagle in the air; the way of a serpent upon a rock; the way of a ship in the ¹⁹midst of the sea; and the way of a man with a maid.

20 Such is the way of an adulterous woman; she eateth, and wipeh her mouth, and saith, I have done no wickedness.

21 For three things the earth is disquieted, and for four which it cannot bear:

22 ²²For a servant when he reigneth; and a fool when he is filled with meat;

23 For an odious woman when she is married; and an handmaid that is heir to her mistress.

24 There be four things which are little upon the earth, but they are ²⁴exceeding wise:

25 ²⁵The ants are a people not strong, yet they prepare their meat in the summer;

26 ²⁶The conies are but a feeble folk, yet make they their houses in the rocks;

27 The locusts have no king, yet go they forth all of them ²⁷by bands;

28 The spider taketh hold with her hands, and is in king's palaces.

29 There be three things which go well, yea, four are comely in going:

30 A lion which is strongest among beasts, and turneth not away for any;

31 A ³¹greyhound; an he goat also; and a king, against whom there is no rising up.

32 If thou hast done foolishly in lifting up thyself, or if thou hast thought evil, ³²lay thine hand upon thy mouth.

33 Surely the churning of milk bringeth forth butter, and the wringing of the nose bringeth forth blood: so the forcing of wrath bringeth forth strife.

CHAPTER XXXI.

1 Lemuel's lesson of chastity and temperance. 6 The afflicted are to be comforted and defended. 10 The praise and properties of a good wife.

THE words of king Lemuel, ¹the prophecy that his mother taught him.

2 What, my son? and what, ²the son of my womb? and what, the son of my vows?

3 ³Give not thy strength unto women, nor thy ways ³to that which destroyeth kings.

4 ⁴It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine; nor for princes strong drink:

5 ⁵Lest they drink, and forget the law, and ⁵pervert the judgment ⁵of any of the afflicted.

6 ⁶Give strong drink unto him that is ready to perish, and wine unto those that be ⁶of heavy hearts.

7 Let him drink, and forget his poverty, and remember his misery no more.

8 ⁸Open thy mouth for the dumb ⁸in the cause of all ⁸such as are appointed to destruction.

9 Open thy mouth, ⁹judge righteously, and ⁹plead the cause of the poor and needy.

17 ^P And I gave my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly: I perceived that this also is vexation of spirit.

18 For ^Q in much wisdom ^{is} much grief: and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow.

CHAPTER II.

1 The vanity of human courses is the works of pleasure. 12 Though the wise be better than the fool, yet both have one event. 18 The vanity of human labour, in leaving it they know not to whom. 24 Nothing better than joy in our labour; but that is God's gift.

^A I SAID in mine heart, Go to now, I will prove thee with mirth, therefore enjoy pleasure: and, behold, ^h this also ^{is} vanity.

2 ^C I said of laughter, It is mad: and of mirth, What doeth it?

3 ^I I sought in mine heart ² to give myself unto wine, yet acquainting mine heart with wisdom; and to lay hold on folly, till I might see what ^{was} that good for the sons of men, which they should do under the heaven ³ all the days of their life.

4 I made me great works; I builded me houses; I planted me vineyards:

5 I made me gardens and orchards, and I planted trees in them of all kind of fruits:

6 I made me pools of water, to water therewith the wood that bringeth forth trees:

7 I got me servants and maidens, and had ⁴ servants born in my house; also I had great possessions of great and small cattle above all that were in Jerusalem before me:

8 ^I I gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces: I gat me men singers and women singers, and the delights of the sons of men, as ⁵ musical instruments, and that of all sorts.

9 So ^I I was great, and increased more than all that were before me in Jerusalem: also my wisdom remained with me.

10 And whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them, I withheld not my heart from any joy; for my heart rejoiced in all my labour: and ⁷ this was my portion of all my labour.

11 Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do: and, behold, all ^{was} ^h vanity and vexation of spirit, and ^{there} ^{was} no profit under the sun.

12 [¶] And I turned myself to behold wisdom, ⁴ and madness, and folly: for what ^{can} the man do that cometh after the king? ⁶ ^{even} that which hath been already done.

13 Then I saw ⁷ that wisdom excelleth folly, as far as light excelleth darkness.

14 [¶] The wise man's eyes ^{are} in his head; but the fool walketh in darkness: and I myself perceived also that ¹ one event happeneth to them all.

15 Then said I in my heart, As it happeneth to the fool, so it ² happeneth even to me; and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also ^{is} vanity.

16 For ^{there} ^{is} no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool for ever; seeing that which now ^{is} in the days to come shall all be forgotten. And how dieth the wise ^{man}? as the fool.

17 Therefore I hated life; because the work that is wrought under the sun ^{is} grievous unto me: for all ^{is} vanity and vexation of spirit.

18 [¶] Yea, I hated all my labour which I had ³ taken under the sun: because ⁴ I should leave it unto the man that shall be after me.

19 And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise ^{man} or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have shewed myself wise under the sun. This ^{is} also vanity.

20 Therefore I went about to cause my heart to despair of all the labour which I took under the sun.

21 For there is a man whose labour ^{is} in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in equity; yet to a man that hath not laboured therein shall he ⁴ leave it for his portion. This also ^{is} vanity and a great evil.

22 [¶] For what hath man of all his labour, and of the vexation of his heart, wherein he hath laboured under the sun?

23 For all his days ^{are} ⁶ sorrows, and his travail grief: yea, his heart taketh not rest in the night. This ^{is} also vanity.

24 [¶] ^P ^{There} ^{is} nothing better for a man, ^{than} that he should eat and drink, and ^{that} he ⁵ should make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, that it ^{was} from the hand of God.

25 For who can eat, or who else can hasten ^{hereunto}, more than I?

26 For God giveth to a man that ^{is} good ⁶ in his sight wisdom, and knowledge, and joy: but to the sinner he giveth travail, to gather and to heap up, that ⁹ he may give to ^{him} that ^{is} good before God. This also ^{is} vanity and vexation of spirit.

CHAPTER III.

1 By the necessary change of times, vanity is added to human travail. 11 There is an excellency in God's works. 16 But as for man, God shall judge his works there, and here he shall be like a beast.

9 What profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he labourereth?

10 ⁶I have seen the travail, which God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised in it.11 He hath made every thing beautiful in his time: also he hath set the world in their heart, so that ⁷no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end.12 ⁴I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life.13 And also ⁸that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labour, it is the gift of God.14 I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: ⁹nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it: and God doeth it, that men should fear before him.15 ¹⁰That which hath been is now; and that which is to be hath already been; and God requireth ⁶that which is past.16 ¹¹And moreover ¹¹I saw under the sun the place of judgment, that wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there.17 I said in mine heart, ¹²God shall judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is ¹²a time there for every purpose and for every work.18 I said in mine heart concerning the estate of the sons of men, ¹³that God might manifest them, and that they might see that they themselves are beasts.19 ¹⁴For that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts; even one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth, so dieth the other: yea, they have all one breath; so that a man hath no preeminence above a beast: for all is vanity.20 All go unto one place; ¹⁵all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again.21 ¹⁶Who knoweth the spirit ⁷of manthat ²goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast that goeth downward to the earth?22 ¹⁷Wherefore I perceive that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his own works; for ¹⁸that is his portion: ¹⁹for who shall bring him to see what shall be after him?

CHAPTER IV.

1 Vanity is increased unto men by oppression, 4 by envy, 6 by idleness, 7 by covetousness, 9 by selfishness, 13 by selfishness.

SO I returned, and considered all ²⁰the ²⁰oppressions that are done under the sun: and behold the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the ²¹side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter.2 ²²Wherefore I praised the dead which are already dead more than the living which are yet alive.3 ²³Yea, better is he than both they, which hath not yet been, who hath not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.4 ²⁴Again, I considered all travail, and ²⁵every right work, that ²⁶for this a man is envied of his neighbour. This is also vanity and vexation of spirit.5 ²⁷The fool foldeth his hands together, and catcheth his own flesh.6 ²⁸Better is an handful with quietness, than both the hands full with travail and vexation of spirit.7 ²⁹Then I returned, and I saw vanity under the sun.8 There is one alone, and there is not a second; yea, he hath neither child nor brother: yet is there no end of all his labour; neither is his ³⁰eye satisfied with riches; ³¹neither sait he, For whom do I labour, and bereave my soul of good? This is also vanity, yea, it is a sore travail.9 ³²Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labour.10 For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but woe to him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up.11 Again, if two lie together, then they have heat: but how can one be warm alone?

12 And if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

13 ³³Better is a poor and a wise child than an old and foolish king, ³⁴who will no more be admonished.14 For out of prison he cometh to reign; whereas also he that is born in his kingdom becometh poor.

CHAPTER V.

1 Vanities in divine service, 8 in murmuring against oppression, 9 and in riches. 18 Joy in riches is the gift of God.

KEEP thy foot when thou goest to the house of God, and he more ready to hear, than to give the sacrifice of fools: for they consider not that they do evil.

2 Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter any thing before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words be few.

3 For a dream cometh through the multitude of business; and a fool's voice is known by multitude of words.

4 When thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: pay that which thou hast vowed.

5 Better is it that thou shouldst vow more, than that thou shouldst vow and not pay.

6 Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; neither say thou before the angel, that it was an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thine hands?

7 For in the multitude of dreams and many words there are also divers vanities: but fear thou God.

8 If thou seekest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they.

9 Moreover the profit of the earth is for all: the king himself is served by the field.

10 He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase: this is also vanity.

11 When goods increase, they are increased that eat them: and what good is there to the owners thereof, saving the beholding of them with their eyes?

12 The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much: but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep.

13 There is a sore evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept for the owners thereof to their hurt.

14 But those riches perish by evil travail: and he begetteth a son, and there is nothing in his hand.

15 As he came forth of his mother's womb, naked shall he return to go as he came, and shall take nothing of his labour, which he may carry away in his hand.

16 And this also is a sore evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go: and what profit hath he that hath laboured for the wind?

17 All his days also he eateth in darkness, and he hath much sorrow and wrath with his sickness.

18 Behold that which I have seen: ² it is good and comely for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labour that he taketh under the sun ³ all the days of his life, which God giveth him: ⁴ for it is his portion.

19 Every man also to whom God hath given riches and wealth, and hath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour; this is the gift of God.

20 For he shall not much remember the days of his life; because God answereth him in the joy of his heart.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The vanity of riches without use, 3 Of children, 6 and old age without riches, 9 The vanity of sight and wandering desires, 11 The conclusion of vanities.

THERE is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men:

2 A man to whom God hath given riches, wealth, and honour, so that he wanteth nothing for his soul of all that he desireth, yet God giveth him not power to eat thereof, but a stranger eateth it: this is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

3 If a man beget an hundred children, and live many years, so that the days of his years be many, and his soul be not filled with good, and also that he have no burial; I say, that an untimely birth is better than he.

4 For he cometh in with vanity, and departeth in darkness, and his name shall be covered with darkness.

5 Moreover he hath not seen the sun, nor known any thing: this hath more rest than the other.

6 Yea, though he live a thousand years twice told, yet hath he seen no good: do not all go to one place?

7 All the labour of man is for his mouth, and yet he hath appetite is not filled.

8 For what hath the wise more than the fool? what hath the poor, that knoweth to walk before the living?

9 Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire: this is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

10 That which hath been is named already, and it is known that it is man: neither may he contend with him that is mightier than he.

11 Seeing there be many things that increase vanity, what is man the better?

12 For who knoweth what is good for man in this life, all the days of his vain life which he spendeth as a

CHAPTER VII.

1 Remedies against vanity are, a good name.
2 mortification, 7 patience 11 wisdom. 23
The difficulty of wisdom.

A GOOD name is better than precious ointment; and the day of death than the day of one's birth.

2 ¶ It is better to go to the house of mourning, than to go to the house of feasting; for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart.

3 ¶ Sorrow is better than laughter:
for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made better.

4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

5 ¶ It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools.

6 ¶ For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool: this also is vanity.

7 ¶ Surely oppression maketh a wise man mad; and a gift de-stroyeth the heart.

8 Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof: and the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

9 ¶ Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry: for anger resteth in the bosom of fools.

10 Say not thou, What is the cause that the former days were better than these? for thou dost not enquire wisely concerning this.

11 ¶ Wisdom is good with an inheritance: and by it there is profit to them that see the sun.

12 For wisdom is a defence, and money is a defence: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them that have it.

13 Consider the work of God: for who can make that straight, which he hath made crooked?

14 ¶ In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider: God also hath set the one over against the other, to the end that man should find nothing
after him.

15 All things have I seen in the days of my vanity: there is a just man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that longeth his life in his wickedness.

16 ¶ Be not righteous over much;
neither make thyself over wise:
why shouldest thou destroy thyself?

17 Be not over much wicked, neither be thou foolish: why shouldest thou die before thy time?

18 It is good that thou shouldest take hold of this; yea, also from this withdraw not thine hand: for he that feareth God shall come forth of them all.

19 ¶ Wisdom strengtheneth the wise more than ten mighty men which are in the city.

20 ¶ For there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and smileth not.

21 Also take no heed unto all words that are spoken; lest thou hear thy servant curse thee:

22 For oftentimes also thine own heart knoweth that thou thyself likewise hast cursed others.

23 ¶ All this have I proved by wisdom: I said, I will be wise;
but it was far from me.

24 ¶ That which is far off, and exceeding deep, who can find it out?

25 ¶ I applied mine heart to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the reason of things, and to know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness:

26 ¶ And I find more bitter than death the woman, whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands are bands: whose pleaseth God shall escape from her; but the sinner shall be taken by her.

27 Behold, this have I found, saith the preacher, counting one by one,
to find out the account:

28 Which yet my soul seeketh, but I find not: one man among a thousand have I found; but a woman among all those have I not found.

29 Lo, this only have I found, that God hath made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Kings are greatly to be respected. 8 The divine providence is to be observed. 12 It is better with the godly in adversity, than with the wicked in prosperity. 16 The work of God is unsearchable.

WHO is as the wise man? and who knoweth the interpretation of a thing? a man's wisdom maketh his face to shine, and the boldness of his face shall be changed.

2 I counsel thee to keep the king's commandment, and that in regard of the oath of God.

3 ¶ Be not hasty to go out of his sight: stand not in an evil thing; for he doeth whatsoever pleaseth
him.

4 Where the word of a king is, there is power: and who may say unto him, What doest thou?

5 Whoso keepeth the commandment shall feel no evil thing: and a wise man's heart discerneth both time and judgment.

6 ¶ Because to every purpose there is time and judgment, therefore the misery of man is great upon him.

7 ¶ For he knoweth not that which shall be: for who can tell him when it shall be?

8 ^a There is no man that hath power over the spirit to retain the spirit; neither hath he power in the day of death: and there is no discharge in that war; neither shall wickedness deliver those that are given to it.

9 All this have I seen, and applied my heart unto every work that is done under the sun: there is a time wherein one man ruleth over another to his own hurt.

10 And so I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the place of the holy, and they were forgotten in the city where they had so done: this is also vanity.

11 ^a Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.

12 ^a Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that ^a it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him:

13 But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God.

14 There is a vanity which is done upon the earth; that there be just men, unto whom it ^a happeneth according to the work of the wicked; again, there be wicked men, to whom it ^a happeneth according to the work of the righteous: I said that this also is vanity.

15 ^a Then I commended mirth, because a man hath no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry: for that shall abide with him of his labour the days of his life, which God giveth him under the sun.

16 ^a When I applied mine heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done upon the earth: (for also there is that neither day nor night seeth sleep with his eyes.)

17 Then I beheld all the work of God, that ^a a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun: because though a man labour to seek it out, yet he shall not find it; yea farther; though a wise man think to know it, yet shall he not be able to find it.

CHAPTER IX.

1 Like things happen to good and bad, 4 There is a necessity of death unto men. 7 Comfort is all their portion in this life. 11 God's providence ruleth over all. 13 Wisdom is better than strength.

FOR all this ^a I considered in my heart even to declare all this, ^a that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God: no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them.

2 ^a All things come alike to all: there is one event to the righteous, and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath.

3 This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event unto all: yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead.

4 ^a For to him that is joined to all the living there is hope: for a living dog is better than a dead lion.

5 For the living know that they shall die: but ^a the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward; for ^a the memory of them is forgotten.

6 Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished; neither have they any more a portion for ever in any thing that is done under the sun.

7 ^a Go thy way, ^a eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart; for God now accepteth thy works.

8 Let thy garments be always white; and let thy head lack no ornament.

9 ^a Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest all the days of the life of thy vanity, which he hath given thee under the sun, all the days of thy vanity: for that is thy portion in this life, and in thy labour which thou takest under the sun.

10 Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest.

11 ^a I returned, ^a and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all.

12 For ^a man also knoweth not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare; so are the sons of men ^a snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them.

13 ^a This wisdom have I seen also under the sun, and it seemed great unto me:

14 ^a There was a little city, and few men within it; and there came a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it:

15 Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man.

16 ^a Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless ^a the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

17 The words of wise men are heard in quiet more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools.

18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but one sinner destroyeth much good.

CHAPTER X.

1 Observations of wisdom and folly: 16 of vint. 18 slothfulness, 19 and cowardly. 20 Men's thoughts of kings ought to be reverent.

DEAD flies cause the ointment of the apothecary to send forth a stinking savour: so doth a little folly him that is in reputation for wisdom and honour.

2 A wise man's heart is at his right hand; but a fool's heart at his left.

3 Yea also, when he that is a fool walketh by the way, his wisdom falleth him, and he saith to every one that he is a fool.

4 If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee, leave not thy place; for yielding pacifieth great offences.

5 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as an error which proceedeth from the ruler:

6 Folly is set in great dignity, and the rich sit in low place.

7 I have seen servants upon horses, and princes walking as servants upon the earth.

8 He that diggeth a pit shall fall into it; and whoso breaketh an hedge, a serpent shall bite him.

9 Whoso removeth stones shall be hurt therewith; and he that cleaveth wood shall be endangered thereby.

10 If the iron be blunt, and he do not whet the edge, then must he put to more strength: but wisdom is profitable to direct.

11 Surely the serpent will bite without enchantment; and a babbler is no better.

12 The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious; but the lips of a fool will swallow up himself.

13 The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness: and the end of his talk is mischievous madness.

14 A fool also is full of words: a man cannot tell what shall be; and what shall be after him, who can tell him?

15 The labour of the foolish wearieth every one of them, because he knoweth not how to go to the city.

16 Woe to thee, O land, when thy king is a child, and thy princes eat in the morning!

17 Blessed art thou, O land, when thy king is the son of nobles, and thy princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness!

18 By much slothfulness the building decayeth; and through idleness of the hands the house drop-peth through.

19 A feast is made for laughter, and wine maketh merry: but money answereth all things.

20 Curse not the king, no not in thy thought; and curse not the rich in thy bedchamber: for a bird of the air shall carry the voice, and that which hath wings shall tell the matter.

CHAPTER XI.

1 Directions for charity. 7 Death in life, 9 and the day of judgment in the days of youth, are to be thought on.

CAST thy bread upon the waters: for thou shalt find it after many days.

2 Give a portion to seven, and also to eight; for thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the earth.

3 If the clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth: and if the tree fall toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be.

4 He that observeth the wind shall not sow; and he that regardeth the clouds shall not reap.

5 As thou knowest not what is the way of the spirit, nor how the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with child: even so thou knowest not the works of God who maketh all.

6 In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand: for thou knowest not whether it shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good.

7 Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun:

8 But if a man live many years, and rejoice in them all; yet let him remember the days of darkness; for they shall be many. All that cometh is vanity.

9 Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth; and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee into judgment.

10 Therefore remove sorrow from thy heart, and put away evil from thy flesh: for childhood and youth are vanity.

CHAPTER XII.

1 The Creator is to be remembered in due hour. 8 The preacher's care to edify. 13 The fear of God is the chief antidote of vanity.

REMEMBER now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them;

2 While the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened, nor the clouds return after the rain:

3 In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows be darkened.

4 And the doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low, and he shall rise up at the voice of the bird, and all the daughters of musick shall be brought low;

5 Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond tree shall flourish, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fall: because man goeth to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets:

6 Or ever the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern.

7 Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.

8 ¶ Vanity of vanities, saith the preacher; all is vanity.

9 And moreover, because the preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yea, he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order many proverbs.

10 The preacher sought to find out acceptable words: and that which was written was upright, even words of truth.

11 The words of the wise are as goads, and as nails fastened by the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd.

12 And further, by these, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh.

13 ¶ Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.

14 For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.

5 I am black, but comely, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, as the tents of Kedar, as the curtains of Solomon.

6 Look not upon me, because I am black, because the sun hath looked upon me: my mother's children were angry with me; they made me the keeper of the vineyards, but mine own vineyard have I not kept.

CHAPTER III.

1 The church's fight and victory in temptation.
2 The church glorieth in Christ.

BY a night on my bed I sought him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

2 I will rise now, and go about the city in the streets, and in the broad ways I will seek him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

3 The watchmen that go about the city found me: to whom I said, Saw ye him whom my soul loveth?

4 It was but a little that I passed from them, but I found him whom my soul loveth: I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me.

5 "I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roses, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please.

6 ¶ Who is this that cometh out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all powders of the merchant?

7 Behold his bed, which is Solomon's; threescore valiant men are about it, of the valiant of Israel.

8 They all hold swords, being expert in war: every man hath his sword upon his thigh because of fear in the night.

9 King Solomon made himself a chariot of the wood of Lebanon.

10 He made the pillars thereof of silver, the bottom thereof of gold, the covering of it of purple, the midst thereof being paved with love, for the daughters of Jerusalem.

11 Go forth, O ye daughters of Zion, and behold king Solomon with the crown wherewith his mother crowned him in the day of his espousals, and in the day of his gladness of his heart.

3 Thy lips are like a thread of scarlet, and thy speech is comely: thy temples are like a piece of a pomegranate within thy locks.

4 "Thy neck is like the tower of David builded for an armoury, whereon there hang a thousand bucklers, all shields of mighty men.

5 "Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins, which feed among the lilies.

10 How fair is thy love, my sister, my spouse! how much better is thy love than wine! and the smell of thine ointments than all spices!

11 Thy lips, O my spouse, drop as the honeycomb: honey and milk are under thy tongue; and the smell of thy garments is like the smell of Lebanon.

12 A garden enclosed is my sister, my spouse; a spring shut up, a fountain sealed.

13 Thy plants are an orchard of pomegranates, with pleasant fruits; camphire, with spikenard,

14 Spikenard and saffron; calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense; myrrh and aloes, with all the chief spices:

15 A fountain of gardens, a well of living waters, and streams from Lebanon.

16 Awake, O north wind; and come, thou south; blow upon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out. Let my beloved come into his garden, and eat his pleasant fruits.

CHAPTER V.

1 Christ awaketh the church with his calling.
2 The church having a taste of Christ's love is sick of love. 9 A description of Christ by his graces.

I AM come into my garden, my sister, my spouse: I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk: eat, O friends; drink, yea, drink abundantly, O beloved.

2 I sleep, but my heart waketh: it is the voice of my beloved that knocketh, saying, Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled: for my head is filled with dew, and my locks with the drops of the night.

3 I have put off my coat; how shall I put it on? I have washed my feet; how shall I defile them?

4 My beloved put in his hand by the hole of the door, and my bowels were moved for him.

5 I rose up to open to my beloved; and my hands dropped with myrrh, and my fingers with sweet smelling myrrh, upon the handles of the lock.

6 I opened to my beloved; but my beloved had withdrawn himself, and was gone: my soul failed when he spake: I sought him, but I could not find him; I called him, but he gave me no answer.

7 The watchmen that went about the city found me, they smote me, they wounded me; the keepers of the walls took away my veil from me.

8 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if ye find my beloved, that ye tell him, that I am sick of love.

9 What is thy beloved more than another beloved, O thou fairest among women? what is thy beloved more than another beloved, that thou dost so charge us?

10 My beloved is white and ruddy, the chiefest among ten thousand.

11 His head is as the most fine gold, his locks are bushy, and black as a raven.

12 His eyes are as the eyes of doves by the rivers of waters, washed with milk, and fitly set.

13 His cheeks are as a bed of spices, as sweet flowers: his lips like lilies, dropping sweet smelling myrrh.

14 His hands are as gold rings set with the beryl: his belly is as bright ivory overlaid with sapphires.

15 His legs are as pillars of marble, set upon sockets of fine gold: his countenance is as Lebanon, excellent as the cedars.

16 His mouth is most sweet: yea, he is altogether lovely. This is my beloved, and this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The church professeth her faith in Christ.
4 Christ sheweth the graces of the church, and his love towards her.

WHITHER is thy beloved gone, O thou fairest among women? whether is thy beloved turned aside? that we may seek him with thee.

2 My beloved is gone down into his garden, to the beds of spices, to feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies.

3 I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine: he feedeth among the lilies.

4 Thou art beautiful, O my love, as Tirzah, comely as Jerusalem, terrible as an army with banners.

5 Turn away thine eyes from me, for they have overcome me: thy hair is as a flock of goats that appear from Gilead.

6 Thy teeth are as a flock of sheep which go up from the washing, whereof every one beareth twins, and there is not one barren among them.

7 As a piece of a pomegranate are thy temples within thy locks.

8 There are threescore queens, and fourscore concubines, and virgins without number.

9 My dove, my undefiled is but one; she is the only one of her mother, she is the choice one of her that bare her. The daughters saw her, and blessed her; yea, the queens and the concubines, and they praised her.

10 Who is she that looketh forth as the morning, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners?

CHAPTER VII.

1 A further description of the church's graces.
10 The church rejoiceth her faith and desire.

HOW beautiful are thy feet with shoes, ²O prince's daughter! the joints of thy thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of a cunning workman.

2 Thy navel is like a round goblet, which wanteth not ³liquor: thy belly is like an heap of wheat set about with lilies.

3 ⁴Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins.

4 ⁵Thy neck is as a tower of ivory; thine eyes like the fishpools in Heshbon, by the gate of Bath-rabbim: thy nose is as the tower of Lebanon which looketh toward Damascus.

5 Thine head upon thee is like ⁶Carmel, and the hair of thine head like purple; the king is ⁷held in the galleries.

6 How fair and how pleasant art thou, O love, for delights!

7 This thy stature is like to a palm tree, and thy breasts to clusters of grapes.

8 I said, I will go up to the palm tree, I will take hold of the boughs thereof: now also thy breasts shall be as clusters of the vine, and the smell of thy nose like apples;

9 And the roof of thy mouth like the best wine for my beloved, that goeth down ⁸sweetly, causing the lips ⁹of those that are asleep to speak.

10 ¹⁰¶ I am my beloved's, and ¹¹'his desire is toward me.

11 Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field; let us lodge in the villages.

12 Let us get up early to the vineyards; let us see if the vine flourish, whether the tender grape ²appear, and the pomegranates bud forth: there will I give thee my loves.

13 The ²mandrakes give a smell, and at our gates ³are all manner of pleasant fruits, new and old, which I have laid up for thee, O my beloved.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 The love of the church to Christ. 6 The vehemency of love. 8 The calling of the Gentiles. 14 The church prayeth for Christ's coming.

OTHAT thou wert as my brother, that sucked the breasts of my mother! when I should find thee without, I would kiss thee; yea, ²I should not be despised.

2 I would lead thee, and bring thee into my mother's house, who would instruct me: I would cause thee to drink of ³'spiced wine of the juice of my pomegranate.

3 ⁴His left hand should be under my head, and his right hand should embrace me.

4 ⁵I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, ⁶that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, until he please.

5 ⁷Who is this that cometh up from the wilderness, leaning upon her beloved? I raised thee up under the apple tree: there thy mother brought thee forth: there she brought thee forth that bare thee.

6 ⁸¶ Set me as a seal upon thine heart, as a seal upon thine arm: for love is strong as death; jealousy is ⁹cruel as the grave: the coals thereof are coals of fire, which hath a most vehement flame.

7 Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it: if a man would give all the substance of his house for love, it would utterly be contemned.

8 ¹⁰¶ We have a little sister, and she hath no breasts: what shall we do for our sister in the day when she shall be spoken for?

9 If she be a wall, we will build upon her a palace of silver: and if she be a door, we will inclose her with boards of cedar.

10 I am a wall, and my breasts like towers: then was I in his eyes as one that found ¹¹'favour.

11 Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-hamon; ¹²he let out the vineyard unto keepers; every one for the fruit thereof was to bring a thousand pieces of silver.

12 My vineyard, which is mine, is before me: thou, O Solomon, must have a thousand, and those that keep the fruit thereof two hundred.

13 Thou that dwellest in the gardens, the companions hearken to thy voice: ¹⁴'cause me to hear it.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET ISAIAH.

CHAPTER I.

1 Isaiah complaineth of Judah for her rebellion. 5 He lamenteth her judgments. 10 He upbraids their whole service. 16 He exhorteth to repentance, with promises and threatenings. 21 Bewailing their wickedness, he renounceth God's judgments. 25 He promiseth grace, 28 and threateneth destruction to the wicked.

THE ¹vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

2 ²Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth: for the LORD hath spoken, ³I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me.

3 ⁴The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib: but Israel ⁵doth not know, my people ⁶doth not consider.

4 Ah sinful nation, a people ⁷laden with iniquity, ⁸a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are ⁹gone away backward.

5 ¹⁰Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will ¹¹revolt more and more: the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

6 From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it: but wounds, and bruises, and putrifying sores: ⁷they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ⁸ointment.

7 ⁹Your country is desolate, your cities are burned with fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, ¹⁰as overthrown by strangers.

8 And the daughter of Zion is left ⁹as a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, ¹⁰as a besieged city.

9 ¹¹Except the LORD of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as ¹²Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah.

10 ¹³Hear the word of the LORD, ye rulers ¹⁴of Sodom: give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah.

11 To what purpose is the multitude of your ²sacrifices unto me? saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fat beasts: and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of ³he goats.

12 When ye come ⁴to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand, to tread my courts?

13 Bring no more ⁵vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me; the new moons and sabbaths, ⁶the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with; it is ⁷iniquity, even the solemn meeting.

14 Your ⁸new moons and your ⁹appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; ¹⁰I am weary to bear them.

15 And ¹¹when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: ¹²yea, when ye ¹³make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of ¹⁴blood.

16 ¹⁵Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; ¹⁶cease to do evil;

17 Learn to do well; ¹⁸seek judgment, ¹⁹relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow.

18 Come now, and ¹⁹let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, ²⁰they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

19 If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall not eat the good of the land:

20 But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: ²¹for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

21 ²²How is the faithful city become an harlot! it was full of judgment; righteousness lodged in it; but now murderers.

22 ²³Thy silver is become dross, thy wine mixed with water:

23 ²⁴Thy princes are rebellious, and ²⁵companions of thieves: ²⁶every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they ²⁷judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.

24 Therefore saith the LORD, the LORD of hosts, the mighty One of Israel, Ah, ²⁵I will ease me of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies:

25 ²⁶And I will turn my hand upon thee, and ²⁷purely purge away thy dross, and take away all thy tin:

26 And I will restore thy judges ²⁷as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning: afterward ²⁸thou shalt be called, The city of righteousness, the faithful city.

27 Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and ²⁸her converts with righteousness.

CHAPTER II.

1 Isaiah prophesieth the coming of Christ's kingdom. 6 Wickedness is the cause of God's forsaking. 10 He exhorteth to fear, because of the powerful effects of God's majesty.

THE word that Isalah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

2 And ² it shall come to pass ² in the last days, ² that the mountain of the LORD's house shall be ² established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; ² and all nations shall flow unto it.

3 And many people shall go and say, ² Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: ² for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

4 And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and ² they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into ² pruninghooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, ² neither shall they learn war any more.

5 O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us ² walk in the light of the LORD.

6 ¶ Therefore thou hast forsaken thy people the house of Jacob, because they are replenished ² as the east, and ² are soothsayers like the Philistines, ² and they ² please themselves in the children of strangers.

7 ² Their land also is full of silver and gold, neither ² is there any end of their treasures; their land is also full of horses, neither ² is there any end of their chariots:

8 ² Their land also is full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made:

9 And the mean man boweth down, and the great man humbleth himself: therefore forgive them not.

10 ¶ ² Enter into the rock, and hide thee in the dust, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty.

11 The ² lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down, and the LORD alone shall be exalted ² in that day.

12 For the day of the LORD of hosts shall be upon every one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up; and he shall be brought low:

13 And upon all ² the cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up, and upon all the oaks of Bashan,

14 And ² upon all the high mountains, and upon all the hills that are lifted up,

15 And upon every high tower, and upon every fenced wall, 16 ² And upon all the ships of Tarshish, and upon all ² pleasant pictures.

17 ² And the loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the haughtiness of men shall be made low; and the LORD alone shall be exalted ² in that day.

18 And ² the idols he shall utterly abolish.

19 And they shall go into the ² holes of the rocks, and into the caves of ² the earth, ² for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth ² to shake terribly the earth.

20 ² In that day a man shall cast ² his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, ² which they made each one for himself to worship, to the moles and to the bats;

21 ² To go into the clefts of the rocks, and into the tops of the rugged rocks, ² for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth.

22 ² Cease ye from man, whose ² breath is in his nostrils: for wherein is he to be accounted of?

ruler, and let this ruin be under thy hand:

7 In that day shall he swear, saying, I will not be an healer; for in my house is neither bread nor clothing: make me not a ruler of the people.

8 For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen: because their tongue and their doings are against the Lord, to provoke the eyes of his glory.

9 ¶ The shew of their countenance doth witness against them; and they declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not. Woe unto their soul! for they have rewarded evil unto themselves.

10 Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him: for they shall eat the fruit of their doings.

11 Woe unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him: for the reward of his hands shall be given him.

12 ¶ As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths.

13 The Lord standeth up to plead, and standeth to judge the people.

14 The Lord will enter into judgment with the ancients of his people, and the princes thereof: for ye have eaten up the vineyard; the spoil of the poor is in your houses.

15 What mean ye that ye beat my people to pieces, and grind the faces of the poor? saith the Lord God of hosts.

16 ¶ Moreover the Lord saith, Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with stretched forth necks, and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet:

17 Therefore the Lord will smite with a scab the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion, and the Lord will discover their secret parts.

18 In that day the Lord will take away the bravery of their tinkling ornaments about their feet, and their cauls, and their round tires like the moon,

19 The chains, and the bracelets, and the bannets,

20 The bonnets, and the ornaments of the legs, and the headbands, and the tablets, and the earrings,

21 The rings, and nose jewels,

22 The changeable suits of apparel, and the mantles, and the wimples, and the crisping pins, 23 The glasses, and the fine linen, and the hoods, and the vails.

24 And it shall come to pass, that instead of sweet smell there shall be stink; and instead of a girdle a rent; and instead of well set hair baldness; and instead of a stomacher a girding of sackcloth; and burning instead of beauty.

25 Thy men shall fall by the sword, and thy mighty in the war.

26 And her gates shall lament and mourn; and she being desolate shall sit upon the ground.

CHAPTER IV.

In the extremity of evils, Christ's kingdom shall be a sanctuary.

AND in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying, We will eat our own bread, and wear our own apparel: only let us be called by thy name, to take away our reproach.

2 In that day shall the branch of the Lord be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and comely for them that are escaped of Israel.

3 And it shall come to pass, that he that is left in Zion, and he that remaineth in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, even every one that is written among the living in Jerusalem.

4 When the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof by the spirit of judgment, and by the spirit of burning.

5 And the Lord will create upon every dwelling place of mount Zion, and upon her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night: for upon all the glory shall be a defence.

6 And there shall be a tabernacle for a shadow in the daytime from the heat, and for a place of refuge, and for a covert from storm and from rain.

CHAPTER V.

1 Under the parable of a vineyard God excuseth his severe judgment. 8 His judgments upon carelessness. 11 upon lasciviousness. 15 upon impiety. 20 and upon injustice. 25 The executioners of God's judgments.

NOW will I sing to my wellbeloved a song of my beloved touching his vineyard. My wellbeloved hath a vineyard in a very fruitful hill:

2 And he fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also made a winepress therein: and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes.

3 And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard.

4 What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes?

5 And now go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be ²trodden down:

6 And I will lay it waste: it shall not be pruned, nor digged; but there shall come up briars and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

7 For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant plant: and he looked for judgment, but behold ⁴oppression; for righteousness, but behold ⁴a cry.

8 ¶ Woe unto them that join ⁴house to house, that lay field to field till there be no place, that ⁵they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth!

9 ¹⁰In mine ears said the LORD of hosts, ⁷Of a truth many houses shall be desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant.

10 Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield one ²bath, and the seed of an homer shall yield an ephah.

11 ¶ Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, till wine ⁵inflame them!

12 And ⁴the harp, and the viol, the tabret, and pipe, and wine, are in their feasts: but ⁴they regard not the work of the LORD, neither consider the operation of his hands.

13 ¶ Therefore my people are gone into captivity, because they have no knowledge: and ⁵their honourable men are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst.

14 Therefore hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it.

15 And ²the mean man shall be brought down, and the mighty man shall be humbled, and the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled:

16 But the LORD of hosts shall be exalted in judgment, and ²God that is holy shall be sanctified in righteousness.

17 Then shall the lambs feed after their manner, and the waste places of ²the fat ones shall strangers eat.

18 Woe unto them that draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sin as it were with a cart rope:

19 ¹⁰That say, Let him make speed, and hasten his work, that we may see it: and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw nigh and come, that we may know it!

20 ¶ Woe unto them ⁴that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

21 Woe unto them that are ⁹wise in their own eyes, and prudent ²in their own sight!

22 ⁷Woe unto them that are mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink:

23 Which ⁴justify the wicked for reward, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him!

24 Therefore ⁴as ³the fire devoureth the stubble, and the flame consumeth the chaff, so ²their root shall be as rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust: because they have cast away the law of the LORD of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

25 ²Therefore is the anger of the LORD kindled against his people, and he hath stretched forth his hand against them, and hath smitten them: and ²the hills did tremble, and their carcases were ⁴torn in the midst of the streets. ⁷For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

26 ¶ And he will lift up an ensign to the nations from far, and will ⁴bliss unto them from ²the end of the earth: and, behold, ⁴they shall come with speed swiftly:

27 None shall be weary nor stumble among them; none shall slumber nor sleep; neither ⁴shall the girdle of their loins be loosed, nor the latchet of their shoes be broken:

28 ⁷Whose arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent, their horses' hoofs shall be counted like flint, and their wheels like a whirlwind:

29 Their roaring shall be like a lion, they shall roar like young lions: yea, they shall roar, and lay hold of the prey, and shall carry it away safe, and none shall deliver it.

30 And in that day they shall roar against them like the roaring of the sea: and if one ²look unto the land, behold darkness and ⁵sorrow, and the light is darkened in the heavens thereof.

CHAPTER VI.

1 Isaiah, in a vision of the Lord in his glory, being terrified, is comforted for his message. 9 He sheareth the continuity of the people unto their desolation. 13 A remnant shall be saved.

I N the year that ²king Uzziah died I ⁵saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and ⁷his train filled the temple.

2 Above it stood the seraphims: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and ⁶with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly.

3 And ⁸one cried unto another, and said, ⁴Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: ⁹²the whole earth is full of his glory.

4 And the posts of the ²door moved at the voice of him that cried, and ⁷the house was filled with smoke.

5 ¶ Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts.

6 Then flew one of the seraphims unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar:

7 And he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged.

8 Also I heard the voice of the LORD, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me.

9 ¶ And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not.

10 Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed.

11 Then said I, LORD, how long? And he answered, Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate, 12 And the LORD have removed men far away, and there be a great forsaking in the midst of the land.

13 ¶ But yet in it shall be a tenth, and it shall return, and shall be eaten: as a toll tree, and as an oak, whose substance is in them, when they cast their leaves: so the holy seed shall be the substance thereof.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Ahaz, being troubled with fear of Rezin and Pekah, is comforted by Isaiah. 10 Ahaz, having liberty to choose a sign, and refusing it, hath for a sign, Christ promised. 17 His judgment is prophesied to come by Assyria.

AND it came to pass in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up toward Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it.

2 And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria is confederate with Ephraim. And his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood are moved with the wind.

3 Then said the LORD unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou, and Shear-jashub thy son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field;

4 And say unto him, Take heed, and be quiet; fear not, neither be fainthearted for the two tails of these smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah.

5 Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have taken evil counsel against thee, saying,

6 Let us go up against Judah, and vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal:

7 Thus saith the LORD God, It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass.

8 For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within threescore and five years shall Ephraim be broken, that it be not a people.

9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established.

10 ¶ Moreover the LORD spake again unto Ahaz, saying,

11 Ask thee a sign of the LORD thy God: ask it either in the depth, or in the height above.

12 But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I tempt the LORD.

13 And he said, Hear ye now, O house of David; is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will ye weary my God also?

14 Therefore the LORD himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.

15 Butter and honey shall he eat, that he may know to refuse the evil, and choose the good.

16 For before the child shall know to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the land that thou abhorrest shall be forsaken of both her kings.

17 ¶ The LORD shall bring upon thee, and upon thy people, and upon thy father's house, days that have not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah; even the king of Assyria.

18 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall hiss for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria.

19 And they shall come, and shall rest all of them in the desolate valleys, and in the holes of the rocks, and upon all thorns, and upon all bushes.

20 In the same day shall the Lord shave with a razor that is hired, namely, by them beyond the river, by the king of Assyria, the head, and the hair of the feet: and it shall also consume the beard.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a man shall nourish a young cow, and two sheep;

22 And it shall come to pass, for the 24 With arrows and with bows shall men come thither; because all the land shall become briars and thorns.

25 And on all hills that shall be digged with the mattock, there shall not come thither the fear of briars and thorns: but it shall be for the sending forth of oxen, and for the treading of lesser cattle.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 In Maher-shalal-hash-baz, he prophesieth that Syria and Israel shall be subdued by Assyria. 2 Judah likewise for their ingratitude. 3 God's judgments shall be irresistible. 4 Comfort shall be in them that fear God. 19 Great afflictions to idolaters.

MOREOVER the LORD said unto me, Take thee a great roll, and write in it with a man's pen concerning Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

2 And I took unto me faithful witnesses to record, Uria the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah.

3 And I went unto the prophethood; and she conceived, and bare a son. Then said the LORD to me, Call his name Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

4 For before the child shall have knowledge to cry, My father, and my mother, the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria shall be taken away before the king of Assyria.

5 The LORD spake also unto me again, saying,

6 Forasmuch as this people refuseth the waters of Shiloah that go softly, and rejoice in Rezin and Remaliah's son;

7 Now therefore, behold, the Lord bringeth up upon them the waters of the river, strong and many, even the king of Assyria, and all his glory: and he shall come up over all his channels, and go over all his banks:

8 And he shall pass through Judah; he shall overflow and go over, he shall reach even to the neck; and the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, O Immanuel.

9 Associate yourselves, O ye people, and ye shall be broken in pieces; and give ear, all ye of far countries: gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces; gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces.

10 Take counsel together, and it shall come to nought; speak the word, and it shall not stand: for God is with us.

11 For the LORD spake thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying, 12 Say ye not, A confederacy, to all them to whom this people shall say, A confederacy; neither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid.

13 Sanctify the LORD of hosts himself; and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread.

14 And he shall be for a sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offence to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

15 And many among them shall stumble, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken.

16 Bind up the testimony, seal the law among my disciples.

17 And I will wait upon the LORD, that he hideth his face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for him.

18 Behold, I and the children whom the LORD hath given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth in mount Zion.

19 And when they shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep, and that mutter: should not a people seek unto their God? for the living to the dead?

20 To the law and to the testimony, if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.

21 And they shall pass through it, hardly bestead and hungry: and it shall come to pass, that when they shall be hungry, they shall fret themselves, and curse their king and their God, and look upward.

22 And they shall look unto the earth; and behold trouble and darkness, dimness of anguish; and they shall be driven to darkness.

CHAPTER IX.

1 What shall be in the midst of afflictions, by the kingdom and birth of Christ. 2 The judgments upon Israel for their pride, 18 for their hypocrisy, 18 and for their impenitency.

NEVERTHELESS the dimness shall not be such as was in her vexation, when at the first he lightly afflicted the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, and afterward did more grievously afflict her by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, in Galilee of the nations.

2 The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

3 Thou hast multiplied the nation, and not increased the joy: they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, and as men rejoice when they divide the spoil.

4 ² For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, and ¹ the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, as in the day of ³ Midian.

5 ³ For every battle of the warrior is with confused noise, and garments rolled in blood; ⁴ but this shall be with burning and ² fuel of fire.

6 ¹ For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and ² the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called ³ Wonderful, Counsellor, ⁴ The mighty God, ⁵ The everlasting Father, ⁶ The Prince of Peace.

7 Of the increase of his government and peace ⁷ there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. ⁸ The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this.

8 ¹ The LORD sent a word into Jacob, and it hath lighted upon Israel. ² And all the people shall know, even Ephraim and the inhabitant of Samaria, that say in the pride and stoutness of heart, 10 The bricks are fallen down, but we will build with hewn stones: the sycamores are cut down, but we will change them into cedars.

11 Therefore the LORD shall set up the adversaries of Rezin against him, and ² join his enemies together;

12 The Syrians before, and the Philistines behind; and they shall devour Israel ⁷ with open mouth. ⁸ For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

13 ¹ For ² the people turneth not unto him that smiteth them, neither do they seek the LORD of hosts.

14 Therefore the LORD will cut off from Israel head and tail, branch and rush, ¹ in one day.

15 The ancient and honourable, he is the head; and the prophet that teacheth lies, he is the tail.

16 For ² the leaders of this people cause them to err; and ³ they that are led of them are ² destroyed.

17 Therefore the LORD ² shall have no joy in their young men, neither shall have mercy on their fatherless and widows: ³ for every one is an hypocrite and an evildoer, and every mouth speaketh ³ folly. ⁴ For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

18 ¹ For wickedness ² burneth as the fire: it shall devour the briars and thorns, and shall kindle in the thickets of the forest, and they shall mount up like the lifting up of smoke.

19 Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts is ² the land darkened, and the people shall be as the ² fuel of the fire: ¹ no man shall spare his brother.

20 And he shall ³ snatch on the right hand, and be hungry; and he shall eat on the left hand, ⁴ and they shall not be satisfied: ⁵ they shall eat every man the flesh of his own arm:

21 Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh: ² and they together shall be against Judah. ³ For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

CHAPTER X.

1 The woe of tyrants. 5 Assyria, the rod of hyppocrites, for his pride shall be broken. 20 A remnant of Israel shall be saved. 24 Israel is comforted with promise of deliverance from Assyria.

W OUE unto them that ² decree unrighteous decrees, and ³ that write grievousness which they have prescribed;

2 To turn aside the needy from judgment, and to take away the right from the poor of my people, that widows may be their prey, and that they may rob the fatherless!

3 And ¹ what will ye do in ² the day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come from far? to whom will ye flee for help? and where will ye leave your glory?

4 Without me they shall bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the slain. ⁵ For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

5 ¹ O Assyrian, ² the rod of mine anger, ³ and the staff in their hand is mine indignation.

6 I will send him against ¹ an hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I ² give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and ³ to tread them down like the mire of the streets.

7 ¹ Howbeit he meaneth not so, neither doth his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy and cut off nations not a few.

8 ¹ For he saith, Are not my princes altogether kings?

9 Is not ² Calno ³ as Carchemish? is not Hamath as Arpad? is not Samaria ⁴ as Damascus?

10 As my hand hath found the kingdoms of the idols, and whose graven images did excel them of Jerusalem and of Samaria;

11 Shall I not, as I have done unto Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and her idols?

12 Wherefore it shall come to pass, that when the LORD hath performed his whole work ² upon mount Zion and on Jerusalem, ³ I will ⁴ punish the fruit ² of the stout heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high looks.

20 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that the remnant of Israel, and such as are escaped of the house of Jacob, ²shall no more again stay upon him that smote them: but shall stay upon the Lord, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.

21 ¶ The remnant shall return, even the remnant of Jacob, unto the mighty God.

22 ¶ For though thy people Israel be as the sand of the sea, ⁷yet a remnant ⁷of them shall return: ⁸the consumption decreed shall overflow ⁸with righteousness.

23 ¶ For the Lord God of hosts shall make a consumption, even determined, in the midst of all the land.

24 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord God of hosts, O my people that dwellest in Zion, ⁴be not afraid of the Assyrian: he shall smite thee with a rod, ⁹and shall lift up his staff against thee, after the manner of ⁹Egypt.

25 ¶ For yet a very little while, ⁹and the indignation shall cease, and mine anger in their destruction.

26 And the Lord of hosts shall stir up ¹⁰a scourge for him according to the slaughter of ¹⁰Midian at the rock of Oreb: and ¹⁰as his rod was upon the sea, so shall he lift it up after the manner of Egypt.

27 And it shall come to pass in that day, that ¹¹his burden ²shall be taken away from off thy shoulder, and his yoke from off thy neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of ¹²the anointing.

28 He is come to Aiath, he is passed to Migron: at Michmash he hath laid up his carriages:

29 They are gone over ¹³the passage: they have taken up their lodging at Geba: Ramah is afraid: ¹⁴Gilbeah of Saul is fled.

30 ²Lift up thy voice, O daughter ²of Gallim: cause it to be heard unto ²Lalsh, ²O poor Anathoth.

31 ¹Madmenah is removed; the inhabitants of Gebim gather themselves to flee.

32 As yet shall he remain ¹⁵at Nob that day: he shall ¹⁵shake his hand against the mount of ¹⁵the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.

33 Behold, the Lord, the Lord of hosts, shall lop the bough with terror: and ¹⁶the high ones of stature shall be hewn down, and the haughty shall be humbled.

34 And he shall cut down the thickets of the forest with iron, and Lebanon shall fall ¹⁷by a mighty one.

CHAPTER XI.

1 The peaceable kingdom of the Branch out of the rod of Jesse. 10 The victorious restoration of Israel, and coronation of the Gentiles.

AND ¹there shall come forth a rod ¹out of the stem of ¹Jesse, and ¹a Branch shall grow out of his roots:

2 ⁴And the spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord;

3 And shall make him of ⁴quick understanding in the fear of the Lord: and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears:

4 But ⁵with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and ⁵reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: and he shall ⁵smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.

5 And ⁶righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins.

6 ⁴The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them.

7 And the cow and the bear shall feed: their young ones shall lie down together: and the lion shall eat straw like the ox.

8 And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the ⁷cockatrice's den.

9 ⁸They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for ²the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

10 ¶ And in that day ³there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people; to it shall the ⁴Gentiles seek: and ⁵his rest shall be ⁶glorious.

11 And it shall come to pass ⁷in that day, that the LORD shall set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant of his people, which shall be left, ⁸from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Cush, and from Elam, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea.

12 And he shall set up an ensign for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together ⁹the dispersed of Judah from the four ¹⁰corners of the earth.

13 ¶ The envy also of Ephraim shall depart, and the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off: Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not vex Ephraim.

14 But they shall fly upon the shoulders of the Philistines toward the west; they shall spoil ¹¹them of the east together: ¹²they shall lay their hand upon Edom and Moab: and the children of Ammon ¹³shall obey them.

15 And the LORD ¹⁴shall utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea; and with his mighty wind shall he shake his hand over the river, and shall smite it in the seven streams, ¹⁵and make men go over ¹⁶dryshod.

16 And ¹⁷there shall be an highway for the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria; like as it was to Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt.

CHAPTER XII.

A joyful thanksgiving of the faithful for the mercies of God.

AND ¹in that day thou shalt say, O LORD, I will praise thee: though thou wast angry with me, thine anger is turned away, and thou comfortedst
me.

2 Behold, God ²is my salvation; I will trust, and will not be afraid: for the LORD ³Jehovah ⁴is my ⁵strength and my song; he also is become my salvation.

3 Therefore with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation.

4 And in that day shall ye say, Praise the LORD, ⁶call upon his name, ⁷declare his doings among the people, make mention that his ⁸name is exalted.

5 Sing unto the LORD: for he hath done excellent things: this ⁹is known in all the earth.

6 Cry out and shout, thou ¹⁰inhab-itant of Zion: for great ¹¹is the Holy
One of Israel in the midst of thee.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 God mustereth the armies of his wrath. 6
He threatneth to destroy Babylon by the Medes. 19 The desolation of Babylon.

THE ¹burden of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz did see.
2 Lift ye up a banner ²upon the high mountain, exalt the voice unto them, ³shake the hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles.
3 I have commanded my sanctified ones, I have also called ⁴my mighty ones for mine anger, even them that rejoice in my highness.

4 The noise of a multitude in the mountains, ⁵like as of a great people; a tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together: the LORD of hosts mustereth the host of the battle.

5 They come from a far country, from the end of heaven, even the LORD, and the weapons of his ignination, to destroy the whole land.

6 ¶ Howl ye; ⁷for the day of the LORD ⁸is at hand; ⁹it shall come as a destruction from the Almighty.

7 Therefore shall all hands ¹⁰be faint, and every man's heart shall melt:

8 And they shall be afraid: ¹¹pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them; they shall be in pain as a woman that travaileth: they shall ¹²be amazed ¹³one at another; their faces shall be as flames.

9 Behold, ¹⁴the day of the LORD cometh, cruel both with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate:
and he shall destroy ¹⁵the sinners thereof out of it.

10 For the stars of heaven and the constellations thereof shall not give their light: the sun shall be ¹⁶darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine.

11 And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; ¹⁷and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible.

12 I will make a man more precious than fine gold; even a man than the golden wedge of Ophir.

13 ¶ Therefore I will shake the heavens, and the earth shall remove out of her place, in the wrath of the LORD of hosts, and in ¹⁸the day of his fierce anger.

14 And it shall be as the chased roe, and as a sheep that no man taketh up: ¹⁹they shall every man turn to his own people, and flee every one into his own land.

15 Every one that is found shall be thrust through; and every one that is joined unto them shall fall by the sword.

16 Their children also shall be ²⁰dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be spoiled, and their wives ravished.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 God's merciful restoration of Israel. 4 Their triumphant insultation over Babel. 24 God's purpose against Assyria. 29 Palestina is threatened.

FOR THE LORD will have mercy on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land: and the strangers shall be joined with them, and they shall cleave to the house of Jacob.

2 And the people shall take them, and bring them to their place: and the house of Israel shall possess them in the land of the Lord for servants and handmaids: and they shall take them captives, whose captives they were; and they shall rule over their oppressors.

3 And it shall come to pass in the day that the Lord shall give thee rest from thy sorrow, and from thy fear, and from the hard bondage wherein thou wast made to serve.

4 * That thou shalt take up this 2 proverb against the king of Babylon, and say, How hath the oppressor ceased! the golden city ceased!

5 The Lord hath broken the staff of the wicked, and the sceptre of the rulers.

6 He who smote the people in wrath with a continual stroke, he that ruled the nations in anger, is persecuted, and none hindereth.

7 The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet: they break forth into singing.

8 * Yea, the fir trees rejoice at thee, and the cedars of Lebanon, saying, Since thou art laid down, no feller is come up against us.

9 * Hell from beneath is moved for thee to meet thee at thy coming: it stirreth up the dead for thee, even all the chief ones of the earth; it hath raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations.

10 All they shall speak and say unto thee, Art thou also become weak as we? art thou become like unto us?

11 Thy pomp is brought down to the grave, and the noise of thy viols: the worm is spread under thee, and the worms cover thee.

12 * How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations!

13 For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north:

14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High.

15 Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit.

16 They that see thee shall narrowly look upon thee, and consider thee, saying, Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms;

17 That made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed the cities thereof; that opened not the house of his prisoners?

18 All the kings of the nations, even all of them, lie in glory, every one in his own house.

19 But thou art cast out of thy grave like an abominable branch, and as the raiment of those that are slain, thrust through with a sword, that go down to the stones of the pit; as a carcass trodden under feet.

20 Thou shalt not be joined with them in burial, because thou hast destroyed thy land, and slain thy people: the seed of evildoers shall never be renowned.

21 Prepare slaughter for his children for the iniquity of their fathers; that they do not rise, nor possess the land, nor fill the face of the world with cities.

22 For I will rise up against them, saith the Lord of hosts, and cut off from Babylon the name, and remnant, and son, and nephew, saith the Lord.

23 * I will also make it a possession for the bitter, and pools of water: and I will sweep it with the besom of destruction, saith the Lord of hosts.

24 * The Lord of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand:

25 That I will break the Assyrian in my land, and upon my mountains tread him under foot: then shall his yoke depart from off them, and his burden depart from off their shoulders.

CHAPTER XV.

The lamentable state of Moab.

THE burden of Moab. Because in the night Ar of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence; because in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence;

2 He is gone up to Bajith, and to Dibon, the high places, to weep: Moab shall howl over Nebo, and over Medeba: on all their heads shall be baldness, and every beard cut off.

3 In their streets they shall gird themselves with sackcloth: on the tops of their houses, and in their streets, every one shall howl, weeping abundantly.

4 And Heshbon shall cry, and Elealeh: their voice shall be heard even unto Jahaz: therefore the armed soldiers of Moab shall cry out; his life shall be grievous unto him.

5 My heart shall cry out for Moab; his fugitives shall flee unto Zoar, an heifer of three years old: for thy the mounting up of Luhith with weeping shall they go it up; for in the way of Horonaim they shall raise up a cry of destruction.

6 For the waters of Nimrim shall be desolate: for the hay is withered away, the grass felleth, there is no green thing.

7 Therefore the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have laid up, shall they carry away to the brook of the willows.

8 For the cry is gone round about the borders of Moab; the howling thereof unto Eglaïm, and the howling thereof unto Beer-clim.

9 For the waters of Dimon shall be full of blood: for I will bring more upon Dimon, lions upon him that escapeth of Moab, and upon the remnant of the land.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 Moab is exhort^d to yield obedience to Christ's kingdom. 6 Moab is threatened for her pride. 9 The prophet bewaileth her. 12 The judgment of Moab.

SEND ye the lamb to the ruler of the land from Sela to the wilderness, unto the mount of the daughter of Zion.

2 For it shall be, that, as a wandering bird cast out of the nest, so the daughters of Moab shall be at the fords of Arnon.

3 Take counsel, execute judgment; make thy shadow as the night in the midst of the noonday; hide the outcasts; bewray not him that wandereth.

4 Let mine outcasts dwell with thee, Moab; be thou a covert to them from the face of the spoiler: for the extortioner is at an end, the spoiler ceaseth, the oppressors are consumed out of the land.

5 And in mercy shall the throne be established: and he shall sit upon it in truth in the tabernacle of David, judging, and seeking judgment, and hastening righteousness.

6 We have heard of the pride of Moab; he is very proud: even of his haughtiness, and his pride, and his wrath: but his lies shall not be so.

7 Therefore shall Moab howl for Moab, every one shall howl: for the foundations of Kir-hareseth shall ye mourn; surely they are stricken.

8 For the fields of Heshbon languish, and the vine of Sibmah: the lords of the heathen have broken down the principal plants thereof, they are come even unto Jazer, they wandered through the wilderness: her branches are stretched out, they are gone over the sea.

9 Therefore I will bewail with the weeping of Jazer the vine of Sibmah: I will water thee with my tears, O Heshbon, and Elealeh: for the shouting for thy summer fruits and for thy harvest is fallen.

10 And gladness is taken away, and joy out of the plentiful field; and in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither shall there be shouting: the treaders shall tread out no wine in their presses: I have made their vintage shouting to cease.

11 Wherefore my bowels shall sound, like an harp for Moab, and mine inward parts for Kir-hareseth.

12 And it shall come to pass, when it is seen that Moab is weary on the high place, that he shall come to his sanctuary to pray; but he shall not prevail.

hath spoken concerning Moab since that time.

14 But now the LORD hath spoken, saying, Within three years, *as the years of an hireling, and the glory of Moab shall be contemned, with all that great multitude; and the remnant shall be very small and feeble.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Syria and Israel are threatened. 6 A remnant shall forsake idolatry. 9 The rest shall be plagued for their impiety. 12 The voice of Israel's enemies.

THE burden of Damascus. Behold, Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it shall be a ruinous heap.

2 The cities of Aroer are forsaken: they shall be for flocks, which shall lie down, and none shall make them afraid.

3 The fortress also shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria: they shall be as the glory of the children of Israel, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 And in that day it shall come to pass, that the glory of Jacob shall be made thin, and the fitness of his flesh shall wax lean.

5 And it shall be as when the harvestman gathereth the corn, and reapeth the ears with his arm; and it shall be as he that gathereth ears in the valley of Replaim.

6 Yet gleanings grapes shall be left in it, as the shaking of an olive tree, two or three berries in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outmost fruitful branches thereof, saith the LORD God of Israel.

7 At that day shall a man look to his Maker, and his eyes shall have respect to the Holy One of Israel.

8 And he shall not look to the altars, the work of his hands, neither shall respect that which his fingers have made, either the groves, or the images.

9 In that day shall his strong cities be as a forsaken bough, and an uppermost branch, which they left because of the children of Israel: and there shall be desolation.

10 Because thou hast forgotten the God of thy salvation, and hast not been mindful of the rock of thy strength, therefore shalt thou plant pleasant plants, and shalt set it with strange slips:

11 In the day shalt thou make thy plant to grow, and in the morning shalt thou make thy seed to flourish: but the harvest shall be a heap in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow.

12 Woe to the multitude of many people, which make a noise like the noise of the seas; and to the rushing of nations, that make a rushing like the rushing of mighty waters!

13 The nations shall rush like the rushing of many waters: but God shall rebuke them, and they shall flee far off, and shall be chased as the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like a rolling thing before the whirlwind.

14 And behold at evening tide trouble; and before the morning he is not. This is the portion of them that spoil us, and the lot of them that rob us.

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 God in care of his people will destroy the Ethiopians. 7 An access thereby shall grow unto the church.

WOE to the land shadowing with wings, which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia:

2 That sendeth ambassadors by the sea, even in vessels of bulrushes upon the waters, saying, Go, ye swift messengers, to a nation scattered and peeled, to a people terrible from their beginning hitherto; a nation meted out and trodden down, whose land the rivers have spoiled!

3 All ye inhabitants of the world, and dwellers on the earth, see ye, when he lifteth up an ensign on the mountains; and when he bloweth a trumpet, hear ye.

4 For so the LORD said unto me, I will take my rest, and I will consider in my dwelling place like a clear heat upon herbs, and like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.

5 For afore the harvest, when the bud is perfect, and the sour grape is ripening in the flower, he shall both cut off the sprigs with pruning hooks, and take away and cut down the branches.

6 They shall be left together unto the fowls of the mountains, and to the beasts of the earth: and the fowls shall summer upon them, and all the beasts of the earth shall winter upon them.

7 In that time shall the present be brought unto the LORD of hosts of a people scattered and peeled, and from a people terrible from their beginning hitherto; a nation meted out and trodden under foot, whose land the rivers have spoiled, to the place of the name of the LORD of hosts, the mount Zion.

CHAPTER XIX.

1 The confusion of Egypt. 11 The foolishness of their princes. 18 The calling of Egypt to the church. 23 The covenant of Egypt, Assyria, and Israel.

THE burden of Egypt. Behold, the LORD rideth upon a swift cloud, and shall come into Egypt: and the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence, and the heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it.

2 And I will set the Egyptians against the Egyptians: and they shall fight every one against his brother, and every one against his neighbour; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom.

5 ⁵ And the waters shall fall from the sea, and the river shall be wasted and dried up.

6 And they shall turn the rivers far away; and the brooks ⁶ of defence shall be emptied and dried up: the reeds and flags shall wither.

7 The paper reeds by the brooks, by the mouth of the brooks, and every thing sown by the brooks, shall wither, be driven away, ⁶ and be no more.

8 The fishers also shall mourn, and all they that cast angle into the brooks shall lament, and they that spread nets upon the waters shall languish.

12 ¹⁰ Where are they? where are thy wise men? and let them tell thee now, and let them know what the Lord of hosts hath purposed upon Egypt.

13 The princes of Zoan are become fools, ¹¹ the princes of Noph are deceived: they have also seduced Egypt, even ¹² they that are the stay of the tribes thereof.

14 The Lord hath mingled ¹³ a perverse spirit in the midst thereof: and they have caused Egypt to err in every work thereof, as a drunken man staggereth in his vomit.

15 Neither shall there be ¹⁴ any work for Egypt, which ¹⁵ the head or tail, branch or rush, may do.

16 In that day shall Egypt ¹⁶ be like unto women: and it shall be afraid and fear because of the shaking of the hand of the Lord of hosts, ¹⁷ which he shaketh over it.

17 And the land of Judah shall be a terror unto Egypt, every one that maketh mention thereof shall be afraid in himself, because of the counsel of the Lord of hosts, which he hath determined against it.

18 ¹⁸ In that day shall five cities in the land of Egypt ¹⁹ speak the language of Canaan, and swear to the Lord of hosts; one shall be called, The city ²⁰ of destruction.

19 In that day ²¹ shall there be an altar to the Lord in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar at the border thereof to the Lord.

20 And ²² it shall be for a sign and for a witness unto the Lord of hosts in the land of Egypt: for they shall cry unto the Lord because of the oppressors, and he shall send them a saviour, and a great one, and he shall deliver them.

21 And the Lord shall be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians shall know the Lord in that day, and ²³ shall do sacrifice and oblation; yea, they shall vow a vow unto the Lord, and perform it.

22 And the Lord shall smite Egypt: he shall smite and heal it: and they shall return even to the Lord, and he shall be intreated of them, and shall heal them.

23 ²⁴ In that day ²⁵ shall there be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria, and the Egyptians shall serve with the Assyrians.

24 In that day shall Israel be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, even a blessing in the midst of the land:

25 Whom the Lord of hosts shall bless, saying, Blessed be Egypt my people, and Assyria ²⁶ the work of my hands, and Israel mine inheritance.

CHAPTER XX.

A type prefiguring the shameful captivity of Egypt and Ethiopia.

IN the year that ¹ Tartan came unto Ashdod, (when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him,) and fought against Ashdod, and took it;

2 At the same time spake the Lord ² by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, Go and loose ³ the sackcloth from off thy loins, and put off thy shoe from thy foot. And he did so, ⁴ walking naked and barefoot.

3 And the Lord said, Like as my servant Isaiah hath walked naked and barefoot three years ⁵ for a sign and wonder upon Egypt and upon Ethiopia;

4 So shall the king of Assyria lead away ⁶ the Egyptians prisoners, and the Ethiopians captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, ⁷ even with their buttocks uncovered, to the ⁸ shame of Egypt.

5 ⁹ And they shall be afraid and ashamed of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory.

6 And the inhabitant of this ¹⁰ isle shall say in that day, Behold, such ¹¹ is our expectation, whither we flee for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria: and how shall we escape?

CHAPTER XXI.

1 The prophet, bewailing the captivity of his people, seeth in a vision the fall of Babylon by the Medes and Persians. 11 Edom, scorn- ing the prophet, is moved to repentance. 13 The set time of Arabia's calamity.

THE burden of the desert of the sea. As ^a whirlwinds in the south pass through; so it cometh from the desert, from a terrible land.

2 A ^b grievous vision is declared unto me; ^c the treacherous dealer dealeth treacherously, and the spoiler spoileth. ^d Go up, O Elam: besiege, O Media; all the sighing thereof have I made to cease.

3 Therefore ^d are my loins filled with pain: ^e pangs have taken hold upon me, as the pangs of a woman that travaileth: I was bowed down at the hearing of it; I was dismayed at the seeing of it.

4 ^f My heart panted, fearfulness af- frighted me: the night of my pleasure hath he ^g turned into fear unto me.

5 ^h Prepare the table, watch in the watchtower, eat, drink: arise, ye princes, and anoint the shield.

6 For thus hath the Lord said unto me, Go, set a watchman, let him de- clare what he seeth.

7 ⁱ And he saw a chariot ^j with a couple of horsemen, a chariot of asses, and a chariot of camels; and he hearkened diligently with much heed:

8 And she cried, A lion: My lord, I stand continually upon the watch- tower in the daytime, and I am set in my ward ^k whole nights:

9 And, behold, here cometh a chariot of men, ^l with a couple of horsemen. And he answered and said, ^m Babylon is fallen, is fallen: and ⁿ all the graven images of her gods he hath broken unto the ground.

10 ^o O my threshing, and the ^p corn of my floor: that which I have heard of the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, have I declared unto you.

11 ^q The burden of Dinnih. He calleth to me out of Seir, Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night?

12 The watchman said, The morning cometh, and also the night: if ye will enquire, enquire ye: return, come.

13 ^r The burden upon Arabia. In the forest in Arabia shall ye lodge, O ye travelling companies ^s of Dedanim.

14 The inhabitants of the land of Tema ^t brought water to him that was thirsty, they prevented with their bread him that fled.

15 For they fled ^u from the swords, from the drawn sword, and from the bent bow, and from the grievousness of war.

16 For thus hath the Lord said unto me, Within a year, ^v according to the years of an hireling, and all the glory of ^w Kedar shall fail:

17 And the residue of the number of ^x archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar, shall be dimi- nished: for the Lord God of Israel hath spoken it.

CHAPTER XXII.

1 The prophet bewaileth the invasion of Jewry by the Persians. 8 He reproves their human wisdom and worldly joy. 15 He prophesieth Shabna's deprivation, 20 and Eliakim, pre- figuring the kingdom of Christ, his substitu- tion.

THE burden of the valley of vision. What alleth thee now, that thou art wholly gone up to the housetops?

2 Thou that art full of stirs, a tumultu- ous city, ^a a joyous city: thy slain men are not slain with the sword, nor dead in battle.

3 All thy rulers are fled together, they are bound ^b by the archers: all that are found in thee are bound together, ^c which have fled from far.

4 Therefore said I, Look away from me: ^d I will weep bitterly, labour not to comfort me, because of the spoiling of the daughter of my people.

5 ^e For it is a day of trouble, and of treading down, and of perplexity ^f by the Lord God of hosts in the valley of vision, breaking down the walls, and of crying to the mountains.

6 ^g And Elam bare the quiver with, chariots of men and horsemen, and ^h Kir ⁱ uncovered the shield.

7 And it shall come to pass, ^j that the choicest valleys shall be full of chariots, and the horsemen shall set themselves in array ^k in the gate.

8 ^l And he discovered the covering of Judah, and thou didst look in that day to the armour ^m of the house of the forest.

9 ⁿ Ye have seen also the breaches of the city of David, that they are many: and ye gathered together the waters of the lower pool.

10 And ye have numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses have ye broken down to fortify the wall.

11 ^o Ye made also a ditch between the two walls for the water of the old pool: but ye have not looked unto ^p the maker thereof, neither had respect unto him that fashioned it long ago.

12 And in that day did the Lord God of hosts ^q call to weeping, and to mourning, and ^r to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth:

13 And behold joy and gladness, slay- ing oxen, and killing sheep, eating flesh, and drinking wine: ^s let us eat and drink; for to morrow we shall die.

14 ^t And it was revealed in mine ears by the Lord of hosts, Surely this iniquity ^u shall not be purged from you till ye die, saith the Lord God of hosts.

15 ^v Thus saith the Lord God of hosts, Go, get thee unto this trea- surer, ^w even unto ^x Shebna, ^y which is over the house, and say,

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 The miserable overthrow of Tyre. 17 Their untimely return.

THE ¹burden of Tyre. Howl, ye ships of Tarshish; for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: ²from the land of Chittim it is revealed to them.

2 Be ³still, ye inhabitants of the isle; thou whom the merchants of Zidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished.

3 And by great waters the seed of Sihor, the harvest of the river, ⁴is her revenue; and ⁵she is a mart of nations.

4 Be thou ashamed, O Zidon: for the sea hath spoken, even the strength of the sea, saying, I travail not, nor bring forth children, neither do I nourish up young men, nor bring up virgins.

5 ⁶As at the report concerning Egypt, so shall they be sorely pained at the report of Tyre.

6 Pass ye over to Tarshish; howl, ye inhabitants of the isle.

7 Is this your ⁷'joyous city, whose antiquity ⁸is of ancient days? her own feet shall carry her ⁹as far off to sojourn.

8 Who hath taken this counsel against Tyre, the crowning city, whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the honourable of the earth?

9 The Lord of hosts hath purposed it, ¹⁰to stain the pride of all glory, and to bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth.

10 Pass through thy land as a river, O daughter of Tarshish: there is no more ¹¹strength.

11 He stretched out his hand over the sea, he shook the kingdoms: the Lord hath given a commandment ¹²against ¹²the merchant city, to destroy the ¹³strong holds thereof.

12 And he said, ¹⁴Thou shalt no more rejoice, O thou oppressed virgin, daughter of Zidon: arise, ¹⁵pass over to Chittim; there also shall thou have no rest.

13 Behold the land of the Chaldeans; this people was not, till the Assyrian founded it for ¹⁶them that dwell in the wilderness: they set up the towers thereof, they raised up the palaces thereof; and he brought it to ruin.

14 ¹⁷Howl, ye ships of Tarshish: for your strength is laid waste.

15 And it shall come to pass in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king: after the end of seventy years ¹⁸shall Tyre sing as a harlot.

16 Take an harp, go about the city, thou harlot that hast been forgotten; make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou mayest be remembered.

17 ¶ And it shall come to pass after the end of seventy years, that the Lord will visit Tyre, and she shall turn to her hire, and ¹⁹shall commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth.

18 And her merchandise and her hire ²⁰shall be holiness to the Lord: it shall not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before the Lord, to eat sufficiently, and for ²¹ durable clothing.

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 The dreadful judgments of God upon the land. 13 A remnant shall joyfully praise him. 16 God in his judgments shall advance his kingdom.

BEHOOLD, the Lord maketh the earth empty, and maketh it waste, and ²turneth it upside down, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof.

2 And it shall be, as with the people, so with the ³priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; ⁴as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the taker of usury, so with the giver of usury to him.

3 The land shall be utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled: for the LORD hath spoken this word.

4 The earth mourneth and fadeth away, the world languisheth and fadeth away, the haughty people of the earth do languish.

5 The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants thereof; because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant.

6 Therefore hath the curse devoured the earth, and they that dwell therein are desolate: therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

7 The new wine mourneth, the vine languisheth, all the merryhearted do sigh.

8 The mirth of tabrets ceaseth, the noise of them that rejoice ceaseth, the joy of the harp ceaseth.

9 They shall not drink wine with a song; strong drink shall be bitter to them that drink it.

10 The city of confusion is broken down: every house is shut up, that no man may come in.

11 There is a crying for wine in the streets; all joy is darkened, the mirth of the land is gone.

12 In the city is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction.

13 ¶ When thus it shall be in the midst of the land among the people, there shall be as the shaking of an olive tree, and as the gleanings grapes when the vintage is done.

14 They shall lift up their voice, they shall sing for the majesty of the LORD, they shall cry aloud from the sea.

15 Wherefore glorify ye the LORD in the fires, even the name of the LORD God of Israel in the isles of the sea.

16 ¶ From the uttermost part of the earth have we heard songs, even glory to the righteous. But I said, My leanness, my leanness, woe unto me! the treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously; yea, the treacherous dealers have dealt very treacherously.

17 Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are upon thee, O inhabitant of the earth.

18 And it shall come to pass, that he who fleeth from the noise of the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that cometh up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for the windows from on high are open, and the foundations of the earth do shake.

19 The earth is utterly broken down, the earth is clean dissolved, the earth is moved exceedingly.

20 The earth shall reel to and fro like a drunkard, and shall be removed like a cottage; and the transgression thereof shall be heavy upon it; and it shall fall, and not rise again.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall punish the host of the high ones that are on high, and the kings of the earth upon the earth.

22 And they shall be gathered together, as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and shall be shut up in the prison, and after many days shall they be visited.

23 Then the moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed, when the LORD of hosts shall reign in mount Zion, and in Jerusalem, and before his ancients gloriously.

CHAPTER XXV.

1 The prophet praiseth God, for his judgments, 6 for his saving benefits, 9 and for his victorious salvation.

O LORD, thou art my God; I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name: for thou hast done wonderful things; thy counsels of old are faithfulness and truth.

2 For thou hast made of a city an heap; of a fenced city a ruin: a palace of strangers to be no city; it shall never be built.

3 Therefore shall the strong people glorify thee, the city of the terrible nations shall fear thee.

4 For thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.

5 Thou shalt bring down the noise of strangers, as the heat in a dry place; even the heat with the shadow of a cloud: the branch of the terrible ones shall be brought low.

6 ¶ And in this mountain shall the LORD of hosts make unto all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well refined.

7 And he will destroy in this mountain the face of the covering, and cast over all people, and the wall that is spread over all nations.

8 He will swallow up death in victory; and the LORD God will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the LORD hath spoken it.

9 ¶ And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the LORD; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

10 For in this mountain shall the hand of the LORD rest, and Moab shall be trodden down under him, even as straw is trodden down for the dunghill.

CHAPTER XXVI.

1 A song inciting to confidence in God, 5 for his judgments, 12 and for his favour to his people. 20 An exhortation to wait on God.

IN * that day shall this song be sung in the land of Judah: We have a strong city; ^bsalvation will God appoint for walls and bulwarks.

2 * Open ye the gates, that the righteous nation which keepeth the ²truth may enter in.

3 Thou wilt keep him in ³perfect peace, whose ⁴mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee.

4 Trust ye in the LORD for ever: ^dfor in the LORD JEHOVAH is ^eeverlasting strength:

5 ¶ For he bringeth down them that dwell on high: the lofty city, he layeth it low; he layeth it low, even to the ground; he bringeth it even to the dust.

6 The foot shall tread it down, even the feet of the poor, and the steps of the needy.

7 The way of the just is upright-ness: thou, most upright, dost weigh the path of the just.

8 Yea, ⁹in the way of thy judgments, O LORD, have we waited for thee; the desire of our soul is to thy name, and to the remembrance of thee.

9 ^aWith my soul have I desired thee in the night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

10 ^cLiket favour be shewed to the wicked, yet will he not learn righteousness: in ^cthe land of uprightness will he deal unjustly, and will not behold the majesty of the LORD.

11 LORD, when thy hand is lifted up, they will not see: but they shall see, and be ashamed for their envy ^cat the people; yea, the fire of thine enemies shall devour them.

12 ¶ LORD, thou wilt ordain peace for us: for thou also hast wrought all our works ⁷in us.

13 O LORD our God, ^mother lords beside thee have had dominion over us: but by thee only will we make mention of thy name.

14 They are dead, they shall not live; they are deceased, they shall not rise: therefore hast thou visited and destroyed them, and made all their memory to perish.

15 Thou hast increased the nation,

O LORD, thou hast increased the nation: thou art glorified: thou hast removed it far unto all the ends of the earth.

16 LORD, ^min trouble have they visited thee, they poured out a ²prayer when thy chastening was upon them.

17 Like as ^aa woman with child, that draweth near the time of her delivery, is in pain, and crieth out in her pangs; so have we been in thy sight, O LORD.

18 We have been with child, we have been in pain, we have as it were brought forth wind; we have not wrought any deliverance in the earth; neither have ^pthe inhabitants of the world fallen.

19 ^qThy dead men shall live, together with my dead body shall they arise, ^rAwake and sing, ye that dwell in dust: for thy dew is as the dew of herbs, and the earth shall cast out the dead.

20 ¶ Come, my people, ^senter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors about thee: hide thyself as it were ^tfor a little moment, until the indignation be overpast.

21 For, behold, the LORD ^ucometh out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also shall disclose her ^vblood, and shall no more cover her slain.

CHAPTER XXVII.

1 The care of God over his vineyard. 7 His chastenments differ from judgments. 12 The church of Jews and Gentiles.

IN that day the LORD with his sore and great and strong sword shall punish leviathan the ⁴piercing serpent, ^eeven leviathan that crooketh serpent; and he shall slay ^bthe dragon that is in the sea.

2 In that day ^csing ye unto her, ^dA vineyard of red wine.

3 ¶ I the LORD do keep it; I will water it every moment: lest any hurt it, I will keep it night and day.

4 Fury is not in me: who would set ^fthe briars and thorns against me in battle? I would ^ggo through them, I would burn them together.

5 Or let him take hold ^hof my strength, that he may ^amake peace with me; and he shall make peace with me.

6 He shall cause them that come of Jacob ⁱto take root: Israel shall blossom and bud, and fill the face of the world with fruit.

7 ¶ Hath he smitten him, ^eas he smote those that smote him? or is he slain according to the slaughter of them that are slain by him?

8 ¶ In measure, ^jwhen it shooteth forth, thou wilt debate with it: ^khe stayeth his rough wind in the day of the east wind.

10 Yet the defenced city shall be desolate, and the habitation forsaken, and left like a wilderness: ¹¹there shall the calf feed, and there shall he lie down, and consume the branches thereof.

11 When the boughs thereof are withered, they shall be broken off: the women come, and set them on fire: for ¹²it is a people of no understanding: therefore he that made them will not have mercy on them, and ¹³he that formed them will shew them no favour.

12 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that the Lord shall beat off from the channel of the river unto the stream of Egypt, and ye shall be gathered one by one, O ye children of Israel.

13 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, ¹⁴that the great trumpet shall be blown, and they shall come which were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and the outcasts in the land of Egypt, and shall worship the Lord in the holy mount at Jerusalem.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

1 The prophet threateneth Ephraim for their pride and drunkenness. 5 The residue shall be advanced in the kingdom of Christ. 7 He rebuketh their error. 9 Their unthankfulness to scars, 14 and their security. 16 Christ the sure foundation is promised. 18 Their security shall be tried. 25 They are invited to the consideration of God's discreet providence.

W O E to ^athe crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim, whose ^bglorious beauty is a fading flower, which are on the head of the fat valleys of them that are overcome with wine!

2 Behold, the Lord hath a mighty and strong one, ^cwhich as a tempest of hail and a destroying storm, as a flood of mighty waters overflowing shall cast down to the earth with the hand.

3 ¶ The crown of pride, the drunkards of Ephraim, shall be trodden under feet:

4 And ^dthe glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fat valley, shall be a fading flower, and as the hasty fruit before the summer; which when he that looketh upon it seeth, while it is yet in his hand he ^ecatcheth it up.

5 ¶ In that day shall the Lord of hosts be for a crown of glory, and for a diadem of beauty, unto the residue of his people,

6 And for a spirit of judgment to him that sitteth in judgment, and for strength to them that turn the battle to the gate.

7 ¶ But they also ^fhave erred through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way; ^gthe priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble ^hin judgment.

8 For all tables are full of vomit and filthiness, so that there is no place clean.

9 ¶ ⁱWhom shall he teach knowledge? and whom shall he make to understand ^jdoctrine? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts.

10 For precept ^kmust be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little:

11 For with ^lstammering lips and another tongue ^mwill he speak to this people.

12 To whom he said, This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear.

13 But the word of the Lord was unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken.

14 ¶ Wherefore hear the word of the Lord, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem.

15 Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement: when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: ⁿfor we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves:

16 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation ^oa stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste.

17 Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away ^pthe refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place.

18 ¶ And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand: when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be ^qtrodden down by it.

19 From the time that it goeth forth it shall take you: for morning by morning shall it pass over, by day and by night: and it shall be a vexation only ^rto understand the report.

20 For the bed is shorter than that a man can stretch himself on it: and the covering narrower than that he can wrap himself ^sin it.

21 For the Lord shall rise up as ^tin mount Perazim, he shall be wroth as ^uin the valley of Gibeon, that he may ²⁴ Doth the plowman plow all day to sow? doth he open and break the clods of his ground?

²⁶ ¶ For his God doth instruct him to discretion, and doth teach him.

²⁷ For the fitches are not threshed with a threshing instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned about upon the cummin; but the fitches are beaten out with a staff, and the cummin with a rod.

²⁸ Bread corn is bruised; because he will not ever be threshing it, nor break it with the wheel of his cart, nor bruise it with his horsemen.

CHAPTER XXIX.

1 God's heavy judgment upon Jerusalem. 7 The unsatiation of her carnal. 13 The senselessness, 13 and deep hypocrisy of the Jews. 18 A promise of sanctification to the godly.

WOE ⁶a to Ariel, to Ariel, ⁷the city ⁸where David dwelt! add ye year to year; let them ⁸kill sacrifices.

² Yet I will distress Ariel, and there shall be heaviness and sorrow; and it shall be unto me as Ariel.

³ And I will camp against thee round about, and will lay siege against thee with a mount, and I will raise forts against thee.

⁵ Moreover the multitude of thy ⁵strangers shall be like small dust, and the multitude of the terrible ones shall be ⁶as chaff that passeth away: yea, it shall be ⁶at an instant suddenly.

⁶ ¶ Thou shalt be visited of the Lord of hosts with thunder, and with earthquake, and great noise, with storm and tempest, and the flame of devouring fire.

⁷ ¶ And the multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all that fight against her and her munition, and that distress her, shall be ⁸as a dream of a night vision.

⁸ ¶ It shall even be as when an hungry man dreameth, and behold, he eateth; but he awaketh, and his soul is empty: or as when a thirsty man dreameth, and behold, he drinketh; but he awaketh, and behold, he is faint, and his soul hath appetite: so shall the multitude of all the nations be, that fight against mount Zion.

⁹ ¶ Stay yourselves, and wonder; ²cry ye out, and cry: ²they are drunken, ²but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink.

¹⁰ For ²the Lord hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and hath ⁶closed your eyes: the prophets and your ³rulers, ²the seers hath he covered.

¹¹ And the vision of all is become unto you as the words of a ⁴book ⁷that is sealed, which men deliver to one that is learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: ⁷and he saith, I cannot: for it is sealed:

¹² And the book is delivered to him that is not learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I am not learned.

¹³ ¶ Wherefore the Lord said, ⁴Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear toward me is taught by ²the precept of men:

¹⁵ ¶ Woe unto them that seek deep to hide their counsel from the Lord, and their works are in the dark, and ²they say, Who seeth us? and who knoweth us?

¹⁶ Surely your turning of things upside down shall be esteemed as the potter's clay: for shall the ⁴work say of him that made it, He made me not? or shall the thing framed say of him that framed it, He had no understanding?

¹⁷ Is it not yet a very little while, and ⁵Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field shall be esteemed as a forest?

¹⁸ ¶ And ⁶in that day shall the deaf hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity, and out of darkness.

¹⁹ ¶ The meek also ⁶shall increase their joy in the Lord, and ⁶the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.

CHAPTER XXX.

1 The prophet threateth the people for their confidence in Egypt, 8 and contempt of God's word, 18 God's mercies towards his church, 27 God's wrath, and the people's joy, in the destruction of Assyria.

WOE to the rebellious children, saith the LORD, that take counsel, but not of me; and that cover with a covering, but not of my spirit, that they may add sin to sin:
2 That walk to go down into Egypt, and have not asked at my mouth; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt!
3 Therefore shall the strength of Pharaoh be your shame, and the trust in the shadow of Egypt your confusion.

4 For his princes were at Zoan, and his ambassadors came to Hanes.

5 They were all ashamed of a people that could not profit them, nor be an help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach.

6 The burden of the beasts of the south: into the land of trouble and anguish, from whence come the young and old lion, the viper and fiery flying serpent, they will carry their riches upon the shoulders of young asses, and their treasures upon the bunches of camels, to a people that shall not profit them.

7 For the Egyptians shall help in vain, and to no purpose: therefore have I cried concerning this, Their strength is to sit still.

8 ¶ Now go, write it before them in a table, and note it in a book, that it may be for the time to come for ever and ever:

9 That this is a rebellious people, lying children, children that will not hear the law of the LORD:

26 Moreover ³the light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day that the LORD bindeth up the breach of his people, and healeth the stroke of their wound.

27 ¶ Behold, the name of the LORD cometh from far, burning with his anger, ⁴and the burden thereof is ⁵heavy: his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue as a devouring fire:

28 And ⁶his breath, as an overflowing stream, ⁷shall reach to the midst of the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity: and there shall be ⁸a bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to err.

29 Ye shall have a song, as in the night ⁹when a holy solemnity is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goeth with a pipe to come into ¹⁰the mountain of the LORD, to the ¹¹mighty One of Israel.

30 ¹²And the LORD shall cause ¹³his glorious voice to be heard, and shall shew the lighting down of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and with the flame of a devouring fire, with scattering, and tempest, and hailstones.

31 For ¹⁴through the voice of the LORD shall the Assyrian be beaten down, ¹⁵which smote with a rod.

32 And ¹⁶in every place where the grounded staff shall pass, which the LORD shall ¹⁷lay upon him, it shall be with tabrets and harps: and in battles of ¹⁸shaking will he fight ¹⁹with it.

33 ²⁰For Tophet is ordained ²¹of old; yea, for the king it is prepared; he hath made it deep and large: the pile thereof is fire and much wood; the breath of the LORD, like a stream of brimstone, doth kindle it.

CHAPTER XXXI.

1 The prophet sheweth the cursed folly in trusting to Egypt, and forsaking of God. 6 He exhorteth to conversion. 8 He sheweth the fall of Assyria.

W^OLD to them ¹that go down to Egypt for help; and ²stay on horses, and trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong; but they look not unto the Holy One of Israel, ³neither seek the LORD!

2 Yet he also ⁴is wise, and will bring evil, and ⁵will not ⁶call back his words: but will arise against the house of the evildoers and against the help of them that work iniquity.

3 Now the Egyptians are ⁷men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit. When the LORD shall stretch out his hand, both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is holpen shall fall down, and they all shall fall together.

4 For thus hath the LORD spoken unto me, /Like as the lion and the young lion roaring on his prey, when a multitude of shepherds is called forth against him, he will not be afraid of their voice, nor abase himself for the ¹noise of them: ²so shall the LORD of hosts come down to fight for mount Zion, and for the hill thereof.

5 ³As birds flying, so will the LORD of hosts defend Jerusalem; ⁴defending also he will deliver it; and passing over he will preserve it.

6 ¶ Turn ye unto him from whom the children of Israel have ⁵deeply revolted.

7 For in that day every man shall ⁶cast away his idols of silver, and ⁷his idols of gold, which your own hands have made unto you for ⁸a sin.

8 ¶ Then shall the Assyrian ⁹fall with the sword, not of a mighty man; and the sword, not of a mean man, shall devour him: but he shall flee ¹⁰from the sword, and his young men shall be ¹¹discomfited.

9 And ¹²he shall pass over to ¹³his strong hold for fear, and his princes shall be afraid of the ensign, saith the LORD, whose fire is in Zion, and his furnace in Jerusalem.

CHAPTER XXXII.

1 The blessings of Christ's kingdom. 9 Desolation is foretold. 15 Restoration is promised to succeed.

B^EHOOLD, ¹a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in judgment.

2 And a man shall be as an hiding place from the wind, and ²as a covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadow of a ³great rock in a weary land.

3 And ⁴the eyes of them that see shall not be dim, and the ears of them that hear shall hearken.

4 The heart also of the ⁵rash shall understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers shall be ready to speak ⁶plainly.

5 The vile person shall be no more called liberal, nor the churl said to be bountiful.

6 For the vile person will speak villany, and his heart will work iniquity, to practise hypocrisy, and to utter error against the LORD, to make empty the soul of the hungry, and he will cause the drink of the thirsty to fail.

7 The instruments also of the churl are evil: he deviseth wicked devices to destroy the poor with lying words, even ⁸when the needy speaketh right.

11 Tremble, ye women that are at ease; be troubled, ye careless ones: strip you, and make you bare, and gird sackcloth upon your loins.

12 They shall lament for the tears, for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine.

13 ¶ Upon the land of my people shall come up thorns and briers; yea, upon all the houses of joy in the joyous city:

14 ¶ Because the palaces shall be forsaken; the multitude of the city shall be left; the forts and towers shall be for dens for ever, a joy of wild asses, a pasture of flocks;

15 Until the spirit be poured upon us from on high, and the wilderness be a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be counted for a forest.

16 Then judgment shall dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness remain in the fruitful field.

17 ¶ And the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness quietness and assurance for ever.

18 And my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting places;

19 ¶ When it shall hail, coming down on the forest; and the city shall be low in a low place.

20 Blessed are ye that sow beside all waters, that send forth thither the feet of the ox and the ass.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

1 God's judgments against the enemies of the church. 13 The privileges of the godly.

WOE to thee that spoilest, and thou wast not spoiled; and dealest treacherously, and they dealt not treacherously with thee! when thou shalt cease to spoil, thou shalt be spoiled; and when thou shalt make an end to deal treacherously, they shall deal treacherously with thee.

2 O LORD, be gracious unto us; we have waited for thee: be thou their arm every morning, our salvation also in the time of trouble.

3 At the noise of the tumult the people fled; at the lifting up of thyself the nations were scattered.

4 And your spoil shall be gathered like the gathering of the caterpillar: as the running to and fro of locusts shall he run upon them.

5 ¶ The LORD is exalted; for he dwelleth on high: he hath filled Zion with judgment and righteousness.

6 And wisdom and knowledge shall be the stability of thy times, and strength of salvation: the fear of the LORD is his treasure.

7 Behold, their valiant ones shall cry without: the ambassadors of peace shall weep bitterly.

8 The highways lie waste, the way-faring man ceaseth: he hath broken the covenant, he hath despised the cities, he regardeth no man.

9 ¶ The earth mourneth and languisheth: Lebanon is ashamed and hewn down: Sharon is like a wilderness; and Bashan and Carmel shake off their fruits.

10 ¶ Now will I rise, saith the LORD; now will I be exalted; now will I lift up myself.

11 ¶ Ye shall conceive chaff, ye shall bring forth stubble: your breath, as fire, shall devour you.

12 And the people shall be as the burnings of lime: as thorns cut up shall they be burned in the fire.

13 ¶ Hear, ye that are far off, what I have done; and, ye that are near, acknowledge my might.

14 The sinners in Zion are afraid; fearfulness hath surprised the hypocrites. Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire? who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings?

15 He that walketh righteously, and speaketh uprightly; he that despiseth the gain of oppressions, that shaketh his hands from holding of bribes, that stoppeth his ears from hearing of blood, and shutteth his eyes from seeing evil;

16 He shall dwell on high: his place of defence shall be the munitions of rocks: bread shall be given him; his waters shall be sure.

17 Thine eyes shall see the king in his beauty: they shall behold the land that is very far off.

18 Thine heart shall meditate terror. ¶ Where is the scribe? where is the receiver? where is he that counted the towers?

19 ¶ Thou shalt not see a fierce people, a people of a deeper speech than thou canst perceive; of a stammering tongue, that thou canst not understand.

20 ¶ Look upon Zion, the city of our solemnities: thine eyes shall see Jerusalem a quiet habitation, a tabernacle that shall not be taken down; not one of the stakes thereof shall ever be removed, neither shall any of the cords thereof be broken.

16 The certainty of the prophecy.

^aCOME near, ye nations, to hear; and hearken, ye people: ^blet the earth hear, and ^call that is therein; the world, and all things that come forth of it.

2 For the indignation of the LORD is upon all nations, and his fury upon all their armies: he hath utterly destroyed them, he hath delivered them to the slaughter.

3 Their slain also shall be cast out, and ^ctheir stink shall come up out of their carcases, and the mountains shall be melted with their blood.

4 And ^dall the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be ^erolled together as a scroll: and all their host shall fall down, as the leaf falleth off from the vine, and as a ^ffalling fig from the fig tree.

5 For ^gmy sword shall be lathed in heaven: behold, it shall come down upon Idumea, and upon the people of my curse, to judgment.

6 The sword of the LORD is filled with blood, it is made fit with fatness, and with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams; for ^hthe LORD hath a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Idumea.

7 And the ⁱunicorns shall come down with them, and the bullocks with the bulls; and their land shall be ^jsoaked with blood, and their dust made fat with fatness.

8 For it is the day of the LORD's vengeance, and the year of recom-pences for the controversy of Zion.

9 ^kAnd the streams thereof shall be turned into pitch, and the dust thereof into brimstone, and the land thereof shall become burning pitch.

10 It shall not be quenched night nor day; ^lthe smoke thereof shall go up for ever: ^mfrom generation to generation it shall lie waste; none shall pass through it for ever and ever.

11 ⁿBut the ^ocormorant and the bittern shall possess it; the owl also and the raven shall dwell in it: and ^phe shall stretch out upon it the line of confusion, and the stones of emptiness.

12 They shall call the nobles thereof to the kingdom, but none shall be there, and all her princes shall be nothing.

13 And ^qthorns shall come up in her palaces, nettles and brambles in the fortresses thereof; and ^rit shall be an habitation of dragons, and a court for ^sowls.

14 ^tThe wild beasts of the desert shall also meet with ^uthe wild beasts of the island, and the satyr shall cry to his fellow; the ^vscreech owl also shall rest there, and find for herself a place of rest.

15 There shall the great owl make her nest, and lay, and hatch, and gather under her shadow: there shall the vultures also be gathered, every one with her mate.

16 ^wSeek ye out of ^xthe book of the LORD, and read: no one of these shall fail, none shall want her mate: for my mouth it hath commanded, and his spirit it hath gathered them.

17 And he hath cast the lot for them, and his hand hath divided it unto them by line: they shall possess it for ever, from generation to generation shall they dwell therein.

CHAPTER XXXV.

1 The joyful flourishing of Christ's kingdom.
3 The weak are encouraged by the virtues and privileges of the gospel.

THE ^awilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose.

2 ^bIt shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing:
the glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon, they shall see the glory of the LORD, and the excellency of our God.

3 ^cStrengthen ye the weak hands, and confirm the feeble knees.

4 Say to them that are of a ^dfearful heart, Be strong, fear not: behold, your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompence; he will come and save you.

5 Then the ^eeyes of the blind shall be opened, and ^fthe ears of the deaf shall be unstopped.

6 Then shall the ^gflame man leap as an hart, and the ^htongue of the dumb sing: for in the wilderness shall ⁱwaters break out, and streams in the desert.

7 And the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water: in ^jthe habitation of dragons, where each lay, shall be ^kgrass with reeds and rushes.

8 And an highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called The way of holiness: ^lthe unclean shall not pass over it; ^mbut it shall be for those: the wayfaring men, though fools, shall not err therein.

9 ⁿNo lion shall be there, nor any

CHAPTER XXXVI.

1 Sennacherib invadeth Judah. 4 Rabshakeh, sent by Sennacherib, by blasphemous persuasions solicited the people to revolt. 22 His words are told to Hezekiah.

NOW "it came to pass in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fenced cities of Judah, and took them.

2 And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem unto king Hezekiah with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field.

3 Then came forth unto him Eliakim, Hilkiah's son, which was over the house, and Shebna the "scribe, and Joah, Asaph's son, the recorder.

4 ¶ And Rabshakeh said unto them, Say ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this where-in thou trustest?

5 I say, sajest thou, (but they are but 3 vain words) 4 I have counsel and strength for war: now on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?

6 Lo, thou trustest in the "staff of this broken reed, on Egypt; whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all that trust in him.

7 But if thou say to me, We trust in the Lord our God: is it not he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and said to Judah and to Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar?

8 Now therefore give 5 pledges, I pray thee, to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two thousand horses. If thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

9 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

10 And am I now come up without the Lord against this land to destroy it? the Lord said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

11 ¶ Then said Eliakim and Shebna and Joah unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and speak not to us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

12 ¶ But Rabshakeh said, Hath my master sent me to thy master and to thee to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men that sit upon the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with you?

13 Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, Hear ye the words of the great king, the king of Assyria.

14 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you.

15 Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the Lord, saying, The Lord will surely deliver us: this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

16 Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, 23 Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me: 4 and eat ye every one of his vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his own cistern:

17 Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

18 Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, The Lord will deliver us. Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

19 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arphad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim? and have they delivered Sumaria out of my hand?

20 Who are they among all the gods of these lands, that have delivered their land out of my hand, that the Lord should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?

21 But they held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

22 ¶ Then came Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, that was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

Hezekiah: for he had heard that he had been sick, and was recovered.

2 And Hezekiah was glad of them, and shewed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not.

3 Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country unto me, even from Babylon.

4 Then said he, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them.

5 Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD of hosts:

6 Behold, the days come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD.

7 And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

8 Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah, Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. He said moreover, For there shall be peace and truth in my days.

1 The promulgation of the gospel. 3 The preaching of John Baptist. 9 The preaching of the apostles. 12 The prophet by the omnipresence of God. 18 and his incomparableness, 26 comforteth the people.

COMFORT ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God.

2 Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned: for she hath received of the LORD's hand double for all her sins.

3 The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the LORD, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

4 Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low: and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain:

5 And the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

6 The voice said, Cry. And he said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all the goodness thereof is as the flower of the field:

7 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: because the spirit of the LORD bloweth upon it: surely the people is grass.

8 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but the word of our God shall stand for ever.

9 O Zion, that bringest good tidings, get thee up into the high mountain: O Jerusalem, that bringest good tidings, lift up thy voice with strength; lift it up, be not afraid; say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God!

10 Behold, the Lord God will come with strong hand, and his arm shall rule for him: behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him.

11 He shall feed his flock like a shepherd: he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young.

12 Who hath measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and meted out heaven with the span, and comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance?

13 Who hath directed the Spirit of the LORD, or being his counsellor hath taught him?

14 With whom took he counsel, and who instructed him, and taught him in the path of judgment, and taught him knowledge, and shewed to him the way of understanding?

15 Behold, the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the balance: behold, he taketh up the isles as a very little thing.

16 And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor the beasts thereof sufficient for a burnt offering.

17 All nations before him are as nothing: and they are counted to him less than nothing, and vanity.

18 To whom then will ye liken God? or what likeness will ye compare unto him?

19 The workman melteth a graven image, and the goldsmith spreadeth it over with gold, and casteth silver chains.

20 He that is so impoverished that he hath no oblation chooseth a tree that will not rot; he seeketh unto him a cunning workman to prepare a graven image, that shall not be moved.

21 Have ye not known? have ye not heard? hath it not been told you from the beginning? have ye not understood from the foundations of the earth?

22 It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; that stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in:

thing; he maketh the judges of the earth as vanity.

24 Yea, they shall not be planted; yea, they shall not be sown: yea, their stock shall not take root in the earth: and he shall also blow upon them, and they shall wither, and the whirlwind shall take them away as stubble.

25 ¶ To whom then will ye liken me, or shall I be equal? saith the Holy One.

26 Lift up your eyes on high, and behold who hath created these things, that bringeth out their host by number: he calleth them all by names by the greatness of his might, for that he is strong in power; not one faileth.

27 Why sayest thou, O Jacob, and speakest, O Israel, My way is hid from the LORD, and my judgment is passed over from my God?

28 ¶ Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of his understanding.

29 He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength.

30 Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fail:

31 But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.

CHAPTER XLI.

1 God expostulateth with his people, about his mercies to the church, 30 about his promises, 21 and about the vanity of idols.

KEEP silence before me, O islands; and let the people renew their strength: let them come near; then let them speak: let us come near together to judgment.

2 Who raised up the righteous man from the east, called him to his foot, gave the nations before him, and made him rule over kings? he gave them as the dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bow.

3 He pursued them, and passed safely: even by the way that he had not gone with his feet.

4 ¶ Who hath wrought and done it, calling the generations from the beginning? I the LORD, the first, and with the last; I am he.

5 The isles saw it, and feared; the ends of the earth were afraid, drew near, and came.

6 They helped every one his neighbour: and every one said to his brother, Be of good courage.

7 So the carpenter encouraged the goldsmith, and he that smootheeth with the hammer him that smote the anvil, saying, It is ready for the soldering: and he fastened it with nails, that it should not be moved.

8 But thou, Israel, art my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham my friend.

9 Thou whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and called thee from the chief men thereof, and said unto thee, Thou art my servant; I have chosen thee, and not cast thee away.

10 ¶ Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.

11 Behold, all they that were incensed against thee shall be ashamed and confounded: they shall be as nothing; and they that strive with thee shall perish.

12 Thou shalt seek them, and shalt not find them, even them that contended with thee: they that war against thee shall be as nothing, and as a thing of nought.

13 For I the LORD thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not; I will help thee.

14 Fear not, thou worm Jacob, and ye men of Israel; I will help thee, saith the LORD, and thy redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

15 Behold, I will make thee a new sharp threshing instrument having teeth: thou shalt thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and shalt make the hills as chaff.

16 Thou shalt ⁷fan them, and the wind shall carry them away, and the whirlwind shall scatter them: and thou shalt rejoice in the LORD, and shalt glory in the Holy One of Israel.

17 When the poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongue faileth for thirst, I the LORD will hear them, I the God of Israel will not forsake them.

18 I will open rivers in high places, and fountains in the midst of the valleys: I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water.

19 I will plant in the wilderness the cedar, the shittah tree, and the myrtle, and the oil tree; I will set in the desert the fir tree, and the pine, and the box tree together:

20 ¶ That they may see, and know, and consider, and understand together, that the hand of the LORD hath done this, and the Holy One of Israel hath created it.

21 ¶ Produce your cause, saith the LORD; bring forth your strong reasons, saith the King of Jacob.

23 ³ Shew the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that ye are gods: yea, ⁴ do good, or do evil, that we may be dismayed, and behold it together.

24 Behold, ⁵ ye are ⁶ of nothing, and your work ⁷ of nought: an abomination is he that chooseth you.

25 I have raised up one from the north, and he shall come: from the rising of the sun ⁸ shall he call upon my name: ⁹ and he shall come upon princes as upon mortar, and as the potter treadeth clay.

27 ⁵ The first I shall say to Zion, Behold, behold them: and I will give to Jerusalem one that bringeth good tidings.

28 ⁶ For I beheld, and there was no man; even among them, and there was no counsellor, that, when I asked of them, could ⁷ answer a word.

29 ⁸ Behold, they are all vanity; their works are nothing: their molten images are wind and confusion.

CHAPTER XLII.

1 The office of Christ, graced with meekness and lowliness. 5 God's promise unto him. 10 An exhortation to praise God for his gospel. 17 He reprovethe the people of incredulity.

BEHOLD ⁴ my servant, whom I uphold: mine elect, in whom my soul ⁵ delighteth: ⁶ I have put my spirit upon him: he shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles.

2 He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause his voice to be heard in the street.

3 A bruised reed shall he not break, and the ⁷ smoking flax shall he not ⁸ quench: he shall bring forth judgment unto truth.

4 He shall not fail nor be ⁹ discouraged, till he have set judgment in the earth: ¹⁰ and the isles shall wait for his law.

5 ¹¹ Thus saith God the LORD, ¹² he that created the heavens, and stretched them out; ¹³ he that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it; ¹⁴ he that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein:

6 ¹⁵ I the LORD have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thine hand, and will keep thee, ¹⁶ and give thee for a covenant of the people, for ¹⁷ a light of the Gentiles;

7 ¹⁸ To open the blind eyes, to ¹⁹ bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in ²⁰ darkness out of the prison house.

8 ²¹ I am the LORD: that is my name: and my ²² glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images.

9 Behold, the former things are come to pass, and new things do I declare: before they spring forth I tell you of them.

10 ²³ Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth, ²⁴ ye that go down to the sea, and ²⁵ all that is therein; the isles, and the inhabitants thereof.

11 Let the wilderness and the cities thereof lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar do inhabit: let the inhabitants of the rock sing, let them shout from the top of the mountains.

12 Let them give glory unto the LORD, and declare his praise in the islands.

13 The LORD shall go forth as a mighty man, he shall stir up jealousy like a man of war: he shall cry, ²⁶ yea, roar; he shall ²⁷ prevail against his enemies.

14 I have long time holden my peace; I have been still, and refrained myself: now will I cry like a travelling woman; I will destroy and ²⁸ devour at once.

15 I will make waste mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbs; and I will make the rivers islands, and I will dry up the pools.

16 And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things ²⁹ straight. These things will I do unto them, and they not forsake them.

17 ³⁰ They shall be ³¹ turned back, they shall be greatly ashamed, that trust in graven images, that say to the molten images, Ye are our gods.

18 Hear, ye deaf; and look, ye blind, that ye may see.

19 ³² Who is blind, but my servant? or deaf, as my messenger that I sent? who is blind as he that is perfect, and blind as the LORD's servant?

20 Seeing many things, ³³ but thou observest not; opening the ears, but he heareth not.

21 The LORD is well pleased for his righteousness' sake; he will magnify the law, and make ³⁴ it honourable.

22 But this is a people robbed and spoiled; ³⁵ they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison houses: they are for a prey, and none delivereth; for ³⁶ a spoil, and none saith, Restore.

23 Who among you will give ear to this? who will hearken and hear ³⁷ for the time to come?

he against whom we have sinned? for they would not walk in his ways, neither were they obedient unto his law.

25 Therefore he hath poured upon him the fury of his anger, and the strength of battle: and it hath set him on fire round about, yet he knew not; and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart.

CHAPTER XLIII.

1 The Lord comforteth the church with his promises. 8 He appealeth to the people for witnesses of his omnipotency. 14 He foretelleth them the destruction of Babylon. 18 and his wonderful deliverance of his people. 22 He reproverth the people as uncecuable.

BUT now thus saith the LORD "that created thee, O Jacob, and he that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not: for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine.

2 "When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou shalt walk through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee.

3 For I am the LORD thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour: I gave Egypt for thy ransom, Ethiopia and Sebu for thee.

4 Since thou wast precious in my sight, thou hast been honourable, and I have loved thee: therefore will I give men for thee, and people for thy life.

5 "Fear not: for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from the east, and gather thee from the west;

6 I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back: bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth;

7 Even every one that is called by my name: for I have created him for my glory, I have formed him; yea, I have made him.

8 "Bring forth the blind people that have eyes, and the deaf that have ears.

9 Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the people be assembled: of whom among them can declare this, and shew us former things? let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be justified: or let them hear, and say, It is truth.

10 Ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, and my servant whom I have chosen: that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: before me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me.

11 I, even I, am the LORD; and beside me there is no saviour.

12 I have declared, and have saved, and I have shewed, when there was no strange god among you: therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, that I am God.

13 Yea, before the day was I am he; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand: I will work, and who shall let it?

14 Thus saith the LORD, your redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and have brought down all their nobles, and the Chaldeans, whose cry is in the ships.

15 I am the LORD, your Holy One, the creator of Israel, your King.

16 Thus saith the LORD, which maketh a way in the sea, and a path in the mighty waters;

17 Which bringeth forth the chariot and horse, the army and the power: they shall lie down together, they shall not rise: they are extinct, they are quenched as tow.

18 "Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old.

19 Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.

20 The beast of the field shall honour me, the dragons and the owls: because I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen.

21 This people have I formed for myself; they shall shew forth my praise.

22 "But thou hast not called upon me, O Jacob; but thou hast been weary of me, O Israel.

23 Thou hast not brought me the small cattle of thy burnt offerings; neither hast thou honoured me with thy sacrifices. I have not caused thee to serve with an offering, nor wearied thee with incense.

24 Thou hast bought me no sweet cane with money, neither hast thou filled me with the fat of thy sacrifices: but thou hast made me to serve with thy sins, thou hast wearied me with thine iniquities.

25 I, even I, am he that blot out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins.

26 Put me in remembrance: let us plead together: declare thou, that thou mayest be justified.

27 Thy first father hath sinned, and thy teachers have transgressed against me.

28 Therefore I have profaned the princes of the sanctuary, and have given Jacob to the curse, and Israel to reproaches.

2 Thus saith the LORD that made thee, and formed thee from the womb, which will help thee; Fear not, O Jacob, my servant; and thou, ³Jesusur, whom I have chosen.

3 For I will ⁴pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground: I will pour my spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring:

4 And they shall spring up as among the grass, as willows by the water courses.

5 One shall say, I am the LORD's; and another shall call himself by the name of Jacob; and another shall subscribe with his hand unto the LORD, and surname himself by the name of Israel.

6 Thus saith the LORD the King of Israel, and his redeemer the LORD of hosts; I am the first, and I am the last; and beside me there is no God.

7 And ⁸who, as I, shall call, and shall declare it, and set it in order for me, since I appointed the ancient people? and the things that are coming, and shall come, let them show unto them.

8 Fear ye not, neither be afraid: ⁹have not I told thee from that time, and have declared it? ye are even my witnesses. Is there a God beside me? yea, ¹⁰there is no God; I know not any.

9 ¶ They that make a graven image are all of them vanity; and their ¹¹delectable things shall not profit; and they are their own witnesses; "they see not, nor know; that they may be ashamed.

10 Who hath formed a god, or molten a graven image ¹²that is profitable for nothing?

11 Behold, all his fellows shall be ashamed; and the workmen, they are of men: let them all be gathered together, let them stand up; yet they shall fear, and they shall be ashamed together.

12 ¶ The smith ¹³with the tongs both worketh in the coals, and fashioneth it with hammers, and worketh it with the strength of his arms: yea, he is hungry, and his strength filleth: he drinketh no water, and is faint.

13 The carpenter stretcheth out his rule; he marketh it out with a line; he fitteth it with planes, and he maketh it out with the compass, and maketh it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man; that it may remain in the house.

14 He heweth him down cedars, and taketh the cypress and the oak, which he ¹⁵strengtheneth for himself among the trees of the forest: he planteth an ash, and the ruin doth nourish it.

15 Then shall it be for a man to burn: for he will take thereof, and warm himself; yea, he kindleth it, and baketh bread; yea, he maketh a god, and worshippeth it; he maketh it a graven image, and falleth down thereto.

16 He burneth part thereof in the fire; with part thereof he catcheth flesh; he roasteth roast, and is satisfied: yea, he warmeth himself, and saith, Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire:

17 And the residue thereof he maketh a god, even his graven image: he falleth down unto it, and worshippeth it, and prayeth unto it, and saith, Deliver me; for thou art my god.

18 ¶ They have not known nor understood: for ¹⁹he hath shut their eyes, that they cannot see; and their hearts, that they cannot understand.

19 And none ²⁰considereth in his heart, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burned part of it in the fire; yea, also I have baked bread upon the coals thereof; I have roasted flesh, and eaten it: and shall I make the residue thereof an abomination? shall I fall down to ²¹the stock of a tree?

20 He feedeth on ashes: ²²a deceived heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand?

21 ¶ Remember these, O Jacob and Israel; for ²³thou art my servant: I have formed thee; thou art my servant: O Israel, thou shalt not be forgotten of me.

22 ¶ I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and, as a cloud, thy sins: return unto me; for ²⁴I have redeemed thee.

23 ¶ Sing, O ye heavens; for the LORD hath done it: shout, ye lower parts of the earth: break forth into singing, ye mountains, O forest, and every tree therein: for the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and glorified himself in Israel.

24 Thus saith the LORD, ²⁵thy redeemer, and ²⁶he that formed thee from the womb, I am the LORD that maketh all things; ²⁷that stretcheth forth the heavens alone; that spreadeth abroad the earth by myself;

25 That ²⁸frustrateth the tokens of the liars, and maketh diviners mad; that turneth wise men backward, and maketh their knowledge foolish;

26 ¶ That confirmeth the word of his servant, and performeth the counsel of his messengers; that saith to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be inhabited; and to the cities of Judah, Ye shall be built, and I will raise up the ²⁹decayed places thereof:

27 ¶ That saith to the deep, Be dry, and I will dry up thy rivers:

28 That saith of Cyrus, He is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure: even saying to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be built; and to the temple, Thy foundation shall be laid.

CHAPTER XLV.

1 God calleth Cyrus for his church's sake. 5 By his omnipotency he challengeth obedience. 20 He censurcth the idols of vanity by his saving power.

THUS saith the LORD to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have holden, to subdue nations before him; and I will loose the loins of kings, to open before him the two leaved gates; and the gates shall not be shut;

2 I will go before thee, and make the crooked places straight: I will break in pieces the gates of brass, and cut in sunder the bars of iron:

3 And I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that thou mayest know that I, the LORD, which call thee by thy name, am the God of Israel.

4 For Jacob my servant's sake, and Israel mine elect, I have even called thee by thy name: I have surnamed thee, though thou hast not known me.

5 ¶ I am the LORD, and there is none else, there is no God beside me: I girded thee, though thou hast not known me:

6 ¶ That they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is none beside me. I am the LORD, and there is none else.

7 I form the light, and create darkness: I make peace, and create evil: I the LORD do all these things.

8 ¶ Drop down, ye heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness: let the earth open, and let them bring forth salvation, and let righteousness spring up together; I the LORD have created it.

9 Woe unto him that striveth with his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherd of the earth. Shall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou? or thy work, He hath no hands?

10 Woe unto him that saith unto his father, What becometh thou? or to the woman, What hast thou brought forth?

11 Thus saith the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker, Ask me of things to come concerning my sons, and concerning the work of my hands command ye me.

12 ¶ I have made the earth, and created man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded.

13 ¶ I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will direct all his ways: he shall build my city, and he shall let go my captives, not for price nor reward, saith the LORD of hosts.

14 Thus saith the LORD, The labour of Egypt, and merchandise of Ethiopia and of the Sabeans, men of stature, shall come over unto thee, and they shall be thine: they shall come after thee; in chains they shall come over, and they shall fall down unto thee, they shall make supplication unto thee, saying, Surely God is in thee; and there is none else, there is no God.

15 Verily thou art a God that hidest thyself, O God of Israel, the Saviour. 16 They shall be ashamed, and also confounded, all of them: they shall go to confusion together that are makers of idols.

17 But Israel shall be saved in the LORD with an everlasting salvation: ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end.

18 For thus saith the LORD that created the heavens; God himself that formed the earth and made it; he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited: I am the LORD; and there is none else.

19 I have not spoken in secret, in a dark place of the earth: I said not unto the seed of Jacob, Seek ye me in vain: I the LORD speak righteousness, I declare things that are right.

20 ¶ Assemble yourselves and come; draw near together, ye that are escaped of the nations: they have no knowledge that set up the wood of their graven image, and pray unto a god that cannot save.

21 Tell ye, and bring them near; yea, let them take counsel together: who hath declared this from ancient time? who hath told it from that time? have not I the LORD? and there is no God else beside me; a just God and a Saviour; there is none beside me.

22 ¶ Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else.

23 ¶ I have sworn by myself, the word is gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, That unto me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear.

24 ¶ Surely, shall one say, in the LORD have I righteousness and strength: even to him shall men come; and all that are incensed against him shall be ashamed.

25 ¶ In the LORD shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory.

CHAPTER XLVI.

1 The idols of Babylon could not save themselves. 3 God saveth his people to the end. 12 Idols are not comparable to God for power, 12 or present salvation.

BEL boweth down, Nebo stoopeth, their idols were upon the beasts, and upon the cattle: your carriages were heavy loaden; they are a burden to the weary beast.

2 They stoop, they bow down together; they could not deliver the burden, but themselves are gone into captivity.

5 ¶ To whom will ye liken me, and make me equal, and compare me, that we may be like?

6 ¶ They lavish gold out of the bag, and weigh silver in the balance, and hire a goldsmith; and he maketh it a god: they fall down, yea, they worship.

7 ¶ They bear him upon the shoulder, they carry him, and set him in his place, and he standeth; from his place shall he not remove: yea, ⁸ one shall cry unto him, yet can he not answer, nor save him out of his trouble.

8 Remember this, and shew yourselves men: bring it again to mind, O ye transgressors.

9 ¶ Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and ¹⁰ there is none else; I am God, and there is none like me,

12 ¶ Hearken unto me, ye stout-hearted, that are far from righteousness:

13 ¶ I bring near my righteousness; it shall not be far off, and my salvation shall not tarry: and I will place salvation in Zion for Israel my glory.

CHAPTER XLVII.

1 God's judgment upon Bolygon and Chaldeans, for their unbelief, pride, and overboldness, 11 shall be unresistible.

COME down, and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon, sit on the ground: there is no throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called tender and delicate.

2 Take the millstones, and grind meal: uncover thy locks, make bare the leg, uncover the thigh, pass over the rivers.

3 ¶ Thy nakedness shall be uncovered, yea, thy shame shall be seen: I will take vengeance, and I will not meet thee as a man.

4 As for your redeemer, the LORD of hosts is his name, the Holy One of Israel.

5 Sit thou silent, and get thee into darkness, O daughter of the Chal-deans: for thou shalt no more be called, The lady of kingdoms.

6 ¶ I was wroth with my people, I have polluted mine inheritance, and given them into thine hand: thou didst shew them no mercy; upon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke.

7 ¶ And thou saidst, I shall be a lady for ever: so that thou didst not lay these things to thy heart, neither didst remember the latter end of it.

8 Therefore hear now this, thou that art given to pleasures, that dwellest carelessly, that sayest in thine heart, I am, and none else beside me: I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children:

9 But these two things shall come to thee in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood: they shall come upon thee in their perfection for the multitude of thy sorceries, and for the great abundance of thine enchantments.

10 ¶ For thou hast trusted in thy wickedness: thou hast said, None seeth me. Thy wisdom and thy knowledge, it hath perverted thee; and thou hast said in thine heart, I am, and none else beside me.

11 ¶ Therefore shall evil come upon thee; thou shalt not know from whence it riseth: and mischief shall fall upon thee; thou shalt not be able to put it off: and desolation shall come upon thee suddenly, which thou shalt not know.

12 Stand now with thine enchantments, and with the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast laboured from thy youth; if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou mayest prevail.

13 ¶ Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels. Let now the astrologers, the stargazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up, and save thee from these things that shall come upon thee.

14 Behold, they shall be as stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame: there shall not be a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it.

15 Thus shall they be unto thee with whom thou hast laboured, even the merchants, from thy youth: they shall wander every one to his quarter; none shall save thee.

CHAPTER XLVIII.

1 God, to convince the people of their foreknowledge, reviveth his prophecies, 9 He saveth them for his own sake, 12 He exhorteth them to obedience, because of his power and providence, 16 He lamenteth their backwardness, 20 He powerfully delivereth him out of Babylon.

2 For they call themselves ³of the holy city, and ⁴stay themselves upon the God of Israel; The Lord of hosts is his name.

3 I have declared the former things from the beginning; and they went forth out of my mouth, and I shewed them; I did them suddenly, ⁵and they came to pass.

4 Because I knew that thou art ²obstinate, and ³thy neck is an iron sinew, and thy brow brass;

5 I have even from the beginning declared it to thee; before it came to pass I shewed it thee: lest thou shouldst say, Mine idol hath done them, and my graven image, and my molten image, hath commanded them.

6 Thou hast heard, see all this; and will not ye declare it? I have shewed thee new things from this time, even hidden things, and thou didst not know them.

7 They are created now, and not from the beginning; even before the day when thou heardest them not; lest thou shouldst say, Behold, I knew them.

8 Yea, thou heardest not; yea, thou knewest not; yea, from that time that thine ear was not opened: for I knew that thou wouldest deal very treacherously, and wast called ²a transgressor from the womb.

9 ¶ For my name's sake ¹will I defer mine anger, and for my praise will I refrain for thee, that I cut thee not off.

10 Behold, ²I have refined thee, but not ³with silver; I have chosen thee in the furnace of affliction.

11 ¶ For mine own sake, even for mine own sake, will I do it: for ²how should my name be polluted? and ³I will not give my glory unto another.

12 ¶ I hearken unto me, O Jacob and Israel, my called; ¹I am he; I am the ²first, I also am the last.

13 ¹Mine hand also hath laid the foundation of the earth, and ²my right hand hath spanned the heavens: when ³I call unto them, they stand up together.

14 ²All ye, assemble yourselves, and hear; which among them hath declared these things? ³The Lord hath loved him: ⁴he will do his pleasure on Babylon, and his arm shall be on the Chaldeans.

15 I, even I, have spoken; yea, ¹I have called him: I have brought him, and he shall make his way prosperous.

16 ¶ Come ye near unto me, hear ye this; ²I have not spoken in secret from the beginning; from the time that it was, there am I: and now ¹the Lord God, and his Spirit, hath sent me.

17 Thus saith ¹the Lord, thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: ²I am the Lord thy God which teacheth thee to profit, which leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldst go.

18 O that thou hadst hearkened to my commandments! ¹then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea:

19 ¹Thy seed also had been as the sand, and the offspring of thy bowels like the gravel thereof; his name should not have been cut off nor destroyed from before me.

20 ¶ Go ye forth of Babylon, flee ye from the Chaldeans, with a voice of singing declare ye, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth; say ye, The Lord hath ²redeemed his servant Jacob.

21 And they ¹thirsted not when he led them through the deserts: he ²caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them: he clave the rock also, and the waters gushed out.

22 ¹There is no peace, saith the Lord, unto the wicked.

CHAPTER XLIX.

1 Christ, being sent to the Jews, complaineth of them. 5 He is sent to the Gentiles with gracious promises. 13 God's love is perpetual to his church. 18 The ample restoration of the church. 24 The powerful deliverance out of captivity.

LISTEN, O isles, unto me; and ²hearken, ye people, from far; ³The Lord hath called me from the womb; from the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name.

2 And he hath made ¹my mouth like a sharp sword; ²in the shadow of his hand hath he hid me, and made me ³a polished shaft; in his quiver hath he hid me;

3 And said unto me, ¹Thou art my servant, O Israel, ²in whom I will be glorified.

4 ¹Then I said, I have laboured in vain, I have spent my strength for nought, and in vain: yet surely my judgment is with the Lord, and ²my work with my God.

5 ¶ And now, saith the Lord ¹that formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob again to him, ²Though Israel ³be not gathered, yet shall I be glorious in the eyes of the Lord, and my God shall be my strength.

6 And he said, ¹It is a light thing that thou shouldst be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the ²preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a ³light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth.

7 Thus saith the Lord, the Redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One, ²to him whom man despiseth, to him whom the 7 ¶ For the Lord God will help me; therefore shall I not be confounded: therefore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed.

8 ¶ He is near that justifieth me; who will contend with me? let us stand together: who is mine adversary? let him come near to me.

9 Behold, the Lord God will help me; who is he that shall condemn me? ¶ lo, they all shall wax old as a garment; the moth shall eat them up.

10 ¶ Who is among you that feareth the Lord, that obeyeth the voice of his servant, that walketh in darkness, and hath no light? ¶ let him trust in the name of the Lord, and stay upon his God.

11 Behold, all ye that kindle a fire, that compass yourselves about with sparks: walk in the light of your fire, and in the sparks that ye have kindled. ¶ This shall ye have of mine hand; ye shall lie down in sorrow.

CHAPTER LI.

1 An exhortation, after the pattern of Abraham, to trust in Christ. 3 By reason of his comfortable promises, 4 of his righteous salvation, 7 and man's mortality. 9 Christ by his sanctified arm defendeth his from the fear of man. 17 He bewaileth the afflictions of Jerusalem, 21 and promitteth deliverance.

¶ HEARKEN to me, b ye that follow after righteousness, ye that seek the Lord: look unto the rock whence ye are hewn, and to the hole of the pit whence ye are digged.

2 ¶ Look unto Abraham your father, and unto Sarah that bare you: ¶ for I called him alone, and blessed him, and increased him.

3 For the Lord shall comfort Zion: he will comfort all her waste places; and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the Lord; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

4 ¶ Hearken unto me, my people; and give ear unto me, O my nation: ¶ for a law shall proceed from me, and I will make my judgment to rest ¶ for a light of the people.

5 ¶ My righteousness is near; my salvation is gone forth, and mine arms shall judge the people; ¶ the isles shall wait upon me, and ¶ on mine arm shall they trust.

6 ¶ Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath: for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner: but my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished.

7 ¶ Hearken unto me, ye that know righteousness, the people in whose heart is my law; ¶ fear ye not the reproach of men, neither be ye afraid of their reviling.

8 For ¶ the moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool: but my righteousness shall be for ever, and my salvation from generation to generation.

9 ¶ Awake, awake, ¶ put on strength, O arm of the Lord; awake, ¶ as in the ancient days, in the generations of old. ¶ Art thou not it that hath cut Rahab, and wounded the dragon?

10 ¶ Art thou not it which hath dried the sea, the waters of the great deep; that hath made the depths of the sea a way for the ransomed to pass over?

11 Therefore ¶ the redeemed of the Lord shall return, and come with singing unto Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their head: they shall obtain gladness and joy; and sorrow and mourning shall flee away.

12 I, even I, am he ¶ that comforteth you: who art thou, that thou shouldst be afraid of a man that shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made as grass;

13 And forgettest the Lord thy maker, that hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth; and hast feared continually every day because of the fury of the oppressor, as if he were ready to destroy? ¶ and where is the fury of the oppressor?

14 The captive exile hasteneth that he may be loosed, and that he should not die in the pit, nor that his bread should fail.

15 But I am the Lord thy God, that ¶ divided the sea, whose waves roared: The Lord of hosts is his name.

16 And ¶ I have put my words in thy mouth, and ¶ I have covered thee in the shadow of mine hand, ¶ that I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say unto Zion, Thou art my people.

17 ¶ Awake, awake, stand up, O Jerusalem, which ¶ hast drunk at the hand of the Lord the cup of his fury; ¶ thou hast drunken the dregs of the cup of trembling, and wrung them out.

18 There is none to guide her among all the sons whom she hath brought forth; neither is there any that taketh her by the hand of all the sons that she hath brought up.

19 ¶ These two things ¶ are come unto thee; who shall be sorry for thee? desolation, and destruction, and the famine, and the sword: ¶ by whom shall I comfort thee?

21 ¶ Therefore hear now this, thou afflicted, and drunken, ⁹ but not with 22 Thus saith thy Lord the LORD, and thy God ¹⁰ that pleadeth the cause of his people, Behold, I have taken out of thine hand the cup of trembling, even the dregs of the cup of my fury; thou shalt no more drink it again:

23 But ¹¹ "I will put it into the hand have said to thy soul, Bow down, that we may go over: and thou hast laid thy body as the ground, and as

CHAPTER LII.

1 Christ persuadeth the church to believe his free redemption, 7 to receive the ministers thereof, 9 to joy in the power thereof, 11 and to free themselves from bondage. 13 Christ's kingdom shall be exalted.

AWAKE, ¹ awake; put on thy strength, O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, ² the holy city: for ³ henceforth there shall no more come into thee the uncircumcised ⁴ and the unclean.

2 ⁵ Shake thyself from the dust;
arise, and sit down, O Jerusalem:
⁶ loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion.

3 For thus saith the LORD, ⁷ Ye have sold yourselves for nought; and ye shall be redeemed without money.

4 For thus saith the Lord God, My people went down aforetime into ⁸ Egypt to sojourn there; and the Assyrian oppressed them without cause.

5 Now therefore, what have I here, saith the LORD, that my people is taken away for nought? they that rule over them make them to howl, saith the LORD; and my name continually every day ⁹ is blasphemed.

6 Therefore my people shall know my name: therefore ¹⁰ they shall know in that day that I am he that doth speak: behold, ¹¹ it is I.

7 ¶ ¹² How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, ¹³ Thy God reigneth!

8 Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye, when the LORD shall bring again Zion.

9 ¶ Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem:
¹⁰ for the LORD hath comforted his people, ¹¹ he hath redeemed Jerusalem.
10 ¹² The LORD hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and ¹³ all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

11 ¶ ¹⁴ Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no unclean thing; go ye out of the midst of her; ¹⁵ be ye clean, that bear the vessels of the LORD.

12 For ¹⁶ ye shall not go out with haste, nor go by flight: ¹⁷ for the LORD will go before you; ¹⁸ and the God of Israel ¹⁹ will be your reward.

13 ¶ Behold, ²⁰ my servant shall ²¹ deal prudently, ²² he shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high.

14 As many were astonished at thee; his ²³ visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men:

15 ²⁴ So shall he sprinkle many nations; ²⁵ the kings shall shut their mouths at him: for ²⁶ that ²⁷ which had not been told them shall they see; and ²⁸ that which they had not heard shall they consider.

CHAPTER LIII.

1 The prophet, complaining of incredulity, excuseth the scandal of the cross, 4 by the benefit of his passion, 10 and the good success thereof.

WHO ¹ hath believed our ² report? and to whom is ³ the arm of the LORD revealed?

2 For ⁴ he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: ⁵ he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, ⁶ there is no beauty that we should desire him.

3 ⁷ He is despised and rejected of wicked, and with the rich in his death; because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth.

10 ¶ Yet it pleased the Lord to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the Lord shall prosper in his hand.

11 He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities.

12 Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

CHAPTER LIV.

1 The prophet, for the comfort of the Gentiles, prophesieth the amplitude of their church, their safety, their certain deliverance out of affliction, their fair education, and their sure preservation.

2 SING, O barren, thou that didst not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travail with child: for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the Lord.

2 ¶ Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations: spare not, lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes;

3 For thou shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left; and thy seed shall inherit the Gentiles, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited.

4 Fear not; for thou shalt not be ashamed; neither be thou confounded; for thou shalt not be put to shame: for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widowhood any more.

5 ¶ For thy Maker is thine husband; the Lord of hosts is his name; and thy Redeemer the Holy One of Israel; the God of the whole earth shall he be called.

6 For the Lord hath called thee as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, and a wife of youth, when thou wast refused, saith thy God.

7 ¶ For a small moment have I forsaken thee; but with great mercies will I gather thee.

8 In a little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment; but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the Lord thy Redeemer.

9 For this is as the waters of Noah unto me: for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth; so have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee, nor rebuke thee.

10 For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the Lord that hath mercy on thee.

11 ¶ O thou afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted, behold, I will lay thy stones with fair colours, and lay thy foundations with sapphires.

12 And I will make thy windows of agates, and thy gates of carbuncles, and all thy borders of pleasant stones.

13 And all thy children shall be taught of the Lord; and great shall be the peace of thy children.

14 In righteousness shalt thou be established: thou shalt be far from oppression; for thou shalt not fear: and from terror; for thy shall not come near thee.

15 Behold, they shall surely gather together, but not by me: whosoever shall gather together against thee shall fall for thy sake.

16 Behold, I have created the smith that bloweth the coals in the fire, and that bringeth forth an instrument for his work; and I have created the waster to destroy.

17 ¶ No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the Lord, and their righteousness is of me, saith the Lord.

CHAPTER LV.

1 The prophet, with the promises of Christ, calleth to faith, and to repentance. 8 The happy success of them that believe.

HO, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.

2 Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

3 Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

4 Behold, I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people.

5 ¶ Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, and nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee because of the Lord thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for he hath glorified thee.

6 ¶ Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near:

7 ^m Let the wicked forsake his way, and ^s the unrighteous man ^m his thoughts; and let him return unto the LORD, ^a and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for ^s he will abundantly pardon.

8 ¶ For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD.

9 ¶ For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

10 For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater:

11 ^s So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

12 ¶ For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

13 ¶ Instead of ^s the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree: and it shall be to the LORD ^a for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

CHAPTER LVI.

1 The prophet ^a exhorteth to sanctification. 3 He promitteth it shall be general without respect of persons. 9 He inveigheth against blind watchmen.

THUS saith the LORD, Keep ye ^a judgment, and do justice: ^a for my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed.

2 Blessed is the man that doeth this, and the son of man that layeth hold on it; ^b that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil.

3 ¶ Neither let ^s the son of the stranger, that hath joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, The LORD hath utterly separated me from his people: neither let the eunuch say, Behold I am a dry tree.

4 For thus saith the LORD unto the eunuchs that keep my sabbaths, and choose the things that please me, and take hold of my covenant;

5 Even unto them will I give in ^s mine house and within my walls a place ^a and a name better than of sons and of daughters: I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off.

6 Also the sons of the stranger, that join themselves to the LORD, to serve him, and to love the name of the LORD, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and taketh hold of my covenant;

7 Even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer: ^s their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar; for ^a mine house shall be called an house of prayer ^a for all people.

8 The Lord God ^a which gathereth the outcasts of Israel saith, ^s Yc will I gather others to him, ^s beside those that are gathered unto him.

9 ¶ All ye beasts of the field, come to devour, yea, all ye beasts in the forest.

10 His watchmen are ^a blind: they are all ignorant, ^s they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; ^s sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber.

11 Yea, they are ^a greedy dogs which ^s can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand: they all look to their own way, every one for his gain, from his quarter.

12 Come ye, say they, I will fetch wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; ^a and to morrow shall be as this day, and much more abundant.

¶ Ezek. 34. 2. 3. * Ps. 10. 6. Prov. 23. 35. ch. 22. 13. Luke 12. 19. 1 Cor. 15. 32.

CHAPTER LVII.

1 The blessed death of the righteous. 3 God reproverth the Jews for their whorish idolatry. 13 He giveth evangelical promises to the penitent.

THE righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart: and ^a merciful men are taken away, ^b none considering that the righteous is taken away ^a from the evil to come.

2 He shall ^s enter into peace: they shall rest in ^s their beds, each one walking ^s in his uprightness.

3 ¶ But draw near hither, ^s ye sons of the sorceress, the seed of the adulterer and the whore.

4 Against whom do ye sport yourselves? against whom make ye a wide mouth, and draw out the tongue? are ye not children of transgression, a seed of falsehood,

5 Enflaming yourselves ^a with idols ^a under every green tree, ^s slaying the children in the valleys under the cliffs of the rocks?

6 Among the smooth stones of the stream is thy portion; they, they are thy lot: even to them hast thou poured a drink offering, thou hast offered a meat offering. Should I receive comfort in these?

7 ¶ Upon a lofty and high mountain hast thou set ^a thy bed: even thither wenterst thou up to offer sacrifice.

8 Behind the doors also and the posts hast thou set up thy remembrance: for thou hast discovered thyself to another than me, and art gone up; thou hast enlarged thy bed, and ^a made thee a covenant with them; ^s thou lovedst their bed ^a where thou sawest it.

9 And ^a thou wenterst to the king with ointment, and didst increase thy perfumes, and didst send thy messengers far off, and didst debase thyself even unto hell.

10 Thou art wearied in the greatness of thy way; yet saidst thou not, There is no hope: thou hast found the life of thine hand; therefore thou wast not grieved.

11 And ¹ of whom hast thou been afraid or feared, that thou hast lied, and hast not remembered me, nor laid it to thy heart? ² have not I held my peace even of old, and thou fearest me not?

12 I will declare thy righteousness, and thy works; for they shall not profit thee.

13 ¶ When thou criest, let thy companies deliver thee; but the wind shall carry them all away; vanity shall take them: but he that putteth his trust in me shall possess the land, and shall inherit my holy mountain;

14 And shall say, ¹ Cast ye up, east ye up, prepare the way, take up the stumblingblock out of the way of my people.

15 For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, ¹ whose name is Holy; ² I dwell in the high and holy place, ³ with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, ⁴ to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

16 ¶ For I will not contend for ever, neither will I be always wroth: for the spirit should fail before me, and the souls ¹ which I have made.

17 For the iniquity of ¹ his covetousness was I wroth, and smote him: ² I hid me, and was wroth, ³ and he went on ⁴ frowardly in the way of his heart.

18 I have seen his ways, and ¹ will heal him: I will lead him also, and restore comforts unto him and to his mourners.

19 I create ¹ the fruit of the lips; Peace, peace ² to him that is far off, and to him that is near, saith the LORD; and I will heal him.

20 ¶ But the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt.

21 ¹ There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.

CHAPTER LVIII.

1 The prophet, being sent to reprove hypocrisy, expresses a counterfeit fast and a true. 2 He declareth what promises are due unto godliness, 3 and to the keeping of the sabbath.

CRY aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.

2 Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinance of their God: they ask of me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in approaching to God.

3 ¶ ¹ Wherefore have ye fasted, say they, and thou seest not? ² wherefore have we afflicted our soul, and thou takest no knowledge? Behold, in the day of your fast ye find pleasure, and exact all your ³ labours.

4 ¶ Behold, ye fast for strife and debate, and to smite with the fist of wickedness: ¹ ye shall not fast as ye do this day, to make your voice to be heard on high.

5 Is it ² such a fast that I have chosen? ³ Is a day for a man to afflict his soul? ⁴ is it to bow down his head as a bulrush, and ⁵ to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? wilt thou call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the LORD?

6 Is not this the fast that I have chosen? ¹ to loose the bands of wickedness, ² to undo ³ the heavy burdens, and ⁴ to let the ⁵ oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke?

7 Is it not ¹ to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are ² cast out to thy house? ³ when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from ⁴ thine own flesh?

8 ¶ ¹ Then shall thy light break forth as the morning, and thine health shall spring forth speedily: and thy righteousness shall go before thee; ² the glory of the LORD ³ shall be thy rereward.

9 Then shalt thou call, and the LORD shall answer; thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am. If thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke, the putting forth of the finger, and ¹ speaking vanity;

10 And if thou draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul; then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noon day:

11 And the LORD shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in ¹ drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters ² fail not.

12 And that shall be of thee ¹ shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in.

13 ¶ If ¹ thou turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and call the sabbath a delight, the holy of the LORD, honourable; and shalt honour him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking ² thine own words:

14 ¶ Then shalt thou delight thyself in the LORD; and I will cause thee to CHAPTER LIX.

1 The damnable nature of sin. 3 The sins of the Jews. 9 Calamity is for sin. 16 Salvation is only of God. 20 The covenant of the Redeemer.

BEHOLD, the LORD's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear:

2 But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear.

3 For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue hath muttered perverseness.

4 None calleth for justice, nor any pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.

5 They hatch cockatrice's eggs, and weave the spider's web: he that catcheth of their eggs dieth, and that which is crushed breaketh out into a viper.

6 Their webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands.

7 Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and destruction are in their paths.

8 The way of peace they know not; and there is no judgment in their goings: they have made them crooked paths: whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace.

9 Therefore is judgment far from us, neither doth justice overtake us: we wait for light, but behold obscurity; for brightness, but we walk in darkness.

10 We grope for the wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes: we stumble at noon day in the night; we are in desolate places as dead men.

11 We roar all like bears, and mourn sore like doves: we look for judgment, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us.

12 For our transgressions are multiplied before thee, and our sins testify against us: for our transgressions are with us; and as for our iniquities, we know them:

13 In transgressing and lying against the LORD, and departing away from our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood.

14 And judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter.

15 Yea, truth faileth; and he that departeth from evil maketh himself a prey: and the LORD saw it, and it displeased him that there was no judgment.

16 And he saw that there was no man, and he wondered that there was no intercessor: therefore his arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it sustained him.

17 For he put on righteousness as a breastplate, and an helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloke.

18 According to their deeds, accordingly he will repay, fury to his adversaries, recompence to his enemies; to the islands he will repay recompence.

19 So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard against him.

20 And the Redeemer shall come to Zion, and unto them that turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the LORD.

21 As for me, this is my covenant with them, saith the LORD; My spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the LORD, from henceforth and for ever.

CHAPTER LX.

1 The glory of the church in the abundant access of the Gentiles, 15 and the great blessings after a short affliction.

ARISE, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.

2 For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

3 And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

4 Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, they come to thee: thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side.

5 Then thou shalt see, and flow together, and thine heart shall fear, and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee.

6 The multitude of camels shall cover thee, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; all they from Sheba shall come: they shall bring gold and in-

7 All the flocks of ^aKedar shall be gathered together unto thee, the rams of Nebaloth shall minister unto thee: they shall come up with acceptance on mine altar, and ⁱI will glorify the house of my glory.

8 Who are these that fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows?

9 ^mSurely the isles shall wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, ⁿto bring thy sons from far, ^otheir silver and their gold with them, ^punto the name of the LORD thy God, and to the Holy One of Israel, ^qbecause he hath glorified thee.

10 And ^rthe sons of strangers shall build up thy walls, ^sand their kings shall minister unto thee: for ^tin my wrath ⁱsmote thee, ^ubut in my favour have I had mercy on thee.

11 Therefore thy gates ^vshall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night; that men may bring unto thee the ^wforces of the Gentiles, and that their kings may be brought.

12 ^yFor the nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish; yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted.

13 ^zThe glory of Lebanon shall come unto thee, the fir tree, the pine tree, and the box together, to beautify the place of my sanctuary; and I will make ^athe place of my feet glorious.

14 The sons also of them that afflicted thee shall come bending unto thee; and all they that despised thee shall ^bbow themselves down at the soles of thy feet; and they shall call thee, The city of the LORD, ^cThe Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

15 Whereas thou hast been forsaken and hated, so that no man went through thee, I will make thee an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations.

16 Thou shalt also suck the milk of the Gentiles, ^dand shalt suck the breast of kings: and thou shalt know that ^eI the LORD am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob.

17 For brass I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron: I will also make thy officers peace, and thine exactors righteousness.

18 Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders; but thou shalt call ^fthy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise.

19 The ^gsun shall be no more thy light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: but the LORD shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and ^hthy God thy glory.

20 ⁱThy sun shall no more go down; neither shall thy moon withdraw its self: for the LORD shall be thine everlasting light, and the days of thy mourning shall be ended.

21 ^jThy people also shall be all righteous: ^kthey shall inherit the land for ever, ^lthe branch of my planting, ^mthe work of my hands, that I may be glorified.

22 ⁿA little one shall become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation: I the LORD will hasten it in his time.

CHAPTER LXI.

1 The office of Christ. 4 The forwardness, and blessings of the faithful.

THE "Spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the LORD ^ahath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me ^bto bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim ^cliberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;

2 ^dTo proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and ^ethe day of vengeance of our God; ^fto comfort all that mourn;

3 ^gTo appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, ^hto give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, ⁱthe planting of the LORD, ^jthat he might be glorified.

4 ^kAnd they shall ^lbuild the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations.

5 And ^mstrangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the alien shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers.

6 ⁿBut ye shall be named the Priests of the LORD: men shall call you the Ministers of our God: ^oye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall ye boast yourselves.

7 ^pFor your shame ye shall have double; and for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their hand they shall possess the double: everlasting joy shall be unto them.

8 For ^qI the LORD love judgment, ^rI hate robbery by burnt offering; and I will direct their work in truth, ^sand I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

9 And their seed shall be known among the Gentiles, and their offspring among the people: all that see them shall acknowledge them, ^tthat they are the seed which the LORD hath blessed.

10 ^uI will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for ^vhe hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, ^was a bridegroom ^xdecketh himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth herself with her jewels.

CHAPTER LXII.

1 The fervent desire of the prophet to confirm the church in God's promises. 5 The office of the ministers (unto which they are incited) in preaching the gospel, 10 and preparing the people thereto.

FOR Zion's sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until the righteousness thereof go forth as brightness, and the salvation thereof as a lamp that burneth.

2 And the Gentiles shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory:
and thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the Lord shall name.

3 Thou shalt also be a crown of glory in the hand of the Lord, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God.

4 Thou shalt no more be termed Forsaken; neither shall thy land any more be termed Desolate: but thou shalt be called Hephzi-bah, and thy land Beulah: for the Lord delighteth in thee, and thy land shall be married.

5 For as a young man marryeth a virgin, so shall thy sons marry thee:
and as the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so shall thy God rejoice over thee.

6 I have set watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem, which shall never hold their peace day nor night: ye that make mention of the Lord, keep not silence.

7 And give him no rest, till he establish, and till he make Jerusalem a praise in the earth.

8 The Lord hath sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength.

9 Surely I will no more give thy corn to be meat for thine enemies; and the sons of the stranger shall not drink thy wine, for the which thou hast laboured:

10 But they that have gathered it shall eat it, and praise the Lord; and they that have brought it together shall drink it in the courts of my holiness.

11 Go through, go through the gates; prepare ye the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones; lift up a standard for the people.

12 Behold, the Lord hath proclaimed unto the end of the world, Say ye to the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy salvation cometh; behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him.

13 And they shall call them, The holy people, The redeemed of the Lord:
and thou shalt be called, Sought out,
A city not forsaken.

CHAPTER LXIII.

1 Christ sheweth who he is, 2 what his victory over his enemies, 7 and what his mercy toward his church. 10 In his just wrath he remembereth his free mercy. 15 The church in their prayer, 17 and complaint, profess their faith.

WHO is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? this that is glorious in his apparel, travelling in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save.

2 Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the winefat?

3 I have trodden the winepress alone; and of the people there was none with me; for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment.

4 For the day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come.

5 And I looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore mine own arm brought salvation unto me; and my fury, it upheld me.

6 And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and make them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth.

7 I will mention the lovingkindnesses of the Lord, and the praises of the Lord, according to all that the Lord hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses.

8 For he said, Surely they are my people, children that will not lie:
so he was their Saviour.

9 In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them: in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and he bare them, and carried them all the days of old.

10 But they rebelled, and vexed his holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them.

11 Then he remembered the days of old, Moses, and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them up out of the sea with the shepherd of his flock? where is he that put his holy Spirit within him?

12 That led them by the right hand of Moses with his glorious arm, dividing the water before them, to make himself an everlasting name?

13 That led them through the deep, as an horse in the wilderness, that they should not stumble?

14 As a beast goeth down into the valley, the Spirit of the Lord caused him to rest: so didst thou lead thy people, "to make thyself a glorious name.

15 ¶ "Look down from heaven, and behold "from the habitation of thy holiness and of thy glory: where is thy zeal and thy strength, "the sounding "of thy bowels and of thy mercies toward me? are they restrained?

16 "Doubtless thou art our father, though Abraham "be ignorant of us, and Israel acknowledge us not: thou, O Lord, art our father, "our redeemer; thy name is from everlasting.

17 ¶ O Lord, why hast thou "made us to err from thy ways, and "hardened our heart from thy fear? "Return for thy servants' sake, the tribes of thine inheritance.

18 "The people of thy holiness have possessed it but a little while: "our adversaries have trodden down thy sanctuary.

19 We are thine: thou never barest rule over them; "they were not called by thy name.

CHAPTER LXIV.

1 The church prayeth for the illustration of God's power. 5 Celebrating God's mercy, it maketh confession of their natural corruptions. 9 It complaineth of their affliction.

OH that thou wouldest "rend the heavens, that thou wouldest come down, that "the mountains might flow down at thy presence.

2 As when "the melting fire burneth, the fire causeth the waters to boil, to make thy name known to thine adversaries, that the nations may tremble at thy presence!

3 When "thou didst terrible things which we looked not for, thou camest down, the mountains flowed down at thy presence.

4 For since the beginning of the world "men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye "seen, O God, beside thee, what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him.

5 Thou meetest him that rejoiceth "and worketh righteousness, "those that remember thee in thy ways: behold, thou art wroth; for we have sinned: "in those is continuance, and we shall be saved.

6 But we are all as an unclean thing, and all "our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do "fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.

7 And "there is none that calleth upon thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee: for thou hast hid thy face from us, and hast "consumed us, "because of our iniquities.

8 "But now, O Lord, thou art our father; we are the clay, "and thou our potter; and we all are "the work of thy hand.

9 ¶ Be not "wroth very sore, O Lord, neither remember iniquity for ever: behold, see, we beseech thee, "we are all thy people.

10 Thy holy cities are a wilderness, Zion is a wilderness, "Jerusalem a desolation.

11 "Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee, is burned up with fire: and all "our pleasant things are laid waste.

12 "Wilt thou refrain thyself for these things, O Lord? "wilt thou hold thy peace, and afflict us very sore?

1 The calling of the Gentiles. 2 The Jews, for their incredulity, idolatry, and hypocrisy, are rejected. 3 A remnant shall be saved. 11 Judgments on the wicked, and blessings on the godly. 17 The blessed state of the new Jerusalem.

I AM sought of them that asked "not for me; I am found of them that sought me not: I said, Behold me, behold me, unto a nation that "was not called by my name.

2 "I have spread out my hands all the day unto a rebellious people, which walketh in a way that was not good, after their own thoughts;

3 A people "that provoketh me to anger continually to my face; "that sacrificeth in gardens, and burneth incense "upon altars of brick;

4 "Which remain among the graves, and lodge in the monuments, "which eat swine's flesh, and "broth of abominable things is in their vessels;

5 "Which say, Stand by thyself, come not near to me; for I am holier than thou. These are a smoke in my "nose, a fire that burneth all the day.

6 Behold, "it is written before me: "I will not keep silence, "but will recompense, even recompense into their bosom, 7 Your iniquities, and "the iniquities of your fathers together, saith the Lord, "which have burned incense upon the mountains, "and blasphemed me upon the hills: therefore will I measure their former work into their bosom.

8 ¶ Thus saith the Lord, As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one saith, Destroy it not; for "a blessing is in it: so will I do for my servants' sakes, that I may not destroy them all.

9 And I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah an inheritor of my mountains: and mine "elect shall inherit it, and my servants shall dwell there.

12 Therefore will I number you to the sword, and ye shall all bow down to the slaughter: *because when I called, ye did not answer; when I spake, ye did not hear; but did evil before mine eyes, and did choose that wherein I delighted not.

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry; behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty: behold, my servants shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed:

14 Behold, my servants shall sing for joy of heart, but ye shall cry for sorrow of heart, and ⁵shall howl for vexation of spirit.

15 And ye shall leave your name ⁶for a curse unto *my chosen: for the Lord God shall say thee, and ⁷call his servants by another name:

16 *That he who blesseth himself in the earth shall bless himself in the God of truth; and ⁸he that sweareth in the earth shall swear by the God of truth; because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hid from mine eyes.

17 ¶ For, behold, I create *new heavens and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor ⁹come into mind.

18 But be ye glad and rejoice for ever ¹⁰in that which I create: for, behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy.

19 And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people: and the ¹¹voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying.

20 There shall be no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man that hath not filled his days: for the child shall die an hundred years old; ¹²but the sinner being an hundred years old shall be accursed.

21 And ¹³they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them.

22 They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for ¹⁴as the days of a tree are the days of my people, and ¹⁵mine elect ¹⁶shall long enjoy the work of their hands.

23 They shall not labour in vain, nor bring forth for trouble; for ¹⁷they are the seed of the blessed of the Lord, and their offspring with them.

24 And it shall come to pass, that ¹⁸before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear.

25 The ¹⁹wolf and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the bullock: ²⁰and dust shall be the serpent's meat. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain, saith the Lord.

CHAPTER LXVI.

1 The glorious God will be served in humble sincerity. 5 He comforteth the humble with the marvellous generation, 10 and with the gracious benefits of the church. 15 God's severe judgments against the wicked. 19 The deviles shall have no holy church, 24 and see the damnation of the wicked.

THUS saith the Lord, *The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: where is the house that ye build unto me? and where is the place of my rest?

2 For all those things hath mine hand made, and all those things have been, saith the Lord: ¹but to this man will I look, ²even to him that is poor and of a contrite spirit, and ³trembleth at my word.

3 *He that killeth an ox is as if he slew a man; he that sacrificeth a lamb, as if he ⁴cut off a dog's neck; he that offereth an oblation, as if he offered swine's blood; he that ⁵burneth incense, as if he blessed an idol. Yea, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul doletheth in their abominations.

4 I also will choose their ⁶delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; ⁷because when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear: but they did evil before mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not.

5 ¶ Hear the word of the Lord, ⁸ye that tremble at his word; Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake, said, ⁹Let the Lord be glorified: but ¹⁰he shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed.

6 A voice of noise from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice of the Lord that rendereth recompence to his enemies.

7 Before she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came, she was delivered of a man child.

8 Who hath heard such a thing? who hath seen such things? Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children.

9 Shall I bring to the birth, and not ¹¹cause to bring forth? saith the Lord: shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb? saith thy God.

10 Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all ye that love her: rejoice for joy with her, all ye that mourn for her:

11 That ye may suck, and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations; that ye may milk out, and be delighted with the ¹²abundance of her glory.

12 For thus saith the Lord, Behold, ¹³I will extend peace to her like a river, 21 And I will also take of them for ¹¹priests and for Levites, saith the LORD.

22 For as ¹²the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the LORD, so shall your seed and your name remain.

23 And ¹³it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one sabbath to another, ¹⁴I shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the LORD.

24 And they shall go forth, and look upon ¹⁵the carcases of the men that have transgressed against me: for their ¹⁶worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched; and they shall be an abhorring unto all flesh.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET JEREMIAH.

CHAPTER I.

1 The time, 3 and the calling of Jeremiah, 11 His prophetic visions of an almond rod and a seething pot. 15 His heavy message against Judah. 17 God encourageth him with his promise of assistance.

THE words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, of the priests that were ¹in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin:

2 To whom the word of the LORD came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, ²in the thirteenth year of his reign.

3 It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, ³unto the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah king of Judah, ⁴unto the carrying away of Jerusalem captive ⁴in the fifth month.

4 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

5 Before I ⁵formed thee in the belly I ⁶knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I ⁷sanctified thee, and I ⁸ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.

6 Then said I, ⁹Ah, Lord God!

behold, I cannot speak: for I am a child.

7 ¹⁰But the LORD said unto me, Say not, I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, and ¹¹whosoever I command thee thou shalt speak.

8 ¹²Be not afraid of their faces: for ¹³I am with thee to deliver thee, saith the LORD.

9 Then the LORD put forth his hand, and ¹⁴touch'd my mouth. And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have ¹⁵put my words in thy mouth.

10 ¹⁶See, I have this day set thee over the nations and over the kingdoms, to ¹⁷root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant.

11 ¹⁸Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said, I see a rod of an almond tree.

12 Then said the LORD unto me, Thou hast well seen: for I will hasten my word to perform it.

13 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, What seest thou? And I said, I see ¹⁹a seething pot; and the face thereof is toward the north.

14 Then the LORD said unto me, Out of the north an evil shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land.

15 For, lo, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, saith the LORD; and they shall come, and they shall set every one his throne at the entering of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls thereof round about, and against all the cities of Judah.

16 And I will utter my judgments against them touching all their wickedness, who have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, and worshipped the works of their own hands.

17 ¶ Thou therefore gird up thy loins, and arise, and speak unto them all that I command thee: be not dismayed at their faces, lest I confound thee before them.

18 For, behold, I have made thee this day a fenced city, and an iron pillar, and brasen walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against the princes thereof, against the priests thereof, and against the people of the land.

19 And they shall fight against thee; but they shall not prevail against thee; for I am with thee, saith the LORD, to deliver thee.

CHAPTER II.

1 God, having shewed his former kindness, expostulateth with the Jews their careless revolt, beyond any example. 14 They are the causes of their own calamities. 20 The sins of Judah. 31 Her confidence is rejected.

MOREOVER the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

2 Go and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD; I remember thee, the kindness of thy youth, the love of thine espousals, when thou wentest after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown.

3 ¶ Israel was holiness unto the LORD, and the firstfruits of his increase: all that devour him shall offend; evil shall come upon them, saith the LORD.

4 Hear ye the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel:

5 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, What iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, and have walked after vanity, and are become vain?

6 Neither said they, Where is the LORD that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, that led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought, and of the shadow of death, through a land that no man passed through, and where no man dwelt?

7 And I brought you into a plentiful country, to eat the fruit thereof and the goodness thereof; but when ye entered, ye defiled my land, and made mine heritage an abomination.

8 The priests said not, Where is the LORD? and they that handle the law knew me not: the pastors also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit.

9 ¶ Wherefore I will yet plead with you, saith the LORD, and with your children's children will I plead.

10 For pass over the isles of Chittim, and see; and send unto Kedar, and consider diligently, and see if there be such a thing.

11 Hath a nation changed their gods, which are yet no gods? but my people have changed their glory for that which doth not profit.

12 Be astonished, O ye heavens, at this, and see; and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the LORD.

13 For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

14 ¶ Is Israel a servant? is he a homeborn slave? why is he spoiled?

15 ¶ The young lions roared upon him, and yelled, and they made his land waste: his cities are burned without inhabitant.

16 Also the children of Noph and Tahapanes have broken the crown of thy head.

17 Hast thou not procured this unto thyself, in that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, when he led thee by the way?

18 And now what hast thou to do in the way of Egypt, to drink the waters of Sihor? or what hast thou to do in the way of Assyria, to drink the waters of the river?

19 Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the LORD GOD of hosts.

20 ¶ For of old time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands; and thou saidst, I will not transgress; when upon every high hill and under every green tree thou wanderest, playing the harlot.

21 Yet I had planted thee a noble vine, wholly a right seed: how then art thou turned into the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto me?

22 For though thou wash thee with nitre, and take thee much sope, yet thine iniquity is marked before me, saith the LORD GOD.

23 ¹How canst thou say, I am not polluted, I have not gone after Baalim? see thy way ²In the valley, know what thou hast done: ³Thou art a swift dromedary traversing her ways;

24 ⁴A wild ass ⁵used to the wilderness, that snuffeth up the wind at ⁶her pleasure; in her occasion who can ⁷turn her away? all they that seek her will not weary themselves; in her month they shall find her.

25 Withhold thy foot from being unshod, and thy throat from thirst: but ⁸thou saidst, ⁹There is no hope: no; for I have loved ¹⁰strangers, and after them will I go.

26 As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets, 27 Saying to a stock, Thou art my father; and to a stone, Thou hast ¹¹brought me forth: for they have turned ¹²their back unto me, and not ¹³their face: but in the time of their ¹⁴trouble they will say, Arise, and save us.

28 But ¹⁵where are thy gods that thou hast made thee? let them arise, if they ¹⁶can save thee in the time of thy ¹⁷trouble: for ¹⁸according to the number of thy cities are thy gods, O Judah.

29 ¹⁹Wherefore will ye plead with me? ye all have transgressed against me, saith the LORD.

30 In vain have I ²⁰smitten your children; they received no correction: your own sword hath ²¹devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion.

31 ²²O generation, see ye the word of the LORD. ²³Have I been a wilderness unto Israel? a land of darkness? wherefore say my people, ²⁴We are lords; ²⁵I will come no more unto thee?

32 Can a maid forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? yet my people ²⁶have forgotten me days without number.

33 Why trimmest thou thy way to seek love? therefore hast thou also taught the wicked ones thy ways.

34 Also in thy skirts is found ²⁷the blood of the souls of the poor innocents: I have not found it by ²⁸secret search, but upon all these.

35 ²⁹Yet thou sayest, Because I am innocent, surely his anger shall turn from me. Behold, ³⁰I will plead with thee, ³¹because thou sayest, I have not sinned.

36 ³²Why gaddest thou about so much to change thy way? ³³thou also shalt be ashamed of Egypt, ³⁴as thou wast ashamed of Assyria.

37 Yea, thou shalt go forth from him, and thine hands upon thine head: for the LORD hath rejected thy confidences, and thou shalt not prosper in them.

CHAPTER III.

1 ¹God's great mercy in Judah's vile whoredom. 6 Judah is worse than Israel. 12 The promises of the gospel to the penitent. 20 Israel repented, and called by God, maketh a solemn confession of their sins.

THEY ²say, If a man put away his wife, and she go from him, and become another man's, ³shall he return unto her again? shall not that ⁴hand be greatly polluted? but thou hast ⁵played the harlot with many lovers; ⁶yet return again to me, saith the LORD.

2 Lift up thine eyes unto ⁷the high places, and see where thou hast not been lien with. ⁸In the ways hast thou sat for them, as the Arabian in the wilderness; ⁹and thou hast polluted the land with thy whoredoms and with thy wickedness.

3 Therefore the ¹⁰showers have been withholden, and there hath been no latter rain; and thou hast a ¹¹whore's forehead, thou refusedst to be ashamed.

4 Wilt thou not from this time cry unto me, My father, thou art ¹²the guide of my youth?

5 ¹³Will he reserve his anger for ever? will he keep it to the end? Behold, thou hast spoken and done evil things as thou couldst.

6 ¹⁴The LORD said also unto me in the days of Josiah the king, Hast thou seen that which ¹⁵backsliding Israel hath done? she is ¹⁶gone up upon every high mountain and under every green tree, and there hath ¹⁷played the harlot.

7 ¹⁸And I said after she had done all these things, Turn thou unto me. But she returned not. And her treacherous ¹⁹sister Judah saw it.

8 And I saw, when ²⁰for all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery I had ²¹put her away, and given her a bill of divorce; ²²yet her treacherous sister Judah feared not, but went and played the harlot also.

9 And it came to pass through the ²³lightness of her whoredom, that she ²⁴defiled the land, and committed adultery with ²⁵stones and with stocks.

10 And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah hath not turned unto me ²⁶with her whole heart, but ²⁷feignedly, saith the LORD.

11 And the LORD said unto me, ²⁸The backsliding Israel hath justified herself more than treacherous Judah.

12 ²⁹Go and proclaim these words toward ³⁰the north, and say, Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith the LORD; and I will not cause mine anger to fall upon you: for I am ³¹merciful, saith the LORD, and I will not keep anger for ever.

13 ³²Only acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the LORD thy God, and hast ³³scattered thy ways to the ³⁴strangers ³⁵under every 14 Turn, O backsliding children, saith the LORD; ²for I am married unto you: and I will take you ³one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion:

15 And I will give you ¹pastors according to mine heart, which shall ²feel you with knowledge and under-

16 And it shall come to pass, when ye be multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, saith the LORD, they shall say no more, The ark of the covenant of the LORD:
¹neither shall it ²come to mind:
³neither shall they remember it; neither shall they visit it; neither shall ⁴that be done any more.

17 At that time they shall call Jerusalem the throne of the LORD; and all the nations shall be gathered unto it, ²to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem: neither shall they ³walk any more after the ⁴imagination of their evil heart.

18 In those days ¹the house of Judah shall walk ²with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of ³the north to ⁴the land that I have ⁵given for an inheritance unto your fathers.

19 But I said, How shall I put thee among the children, and give thee ³a ⁷pleasant land, ⁸a goodly heritage of the hosts of nations? and I said, Thou shalt call me, ⁹My father; and shalt not turn away ¹⁰from me.

20 ¹Surely as a wife treacherously departeth from her ²husband, so ³I have ye dealt treacherously with me,
O house of Israel, saith the LORD.

21 A voice was heard upon ²the high places, weeping and supplications of the children of Israel: for they have perverted their way, and they have forgotten the LORD their God.

22 ¹Return, ye backsliding children, and ²I will heal your backslidings.
Behold, we come unto thee; for thou art the LORD our God.

23 ¹Truly in vain is salvation hoped for from the hills, and from the multitude of mountains: ²truly in the LORD our God ³is the salvation of Israel.

24 ¹For shame hath devoured the labour of our fathers from our youth; their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters.

25 We lie down in our shame, and our confusion covereth us: ²for we have sinned against the LORD our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even unto this day, and ³have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God.

CHAPTER IV.

1 God calleth Israel by his promise. 3 He exhorteth Judah to repentance by fearful judgments. 19 A grievous lamentation for the miseries of Judah.

IF thou wilt return, O Israel, saith the LORD, ²return unto me: and if thou wilt put away thine abomi-nations out of my sight, then shalt thou not remove.

2 ¹And thou shalt swear, The LORD liveth, ²in truth, in judgment, and in righteousness; ³and the nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they ⁴glory.

3 ¹For thus saith the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem, ²Break up your fallow ground, and ³sow not among thorns.

4 ¹Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem: lest my fury come forth like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

5 Declare ye in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, Blow ye the trumpet in the land: cry, gather together, and say, ²Assemble yourselves, and let us go into the de-fenced cities.

6 Set up the standard toward Zion: ²retire, stay not: for I will bring evil from the ³north, and a great ⁴destruction.

7 The lion is come up from his thicket, and ²the destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way; he is gone forth from his place ³to make thy land desolate; and thy cities shall be laid waste, without an inhabitant.

8 For this ²gird you with sackcloth, lament and howl: for the fierce anger of the LORD is not turned back from us.

9 And it shall come to pass at that day, saith the LORD, that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall wonder.

10 Then said I, Ah, Lord God!
²surely thou hast greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, ³saying, Ye shall have peace: whereas the sword reacheth unto the soul.

11 At that time shall it be said to this people and to Jerusalem, ²A dry wind of the high places in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, nor to fan, nor to cleanse,

12 ¹Even ²a full wind from those places shall come unto me: now also ³will I ⁴give sentence against them.

13 Behold, he shall come up as clouds, and ²his chariots shall be as a whirlwind: ³his horses are swifter than eagles. Woe unto us! for we are spoiled.

14 O Jerusalem, ²wash thine heart from wickedness, that thou mayest be saved. How long shall thy vain thoughts lodge within thee?

15 For a voice declareth ²from Dan, and publisheth affliction from mount Ephraim.

16 Make ye mention to the nations; behold, publish against Jerusalem, that watchers come from a far country, and give out their voice against the cities of Judah.

17 As keepers of a field, are they against her round about; because she hath been rebellious against me, saith the LORD.

18 Thy way and thy doings have procured these things unto thee; this is thy wickedness, because it is bitter, because it reacheth unto thine heart.

19 My bowels, my bowels! I am pained at my very heart; my heart maketh a noise in me; I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war.

20 Destruction upon destruction is cried; for the whole land is spoiled; suddenly are my tents spoiled, and my curtains in a moment.

21 How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet?

22 For my people is foolish, they have not known me; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding: they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.

23 I beheld the earth, and, lo, it was h without form, and void; and the heavens, and they had no light.

24 I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly.

25 I beheld, and, lo, there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens were fled.

26 I beheld, and, lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the presence of the LORD, and by his fierce anger.

27 For thus hath the LORD said, The whole land shall be desolate; yet will I not make a full end.

28 For this shall the earth mourn, and the heavens above be black: because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and will not repent, neither will I turn back from it.

29 The whole city shall flee for the noise of the horsemen and bowmen; they shall go into thickets, and climb up upon the rocks: every city shall be forsaken, and not a man dwell therein.

30 And when thou art spoiled, what wilt thou do? Though thou clothest thyself with crimson, though thou deckest thee with ornaments of gold, though thou rentest thy face with painting, in vain shalt thou make thyself fair; thy lovers will despise thee, they will seek thy life.

31 For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, and the anguish as of her that bringeth forth her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion, that bewaileth herself, that spreadeth her hands, saying, Woe is me now! for my soul is wearied because of murderers.

CHAPTER V.

1 The judgments of God upon the Jews, for their perverseness, 7 for their adultery, 10 for their impiety, 19 for their contempt of God, 25 and for their great corruption in the civil state, 30 and ecclesiastical.

RUN ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, if ye can find a man, if there be any that executeth judgment, that seeketh the truth; and I will pardon it.

2 And though they say, The LORD liveth; surely they swear falsely.

3 O LORD, are not thy eyes upon the truth? thou hast stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return.

4 Therefore I said, Surely these are poor; they are foolish: for they know not the way of the LORD, nor the judgment of their God.

5 I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them; for they have known the way of the LORD, and the judgment of their God: but these have altogether broken the yoke, and burst the bonds.

6 Wherefore a lion out of the forest shall slay them, and a wolf of the evenings shall spoil them, a leopard shall watch over their cities: every one that goeth out thence shall be torn in pieces: because their transgressions are many, and their backslidings are increased.

7 How shall I pardon thee for this? thy children have forsaken me, and sworn by them that are no gods: when I had fed them to the full, they then committed adultery, and assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses.

8 They were as fed horses in the morning: every one neighed after his neighbour's wife.

9 Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: and shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

10 Go ye up upon her walls, and destroy; but make not a full end: take away her battlements; for they are not the LORD's.

11 For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me, saith the LORD.

12 They have belied the LORD, and said, It is not he; neither shall evil come upon us; neither shall we see sword nor famine:

wind, and the word is not in them: thus shall it be done unto them.

14 Wherefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, Because ye speak this word, / behold, I will make my words in thy mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them.

15 Lo, I will bring a ⁷ nation upon you ⁸ from far, O house of Israel, saith the LORD: it is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language thou knowest not, neither understandest what they say.

16 Their quiver is as an open sepulchre, they are all mighty men.

17 And they shall eat up thine ⁹ harvest, and thy bread, which thy sons and thy daughters should eat: they shall eat up thy flocks and thine herds: they shall eat up thy vines and thy fig trees: they shall impoverish thy fenced cities, wherein thou trustedst, with the sword.

18 Nevertheless in those days, saith the LORD, I ¹⁰ will not make a full end with you.

19 ¶ And it shall come to pass, when ye shall say, ¹¹ Wherefore doeth the LORD our God all these things unto us? then shalt thou answer them, Like as ye have ¹² forsaken me, and served strange gods in your land, so ¹³ shall ye serve strangers in a land that is not yours.

20 Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying,

21 Hear now this, O ¹⁴ foolish people, and without ¹⁵ 2 understanding; which have eyes, and see not; which have ears, and hear not:

22 ¹⁶ Fear ye not me? saith the LORD: will ye not tremble at my presence, which have placed the sand for the ¹⁷ bound of the sea by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass it: and though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can they not pass over it?

23 But this people hath a revolting and a rebellious heart; they are revolted and gone.

24 Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the LORD our God, ¹⁸ that giveth rain, both the ¹⁹ former and the latter, in his season: ²⁰ he reserveth unto us the appointed weeks of the harvest.

25 ¶ ²¹ Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withheld good things from you.

26 For among my people are found wicked men: ²² they ²³ lay wait, as he that setteth snares; they set a trap, they catch men.

27 As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great, and waxen rich.

28 They are waxen ²⁴ fat, they shine: yea, they overpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not ²⁵ the cause, the cause of the fatherless, ²⁶ yet they prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge.

29 ²⁷ Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

30 ¶ ²⁸ A wonderful and ²⁹ horrible thing is committed in the land;

31 The prophets prophesy ³⁰ falsely, and the priests ³¹ bear rule by their means; and my people ³² love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

CHAPTER VI.

1 The enemies sent against Judah 4 encourage themselves. 6 God setteth them on work because of their sins. 9 The prophet lamenteth the judgments of God because of their sins. 18 He proclaimeth God's wrath. 28 He railleth the people to mourn for the judgment on their sins.

O YE children of Benjamin, gather yourselves to flee out of the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and set up a sign of fire in ¹ Beth-haccerem: ² for evil approacheth out of the north, and great destruction.

2 I have likened the daughter of Zion to a ³ comely and delicate woman.

3 The shepherds with their flocks shall come unto her: ⁴ they shall pitch their tents against her round about; they shall feed every one in his place.

4 Prepare ye war against her; arise, and let us go up ⁵ at noon. Woe unto us! for the day goeth away, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out.

5 Arise, and let us go by night, and let us destroy her palaces.

6 ¶ For thus hath the LORD of hosts said, Hew ye down trees, and ⁶ cast a mount against Jerusalem: this is the city to be visited; she is wholly oppressed in the midst of her.

7 / As a fountain casteth out her waters, so she casteth out her wickedness: ⁷ violence and spoil is heard in her; before me continually is grief and wounds.

8 Be thou instructed, O Jerusalem, lest ⁸ my soul ⁹ depart from thee: lest I make thee desolate, a land not inhabited.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel as a vine: turn back thine hand as a grapegatherer into the baskets.

10 To whom shall I speak, and give warning, that they may hear? behold, their ¹⁰ ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken: behold, ¹¹ the word of the LORD is unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it.

11 Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD; ¹² I am weary with holding in: I will pour it out ¹³ upon the children abroad, and upon the assembly of young men together: for even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the aged with him that is full of days.

12 And ^atheir houses shall be turned unto others, ^bwith their fields and wives together: for I will stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants of the land, saith the Lord.

13 For from the least of them every one is given to ^ccovetousness; and from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely.

14 They have ^dhealed also the ^ehurt of the daughter of my people slightly, ^fsaying, Peace, peace; when ^gthere is no peace.

15 Were they ^hashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore they shall fall among them that fall: at the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, saith the Lord.

16 Thus saith the Lord, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the ⁱold paths, where ^jis the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find ^krest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein.

17 Also I set ^lwatchmen over you, saying, Harken to the sound of the trumpet. But they said, We will not hearken.

18 ¶ Therefore hear, ye nations, and know, O congregation, what ^mis among them.

19 ⁿHear, O earth: behold, I will bring evil upon this people, ^oeven ^pthe fruit of their thoughts, because they have not hearkened unto my words, nor to my law, but rejected it.

20 ^qTo what purpose cometh there to me incense ^rfrom Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country? ^syour burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices sweet unto me.

21 Therefore thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will lay stumblingblocks before this people, and the fathers and the sons together shall fall upon them; the neighbour and his friend shall perish.

22 Thus saith the Lord, Behold, a people cometh from the ^tnorth country, and a great nation shall be raised from the sides of the earth.

23 They shall lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice ^uroareth like the sea; and they ride upon horses, set in array as men for war against thee, O daughter of Zion.

24 We have heard the fame thereof: our hands wax feeble: ^vanguish hath taken hold of us, and pain, as of a woman in travail.

25 Go not forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and fear ^wis on every side.

26 ¶ O daughter of my people, ^xgird thee with sackcloth, ^yand wallow thyself in ashes: ^zmake thee mourning, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation: for the spoiler shall suddenly come upon us.

27 I have set thee for a tower and ^aa fortress among my people, that thou mayest know and try their way.

28 ^bThey are all grievous revolters, ^cwalking with slanders: they are ^dbrass and iron; they are all corrupters.

29 The bellows are burned, the lead is consumed of the fire; the founder melteth in vain: for the wicked are not plucked away.

30 ^eReprobate silver shall ^fmen call them, because the Lord hath rejected them.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Jeremiah is sent to call for true repentance, to prevent the Jews' captivity. 8 He rejecteth their vain confidence, 12 by the example of Shiloh. 17 He threatneth them for their idolatry. 21 He rejecteth the sacrifices of the disobedient. 29 He exhorteth to mourn for their abominations in Tophet, 32 and the judgments for the same.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord, saying,

2 ^aStand in the gate of the Lord's house, and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of the Lord, all ye of Judah, that enter in at these gates to worship the Lord.

3 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, ^bAmend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place.

4 ^cTrust ye not in lying words, saying, The temple of the Lord, The temple of the Lord, The temple of the Lord, are these.

5 For if ye thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if ye thoroughly ^dexecute judgment between a man and his neighbour;

6 ^eIf ye oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, ^fneither walk after other gods to your hurt:

7 ^gThen will I cause you to dwell in this place, in ^hthe land that I gave to your fathers, for ever and ever.

8 ¶ Behold, ⁱye trust in ^jlying words, that cannot profit.

9 ^kWill ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and ^lwalk after other gods whom ye know not;

10 ^mAnd come and stand before me in this house, ⁿwhich is called by my name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations?

11 Is ^othis house, which is called by my name, become a ^pden of robbers in your eyes? Behold, even I have seen it, saith the Lord.

12 But go ye now unto ^qmy place which ^rwas in Shiloh, ^swhere I set my name at the first, and see ^twhat I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel.

13 And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the Lord, and I spake unto you, ¹rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; and I ²called you, but ye answered not;

14 Therefore will I do unto this house, which is called by my name, wherein ye trust, and unto the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to ³Shiloh.

15 And I will cast you out of my sight, ⁴as I have cast out all your brethren, ⁵even the whole seed of Ephraim.

16 Therefore ⁶pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me: ⁷for I will not hear thee.

17 ⁸Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

18 ⁹The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead their dough, to make cakes to the ¹⁰queen of heaven, and to ¹¹pour out drink offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke me to anger.

19 ¹²Do they provoke me to anger? saith the Lord: do they not provoke themselves to the confusion of their own faces?

20 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.

21 ¹³Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: ¹⁴Put your burnt offerings unto your sacrifices, and eat flesh.

22 ¹⁵For I spake not unto your fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, ¹⁶concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices:

23 But this thing commanded I them, saying, ¹⁷Obeys ye voice, and ¹⁸I will be your God, and ye shall be my people: and walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well unto you.

24 ¹⁹But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear, but ²⁰walked in the counsels and in the ²¹imagination of their evil heart, and ²²went backward, and not forward.

25 Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt unto this day I have even ²³sent unto you all my servants the prophets, ²⁴daily rising up early and sending them:

26 ²⁵Yet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but ²⁶hardened their neck: ²⁷they did worse than their fathers.

27 Therefore ²⁸thou shalt speak all these words unto them; but they will not hearken to thee: thou shalt also call unto them; but they will not answer thee.

28 But thou shalt say unto them, This is a nation that obeyeth not the voice of the Lord their God, nor receiveth ²correction: ³truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth.

29 ⁴Cut off thine hair, O Jerusalem, and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on high places; for the Lord hath rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath.

30 For the children of Judah have done evil in my sight, saith the Lord: ⁵they have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to pollute it.

31 And they have built the ⁶high places of Tophet, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to ⁷burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; ⁸which I commanded them not, neither ⁹came it into my heart.

32 ¹⁰Therefore, behold, ¹¹the days come, saith the Lord, that it shall no more be called Tophet, nor the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the valley of slaughter: ¹²for they shall bury in Tophet, till there be no place.

33 And the ¹³carcasses of this people shall be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth; and none shall fray them away.

34 Then will I cause to ¹⁴cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride: for ¹⁵the land shall be desolate.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 The calamity of the Jews, both dead and alive. 4 He upbraiideth their foolish and shameful impiety. 13 He sheweth their grievous judgment, 16 and bewaileth their desperate estate.

AT that time, saith the Lord, they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves:

2 And they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and ³whom they have worshipped: they shall not be gathered, ⁴nor be buried; they shall be for ⁵dung upon the face of the earth.

3 And ⁶death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue of them that remain of this evil family, which remain in all the places whither I have driven them, saith the Lord of hosts.

4 ⁷Moreover thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord; Shall they fall, and not arise? shall he turn away, and not return?

5 Why then is this people of Jerusalem ¹slidden back by a perpetual backsliding? ²they hold fast deceit, ³they refuse to return.

6 ¹I hearkened and heard, but they spake not aright: no man repented him of his wickedness, saying, What have I done? every one turned to his course, as the horse rusheth into the battle.

7 Yea, ¹the stork in the heaven knoweth her appointed times; and ²the turtle and the crane and the swallow observe the time of their coming; but ³my people know not the judgment of the Lord.

8 How do ye say, We are wise, ¹and the law of the Lord ²is with us? Lo, certainly ³in vain made he it; the pen of the scribes ⁴is in vain.

9 ¹The wise men are ashamed, they are dismayed and taken: lo, they have rejected the word of the Lord; and ²what wisdom ³is in them?

10 Therefore ¹will I give their wives unto others, and their fields to them that shall inherit them: for every one from the least even unto the greatest is given to ²covetousness, from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely.

11 For they have ¹healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, ²Peace, peace; when there ³is
no peace.

12 Were they ¹ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore shall they fall among them that fall: in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down, saith the Lord.

13 ¹I will surely consume them, saith the Lord: ²there shall be no grapes ³on the vine, nor figs on the ⁴fig tree, and the leaf shall fade; and the things that I have given them shall pass away from them.

14 Why do we sit still? ¹assemble yourselves, and let us enter into the defenced cities, and let us be silent there: for the Lord our God hath put us to silence, and given us ²water of ³gall to drink, because we have sinned against the Lord.

15 We ¹looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of health, and behold trouble!

16 The snorting of his horses was heard from ¹Dan: the whole land trembled at the sound of the neighing of his ²strong ones; for they are come, and have devoured the land, and all that is in it; the city, and those that dwell therein.

17 For, behold, I will send serpents, cockatrices, among you, which ¹will not be ²charmed, and they shall bite you, saith the Lord.

18 ¹When I would comfort myself against sorrow, my heart ²is faint ³in me.

19 Behold the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people ¹because of them that dwell in ²a far country: ³Is not the Lord in Zion? ⁴is not her king in her? Why have they ⁵provoked me to anger with their graven images, and with strange vanities?

20 The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved.

21 ¹For the hurt of the daughter of my people am I hurt; I am ²black; astonishment hath taken hold on me.

22 ¹Is there no ²balm in Gilead; ³is there no physician there? why then is not the health of the daughter of my people ⁴recovered?

CHAPTER IX.

1 Jeremiah lamenteth the Jews for their ma-nyfold sins, 9 and for their judgment. 12 Disobedience is the cause of their bitter calamity. 17 He exhorteth to mourn for their destruction, 23 and to trust not in themselves, but in God. 25 He threatneth both Jews and Gentiles.

OH ¹that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people!

2 Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men; that I might leave my people, and go from them! for ³they be all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men.

3 And ¹they bend their tongues like their bow for lies: but they are not valiant for the truth upon the earth; for they proceed from evil to evil, and they ²know not me, saith the Lord.

4 ¹Take ye heed every one of his ²neighbour, and trust ye not in any brother: for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbour will ³walk with slanders.

5 And they will ¹deceive every one his neighbour, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies, and weary themselves to commit iniquity.

6 Thine habitation ¹is in the midst of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know me, saith the Lord.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts, Behold, ¹I will melt them, and try them; ²for how shall I do for the daughter of my people?

8 Their tongue ¹is as an arrow shot out; it speaketh ²deceit: one speaketh ³peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth, but ⁴in heart he layeth ⁵his wait.

9 ¹Shall I not visit them for these things? saith the Lord: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

10 For the mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and ²for the ³habitations of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are ⁴burned up, so that none can pass through them; neither can men hear the voice of the cattle; ²* both the fowl of the heavens and the beast are fled; they are gone.

11 And I will make Jerusalem ^o heaps, and ^a a den of dragons; and I will make the cities of Judah ³ desolate, without an inhabitant.

12 ¶ Who is the wise man, that may understand this? and who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD hath spoken, that he may declare it, for what the land perisheth and is burned up like a wilderness, that none passeth through?

13 And the LORD saith, Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, neither walked there-in;

14 But have ^{} walked after the ⁴ imagination of their own heart, and after Balaam, ^{} which their fathers taught them:

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will ⁵ feed them, even this people, ⁶ with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink.

16 I will ⁷ scatter them also among the heathen, whom neither they nor their fathers have known: ⁸ and I will send a sword after them, till I have consumed them.

17 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Consider ye, and call for ⁹ the mourning women, that they may come; and send for cunning women, that they may come:

18 And let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us, that ¹⁰ our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush out with waters.

19 For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, How are we spoiled! we are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because ¹¹ our dwellings have cast us out.

20 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O ye women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth, and teach your daughters wailing, and every one her neighbour lamentation.

21 For death is come up into our windows, and is entered into our palaces, to cut off ¹² the children from without, and the young men from the streets.

22 Speak, Thus saith the LORD, Even the carcasses of men shall fall ¹³ as dung upon the open field, and as the handful after the harvestman, and none shall gather them.

23 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, ¹⁴ Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches:

24 But let him that glorieth glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the LORD which exercise lovingkindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth:

¹⁵ for in these things I delight, saith the LORD.

25 ¶ Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that ¹⁶ I will ² punish all them which are circumcised with the uncircumcised;

²⁶ Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all that are ³ in the ⁴ utmost corners, that dwell in the wilderness: for all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are ⁵ uncircumcised in the heart.

CHAPTER X.

1 The unequal comparison of God and idols. 17 The prophet exhorteth to flee from the calamity to come. 19 He lamenteth the spoil of the tabernacle by foolish pastors. 23 He maketh an humble supplication.

HEAR ye the word which the LORD speaketh unto you, O house of Israel:

2 Thus saith the LORD, ⁶ Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them.

3 For the ⁷ customs of the people are vain: for ⁸ one cutteth a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman, with the ax.

4 They deck it with silver and with gold; they ⁹ fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not.

5 They are upright as the palm tree, ¹⁰ they speak not: they must needs be ¹¹ borne, because they cannot go. Be not afraid of them; for they cannot do evil, neither also is it in them to do good.

6 Forasmuch as there is none ¹² like unto thee, O LORD; thou art great, and thy name is great in might.

7 ¶ Who would not fear thee, O King of nations? for ¹³ to thee doth it appertain: forasmuch as ¹⁴ among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their kingdoms, there is none like unto thee.

8 But they are ¹⁵ altogether ¹⁶ brutish and foolish: the stock is a doctrine of vanities.

9 Silver spread into plates is brought from Tarshish, and ¹⁷ gold from Uphaz, the work of the workman, and of the hands of the founder: blue and purple is their clothing: they are all ¹⁸ the work of cunning men.

10 But the LORD is the ¹⁹ true God, he is ²⁰ the living God, and an ²¹ everlasting king: at his wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to abide his indignation.

11 ¶ Thus shall ye say unto them, ²² The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, even ²³ they shall perish from the earth, and from under these heavens.

12 He ²⁴ hath made the earth by his power, he hath ²⁵ established the world by his wisdom, and ²⁶ hath stretched out the heavens by his discretion.

CHAPTER XI.

1 Jeremiah proclaimeth God's covenant. 8 rebuketh the Jews disobeying thereof. 11 propheth evil to come upon them. 18 and upon the men of Anathoth, for conspiring to kill Jeremiah.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord, saying,

2 Hear ye the words of this covenant, and speak unto the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem;

3 And say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel; * Cursed be the man that obeyeth not the words of this covenant,

4 Which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, from the iron furnace, saying, Obey my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: so shall ye be my people, and I will be your God.

5 That I may perform the oath which I have sworn unto your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day. Then answered I, and said, So be it, O Lord.

6 Then the Lord said unto me, Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear ye the words of this covenant, and do them.

7 For I earnestly protested unto your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even unto this day, rising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice.

8 * Yet they obeyed not, nor inclined their ear, but walked every one in the imagination of their evil heart: therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do; but they did them not.

9 And the Lord said unto me, A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

10 They are turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words: and they went after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers.

11 * Therefore thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able to escape; and though they shall cry unto me, I will not hearken unto them.

12 Then shall the cities of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem go, and cry unto the gods unto whom they offer incense: but they shall not save them at all in the time of their trouble.

13 For according to the number of thy cities were thy gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have ye set up altars to that shameful thing, even altars to burn incense unto Baal.

14 Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up a cry or prayer for them: for I will not hear them in the time that they cry unto me for their trouble.

15 * What hath my beloved to do in mine house, seeing she hath wrought lewdness with many, and the holy flesh is passed from thee? when thou doest evil, then thou rejoicest.

16 The Lord called thy name, A green olive tree, fair, and of goodly fruit: with the noise of a great tumult he hath kindled fire upon it, and the branches of it are broken.

17 For the LORD of hosts, ^athat planted thee, hath pronounced evil against thee, for the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves to provoke me to anger in offering incense unto Baal.

18 ^aAnd the LORD hath given me knowledge of it, and I know it: then thou shewdest me their doings.

19 But I ^awas like a lamb or an ox that is brought to the slaughter; and I knew not that ^athey had devised devices against me, saying, Let us destroy ^athe tree with the fruit thereof, ^aand let us cut him off from ^athe land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered.

20 But, O LORD of hosts, that judgest righteously, that ^atriest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them: for unto thee have I revealed my cause.

21 Therefore thou saith the LORD of the men of Anathoth, ^athat seek thy life, saying, ^aProphecy not in the name of the LORD, that thou die not by our hand:

22 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will ^apunish them: the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine:

23 And there shall be no remnant of them: for I will bring evil upon the men of Anathoth, ^aeven ^athe year of their visitation.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Jeremiah, complaining of the wickedness of his brethren, ^aand of the treachery of his brethren, ^aand lamenteth his heritage. ^aHe promiseth to the penitent return from captivity.

RIGHTEOUS ^aart thou, O LORD, when I plead with thee: yet ^alet me talk with thee of thy judgments: ^aWherefore doth the way of the wicked prosper? ^awherefore are all they happy that deal very treacherously?

2 Thou hast planted them, yea, they have taken root: ^athey grow, yea, they bring forth fruit: ^athou art near in their mouth, and far from their reins.

3 But thou, O LORD, ^aknowest me: thou hast seen me, and ^atried mine heart: ^atoward thee: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for ^athe day of slaughter.

4 How long shall ^athe land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, ^afor the wickedness of them that dwell therein? ^athe beasts are consumed, and the birds; because they said, He shall not see our last end.

5 ^aIf thou hast run with the footmen, and they have wearied thee, then how canst thou contend with horses? and ^aif in the land of peace, wherein thou trustedst, they wearied thee, then how wilt thou do in ^athe swelling of Jordan?

6 For even ^athy brethren, and the house of thy father, even they have dealt treacherously with thee; yea, ^athey have called a multitude after thee: ^abelieve them not, though they speak ^afair words unto thee.

7 ^aI have forsaken mine house, I have left mine heritage; I have given ^athe dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies.

8 Mine heritage is unto me as a lion in the forest; ^ait ^acrieth out against me: therefore have I hated it.

9 Mine heritage is unto me as a ^aspeckled bird, the birds round about are against her; come ye, assemble all the beasts of the field, ^acome to devour.

10 Many ^apastors have destroyed ^amy vineyard, they have ^atrod den my portion under foot, they have made my ^apleasant portion a desolate wilderness.

11 They have made it desolate, and being desolate ^ait mourneth unto me; the whole land is made desolate, because ^ano man layeth it to heart.

12 The spoilers are come upon all high places through the wilderness: for the sword of the LORD shall devour from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: no flesh shall have peace.

13 ^aThey have sown wheat, but shall reap thorns: they have put themselves to pain, but shall not profit: and ^athey shall be ashamed of your revenues because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

14 ^aThus saith the LORD against all mine evil neighbours, that ^atouch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit: Behold, I will ^apluck them out of their land, and pluck out the house of Judah from among them.

15 ^aAnd it shall come to pass, after that I have plucked them out I will return, and have compassion on them, ^aand will bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land.

16 And it shall come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, ^ato swear by my name, The LORD liveth; as they taught my people to swear by Baal; then shall they be ^abuilt in the midst of my people.

17 But if they will not ^aobey, I will utterly pluck up and destroy that nation, saith the LORD.

THUS saith the LORD unto me, Go and get thee a linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water.

2 So I got a girdle according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins.

3 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying,

4 Take the girdle that thou hast got, which is upon thy loins, and arise, go to Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock.

5 So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me.

6 And it came to pass after many days, that the LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there.

7 Then I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it: and, behold, the girdle was marred, it was profitable for nothing.

8 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 Thus saith the LORD, After this manner will I mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem.

10 This evil people, which refuse to hear my words, which walk in the imagination of their heart, and walk after other gods, to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle, which is good for nothing.

11 For as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man, so have I caused to cleave unto me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah, saith the LORD; that they might be unto me for a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear.

12 ¶ Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word; Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Every bottle shall be filled with wine: and they shall say unto thee, Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine?

13 Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings that sit upon David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness.

14 And I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, saith the LORD: I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, but destroy them.

15 ¶ Hear ye, and give ear; be not proud: for the LORD hath spoken.

16 Give glory to the LORD your God, before he cause darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and, while ye look for light, he turn it into the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness.

17 But if ye will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret places for your pride; and mine eye shall weep sore, and run down with tears, because the LORD's flock is carried away captive.

18 Say unto the king and to the queen, Humble yourselves, sit down: for your principalities shall come down, even the crown of your glory.

19 The cities of the south shall be shut up, and none shall open them: Judah shall be carried away captive all of it, it shall be wholly carried away captive.

20 Lift up your eyes, and behold them that come from the north: where is the flock that was given thee, thy beautiful flock?

21 What wilt thou say when he shall punish thee? for thou hast taught them to be captains, and as chief over thee: shall not sorrows take thee, as a woman in travail?

22 ¶ And if thou say in thine heart, Wherefore come these things upon me? For the greatness of thine iniquity are thy skirts discovered, and thy heels made bare.

23 Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? then may ye also do good, that are accustomed to do evil.

24 Therefore will I scatter them as the stubble that passeth away by the wind of the wilderness.

25 This is thy lot, the portion of thy measures from me, saith the LORD; because thou hast forgotten me, and trusted in falsehood.

26 Therefore will I discover thy skirts upon thy face, that thy shame may appear.

27 I have seen thine adulteries, and thy neighings, the lewdness of thy whoredom, and thine abominations on the hills in the fields. Woe unto thee, O Jerusalem! wilt thou not be made clean? when shall it once be?

plowmen were ashamed, they covered their heads.

5 Yea, the hind also calved in the field, and forsook it, because there was no grass.

6 And the wild asses did stand in the high places, they snuffed up the wind like dragons; their eyes did fall, because there was no grass.

7 O Lord, though our iniquities testify against us, do thou it for thy name's sake: for our backslidings are many; we have sinned against thee.

8 O the hope of Israel, the saviour thereof in time of trouble, why shouldst thou be as a stranger in the land, and as a wayfaring man that turneth aside to tarry for a night?

9 Why shouldst thou be as a man astonished, as a mighty man that cannot save? yet thou, O Lord, art in the midst of us, and we are called by thy name; leave us not.

10 Thus saith the Lord unto this people, Thus have they loved to wander, they have not refrained their feet, therefore the Lord doth not accept them; he will now remember their iniquity, and visit their sins.

11 Then said the Lord unto me, Pray not for this people for their good.

12 When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt offering and an oblation, I will not accept them: but I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence.

13 Then said I, Ah, Lord God! behold, the prophets say unto them, Ye shall not see the sword, neither shall ye have famine; but I will give you assured peace in this place.

14 Then the Lord said unto me, The prophets prophesy lies in my name: I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart.

15 Therefore thus saith the Lord concerning the prophets that prophesy in my name, and I sent them not, yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land: By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed.

16 And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; and they shall have none to bury them, then, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will pour their wickedness upon them.

17 Therefore thou shalt say this word unto them; Let mine eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease: for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous blow.

18 If I go forth into the field, then behold the slain with the sword! and if I enter into the city, then behold them that are sick with famine! yea, both the prophet and the priest go about into a land that they know not.

19 Hast thou utterly rejected Judah? hath thy soul loathed Zion? why hast thou smitten us, and there is no healing for us? we looked for peace, and there is no good; and for the time of healing, and behold trouble!

20 We acknowledge, O Lord, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers: for we have sinned against thee.

21 Do not abhor us, for thy name's sake, do not disgrace the throne of thy glory: remember, break not thy covenant with us.

22 Are there any among the vanities of the Gentiles that can cause rain? or can the heavens give showers? art not thou he, O Lord our God? therefore we will wait upon thee: for thou hast made all these things.

CHAPTER XV.

1 The utter rejection and manifold judgments of the Jews. 10 Jeremiah, complaining of their spite, receiveth a promise for himself, 12 and a threatening for them. 15 He prayeth, 19 and receiveth a gracious promise.

THEN said the Lord unto me, Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my mind could not be toward this people: cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth.

2 And it shall come to pass, if they say unto thee, Whither shall we go forth? then thou shalt tell them, Thus saith the Lord; Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for the captivity, to the captivity.

3 And I will appoint over them four kinds, saith the Lord: the sword to slay, and the dogs to tear, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the earth, to devour and destroy.

4 And I will cause them to be removed into all kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh the son of Hezekiah king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem.

5 For who shall have pity upon thee, O Jerusalem? or who shall be merciful to thee? or who shall go aside to ask how thou doest?

6 The Lord hath forsaken me, saith the Lord, thou art gone backward: therefore will I stretch out my hand against thee, and destroy thee; I am weary with repenting.

7 And I will fan them with a fan in the gates of the land; I will bereave them of children, I will destroy my people, since they return not from their ways.

above the sand of the seas: I have brought upon them ³ against the mother of the young men a spoiler at noonday: I have caused him to fall upon it suddenly, and terrors upon the city.

9 ⁴ She that hath borne seven languisheth: she hath given up the ghost: ⁵ her sun is gone down while it was yet day: she hath been ashamed and confounded: and the residue of them will I deliver to the sword before their enemies, saith the Lord.

10 ⁶ ⁷ Woe is me, my mother, that thou hast borne me a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth! I have neither lent on usury, nor men have lent to me on usury; yet every one of them doth curse me.

11 The Lord said, Verily it shall be well with thy remnant; verily ⁸ I will cause the enemy to entreat thee well in the time of evil and in the time of affliction.

12 Shall iron break the northern iron and the steel?

13 Thy substance and thy treasures will I give to the ⁹ spoil without price, and that for all thy sins, even in all thy borders.

14 And I will make thee to pass with thine enemies ¹⁰ into a land which thou knowest not: for a ¹¹ fire is kindled in mine anger, which shall burn upon you.

15 ¹² O LORD, ¹³ thou knowest: remember me, and visit me, and ¹⁴ revenge me of my persecutors; take me not away in thy long suffering: know that ¹⁵ for thy sake I have suffered rebuke.

16 Thy words were found, and I did ¹⁶ eat them; and ¹⁷ thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of mine heart: for ¹⁸ I am called by thy name, O LORD God of hosts.

17 ¹⁹ I sat not in the assembly of the mockers, nor rejoiced; I sat alone because of thy land: for thou hast filled me with indignation.

18 Why is my ²⁰ pain perpetual, and my wound incurable, which refuseth to be healed? wilt thou be altogether unto me ²¹ as a liar, and ²² as waters that ²³ fail?

19 ²⁴ Therefore thus saith the LORD, ²⁵ If thou return, then will I bring thee again, and thou shalt ²⁶ stand before me: and if thou ²⁷ take forth the precious from the vile, thou shalt be as my mouth: let them return unto thee; but return not thou unto them.

20 And I will make thee unto this people a fenced brazen ²⁸ wall: and they shall fight against thee, but ²⁹ they shall not prevail against thee: for I am with thee to save thee and to deliver thee, saith the LORD.

21 And I will deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem thee out of the hand of the terrible.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 The prophet, under the types of obtaining from marriages, from houses of mourning, and fasting, foretold the utter ruin of the Jews, 10 because they were worse than their fathers. 14 Their return from captivity shall be stranger than their deliverance out of Egypt. 16 God will doubly recompense their idolatry.

THE word of the LORD came also unto me, saying,

2 Thou shalt not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sons or daughters in this place.

3 For thus saith the LORD concerning the sons and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that begat them in this land;

4 They shall die of ¹ grievous deaths; they shall not be ² lamented; neither shall they be buried; but they shall be ³ as dung upon the face of the earth: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their ⁴ carcasses shall be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

5 For thus saith the LORD, ⁵ Enter not into the house of ⁶ mourning, neither go to lament nor bemoan them: for I have taken away my peace from this people, saith the LORD, even lovingkindness and mercies.

6 Both the great and the small shall die in this land: they shall not be buried, neither shall ⁷ men lament for them, nor ⁸ cut themselves, nor ⁹ make themselves bald for them:

7 Neither shall ¹⁰ men ¹¹ tear themselves for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall ¹² men give them the cup of consolation to ¹³ drink for their father or for their mother.

8 Thou shalt not also go into the house of feasting, to sit with them to eat and to drink.

9 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, ¹⁴ I will cause to cease out of this place in your eyes, and in your days, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride.

10 ¹⁵ And it shall come to pass, when thou shalt shew this people all these words, and they shall say unto thee, ¹⁶ Wherefore hath the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? or what ¹⁷ is our iniquity? or what ¹⁸ is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God?

11 Then shalt thou say unto them, ¹⁹ Because your fathers have forsaken me, saith the LORD, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshipped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law;

12 And ye have done ²⁰ worse than your fathers; for, behold, ²¹ ye walk every one after the ²² imagination of his evil heart, that they may not hearken unto me:

13 ² Therefore will I cast you out of this land ³ into a land that ye know not, neither ye nor your fathers; and there shall ye serve other gods: day and night; where I will not shew you favour.

14 ¹ Therefore, behold, the ² days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be said, The LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;

15 But, The LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the lands whither he had driven them: and ¹ I will bring them again into their land that I gave unto their fathers.

16 ¹ Behold, I will send for many ² fishers, saith the LORD, and they shall fish them; and after will I send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks.

17 For mine ² eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity hid from mine eyes.

18 And first I will recompense their iniquity and their sin ² double; because ³ they have defiled my land, they have filled mine inheritance with the carcases of their detestable and abominable things.

19 O LORD, ¹ my strength, and my fortress, and ² my refuge in the day of affliction, the Gentiles shall come unto thee from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Surely our fathers have inherited lies, vanity, and things ³ wherein there is no profit.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 The captivity of Judah for her sin. 5 Trust in man is cursed. 7 In God is blessed. 9 The deceitful heart cannot desire God. 12 The salvation of God. 15 The prophet complaineth of the mockers of his prophecy. 19 He is sent to renew the covenant in hallowing the sabbath.

THE sin of Judah is written with a ¹ pen of iron, and with the ³ point of a diamond: it is ² graven upon the table of their heart, and upon the horns of your altars;

2 Whilst their children remember their altars and their ² groves by the green trees upon the high hills.

3 O my mountain in the field, ¹ I will give thy substance and all thy treasures to the spoil, and thy high places for sin, throughout all thy borders.

4 And thou, even ⁴ thyself, shalt discontinue from thine heritage that I gave thee; and I will cause thee to serve thine enemies in ² the land which thou knowest not: for ³ I ye have kindled a fire in mine anger, which shall burn for ever.

5 ¹ Thus saith the LORD; ² Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh ³ flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD.

6 For he shall be ¹ like the heath in the desert, and ² shall not see when good cometh; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, ³ in a salt land and not inhabited.

7 ¹ Blessed is the man that trusteth in the LORD, and whose hope the LORD is.

8 For he shall be ² as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh, but her leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of ² drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit.

9 ¹ The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?

10 I the LORD ² search the heart, I try the reins, ³ even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings.

11 As the partridge ² sitteth on eggs, and hatcheth them not; so he that getteth riches, and not by right, ³ shall leave them in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be ⁴ a fool.

12 ¹ A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary.

13 O LORD, ² the hope of Israel, ³ all that forsake thee shall be ashamed, and they that depart from me shall be ⁴ written in the earth, because they have forsaken the LORD, the ² fountain of living waters.

14 Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for ² thou art my praise.

16 As for me, ¹ I have not hastened from being a pastor ⁴ to follow thee: neither have I desired the woeful day; thou knowest: that which came out of my lips was ² right before thee.

17 Be not a terror unto me: ² thou art my hope in the day of evil.

18 ¹ Let them be confounded that persecute me, but ² let not me be confounded: let them be dismayed, but let not me be dismayed: bring upon them the day of evil, and ³ destroy them with double destruction.

THE word which came to Jeremiah from the Lord, saying,

2 Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause thee to hear my words.

3 Then I went down to the potter's house, and, behold, he wrought a work on the wheels.

4 And the vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter: so he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it.

22 Let a cry be heard from their houses, when thou shalt bring a troop suddenly upon them: for ^athey have digged a pit to take me, and hid snares for my feet.

23 Yet, Lord, thou knowest all their counsel against me ^ato slay me: ^aforgive not their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from thy sight, but let them be overthrown before thee; deal thus with them in the time of thine anger.

CHAPTER XIX.

Under the type of breaking a potter's vessel is foretold the desolation of the Jews for their sin.

THUS saith the Lord, Go and get a potter's earthen bottle, and take of the ancients of the people, and of the ancients of the priests;

2 And go forth unto ^athe valley of the son of Hinnom, which ^ais by the entry of ^athe east gate, and proclaim there the words that I shall tell thee,

3 ^aAnd say, Hear ye the word of the Lord, O kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem: Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, the which whosoever heareth, his ears shall tingle.

4 Because they ^ahave forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and have burned incense in it unto other gods, whom neither they nor their fathers have known, nor the kings of Judah, and have filled this place with ^athe blood of innocents;

5 ^aThey have built also the high places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings unto Baal, ^awhich I commanded not, nor spake ^ait, neither came it into my mind:

6 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that this place shall no more be called Tophet, nor ^aThe valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of slaughter.

7 And I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place; and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hands of them that seek their lives: and their ^acarcasses will I give to be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

8 And I will make this city ^adesolate, and an hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished and hiss because of all the plagues thereof.

9 And I will cause them to eat the ^aflesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and they shall eat every one the flesh of his friend in the siege and straitness, wherewith their enemies, and they that seek their lives, shall straiten them.

10 ^aThen shalt thou break the bottle in the sight of the men that go with thee,

11 And shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord of hosts: ^aEven so will I break this people and this city, as one breaketh a potter's vessel, that cannot ^abe made whole again: and they shall ^abury them in Tophet, till there be no place to bury.

12 Thus will I do unto this place, saith the Lord, and to the inhabitants thereof, and even make this city as Tophet:

13 And the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, shall be defiled ^aas the place of Tophet, because of all the houses upon whose ^aroofs they have burned incense unto all the host of heaven, and ^ahave poured out drink offerings unto other gods.

14 Then came Jeremiah from Tophet, whither the Lord had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in ^athe court of the Lord's house; and said to all the people,

15 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will bring upon this city and upon all her towns all the evil that I have pronounced against it, because ^athey have hardened their necks, that they might not hear my words.

CHAPTER XX.

1 Pashur, smiting Jeremiah, receiveth a new name, and a fearful doom. 7 Jeremiah complaineth of contempt, 10 of treachery, 14 and of his birth.

NOW Pashur the son of ^aImmer the priest, who ^awas also chief governor in the house of the Lord, heard that Jeremiah prophesied these things,

2 Then Pashur smote Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that ^awere in the high gate of Benjamin, which ^awas by the house of the Lord.

3 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Pashur brought forth Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then said Jeremiah unto him, The Lord hath not called thy name Pashur, but ^aMagor-missabib.

4 For thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will make thee a terror to thyself, and to all thy friends: and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and thine eyes shall behold ^ait: and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive into Babylon, and shall slay them with the sword.

5 Moreover I ¹will deliver all the strength of this city, and all the labours thereof, and all the precious things thereof, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies, which shall spoil them, and take them, and carry them to Babylon.

6 And thou, Pashur, and all that dwell in thine house shall go into captivity: and thou shalt come to Babylon, and there thou shalt die, and shalt be buried there, thou, and all thy friends, to whom thou hast prophesied lies.

7 ¶ O LORD, thou hast deceived me, and I was ²deceived: ³thou art stronger than I, and hast prevailed: ⁴I am in derision daily, every one mocketh me.

8 For since I spake, I cried out, ¹I cried violence and spoil; because the word of the LORD was made a reproach unto me, and a derision, daily.

9 Then I said, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name. But ²his word was in mine heart as a ³burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with forbearing, and ⁴I could not stay.

10 ¶ For I heard the defaming of many, fear on every side. Report, say they, and we will report it.

11 ¶ All my familiars watched for my halting, saying, Peradventure he will be enticed, and we shall prevail against him, and we shall take our revenge on him.

12 But ¹the LORD is with me as a mighty terrible one: therefore my persecutors shall stumble, and they shall not prevail: they shall be greatly ashamed; for they shall not prosper: ²their everlasting confusion shall never be forgotten.

13 But, O LORD of hosts, that ³triest the righteous, and seest the reins and the heart, ²let me see thy vengeance on them: for unto thee have I opened my cause.

14 Sing unto the LORD, praise ye the LORD: for ¹he hath delivered the soul of the poor from the hand of evildoers.

15 ¶ Cursed be the day wherein I was born: let not the day wherein my mother bare me be blessed.

16 Cursed be the man who brought tidings to my father, saying, A man child is born unto thee; making him very glad.

17 And let that man be as the cities which the LORD ¹overthrew, and repented not: and let him ²hear the cry in the morning, and the shouting at noontide;

18 ¶ Because he slew me not from the womb; or that my mother might have been my grave, and her womb to be always great with me.

19 ¶ Wherefore came I forth out of the womb to ³see labour and sorrow, that my days should be consumed with shame?

CHAPTER XXI.

1 Zedekiah sendeth to Jeremiah to enquire the event of Nebuchadrezzar's war. 3 Jeremiah foretelleth a hard siege and miserable captivity. 8 He counselleth the people to fall to the Chaldeans, 11 and upbraideth the king's house.

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, when king Zedekiah sent unto him ¹Pashur the son of Melehiab, and ²Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, saying,

2 ¶ Enquire, I pray thee, of the LORD for us; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon maketh war against us; if so be that the LORD will deal with us according to all his wondrous works, that he may go up from us.

3 ¶ Then said Jeremiah unto them, Thus shall ye say to Zedekiah:

4 Thus saith the LORD God of Israel: Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, wherewith ye fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans, which besiege you without the walls, and ¹I will assemble them into the midst of this city.

5 And I myself will fight against you with an ²outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath.

6 And I will smite the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast: they shall die of a great pestilence.

7 And afterward, saith the LORD, I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, and such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those that seek their life: and he shall smite them with the edge of the sword; ²he shall not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy.

8 ¶ And unto this people thou shalt say, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I set before you the way of life, and the way of death.

9 He that ¹abideth in this city shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth out, and falleth to the Chaldeans that besiege you, he shall live, and ²his life shall be unto him for a prey.

10 For I have ¹set my face against this city for evil, and not for good, saith the LORD: ²it shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall ³burn it with fire.

11 ¶ And touching the house of the king of Judah, say, Hear ye the word of the LORD;

CHAPTER XXII.

1 He exhorteth to repentance, with promises and threats. 10 The judgment of Shallum, 13 of Jehoiakim, 20 and of Coniah.

THUS saith the LORD: Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word,

2 And say, 'Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, that sittest upon the throne of David, thou, and thy servants, and thy people that enter in by these gates:

3 Thus saith the LORD: ⁴Execute ye judgment and righteousness, and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor: and ⁵do no wrong, do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, nor the widow, neither shed innocent blood in this place.

4 For if ye do this thing indeed, ⁶then shall there enter in by the gates of this house kings sitting ⁷upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his servants, and his people.

5 But if ye will not hear these words, ⁸I swear by myself, saith the LORD, that this house shall become a desolation.

6 For thus saith the LORD unto the king's house of Judah: Thou art filled unto me, and the head of Lebanon: yet surely I will make thee a wilderness, and cities which are not inhabited.

7 And I will prepare destroyers against thee, every one with his weapons: and they shall cut down ⁹thy choice cedars, ¹⁰and cast them into the fire.

8 And many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbour, ⁹Wherefore hath the LORD done thus unto this great city?

9 Then they shall answer, 'Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshipped other gods, and served them.

10 ¶ Weep ye not for the dead, neither bemoan him: but weep sore for him ¹¹that goeth away: for he shall return no more, nor see his native country.

11 For thus saith the LORD touching ¹²Shallum the son of Josiah king of Judah, which reigned instead of Josiah his father, 'which went forth out of this place: He shall not return thither any more:

12 But he shall die in the place whither they have led him captive, and shall see this land no more.

13 ¶ Woe unto him that buildeth his house by unrighteousness, and his chambers by wrong; ¹⁴that useth his neighbour's service without wages, and giveth him not for his work;

14 That saith, I will build me a wide house and ²large chambers, and cutteth him out ³windows; and ⁴it is cieled with cedar, and painted with vermilion.

15 Shalt thou reign, because thou closest ¹⁶thyself in cedar? ¹⁷did not thy father eat and drink, and do judgment and justice, and then ¹⁸'it was well with him?

16 He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then ¹⁹it was well with him: was not this to know me? saith the LORD.

17 'But thine eyes and thine heart are not but for thy covetousness, and for to shed innocent blood, and for oppression, and for ²⁰violence, to do it.

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah: 'They shall not lament for him, saying, 'Ah my brother! or, Ah sister! they shall not lament for him, saying, Ah lord! or, Ah his glory!

19 ²¹He shall be buried with the burial of an ass, drawn and cast forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem.

20 ¶ Go up to Lebanon, and cry; and lift up thy voice in Bashan, and cry from the passages: for all thy lovers are destroyed.

21 I spake unto thee in thy ²²prosperity; but thou saidst, I will not hear. ²³This hath been thy manner from thy youth, that thou obeyedst not my voice.

22 The wind shall eat up all ²⁴'thy pastors, and ²⁵'thy lovers shall go into captivity: surely then shalt thou be ashamed and confounded for all thy wickedness.

23 O ²⁶inhabitant of Lebanon, that makest thy nest in the cedars, how gracious shalt thou be when pangs come upon thee, ²⁷the pain as of a woman in travail!

24 As I live, saith the LORD, ²⁸though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah ²⁹were the signet upon my right hand, yet would I pluck thee thence;

25 'And I will give thee into the hand of them that seek thy life, and into the hand of ³⁰them whose face thou fearest, even into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans.

26 And I will cast thee out, and thy mother that bare thee, into another country, where ye were not born; and there shall ye die.

27 But to the land whereunto they desire to return, thither shall they not return.

28 Is this man Coniah a despised broken idol? is he ^a vessel wherein is no pleasure? wherefore are they cast out, he and his seed, and are cast into a land which they know not?

29 O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of the LORD.

30 Thus saith the LORD, Write ye this man ^achildless, a man that shall not prosper in his days: for no man of his seed shall prosper, ^asitting upon the throne of David, and ruling any more in Judah.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 He prophesieth a restoration of the scattered flock, b Christ shall rule and save them. c Against false prophets, 33 and moderns of the true prophets.

WO ^ae be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the LORD.

2 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel against the pastors that feed my people; Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them: ^abehold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the LORD.

3 And ^aI will gather the remnant of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase.

4 And I will set up ^ashepherds over them which shall feed them: and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the LORD.

5 ^aBehold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth.

6 ^aIn his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel ^ashall dwell safely: and ^athis is his name whereby he shall be called, ^aTHE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

7 Therefore, behold, ^athe days come, saith the LORD, that they shall no more say, The LORD liveth, which brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;

8 But, The LORD liveth, which brought up and which led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land.

9 ^aMine heart within me is broken because of the prophets; ^aall my bones shake; I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine hath overcome, because of the LORD, and because of the words of his holiness.

10 For ^athe land is full of adulterers; for ^abecause of ^aswearing the land mourneth; ^athe pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up, and their ^acourse is evil, and their force is not right.

11 For ^aboth prophet and priest are profane; yea, ^ain my house have I found their wickedness, saith the LORD.

12 ^aWherefore their way shall be unto them as slippery ways in the darkness: they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I ^awill bring evil upon them, even the year of their visitation, saith the LORD.

13 And I have seen ^afolly in the prophets of Samaria: ^athey prophesied in Baal, and ^acaused my people Israel to err.

14 I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem ^aan horrible thing: ^athey commit adultery, and ^awalk in lies: they ^astrengthen also the hands of evildoers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them unto me as ^aSodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah.

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets; Behold, I will feed them with ^awormwood, and make them drink the water of gall: for from the prophets of Jerusalem is ^aprofaneness gone forth into all the land.

16 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Hearken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you: they make you vain: ^athey speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD.

17 They say still unto them that despise me, The LORD hath said, ^aYe shall have peace; and they say unto every one that walketh after the ^aimagination of his own heart, ^aNo evil shall come upon you.

18 For ^awho hath stood in the counsel of the LORD, and hath perceived and heard his word? who hath marked his word, and heard it?

19 Behold, a ^awhirlwind of the LORD is gone forth in fury, even a grievous whirlwind: it shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked.

20 The anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed the thoughts of his heart: ^ain the latter days ye shall consider it perfectly.

21 ^aI have not sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.

22 But if they had ^astood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words, then they should have

CHAPTER XXV.

1 Jeremiah reproving the Jews' disobedience to the prophets, 8 foretelleth the seventy years' captivity, 12 and after that, the destruction of Babylon, 15 Under the type of a cup of wine he foretelleth the destruction of all nations. 34 The howling of the shepherds.

THE word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah "in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that was the first year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon;

2 The which Jeremiah the prophet spake unto all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying,

3 "From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, even unto this day, that is the three and twentieth year, the word of the Lord hath come unto me, and I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; "but ye have not hearkened.

4 And the Lord hath sent unto you all his servants the prophets, "rising early and sending them; but ye have not hearkened, nor inclined your ear to hear.

5 They said, "Turn ye again now every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the Lord hath given unto you and to your fathers for ever and ever:

6 And go not after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger with the works of your hands; and I will do you no hurt.

7 Yet ye have not hearkened unto me, saith the Lord; that ye might "provoke me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt.

8 "Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts: Because ye have not heard my words, 9 Behold, I will send and take "all the families of the north, saith the Lord, and Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, "my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and "make them an astonishment, and an hissing, and perpetual desolations.

10 Moreover "I will take from them the "voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, "the sound of the millstones, and the light of the candle.

11 And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years.

12 "And it shall come to pass, "when "seventy years are accomplished, that I will "punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, saith the Lord, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans, "and will make it perpetual desolations.

13 And I will bring upon that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah hath prophesied against all the nations.

14 "For many nations "and great kings shall "serve themselves of them also: "and I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the works of their own hands.

15 "For thus saith the Lord God of Israel unto me; Take the "wine cup of this fury at my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send thee, to drink it.

16 And "they shall drink, and be moved, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them.

17 Then took I the cup at the Lord's hand, and made all the nations to drink, unto whom the Lord had sent me:

18 To wit, Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and the kings thereof, and the princes thereof, to make them "a desolation, an astonishment, an hissing, and "a curse; as it is this day;

19 "Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, and his princes, and all his people;

20 And all "the mingled people, and all the kings of "the land of Uz, "and all the kings of the land of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Az-zah, and Ekron, and "the remnant of Ashdod, 21 "Edom, and "Moab, and the children of "Ammon, 22 And all the kings of "Tyros, and all the kings of Zidon, and the kings of the "isles which are beyond the "sea,

23 "Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and all "that are in the utmost corners,

24 And "all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the "mingled people that dwell in the desert,

25 And all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of "Elam, and all the kings of the Medes, 26 "And all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another, and all the kingdoms of the world, which are upon the face of the earth: "and the king of Sheshach shall drink after them.

27 Therefore thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: "Drink ye, and "be drunken, and spue, and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you.

28 And it shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at thine hand to drink, then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the Lord of hosts; Ye shall certainly drink.

29 For, lo, I begin to bring evil on the city ³⁴ which is called by my name, and should ye be utterly unpunished? Ye shall not be unpunished: for I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, saith the LORD of hosts.

30 Therefore prophesy thou against them all, The LORD shall ³⁰ roar from on high, and utter his voice from ³¹ his holy habitation; he shall mightily roar upon ³² his habitation; he shall give ³³ a shout, as they that tread the grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth.

31 A noise shall come even to the ends of the earth; for the LORD hath ³¹ a controversy with the nations, ³² he will plead with all flesh; he will give them ³³ that are wicked to the sword, saith the LORD.

32 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, evil shall go forth from nation to nation, and ³³ a great whirlwind shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.

33 ³⁴ And the slain of the LORD shall be at that day from ³⁵ one end of the earth even unto the ³⁶ other end of the earth: they shall not be ³⁷ lamented, ³⁸ neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the ground.

34 ³⁵ Howl, ye shepherds, and cry; and wallow yourselves in the ashes, ye principal of the flock: for ³⁶ the days of your slaughter and of your dispersions are accomplished; and ye shall fall like ³⁷ a pleasant vessel.

35 And ³⁶ the shepherds shall have no way to flee, nor the principal of the flock to escape.

36 A voice of the cry of the shepherds, and an howling of the principal of the flock, ³⁷ shall be heard: for the LORD hath spoiled their pasture.

37 And the peaceable habitations are cut down because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

38 He hath forsaken ³⁹ his covert, as the lion: for their land is ⁴⁰ desolate because of the fierceness of the oppressor, and because of his fierce anger.

CHAPTER XXVI.

1 Jeremiah by promises and threatenings exhorteth to repentance. 8 He is therefore apprehended, 10 and arraigned. 12 His apology. 16 He is quit in judgment, by the example of Micah, 20 and of Urijah, 24 and by the care of Ahikam.

IN the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah came this word from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD; Stand in ³ the court of the LORD's house, and speak unto all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD's house, ⁴ all the words that I command thee to speak unto them; ⁵ diminish not a word:

3 ⁶ If so be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way, that I may ⁷ repent me of the evil, which I purpose to do unto them because of the evil of their doings.

4 And thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD; ⁵ If ye will not hearken to me, to walk in my law, which I have set before you,

5 To hearken to the words of my servants the prophets, ⁶ whom I sent unto you, both rising up early, and sending them, but ye have not hearkened;

6 Then will I make this house like ⁷ Shiloh, and will make this city ⁸ a curse to all the nations of the earth.

7 So the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

8 ⁹ Now it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people took him, saying, Thou shalt surely die.

9 Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

10 ¹¹ When the princes of Judah heard these things, then they came up from the king's house unto the house of the LORD, and sat down ¹² in the entry of the new gate of the LORD's house.

11 Then spake the priests and the prophets unto the princes and to all the people, saying, ¹³ This man is worthy to die; ¹⁴ for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your ears.

12 ¹⁵ Then spake Jeremiah unto all the princes and to all the people, saying, The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that ye have heard.

13 Therefore now ¹⁶ amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will ¹⁷ repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you.

14 As for me, behold, ¹⁸ I am in your hand: do with me ¹⁹ as seemeth good and meet unto you.

15 But know ye for certain, that if ye put me to death, ye shall surely bring innocent blood upon yourselves, and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof: for of a truth the LORD hath sent me unto you to speak all these words in your ears.

16 ²⁰ Then said the princes and all the people unto the priests and to the prophets; This man is not worthy to die: for he hath spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God.

17 ²¹ Then rose up certain of the elders

18 *Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spake to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hosts; *Zion shall be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.

19 Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him at all to death? *did he not fear the Lord, and besought the Lord, and the Lord *repented him of the evil which he had pronounced against them? *Thus might we procure great evil against our souls.

20 And there was also a man that prophesied in the name of the Lord, Urijah the son of Shemaiah of Kirjath-jearim, who prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah:

21 And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death: but when Urijah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt;

22 And Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, namely, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him into Egypt.

23 And they fetched forth Urijah out of Egypt, and brought him unto Jehoiakim the king; who slew him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people.

24 Nevertheless *the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him unto the hand of the people to put him to death.

CHAPTER XXVII.

1 Under the type of bonds and yokes he prophesieth the subduing of the neighbour kings unto Nebuchadnezzar. 8 He sheweth them to yield, and not to believe the false prophets. 12 The like he doth to Zedekiah. 19 He foretelleth, the remnant of the vessels shall be carried to Babylon, and there continue until the day of visitation.

IN the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah *king of Judah came this word unto Jeremiah from the Lord, saying,

2 Thus *saith the Lord to me; Make thee bonds and yokes, *and put them upon thy neck.

3 And send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the Ammonites, and to the king of Tyrus, and to the king of Zidon, by the hand of the messengers which come to Jerusalem unto Zedekiah king of Judah;

4 And command them *to say unto their masters, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; Thus shall ye say unto your masters;

5 *I have made the earth, the man, and the beast that are upon the ground, by my great power and by my outstretched arm, and *I have given it unto whom it seemed meet unto me.

6 *And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, *my servant; and *the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him.

7 *And all nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, *until the very time of his land come: *and then many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of him.

8 And it shall come to pass, that the nation and kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, saith the Lord, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand.

9 Therefore hearken not ye to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your *dreamers, nor to your enchanters, nor to your soothsayers, which speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon:

10 *For they prophesy a lie unto you, to remove you far from your land; and that I should drive you out, and ye should perish.

11 But the nations that bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, those will I let remain still in their own land, saith the Lord; and they shall till it, and dwell therein.

12 ¶ I spake also to *Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live.

13 *Why will ye die, thou and thy people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the Lord hath spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon?

14 Therefore hearken not unto the words of the prophets that speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon: for they prophesy *a lie unto you.

15 For I have not sent them, saith the Lord, yet they prophesy *a lie in my name; that I might drive you out, and that ye might perish, ye, and the prophets that prophesy unto you.

16 Also I spake to the priests and to all this people, saying, Thus saith the Lord; Hearken not to the words of your prophets that prophesy unto you, saying, Behold, *the vessels of the Lord's house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto you.

22 They shall be carried to Babylon, and there shall they be until the day that I visit them, saith the LORD; then will I bring them up, and restore them to this place.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

1 Hananiah prophesieth falsely the return of the vessels, and of Jeconiah. 5 Jeremiah, wishing it to be true, sheweth that the event will declare who are true prophets. 10 Hananiah breaketh Jeremiah's yoke. 12 Jeremiah telleth of an iron yoke, 15 and foretelleth Hananiah's death.

AND it came to pass the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, and in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azur the prophet, which was of Gibeon, spake unto me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon.

3 Within two full years will I bring again into this place all the vessels of the LORD's house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried them to Babylon:

4 And I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah, that went into Babylon, saith the LORD: for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.

5 ¶ Then the prophet Jeremiah said unto the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people that stood in the house of the LORD,

6 Even the prophet Jeremiah said,

'Amen: the LORD do so: the LORD perform thy words which thou hast prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the LORD's house, and all that is carried away captive, from Babylon into this place.

7 Nevertheless hear thou now this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people;

8 The prophets that have been before me and before thee of old prophesied both against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence.

9 'The prophet which prophesieth of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then shall the prophet be known, that the LORD hath truly sent him.

10 ¶ Then Hananiah the prophet took the yoke from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and brake it.

11 And Hananiah spake in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all nations within the space of two full years. And the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

12 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the prophet, after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, 13 Go and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast broken the yokes of wood; but thou shalt make for them yokes of iron.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; ¹ I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him: and I have given him the beasts of the field also.

15 ¶ Then said the prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah: The LORD hath not sent thee; but thou makest this people to trust in a lie.

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will cast thee from off the face of the earth: this year thou shalt die, because thou hast taught rebellion against the LORD.

17 So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

CHAPTER XXIX.

1 Jeremiah sendeth a letter to the captives in Babylon, to be quiet there, and not to believe the dreams of their prophets, 10 and that they shall return with peace after seventy years. 15 He foretelleth the destruction of the rest for their disobedience. 20 He sheweth the fearful end of Ahab and Zedekiah, two lying prophets. 24 Shemaiah writeth a letter against Jeremiah. 30 Jeremiah readeth his doom.

NOW these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem unto the residue of the elders which were carried away captives, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon;

2 (After that ^aJecooniah the king, and the queen, and the ²eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and the carpenters, and the smiths, were departed from Jerusalem:)

3 By the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent unto Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon) saying,

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, unto all that are carried away captives, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem unto Babylon;

5 ^b Build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them;

6 Take ye wives, and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; that ye may be increased there, and not diminished.

7 And seek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captives, and pray unto the LORD for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace.

8 ^c For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Let not your prophets and your diviners, that be in the midst of you, ^d deceive you, neither hearken to your dreams which ye cause to be dreamed.

9 ^e For they prophesy ^f falsely unto you in my name: I have not sent them, saith the LORD.

10 ^g For thus saith the LORD, That after ^h seventy years be accomplished at Babylon I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place.

11 For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an ⁱ expected end.

12 Then shall ye ^j call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you.

13 And ^k ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me ^l with all your heart.

14 And ^m I will be found of you, saith the LORD: and I will turn away your captivity, and ⁿ I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places whither I have driven you, saith the LORD; and I will bring you again into the place whence I caused you to be carried away captive.

15 ^o Because ye have said, The LORD hath raised us up prophets in Babylon;

16 Know that thus saith the LORD of the king that sitteth upon the throne of David, and of all the people that dwelleth in this city, and of your brethren that are not gone forth with you into captivity;

17 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I will send upon them the ^p sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like ^q vile figs, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

18 And I will persecute them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and ^r will deliver them to be removed to all the kingdoms of the earth, ^s to be ^t a curse, and an astonishment, and an hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations whither I have driven them:

19 Because they have not hearkened to my words, saith the LORD, which ^u I sent unto them by my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but ye would not hear, saith the LORD.

20 ^v Hear ye therefore the word of the LORD, all ye of the captivity, whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon:

21 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, of Ahab the son of Kolahai, and of Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, which prophesy a lie unto you in my name; Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and he shall slay them before your eyes;

22 ^w And of them shall be taken up a curse by all the captivity of Judah which are in Babylon, saying, The LORD make thee like Zedekiah and like Ahab, ^x whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire:

23 Because ^y they have committed villany in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbours' wives, and have spoken lying words in my name, which I have not commanded them; even I know, and am a witness, saith the LORD.

24 ^z Thus shalt thou also speak to Shemaiah the ^a Nehelamite, saying, 25 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Because thou hast sent letters in thy name unto all the people that are at Jerusalem, ^b and to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, and to all the priests, saying,

26 The LORD hath made thee priest in the stead of Jehoiada the priest, that ye should be ^c officers in the house of the LORD, for every man that is ^d mad, and maketh himself a prophet, that thou shouldst ^e put him in prison, and in the stocks.

27 Now therefore why hast thou not reproved Jeremiah of Anathoth, which maketh himself a prophet to you?

28 For therefore he sent unto us in Babylon, saying, This captivity is long:

29 And Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet.

30 ¶ Then came the word of the Lord unto Jeremiah, saying,

31 Send to all them of the captivity, saying, Thus saith the Lord concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite; Because that Shemaiah hath prophesied unto you, and I sent him not, and he caused you to trust in a lie:

32 Therefore thus saith the Lord; Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his seed: he shall not have a man to dwell among this people; neither shall he behold the good that I will do for my people, saith the Lord; because he hath taught rebellion against the Lord.

CHAPTER XXX.

1 God sheweth Jeremiah the return of the Jews.

4 After their trouble they shall have deliverance. 10 He comforteth Jacob. 18 Their return shall be gracious. 20 Wrath shall fall on the wicked.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the Lord God of Israel, saying, Write thee all the words that I have spoken unto thee in a book.

3 For, lo, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will bring again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, saith the Lord: and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.

4 ¶ And these are the words that the Lord spake concerning Israel and concerning Judah.

5 For thus saith the Lord; We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace.

6 Ask ye now, and see whether a man doth travail with child? wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness?

7 ¶ Ah! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it.

8 For it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thy bonds, and strangers shall no more serve themselves of him:

9 But they shall serve the Lord their God, and David their king, whom I will raise up unto them.

10 ¶ Therefore I fear thou not, O my servant Jacob, saith the Lord; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed I from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be in rest, and be quiet, and none shall make him afraid.

11 For I am with thee, saith the Lord, to save thee: though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered thee, yet will I not make a full end of thee: but I will correct thee in measure, and will not leave thee altogether unpunished.

12 For thus saith the Lord, Thy bruise is incurable, and thy wound is grievous.

13 There is none to plead thy cause, that thou mayest be bound up: thou hast no healing medicines.

14 ¶ All thy lovers have forgotten thee; they seek thee not; for I have wounded thee with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one, for the multitude of thine iniquity; because thy sins were increased.

15 Why criest thou for thine affliction? thy sorrow is incurable for the multitude of thine iniquity: because thy sins were increased, I have done these things unto thee.

16 Therefore all they that devour thee shall be devoured; and all thine adversaries, every one of them, shall go into captivity; and they that spoil thee shall be a spoil, and all that prey upon thee will I give for a prey.

17 ¶ For I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the Lord; because they called thee an Outcast, saying, This is Zion, whom no man seeketh after.

18 ¶ Thus saith the Lord; Behold, I will bring again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and I have mercy on his dwellingplaces; and the city shall be builded upon her own heap, and the palace shall remain after the manner thereof.

19 And out of them shall proceed thanksgiving and the voice of them that make merry; and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small.

20 Their children also shall be as aforetime, and their congregation shall be established before me, and I will punish all that oppress them.

21 And their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall proceed from the midst of them; and I will cause him to draw near, and he shall approach unto me: for who is this that engaged his heart to approach unto me? saith the Lord.

22 And ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.

23 Behold, the whirlwind of the Lord goeth forth with fury, a continuing whirlwind: it shall fall with pain upon the head of the wicked.

24 The fierce anger of the Lord shall not return, until he have done it, and until he have performed the intents of his heart: in the latter days ye shall consider it.

CHAPTER XXXI.

1 The restoration of Israel. 10 The publication thereof. 15 Rahel mourning is comforted. 18 Ephraim repeating is brought home again. 22 Christ is promised. 27 His care over the church. 31 His new covenant. 35 The stability. 38 and amplitude of the church.

At the same time, saith the Lord, I will I be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people.

2 Thus saith the Lord, The people which were left of the sword found grace in the wilderness; even Israel, when I went to cause him to rest.

3 The Lord hath appeared of old unto me, saying, Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love: therefore I with lovingkindness have I drawn thee.

4 Again I will build thee, and thou shalt be built, O virgin of Israel: thou shalt again be adorned with thy tabrets, and shalt go forth in the dances of them that make merry.

5 Thou shalt yet plant vines upon the mountains of Samaria: the planters shall plant, and shall eat them as common things.

6 For there shall be a day, that the watchmen upon the mount Ephraim shall cry, Arise ye, and let us go up to Zion unto the Lord our God.

7 For thus saith the Lord; I sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout among the chief of the nations: publish ye, praise ye, and say, O Lord, save thy people, the remnant of Israel.

8 Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the coasts of the earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her that travaileth with child together: a great company shall return thither.

9 They shall come with weeping, and with supplications will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble: for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn.

10 Hear the word of the Lord, O ye nations, and declare it in the isles afar off, and say, He that scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd doth his flock.

11 For the Lord hath redeemed Jacob, and ransomed him from the hand of him that was stronger than he.

12 Therefore they shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and shall flow together to the goodness of the Lord, for wheat, and for wine, and for oil, and for the young of the flock and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not sorrow any more at all.

13 Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, both young men and old together: for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow.

14 And I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, saith the Lord.

15 Thus saith the Lord; A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping; Rahel weeping for her children refused to be comforted for her children, because they were not.

16 Thus saith the Lord; Refrain thy voice from weeping, and thine eyes from tears: for thy work shall be rewarded, saith the Lord; and they shall come again from the land of the enemy.

17 And there is hope in thine end, saith the Lord, that thy children shall come again to their own border.

18 I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus; Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised, as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke: turn thou me, and I shall be turned; for thou art the Lord my God.

19 Surely after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did bear the reproach of my youth.

20 Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a pleasant child? for since I spake against him, I do earnestly remember him still: therefore my bowels are troubled for him; I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the Lord.

21 Set thee up waymarks, make thee high heaps: set thine heart toward the highway, even the way which thou wentest: turn again, O virgin of Israel, turn again to these thy cities.

22 How long wilt thou go about, O thou backsliding daughter? for the Lord hath created a new thing in the earth, A woman shall compass a man.

23 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; As yet they shall use this speech in the land of Judah and in the cities thereof, when I shall bring again their captivity; The Lord bless thee, O habitation of justice, and mountain of holiness.

24 And there shall dwell in Judah itself, and in all the cities thereof together, husbandmen, and they that go forth with flocks.

25 For I have satiated the weary soul, and I have replenished every sorrowful soul.

26 Upon this I awaked, and beheld; and my sleep was sweet unto me.

27 Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man, and with the seed of beast.

came unto Jeremiah the second time, while he was yet ¹ shut up in the court of the prison, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD the ² maker thereof, the LORD that formed it, to establish it; ³ the LORD is his name:

3 ⁴ Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and shew thee great and ⁵ mighty things, which thou knowest not.

4 For thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are thrown down by ⁶ the mounts, and by the sword;

5 ⁷ They come to fight with the Chaldeans, but it is to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have slain in mine anger and in my fury, and for all whose wickedness I have hid my face from this city.

6 Behold, ⁸ I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them, and will reveal unto them the abundance of peace and truth.

7 And ⁹ I will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, and will build them, ¹⁰ as at the first.

8 And I will ¹¹ cleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they have sinned against me; and I will ¹² pardon all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned, and whereby they have transgressed against me.

9 ¹³ And it shall be to me a name of joy, a praise and an honour before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them: and they shall ¹⁴ fear and tremble for all the goodness and for all the prosperity that I procure unto it.

10 Thus saith the LORD; Again
there shall be heard in this place, ¹⁵ which ye say shall be desolate without man and without beast, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, with-

¹⁸ the sacrifice of praise into the house of the LORD. For ¹⁹ I will cause to return the captivity of the land, as at the first, saith the LORD.

12 Thus saith the LORD of hosts;
²⁰ Again in this place, which is desolate without man and without beast, and in all the cities thereof, shall be an habitation of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down.

13 ²¹ In the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the vale, and in the cities of the south, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah,

the LORD.

14 ²³ Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that ²⁴ I will perform that good thing which I have promised unto the house of Israel and to the house of Judah.

15 ²⁵ In those days, and at that time, will I cause the ²⁶ Branch of righteousness to grow up unto David; and he shall execute judgment and righteousness in the land.

16 ²⁷ In those days shall Judah be

21 Then may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne; and with the Levites the priests, my ministers.

22 As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured: so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites that minister unto me.

23 Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,

24 Considerest thou not what this people have spoken, saying, The two families which the LORD hath chosen, he hath even cast them off? thus they have despised my people, that they should be no more a nation before them.

25 Thus saith the LORD: If my covenant be not with day and night, and if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth;

26 Then will I cast away the seed of Jacob, and David my servant, so that I will not take any of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for I will cause their captivity to return, and have mercy on them.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

1 Jeremiah prophesieth the captivity of Zedekiah and the city. 8 The princes and the people having dismissed their bondservants, contrary to the covenant of God, recapture them. 12 Jeremiah, for their disobedience, giveth them and Zedekiah into the hands of their enemies.

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, "when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth of his dominion, and all the people, fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities thereof, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel: Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD: Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire:

3 And thou shalt not escape out of his hand, but shalt surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and thine eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he shall speak with thee mouth to mouth, and thou shalt go to Babylon.

4 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah: Thus saith the LORD of thee, Thou shalt not die by the sword:

5 But thou shalt die in peace: and with the burnings of thy fathers, the former kings which were before thee, so shall they burn odours for thee; and they will lament thee, saying, Ah lord! for I have pronounced the word, saith the LORD.

6 Then Jeremiah the prophet spake all these words unto Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem,

7 When the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish, and against Azekah: for these defended cities remained of the cities of Judah.

8 This is the word that came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people which were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty unto them;

9 That every man should let his manservant, and every man his maid-servant, being an Hebrew or an Hebrewess, go free: that none should serve himself of them, to wit, of a Jew his brother.

10 Now when all the princes, and all the people, which had entered into the covenant, heard that every one should let his manservant, and every one his maid-servant, go free, that none should serve themselves of them any more, then they obeyed, and let them go.

11 But afterward they turned, and caused the servants and the hand-maids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for hand-maids.

12 Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

13 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel: I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bond-men, saying,

14 At the end of seven years let ye go every man his brother an Hebrew, which hath been sold unto thee; and when he hath served thee six years, thou shalt let him go free from thee: but your fathers hearkened not unto me, neither inclined their ear.

15 And ye were now turned, and had done right in my sight, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbour; and ye had made a covenant before me in the house which is called by my name:

16 But ye turned and polluted my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his hand-maid, whom he had set at liberty at their pleasure, to return, and brought them into subjection, to be unto you for servants and for hand-maids.

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD: Ye have not hearkened unto me, in proclaiming liberty, every one to his brother, and every man to his neighbour: behold, I proclaim a liberty for you, saith the LORD, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

18 And I will give the men that have transgressed my covenant, which have not performed the words of the covenant which they had made before me, when ^athey cut the calf in twain, and passed between the parts thereof,

19 The princes of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, which passed between the parts of the calf;

20 I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life: and their ^bdead bodies shall be for meat unto the fowls of the heaven, and to the beasts of the earth.

21 And Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, ^cwhich are gone up from you.

22 ^dBehold, I will command, saith the Lord, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, ^eand take it, and burn it with fire: and ^fI will make the cities of Judah a desolation without an inhabitant.

CHAPTER XXXV.

1 By the obedience of the Rechabites, 12 Jeremiah condemneth the disobedience of the Jews. 18 God blesseth the Rechabites for their obedience.

cir. 607.

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the Lord in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying,

2 Go unto the house of the ^aRechabites, and speak unto them, and bring them into the house of the Lord, into one of ^bthe chambers, and give them wine to drink.

3 Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habaziniah, and his brethren, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites;

4 And I brought them into the house of the Lord, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan, the son of Igballah, a man of God, which ^cwas by the chamber of the princes, which ^dwas above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, ^ethe keeper of the ^f2 door:

5 And I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites pots full of wine, and cups, and I said unto them, Drink ye wine.

6 But they said, We will drink no wine: for ^aJonadab the son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, ^bneither ye, nor your sons for ever:

7 Neither shall ye build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have ^cany: but all your days ye shall dwell in tents; ^dthat ye may live many days in the land where ye be strangers.

8 Thus have we obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab our father in all that he hath charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters;

9 Nor to build houses for us to dwell in: neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed:

10 But we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us.

11 But it came to pass, when Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians: so we dwell at Jerusalem.

12 ^aThen came the word of the Lord unto Jeremiah, saying,

13 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; Go and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will ye not ^breceive instruction to hearken to my words? saith the Lord.

14 The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are performed; for unto this day they drink none, but obey their father's commandment: ^cnotwithstanding I have spoken unto you, ^drising early and speaking; but ye hearkened not unto me.

15 ^eI have sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, ^fReturn ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: but ye have not inclined your ear, nor hearkened unto me.

16 Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them; but this people hath not hearkened unto me:

17 Therefore thus saith the Lord God of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them: ^abecause I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard; and I have called unto them, but they have not answered.

18 ^bAnd Jeremiah said unto the house of the Rechabites, Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; Because ye have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according unto all that he hath commanded you:

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel; ^aJonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man to ^bstand before me for ever.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

1 Jeremiah causeth Baruch to write his prophecy, 5 and publicly to read it. 11 The princes, having intelligence thereof by Michaiah, send Jehudi to fetch the roll, and read it. 13 They will Baruch to hide himself and Jeremiah. 20 The king Jehoiahim, being certified thereof, heareth part of it, and burneth the roll. 27 Jeremiah denounceth his judgment. 32 Baruch writeth a new copy.

AND it came to pass in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that this word came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Take thee a "roll of a book, and write therein all the words that I have spoken unto thee against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spake unto thee, from the days of Josiah, even unto this day.

3 "It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do unto them; that they may return every man from his evil way; that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.

4 Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah: and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which he had spoken unto him, upon a roll of a book.

5 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am shut up; I cannot go into the house of the LORD:

6 Therefore go thou, and read in the roll, which thou hast written from my mouth, the words of the LORD in the ears of the people in the LORD's house upon the fasting day: and also thou shalt read them in the ears of all Judah that come out of their cities.

7 "It may be they will present their supplication before the LORD, and will return every one from his evil way: for great is the anger and the fury that the LORD hath pronounced against this people.

8 And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the LORD in the LORD's house.

9 And it came to pass in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, in the ninth month, that they proclaimed a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people that came from the cities of Judah unto Jerusalem.

10 Then read Baruch in the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the higher court, at the entry of the new gate of the LORD's house, in the ears of all the people.

11 ¶ When Michajah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of the LORD, 12 Then he went down into the king's house, into the scribe's chamber: and, lo, all the princes sat there, even Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemai, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes.

13 Then Michajah declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people.

14 Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the roll in his hand, and came unto them.

15 And they said unto him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read it in their ears.

16 Now it came to pass, when they had heard all the words, they were afraid both one and other, and said unto Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these words.

17 And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How didst thou write all these words at his mouth?

18 Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book.

19 Then said the princes unto Baruch, Go, hide thee, thou and Jeremiah; and let no man know where ye be.

20 ¶ And they went in to the king into the court, but they laid up the roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king.

21 So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll: and he took it out of Elishama the scribe's chamber. And Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes which stood beside the king.

22 Now the king sat in the winterhouse in the ninth month: and there was a fire on the hearth burning before him.

23 And it came to pass, that when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, he cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth.

24 Yet they were not afraid, nor rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants that heard all these words.

25 Nevertheless Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the roll: but he would not hear them.

26 But the king commanded Jerahmeel the son of Hammelech, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet: but the LORD hid them.

27 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after that the king had burned the roll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying,

28 Take thee again another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah hath burned.

29 And thou shalt say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast burned this roll, saying, Why hast thou written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence man and beast?

30 Therefore thus saith the LORD of Jehoiakim king of Judah; * He shall have none to sit upon the throne of David: and his dead body shall be ² cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost.

31 And I will ³ punish him and his seed and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them; but they hearkened not.

32 ¶ Then took Jeremiah another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah; who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire: and there were added besides unto them many ⁴ like words.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

1 The Egyptians having raised the siege of the Chaldeans, king Zedekiah sendeth to Jeremiah to pray for the people. 6 Jeremiah prophesieth the Chaldeans' certain return and victory. 11 He is taken for a fugitive, beaten, and put in prison. 16 He assureth Zedekiah of the captivity. 18 Intreating for his liberty, he obtaineth some favour.

AND king ² Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned instead of Coiah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah.

2 ³ But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, did hearken unto the words of the LORD, which he spake ⁴ by the prophet Jeremiah.

3 And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah and ⁵ Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Pray now unto the LORD our God for us.

4 Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people: for they had not put him into prison.

5 Then ⁶ Pharaoh's army was come forth out of Egypt: ⁷ and when the Chaldeans that besieged Jerusalem heard tidings of them, they departed from Jerusalem.

6 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto the prophet Jeremiah, saying,

7 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Thus shall ye say to the king of Judah, ⁸ that sent you unto me to enquire of me; Behold, Pharaoh's army, which is come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land.

8 ⁹ And the Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city, and take it, and burn it with fire.

9 Thus saith the LORD; Deceive not ² yourselves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us: for they shall not depart.

10 ³ For though ye had smitten the whole army of the Chaldeans that fight against you, and there remained ⁴ but ⁵ wounded men among them, yet should they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.

11 ¶ And it came to pass, that when the army of the Chaldeans was ⁶ broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army, 12 Then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, ⁷ to separate himself thence in the midst of the people.

13 And when he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward ⁸ was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he took Jeremiah the prophet, saying, Thou fallest away to the Chaldeans.

14 Then said Jeremiah, ⁹ It is ¹⁰ false; I fall not away to the Chaldeans. But he hearkened not to him: so Irijah took Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes.

15 Wherefore the princes were wroth with Jeremiah, and smote him, ¹¹ and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe: for they had made that the prison.

16 ¶ When Jeremiah was entered into ¹² the dungeon, and into the ¹³ cabinets, and Jeremiah had remained there many days;

17 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took him out: and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there ¹⁴ any word from the LORD? And Jeremiah said, There is: for, said he, thou shalt be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon.

18 Moreover Jeremiah said unto king Zedekiah, What have I offended against thee, or against thy servants, or against this people, that ye have put me in prison?

19 Where are now your prophets which prophesied unto you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land?

20 Therefore hear now, I pray thee, O my lord the king: let my supplication, I pray thee, be accepted before thee; that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there.

21 Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah into the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily a piece of bread out of the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city were spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

1 Jeremiah, by a false suggestion, is put into the dungeon of Babelian, 7 Ebed-melech, by suit, gets him some enlargement, 14 Upon secret conference he counselled the king by yielding to save his life. 24 By the king's instructions he concealed the conference from the princes.

THEN Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashur, and Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashur the son of Malchiah, heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken unto all the people, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, He that remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall live; for he shall have his life for a prey, and shall live.

3 Thus saith the LORD, This city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which shall take it.

4 Therefore the princes said unto the king, We beseech thee, let this man be put to death: for thus he weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man seeketh not the welfare of this people, but the hurt.

5 Then Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand: for the king is not he that can do any thing against you.

6 Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah the son of Hanamelech, that was in the court of the prison: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire: so Jeremiah sunk in the mire.

7 Now when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs which was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon; the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin;

8 Ebed-melech went forth out of the king's house, and spake to the king, saying,

9 My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and he is like to die for hunger in the place where he is: for there is no more bread in the city.

10 Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he die.

11 So Ebed-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old cast clouts and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah.

12 And Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now these old cast clouts and rotten rags under thine armholes under the cords. And Jeremiah did so.

13 So they drew up Jeremiah with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

14 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet unto him into the third entry that is in the house of the LORD: and the king said unto Jeremiah, I will ask thee a thing; hide nothing from me.

15 Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah, If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death? and if I give thee counsel, wilt thou not hearken unto me?

16 So Zedekiah the king sware secretly unto Jeremiah, saying, As the LORD liveth, that made us this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men that seek thy life.

17 Then said Jeremiah unto Zedekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: If thou wilt assuredly go forth unto the king of Babylon's princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and thou shalt live, and thine house.

18 But if thou wilt not go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and thou shalt not escape out of their hand.

19 And Zedekiah the king said unto Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Jews that are fallen to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me.

20 But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver thee. Obey, I beseech thee, the voice of the LORD, which I speak unto thee: so it shall be well unto thee, and thy soul shall live.

²¹ But if thou refuse to go forth, this is the word that the LORD hath shewed me:

²⁴ ¶ Then said Zedekiah unto Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and thou shalt not die.

²⁵ But if the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou hast said unto the king, hide it not from us, and we will not put thee to death; also what the king said unto thee:

²⁶ Then thou shalt say unto them, ²⁷ I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, to die there.

²⁷ Then came all the princes unto Jeremiah, and asked him: and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So ²⁸ they left off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived.

²⁸ So ²⁹ Jeremiah abode in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken: and he was there when Jerusalem was taken.

CHAPTER XXXIX.

¹ Jerusalem is taken, ⁴ Zedekiah is made blind, and sent to Babylon. ⁸ The city is ruined, ⁹ the people captivated, ¹¹ Nebuchadnezzar's charge for the good usage of Jeremiah, ¹⁵ God's promise to Ebed-melech.

¹ In the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army against Jerusalem, and they besieged it.

² And in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, the city was broken up.

³ And all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in the middle gate, even Nergal-sharezer, Samgar-nebo, Sarsechim, Rab-saris, Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, with all the residue of the princes of the king of Babylon.

⁴ ¶ And it came to pass, that when Zedekiah the king of Judah saw them, and all the men of war, then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, by the gate betwixt the two walls: and he went out the way of the plain.

⁶ Then the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: also the king of Babylon slew all the nobles of Judah.

⁷ Moreover he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him with chains, to carry him to Babylon.

⁸ ¶ And the Chaldeans burned the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem.

⁹ ¶ Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive into Babylon the remnant of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to him, with the rest of the people that remained.

¹⁰ But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left of the poor of the people, which had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time.

¹¹ ¶ Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard, saying,

¹² Take him, and look well to him, and do him no harm; but do unto him even as he shall say unto thee.

¹³ So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard sent, and Nebushashan, Rab-saris, and Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, and all the king of Babylon's princes:

¹⁴ Even they sent, and took Jeremiah out of the court of the prison, and committed him unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home: so he dwelt among the people.

¹⁵ ¶ Now the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the prison, saying, ¹⁶ Go and speak to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, ¹⁷ I will bring my words upon this city for evil, and not for good; and they shall be accomplished in that day before thee.

¹⁷ But I will deliver thee in that day, saith the LORD: and thou shalt not be given into the hand of the men of whom thou art afraid.

¹⁸ For I will surely deliver thee, and thou shalt not fall by the sword, but thy life shall be for a prey unto thee: because thou hast put thy trust in me, saith the LORD.

voice of the LORD, which I speak unto thee: so it shall be well unto thee, and thy soul shall live.

21 But if thou refuse to go forth, this is the word that the LORD hath showed me:

22 And, behold, all the women that are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say, 23 Thy friends have set thee on, and have prevailed against thee: thy feet are sunk in the mire, and they are turned away back.

23 So they shall bring out all thy wives and 24 thy children to the Chaldeans: and thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and thou shalt cause this city to be burned with fire.

24 ¶ Then said Zedekiah unto Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and thou shalt not die.

25 But if the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou hast said unto the king, hide it not from us, and we will not put thee to death: also what the king said unto thee:

26 Then thou shalt say unto them, I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, to die there.

27 Then came all the princes unto Jeremiah, and asked him: and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they left off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived.

28 So ¶ Jeremiah abode in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken: and he was there when Jerusalem was taken.

CHAPTER XXXIX.

1 Jerusalem is taken. 4 Zedekiah is made blind, and sent to Babylon. 8 The city is ruined. 9 The people captivated. 11 Nebuchadnezzar's charge for the guard range of Jeremiah. 15 God's promise to Ebed-melech.

IN the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army against Jerusalem, and they besieged it.

2 And in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, the city was broken up.

3 ¶ And all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in the middle gate, even Nergal-sharezer, Samgar-nebo, Sarsechim, Rab-saris, Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, with all the residue of the princes of the king of Babylon.

4 ¶ And it came to pass, that when Zedekiah the king of Judah saw them, and all the men of war, then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, by the gate betwixt the two walls: and he went out the way of the plain.

5 But the Chaldeans' army pursued after them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he gave judgment upon him.

6 Then the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: also the king of Babylon slew all the nobles of Judah.

7 Moreover he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him with chains, to carry him to Babylon.

8 ¶ And the Chaldeans burned the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem.

9 ¶ Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive into Babylon the remnant of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to him, with the rest of the people that remained.

10 But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left of the poor of the people, which had nothing in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time.

11 ¶ Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard, saying, 12 Take him, and look well to him, and do him no harm; but do unto him even as he shall say unto thee.

13 So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard sent, and Nebushashan, Rab-saris, and Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, and all the king of Babylon's princes;

14 Even they sent, and took Jeremiah out of the court of the prison, and committed him unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home: so he dwelt among the people.

15 ¶ Now the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the prison, saying, 16 Go and speak to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring my words upon this city for evil, and not for good; and they shall be accomplished in that day before thee.

17 But I will deliver thee in that day, saith the LORD: and thou shalt not be given into the hand of the men of whom thou art afraid.

18 For I will surely deliver thee, and thou shalt not fall by the sword, but thy life shall be for a prey unto thee: because thou hast put thy trust in me, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER XL.

1 Jeremiah, being set free by Nebuzar-adan, goeth to Gedaliah. 2 The dispersed Jews repair unto him. 13 Johanan revealing Ishmael's conspiracy is not believed.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord, ^aafter that Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him being bound in ^bchains among all that were carried away captive of Jerusalem and Judah, which were carried away captive unto Babylon.

2 And the captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and ^bsaid unto him, The Lord thy God hath pronounced this evil upon this place.

3 Now the Lord hath brought it, and done according as he hath said: ^c'because ye have sinned against the Lord, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing is come upon you.

4 And now, behold, I loose thee this day from the chains which ^dwere upon thine hand. ^e'If it seem good unto thee to come with me into Babylon, come; and ^f'I will look well unto thee: but if it seem ill unto thee to come with me into Babylon, forbear: behold, ^g'all the land is before thee: whither it seemeth good and convenient for thee to go, thither go.

So the captain of the guard gave him victuals and a reward, and let him go.

6 ^jThen went Jeremiah unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to ^kMizpah: and dwelt with him among the people that were left in the land.

7 ^l'Now when all the captains of the forces which ^mwere in the fields, ⁿeven they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed unto him men, and women, and children, and of ^othe poor of the land, of them that were not carried away captive to Babylon;

8 Then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, ^peven Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men.

9 And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan sware unto them and to their men, saying, Fear not ^qto serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you.

10 As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, to serve the Chaldeans, which will come unto us: but ye, gather ye wine, and summer fruits, and oil, and put ^rthem in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that ye have taken.

11 Likewise when all the Jews that were in Moab, and among the Ammonites, and in Edom, and that were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan;

12 Even all the Jews returned out of all places whither they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, unto Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruits very much.

13 ^s'Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, 14 And said unto him, Dost thou certainly know that ^tBaalis the king of the Ammonites hath sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah ^uto slay thee? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam believed them not.

15 Then Johanan the son of Kareah spake to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, Let me go, I pray thee, and I will slay Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it: wherefore should he slay thee, that all the Jews which are gathered unto thee should be scattered, and the remnant in Judah perish?

16 But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said unto Johanan the son of Kareah, Thou shalt not do this thing: for thou speakest falsely of Ishmael.

CHAPTER XLI.

1 Ishmael, treacherously killing Gedaliah and others, purposeth with the residue to flee unto the Ammonites. 11 Johanan recovereth the captives, and mindedeth to flee into Egypt.

NOW it came to pass in the seventh month, ^vthat Ishmael the son of Nethaniah the son of Elishama, of the seed royal, and the princes of the king, even ten men with him, came unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah: and there they did eat bread together in Mizpah.

2 Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men that were with him, and ^wsmote Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword, and slew him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land.

3 Ishmael also slew all the Jews that were with him, ^xeven with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans that were found there, and the men of war.

4 And it came to pass the second day after he had slain Gedaliah, and no man knew it, even fourscore men, ⁶having their beards shaven, and their clothes rent, and having cut themselves, with of forings and incense in their hand, to bring them to ⁴the house of the LORD.

6 And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, ²weeping all along as he went: and it came to pass, as he met them, he said unto them, Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam.

7 And it was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah slew them, and cast them into the midst of the pit, he, and the men that were with him.

8 But ten men were found among them that said unto Ishmael, Slay us not: for we have treasures in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he forbore, and slew them not among their brethren.

9 Now the pit wherein Ishmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men, whom he had slain ³⁴because of Gedaliah, was it ³which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with them that were slain.

10 Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people that were in Mizpah, ⁷even the king's daughters, and all the people that remained in Mizpah, ⁸whom Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to ²the Ammonites.

11 ¶ But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all ⁴the captains of the forces that were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, 12 Then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by ²the great waters that are in Gilboa.

13 Now it came to pass, that when all the people which were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, then they were glad.

14 So all the people that Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah cast about and returned, and went unto Johanan the son of Kareah.

15 But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the Ammonites.

16 Then took Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after that he had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, even mighty men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought again from Gibeon:

17 And they departed, and dwelt in the habitation of ⁴Chimham, which is by Beth-lehem, to go to enter into Egypt, 18 Because of the Chaldeans: for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, ²⁰whom the king of Babylon made governor in the land.

CHAPTER XLII.

1 Johanan desireth Jeremiah to enquire of God, promising obedience to his will. 7 Jeremiah assureth him of safety in Judea, 13 and destruction in Egypt. 19 He reproverth their hypocrisy, in requiring of the Lord that which they meant not.

¶ THEN all the captains of the forces, ²and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least even unto the greatest, came near.

2 And said unto Jeremiah the prophet, ²Let, we beseech thee, our supplication be accepted before thee, and ²pray for us unto the LORD thy God, even for all this remnant; (for we are left but ³a few of many, as thine eyes do behold us.)

3 That the LORD thy God may shew us ⁴the way wherein we may walk, and the thing that we may do.

4 Then Jeremiah the prophet said unto them, I have heard you; be-hold, I will pray unto the LORD your God according to your words; and it shall come to pass, that ²whatsoever thing the LORD shall answer you, I will declare it unto you; I will ³keep nothing back from you.

5 Then they said to Jeremiah, ²The LORD be a true and faithful witness between us, if we do not even according to all things for the which the LORD thy God shall send thee to us.

6 Whether it be good, or whether it be evil, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God, to whom we send thee; ²that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of the LORD our God.

7 ¶ And it came to pass after ten days, that the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah.

8 Then called he Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces which were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest.

9 And said unto them, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto whom ye sent me to present your supplication before him;

10 If ye will still abide in this land, then ⁴will I build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up: for I ¹repent me of the evil that I have done unto you.

15 And now therefore hear the word of the LORD, ye remnant of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; If ye wholly set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to sojourn there;

16 Then it shall come to pass, that the sword, which ye feared, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt, and the famine, whereof ye were afraid, shall follow close after you there in Egypt; and there ye shall die.

17 So shall it be with all the men that set their faces to go into Egypt to sojourn there; they shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: and none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring upon them.

18 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: As mine anger and my fury hath been poured forth upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem; so shall my fury be poured forth upon you, when ye shall enter into Egypt: and ye shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach; and ye shall see this place no more.

19 ¶ The LORD hath said concerning you, O ye remnant of Judah; Go ye not into Egypt: know certainly that I have admonished you this day.

21 And now I have this day declared it to you; but ye have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God, nor any thing for the which he hath sent me unto you.

22 Now therefore know certainly that ye shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, in the place whither ye desire to go and to sojourn.

CHAPTER XLIII.

1 Johanan, discrediting Jeremiah's prophecy, carrieth Jeremiah and others into Egypt.
8 Jeremiah prophesieth by a type the conquest of Egypt by the Babylonians.

AND it came to pass, that when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking unto all the people all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these words,

2 Then spake Azariah the son of Hoshiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, saying unto Jeremiah, Thou speakest falsely: the LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, Go not into Egypt to sojourn there:

3 But Baruch the son of Neriah setteth thee on against us, for to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they might put us to death, and carry us away captives into Babylon.

4 So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, obeyed not the voice of the LORD, to dwell in the land of Judah.

5 But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, that were returned from all nations, whither they had been driven, to dwell in the land of Judah;

6 Even men, and women, and children, and the king's daughters, and every person that Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah.

7 So they came into the land of Egypt: for they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: thus came they even to Tahpanhes.

8 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,

9 Take great stones in thine hand, and hide them in the clay in the brickkiln, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah;

10 And say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them.

11 And when he cometh, he shall smite the land of Egypt, and deliver such as are for death to death; and such as are for captivity to captivity; and such as are for the sword to the sword.

12 And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captives: and he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd putteth on his garment; and he shall go forth from thence in peace.

13 He shall break also the images of Beth-shemesh, that is in the land of

CHAPTER XLIV.

1 Jeremiah expresseth the desolation of Judah for their idolatry. 11 He prophesieth their destruction, who commit idolatry in Egypt. 15 The destiny of the Jews. 20 Jeremiah threatneth them for the same, 23 and for a sign prophesieth the destruction of Egypt.

587.

THE word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews which dwell in the land of Egypt, which dwell at Migdol, and at Tahpanhes, and at Noph, and in the country of Pathros, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Ye have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, and upon all the cities of Judah; and, behold, this day they are a desolation, and no man dwell-eth therein.

3 Because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, and to serve other gods, whom they knew not, neither they, ye, nor your fathers.

4 Howbeit I sent unto you all my servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate.

5 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense unto other gods.

6 Wherefore my fury and mine anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as at this day.

7 Therefore now thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: Wherefore commit ye this great evil against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, child and suckling, out of Judah, to leave you none to remain;

8 In that ye provoke me unto wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whither ye be gone to dwell, that ye might cut yourselves off, and that ye might be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?

9 Have ye forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem?

10 They are not humbled even unto this day, neither have they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers.

11 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold,

I will set my face against you for evil, and to cut off all Judah.

12 And I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and they shall all be consumed, and fall in the land of Egypt; they shall even be consumed by the sword and by the famine: they shall die, from the least even unto the greatest, by the sword and by the famine: and they shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach.

13 For I will punish them that dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence:

14 So that none of the remnant of Judah, which are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall escape or remain, that they should return into the land of Judah, to the which they have a desire to return to dwell there: for none shall return but such as shall escape.

15 Then all the men which knew that their wives had burned incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great multitude, even all the people that dwell in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying,

16 As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the LORD, we will not hearken unto thee.

17 But we will certainly do whatsoever thing goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for then had we plenty of victuals, and were well, and saw no evil.

18 But since we left off to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine.

19 And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink offerings unto her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings unto her, without our men?

20 Then Jeremiah said unto all the people, to the men, and to the women, and to all the people which had given him that answer, saying,

21 The incense that ye burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye, and your fathers, your kings, and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them, and came it not into his mind?

22 So that the LORD could no longer hear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed; therefore is your land ^aa desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant, ^aas at this day.

23 Because ye have burned incense, and because ye have sinned against the Lord, and have not obeyed the voice of the Lord, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; ^atherefore this evil is happened unto you, as at this day.

24 Moreover Jeremiah said unto all the people, and to all the women, Hear the word of the Lord, all Judah ^athat are in the land of Egypt:

25 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, saying; ^aYe and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hand, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her: ye will surely accomplish your vows, and surely perform your vows.

26 Therefore hear ye the word of the Lord, all Judah that dwell in the land of Egypt; Behold, ^aI have sworn by my great name, saith the Lord, that ^amy name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, The Lord God liveth.

27 ^aBehold, I will watch over them for evil, and not for good: and all the men of Judah that are in the land of Egypt ^ashall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them.

28 Yet ^aa small number that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, and all the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall know whose ^awords shall stand, ^amine, or theirs.

29 ^aAnd this shall be a sign unto you, saith the Lord, that I will punish you in this place, that ye may know that my words shall ^asurely stand against you for evil:

30 Thus saith the Lord; Behold, ^aI will give Pharaoh-hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of them that seek his life: as I gave ^aZedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, his enemy, and that sought his life.

CHAPTER XLV.

1 Baruch being dismayed, 4 Jeremiah instructeth and comforteth him.

THE ^aword that Jeremiah the prophet spake unto Baruch the son of Neriah, when he had written these words in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying,

2 Thus saith the Lord, the God of Israel, unto thee, O Baruch;

3 Thou didst say, Woe is me now! for the Lord hath added grief to my sorrow; I fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest.

4 ^aThus shalt thou say unto him, The Lord saith thus; Behold, ^athat which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up, even this whole land.

5 And seekest thou great things for thyself? seek them not: for, behold, ^aI will bring evil upon all flesh, saith the Lord: but thy life will I give unto thee ^afor a prey in all places whither thou goest.

CHAPTER XLVI.

1 Jeremiah prophesieth the overthrow of Pharaoh's army at Euphrates, 18 and the conquest of Egypt by Nebuchadrezzar, 27 He comforteth Jacob in their chastisement.

THE word of the Lord which came to Jeremiah the prophet against ^athe Gentiles;

2 Against Egypt, ^aagainst the army of Pharaoh-necho king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon smote in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah.

3 ^aOrder ye the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle.

4 Harness the horses; and get up, ye horsemen, and stand forth with your helmets; furnish the spears, and put on the brigandines.

5 Wherefore have I seen them dismayed and turned away back? and their mighty ones ^abeaten down, and are ^afled apace, and look not back: for ^afear was round about, saith the Lord.

6 Let not the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape; they shall ^astumble, and fall toward the north by the river Euphrates.

7 Who is this that cometh up ^aas a flood, whose waters are moved as the rivers?

8 Egypt riseth up like a flood, and his waters are moved like the rivers; and he saith, I will go up, and will cover the earth; I will destroy the city and the inhabitants thereof.

9 Come up, ye horses; and rage, ye chariots; and let the mighty men come forth; ^athe Ethiopians and ^athe Libyans, that handle the shield; and the Lydians, ^athat handle and bend the bow.

10 For this ^ais the day of the Lord God of hosts, a day of vengeance, that he may avenge him of his adversaries: and ^athe sword shall devour, and it shall be satiate and made drunk with their blood: for the Lord God of hosts hath a sacrifice in the north country by the river Euphrates.

11 Go up into Gilead, and take balm, O virgin, the daughter of Egypt: in vain shalt thou use many medicines; for thou shalt not be cured.

12 The nations have heard of thy shame, and thy cry hath filled the land: for the mighty man hath stumbled against the mighty, and they are fallen both together.

13 The word that the Lord spake to Jeremiah the prophet, how Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon should come and smite the land of Egypt.

14 Declare ye in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and publish in Noph and in Tahpanhes: say ye, Stand fast, and prepare thee; for the sword shall devour round about thee.

15 Why are thy valiant men swept away? they stood not, because the Lord did drive them.

16 He made many to fall, yea, one fell upon another: and they said, Arise, and let us go again to our own people, and to the land of our nativity, from the oppressing sword.

17 They did cry there, Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise; he hath passed the time appointed.

18 As I live, saith the King, whose name is the Lord of hosts, Surely as Tabor is among the mountains, and as Carmel by the sea, so shall he come.

19 O thou daughter dwelling in Egypt, furnish thyself to go into captivity: for Noph shall be waste and desolate without an inhabitant.

20 Egypt is like a very fair heifer, but destruction cometh; it cometh out of the north.

21 Also her hired men are in the midst of her like fatted bullocks; for they also are turned back, and are fled away together: they did not stand, because the day of their calamity was come upon them, and the time of their visitation.

22 The voice thereof shall go like a serpent; for they shall march with an army, and come against her with axes, as hewers of wood.

23 They shall cut down her forest, saith the Lord, though it cannot be searched; because they are more than the grasshoppers, and are innumerable.

24 The daughter of Egypt shall be confounded; she shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north.

25 The Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, saith: Behold, I will punish the multitude of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with their gods, and their kings; even Pharaoh, and all them that trust in him:

26 And I will deliver them into the hand of those that seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants: and afterward it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old, saith the Lord.

27 But fear not thou, O my servant Jacob, and be not dismayed, O Israel: for, behold, I will save thee from afar off, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and be in rest and at ease, and none shall make him afraid.

28 Fear thou not, O Jacob my servant, saith the Lord: for I am with thee; for I will make a full end of all the nations whither I have driven thee: but I will not make a full end of thee, but correct thee in measure; yet will I not leave thee wholly unpunished.

CHAPTER XLVII.

The destruction of the Philistines.

THE word of the Lord that came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Philistines, before that Pharaoh smote Gaza.

2 Thus saith the Lord; Behold, waters rise up out of the north, and shall be an overflowing flood, and shall overflow the land, and all that is therein; the city, and them that dwell therein: then the men shall cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall howl.

3 At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong horses, at the rushing of his chariots, and at the rumbling of his wheels, the fathers shall not look back to their children for feebleness of hands;

4 Because of the day that cometh to spoil all the Philistines, and to cut off from Tyrus and Zidon every helper that remaineth: for the Lord will spoil the Philistines, the remnant of the country of Caphtor.

5 Baldness is come upon Gaza; Ashkelon is cut off with the remnant of their valley: how long wilt thou cut thyself?

6 O thou sword of the Lord, how long wilt it be ere thou be quiet? put up thyself into thy scabbard, rest, and be still.

7 How can it be quiet, seeing the Lord hath given it a charge against Ashkelon, and against the sea shore? there hath he appointed it.

CHAPTER XLVIII.

37 For every head shall be bald, and every beard clipped: upon all the hands shall be cuttings, and upon the loins sackcloth.

38 There shall be lamentation generally upon all the housetops of Moab, and in the streets thereof: for I have broken Moab like a vessel wherein is no pleasure, saith the LORD.

39 They shall howl, saying, How is it broken down! how hath Moab turned the back with shame! so shall Moab be a derision and a dismay to all them about him.

40 For thus saith the LORD; Behold, he shall fly as an eagle, and shall spread his wings over Moab.

41 Kerioth is taken, and the strong holds are surprised, and the mighty men's hearts in Moab at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

42 And Moab shall be destroyed from being a people, because he hath magnified himself against the LORD.

43 Fear, and the pit, and the snare, shall be upon thee, O inhabitant of Moab, saith the LORD.

44 He that fleeth from the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that getteth up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring upon it, even upon Moab, the year of their visitation, saith the LORD.

45 They that fled stood under the shadow of Heshbon because of the force: but a fire shall come forth out of Heshbon, and a flame from the midst of Sihon, and shall devour the corner of Moab, and the crown of the head of the tumultuous ones.

46 Wee be unto thee, O Moab! the people of Chemosh perisheth: for thy sons are taken captives, and thy daughters captives.

47 Yet will I bring again the captivity of Moab in the latter days, saith the LORD. Thus far is the judgment of Moab.

CHAPTER XLIX.

1 The judgment of the Ammonites. 6 Their restoration. 7 The judgment of Edom, 23 of Damascus, 28 of Kedar, 30 of Hazor, 34 and of Elam. 39 The restoration of Elam.

CONCERNING the Ammonites, thus saith the LORD; Hath Israel no sons? hath he no heir? why then doth their king inherit Gad, and his people dwell in his cities?

2 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard in Rabbah of the Ammonites; and it shall be a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burned with fire: then shall Israel be heir unto them that were his heirs, saith the LORD.

3 Howl, O Heshbon, for Ai is spoiled: cry, ye daughters of Rabbah, a gird you with sackcloth; lament, and run to and fro by the hedges; for their king shall go into captivity, and his priests and his princes together.

4 Wherefore gloriest thou in the valleys, thy flowing valley, O backsliding daughter? that trusted in her treasures, saying, Who shall come unto me?

5 Behold, I will bring a fear upon thee, saith the Lord God of hosts, from all those that be about thee; and ye shall be driven out every man right forth; and none shall gather up him that wandereth.

6 And afterward I will bring again the captivity of the children of Ammon, saith the LORD.

7 Concerning Edom, thus saith the Lord of hosts; Is wisdom no more in Teman? Is counsel perished from the prudent? Is their wisdom vanished?

8 Flee ye, turn back, dwell deep, O inhabitants of Dedan; for I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him, the time that I will visit him.

9 If grapegatherers come to thee, would they not leave some gleanings grapes? if thieves by night, they will destroy till they have enough.

10 But I have made Esau bare, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is spoiled, and his brethren, and his neighbours, and he is not.

11 Leave thy fatherless children, I will preserve them alive; and let thy widows trust in me.

12 For thus saith the LORD; Behold, they whose judgment was not to drink of the cup have assuredly drunken; and art thou that shalt altogether go unpunished? thou shalt not go unpunished, but thou shalt surely drink of it.

13 For I have sworn by myself, saith the LORD, that Bozrah shall become a desolation, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all the cities thereof shall be perpetual wastes.

14 I have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent unto the heathen, saying, Gather ye together, and come against her, and rise up to the battle.

15 For, lo, I will make thee small among the heathen, and despised among men.

16 Thy terribleness hath deceived thee, and the pride of thine heart, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, that holdest the height of the hill: though thou shouldst make thy nest as high as the eagle, I will bring thee down from thence, saith the LORD.

17 Also Edom shall be a desolation: every one that goeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all the plagues thereof.

and Gomorrah and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD, no man shall abide there, neither shall a son of man dwell in it.

19 ¹Behold, he shall come up like a lion from ²the swelling of Jordan against the habitation of the strong; but I will suddenly make him run away from her: and who ³is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for ⁴who is like me? and who will ⁵appoint me the time? and ⁶who is that shepherd that will stand before me?

20 ⁷Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD, that he hath taken against Edom; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out: surely he shall make their habitations desolate with them.

21 ⁸The earth is moved at the noise of their fall, at the cry the noise thereof was heard in the ⁹Red sea.

22 Behold, ¹⁰he shall come up and fly as the eagle, and spread his wings over Bozrah: and at that day shall the heart of the mighty men of Edom be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

23 ¹¹* Concerning Damascus. Hamath is confounded, and Arpad: for they have heard evil tidings: they are ¹²fainthearted; ¹³there is sorrow ¹⁴on the sea; it cannot be quiet.

24 Damascus is waxed feeble, and turneth herself to flee, and fear hath seized on her: ¹⁵anguish and sorrows have taken her, as a woman in travail.

25 How is ¹⁶the city of praise not left, the city of joy!

26 ¹⁷Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD of hosts.

27 And I will kindle a ¹⁸fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall consume the palaces of Ben-hadad.

28 ¹⁹* Concerning Kedar, and concerning the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon shall smite, thus saith the LORD; Arise ye, go up to Kedar, and spoil ²⁰the men of the east.

29 Their ²¹tents take away: they shall take to themselves their curtains, and all their vessels, and their camels; and they shall cry unto them, ²²Fear is on every side.

30 ²³* Flee, ²⁴get you far off, dwell deep, O ye inhabitants of Hazor, saith the LORD; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath taken counsel against you, and hath conceived a purpose against you.

31 Arise, get you up unto ²⁵the ²⁶wealthy nation, that dwelleth without care, saith the LORD, which have neither gates nor bars, ²⁷which ²⁸dwell alone.

32 And their camels shall be a booty, and the multitude of their cattle a spoil: and I will ²⁹scatter into all winds ³⁰them that are ³¹in the utmost corners; and I will bring their captivity from all sides thereof, saith the LORD.

33 And Hazor ³²shall be a dwelling for dragons, and a desolation for ever: ³³there shall no man abide there, nor ³⁴any son of man dwell in it.

34 ³⁵* The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against ³⁶Elam in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying, 35 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I will break ³⁷the bow of Elam, the chief of their might.

36 And upon Elam will I bring the four winds from the four quarters of heaven, and I will scatter them toward all those winds; and there shall be no nation whither the outcasts of Elam shall not come.

37 For I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies, and before them that seek their life: and I will bring evil upon them, ³⁸even my fierce anger, saith the LORD; ³⁹and I will send the sword after them, till I have consumed them:

38 And I will ⁴⁰set my throne in Elam, and will destroy from thence the king and the princes, saith the LORD.

39 ⁴¹* But it shall come to pass ⁴²in the latter days, that I will bring again the captivity of Elam, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER L.

1, 9, 21, 37 The judgment of Babylon. 4, 17, 33 The redemption of Israel.

THE word that the LORD spake ¹against Babylon and against the land of the Chaldeans ²by Jeremiah the prophet.

2 Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and set up a standard: publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, ³Babylon is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces; ⁴her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces.

3 ⁵For out of the north there cometh up ⁶a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they shall remove, they shall depart, both man and beast.

4 ⁷* In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the children of Israel shall come, ⁸they and the children of Judah shall go, ⁹and seek the LORD their God.

5 They shall ask the way to Zion with their faces thitherward, ¹⁰saying, Come, and let us join ourselves to the LORD in ¹¹a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten.

6 My people hath been ¹²lost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray, they have turned them away

40 ¶ As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the Lord; so shall no man abide there, neither shall any son of man dwell therein.

41 ¶ Behold, a people shall come from the north, and a great nation, and many kings shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.

42 ¶ They shall hold the bow and the lance: they are cruel, and will not show mercy: their voice shall roar like the sea, and they shall ride upon horses, every one put in array, like a man to the battle, against thee, O daughter of Babylon.

43 The king of Babylon hath heard the report of them, and his hands waxed feeble: he anguish took hold of him, and pangs as of a woman in travail.

44 ¶ Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan unto the habitation of the strong: but I will make them suddenly run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like me? and who will appoint me the time? and who is that shepherd that will stand before me?

45 Therefore hear ye the counsel of the Lord, that he hath taken against Babylon: and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the land of the Chaldeans: Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out: surely he shall make their habitation desolate with them.

46 ¶ At the noise of the taking of Babylon the earth is moved, and the cry is heard among the nations.

CHAPTER LI.

1 The severe judgment of God against Babylon in revenge of Israel. 50 Jeremiah delivereth the book of this prophecy to Seraiah, to be cast into Euphrates, in token of the perpetual sinking of Babylon.

¶ THUS saith the Lord; Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, and against them that dwell in the midst of them that rise up against me, a destroying wind;

2 And will send unto Babylon fan-ners, that shall fan her, and shall empty her land: for in the day of trouble they shall be against her round about.

3 Against him that bendeth let the archer bend his bow, and against him that lifteth himself up in his brigandine: and spare ye not her young men; destroy ye utterly all her host.

4 Thus the slain shall fall in the land of the Chaldeans, and they that are thrust through in her streets.

5 For Israel hath not been forsaken, nor Judah of his God, of the Lord of hosts; though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel.

6 ¶ Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and deliver every man his soul: be not cut off in her iniquity; for this is the time of the Lord's vengeance; he will render unto her a recompence.

7 ¶ Babylon hath been a golden cup in the Lord's hand, that made all the earth drunken: the nations have drunken of her wine; therefore the nations are mad.

8 Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed: howl for her; take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed.

9 We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her, and let us go every one into his own country: for her judgment reacheth unto heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies.

10 The Lord our God brought forth our righteousness: come, and let us declare in Zion the work of the Lord our God.

11 ¶ Make bright the arrows; gather the shields: the Lord hath raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes: for his device is against Babylon, to destroy it; because it is the vengeance of the Lord, the vengeance of his temple.

12 ¶ Set up the standard upon the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong, set up the watchmen, prepare the ambushes: for the Lord hath both devised and done that which he spake against the inhabitants of Babylon.

13 ¶ O thou that dwellest upon many waters, abundant in treasures, thine end is come, and the measure of thy covetousness.

14 ¶ The Lord of hosts hath sworn by himself, saying, Surely I will fill thee with men, ^{as} with caterpillers; and they shall ² lift 'up a shout against thee.

15 ¹ He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and ² hath stretched out the heaven by his understanding.

16 ¹ When he uttereth his voice, there is a ² multitude of waters in the heavens; and ³ he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth: he maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.

17 ¹ Every man ⁴ is brutish by his knowledge; every founder is confounded by the graven image: ⁵ for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

18 ¹ They are vanity, the work of errors: in the time of their visitation they shall perish.

19 ¹ The portion of Jacob is not like them: for he is the former of all things; and Israel is the rod of his inheritance: the Lord of hosts is his name.

20 ¹ Thou art my battle ax and weapons of war: for ² with thee will I break in pieces the nations, and with thee will I destroy kingdoms;

21 And with thee will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; and with thee will I break in pieces the chariot and his rider;

22 With thee also will I break in pieces man and woman; and with thee will I break in pieces ³ old and young; and with thee will I break in pieces the young man and the maid;

23 I will also break in pieces with thee the shepherd and his flock; and with thee will I break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke of oxen; and with thee will I break in pieces captains and rulers.

24 ¹ And I will render unto Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, saith the Lord.

25 Behold, I am against thee, ² O destroying mountain, saith the Lord, which destroyest all the earth: and I will stretch out mine hand upon thee, and roll thee down from the rocks, ³ and will make thee a burnt mountain.

26 And they shall not take of thee a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; ⁴ but thou shalt be ⁵ desolate for ever, saith the Lord.

27 ¹ Set ye up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, ² prepare the nations against her, call together against her ³ the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashchenez: appoint a captain against her; cause the horses to come up as the rough caterpillers.

28 Prepare against her the nations with ⁴ the kings of the Medes, the captains thereof, and all the rulers thereof, and all the land of his dominion.

29 And the land shall tremble and sorrow: for every purpose of the Lord shall be performed against Babylon, ² to make the land of Babylon a desolation without an inhabitant.

30 The mighty men of Babylon have forborn to fight, they have remained in their holds: their might hath failed; ² they became as women: they have burned her dwellingplaces; ³ her bars are broken.

31 ¹ One post shall run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to shew the king of Babylon that his city is taken at one end.

32 And that ² the passages are stopped, and the reeds they have burned with fire, and the men of war are affrighted.

33 For thus saith the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: The daughter of Babylon is ¹ like a threshingfloor, ² it is time to thresh her: yet a little while, ³ and the time of her harvest shall come.

34 Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon hath ¹ devoured me, he hath crushed me, he hath made me an empty vessel, he hath swallowed me up like a dragon, he hath filled his belly with my delicates, he hath cast me out.

35 ¹ The violence done to me and to my ² flesh be upon Babylon, shall the ³ inhabitant of Zion say; and my blood upon the inhabitants of Chaldea, shall Jerusalem say.

36 Therefore thus saith the Lord: Behold, ¹ I will plead thy cause, and take vengeance for thee; ² and I will dry up her sea, and make her springs dry.

37 ¹ And Babylon shall become heaps, a dwellingplace for dragons, ² an astonishment, and an hissing, without an inhabitant.

38 They shall roar together like lions: they shall ² yell as lions' whelps.

39 In their heat I will make their feasts, and ² I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the Lord.

40 I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he goats.

41 How is ² Sheshach taken! and how is ³ the praise of the whole earth surprised! how is Babylon become an astonishment among the nations!

42 ¹ The sea is come up upon Babylon: she is covered with the multitude of the waves thereof.

43 ¹ Her cities are a desolation, a dry land, and a wilderness, a land wherein no man dwelleth, neither doth ² any son of man pass thereby.

that which he hath swallowed up: and the nations shall not flow together any more unto him: you, *the wall of Babylon shall fall.

45 *My people, go ye out of the midst of her, and deliver ye every man his soul from the fierce anger of the LORD.

46 And ²test your heart faint, and ye fear ³for the rumour that shall be heard in the land; a rumour shall both come one year, and after that in another year shall come a rumour, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler.

47 Therefore, behold, the days come, that I will ³do judgment upon the graven images of Babylon: and her whole land shall be confounded, and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her.

48 Then *the heaven and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for Babylon: ⁶for the spoilers shall come unto her from the north, saith the LORD.

49 *As Babylon hath caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all ⁶the earth.

50 *Ye that have escaped the sword, go away, stand not still: remember the LORD afar off, and let Jerusalem come into your mind.

51 *We are confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces: for strangers are come into the sanctuaries of the LORD's house.

52 Wherefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will do judgment upon her graven images: and through all her land the wounded shall groan.

53 *Though Babylon should mount up to heaven, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from me shall spoilers come unto her, saith the LORD.

54 *A sound of a cry cometh from Babylon, and great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans:

55 Because the LORD hath spoiled Babylon, and destroyed out of her the great voice; when her waves do roar like great waters, a noise of their voice is uttered:

56 Because the spoiler is come upon her, even upon Babylon, and her mighty men are taken, every one of their bows is broken: ⁶for the LORD God of recompences shall surely requite.

57 *And I will make drunk her princes, and her wise men, her captains, and her rulers, and her mighty men: and they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith *the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.

58 Thus saith the LORD of hosts: ⁶1 The broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly ⁷broken, and her high gates shall be burned with fire; and ⁸the people shall labour in vain, and the folk in the fire, and they shall be weary.

59 ¶ The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, when he went ²with Zedekiah the king of Judah into Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. And this Seraiah was a ³quiet prince.

60 So Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come upon Babylon, even all these words that are written against Babylon.

61 And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, When thou comest to Babylon, and shalt see, and shalt read all these words:

62 Then shalt thou say, O LORD, thou hast spoken against this place, to cut it off, that *none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be ⁴desolate for ever.

63 And it shall be, when thou hast made an end of reading this book, *that thou shalt bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of Euphrates:

64 And thou shalt say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her: ⁷and they shall be weary. Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

CHAPTER LII.

1 Zedekiah rebelled, 4 Jerusalem is besieged and taken. 8 Zedekiah's sons killed, and his own eyes put out. 12 Nebuzaradan bureth and spoileth the city, 24 He carryeth away the captives. 31 Evil-merodach advanceth Jehoiachin.

ZEDEKIAH was *one and twenty years old when he ²began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

2 And he did that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

3 For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, till he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

4 ¶ And it came to pass in the ⁵ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it, and built forts against it round about.

5 So the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

6 And in the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was sore in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land.

7 Then the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldeans were by the city round about: and they went by the way of the plain.

8 ¶ But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him.

9 ¶ Then they took the king, and carried him up unto the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; where he gave judgment upon him.

10 ¶ And the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he slew also all the princes of Judah in Riblah.

11 Then he put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in chains, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison till the day of his death.

12 ¶ Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, came Nebuzar-adan, captain of the guard, which served the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem,

13 And burned the house of the LORD, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the great men, burned he with fire:

14 And all the army of the Chaldeans, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down all the walls of Jerusalem round about.

15 ¶ Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive certain of the poor of the people, and the residue of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude.

16 But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left certain of the poor of the land for vinedressers and for husbandmen.

17 ¶ Also the pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the brasen sea that was in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans brake, and carried all the brass of them to Babylon.

18 ¶ The caldrons also, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the bowls, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away.

19 And the basons, and the fire-pans, and the bowls, and the caldrons, and the candlesticks, and the spoons, and the cups; that which was of gold in gold, and that which was of silver in silver, took the captain of the guard away.

20 The two pillars, one sea, and twelve brasen bulls that were under the bases, which King Solomon had made in the house of the LORD: the brass of all these vessels was without weight.

21 And concerning the pillars, the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits; and a fillet of twelve cubits did compass it; and the thickness thereof was four fingers: it was hollow.

22 And a chapter of brass was upon it; and the height of one chapter was five cubits, with network and pomegranates upon the chapters round about, all of brass. The second pillar also and the pomegranates were like unto these.

23 And there were ninety and six pomegranates on a side; and all the pomegranates upon the network were an hundred round about.

24 ¶ And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the door:

25 He took also out of the city an eunuch, which had the charge of the men of war; and seven men of them that were near the king's person, which were found in the city; and the principal scribe of the host, who mustered the people of the land; and threescore men of the people of the land, that were found in the midst of the city.

26 So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah.

27 And the king of Babylon smote them, and put them to death in Riblah in the land of Hamath. Thus Judah was carried away captive out of his own land.

28 ¶ This is the people whom Nebuchadrezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year three thousand Jews and three and twenty:

29 ¶ In the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty and two persons:

30 In the three and twentieth year of Nebuchadrezzar Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty and five persons: all the persons were four thousand and six hundred.

31 ¶ And it came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the five and twentieth day of the month, that Evil-merodach king of Babylon in the first year of his reign lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and brought him forth out of prison, 32 And spake kindly unto him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon, 33 And changed his prison garments: and he did continually eat bread before him all the days of his life.

34 And for his diet, there was a continual diet given him of the king of Babylon, every day a portion until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

1 The miserable estate of Jerusalem by reason of her sin. 12 She complaineth of her grief, and confesseth God's judgment to be righteous.

HOW doth the city sit solitary, that was full of people! how is she become as a widow! she that was great among the nations, and princess among the provinces, how is she become tributary!

2 She weepeth sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks: among all her lovers she hath none to comfort her: all her friends have dealt treacherously with her, they are become her enemies.

3 Judah is gone into captivity because of affliction, and because of great servitude: she dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest: all her persecutors overtook her between the straits.

4 The ways of Zion do mourn, because none come to the solemn feasts: all her gates are desolate: her priests sigh, her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness.

5 Her adversaries are the chief, her enemies prosper; for the Lord hath afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions: her children are gone into captivity before the enemy.

6 And from the daughter of Zion all her beauty is departed: her princes are become like harts that find no pasture, and they are gone without strength before the pursuer.

7 Jerusalem remembered in the days of her affliction and of her miseries all her pleasant things that she had in the days of old, when her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and none did help her: the adversaries saw her, and did mock at her sabbaths.

8 Jerusalem hath grievously sinned; therefore she is removed: all that honoured her despise her, because they have seen her nakedness: yea, she sigheth, and turneth backward.

9 Her filthiness is in her skirts; she remembereth not her last end; therefore she came down wonderfully: she had no comforter. O Lord, behold my affliction: for the enemy hath magnified himself.

10 The adversary hath spread out his hand upon all her pleasant things: for she hath seen that the heathen entered into her sanctuary, whom thou didst command that they should not enter into thy congregation.

11 All her people sigh, they seek bread; they have given their pleasant things for meat to relieve the soul: see, O Lord, and consider; for I am become vile.

12 Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by? behold, and see if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is done unto me, wherewith the Lord hath afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.

13 From above hath he sent fire into my bones, and it prevaileth against me: he hath spread a net for my feet, he hath turned me back: he hath made me desolate and faint all the day.

14 The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand: they are wretched, and come up upon my neck: he hath made my strength to fall, the Lord hath delivered me into their hands, from whom I am not able to rise up.

15 The Lord hath trodden under foot all my mighty men in the midst of me: he hath called an assembly against me to crush my young men: the Lord hath trodden the virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a winepress.

16 For these things I weep; mine eye runneth down with water, because the comforter that should relieve my soul is far from me: my children are desolate, because the enemy prevailed.

17 Zion spreadeth forth her hands, and there is none to comfort her: the Lord hath commanded concerning Jacob, that his adversaries should be round about him: Jerusalem is as a menstruous woman among them.

18 The Lord is righteous; for I have rebelled against his commandment: hear, I pray you, all people, and behold my sorrow: my virgins and my young men are gone into captivity.

19 I called for my lovers, but they deceived me: my priests and mine elders gave up the ghost in the city, while they sought their meat to relieve their souls.

20 Behold, O Lord; for I am in distress: my bowels are troubled; mine heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled: abroad the sword bereaveth, at home there is as death.

21 They have heard that I sigh: there is none to comfort me: all mine enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that thou hast done it: thou wilt bring the day that thou hast called, and they shall be like unto me.

CHAPTER II.

1 Jeremiah lamenteth the misery of Jerusalem.
20 He complaineth thereof to God.

HOW hath the Lord covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger, and cast down from heaven unto the earth the beauty of Israel, and remembered not his footstool in the day of his anger!

2 The Lord hath swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and hath not pitied: he hath thrown down in his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Judah; he hath brought them down to the ground: he hath polluted the kingdom and the princes thereof.

3 He hath cut off in his fierce anger all the horn of Israel: he hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, and he burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about.

4 He hath bent his bow like an enemy: he stood with his right hand as an adversary, and slew all that were pleasant to the eye in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion: he poured out his fury like fire.

5 The Lord was as an enemy: he hath swallowed up Israel, he hath swallowed up all her palaces: he hath destroyed his strong holds, and hath increased in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

6 And he hath violently taken away his tabernacle, as if it were of a garden: he hath destroyed his places of the assembly: the Lord hath caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and hath despised in the indignation of his anger the king and the priest.

7 The Lord hath cast off his altar, he hath abhorred his sanctuary, he hath given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces: they have made a noise in the house of the Lord, as in the day of a solemn feast.

8 The Lord hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion: he hath stretched out a line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from destroying: therefore he made the rampart and the wall to lament; they languished together.

9 Her gates are sunk into the ground; he hath destroyed and broken her bars: her king and her princes are among the Gentiles: the law is no more; her prophets also find no vision from the Lord.

10 The elders of the daughter of Zion sit upon the ground, and keep silence: they have cast up dust upon their heads; they have girded themselves with sackcloth: the virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.

11 Mine eyes do fall with tears, my bowels are troubled, my liver is poured upon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people; because the children and the sucklings swoon in the streets of the city.

12 They say to their mothers, Where is corn and wine? when they swooned as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their soul was poured out into their mothers' bosom.

13 What thing shall I take to witness for thee? what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem? what shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion? for thy breach is great like the sea: who can heal thee?

14 Thy prophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee: and they have not discovered thine iniquity, to turn away thy captivity; but have seen for thee false burdens and causes of banishment.

15 All that pass by clap their hands at thee; they hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that we call 'The perfection of beauty, The Joy of the whole earth'?

16 All thine enemies have opened their mouth against thee: they hiss and gnash the teeth: they say, 'We have swallowed her up: certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it.'

17 The Lord hath done that which he had devised; he hath fulfilled his word that he had commanded in the days of old: he hath thrown down, and hath not pitied: and he hath caused thine enemy to rejoice over thee, he hath set up the horn of thine adversaries.

18 Their heart cried unto the Lord, O wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears run down like a river day and night: give thyself no rest; let not the apple of thine eye cease.

19 Arise, cry out in the night: in the beginning of the watches pour out thine heart like water before the face of the Lord: lift up thy hands toward him for the life of thy young children, that faint for hunger in the top of every street.

20 Behold, O Lord, and consider to whom thou hast done this. Shall the women eat their fruit, and children of a span long? shall the priest and the prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the Lord?

CHAPTER III.

1 The faithful bewail their calamities. 22 By the mercies of God they nourish their hope.
37 They acknowledge God's justice. 55 They pray for deliverance, 64 and vengeance on their enemies.

I AM the man that hath seen afflic-tion by the rod of his wrath.

2 He hath led me, and brought me into darkness, but not into light.

3 Surely against me is he turned;
he turneth his hand against me all the day.

4 4 My flesh and my skin hath he made old; he hath 4 broken my bones.

5 He hath builded against me, and compassed me with gall and travel.

6 4 He hath set me in dark places, as they that be dead of old.

7 4 He hath hedged me about, that I cannot get out: he hath made my chain heavy.

8 Also 4 when I cry and shout, he shutteth out my prayer.

9 He hath inclosed my ways with heaven stone, he hath made my paths crooked.

10 4 He was unto me as a bear lying in wait, and as a lion in secret places.

11 He hath turned aside my ways, and 4 pulled me in pieces: he hath made me desolate.

12 He hath bent his bow, and 4 set me as a mark for the arrow.

13 He hath caused 4 the 2 arrows of his quiver to enter into my reins.

14 I was a 4 derision to all my people; and 4 their song all the day.

15 4 He hath filled me with 3 bitterness, he hath made me drunken with wormwood.

16 He hath also broken my teeth
4 with gravel stones, he hath 4 covered me with ashes.

17 And thou hast removed my soul far off from peace: I forgot 5 prosperity.

18 4 And I said, My strength and my hope is perished from the LORD:

19 6 Remembering mine affliction and my misery, 7 the wormwood and the gall.

20 My soul hath them still in remembrance, and is 7 humbled in me.

21 This I 8 recall to my mind, therefore have I hope.

22 9 4 It is of the LORD's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not.

23 They are new 4 every morning:
great is thy faithfulness.

24 The LORD is my 4 portion, saith my soul; therefore will I hope in him.

25 The LORD is good unto them that wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him.

26 It is good that a man should both hope 4 and quietly wait for the salvation of the LORD.

27 4 It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.

28 2 He sitteth alone and keepeth silence, because he hath borne it upon him.

29 2 He putteth his mouth in the dust; if so be there may be hope.

30 4 He giveth his cheek to him that smiteth him: he is filled full with reproach.

31 4 For the LORD will not cast off for ever:

32 But though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion according to the multitude of his mercies.

33 For 4 he doth not afflict 2 willingly nor grieve the children of men.

34 To crush under his feet all the prisoners of the earth.

35 To turn aside the right of a man before the face of 2 the most High.

36 To subvert a man in his cause,
4 the LORD 4 approveth not.

37 4 Who is he 4 that saith, and it cometh to pass, when the LORD com-mandeth it not?

38 Out of the month of the most High proceedeth not 4 evil and good?

39 9 Wherefore doth a living man 5 complain, 4 a man for the punishment of his sins?

40 Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the LORD.

41 4 Let us lift up our heart with our hands unto God in the heavens.

42 4 We have transgressed and have rebelled: thou hast not pardoned.

43 Thou hast covered with anger, and persecuted us: 4 thou hast slain, thou hast not pitied.

44 Thou hast covered thyself with a cloud, 4 that our prayer should not pass through.

45 Thou hast made us as the 4 off-scouring and refuse in the midst of the people.

46 4 All our enemies have opened their mouths against us.

47 7 Fear and a snare is come upon us, 9 desolation and destruction.

48 7 Mine eye runneth down with rivers of water for the destruction of the daughter of my people.

sion.

because of all the daughters of my city.

52 Mine enemies chased me sore, like a bird, without cause.

53 They have cut off my life in the dungeon, and cast a stone upon me.

54 Waters flowed over mine head; then I said, I am cut off.

55 I called upon thy name, O LORD, out of the low dungeon.

56 Thou hast heard my voice: hide not thine ear at my breathing, at my cry.

57 Thou drewest near in the day that I called upon thee: thou saidst, Fear not.

58 O LORD, thou hast pleaded the causes of my soul; thou hast redeemed my life.

59 O LORD, thou hast seen my wrong: judge thou my cause.

60 Thou hast seen all their vengeance and all their imaginations against me.

61 Thou hast heard their reproach, O LORD, and all their imaginations against me;

62 The lips of those that rose up against me, and their device against me all the day.

63 Behold their sitting down, and their rising up; I am their mock.

64 Render unto them a recompence, O LORD, according to the work of their hands.

65 Give them sorrow of heart, thy curse unto them.

66 Persecute and destroy them in anger from under the heavens of the LORD.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Zion beavalleth her pitiful estate. 13 She confesseth her sins. 21 Edom is threatened. 22 Zion is comforted.

HOW is the gold become dim! how is the most fine gold changed! the stones of the sanctuary are poured out in the top of every street.

2 The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, how are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!

3 Even the sea monsters draw out the breast, they give suck to their young ones: the daughter of my people is become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness.

4 The tongue of the sucking child cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst: the young children ask bread, and no man breaketh it unto them.

5 They that did feed delicately are desolate in the streets: they that were brought up in scarlet embrace dunghills.

6 For the punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the punishment of the sin of Sodom, that was overthrown as in a moment, and no hands stayed on her.

7 Her Nazarites were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk, they were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was of sapphire:

8 Their visage is blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets: their skin cleaveth to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick.

9 They that be slain with the sword are better than they that be slain with hunger: for these pine away, stricken through for want of the fruits of the field.

10 The hands of the pitiful women have sodden their own children: they were their meat in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

11 The LORD hath accomplished his fury; he hath poured out his fierce anger, and hath kindled a fire in Zion, and it hath devoured the foundations thereof.

12 The kings of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the world, would not have believed that the adversary and the enemy should have entered into the gates of Jerusalem.

13 For the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, that have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her,

14 They have wandered as blind men in the streets, they have polluted themselves with blood, so that men could not touch their garments.

15 They cried unto them, Depart ye; it is unclean; depart, depart, touch not: when they fled away and wandered, they said among the heathen, They shall no more sojourn there.

16 The anger of the LORD hath divided them; he will no more regard them: they respected not the persons of the priests, they favoured not the elders.

17 As for us, our eyes as yet failed for our vain help: in our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save us.

18 They hunt our steps, that we cannot go in our streets: our end is near, our days are fulfilled; for our end is come.

19 Our persecutors are swifter than the eagles of the heaven: they pursued us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.

20 The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the LORD, was taken in their pits, of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the heathen.

21 Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, that dwellest in the land of Uz; the cup also shall pass through unto thee: thou shalt be drunken, and shalt make thyself naked.

CHAPTER V.

A pitiful complaint of Zion in prayer unto God.

REMEMBER, O LORD, what is come upon us: consider, and behold ¹ our reproach.

² Our inheritance is turned to strangers, our houses to aliens.

³ We are orphans and fatherless, our mothers are us widows.

⁴ We have drunken our water for money; our wood ⁵ is sold unto us.

⁶ Our necks are under persecution: we labour, and have no rest.

⁷ We have given the hand ⁸ to the Egyptians, and to the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread.

⁹ Our fathers have sinned, and ¹⁰ are not; and we have borne their iniquities.

¹¹ Servants have ruled over us: there is none that doth deliver us out of their hand.

¹² We eat our bread with the peril of our lives because of the sword of the wilderness.

¹³ Our ¹⁴ skin was black like an oven because of the ¹⁵ terrible famine.

¹⁶ They ravished the women in Zion, and the maids in the cities of Judah.

¹⁷ Princes are hanged up by their hand: ¹⁸ the faces of elders were not honoured.

¹⁹ They took the young men ²⁰ to grind, and the children fell under the wood.

²¹ The elders have ceased from the gate, the young men from their music.

²² The joy of our heart is ceased; our dance is turned into mourning.

²³ The crown is fallen from our head: woe unto us, that we have sinned!

²⁴ For this ²⁵ our heart is faint; ²⁶ for these things our eyes are dim.

²⁷ Because of the mountain of Zion, which is desolate, the foxes walk upon it.

²⁸ Thou, O LORD, ²⁹ remainest for ever; ³⁰ thy throne from generation to generation.

³¹ Wherefore dost thou forget us for ever, and forsake us ³² so long time?

³³ Turn thou us unto thee, O LORD, and we shall be turned; renew our days as of old.

³⁴ But thou hast utterly rejected us; thou art very wroth against us.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET EZEKIEL.

CHAPTER I.

² His vision of four cherubims, & of the four wheels, & of the glory of God.

NOW it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the ¹ captives ² by the river of Chelar, that ³ the heavens were opened, and I saw ⁴ visions of God.

⁵ In the fifth day of the month, which was the fifth year of ⁶ king Jehoiachin's captivity,

¹⁴ Also out of the midst thereof came the likeness of four living creatures. And ¹⁵ this was their appearance; they had ¹⁶ the likeness of a man.

¹⁷ And every one had four faces, and every one had four wings.

¹⁸ And their feet were ¹⁹ straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot: and they sparkled like the colour of burnished brass.

²⁰ And ²¹ they had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and they four had their faces and their wings.

²² Their wings were joined one to another; they turned not when they went; they went every one straight forward.

²³ As for ²⁴ the likeness of their faces, they four ²⁵ had the face of a man, and the face of a lion, on the right side: ²⁶ and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; ²⁷ they four also had the face of an eagle.

²⁸ Thus were their faces: and their wings were ²⁹ stretched upward; two wings of every one were joined one to another, and ³⁰ two covered their bodies.

³¹ And ³² they went every one straight forward: ³³ whether the spirit was to go, they went; and ³⁴ they turned not when they went.

³⁵ As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, and like the appearance of lamps: it went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning.

14 And the living creatures ^b ran and returned ^a as the appearance of a flash of lightning.

15 ¶ Now as I beheld the living creatures, behold ^a one wheel upon the earth by the living creatures, with his four faces.

16 ¶ The appearance of the wheels and their work ^a was / like unto the colour of a beryl: and they four had one likeness: and their appearance and their work ^a was as it were a wheel in the middle of a wheel.

17 When they went, they went upon their four sides: ^a and they turned not when they went.

18 As for their rings, they were so high that they were dreadful; and their ² rings were ^b full of eyes round about them four.

19 And ^a when the living creatures went, the wheels went by them: and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up.

20 ¶ Whithersoever the spirit was to go, they went, thither ^a was their spirit to go; and the wheels were lifted up over against them: ^a for the spirit ^b of the living creature ^a was in the wheels.

21 ¶ When those went, ^a these went; and when those stood, ^a these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit ^a of the living creature ^a was in the wheels.

22 ¶ And the likeness of the firmament upon the heads of the living creature ^a was as the colour of the terrible crystal, stretched forth over their heads above.

23 And under the firmament ^a were their wings straight, the one toward the other: every one had two, which covered on this side, and every one had two, which covered on that side, their bodies.

24 ¶ And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, ^a like the noise of great waters, as ^a the voice of the Almighty, the voice of speech, as the noise of an host: when they stood, they let down their wings.

25 And there was a voice from the firmament ^a that was over their heads, when they stood, and had let down their wings.

26 ¶ And above the firmament that was over their heads ^a was the likeness of a throne, ^a as the appearance of a sapphire stone: and upon the likeness of the throne ^a was the likeness as the appearance of a man above upon it.

27 ¶ And I saw as the colour of amber, as the appearance of fire round about within it, from the appearance of his loins even upward, and from the appearance of his loins even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had brightness round about.

28 ¶ As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. ¶ This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. And when I saw it, ^a I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one that spake.

CHAPTER II.

1 Ezekiel's commission. 6 His instruction.
9 The roll of his heavy prophecy.

AND he said unto me, Son of man, I stand upon thy feet, and I will speak unto thee.

2 And ^a the spirit entered into me when he spake unto me, and set me upon my feet, that I heard him that spake unto me.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, I send thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious ² nation that hath rebelled against me: ^a they and their fathers have transgressed against me, even unto this very day.

4 ¶ For they are ^b supulent children and stiffhearted. I do send thee unto them; and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God,

5 ¶ And they, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet ^a shall know that there hath been a prophet among them.

6 ¶ And thou, son of man, ^a be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though ^a briers and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: ^a be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, ^a though they be a rebellious house.

7 ¶ And thou shalt speak my words unto them: ^a whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear: for they are ^b most rebellious.

8 But thou, son of man, hear what I say unto thee; Be not thou rebellious like that rebellious house: open thy mouth, and ^a eat that I give thee.

9 ¶ And when I looked, behold, ^a an hand was sent unto me; and, lo, ^a a roll of a book was therein;

10 And he spread it before me; and it was written within and without: and there was written therein lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

CHAPTER III.

1 Ezekiel eateth the roll. 4 God encourageth him. 15 God sheweth him the rule of prophecy. 22 God shutteth and openeth the prophet's mouth.

MOREOVER he said unto me, Son of man, eat that thou findest; ^a eat this roll, and go speak unto the house of Israel.

2 So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat that roll.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, cause thy belly to eat, and fill thy bowels with this roll that I give thee. Then did I eat it; and it was in my mouth as honey for sweetness.

4 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them.

5 For thou art not sent to a people of a strange speech and of an hard language, but to the house of Israel;

6 Not to many people of a strange speech and of an hard language, whose words thou canst not understand. Surely, had I sent thee to them, they would have hearkened unto thee.

7 But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee; for they will not hearken unto me: for all the house of Israel are impudent and hardhearted.

8 Behold, I have made thy face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads.

9 ¶ As an adamant harder than flint have I made thy forehead: fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

10 Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive in thine heart, and hear with thine ears.

11 And go, get thee to them of the captivity, unto the children of thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them, Thus saith the Lord God; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.

12 Then the spirit took me up, and I heard behind me a voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the glory of the Lord from his place.

13 I heard also the noise of the wings of the living creatures that touched one another, and the noise of the wheels over against them, and a noise of a great rushing.

14 So the spirit lifted me up, and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; but the hand of the Lord was strong upon me.

15 ¶ Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel-abib, that dwell by the river of Chebar, and I sat where they sat, and remained there astonished among them seven days.

16 And it came to pass at the end of seven days, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

17 Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me.

18 When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

19 Yet if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

20 Again, When a righteous man doth turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumblingblock before him, he shall die: because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he hath done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

21 Nevertheless if thou warn the righteous man, that the righteous sin not, and he doth not sin, he shall surely live, because he is warned; also thou hast delivered thy soul.

22 ¶ And the hand of the Lord was there upon me; and he said unto me, Arise, go forth into the plain, and I will there talk with thee.

23 Then I arose, and went forth into the plain: and, behold, the glory of the Lord stood there, as the glory which I saw by the river of Chebar: and I fell on my face.

24 Then the spirit entered into me, and set me upon my feet, and spake with me, and said unto me, Go, shut thyself within thine house.

25 But thou, O son of man, behold, they shall put hands upon thee, and shall bind thee with them, and thou shalt not go out among them:

26 And I will make thy tongue cleave to the roof of thy mouth, that thou shalt be dumb, and shalt not be to them a reprover: for they are a rebellious house.

27 ¶ But when I speak with thee, I will open thy mouth, and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; He that heareth, let him hear; and he that forbeareth, let him forbear: for they are a rebellious house.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Under the type of a siege is shewed the time from the defection of Jeroboam to the captivity. 2 By the provision of the siege, is shewed the hardness of the famine.

THOU also, son of man, take thee a tile, and lay it before thee, and portray upon it the city, even Jerusalem:

2 And lay siege against it, and build a fort against it, and cast a mount against it; set the camp also against it, and set battering rams against it round about.

3 Moreover take thou unto thee an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city: and set thy face against it, and it shall be besieged, and thou shalt lay siege against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Israel.

4 Lie thou also upon thy left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it: according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it thou shalt bear their iniquity.

5 For I have laid upon thee the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days: ^b so shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

6 And when thou hast accomplished them, lie again on thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days: I have appointed thee ² each day for a year.

7 Therefore thou shalt set thy face toward the siege of Jerusalem, and thine arm shall be uncovered, and thou shalt prophesy against it.

8 * And, behold, I will lay bands upon thee, and thou shalt not turn thee ³ from one side to another, till thou hast ended the days of thy siege.

9 ¶ Take thou also unto thee wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentiles, and millet, and ⁴ fitches, and put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof, according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side, three hundred and ninety days shalt thou eat thereof.

10 And thy meat which thou shalt eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time shalt thou eat it.

11 Thou shalt drink also water by measure, the sixth part of an hin: from time to time shalt thou drink.

12 And thou shalt eat it as barley cakes, and thou shalt bake it with dung that cometh out of man, in their sight.

13 And the Lord said, Even thus shall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread among the Gentiles, whither I will drive them.

14 Then said I, 'Ah Lord God! behold, my soul hath not been polluted: for from my youth up even till now have I not eaten of ⁵ that which dieth of itself, or is torn in pieces; neither came there ⁶ abominable flesh into my mouth.'

15 Then he said unto me, Lo, I have given thee cow's dung for man's dung, and thou shalt prepare thy bread therewith.

16 Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, behold, I will break the ⁷ staff of bread in Jerusalem: and they shall eat bread by weight, and with care; and they shall ⁸ drink water by measure, and with astonishment:

17 That they may want bread and water, and be astonished one with another, and ⁹ consume away for their iniquity.

CHAPTER V.

1 Under the type of hair, 5 is shewed the judgment of Jerusalem for their rebellion, 12 by famine, sword, and dispersion.

AND thou, son of man, take thee a sharp knife, take thee a barber's razor, and cause it to pass upon thine head and upon thy beard: then take thee balances to weigh, and divide the hair.

2 ¹ Thou shalt burn with fire a third part in the midst of the city, when ² the days of the siege are fulfilled: and thou shalt take a third part, and smite about it with a knife: and a third part thou shalt scatter in the wind; and I will draw out a sword after them.

3 ³ Thou shalt also take thereof a few in number, and bind them in thy ² skirts.

4 Then take of them again, and cast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire; for thereof shall a fire come forth into all the house of Israel.

5 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; This is Jerusalem: I have set it in the midst of the nations and countries that are round about her.

6 And she hath changed my judgments into wickedness more than the nations, and my statutes more than the countries that are round about her: for they have refused my judgments and my statutes, they have not walked in them.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because ye multiplied more than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my judgments, ² neither have done according to the judgments of the nations that are round about you;

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I, even I, am against thee, and will execute judgments in the midst of thee in the sight of the nations.

9 * And I will do in thee that which I have not done, and whereunto I will not do any more the like, because of all thine abominations.

10 Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I ¹ scatter into all the winds.

11 Wherefore, as I live, saith the Lord God; Surely, because thou hast defiled my sanctuary with all thy ³ detestable things, and with all thine abominations, therefore will I also diminish thee; ⁴ neither shall mine eye spare, neither will I have any pity.

12 ¶ A third part of thee shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee: and a third part shall fall by the sword round about thee; and ⁵ I will scatter a third part into all the winds, and ⁶ I will draw out a sword after them.

14 Moreover I will make thee waste, and a reproach among the nations that are round about thee, in the sight of all that pass by.

15 So it shall be a reproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment unto the nations that are round about thee, when I shall execute judgments in thee in anger and in fury, and in furious rebukes. I the Lord have spoken it.

16 When I shall send upon them the evil arrows of famine, which shall be for their destruction, and which I will send to destroy you: and I will increase the famine upon you, and will break your staff of bread:

17 So will I send upon you famine and evil beasts, and they shall devour thee; and pestilence and blood shall pass through thee; and I will bring the sword upon thee, I the Lord have spoken it.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The judgment of Israel for their idolatry. 8 A remnant shall be blessed. 11 The faithful are exhortations to lament their calamities.

AND the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set thy face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy against them,

3 And say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God: Thus saith the Lord God to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys: Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword upon you, and I will destroy your high places.

4 And your altars shall be desolate, and your images shall be broken: and I will cast down your slain men before your idols.

5 And I will lay the dead carcases of the children of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your bones round about your altars.

6 In all your dwellingplaces the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your images may be cut down, and your works may be abolished.

7 And the slain shall fall in the midst of you, and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

8 ¶ Yet will I leave a remnant, that ye may have some that shall escape the sword among the nations, when ye shall be scattered through the countries.

9 And they that escape of you shall remember me among the nations whither they shall be carried captives, because I am broken with their whorish heart, which hath departed from me, and with their eyes, which go a whoring after their idols: and they shall loathe themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations.

10 And they shall know that I am the Lord, and that I have not said in vain that I would do this evil unto them.

11 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; Smite with thine hand, and stamp with thy foot, and say, Alas for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel! for they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence.

12 He that is far off shall die of the pestilence; and he that is near shall fall by the sword; and he that remaineth and is besieged shall die by the famine: thus will I accomplish my fury upon them.

13 Then shall ye know that I am the Lord, when their slain men shall be among their idols round about their altars, upon every high hill, upon the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the place where they did offer sweet savour to all their idols.

14 So will I stretch out my hand upon them, and make the land desolate, yea, more desolate than the wilderness toward Diblah, in all their habitations: and they shall know that I am the Lord.

CHAPTER VII.

1 The final desolation of Israel. 16 The mournful repentance of them that escape. 20 The enemies deale the sanctuary because of the Jew's abominations. 23 Under the type of a chafin is shewed their miserable captivity.

MOREOVER the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Also, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord God unto the land of Israel; An end, the end is come upon the four corners of the land.

3 Now is the end come upon thee, and I will send mine anger upon thee, and will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense upon thee all thine abominations.

4 And mine eye shall not spare thee, neither will I have pity: but I will recompense thy ways upon thee, and thine abominations shall be in the midst of thee: and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

5 Thus saith the Lord God; An evil, an only evil, behold, is come.

6 An end is come, the end is come: it watcheth for thee; behold, it is come.

the great abominations that the house of Israel committeth here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? but turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations.

7 ¶ And he brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold a hole in the wall.

8 Then said he unto me, Son of man, dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the wall, behold a door.

9 And he said unto me, Go in, and behold the wicked abominations that they do here.

10 So I went in and saw; and behold every form of creeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, poured upon the wall round about.

11 And there stood before them seventy men of the ancients of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jazaniah the son of Shaphan, with every man his censor in his hand; and a thick cloud of incense went up.

12 Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, 'The LORD seeth us not; the LORD hath forsaken the earth.'

13 ¶ He said also unto me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than they do.

14 Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the LORD's house which was toward the north; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz.

15 ¶ Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these.

16 And he brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house, and, behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, ^mwere about five and twenty men, ⁿwith their backs toward the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east; and they worshipped ^pthe sun toward the east.

17 ¶ Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? ²Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have ^qfilled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger: and, lo, they put the branch to their nose.

18 'Therefore will I also deal in fury: mine ^reye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: and though they ^scry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

CHAPTER IX.

1 A vision, whereby in shewed the preservation of some, 5 and the destruction of the rest. 8 God cannot be intreated for them.

HE cried also in mine ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause them that have charge over the city to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon in his hand.

2 And, behold, six men came from the way of the higher gate, ³which lieth toward the north, and every man ⁴a slaughter weapon in his hand: ⁵and one man among them was clothed with linen, with a writer's inkhorn ⁶by his side: and they went in, and stood beside the brasen altar.

3 And ⁷the glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, whereupon he was, to the threshold of the house. And he called to the man clothed with linen, which had the writer's inkhorn by his side;

4 And the LORD said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and ⁵set ^aa mark upon the foreheads of the men ⁶that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof.

5 ¶ And to the others he said in ⁶mine hearing, Go ye after him through the city, and smite: ⁷let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity:

6 ¶ Slay ⁷utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women: but ⁸come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and ⁹begin at my sanctuary. ¶ Then they began at the ancient men which were before the house.

7 And he said unto them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain: go ye forth. And they went forth, and slew in the city.

8 ¶ And it came to pass, while they were slaying them, and I was left, that I ¹fell upon my face, and cried, and said, 'Al! Lord God! wilt thou destroy all the residue of Israel in thy pouring out of thy fury upon Jerusalem?'

9 Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceeding great, and ²the land is full of ³perverseness: for they say, 'The LORD hath forsaken the earth, and ⁴the LORD seeth not.'

10 And as for me also, mine ⁵eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but ⁶I will recompense their way upon their head.

11 And, behold, the man clothed with linen, which had the inkhorn by his side, ²reported the matter, saying, I have done as thou hast commanded me.

as the appearance of the likeness of a throne.

2 ^a And he spake unto the man clothed with linen, and said, Go in between the wheels, even under the cherub, and fill ^b thine hand with ^c coals of fire from between the cherubims, and ^d scatter them over the city. And he went in in my sight.

3 Now the cherubims stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court.

4 ^a Then the glory of the LORD ^b went up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and ^c the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the LORD's glory.

5 And the ^a sound of the cherubims' wings was heard even to the outer court, as ^b the voice of the Almighty God when he speaketh.

6 And it came to pass, that when he had commanded the man clothed with linen, saying, Take fire from between the wheels, from between the cherubims; then he went in, and stood beside the wheels.

7 And one cherub ^a stretched forth his hand from between the cherubims unto the fire that was between the cherubims, and took thereof, and put it into the hands of him that was clothed with linen: who took it, and went out.

8 ^a ¶ And there appeared in the cherubims the form of a man's hand under their wings.

9 ^a And when I looked, behold the four wheels by the cherubims, one wheel by one cherub, and another wheel by another cherub: and the appearance of the wheels was as the colour of a ^b beryl stone.

10 And as for their appearances, they four had one likeness, as if a wheel had been in the midst of a wheel.

11 ^a When they went, they went upon their four sides; they turned not as they went, but to the place whither the head looked they followed it; they turned not as they went.

12 And their whole ^a body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and ^b the wheels, were full of eyes round about, even the wheels that they four had.

13 As for the wheels, ^a it was cried unto them in my hearing, O wheel.

14 ^a And every one had four faces: the first face was the face of a cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

15 And the cherubims were lifted up. This is ^a the living creature that I saw by the river of Chebar.

16 ^a And when the cherubims went, the wheels went by them: and when the cherubims lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the same wheels also turned not from beside them.

17 ^a When they stood, these stood; and when they were lifted up, these lifted up themselves also: for the spirit ^a of the living creature was in them.

18 Then ^a the glory of the LORD ^b departed from off the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubims.

19 And ^a the cherubims lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight: when they went out, the wheels also were beside them, and every one stood at the door of the east gate of the LORD's house; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

20 ^a This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel ^a by the river of Chebar; and I knew that they were the cherubims.

21 ^a Every one had four faces apiece, and every one four wings; ^a and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings.

22 And ^a the likeness of their faces was the same faces which I saw by the river of Chebar, their appearances and themselves: ^a they went every one straight forward.

CHAPTER XI.

1 The presumption of the princes. 4 Their sin and judgment. 13 Ezekiel complaining, God sheweth him his purgation in saving a remnant, 21 and punishing the wicked. 22 The glory of God leaveth the city. 24 Ezekiel is returned to the captivity.

MOREOVER ^a the spirit lifted me up, and brought me unto ^b the east gate of the LORD's house, which looketh eastward: and behold ^a at the door of the gate five and twenty men; among whom I saw Jaazaniah the son of Azur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people.

2 Then said he unto me, Son of man, these are the men that devise mischief, and give wicked counsel in this city:

3 Which say, ^a It is not ^a near; let us build houses: ^a this city is the caldron, and we be the flesh.

4 ^a ¶ Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, O son of man.

will bring a sword upon you, saith the Lord God.

9 And I will bring you out of the midst thereof, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and ^awill execute judgments among you.

10 ^a'Ye shall fall by the sword; I will judge you in ^athe border of Israel; ^aand ye shall know that I am the LORD.

11 ^a'This city shall not be your cdron, neither shall ye be the flesh in the midst thereof; but I will judge you in the border of Israel:

12 And ^aye shall know that I am the LORD: ^afor ye have not walked in my statutes, neither executed my judgments, but ^ahave done after the manners of the heathen that are round about you.

13 ^a'And it came to pass, when I prophesied, that ^aPoltah the son of Benaiah died. Then ^a'fell I down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, Ah Lord God! wilt thou make a full end of the remnant of Israel?

14 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

15 Son of man, thy brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and all the house of Israel wholly, are they unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Get you far from the LORD: unto us is this land given in possession.

16 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord God; Although I have cast them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them as a little sanctuary in the countries where they shall come.

17 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord God; ^aI will even gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.

18 And they shall come thither, and ^athey shall take away all the detestable things thereof and all the abominations thereof from thence.

19 And ^aI will give them one heart, and I will put ^aa new spirit within you; and I will take ^athe stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh:

20 ^aThat they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them: ^aand they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

21 But ^aas for them whose heart walketh after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, ^aI will recompense their way upon their own heads, saith the Lord God.

22 ^a'Then did the cherubims ^a'lift up their wings, and the wheels beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

23 And ^athe glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city, and stood ^aupon the mountain ^awhich is on the east side of the city.

24 ^a'Afterwards ^a'the spirit took me up, and brought me in a vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea, to them of the captivity. So the vision that I had seen went up from me.

25 Then I spake unto them of the captivity all the things that the LORD had shewed me.

CHAPTER XII.

1 The type of Ezekiel's removing. 8 It shewed the captivity of Zedekiah. 17 Ezekiel's trembling sheweth the Jews' desolation. 21 The Jews' presumptuous proverb is reproved. 26 The speediness of the vision.

THE word of the LORD also came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, thou dwellest in the midst of ^aa rebellious house, which ^ahave eyes to see, and see not; they have ears to hear, and hear not: ^afor they are a rebellious house.

3 Therefore, thou son of man, prepare thee ^astuff for removing, and remove by day in their sight; and thou shalt remove from thy place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider, though they be a rebellious house.

4 Then shalt thou bring forth thy stuff by day in their sight, as stuff for removing: and thou shalt go forth at even in their sight, ^aas they that go forth into captivity.

5 ^aDig thou through the wall in their sight, and carry out thereby.

6 In their sight shalt thou bear it upon thy shoulders, and carry it forth in the twilight: thou shalt cover thy face, that thou see not the ground: ^afor I have set thee for a sign unto the house of Israel.

7 And I did so as I was commanded: I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for captivity, and in the even I ^adigged through the wall with mine hand: I brought it forth in the twilight, and I bare it upon my shoulder in their sight.

8 ^a'And in the morning came the word of the LORD unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, hath not the ligue of Israel, ^a'the rebellious house, said unto thee, ^a'What doest thou?

10 Say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; This ^a'burden concerneth the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel that are among them.

11 Say, ^aI am your sign: like as I have done, so shall it be done unto them: ^athey shall remove and go into captivity.

12 And ^athe prince that is among them shall bear upon his shoulder in the twilight, and shall go forth: they shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby: he shall cover his face, that he see not the ground with his eyes.

15 And they shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall scatter them among the nations and disperse them in the countries.

16 But I will leave ² a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence; that they may declare all their abominations among the heathen whither they come; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

17 Moreover the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

18 Son of man, ¹ eat thy bread with quaking, and drink thy water with trembling and with carefulness;

19 And say unto the people of the land, Thus saith the Lord God of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and of the land of Israel; They shall eat their bread with carefulness, and drink their water with astonishment, that her land may ¹ be desolate from ² all that is therein, ³ because of the violence of all them that dwell therein.

20 And the cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall be desolate; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

21 And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

22 Son of man, what is that proverb that ye have in the land of Israel, saying, ¹ The days are prolonged, and every vision faileth?

23 Tell them therefore, Thus saith the Lord God; I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel; but say unto them, ² The days are at hand, and the effect of every vision.

24 For ¹ there shall be no more any ² vain vision nor flattering divination within the house of Israel.

25 For I am the Lord: I will speak, and ² the word that I shall speak shall come to pass; it shall be no more prolonged: for in your days, O rebellious house, will I say the word, and will perform it, saith the Lord God.

26 Again the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

27 Son of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say, The vision that he seeth is ¹ for many days to come, and he prophesieth of the times that are far off.

28 Therefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; There shall none of my words be prolonged any more, but the word which I have spoken shall be done, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 The reproof of lying prophets. 10 and their untimpered mortar. 17 of prophetesses and their pillows.

AND the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel that prophesy, and say thou unto ² them that prophesy out of their own ¹ hearts, Hear ye the word of the Lord;

8 Thus saith the Lord God; Woe unto the foolish prophets, that ² follow their own spirit, ⁴ and have seen nothing!

4 O Israel, thy prophets are ¹ like the foxes in the deserts.

5 Ye ¹ have not gone up into the ² gaps, neither ³ made up into the hedge for the house of Israel to stand in the battle in the day of the Lord.

6 They have seen vanity and lying divination, saying, The Lord saith: and the Lord hath not sent them: and they have made others to hope that they would confirm the word.

7 Have ye not seen a vain vision, and have ye ¹ not spoken a lying divination, whereas ye say, The Lord saith it; albeit I have not spoken?

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because ye have spoken vanity, and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you, saith the Lord God.

9 And mine hand shall be upon the prophets that see vanity, and that divine lies: they shall not be in the ¹ assembly of my people, ² neither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, ³ neither shall they enter into the land of Israel; ⁴ and ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

10 Because, even because they have seduced my people, saying, ¹ Peace; and there was no peace; and one built up ² a wall, and, lo, others ³ daubed it with untimpered mortar: 11 Say unto them which daub it with untimpered mortar, that it shall fall: ² there shall be an overflowing shower; and ye, O great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall rend it.

12 Lo, when the wall is fallen, shall it not be said unto you, Where is the daubing wherewith ye have daubed it?

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; I will even rend it with a stormy wind in my fury; and there shall be an overflowing shower in mine anger, and great hailstones in my fury to consume it.

14 So will I break down the wall that ye have daubed with untimpered mortar, and bring it down to the ground, so that the foundation thereof shall be discovered, and it shall fall, and ye shall be consumed in the midst thereof: ² and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

upon the wall, and upon them that have daubed it with untempered mortar, and will say unto you, The wall is no more, neither they that daubed it;

16 To wit, the prophets of Israel which prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and which see visions of peace for her, and there is no peace, saith the Lord God.

17 ¶ Likewise, thou son of man, set thy face against the daughters of thy people, which prophesy out of their own heart; and prophesy thou against them,

18 And say, Thus saith the Lord God; Woe to the women that sew pillows to all armholes, and make kerchiefs upon the head of every stature to hunt souls! Will ye hunt the souls of my people, and will ye save the souls alive that come unto you?

19 And will ye pollute me among my people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to slay the souls that should not die, and to save the souls alive that should not live, by your lying to my people that hear your lies?

20 Wherefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against your pillows, wherewith ye there hunt the souls to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms, and will let the souls go, even the souls that ye hunt to make them fly.

21 Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

22 Because with lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, by promising him life:

23 Therefore ye shall see no more vanity, nor divine divinations: for I will deliver my people out of your hand: and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 God answereth idolaters according to their own heart. 6 They are exhorted to repent, for fear of judgments, by means of seivend prophets. 12 God's irreversible sentence of famine, 15 of noisome beasts, 17 of the sword, 19 and of pestilence. 22 A remnant shall be reserved for example of others.

THEN came certain of the elders of Israel unto me, and sat before me.

2 And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

3 Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their heart, and put the stumblingblock of their iniquity before their face: should I be enquired of at all by them?

4 Therefore speak unto them, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord

God; Every man of the house of Israel that setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to the prophet; I the Lord will answer him that cometh according to the multitude of his idols;

5 That I may take the house of Israel in their own heart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols.

6 ¶ Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God; Repent, and turn yourselves from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations.

7 For every one of the house of Israel, or of the stranger that sojourneth in Israel, which separateth himself from me, and setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to a prophet to enquire of him concerning me; I the Lord will answer him by myself:

8 And I will set my face against that man, and will make him a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of my people; and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

9 And if the prophet be deceived when he hath spoken a thing, I the Lord have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand upon him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel.

10 And they shall bear the punishment of their iniquity: the punishment of the prophet shall be even as the punishment of him that seeketh unto him;

11 That the house of Israel may go no more astray from me, neither be polluted any more with all their transgressions; but that they may be my people, and I may be their God, saith the Lord God.

12 ¶ The word of the Lord came again to me, saying,

13 Son of man, when the land sinneth against me by trespassing grievously, then will I stretch out mine hand upon it, and will break the staff of the bread thereof, and will send famine upon it, and will cut off man and beast from it:

14 Though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness, saith the Lord God.

15 ¶ If I cause noisome beasts to pass through the land, and they spoil it, so that it be desolate, that no man may pass through because of the beasts:

16 Though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord God, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters; they only shall be delivered, but the land shall be desolate.

CHAPTER XV.

1 By the usefulness of the vine branch for any work 6 is shewed the rejection of Jerusalem.

AND the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,
2 Son of man, What is the vine tree more than any tree, or than a branch which is among the trees of the forest?

3 Shall wood be taken thereof to do any work? or will men take a pin of it to hang any vessel thereon?

4 Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel; the fire devoureth both the ends of it, and the midst of it is burned. Is it meet for any work?

5 Behold, when it was whole, it was meet for no work: how much less shall it be meet yet for any work, when the fire hath devoured it, and it is burned?

6 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord God; As the vine tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so will I give the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

7 And I will set my face against them; they shall go out from one fire, and another fire shall devour them; and ye shall know that I am the Lord, when I set my face against them.

8 And I will make the land desolate, because they have committed a trespass, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 Under the similitude of a wretched infant is shewed the natural state of Jerusalem. 6 God's extraordinary love towards her. 16 Her monstrous whoredom. 31 Her grievous judgment. 44 Her sin, watching her mother, and exceeding her sisters, Sodom and Samaria, cruelty for judgments. 60 Mercy is promised her in the end.

AGAIN the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations,

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord God unto Jerusalem; Thy birth^b and thy nativity is of the land of Canaan; thy father was an Amorite, and thy mother an Hittite.

4 And as for thy nativity, in the day thou wast born thy navel was not cut, neither wast thou washed in water to supple thee; thou wast not salted at all, nor swaddled at all.

5 None eye pitied thee, to do any of these unto thee, to have compassion upon thee; but thou wast cast out in the open field, to the lothing of thy person, in the day that thou wast born.

6 ¶ And when I passed by thee, and saw thee polluted in thine own blood, I said unto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Live; yea, I said unto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Live.

7 ¶ I have caused thee to multiply as the bud of the field, and thou hast increased and waxen great, and thou art come to excellent ornaments: thy breasts are fashioned, and thine hair is grown, whereas thou wast naked and bare.

8 Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of love; and I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness: yea, I swore unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord God, and thou becamest mine.

9 Then washed I thee with water; yea, I thoroughly washed away thy blood from thee, and I anointed thee with oil.

10 I clothed thee also with brodered work, and shod thee with badgers' skin, and I girded thee about with fine linen, and I covered thee with silk.

11 I decked thee also with ornaments, and I put bracelets upon thy hands, and a chain on thy neck.

12 And I put a jewel on thy forehead, and earrings in thine ears, and a beautiful crown upon thine head.

13 Thus wast thou decked with gold and silver; and thy raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and brodered work; thou didst eat fine flour, and honey, and oil: and thou wast exceeding

43 Because ²thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, but hast frotted me in all these things; behold, therefore ³I also will recompense thy way upon thine head, saith the Lord God: and thou shalt not commit this lewdness above all thine abominations.

44 ¶ Behold, every one that useth proverbs shall use this proverb against thee, saying, As is the mother, so is her daughter.

45 Thou art thy mother's daughter, that lotheth her husband and her children; and thou art the sister of thy sisters, which lotheth their husbands and their children: "your mother was an Hittite, and your father an Amorite.

46 And thine elder sister is Samaria, she and her daughters that dwell at thy left hand: and ²thy younger sister, that dwelleth at thy right hand, is Sodom and her daughters.

47 Yet hast thou not walked after their ways, nor done after their abominations: but, ³as if that were a very little thing, ⁴thou wast corrupted more than they in all thy ways.

48 As I live, saith the Lord God, ⁵Sodom thy sister hath not done, she nor her daughters, as thou hast done, thou and thy daughters.

49 Behold, this was the iniquity of thy sister Sodom, pride, ⁶fulness of bread, and abundance of idleness was in her and in her daughters, neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy.

50 And they were haughty, and ⁷committed abomination before me: therefore ⁸I took them away as I saw good.

51 Neither hath Samaria committed half of thy sins; but thou hast multiplied thine abominations more than they, and ⁹hast justified thy sisters in all thine abominations which thou hast done.

52 Thou also, which hast judged thy sisters, bear thine own shame for thy sins that thou hast committed more abominable than thou: yea, be thou confounded also, and bear thy shame, in that thou hast justified thy sisters.

53 * When I shall bring again their captivity, ¹the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, then will I bring again the captivity of thy captives in the midst of them:

54 That thou mayest bear thine own shame, and mayest be confounded in all that thou hast done, in that thou art ²a comfort unto them.

55 When thy sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate, and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate, then thou and thy daughters shall return to your former estate.

56 For thy sister Sodom was not ³mentioned by thy mouth in the day of thy ⁴pride, 57 Before thy wickedness was discovered, as at the time of thy ⁵reproach of the daughters of ⁶Syria, and all that are round about her, ⁷the daughters of the Philistines, which ⁸despise thee round about.

58 * Thou hast ⁹borne thy lewdness and thine abominations, saith the LORD.

59 For thus saith the Lord God; I will even deal with thee as thou hast done, which hast ¹despised ²the oath in breaking the covenant.

60 ¶ Nevertheless I will ³remember my covenant with thee in the days of thy youth, and I will establish unto thee ⁴an everlasting covenant.

61 Then ⁵thou shalt remember thy ways, and be ashamed, when thou shalt receive thy sisters, thine elder and thy younger: and I will give them unto thee for ⁶daughters, ⁷but not by thy covenant.

62 * And I will establish my covenant with thee; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD:

63 That thou mayest ¹remember, and be confounded, ²and never open thy mouth any more because of thy shame, when I am pacified toward thee for all that thou hast done, saith the Lord God.

1 Under the parable of two eagles and a vine, 11 in shewed God's judgment upon Jerusalem for seeking from Babylon to Egypt. 22 God promiseth to plant the cedar of the gospel.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable unto the house of Israel;

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord God; ¹A great eagle with great wings, longwinged, full of feathers, which had ²divers colours, came unto Lebanon, and ³took the highest branch of the cedar:

4 He cropped off the top of his young twigs, and carried it into a land of traffick; he set it in a city of merchants.

5 He took also of the seed of the land, and ⁶planted it in ⁷a fruitful field; he placed it by great waters, and set it ⁸as a willow tree.

6 And it grew, and became a spreading vine ⁹of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs.

10 ¶ If he beget a son that is a robber, ^aa shedder of blood, and ^bthat doeth the like to any one of these things,

11 And that doeth not any of those duties, but even hath eaten upon the mountains, and defiled his neighbour's wife,

12 Hath oppressed the poor and needy, hath spoiled by violence, hath not restored the pledge, and hath lifted up his eyes to the idols, hath ^ccommitted abomination,

13 Hath given forth upon usury, and hath taken increase: shall he then live? he shall not live: he hath done all these abominations; he shall surely die; ^dhis blood shall be upon him.

14 ¶ Now, lo, if he beget a son, that seeth all his father's sins which he hath done, and considereth, and doeth not such like,

15 ¶ That hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, hath not defiled his neighbour's wife,

16 Neither hath oppressed any, ^ehath not withholden the pledge, neither hath spoiled by violence, but hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment,

17 That hath taken off his hand from the poor, that hath not received usury nor increase, hath executed my judgments, hath walked in my statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live.

18 As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, spoiled his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, lo, even ^fhe shall die in his iniquity.

19 ¶ Yet say ye, Why? ^gdoth not the son bear the iniquity of the father? When the son hath done that which is lawful and right, and hath kept all my statutes, and hath done them, he shall surely live.

20 ¶ The soul that sinneth, it shall die. ^hThe son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son: ⁱthe righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, ^jand the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him.

21 But ^kif the wicked will turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

22 ¶ All his transgressions that he hath committed, they shall not be mentioned unto him: ^lin his righteousness that he hath done he shall live.

23 ¶ Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord God: and not that he should return from his ways, and live?

24 ¶ But ^mwhen the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth, shall he live? ⁿAll his righteousness that he hath done shall not be mentioned: ^oin his trespass that he hath trespassed, and in his sin that he hath sinned, in them shall he die.

25 ¶ Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. Hear now, O house of Israel: Is not my way equal? are not your ways unequal?

26 ¶ When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and dieth in them; for his iniquity that he hath done shall he die.

27 Again, ^pwhen the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive.

28 Because he ^qconsidereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

29 ¶ Yet saith the house of Israel, The way of the Lord is not equal. O house of Israel, are not my ways equal? are not your ways unequal?

30 ¶ Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord God. ^rRepent, and turn ^syourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin.

31 ¶ Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you a ^tnew heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

32 For ^uI have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord God: wherefore turn ^vyourselves, and live ye.

CHAPTER XIX.

1 A lamentation for the princes of Israel, under the parable of lions' whelps taken in a pit, and for Jerusalem, under the parable of a wasted vine.

MOREOVER ^wtake thou up a lamentation for the princes of Israel,

2 And say, What is thy mother? A lioness: she lay down among lions, she nourished her whelps among young lions.

3 And she brought up one of her whelps: ^xit became a young lion, and it learned to catch the prey; it devoured men.

4 The nations also heard of him; he was taken in their pit, and they brought him with chains unto the land of ^yEgypt.

5 Now when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, then she took ^zanother of her whelps, and made him a young lion.

CHAPTER XX.

1 God refuseth to be consulted by the elders of Israel. 2 He sheweth the story of their rebellions in Egypt, 10 in the wilderness, 27 and in the land. 33 He promiseth to gather them by the gospel. 45 Under the name of a forest he sheweth the destruction of Jerusalem.

AND it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that certain of the elders of Israel came to enquire of the LORD, and sat before me.

2 Then came the word of the LORD unto me, saying,

3 Son of man, speak unto the elders of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Are ye come to enquire of me? As I live, saith the Lord God, I will not be enquired of by you.

4 Wilt thou ⁵judge them, son of man, wilt thou judge them? ⁶I cause them to know the abominations of their fathers:

5 ⁷I say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; In the day when ⁸I chose Israel, and ⁹lifted up mine hand unto the seed of the house of Jacob, and made myself known unto them in the land of Egypt, when I lifted up mine hand unto them, saying, ¹I am the Lord your God:

6 In the day that I lifted up mine hand unto them, ²to bring them forth of the land of Egypt into a land that I had espied for them, flowing with milk and honey, ³which ⁴is the glory of all lands:

7 Then said I unto them, ⁵Cast ye away every man ⁶the abominations of his eyes, and defile not yourselves with ⁷the idols of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.

8 But they rebelled against me, and would not hearken unto me: they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt: then I said, I will ⁹pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.

9 ¹⁰But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.

10 ¹¹Wherefore I ¹²caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness.

11 ¹³And I gave them my statutes, and ¹⁴shewed them my judgments, ¹⁵which ¹⁶if a man do, he shall even live in them.

12 Moreover also I gave them my ¹⁷sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the Lord that sanctify them.

13 But the house of Israel ¹⁸rebelled against me in the wilderness: they walked not in my statutes, and they ¹⁹despised my judgments, which ²⁰if a man do, he shall even live in them; and my sabbaths they greatly ²¹polluted: then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them in the ²²wilderness, to consume them.

14 ²³But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, in whose sight I brought them out.

15 Yet also ²⁴I lifted up my hand unto them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, ²⁵which ²⁶is the glory of all lands;

16 ²⁷Because they despised my judgments, and walked not in my statutes, but polluted my sabbaths: for ²⁸their heart went after their idols.

17 ²⁹Nevertheless mine eye spared them from destroying them, neither did I make an end of them in the wilderness.

18 But I said unto their children in the wilderness, Walk ye not in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their judgments, nor defile yourselves with their idols:

CHAPTER XXI.

1 Ezekiel prophesieth against Jerusalem with a sign of sighting. 8 The sharp and bright sword. 18 against Jerusalem. 25 against the kingdom. 28 against the Ammonites.

563.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 * Son of man, set thy face toward Jerusalem, and * drop thy sword toward the holy places, and prophesy against the land of Israel,

3 And say to the land of Israel, Thus saith the LORD ; Behold, I am against thee, and will draw forth my sword out of his sheath, and will cut off from thee * the righteous and the wicked.

4 Seeing then that I will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth out of his sheath against all flesh * from the south to the north :

5 That all flesh may know that I the LORD have drawn forth my sword out of his sheath : it * shall not return any more.

6 * Sigh therefore, thou son of man, with the breaking of thy loins ; and with bitterness sigh before their eyes.

7 And it shall be, when they say unto thee, Wherefore sighest thou ? that thou shalt answer, For the tidings ; because it cometh : and every heart shall melt, and * all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees * shall be weak as water : behold, it cometh, and shall be brought to pass, saith the LORD God.

8 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD ; Say, * A sword, a sword is sharpened, and also furnished :

10 It is sharpened to make a sore slaughter ; it is furnished that it may glitter : should we then make mirth ?

11 It containeth the rod of my son, as every tree.

12 And he hath given it to be furnished, that it may be handled : this sword is sharpened, and it is furnished, to give it into the hand of * the slayer.

13 Cry and howl, son of man : for it shall be upon my people, it shall be upon all the princes of Israel : * terrors by reason of the sword shall be upon my people : * smite therefore upon thy thigh.

14 Because it is * a trial, and what if the sword contain even the rod ? * it shall be no more, saith the LORD God.

15 Thou therefore, son of man, prophesy, and * smite thine * hands together, and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the slain : it is the sword of the great men that are slain, which entereth into their * privy chambers.

16 I have set the * point of the sword against all their gates, that their heart may faint, and their ruins be multiplied : ah ! * it is made bright, it is * wrapped up for the slaughter.

17 * Go thee one way or other, either on the right hand, * or on the left, whithersoever thy face is set.

18 I will also * smite mine hands together, and * I will cause my fury to rest : I the LORD have said it.

19 ¶ The word of the LORD came unto me again, saying,

20 Also, thou son of man, appoint thee two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come : both twain shall come forth out of one land : and choose thou a place, choose it at the head of the way to the city.

21 Appoint a way, that the sword may come to * Rabbath of the Ammonites, and to Judah in Jerusalem the defended.

22 For the king of Babylon stood at the * parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination : he made his * arrows bright, he consulted with * images, he looked in the liver.

23 At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint * captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to * lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint battering rams against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a fort.

24 And it shall be unto them as a false divination in their sight, to them that * have sworn oaths : but he will call to remembrance the iniquity, that they may be taken.

25 Therefore thus saith the LORD God ; Because ye have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are discovered, so that in all your doings your sins do appear ;

30 ¶ Shall I cause it to return into his sheath? ^o I will judge thee in the place where thou wast created, ^o in the land of thy nativity.

31 And I will ^o pour out mine indignation upon thee, I will ^o blow against thee in the fire of my wrath, and deliver thee into the hand of ^o brutish men, and skillful to destroy.

32 Thou shalt be for fuel to the fire; thy blood shall be in the midst of the land: ^o thou shalt be no more remembered: for I the Lord have spoken it.

CHAPTER XXII.

1 A catalogue of sins in Jerusalem. 13 God will burn them as dross in his furnace. 23 The general corruption of prophets, priests, princes, and people.

MOREOVER the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Now, thou son of man, ^o wilt thou judge, wilt thou judge? ^o the bloody city? yea, thou shalt ^o shew her all her abominations.

3 Then say thou, Thus saith the Lord God, The city sheddeth blood in the midst of it, that her time may come, and maketh idols against herself to defile herself.

4 Thou art become guilty in thy blood that thou hast ^o shed; and hast defiled thyself in thine idols which thou hast made; and thou hast caused thy days to draw near, and art come even unto thy years: ^o therefore have I made thee a reproach unto the heathen, and a mocking to all countries.

5 Those that be near, and those that be far from thee, shall mock thee, which art ^o infamous and much vexed.

6 Behold, ^o the princes of Israel, every one were in thee to their ^o power to shed blood.

7 In thee have they ^o set light by father and mother: in the midst of thee have they ^o dealt by ^o oppression with the stranger: in thee have they vexed the fatherless and the widow.

8 Thou hast ^o despised mine holy things, and hast ^o profaned my sabbaths.

9 In thee are ^o 4th men that carry tales to shed blood: ^o and in thee they eat upon the mountains: in the midst of thee they commit lewdness.

10 In thee have they ^o discovered their fathers' nakedness: in thee have they humbled her that was ^o set apart for pollution.

11 And ^o one hath committed abomination ^o with his neighbour's wife; and ^o another ^o hath ^o lewdly defiled his daughter in law; and another in thee hath humbled his ^o sister, his father's daughter.

12 In thee ^o have they taken gifts to shed blood; ^o thou hast taken usury and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours by extortion, and ^o hast forgotten me, saith the Lord God.

13 ¶ Behold, therefore I have ^o smitten mine hand at thy dishonest gain which thou hast made, and at thy blood which hath been in the midst of thee.

14 ^o Can thine heart endure, or can thine hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with thee? ^o ¶ I the Lord have spoken it, and will do it.

15 And ^o I will scatter thee among the heathen, and disperse thee in the countries, and ^o will consume thy filthiness out of thee.

16 And thou ^o shalt take thine inheritance in thyself in the sight of the heathen, and ^o thou shalt know that I am the Lord.

17 And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, ^o the house of Israel is to me become dross: all they are brass, and tin, and iron, and lead, in the midst of the furnace; they are even the ^o dross of silver.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because ye are all become dross, behold, therefore I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.

20 ¶ As they gather silver, and brass, and iron, and lead, and tin, into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, to melt it; so will I gather you in mine anger and in my fury, and I will leave you there, and melt you.

21 Yea, I will gather you, and ^o blow upon you in the fire of my wrath, and ye shall be melted in the midst thereof.

22 As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall ye be melted in the midst thereof; and ye shall know that I the LORD have 'poured out my fury upon you.

23 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

24 Son of man, say unto her, Thou art the land that is not cleansed, nor rained upon in the day of indignation.

25 ¶ There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey; they have devoured souls; they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof.

26 ¶ Her priests have violated my law, and have profaned mine holy things: they have put no difference between the holy and profane, neither have they shewed difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them.

27 Her princes in the midst thereof are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain.

28 And her prophets have daubed them with untimpered mortar, seeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, saying, Thus saith the LORD God, when the LORD hath not spoken.

29 ¶ The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery, and have vexed the poor and needy: yea, they have oppressed the stranger & wrongfully.

30 ¶ And I sought for a man among them, that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none.

31 Therefore have I poured out mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the LORD God.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 The whoredoms of Aholah and Aholibah.
22 Aholibah is to be plagued by her lovers.
35 The prophet reproves the adulteries of them both, & sheweth their judgments.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother:

3 And they committed whoredoms in Egypt; they committed whoredoms in their youth: there were their breasts pressed, and there they bruised the teats of their virginity.

4 And the names of them were Aholah the elder, and Aholibah her sister: and they were mine, and they bare sons and daughters. Thus were their names; Samaria is Aholah, and Jerusalem Aholibah.

5 And Aholah played the harlot when she was mine; and she doted on her lovers, on the Assyrians her neighbours,

6 Which were clothed with blue, captains and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding upon horses.

7 Thus she committed her whoredoms with them, with all them that were the chosen men of Assyria, and with all on whom she doted: with all their idols she defiled herself.

8 Neither left she her whoredoms brought from Egypt: for in her youth they lay with her, and they bruised the breasts of her virginity, and poured their whoredom upon her.

9 Wherefore I have delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians, upon whom she doted.

10 These discovered her nakedness: they took her sons and her daughters, and slew her with the sword: and she became famous among women; for they had executed judgment upon her.

11 And when her sister Aholibah saw this, she was more corrupt in her inordinate love than she, and in her whoredoms more than her sister in her whoredoms.

12 She doted upon the Assyrians her neighbours, captains and rulers clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding upon horses, all of them desirable young men.

13 Then I saw that she was defiled, that they took both one way,

14 And that she increased her whoredoms: for when she saw men portrayed upon the wall, the images of the Chaldeans portrayed with vermillion,

15 Girded with girdles upon their loins, exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look to, after the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea, the land of their nativity:

16 And as soon as she saw them with her eyes, she doted upon them, and sent messengers unto them into Chaldea.

17 And the Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoredom, and she was polluted with them, and her mind was alienated from them.

18 So she discovered her whoredoms, and discovered her nakedness: then my mind was alienated from her, like as my mind was alienated from her sister.

19 Yet she multiplied her whoredoms, in calling to remembrance the days of her youth, wherein she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt.

20 For she doted upon their paramours, whose flesh is as the flesh of asses, and whose issue is like the issue of horses.

21 Thus thou caldest to remembrance the lewdness of thy youth, in bruising thy teats by the Egyptians for the paps of thy youth.

22 ¶ Therefore, O Aholibah, thus saith

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 Under the parable of a boiling pot, ⁸ is showed the inevitable destruction of Jerusalem. 15 By the sign of Ezekiel not mourning for the death of his wife, 19 is showed the calamity of the Jews to be beyond all sorrow.

AGAIN in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, write thee the name of the day, even of this same day: the king of Babylon set himself against Jerusalem ¹⁰ this same day.

3 ¹¹ And utter a parable unto the rebellious house, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God: ¹² Set on a pot, set it on, and also pour water into it:

4 Gather the pieces thereof into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones.

5 Take the choice of the flock, and burn also the bones under it, and make it boil well, and let them seethe the bones of it therein.

6 ¹³ Wherefore thus saith the Lord God: Woe to ¹⁴ the bloody city, to the pot whose scum is therein, and whose scum is not gone out of it! bring it out piece by piece; let no ¹⁵ lot fall upon it.

7 For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon the top of a rock; ¹⁶ she poured it not upon the ground, to cover it with dust;

8 That it might cause fury to come up to take vengeance; ¹⁷ I have set her blood upon the top of a rock, that it should not be covered.

9 Therefore thus saith the Lord God: ¹⁸ Woe to the bloody city! I will even make the pile for fire great.

10 Heap on wood, kindle the fire, consume the flesh, and spice it well, and let the bones be burned.

11 Then set it empty upon the coals thereof, that the brass of it may be hot, and may burn, and that ¹⁹ the filthiness of it may be molten in it, that the scum of it may be consumed.

12 She hath wearied herself with lies, and her great scum went not forth out of her: her scum shall be in the fire.

13 In thy filthiness ²⁰ is lewdness: because I have purged thee, and thou wast not purged, thou shalt not be purged from thy filthiness any more, ²¹ till I have caused my fury to rest upon thee.

14 ²² I the Lord have spoken it: it shall come to pass, and I will do it; I will not go back, neither will I spare, neither will I repent; according to thy ways, and according to thy doings, shall they judge thee, saith the Lord God.

15 ²³ Also the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

16 Son of man, behold, I take away from thee the desire of thine eyes with a stroke: yet neither shalt thou mourn nor weep, neither shall thy tears run down.

17 ²⁴ Forbear to cry, ²⁵ make no mourning for the dead, ²⁶ bind the tire of thine head upon thee, and ²⁷ put on thy shoes upon thy feet, and ²⁸ cover not thy ²⁹ lips, and eat not the bread of men.

18 So I spake unto the people in the morning: and at even my wife died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded.

19 ³⁰ And the people said unto me, ³¹ Wilt thou not tell us what these things are to us, that thou doest so?

20 Then I answered them, The word of the Lord came unto me, saying, 21 Speak unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God: Behold, ³² I will profane my sanctuary, the excellency of your strength, ³³ the desire of your eyes, and ³⁴ that which your soul pitieth; ³⁵ and your sons and your daughters whom ye have left shall fall by the sword.

22 And ye shall do as I have done: ³⁶ ye shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men.

23 And your tires shall be upon your heads, and your shoes upon your feet: ³⁷ ye shall not mourn nor weep; but ³⁸ ye shall pine away for your iniquities, and mourn one toward another.

24 Thus ³⁹ Ezekiel is unto you a sign: according to all that he hath done shall ye do: ⁴⁰ and when this cometh, ⁴¹ ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

25 Also, thou son of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them ⁴² their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and ⁴³ that whereupon they set their minds, their sons and their daughters, 26 That ⁴⁴ he that escapeth in that day shall come unto thee, to cause thee to hear it with thine ears?

27 ⁴⁵ In that day shall thy mouth be opened to him which is escaped, and thou shalt speak, and be no more dumb: and ⁴⁶ thou shalt be a sign unto them; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

CHAPTER XXV.

1 God's vengeance, for their iniquity against the Jews, upon the Ammonites: 8 upon Moab and Seir: 12 upon Edom, 15 and upon the Philistines.

THE word of the Lord came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, ¹ set thy face ² against the Ammonites, and prophesy against them;

3 And say unto the Ammonites, Hear the word of the Lord God: Thus saith the Lord God: ³ Because thou saidst, Aha, against my sanctuary, when it was profaned; and against the land of Israel, when it was desolate; and against the house of Judah, when they went into captivity;

5 And I will make ⁴Rabbah ⁵a stable for camels, and the Ammonites a couching place for flocks: ⁷and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

6 For thus saith the Lord God; Because thou ⁴hast clapped ³thine hands, and stamped with the ⁴feet, and ⁵rejoiced in ⁶heart with all thy despite against the land of Israel;

7 Behold, therefore I will ⁴stretch out mine hand upon thee, and will deliver thee for ⁶a spoil to the heathen; and I will cut thee off from the people, and I will cause thee to perish out of the countries: I will destroy thee; and thou shalt know that I am the Lord.

8 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; Because that ²Moab and ³Seir do say, Behold, the house of Judah ⁴is like unto all the heathen;

9 Therefore, behold, I will open the ⁷side of Moab from the cities, from his cities ⁴which are on his frontiers, the glory of the country, Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Kiriathaim,

10 ¶ Unto the men of the east ⁸with the Ammonites, and will give them in possession, that the Ammonites ⁹may not be remembered among the nations.

11 And I will execute judgments upon Moab; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

12 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; ⁶Because that Edom hath dealt against the house of Judah ⁹by taking vengeance, and hath greatly offended, and revenged himself upon them;

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; I will also stretch out mine hand upon Edom, and will cut off man and beast from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman; and ²they of Dedan shall fall by the sword.

14 And ²I will lay my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel: and they shall do in Edom according to mine anger and according to my fury; and they shall know my vengeance, saith the Lord God.

15 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; ⁷Because ⁹the Philistines have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance with a despiseful heart, to destroy it ³for the old hatred;

16 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, ⁴I will stretch out mine hand upon the Philistines, and I will cut off the ⁶Cherethims, ⁸and destroy the remnant of the ⁴sea coast.

17 And I will ²execute great ⁵vengeance upon them with furious rebukes; ⁹and they shall know that

CHAPTER XXVI.

1 Tyrus, for insulting against Jerusalem, is threatened. 7 The power of Nebuchadrezzar against her. 15 The mourning and astonishment of the sea at her fall.

AND it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, ²because that Tyrus hath said against Jerusalem, ³Aha, she is broken that was the gates of the people: she is turned unto me: I shall be replenished, now she is laid waste:

3 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against thee, O Tyrus, and will cause many nations to come up against thee, as the sea causeth his waves to come up.

4 And they shall destroy the walls of Tyrus, and break down her towers: I will also scrape her dust from her, and ²make her like the top of a rock.

5 It shall be a place for the spreading of nets ⁴in the midst of the sea: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God: and it shall become a spoil to the nations.

6 And her daughters which are in the field shall be slain by the sword; ⁹and they shall know that I am the Lord.

7 ¶ For thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will bring upon Tyrus Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, ⁷a king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and companies, and much people.

8 He shall slay with the sword thy daughters in the field: and he shall ⁹make a fort against thee, and ²cast a mount against thee, and lift up the buckler against thee.

9 And he shall set engines of war against thy walls, and with his axes he shall break down thy towers.

10 By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover thee: thy walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wheels, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into thy gates, ³as men enter into a city wherein is made a breach.

11 With the hoofs of his horses shall he tread down all thy streets: he shall slay thy people by the sword, and thy strong garrisons shall go down to the ground.

12 And they shall make a spoil of thy riches, and make a prey of thy merchandise: and they shall break down thy walls, and destroy ⁴thy pleasant houses: and they shall lay thy stones and thy timber and thy dust in the midst of the water.

13 ⁴And I will cause the noise of ⁵thy songs to cease; and the sound of thy harps shall be no more heard.

CHAPTER XXVII.

1 The rich supply of Tyrus. 26 The great and unrecoverable fall thereof.

THE word of the Lord came again unto me, saying,

2 Now, thou son of man, *take up a lamentation for Tyrus;

3 And say unto Tyrus, *O thou that art situate at the entry of the sea, which art *a merchant of the people for many isles, Thus saith the Lord God; O Tyrus, thou hast said, *I am *of perfect beauty.

4 Thy borders are in the *midst of the seas, thy builders have perfected thy beauty.

5 They have *made all thy ship boards of fir trees of *Senir: they have taken cedars from Lebanon to make masts for thee.

6 Of the oaks of Bashan have they made thine oars; *of the company of the Ashurites have made thy benches of ivory, brought out of the isles of Chittim.

7 Fine linen with brodered work from Egypt was that which thou spreadest forth to be thy sail; *blue and purple from the isles of Elishah was that which covered thee.

8 The inhabitants of Zidon and Arvad were thy mariners: thy wise men, O Tyrus, that were in thee, were thy pilots.

9 The ancients of *Gebal and the wise men thereof were in thee thy *calkers: all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in thee to occupy thy merchandise.

10 They of Persia and of Lud and of *Phut were in thine army, thy men of war: they hunged the shield and helmet in thee; they set forth thy comeliness.

11 The men of Arvad with thine army were upon thy walls round about, and the Gummadians were in thy towers: they hunged their shields upon thy walls round about; they have made *thy beauty perfect.

12 *Tarshish was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of all kind of riches; with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded in thy fairs.

13 Javan, Tubal, and Meshech, they were thy merchants: they traded *the persons of men and vessels of brass in thy *market.

14 They of the house of *Togarmah traded in thy fairs with horses and horsemen and mules.

15 The men of *Dedan were thy merchants; many isles were the merchandise of thine hand: they brought thee for a present horns of ivory and ebony.

16 Syria was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of the wares of thy making: they occupied in thy fairs with emeralds, purple, and brodered work, and fine linen, and coral, and *agate.

17 Judah, and the land of Israel, they were thy merchants: they traded in thy market *wheat of *Minith, and Pannag, and honey, and oil, and *balm.

18 Damascus was thy merchant in the multitude of the wares of thy making, for the multitude of all riches; in the wine of Helbon, and white wool.

19 Dan also and Javan *going to and fro occupied in thy fairs: bright iron, cassia, and calamus, were in thy market.

20 *Dedan was thy merchant in *precious clothes for chariots.

21 Arabia, and all the princes of *Kedar, *they occupied with thee in lambs, and rams, and goats: in these were they thy merchants.

22 The merchants of *Sheba and Raamah, they were thy merchants:

CHAPTER XXVIII.

1 God's judgment upon the prince of Tyrus for his sacrilegious pride. 11 A denunciation of his great glory corrupted by sin. 20 The judgment of Zidon. 24 The restoration of Israel.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, say unto the prince of Tyrus, Thus saith the Lord God; Because thine heart is lifted up, and * thou hast said, I am a God, I sit in the seat of God, * in the * midst of the seas; * yet thou art a man, and not God, though thou set thine heart as the heart of God:

3 Behold, * thou art wiser than Daniel; there is no secret that they can hide from thee:

4 With thy wisdom and with thine understanding thou hast gotten thee riches, and hast gotten gold and silver into thy treasures:

5 * By thy great wisdom and by thy traffick hast thou increased thy riches, and thine heart is lifted up because of thy riches:

6 Therefore thou saith the Lord God; Because thou hast set thine heart as the heart of God;

7 Behold, therefore I will bring strangers upon thee, * the terrible of the nations: and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall defile thy brightness.

8 They shall bring thee down to the pit, and thou shalt die the deaths of them that are slain in the midst of the seas.

9 Wilt thou yet * say before him that slayeth thee, I am God? but thou shalt be a man, and no God, in the hand of him that * slayeth thee.

10 Thou shalt die the deaths of the uncircumcised by the hand of strangers: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

11 ¶ Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

12 Son of man, * take up a lamentation upon the king of Tyrus, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord God; * Thou searest up the sun, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty.

13 Thou hast been in * Eden the garden of God; every precious stone was thy covering, the * sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the * beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the * emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of * thy tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created.

14 Thou art the anointed * cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon * the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire.

15 Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee.

16 By the multitude of thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God: and I will destroy thee, ²O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire.

17 ¹Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty, thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness: I will cast thee to the ground, I will lay thee before kings, that they may behold thee.

18 Thou hast defiled thy sanctuaries by the multitude of thine iniquities, by the iniquity of thy traffick: therefore will I bring forth a fire from the midst of thee, it shall devour thee, and I will bring thee to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all them that behold thee.

19 All they that know thee among the people shall be astonished at thee: ²thou shalt be a terror, and never shalt thou be any more.

20 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

21 Son of man, ¹set thy face against Zidon, and prophesy against it,

22 And say, Thus saith the Lord God: ¹Behold, I am against thee, O Zidon; and I will be glorified in the midst of thee: and ²they shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall have executed judgments in her, and shall be ³sanctified in her.

23 ¹For I will send into her pestilence, and blood into her streets; and the wounded shall be judged in the midst of her by the sword upon her on every side; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

24 ¶ And there shall be no more ¹a pricking brier unto the house of Israel, nor ²any grieving thorn of all that are round about them, that despised them; and they shall know that I am the Lord God.

25 Thus saith the Lord God; When I shall have ¹gathered the house of Israel from the people among whom they are scattered, and shall be ²sanctified in them in the sight of the heathen, then shall they dwell in their land that I have given to my servant Jacob.

26 And they shall ¹dwell safely therein, and shall ²build houses, and ³plant vineyards; yea, they shall dwell with confidence, when I have executed judgments upon all those that ⁴despise them round about them; and they shall know that I am the Lord thy God.

CHAPTER XXIX.

1 The judgment of Pharaoh for his treachery to Israel. 8 The desolation of Egypt. 13 The restoration thereof after forty years. 17 Egypt the reward of Nebuchadrezzar. 21 Israel shall be restored.

589.

IN the tenth year, in the tenth month, in the twelfth day of the month, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, ¹set thy face against

Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him, and ²against all Egypt:

3 Speak, and say, Thus saith the Lord God: ¹Behold, I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great ²dragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers, ³which hath said, My river is mine own, and I have made it for myself.

4 But ¹I will put hooks in thy jaws, and I will cause the fish of thy rivers to stick unto thy scales, and I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy rivers, and all the fish of thy rivers shall stick unto thy scales.

5 And I will leave thee ¹thrown into the wilderness, thee and all the fish of thy rivers: thou shalt fall upon the ²open fields; ³thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered: ⁴I have given thee for meat to the beasts of the field and to the fowls of the heaven.

6 And all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am the Lord, because they have been a ¹staff of reed to the house of Israel.

7 ¹When they took hold of thee by thy hand, thou didst break, and rend all their shoulder: and when they leaned upon thee, thou brakest, and madest all their loins to be at a stand.

8 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will bring ¹a sword upon thee, and cut off man and beast out of thee.

9 And the land of Egypt shall be desolate and waste; and they shall know that I am the Lord: because he hath said, The river is mine, and I have made it.

CHAPTER XXXI.

1 A relation unto Pharaoh, 3 of the glory of Assyria, 10 and the fall thereof for pride. 18 The like destruction of Egypt.

AND it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude; ^a Whom art thou like in thy greatness?

3 ^q Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon ² with fair branches, and with a shadowing shroud, and of an high stature; and his top was among the thick boughs.

4 ^e The waters ³ made him great, the deep ⁴ set him up on high with her rivers running round about his plants, and sent out her ⁵ little rivers unto all the trees of the field.

5 Therefore ^d his height was exalted above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long because of the multitude of waters, ⁶ when he shot forth.

6 All the ^f fowls of heaven made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and under his shadow dwelt all great nations.

7 Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of his branches: for his root was by great waters.

8 The cedars in the ^g garden of God could not hide him: the fir trees were not like his boughs, and the chesnut trees were not like his branches; nor any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty.

9 I have made him fair by the multitude of his branches: so that all the trees of Eden, that ^h were in the garden of God, envied him.

10 ⁱ Therefore thus saith the Lord God: Because thou hast lifted up thyself in height, and he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs, and ^j his heart is lifted up in his height;

11 I have therefore delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen: ² he shall surely deal with him: I have driven him out for his wickedness.

12 And strangers, ^k the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: ^l upon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the people of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him.

13 ^m Upon his ruin shall all the fowls of the heaven remain, and all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches:

14 To the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves for their height, neither shoot up their top among the thick boughs, neither their trees ⁿ stand up in their height, all that drink water: for ^o they are all delivered unto death, ^p to the nether parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with them that go down to the pit.

15 Thus saith the Lord God: In the day when he went down to the grave I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the floods thereof, and the great waters were stayed: and I caused Lebanon ^q to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him.

16 I made the nations ^r to shake at the sound of his fall, when I ^s cast him down to hell with them that descend into the pit: and ^t all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, ^u shall be comforted in the nether parts of the earth.

17 They also went down into hell with him unto ^v them that be slain with the sword: and ^w they that were his arm, that ^x dwelt under his shadow in the midst of the heathen.

18 ^y To whom art thou thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? yet shalt thou be brought down with the trees of Eden unto the nether parts of the earth: ^z thou shalt lie in the midst of the uncircumcised with ^{aa} them that be slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord God.

AGAIN the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, speak to ^athe children of thy people, and say unto them, ^{b2}When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their coasts, and set him for their ^cwatchman:

3 If when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people;

4 Then ^cwhosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning; if the sword come, and take him away, ^dhis blood shall be upon his own head.

5 He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning; his blood shall be upon him. But he that taketh warning shall deliver his soul.

6 But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned;

7 If the sword come, and take any person from among them, ^ehe is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand.

7 ^f¶ So thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me.

8 When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

9 Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

10 Therefore, O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Israel; Thus ye speak, saying, If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we ^gpine away in them, ^hhow should we then live?

11 Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord God, ⁱI have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for ^jwhy will ye die, O house of Israel?

12 Therefore, thou son of man, say unto the children of thy people, The ^krighteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression; as for the wickedness of the wicked, ^lhe shall not fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness; neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he sinneth.

13 When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; ^mif he trust to his own righteousness, and commit iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it.

14 Again, ⁿwhen I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; if he turn from his sin, and do ^othat which is lawful and right;

15 ^pIf the wicked ^qrestore the pledge, ^rgive again that he had robbed, walk in ^sthe statutes of life, without committing iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die.

16 ^tNone of his sins that he hath committed shall be mentioned unto him: he hath done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live.

17 ^u¶ Yet the children of thy people say, The way of the Lord is not equal: but as for them, their way is not equal.

18 ^vWhen the righteous turneth from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, he shall even die thereby.

19 But if the wicked turn from his wickedness, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby.

20 ^w¶ Yet ye say, ^xThe way of the Lord is not equal. O ye house of Israel, I will judge you every one after his ways.

21 ^y¶ And it came to pass in the twelfth year ^zof our captivity, in the tenth month, ^{aa}that one that had escaped out of Jerusalem came unto me, saying, ^{ab}The city is smitten.

22 Now ^{ac}the hand of the LORD was upon me in the evening, afore he that was escaped came; and had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; ^{ad}and my mouth was opened, and I was no more dumb.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

1 A reproof of the shepherds. 7 God's judgment against them. 11 His providence for his flock. 20 The kingdom of Christ.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy against the ^ashepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God unto the shepherds; ^bWoe be to the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! should not the shepherds feed the flocks?

3 ^aYe eat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, ^aye kill them that are fed: but ye feed not the flock.

4 ^aThe diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought again that which was driven away, neither have ye sought that which was lost; but with ^bforce and with cruelty have ye ruled them.

5 ^aAnd they were ^bscattered, because there is no shepherd: ^cand they became meat to all the beasts of the field, when they were scattered.

6 My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill: yea, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did search or seek after them.

7 ^aTherefore, ye shepherds, hear the word of the Lord;

8 ^aAs I live, saith the Lord God, surely because my flock became a prey, and my flock became meat to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my flock, ^bbut the shepherds fed themselves, and fed not my flock;

9 Therefore, O ye shepherds, hear the word of the Lord;

10 Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against the shepherds; and ^aI will require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them.

11 ^aFor thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I, even I, will both search my sheep, and seek them out.

12 ^aAs a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in ^bthe cloudy and dark day.

13 And ^aI will bring them out from the people, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land, and feed them upon the mountains of Israel by the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the country.

14 ^aI will feed them in a good pasture, and upon the high mountains of Israel shall their fold be: ^bthere shall they lie in a good fold, and in a fat pasture shall they feed upon the mountains of Israel.

15 I will feed my flock, and I will cause them to lie down, saith the Lord God.

16 ^aI will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick; but I will destroy "the fat and the strong; I will feed them "with judgment.

17 And as for you, O my flock, thus saith the Lord God; "Behold, I judge between "cattle and cattle, between the rams and the "he goats.

18 Seemeth it a small thing unto you to have eaten up the good pasture, but ye must tread down with your feet the residue of your pastures? and to have drunk of the deep waters, but ye must foul the residue with your feet?

19 And as for my flock, they eat that which ye have trodden with your feet; and they drink that which ye have fouled with your feet.

20 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord God unto them; "Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat cattle and between the lean cattle.

21 Because ye have thrust with side and with shoulder, and pushed all the diseased with your horns, till ye have scattered them abroad;

22 Therefore will I save my flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and "I will judge between cattle and cattle.

23 And I will set up one "shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, "even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd.

24 And "I the Lord will be their God, and my servant David "a prince among them; and I the Lord have spoken it.

25 And "I will make with them a covenant of peace, and "will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land; and they "shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods.

26 And I will make them and the places round about "my hill "a blessing; and I will "cause the shower to come down in his season; there shall be "showers of blessing.

27 And "the tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be safe in their land, and shall know that I am the Lord, when I have "broken the bands of their yoke, and delivered them out of the hand of those that "served themselves of them.

28 And they shall no more "be a prey to the heathen, neither shall the beast of the land devour them; but "they shall dwell safely, and none shall make them afraid.

29 And I will raise up for them a "plant "of renown, and they shall be no more "consumed with hunger in the land, "neither bear the shame of the heathen any more.

30 Thus shall they know that "I the Lord their God am with them, and that they, even the house of Israel, are my people, saith the Lord God.

31 And ye my "flock, the flock of my pasture, are men, and I am your God, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER XXXV.

The judgment of mount Seir for their hatred of Israel.

MOREOVER the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,
2 Son of man, "set thy face against "mount Seir, and "prophecy against it,

3 And say unto it, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, O mount Seir, I am against thee, and "I will stretch out mine hand against thee, and I will make thee "most desolate.

4 "I will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate, and thou shalt know that I am the Lord.

5 ¶ Because thou hast had a "perpetual hatred, and hast "shed the blood of the children of Israel by the "force of the sword in the time of their calamity, "in the time that their iniquity had an end;

6 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord God, I will prepare thee unto blood, and blood shall pursue thee: "sith thou hast not hated blood, even blood shall pursue thee.

7 Thus will I make mount Seir "most desolate, and cut off from it "him that passeth out and him that returneth.

8 ¶ And I will fill his mountains with his slain men: in thy hills, and in thy valleys, and in all thy rivers, shall they fall that are slain with the sword.

9 "I will make thee perpetual desolations, and thy cities shall not return: "and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

10 Because thou hast said, These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will "possess it; "whereas "the Lord was there:

11 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord God, I will even do "according to thine anger, and according to thine envy which thou hast used out of thy hatred against them; and I will make myself known among them, when I have judged thee.

12 ¶ And thou shalt know that I am the Lord, and that I have heard all thy blasphemies which thou hast spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are hid desolate, they are given us "to consume.

13 Thus "with your mouth ye have "boasted against me, and have multiplied your words against me: I have heard them.

14 Thus saith the Lord God; "When the whole earth rejoiceth, I will make thee desolate.

15 ¶ As thou didst rejoice at the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do unto thee: "thou shalt be desolate, O mount Seir, and all Idumea, even all of it: and they shall know that I am the Lord.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

1 The land of Israel is comforted, both by destruction of the heathen, who spitefully used it, 8 and by the blessings of God promised unto it. 16 Israel was rejected for their sin, 21 and shall be restored without their desert. 25 The blessings of Christ's kingdom.

ALSO, thou son of man, prophesy unto the "mountains of Israel, and say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord:

2 Thus saith the Lord God; Because the enemy hath said against you, Aha, "even the ancient high places "are our's in possession:

3 Therefore prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord God; 2 Because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that ye might be a possession unto the residue of the heathen, "and ye are taken up in the lips of talkers, and are an infamy of the people:

4 Therefore, ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord God; Thus saith the Lord God to the mountains, and to the hills, to the "rivers, and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes, and to the cities that are forsaken, which "became a prey and "derision to the residue of the heathen that are round about;

5 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; "Surely in the fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the heathen, and against all Idumea, "which have appointed my land into their possession with the joy of all their heart, with despiteful minds, to cast it out for a prey.

6 Prophesy therefore concerning the land of Israel, and say unto the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my fury, because ye have "borne the shame of the heathen:

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; I have "lifted up mine hand, Surely the heathen that are about you, they shall bear their shame.

8 ¶ But ye, O mountains of Israel, ye shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people of Israel; for they are at hand to come.

9 For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn unto you, and ye shall be tilled and sown:

10 And I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, even all of it: and the cities shall be inhabited, and "the wastes shall be builded:

11 And "I will multiply upon you man and beast; and they shall increase and bring fruit: and I will settle you after your old estates, and will do better unto you than at your beginnings: "and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

12 Yea, I will cause men to walk upon you, even my people Israel;

"and they shall possess thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, and thou shalt no more henceforth "boreave them of men.

13 Thus saith the Lord God; Because they say unto you, "Thou land devoured up men, and hast bereaved thy nations;

14 Therefore thou shalt devour men no more, neither 2 bereave thy nations any more, saith the Lord God.

15 "Neither will I cause men to hear in thee the shame of the heathen any more, neither shalt thou bear the reproach of the people any more, neither shalt thou cause thy nations to fall any more, saith the Lord God.

16 ¶ Moreover the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

17 Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, "they defiled it by their own way and by their doings: their way was before me as "the uncleanness of a removed woman.

18 Wherefore I poured my fury upon them "for the blood that they had shed upon the land, and for their idols wherewith they had polluted it:

19 And I "scattered them among the heathen, and they were dispersed through the countries: "according to their way and according to their doings I judged them.

20 And when they entered unto the heathen, whither they went, they "profaned my holy name, when they said to them, These are the people of the Lord, and are gone forth out of his land.

21 ¶ But I had pity "for mine holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the heathen, whither they went.

22 Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God; I do not this for your sakes, O house of Israel, "but for mine holy name's sake, which ye have profaned among the heathen, whither ye went.

23 And I will sanctify my great name, which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the heathen shall know that I am the Lord, saith the Lord God, when I shall be "sanctified in you before 3 their eyes.

24 For "I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land.

25 ¶ Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean "from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you.

26 A "new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh.

27 And I will put my "spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do them.

28 ^a And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; ^a and ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.

29 I will also ^a save you from all your uncleannesses: and ^a I will call for the corn, and will increase it, and ^a lay no famine upon you.

30 ^a And I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that ye shall receive no more reproach of famine among the heathen.

31 Then ^a shall ye remember your own evil ways, and your doings that were not good, and ^a shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations.

32 ^a Not for your sakes do I this, saith the Lord God, be it known unto you: be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Israel.

33 Thus saith the Lord God; In the day that I shall have cleansed you from all your iniquities I will also cause you to dwell in the cities, ^a and the wastes shall be builded.

34 And the desolate land shall be tilled, whereas it lay desolate in the sight of all that passed by.

35 And they shall say, This land that was desolate is become like the garden of Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are become fenced, and are inhabited.

36 Then the heathen that are left round about you shall know that I the Lord build the ruined places, and plant that that was desolate: ^a I the Lord have spoken it, and I will do it.

37 Thus saith the Lord God; ^a I will yet for this be enquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them; I will ^a increase them with men like a flock.

38 As the ^a holy flock, as the flock of Jerusalem in her solemn feasts; so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men: and they shall know that I am the Lord.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

1 By the resurrection of dry bones, 11 the dead hope of Israel is revived, 15 By the writing of two sticks, 18 is shewed the incorporation of Israel into Judah. 20 The promises of Christ's kingdom.

THE ^a hand of the Lord was upon me, and carried me out ^a in the spirit of the Lord, and set me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones,

2 And caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open ^a valley; and, lo, they were very dry.

3 And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord God, ^a thou knowest.

4 Again he said unto me, Prophecy upon these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the Lord.

5 Thus saith the Lord God unto these bones; Behold, I will ^a cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live:

6 And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; ^a and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

7 So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone.

8 And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them.

9 Then said he unto me, Prophecy unto the ^a wind, prophecy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord God; ^a Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.

10 So I prophesied as he commanded me, ^a and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army.

11 ^a Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, ^a Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost: we are cut off for our parts.

12 Therefore prophecy and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, ^a O my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and ^a bring you into the land of Israel.

13 And ye shall know that I am the Lord, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up out of your graves, 14 And ^a shall put my spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the Lord have spoken it, and performed it, saith the Lord.

15 ^a The word of the Lord came again unto me, saying,

16 Moreover, thou son of man, ^a take thee one stick, and write upon it, For Judah, and for ^a the children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel his companions:

17 And ^a join them one to another into one stick; and they shall become one in thine hand.

18 ^a And when the children of thy people shall speak unto thee, saying, ^a Wilt thou not shew us what thou meanest by these?

19 ^a Say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will take ^a the land, *that the heathen may know me, when I shall be sanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes.

1 The army, 8 and malice of Gog. 14 Gog's judgment against him.

17 Thus saith the Lord God: Art thou he of whom I have spoken in old time *by my servants the prophets of Israel, which prophesied in those days many years that I would bring thee against them?

18 And it shall come to pass at the same time when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord God, that my fury shall come up in my face.

19 For *in my jealousy *and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel;

20 So that *the fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep upon the earth, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, shall shake at my presence, *and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground.

21 And I will *call for *a sword against him throughout all my mountains, saith the Lord God: *every man's sword shall be against his brother.

22 And I will *plead against him with *pestilence and with blood; and *I will rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people that are with him, an overflowing rain, and *great hailstones, fire, and brimstone.

23 Thus will I magnify myself, and *sanctify myself; *and I will be known in the eyes of many nations, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER XXXIX.

1 God's judgment upon Gog. 8 Israel's victory. 11 Gog's burial in Hamon-gog. 17 The feast of the fowls. 23 Israel, having been plagued for their sins, shall be gathered again with eternal favour.

THEREFORE, *thou son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal:

2 And I will turn thee back, and *leave but the sixth part of thee, *and will cause thee to come up from the north parts, and will bring thee upon the mountains of Israel:

3 And I will smite thy bow out of thy left hand, and will cause thine arrows to fall out of thy right hand.

4 *Thou shalt fall upon the mountains of Israel, thou, and all thy bands, and the people that is with thee: *I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field *to be devoured.

5 Thou shalt fall upon *the open field: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord God.

6 *And I will send a fire on Magog, and among them that dwell *carelessly in the isles: and they shall know that I am the Lord.

7 *So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel; and I will not let them *pollute my holy name any more: *and the heathen shall know that I am the Lord, the Holy One in Israel.

8 *Behold, it is come, and it is done, saith the Lord God; this is the day *whereof I have spoken.

9 And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and shall set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the handstaves, and the spears, and they shall *burn them with fire seven years:

10 So that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall burn the weapons with fire: *and they shall spoil those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord God.

11 *And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto Gog a place there of graves in Israel, the valley of the passengers on the east of the sea; and it shall stop the *noses of the passengers: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude: and they shall call it The valley of *Hamon-gog.

12 And seven months shall the house of Israel be burying of them, *that they may cleanse the land.

13 Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them a renown the day that *I shall be glorified, saith the Lord God.

14 And they shall sever out *men of continual employment, passing through the land to bury with the passengers those that remain upon the face of the earth, *to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search.

15 And the passengers that pass through the land, when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he *set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamon-gog.

16 And also the name of the city shall be *Hamonah. Thus shall they *cleanse the land.

17 *And, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord God: *Speak thou unto every feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field, *Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my *sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice *upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may eat flesh, and drink blood.

18 *Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you.

20 Thus ye shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord God.

21 And I will set my glory among the heathen, and all the heathen shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid upon them.

22 So the house of Israel shall know that I am the Lord their God from that day and forward.

23 And the heathen shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity: because they trespassed against me, therefore hid I my face from them, and gave them into the hand of their enemies: so fell they all by the sword.

24 According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions have I done unto them, and hid my face from them.

25 Therefore thus saith the Lord God: Now will I bring again the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon the whole house of Israel, and will be jealous for my holy name;

26 After that they have borne their shame, and all their trespasses whereby they have trespassed against me, when they dwelt safely in their land, and none made them afraid.

27 When I have brought them again from the people, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations;

28 Then shall they know that I am the Lord their God, which caused them to be led into captivity among the heathen: but I have gathered them unto their own land, and have left none of them any more there.

29 Neither will I hide my face any more from them: for I have poured out my spirit upon the house of Israel, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER XL.

1 The time, manner, and end of the vision.
6 The description of the east gate, 20 of the north gate, 24 of the south gate, 32 of the east gate, 35 and of the north gate, 39 Eight tables. 44 The chambers. 48 The porch of the house.

IN the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that the city was smitten, in the selfsame day the hand of the Lord was upon me, and brought me thither.

2 In the visions of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me upon a very high mountain, by which was as the frame of a city on the south.

3 And he brought me thither, and, behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate.

4 And the man said unto me, Son of man, behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, and set thine heart upon all that I shall shew thee; for to the intent that I might shew them unto thee art thou brought hither: declare all that thou seest to the house of Israel.

5 And behold a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a measuring reed of six cubits long by the cubit and an hand breadth: so he measured the breadth of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed.

6 Then came he unto the gate which looketh toward the east, and went up the stairs thereof, and measured the threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad; and the other threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad.

7 And every little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad; and between the little chambers were five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate within was one reed.

8 He measured also the porch of the gate within, one reed.

9 Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and the posts thereof, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was inward.

10 And the little chambers of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side.

11 And he measured the breadth of the entry of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits.

12 The space also before the little chambers was one cubit on this side, and the space was one cubit on that side: and the little chambers were six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side.

13 He measured then the gate from the roof of one little chamber to the roof of another: the breadth was five and twenty cubits, door against door.

14 He made also posts of threescore cubits, even unto the post of the court round about the gate.

15 And from the face of the gate of the entrance unto the face of the porch of the inner gate were fifty cubits.

16 And there were narrow windows to the little chambers, and to their posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the arches: and windows were round about ² inward: and upon each post were palm trees.

17 Then brought he me into ³ the outward court, and, lo, there were ⁴ chambers, and a pavement made for the court round about: ⁵ thirty chambers were upon the pavement.

18 And the pavement by the side of the gates over against the length of the gates was the lower pavement.

19 Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate unto the forefront of the inner court ⁶ without, an hundred cubits eastward and northward.

20 ¶ And the gate of the outward court ⁷ that looked toward the north, he measured the length thereof, and the breadth thereof.

21 And the little chambers thereof were three on this side and three on that side; and the posts thereof and the ⁸ arches thereof were after the measure of the first gate: the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

22 And their windows, and their arches, and their palm trees, were after the measure of the gate that looketh toward the east; and they went up unto it by seven steps; and the arches thereof were before them.

23 And the gate of the inner court was over against the gate toward the north, and toward the east; and he measured from gate to gate an hundred cubits.

24 ¶ After that he brought me toward the south, and behold a gate toward the south: and he measured the posts thereof and the arches thereof according to these measures.

25 And there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

26 And there were seven steps to go up to it, and the arches thereof were before them: and it had palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side, upon the posts thereof.

27 And there was a gate in the inner court toward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south an hundred cubits.

28 And he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate according to these measures;

29 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

30 And the arches round about were ⁹ five and twenty cubits long, and five cubits ¹⁰ broad.

31 And the arches thereof were toward the utter court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof: and the going up to it had eight steps.

32 ¶ And he brought me into the inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate according to these measures.

33 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, were according to these measures: and there were windows therein and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

34 And the arches thereof were toward the outward court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

35 ¶ And he brought me to the north gate, and measured it according to these measures;

36 The little chambers thereof, the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, and the windows to it round about: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

37 And the posts thereof were toward the utter court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

38 And the chambers and the entries thereof were by the posts of the gates, where they washed the burnt offering.

39 ¶ And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to slay thereon the burnt offering and ¹¹ the sin offering and ¹² the trespass offering.

40 And at the side without, ¹³ as one goeth up to the entry of the north gate, were two tables; and on the other side, which was at the porch of the gate, were two tables.

41 Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they slew their sacrifices.

42 And the four tables were of hewn stone for the burnt offering, of a cubit and an half long, and a cubit and an half broad, and one cubit high: whereupon also they laid the instruments wherewith they slew the burnt offering and the sacrifice.

43 And within were ¹⁴ hooks, an hand broad, fastened round about: and upon the tables was the flesh of the offering.

44 ¶ And without the inner gate were the chambers of ¹⁵ the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south: one at the side of the east gate having the prospect toward the north.

46 And the chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, 'the keepers of the charge of the altar: these are the sons of 'Zadok among the sons of Levi, which come near to the LORD to minister unto him.

47 So he measured the court, an hundred cubits long, and an hundred cubits broad, foursquare; and the altar that was before the house.

48 ¶ And he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side.

49 ¶ The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits; and he brought me by the steps whereby they went up to it: and there were 'pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

CHAPTER XLI.

The measures, parts, chambers, and ornaments of the temple.

AFTERWARD he brought me to the temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the tabernacle.

2 And the breadth of the ³ door was ten cubits; and the sides of the door were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured the length thereof, forty cubits: and the breadth, twenty cubits.

3 Then went he inward, and measured the post of the door, two cubits; and the door, six cubits; and the breadth of the door, seven cubits.

4 So 'he measured the length thereof, twenty cubits; and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the temple: and he said unto me, This is the most holy place.

5 After he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of every side chamber, four cubits, round about the house on every side.

6 ^b And the side chambers were three, ⁴ one over another, and ⁵ thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which was of the house for the side chambers round about, that they might ⁶ have hold, but they had not hold in the wall of the house.

7 And ^{7c} there was an enlarging, and a winding about still upward to the side chambers: for the winding about of the house went still upward round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house was still upward, and so increased from the lowest chamber to the highest by the midst.

8 I saw also the height of the house round about: the foundations of the side chambers were 'a full reed of six great cubits.

9 The thickness of the wall, which was for the side chamber without, was five cubits: and that which was left was the place of the side chambers that were within.

10 And between the chambers was the wideness of twenty cubits round about the house on every side.

11 And the doors of the side chambers were toward the place that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits round about.

12 Now the building that was before the separate place at the end toward the west was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof ninety cubits.

13 So he measured the house, an hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with the walls thereof, an hundred cubits long;

14 Also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, an hundred cubits.

15 And he measured the length of the building over against the separate place which was behind it, and the ² galleries thereof on the one side and on the other side, an hundred cubits, with the inner temple, and the porches of the court;

16 The door posts, and 'the narrow windows, and the galleries round about on their three stories, over against the door, ³ ciled with wood round about, ⁴ and from the ground up to the windows, and the windows were covered;

17 To that above the door, even unto the inner house, and without, and by all the wall round about within and without, by ⁵ measure.

18 And it was made 'with cherubims and palm trees, so that a palm tree was between a cherub and a cherub; and every cherub had two faces;

19 ⁹ So that the face of a man was toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side: it was made through all the house round about.

20 From the ground unto above the door were cherubims and palm trees made, and on the wall of the temple.

21 The ⁶ posts of the temple were squared, and the face of the sanctuary; the appearance of the one as the appearance of the other.

22 ^b The altar of wood was three cubits high, and the length thereof two cubits; and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls there-

1 The chambers for the priests. 13 The use thereof. 19 The measures of the outward court.

THEN he brought me forth into the utter court, the way toward the north: and he brought me into ^athe chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was before the building toward the north.

2 Before the length of an hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits.

3 Over against the twenty cubits which were for the inner court, and over against the pavement which was for the utter court, was ^bgallery against gallery in three stories.

4 And before the chambers was a walk of ten cubits breadth inward, a way of one cubit; and their doors toward the north.

5 Now the upper chambers were shorter: for the galleries ²were higher than these, ³than the lower, and than the middlemost of the building.

6 For they were in three stories, but had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the building was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground.

7 And the wall that was without over against the chambers, toward the utter court on the forepart of the chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubits.

8 For the length of the chambers that were in the utter court was fifty cubits: and, 10, before the temple were an hundred cubits.

9 And ⁴from under these chambers was ⁵the entry on the east side, ⁶as one goeth into them from the utter court.

10 The Chambers were in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, over against the separate place, and over against the building.

11 And ^athe way before them was like the appearance of the chambers which were toward the north, as long as they, and as broad as they: and all their goings out were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors.

12 And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one entereth into them.

13 ⁷Then said he unto me, The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the separate place, they be holy chambers, where the priests that approach unto the LORD ^ashall eat the most holy things; there shall they lay the most holy things, and ^athe meat offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; for the place is holy.

14 ^aWhen the priests enter therein, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the utter court, but there they shall lay their garments wherein they minister; for they are holy; and shall put on other garments, and shall approach to those things which are for the people.

15 Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth toward the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it round about.

16 He measured the east ^aside with the measuring reed, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about.

17 He measured the north side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about.

18 He measured the south side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed.

19 ⁹He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed.

20 He measured it by the four sides: ¹⁰it had a wall round about, ^afive hundred reeds long, and five hundred broad, to make a separation between the sanctuary and the profane place.

CHAPTER XLIII.

1 The returning of the glory of God into the temple. 7 The sin of Israel hindered God's presence. 10 The prophet exhorteth them to repentance, and observation of the law of the house. 13 The measures, 18 and the ordinances of the altar.

AFTERWARD he brought me to the gate, even the gate ^athat looketh toward the east:

2 ^bAnd, behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east: and ^ahis voice was like a noise of many waters: ^aand the earth shined with his glory.

3 And it was ^aaccording to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw ^awhen I came ^ato destroy the city: and the visions were like the vision that I saw ^aby the river Chebar; and I fell upon my face.

4 ^A And the glory of the LORD came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east.

5 ^S So the spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and, behold, ^A the glory of the LORD filled the house.

6 And I heard him speaking unto me out of the house; and the man stood by me.

7 [¶] And he said unto me, Son of man, ^{the} the place of my throne, and ^{the} the place of the soles of my feet, ^{where} where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever, and my holy name, shall the house of Israel ^{no} no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor by ^{the} the carcases of their kings in their high places.

8 ^I In their setting of their threshold by my thresholds, and their post by my posts, and the wall between me and them, they have even defiled my holy name by their abominations; that they have committed: wherefore I have consumed them in mine anger.

9 Now let them put away their whoredom, and ^{the} the carcases of their kings, far from me, ^{and} and I will dwell in the midst of them for ever.

10 [¶] Thou son of man, ^{shew} shew the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities: and let them measure the ^{pattern} pattern.

11 And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, shew them the form of the house, and the fashion thereof, and the goings out thereof, and the comings in thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the laws thereof: and write it in their sight, that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and do them.

12 ^{This} This is the law of the house; Upon ^{the} the top of the mountain the whole limit thereof round about shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

13 [¶] And these are the measures of the altar after the cubits: ^{The} The cubit is a cubit and an hand breadth; even the ^{bottom} bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the ^{edge} edge thereof round about shall be a span: and this shall be the higher place of the altar.

14 And from the bottom upon the ground even to the lower settle shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser settle even to the greater settle shall be four cubits, and the breadth one cubit.

15 So ^{the} the altar shall be four cubits; and from ^{the} the altar and upward shall be four horns.

16 And the altar shall be twelve cubits long, twelve broad, square in the four squares thereof.

17 And the settle shall be fourteen cubits long and fourteen broad in the four squares thereof; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit about; and ^{his} his stairs shall look toward the east.

18 [¶] And he said unto me, Son of man, thus saith the Lord God: These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt offerings thereon, and to ^{sprinkle} sprinkle blood thereon.

19 And thou shalt give to ^{the} the priests the Levites that be of the seed of Zadok, which approach unto me, to minister unto me, saith the Lord God, ^a a young bullock for a sin offering.

20 And thou shalt take of the blood thereof, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the settle, and upon the border round about: thus shalt thou cleanse and purge it.

21 Thou shalt take the bullock also of the sin offering, and he shall burn it in the appointed place of the house, ^{without} without the sanctuary.

22 And on the second day thou shalt offer a kid of the goats without blemish for a sin offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they did cleanse it with the bullock.

23 When thou hast made an end of cleansing it, thou shalt offer a young bullock without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without blemish.

24 And thou shalt offer them before the Lord, and the priests shall cast salt upon them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt offering unto the Lord.

25 ^{Seven} Seven days shalt thou prepare every day a goat for a sin offering: they shall also prepare a young bullock, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish.

26 Seven days shall they purge the altar and purify it; and they shall ^{consecrate} consecrate themselves.

27 [¶] And when these days are expired, it shall be, that upon the eighth day, and so forward, the priests shall make your burnt offerings upon the altar, and your ^{peace} peace offerings; and I will ^{accept} accept you, saith the Lord God.

CHAPTER XLIV.

gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it; ⁴because the LORD, the God of Israel, hath entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut.

⁸It is for the prince; the prince, he shall sit in it to eat bread before the LORD; ⁹he shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate, and shall go out by the way of the same.

⁴¶ Then brought he me the way of the north gate before the house: and I looked, and, ⁵behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD: ⁶and I fell upon my face.

⁵And the LORD said unto me, ⁶Son of man, mark well, and behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears all that I say unto thee concerning all the ordinances of the house of the LORD, and all the laws thereof; and mark well the entering in of the house, with every going forth of the sanctuary.

⁶And thou shalt say to the ⁷rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus saith the LORD God; O ye house of Israel, ⁸let it suffice you of all your abominations,

⁷¶ In that ye have brought into my sanctuary ⁸strangers, ⁹uncircumcised in heart, and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to pollute it, ¹⁰even my house, when ye offer ¹¹my bread, ¹²the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant because of all your abominations.

⁸And ye have not ⁹kept the charge of mine holy things; but ye have set keepers of my ¹⁰charge in my sanctuary for yourselves.

⁹¶ Thus saith the LORD God; ¹⁰No stranger, uncircumcised in heart, nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any stranger that is among the children of Israel.

¹⁰¶ And the Levites that are gone away far from me, when Israel went astray, which went astray away from me after their idols; they shall even bear their iniquity.

¹¹Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, ¹²having charge at the gates of the house, and ministering to the house: ¹³they shall slay the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and ¹⁴they shall stand before them to minister unto them.

¹²Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and ¹³caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity; therefore have I ¹⁴lifted up mine hand against them, saith the LORD God, and they shall bear their iniquity.

¹³¶ And they shall not come near unto me, to do the office of a priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, in the most holy place: but they shall ¹⁴bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed.

¹⁴But I will make them ¹⁵keepers of the charge of the house, for all the service thereof, and for all that shall be done therein.

¹⁵¶ But the priests the Levites, ¹⁶the sons of Zadok, that kept the charge of my sanctuary ¹⁷when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister unto me, and they shall stand before me to offer unto me ¹⁸the fat and the blood, saith the LORD God:

¹⁶They shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to ¹⁷my table, to minister unto me, and they shall keep my charge.

¹⁷¶ And it shall come to pass, that when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, ¹⁸they shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come upon them, whilst they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within.

¹⁸¶ They shall have linen bonnets upon their heads, and shall have linen breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves ¹⁹with any thing that causeth sweat.

¹⁹And when they go forth into the utter court, ²⁰even into the utter court to the people, ²¹they shall put off their garments wherein they ministered, and lay them in the holy chambers, and they shall put on other garments; and they shall ²²not sanctify the people with their garments.

²⁰¶ Neither shall they shave their heads, nor suffer their locks to grow long; they shall only poll their heads.

²¹¶ Neither shall any priest drink wine, when they enter into the inner court.

²²Neither shall they take for their wives a ²³widow, nor her that is ²⁴put away: but they shall take maidens of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow ²⁵that had a priest before.

²³And ²⁴they shall teach my people the difference between the holy and profane, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean.

²⁴And ²⁵in controversy they shall stand in judgment; and they shall judge it according to my judgments: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all mine assemblies; ²⁶and they shall hallow my sabbaths.

²⁵And they shall come at no ²⁶dead person to defile themselves: but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister that hath had no husband, they may defile themselves.

²⁶And ²⁷after he is cleansed, they shall reckon unto him seven days.

²⁷And in the day that he goeth into the sanctuary, ²⁸unto the inner court,

30 And the ³first of all the first-fruits of all ⁴things, and every oblation of all, of every sort of your oblations, shall be the priest's: ye ⁴shall also give unto the priest the first of your dough, ⁵that he may cause the blessing to rest in thine house.

31 The priests shall not eat of any thing that is ¹dead of itself, or torn, whether it be fowl or beast.

CHAPTER XLV.

1 The portion of land for the sanctuary, 6 for the city, 7 and for the prince. 9 Ordinances for the prince.

MOREOVER, ⁴when ye shall ⁵divide by lot the land for inheritance, ye shall ⁶offer an oblation unto the Lord, ⁵a holy portion of the land: the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand. This shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about.

2 Of this there shall be for the sanctuary ⁵five hundred in length, with five hundred in breadth, square round about; and fifty cubits round about for the ⁶suburbs thereof.

3 And of this measure shalt thou measure the length of five and twenty thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand: ⁴and in it shall be the sanctuary and the most holy place.

4 ⁶The holy portion of the land shall be for the priests the ministers of the sanctuary, which shall come near to minister unto the Lord: and it shall be a place for their houses, and an holy place for the sanctuary.

5 ¹And the five and twenty thousand of length, and the ten thousand of breadth, shall also the Levites, the ministers of the house, have for themselves, for a possession for ²twenty chambers.

6 ³And ye shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, over against the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel.

7 ⁴And a portion shall be for the prince on the one side and on the other side of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the city, before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the city, from the west side westward, and from the east side eastward: and the length shall be over against one of the portions, from the west border unto the east border.

8 In the land shall be his possession in Israel: and ²my princes shall no more oppress my people; and the rest of the land shall they give to the house of Israel according to their tribes.

9 ¹Thus saith the Lord God; ¹Let it suffice you, O princes of Israel: ²remove violence and spoil, and execute judgment and justice, take away your ²exactions from my people, saith the Lord God.

10 Ye shall have just ³balances, and a just ephah, and a just bath.

11 The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of an homer, and the ephah the tenth part of an homer: the measure thereof shall be after the homer.

12 And the ⁵shekel shall be twenty gerahs: twenty shekels, five and twenty shekels, fifteen shekels, shall be your maneh.

13 This ¹is the oblation that ye shall offer: the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of wheat, and ye shall give the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of barley:

14 Concerning the ordinance of oil, the bath of oil, ye shall offer the tenth part of a bath out of the cor, which is an homer of ten baths; for ten baths are an homer:

15 And one ³lamb out of the flock, out of two hundred, out of the fat pastures of Israel; for a meat offering, and for a burnt offering, and for ⁴peace offerings, ⁵to make reconciliation for them, saith the Lord God.

16 All the people of the land ⁵shall give this oblation ⁶for the prince in Israel.

17 And it shall be the prince's part to give burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and drink offerings, in the feasts, and in the new moons, and in the sabbaths, in all solemnities of the house of Israel: he shall prepare the sin offering, and the meat offering, and the burnt offering, and the ⁷peace offerings, to make reconciliation for the house of Israel.

18 Thus saith the Lord God; In the first month, in the first day of the month, thou shalt take a young bullock without blemish, and ⁹cleanse the sanctuary:

19 ⁷And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering, and put it upon the posts of the house and upon the four corners of the settle of the altar, and upon the posts of the gate of the inner court.

20 And so thou shalt do the seventh day of the month ⁴for every one that erreth, and for him that is simple: so shall ye reconcile the house.

25 In the seventh month, in the fifteenth day of the month, shall he do the like in the ^afeast of the seven days, according to the sin offering, according to the burnt offering, and according to the meat offering, and according to the oil.

CHAPTER XLVI.

1 Ordinances for the prince in his worship. 9 and for the people. 16 An order for the prince's inheritance. 19 The courts for boiling and baking.

THUS saith the Lord God; The gate of the inner court that looketh toward the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the sabbath it shall be opened, and in the day of the new moon it shall be opened.

2 ^aAnd the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate without, and shall stand by the post of the gate, and the priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate: then he shall go forth; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening.

3 Likewise the people of the land shall worship at the door of this gate before the Lord in the sabbaths and in the new moons.

4 And the burnt offering that ^bthe prince shall offer unto the Lord in the sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish, and a ram without blemish.

5 ^aAnd the meat offering shall be an ephah for a ram, and the meat offering for the lambs ^aas he shall be able to give, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

6 And in the day of the new moon it shall be a young bullock without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram: they shall be without blemish.

7 And he shall prepare a meat offering, an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs according as his hand shall attain unto, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

8 ^aAnd when the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of that gate, and he shall go forth by the way thereof.

9 ^aBut when the people of the land shall come before the Lord in the solemn feasts, he that entereth in by the way of the north gate to worship shall go out by the way of the south gate; and he that entereth by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate whereby he came in, but shall go forth over against it.

10 And the prince in the midst of them, when they go in, shall go in; and when they go forth, shall go forth.

11 And in the feasts and in the solemnities the meat offering shall be an ephah to a bullock, and an ephah to a ram, and to the lambs as he is able to give, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

12 Now when the prince shall prepare a voluntary burnt offering or peace offerings voluntarily unto the Lord, ^aone shall then open him the gate that looketh toward the east, and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, as he did on the sabbath day: then he shall go forth; and after his going forth one shall shut the gate.

13 ^aThou shalt daily prepare a burnt offering unto the Lord of a lamb ^aof the first year without blemish: thou shalt prepare it ^aevery morning.

14 And thou shalt prepare a meat offering for it every morning, the sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of an hin of oil, to temper with the fine flour; a meat offering continually by a perpetual ordinance unto the Lord.

15 Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meat offering, and the oil, every morning for a continual burnt offering.

16 ^aThus saith the Lord God; If the prince give a gift unto any of his sons, the inheritance thereof shall be his sons': it shall be their possession by inheritance.

17 But if he give a gift of his inheritance to one of his servants, then it shall be his to ^athe year of liberty; after it shall return to the prince: but his inheritance shall be his sons' for them.

18 Moreover ^athe prince shall not take of the people's inheritance by oppression, to thrust them out of their possession; but he shall give his sons inheritance out of his own possession: that my people be not scattered every man from his possession.

19 ^aAfter he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers of the priests, which looked toward the north: and, behold, there was a place on the two sides westward.

20 Then said he unto me, This is the place where the priests shall ^aboil the trespass offering and the sin offering, where they shall ^abake the meat offering; that they bear them not out into the utter court, ^ato sanctify the people,

CHAPTER XLVII.

1 The vision of the holy waters. 6 The virtue of them. 13 The borders of the land. 22 The division of it by lot.

AFTERWARD he brought me again unto the door of the house; and, behold, ^awaters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward: for the forefront of the house stood toward the east, and the waters came down from under from the right side of the house, at the south side of the altar.

2 Then brought he me out of the way of the gate northward, and led me about the way without unto the utter gate by the way that looketh eastward; and, behold, there ran out waters on the right side.

3 And when ^bthe man that had the line in his hand went forth eastward, he measured a thousand cubits, and he brought me through the waters; the ^cwaters were to the ancles.

4 Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through the waters; the waters were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through; the waters were to the loins.

5 Afterward he measured a thousand; and ^dit was a river that I could not pass over: for the waters were risen, ^ewaters to swim in, a river that could not be passed over.

6 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen ^fthis? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the brink of the river.

7 Now when I had returned, behold, at the ^gbank of the river were very many ^gtrees on the one side and on the other.

8 Then said he unto me, These waters issue out toward the east country, and go down into the ^hdesert, and go into the sea: ^hwhich being brought forth into the sea, the waters shall be healed.

9 And it shall come to pass, that every thing that liveth, which moveth, whithersoever the ⁱrivers shall come, shall live; and there shall be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come thither: for they shall be healed; and every thing shall live whither the river cometh.

10 And it shall come to pass, that the fishers shall stand upon it from En-gedi even unto En-eglaim; they shall be a place to spread forth nets; their fish shall be according to their kinds, as the fish ^jof the great sea, exceeding many.

11 But the miry places thereof and the marishes thereof ^kshall not be healed; they shall be given to salt.

12 And ^lby the river upon the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, ^lshall grow all trees for meat, ^lwhose leaf shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof be consumed: it shall bring forth ^mnew fruit according to his months, because their waters they issued out of the sanctuary: and the fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof ⁿfor ⁿmedicine.

13 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; This shall be the border, whereby ye shall inherit the land according to the twelve tribes of Israel: ^oJoseph shall have two portions.

14 And ye shall inherit it, one as well as another: concerning the which I ^plifted up mine hand to give it unto your fathers: and this land shall ^qfall unto you for inheritance.

15 And this shall be the border of the land toward the north side, from the great sea, ^rthe way of Hethlon, as men go to ^rZedad:

16 ^sHamath, ^sBerothaim, Sibraim, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; ^tHazar-hatticon, which is by the coast of Hauran.

17 And the border from the sea shall be ^uHazar-cnan, the border of Damascus, and the north northward, and the border of Hamath. And ^vthis is the north side.

18 And the east side ye shall measure ^wfrom Hauran, and from Damascus, and from Gilead, and from the land of Israel by Jordan, from the border unto the east sea. And ^xthis is the east side.

19 And the south side southward, from Tamar even to ^ythe waters of ^ystrife in Kadesh, the ^zriver to the great sea. And ^zthis is the south side southward.

20 The west side also shall be the great sea from the border, till a man come over against Hamath. This is the west side.

THE BOOK OF DANIEL.

CHAPTER I.

1 Jehoiakim's captivity. 3 Ashpenaz taketh Daniel, Hananiah, Michael, and Azariah. 8 Their refusing the king's portion do prosper with pulse and water. 17 Their excellency in wisdom.

IN the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah 'came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem, and besieged it.

2 And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with 'part of the vessels of the house of God: which he carried 'into the land of Shinar to the house of his god; and he brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god.

3 And the king spake unto Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring certain of the children of Israel, and of the king's seed, and of the princes;

4 Children 'in whom was no blemish, but well favoured, and skilful in all wisdom, and understanding science, and such as had ability in them to stand in the king's palace, and whom they might teach the learning and the tongue of the Chaldeans.

5 And the king appointed them a daily provision of the king's meat, and of 2 the wine which he drank: so nourishing them three years, that at the end thereof they might stand before the king.

6 Now among these were of the children of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Michael, and Azariah:

7 Unto whom the prince of the eunuchs gave names: for he gave unto Daniel the name of Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Mishael, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abiel-nego.

8 But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself.

9 Now 'God had brought Daniel into favour and tender love with the prince of the eunuchs.

10 And the prince of the eunuchs said unto Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your meat and your drink: for why should he see your faces 2 worse liking than the children which are of your sort? then shall ye make me endanger my head to the king.

11 Then said Daniel to 4 Melzar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, 12 Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us pulse to eat, and water to drink.

13 Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat of the portion of the king's meat: and as thou seest, deal with thy servants.

14 So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days.

15 And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat the portion of the king's meat.

16 Thus Melzar took away the portion of their meat, and the wine that 17 ¶ As for these four children, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams.

18 Now at the end of the days that the king had said he should bring them in, then the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar.

19 And the king communed with them; and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore stood they before the king.

CHAPTER II.

1 Nebuchadnezzar, forgetting his dream, requireth it of the Chaldeans, by promises and threatenings. 10 They acknowledging their inability are judged to die. 14 Daniel obtaining some respite, telleth the dream. 19 He bleaseth God. 24 He shewing the decree is brought to the king. 31 The dream. 36 The interpretation. 45 Daniel's advancement.

AND in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams, where with his spirit was troubled, and his sleep brake from him.

2 ¶ Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, for to shew the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king.

3 And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled to know the dream.

4 Then spake the Chaldeans to the king in Syriack, O king, live for ever: tell thy servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation.

5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill.

6 But if ye shew the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and rewards and great honour: therefore shew me the dream, and the interpretation thereof.

7 They answered again and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation of it.

8 The king answered and said, I know of certainty that ye would gain the time, because ye see the thing is gone from me.

9 But if ye will not make known unto me the dream, there is but one decree for you: for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof.

10 ¶ The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can shew the king's matter: therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, that asked such things at any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean.

11 And it is a rare thing that the king requireth, and there is none other that can shew it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.

12 For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.

13 And the decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they sought Daniel and his fellows to be slain.

14 ¶ Then Daniel answered with counsel and wisdom to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, which was come forth to slay the wise men of Babylon:

15 He answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel.

16 Then Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would shew the king the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions:

18 ¶ That they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his fellows should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

19 ¶ Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel in a night vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven.

20 Daniel answered and said, Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever: for wisdom and might are his:

21 And he changeth the times and the seasons: he removeth kings, and setteth up kings: he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding:

22 ¶ He revealeth the deep and secret things: he knoweth what is in the darkness, and the light dwelleth with him.

23 I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast made known unto me now what we desired of thee: for thou hast now made known unto us the king's matter.
